MASSINGHAM MAGNA, OR DERTFORD'S.

AT the survey no distinction is made of the townships of Great and Little Massingham, so that it seems at that time to be undivided, and occurs under the name of Masincham, and Marsincham, being seated on a wet, or marshy meadow or common. The principal manor was then in King William the Conqueror.

Herold was lord of it in the time of the Confessor, (and when he was King, and slain at the battle of Hastings) when there were 3 carucates of land and 4 villains, and when Roger (Bigot) farmed it under the King, one borderer, 4 servi, and an acre of meadow, 2 carucates in demean, paunage for 10 swine, and 25 socmen belonged to it, with 3 carucates and 20 acres of land; there were also 6 carucates and an half, &c. valued then at 40s. at the survey at 10*l.* per ann. but of the 25 socmen in King Edward's time with all their customary duties belonging to this manor, Wido Angevin has 20, who held 2 carucates of land, with 58 acres and the fourth part of an acre. William de Warren has also 3 of them, who hold 120 acres and an half, and Roger Bigot has one with 15 acres; and William de Sores one, with 10 acres. Ralph Baynard had also taken possession of the lands of 14 freemen, with 12 villains. The whole was one mile long, and half a mile broad, and paid 20*d.* to a 20s. gelt.¹

Besides this lordsip, the Conqueror had in the hundred of Docking, Southmere, Titchwell, and Stanho;—in Weyland hundred, Saham,

This lordship remained in the Crown till King Henry I. gave it to Robert, son of Ernsius, whose son Eudo enjoyed it; but Robert, Eudo's son, rebelling against King John, it was granted September 15, by that King's letters patents dated at Winchester in his 18th year to Jeffrey Fitz-Peter Earl of Essex, whose sons, Jeffrey and William de Mandevile, Earls of Essex, by Beatrice his first wife, daughter of William de Say, inherited it, and dying without issue it came to John Fitz John, who was son of John Fitz Jeffrey, son of Jeffrey Fitz-Peter, the aforesaid Earl of Essex, by his second wife, Aveline.

William de Maunderville Earl of Essex, and lord, gave to Elias de Chcndut 100s. rent per ann. out of this lordship, and enfeoff Geffrey, son of John Le Syre, in 18 acres and an half of land, and in service due to him in harvest, with his part of the heath, and one mark per ann. rent to be paid out of the same to the nuns of Shouldham.

John Lord Fitz John, in the 3d of Edward I. granted Roger Bishop of Norwich, and to the church of the Holy Trinity of Norwich, the advowson of the church of St. Mary of Massingham, belonging to this lordship: on his death it came to his brother, Richard Fitz John, Ao. 4 of Edward I. a baron of the realm, who granted it by his deed, dated at London on the the feast of St. Peter and St. Paul, in the 6th of the said King, to Sir Thomas de Weyland, the judge. Stow calls him the King's chief justice; he was, in the 17th of the said reign, found guilty of notorious bribery and corruption, his whole estate and his goods were confiscated, and he was banished the kingdom. The aforesaid historian relates, "that being convicted, and fearing "to yield himself to the King's mercy, he went to the Friars-minors, "at Babwell in Suffolk, took on him the habit of a gray friar, but being "discovered by some of his servants, he was watched and guarded, and "after two month's siege, went out, forsaking his friar's coole, and "was taken and sent to the Tower."

After this, King Edward II. on November 22, in his eleventh year, granted it to Sir Walter de Norwich in fee farm, paying 8 marks per ann. into the Exchequer, who died seized of it in the 3d of Edward III. and the said King, at the request of his mother, Queen Isabel, gave the said 8 marks per ann. to the nuns of Brodholm in Nottinghamshire.

In the 8th of Edward III. Sir John de Norwich was lord, and had a grant of a weekly mercate, on Friday, and of a fair for 3 days yearly, on the vigil, day, and day after St. Simon and Jude, dated June 10, at Newcastle on Tyne; witnesses, William Archbishop of York, Richard Bishop of Durham, Treasurer, John de Eltham Earl of Cornwall, the King's brother, John de Warren Earl of Surrey, Henry de Percy, William de Montacute, Ralph de Nevill, steward of the household, &c.; and in the 31st of the said reign, Sir John had a grant of free-warren here, &c. on November 10; in the same year on June 16, license was granted to the prioress, &c. of Brodholm to release to him the rent of the 8 marks per ann. he occurs lord in the 36th of that King, and to have the lete.

On the death of Sir John de Norwich, s. p. it descended to Catharine Brewse, who was daughter and heir of Sir Thomas, brother of Sir John de Norwich, (father of Sir Walter, who was father of the late Sir John), and a nun at Dertford in Kent; and appears to be possessed of it in the 1st of Richard II. on September 3, in the 8th of that King, license was granted to John Daventre, parson of Broom, Walter Berkley, vicar of Kimberley, John Crancheuse, Edmund Lakenheath, &c. (trustees of the aforesaid lady,) to amortise this manor, with its appertenance, fairs, mercates, &c. to the prioress of Dertford, to find a chaplain to celebrate in the infirmary of that house, to take care of (and for the relief of) the sick, and the sisters therein.

At the Dissolution it was farmed by Henry Bedingfeld, Esq. and on January 21, in the 2d and 3d of Philip and Mary, granted, with the advowson of the church, by the name of Massingham Magna, alias Dertford, alias Lady manor, to Thomas Gresham, Esq. afterwards a Knight, and founder of the Royal Exchange in London, who died lord of it.

On the death of the Lady Anne Gresham, his relict, at Osterleyhouse, in Middlesex, November 23, in the 39th of Elizabeth, she was found to die seized of it, held by the 20th part of a fee; and Sir William Read, was her son and heir, aged 50: she was a daughter of Will. Fernley, Gent. of West Creting in Suffolk, and had to her first husband, William Read, a merchant of London, of the family of the Reads of Beccles in Suffolk, and was father of Sir William, who kept a court here as lord, July 21, in the 9th of James I.

After the Reads, it was in the family of the Barkhams of Southacre and Westacre.

Hubert son of Richard de Massingham, released to them, 2d. rent per ann. out of the land given by his father.

All these gifts above mentioned are taken out of the chartulary of the priory of Castleacre, in the library of the late Earl of Oxford, and are sans date.

Ralph de Kailli, and Elias his brother, gave to the monks of Lewis (that is to Castleacre, being a cell to it) all their father's land in Massingham, which Hugh their brother held of Elias, paying a mark of silver; and Elias gave to Ralph 1*£d.* per ann. rent, which they both gave to the monks, laying the deed upon the altar at Hecham (in Norfolk;) and with them Robert de Kailli and Richard his brother, and William, son of Renier, their kinsman, released their right of succession in the land;* and for this gift, Ralph, son of Goce de Linna, gave to Elias 10 marks, to Ralph 4s. and to William 5s. that Ralph, son of Gose, might hold it for ever of the church, paying a pound of pepper yearly, and a pound of cumin; witnesses, Geff. and Alan de Snetesham, Ralph and Peter de Hunstanton, &c. and before the sock of all Hecham.

and his men, for a certain tenement belonging to his fee in Massingham, on the payment of 10s. per ann. to him and his heirs; witnesses, -----, Earl of Gloucester, his brother, Sir William de Brews, Sir Walter de Scotney, Sir Henry de Suny, &c.

There being a dispute with the prior relating to the tithes of his manor, William Bishop of Norwich ordained that the prior should pay yearly to the churches of Massingham, for the tithes of their demean lands, &c. xvs.;⁵ and because it lay in two parishes of the churches of Massingham, the portion to be paid to the church of St. Mary, after the death of Yro the priest, should be 10s. and the portion to that of All-Saints 5s. per ann.: witnesses, William, archdeacon of Norwich, Master Staugr. Ern. Lupell, Geff. de Massingham, Geff. de Depeden, &c. This seems to be in the time of William Turbus, Bishop of Norwich, and before the year 1149, when William, the archdeacon, was dead.

The temporalities of this priory in 1428, were valued at 7l. 13s.

In the 10th of James I. November 12, Edward Robinson, Gent. bought Monks manor of John Bedle, Gent. and others, and was lord of it in the 16th of that King

MASSINGHAM PRIORY MANOR.

In the town of Great Massingham was a cell, or small priory, belonging to Castleacre priory, dedicated to the Virgin and St. Nicholas, and often called in old writings the Hospital of St. Mary; it was founded by Nicholas le Syre, of Massingham: this Nicholas was witness to a deed of Richard, son of Edward de Massingham, who gave land, and 3d. rent per ann. to the priory of Castleacre, sans date.

Many of the said name were witnesses to grants of land to that priory,⁶ but sans date; viz. Sir Geffrey le Syre,⁷ John le Sire, and Ralph his brother. I take him to be the same person who in the 45th of Henry III. granted by the name of Nicholas de Massingham, by fine, to the prior of the hospital of St. Mary of Massingham, one messuage, a mill, 2 carucates of land in Massingham Magna and Parva, 5s. rent and a furlong of heath here, &c. in Marham, West Wenz, (Winch,) and Sechethe, with all homages, services of freemen and villains, wards, reliefs, paying an annuity of 15l. per ann. to Nicholas for life, 5l. per ann. to John his brother, and to Jeane his sister 6 marks

In the time of the said King, the prior of Massingham Magna was found to hold one knight's fee of the Earl of Warren; in the 3d of Edward I. he was found to hold 2 carucates in Massingham, of the gift of Nicholas le Syre, part, as it is said, of the King's fee; and in the 21st of that King, John Lambeth and others aliened lands in Mas- singham to the said priory ; in the 34th of the same reign, Simon Broke and others aliened lands in Massingham Magna, and in the following year, the prior of Beeston ; this prior, Simon de Felbrigg, and others, held lands in Beiston, Runton, East Hartling and Massingham Magna, of the fee of Roger Bygod Earl of Norfolk.

In the 3d of Edward II. Henry de Massingham aliened 4 messuages, and 128 acres of land in Massingham ; in his 7th year Simon Knout, and others, aliened divers parcels of land in Massingham Magna ; and in the 5th of the said King, Simon Broke of Brandon, and Catherine his wife conveyed by fine to the prior, lands in the said town.

In the 12th of Edward II. 6 acres, and many other parcels of land, were purchased by them ; also in the said reign, John de Deneby aliened a messuage and 11 acres ; John de Hinton, 30 acres, a messuage and 8 acres ; and Richard Shipdam aliened a messuage and 2 acres of lands, to Jeffrey the prior, in Massingham Magna, and the said Richard aliened to Geffrey, prior of Massingham Magna, lands here in the 9th of the said King, as did John, son of Robert de Holme, and Agnes his wife, in the 14th of that reign.

In the 3d of Edward III. Humphrey of Schipedam gave lands : in the 20th of that King, the prior was found to hold the 4th part of a fee in Massingham Magna and Parva, and West Winch, of the Earl-marshal : and in the 22d of Richard II. he was found to hold lands of the fee of Roger Mortimer, Earl of March, in Massingham Magna and Parva.

In 1428, the temporalities of this priory, in rent, a mill, &c. were valued at 18*l.* 2*s.* per ann.

On its dissolution it was granted January 21, in the 2d and 3d of Philip and Mary, with the manor and rectory of Langham, and advowson of the vicarage, the manor of Merston, and the advowson of the rectory, the manor of Walsingham, the manor of Combs, and advowson of the rectory, and the manor of Narford, to Thomas Gresham, Esq. On the death of Sir Thomas Gresham, in 1579, it came to his lady, Anne, and on her decease to her son Sir William Read, by her first husband, who held it with his lordship of Massingham Magna, or Dertford's ; and is now in the Earl of Oxford, as may be there seen.

PRIORS.

William occurs prior in the 44th of Henry III. as per a fine.

Jeffrey occurs in the 4th and the 9th of Edward II.

1325, John de Lenn admitted.

decayed, it was united in 1475, to Westacre priory, and was a cell of two canons and two poor men, to that priory.

William Earl Warren had a lordship and a carucate of land, which Alflet a freewoman, was deprived of; to this there belonged 3 borderers and one servus, with a carucate valued at 15s. his predecessor had only the protection of them, and King Herold had the soc. Rainold, son of Ivo, claimed it as belonging to his fee, and Wiheoc was seized of it; and the father of Rainald, and Rainald himself was, and the hundred witnessed it.⁹

FELTHAM'S MANOR.

The ancient family of Massingham seem to enfeoffed of part of it; Robert, son of Ralph de Massingham, Herbert, son of Richard de Massingham, &c. were benefactors to the prior of Castleacre's lordship in this town, as by their deeds sans date; as was Robert de Frevil, who had a fee of the Earl Warren, and William Earl Warren confirmed the grant of 20s. per ann. in land, to the monks of Castleacre in this town, which Robert Frevil, junior, gave at his death; these Frevills were living about the reign of Henry I.

In the reign of Henry III. the Felthams were lords; and in 1301, John de Feltham presented to the church of Allhallowes or All-Saints, in this town, and Thomas de Feltham in 1315. John de Feltham was witness to a deed of Sir John de Norwich in the 20th of Edward III. and presented in 1349; he held half a fee of the lord Tateshale, and the King, as guardian of Thomas de Feltham in 1370, &c.; this Thomas was found to die in the 43d of Edward III. and to leave John his son and heir, aged 3 years; this John died (as I take it) in the 5th of Richard II. a minor, and in the said year Richard Otterwy presented as lord.

Edmund de Brunham held it by half a fee, in the 9th of Richard II. and in 1402, Edmund Belzetter, burgess of Lynn, was lord, and by his will in 1417, gives it, with the advowson of All-Saints church, to be sold by his executors, and the money issuing thence to be expended by his executors in masses for his soul, and to the poor.¹

Afterwards it was possessed by John Wodehouse, Esq. who presented in 1427, and Jeremy Wodehouse, Esq. his son, in 1434. On December 12, in the 21st of Edward IV. Richard Southwell, Robert Clere, and Bartholomew White, Esq. appointed Simon White, Robert and Thomas Wodehouse, sons of John Wodehouse, Esq. their attornies, to receive rents due to them out of this manor, late Jeremy Wodehouse's.

In the 7th of Edward VI. a fine was levied between Robert Bumsted, querent, John Copledyk, and Elena his wife, deforcient, of this manor.

Thomas Alowe, Gent. in the 3d of Elizabeth, August 26, received of William Yelverton, Esq. 9l. for the farm of 2 hundred and an half sheep going in Feltham's course, and in the 8th of the said Queen, William Walpole, Esq. had livery of this manor, with one in Winebotsham, &c.

Sir Edward Coke was possessed of it in the reign of King James I. and his descendants, the right honourable Thomas Coke Earl of Leicester, died lord of it in 1759.

William de Scohies had a manor held of him by Ralph, son of Herluin, out of which Godwine, a freeman, who held it in King Edward's reign, was expelled, containing one carucate of land, with 6 villains, and one carucate in demean, then valued at 10s. at the survey at 5s. The predecessor of William de Warren had only the protection, but the soc belonged to the King's manor of Massingham. Godwin above mentioned was father of King Harold, and Earl of Kent.²

This lordship of Scohies, with his other fees, came soon after to Walter Giffard Earl of Buckingham, and from the Giffards, by marriage of the heiress, to the Earls of Clare.

Sir Geffrey de Favarches (called in the chartulary of Castleacre, Le Fanniard) gave lands belonging to this fee to the priory manor; he is said to have held the fifth part of a fee, which came mostly to the monks, who held it of the Earls of Clare.

On an inquisition taken in the 52d of Henry III. the prior of Castleacre was found to hold the 5th part of a fee in Massingham Magna, of the Earl of Clare; this was afterwards held of the Earl of March, in Henry the Sixth's reign.

Roger Bigot, ancestor to the Earls of Norfolk, had 40 acres, which a freeman was owner of, before the conquest, and Humphrey de Cuelai held it under Roger, with 2 borderers, valued at 18d. Atwy, after the conquest, had seized on it; the soc belonged to the King's manor.³

Sir Roger de Felbrig held it, in 1280, in right of his wife, one of the daughters and coheirs of Gilbert de Norfolk; and Simon de Felbrig, in 1303, and Sir Robert de Herling, in the reign of Henry VI.

The tenths were 12l.—Deducted 2l. 13s. 4d.

The temporalities of Windham priory were 13s. 7d.—Of Westacre 5s. 6d.

In this town is a free-school, endowed with 20l. per ann. for a master, to be chosen by the rectors of Massingham Magna and Parva, and of Harpley, who is to have no preferment in the church.

MASSINGHAM PARVA.

GREAT Massingham and little Massingham, as I have observed, were undivided before, and at the grand survey, making one township, the greatest part of which was in the Conqueror's hands, being the possessions of Harold, the late King, who was killed at the battle of Hastings. Another part of Massingham was the lordship of Eustace Earl of Bologne: this was what is now called Massingham Parva; of this part Orgar, a freeman, was lord in King Edward's time. It consisted of four carucates of land, to which belonged five villains, five borderers, and 2 acres of meadow; there were 2 carucates in demean, at the survey 3, one carucate among the freemen, and the fourth part of a salt pit; one socman belonged to it, who held 12 acres of land, 24 sheep, but at the survey 200, &c. It was formerly valued at 20s. at the survey at 50s. per ann. and there were 20 socmen of Herold in Marsingham, who held 2 carucates and an half with 5 borderers; there were at that time and after, 6 carucates; at the survey 3, and valued at 50s.⁶

All these were delivered to Eustace, as Herold held them, and Wido Angevin held the whole under Eustace.

The whole was one leuca long, and half a leuca broad, and paid 8*d.* to the 20*s.* gelt.

Wido had also 20 of the 25 socmen who belonged to Herold's manor, in the Confessor's time, with all their customs, and who held 2 carucates, 58 acres, and the 4th part of an acre, at the survey, of the king's manor of Great Massingham.

The descendants of Wido Aungevine, according to the custom of the Normans, assumed the name of Massingham, from this town.

Roger, son and heir of Aungevine, was father of Sir Robert de Massingham, who held 7 fees in Thorp, Anmere, and this town, &c. of the honour of Boloigne: he is also sometimes called Sir Robert de Thorp, Eda his wife survived, and in 1209, is styled Eda de Thorp, as lady also of that manor.

Sir Hugh, her son, was a benefactor to the monks of Castleacre, Sir John de Thorp was son of Sir Hugh, and sealed with checque, or and gules, a fess in a bordure, argent, was lord of this town, Ashwell Thorp, &c. He married Margery, daughter of Sir Robert de Creke, lord of North Creke, and Hillington, &c. and at length his descendant was coheir to that family, and had an interest in those manors.

He died in the reign of Henry III. and was father of Sir Robert, whose son, Sir John Thorp, was living in 1293, and was (as I take it) the first of the Thorps that inherited the North Creke, and Hillington estates, presenting to North Creke in 1311, and died in 1323; he married first, Agnes, and then Alice, relict of Sir William Mortimer, (who survived him,) and bore checque, or and gules, a fess, ermine.

Sir Robert de Thorp was his son and heir, by Agnes, aged about 30, at his father's death. In 1327, he presented to the church of North Creke, and married Beatrix, daughter of Sir Edmund de Hengrave, and died in 1330.

She presented to this church in 1333, and resided in this town, which, with North Creke, she held in jointure.

About this time, Thomas Sarlet, the lord's bailiff, accounted for 117*s.* and 11*d.* rent of assise, of the free tenants and villains; 10*l.* 2*s.* 0*d.* for lands let to farm, and 31*s.* 3*d.* perquisites of court.

Sir Robert bore azure, three crescents, argent, impaling Hengrave, argent, a chief indented, gules, as carved on the porch of this church.

Sir John de Thorp succeeded, aged 15; he married Joan, one of the daughters and coheirs of Roger Atte-Ashe or Eshe, and died in 1340.

Joan his widow, in 1345, married to Sir Roger le Strange, but having no issue by Sir John de Thorp, on her death it descended to Edmund de Thorp,⁷ brother to Sir John de Thorp, which Edmund married Joan, daughter of Robert Baynard; in the 38th of Edward III. Sir Edmund de Thorp made John de Holm, chaplain, and others, his attorneys, to deliver seisin of this manor, and others, to William de Bergh, rector of Cantele.

Edmund Berry, Robert, parson of Creyk, Thomas de Bumpsted, citizen of Norwich, and Adam de Redgrave, parson of Bathele, by deed, dated at Massingham Parva, on the feast of St. Ambrose.

⁷ This Sir Edmund Thorp seems to be a judge. King Edward III. empowered John Cavendish, William de Wychingham, William Skipwith, Ham. de Felton, Richard Waldgrave, John Mauleby, Edmund de Thorp, Thomas Gis- sing, William Clere, and Reginald de Ecles, to try a certain cause between Henry Bishop of Norwich, querent, and persons of Lynn in Norfolk.—Dated June 13, ao. 51.

He died in 1393, and was buried in the chancel of Ashwellthorp in Norfolk, giving legacies to his tenants here, &c. and to Sir Edmund, his eldest son, all his goods in his manor-house in this town, who was married before his father's death, in 1368, to Margaret, daughter of Richard de la Rivere, October 6; but this wife dying, he afterwards married Joan, daughter and heiress of Sir Robert de Northwood, or Norwood, of Northwood-Berningham, in Norfolk, and of Northwood in Kent, widow of Roger Lord Scales, of Newcells.

In 1399, on his going into France, he made his will, wherein he gives this manor to his wife, for life, if it should fall into his hands, being then held by his brother Robert, and sealed with azure, three crescents, argent.

He was slain at the siege of Lover's Castle, in Normandy, in 1417, and his body was brought into England, and buried in the church of Ashwellthorp, under a stately tomb, where he and his lady lie.

Both these statues are in full length, of white alabaster, under a neat canopy of wood.

The arms of Thorp, azure, three crescents, argent, quartering Bainard, sable, a fess, between three chevronels, or, being cut on his armour, with a chaplet round his head, and a collar of S. S. On the south side of this tomb are four shields, supported by as many angels, viz. Thorp impaling Bainard, argent, three bars, gules, (quere if not Moulton;) impaling Northwood; ermine, a cross ingrailed, argent; checque, or and gules, a bend over all, ermine, Clifton; argent, a chevron, between three bears heads couped, sable, muzzed, or, Berney. On the north side, or, a lion rampant, gules, armed azure, Felbrigg; argent, two bars, and a canton, gules, Boys; gules, a saltire ingrailed, argent, Kerdeston, and checque, or and gules, a fess, ermine, the ancient arms of Thorp; and at the head of the tomb, the arms of St. George, argent, a cross, gules, and quarterly, France and England.

This Sir Edm. left 2 daughters and coheirs, Joan, who married Sir Robert Echingham,^s Knt. and afterwards Sir John Clifton, Knt. of Buckingham Castle; but on default of issue, the estate of the Thorps was settled on her sister Isabel, who married Philip Tilney of Boston, in Lincolnshire, Esq. who together joined in a mortgage of this lordship, by deed, dated July 10, in the 10th of Henry VI. with the manor of North Creke, to Charles Aleyn, parson of North Creke, for 6 years, for the payment of 220 marks.

Isabel, dying in 1436, was buried in the church of Ashwell Thorp, and her husband, then retiring from the world, became a secular canon in the church of Lincoln, where he was buried in 1453. His arms were argent, a chevron, between three griffins heads, erased, gules.

Frederick Tilney of Boston, Esq. was his son and heir, and enjoyed this lordship and the Thorps estate. He married Elizabeth, a daughter of Laurence Cheyney, Esq. of Ditton in Cambridgeshire, (relict of Sir John Say;) by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of ——— Cockain.

Cheyney bore, quarterly, argent and sable, a bend, lozengy, gules. By her he had one only daughter, Elizabeth, who married Sir Humphrey Bouchier, knight, (eldest son of John Lord Berners;) who has slain at Barnet-field, on the part of King Edward IV. on Easter day, 1471, and was lord of this manor in right of his wife; she afterwards married Thomas Howard, son and heir of John Lord Howard, (who was created Earl of Surrey, and after was Duke of Norfolk) and dying in 1507, was buried in the nuns quire of the Minoreess, without Aldgate, London; but this manor was held for life by the courtesy of England, by her husband.

In the 39th of Henry VI. it appears that this lordship was rented or farmed by Henry Thorysby, at 18*l.* per ann. Lete fee 2*s.* and rented at 12*l.* 3*s.* 6*d.* ob. in King Henry the Seventh's time.

Sir John Bouchier, son and heir of Sir Humphrey, was summoned to parliament, as Lord Berners, in the 11th and 12th of Henry VII. &c. and died deputy-general of the town and marches of Calais, March 19, 1532.

He married Catherine, daughter of John Howard Duke of Norfolk, who survived him, and died March 12, 1535.

In the 7th year of King Henry VIII. the jury find, on the death of Sir William Capel, Knt. that long before his death, Sir John Bouchier Lord Berners had sold his reversion of this manor and advowson, to Sir William Capel, who gave it to his grandson, Edward, 2d son of Sir Gyles Capel, son and heir to Sir William, being then held, as it is said, of the prior of Castleacre. This Edward (afterwards a knight) sold it in the 26th of Henry VIII. by fine, with Anne his wife, to John Jenour and Anthony Brown. Soon after this, it came to the Mordants family, who before this had an interest in the said town.

Eudo, son of Spiruwin, had a lordship also, of which Scula a free-man, who was lord in King Edward's reign, was deprived at the conquest; three carucates of land belonged to it, 8 villains, one servus, and there were 2 carucates in demean, and one among the tenants, &c. valued at 20*s.* and Bervald held it under Eudo.⁸

Eudo having the lordship or barony of Tateshale in Lincolnshire, assumed that name, and his descendants held this lordship in capite of the King; of whom see in Babingley.

The family of de Thorp, of whom we have treated as above, had an interest herein, soon after the conquest, and in the reign of Edward I. from the Thorps it was conveyed to the L'Estranges.

Henry L'Estrange of Hunstanton, Esq. by his will, dated November 13, 1483,⁹ appears to be lord of it, and his 3d son, John L'Estrange, Esq. who married Margaret, daughter and coheir of Sir Thomas L'Estrange, of Walton-Deiville, in Warwickshire, Esq. died seized of this lordship. By his will, dated December 16, 1516, bequeaths his body to be buried (if he died within 5 miles of Massingham) before our blessed Lady, in the chapel on the south side of the chancel of this church, and that a tomb be made for him, and set up there in the said chapel, after the manner of Sir Henry Heydon's tomb in Norwich, with the arms of him, his wife, and his ancestors, and a sculpture of him and his wife, with an orate, &c. and if his corps lies in any other place, he wills that a plain stone, with his arms, and his wife's, be laid over him, but that a tomb be nevertheless erected here.

To the church of Massingham Parva he gives a vestment, and tunicle, after the rate of Sir Robert Ratcliff's cope, with orate, &c. of

This John is said to have been one of the King's judges.

Barbara, his daughter and heir, married Robert Mordant, Esq. lord of this manor and Congham, in her right, which Robert was el- dest son of William Mordant, prothonotary of the Common Pleas, by Jane his wife, daughter and coheir of Thomas Huntington, Esq. of Hempstead in Essex. It appears that in the 21st of Henry VIII. he and his wife held this manor, and lands called Elingham's, Walcote's, Rusteyn's, Geffrey's, Pettygard's and Alexander's, with 30 messuages here and in Congham St. Ani's, St. Andrew's, and All-Saint's, &c. and in this family it still remains, Sir Charles Mordant, Bart. of Wal- ton D'Eivile, in Warwickshire, being the present lord, descended from Sir Osbert de Mordaunt, a Norman knight, lord of Radwill in Bed- fordshire, by the gift of his brother, Eustachius de Sancto Ægidio, which he had by the gift of the Conqueror, for his and his father's services at the conquest.

By indenture, dated November 20, in the 3d of Henry VIII. Thomas Thomson, D. D. master of Christ's college in Cambridge, and the fellows, &c. demised to John L'Estrange, of Massingham Parva, Esq. all their lands, tenements, rents, services, fold-courses, in this town, and Harpley, lately belonging to Creke abbey, for 60 years, paying 3*l.* per ann. and all taxes, tenths, &c.

The tenths were 4*l.* Deducted 20*s.*

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Andrew; the ancient valor was 15 marks, and paid Peter-pence, 10*d.* The present valor is 9*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*

On the outside of the porch are the arms of Thorp, azure, three crescents, argent, impaling Hengrave; argent, a chief indented, gules.

MIDDLETON.

So called, as lying on a hill, surrounded with low grounds, marshes and water, Mid-Le-Ton. Hugh de Montfort obtained it at the conquest, and Aeled held it of him, Bundo, a Saxon Thane, being deprived of it, who had 2 carucates of land, 12 villains, 17 borderers, 4 servi, &c. with 32 acres of meadow, and 2 carucates in demean; there were also 3 carucates among the tenants, a mill, a fishery, and 10 salt-works, then valued in all at 100s. at the survey at 6*l. per ann.* and 2 socmen belonged to it who had 84 acres, and a carucate, who held under him, valued at 5*s.* and they could sell their land.¹

SCALES-HALL.

In the reign of Henry II. Roger de Scales was lord of this manor, descended from Hardewin or Harlewin de Sculariis, lord of Waddon in Cambridgeshire, at the conquest: this Roger and Muriel his wife, founded the nunnery of Blackburgh, and she seems to have brought this lordship with many others, held of Hugh de Montfort, into this family, being (as I conceive) a daughter and coheir of Jeffrey de Lisewis, as her sister and coheir, Maud, did to the Ingaldesthorps, as may be seen at large in Reynham. Robert de Scales, his son, gave to the abbey of Bury, in Suffolk, by fine levied in the 9th of Richard I. the advowson of the church of Wetherden in that county; of this family was William de Scales, impleaded by Fulco Baynard for the wardship of the son and heir of Roger de Kerdeston.

Roger de Scales, son and heir of Robert, gave 5*l.* for scutage in the 13th of King John, and in the 3d of Henry III. a fine was levied between Maud, wife of William de Beauchamp, late wife of Roger de Scales, and Robert, son of the said Roger, of the 3d part of 2 carucates of land in this town, 40*s.* rent in Wirdlington, with 2 marks rent in Wetherden, in Suffolk, claimed as dower; this Robert married Margery, 3d daughter and coheir of Fulk de Beaufoe, lord of Hockwold, and in the 19th of that King, was found to hold half a fee in this town, of the honour of Hagenet, or Haughley in Suffolk, and was summoned to parliament by the title of Lord Scales.

Robert, his son and heir, paid 2*l. 5s.* relief for the lands that he held in capite, in 34th of the said King, and died about the 51st of Henry III. in which year Sir William de Clifford, eschaetor on this side of Trent, accounted for 3*l. 8s. 4d.* issues of the lands of Robert de Scales in this town and Reynham in Norfolk, and Wridlington in Suffolk, for the use of John de Britannia; and in the next year Robert, son of Robert de Scales, by Alice his wife, was found to be the King's ward, and held lands valued at 60*l. per ann.* the lady Alice, his mother, was daughter of Sir Ralph de Rochester, lord of Newcells in Berkway, Hertfordshire, sister and heir to Sir William and Sir Peter de Rochester: in the aforesaid year the said lady impleaded John de Caston, the Earl of Gloucester's bailiff, for robbing her at Newcells, she living there in the King's peace, and taking neither side (that is in the barons' war with the King) nor did she ever oppose the Earl of Gloucester, or his friends.

On Sunday after the feast of the Invention of the Holy cross, in the 54th of said reign, an agreement was made between the lady Alice, widow of Robert de Scales, and Roger, son of Robert de Scales, whereby she grants to Roger, the lordship of Newcells, to be held of Robert, son of Robert de Scales, and his heirs, paying yearly to her for life 10*l.* witnesses, Sir James de Audeley, ——— de Monteforti, Ralph Fitz Ralph de Wyrham, Kts. Robert Burnel de Middleton, &c.; this Roger was a younger son of Alice, and brother of Robert; she was a considerable heiress, and brought into this family, the manor of Newcells, and one at Reevchale (Rivinghale) in Essex.

She was living in the 3d of Edward I. and recovered damage, for her swans being taken out of her lordships of Hockwold and Wilton; in which year her eldest son, Robert, was found to have held one knight's fee in this town, and died about this time. This Robert seems to have married Clementia; and about the 4th of the said King, I find Sir Robert de Vaur to have married Clementia, relict of Robert de Scales, whose marriage belonged to the King.

Robert de Scales, son of Robert, probably by Clementia, in the 9th of Edward I. sold to the prior of Norwich, a messuage and 140 acres of land in Gatley, Norfolk; and in the following year was summoned, with other barons, to attend him in an expedition into Wales; in his 17th year he recovered with Isabel his wife, from Richard de Weyland of Frameden in Suffolk, and Joan his wife, lands in this town, Westwinch, Hardwick, South and West Lenne, with the homages and services of divers persons.

Isabel, his wife, was daughter of Sir ——— Burnell, Knt. and niece of Robert Burnell, Bishop of Bath and Wells, lord chancellor and treasurer of England, who in the 20th of Edward I. by his deed dated March 2, reciting that, whereas Rob. de Eschalers owed him 26*l.* for the goods, &c. he sold him on the manor of Newcells at the time he delivered seisin of the said manor, to Robert, the Bishop hereby releases to him the aforesaid sum, and to the lady Isabel his wife.

In the 22d of that King he had summons to be at Portsmouth, on September 1st to attend the King into Gascoign; and in the 25th of that King it appears that he held 10 knight's fees, viz. two and an half in Berkway and Newcells in Hertfordshire, half a fee in Laufare in Essex, half a fee in Eneswell in Suffolk, one fee and an half in Reevchale in Essex, three fees and an half in Middleton, Islington, How, and Rainham in Norfolk, and one in Wetherden in Suffolk, held in capite, and half a fee in Haselingfeld in Cambridgeshire.

In the following year he was summoned to be at Carlisle with horse and arms, in an expedition into Scotland; and in the 29th of that King, he subscribed, with other nobles, the letter to Pope Boniface, to assure him that the Kingdom of Scotland was not of his fee, and that he had no jurisdiction in temporal affairs over either England or Scotland.

In the 33d of Edward I. it appears by the escheat rolls that he died seized of this lordship, held by one fee and an half, and paying 45s. to the castle guard of Dover, and that there was belonging to it a capital messuage with a water mill, a windmill, 209 acres of land, 69 of meadow, 10 of pasture, 5 of wood, one of turbary, and 4*l.* per ann. rent.

His lady Isabel was a great benefactress to the priory of Blackburgh, where she was buried, and gave a silver chesible, with several vestments for the priests, with her arms thereon, and ornaments, &c. to lay over her sepulchre on the day of her anniversary.

I am sensible that this account of the family differs much from that of Sir William Dugdale in his Baronage, but as it is collected from ancient evidences mostly, I am persuaded it may be acceptable.

Robert Lord Scales, son of Robert and Isabel his wife, was in the 34th of Edward I. created Knight of the Bath, with Prince Edward, and in the 1st of Edward II. summoned to attend his coronation, to be solemnized after the feast of St. Valentine, by writ dated at Dover, January 8. The Lady Isabel his mother, in the 9th of that King, settled on her son Robert and Egelina his wife, on their marriage, the manors of Scales-How, and Islington; she was daughter of Sir Hugh Courtney, and sister of Hugh Courtney Earl of Devonshire. This Lord Robert died in the 18th of Edward II. leaving a son Robert; and on July 2, in the said year, Egelina his mother, paying 200 marks, had a grant of the custody of him, being then a minor; Isabel his grandmother was living at that time, and held part of the lordship of Haselingsfeld in Cambridgeshire, in jointure.

In the 7th of Edward III. he had livery of his lands, and in the 9th of that King, William de Lilleford, rector of Revenhale in Essex, delivered seisin to him and Catherine his wife, daughter of Robert, sister and coheir of William de Ufford Earl of Suffolk; by deed dated on the feast of St. John Port Latin; he had the King's writ in his 16th year to provide 10 men at arms and 10 archers, to be sent into Britany for the honour of his King and Country; and if he would go himself with them, the King would be mightily pleased; and in the 31st of the said King he was summoned to come immediately at the siege of Calais, not staying for the embarkment of his horses, with all the power he could raise, the King fearing that the French King would come with all his power to raise the siege.

In the 30th of that reign he had letters of protection, being to accompany the Prince of Wales into Gaseoign, and gave to the priory of Blackburgh, the church of Islington: on Monday before the assumption of our Lady, in the 43d of Edward III. he died, leaving Roger his son and heir aged 22; who in the 4th of Richard II. was seized by the Norfolk rebels, and in his 8th year was summoned, June 13, to meet the King at Newcastle on Tyne, with his whole service of horse and arms, as by allegiance bound, to attend him into Scotland; and in the ensuing year was with John Duke of Lancaster, in the Spanish expedition, and styled himself lord of Newwells.

His will is dated at Hykeling in Norfolk, March 6, 1385, and he bequeaths his body to be buried in the priory of Blackburgh, and died on Christmas-day, in the 10th of Richard II. and was found to hold this manor of the honour of Hagenet, leaving Robert his son and heir, aged 14, by Joan his wife, daughter and heir of Sir Robert Norwood, of Norwood in Kent, and of Norwood Bermingham in Norfolk, who after married Sir Edmund Thorp, of Ashwell-Thorp, in Norfolk, and dying in 1415, was buried there. She gave her manors of Stonhall, Aspal, in Suffolk, which came by her mother Catherine, daughter and coheir of Sir John de Aspal, and the manor of Willesford, in Cambridgeshire, to her son Robert Lord Scales, remainder to the Lady Catherine Savage, her daughter, wife of Sir Arnold Savage, of Kent, and died his widow, s. p. in the 16th of Henry VI. remainder to her daughters, Joan and Isabel, by Sir Edmund; the said Lady Joan had also the lordship of Cowling in right of her mother Catherine.

This Robert Lord Scales, was one of the lords in parliament, who in the first year of Henry IV. voted for the safe custody of the late Richard II. and took to wife, Joan, daughter of William, and sister of Thomas Lord Bardolph; his 2d wife was Elizabeth, ----- who survived him, and remarried to Sir Henry de Percy, of Athol, Knt.; his will bears date May 12, A^o. 2 of Henry IV. and dying on the eve of the conception of our Lady, was proved the 31st of October following in the 4th of that King.² He appointed Elizabeth, his wife, executrix, bequeaths his body to be buried in the priory of Blackburgh, to the prioress 13s. 4d. and to every nun therein 6s. 8d.

Robert, his son and heir, was aged 6 years at his death, some say by the Lady Joan, and some by Elizabeth: Ralph Earl of Westmoreland had the wardship of him; he died unmarried on July 1, in the 7th of Henry V. I take this to be that Lord Scales who is said by Holingshed, &c. to be killed with the Lord Darcy, and Sir Edmund de Thorp, at the siege of Lover's castle in Normandy, on the march of King Henry V. from Caen towards the city of Roan.

Thomas Lord Scales was aged 21, on the death of his brother Robert; and on the 1st of May, in the 9th of Henry V. was retained by indenture to serve that King in the wars of France, and to be at Dover on the 23d of that month, with 20 men at arms, 60 archers on horseback, to be paid a quarter's wages down, and after from month to month in English gold, or money currant in France, by the treasurer of war there; to have all prisoners, except kings, princes, kings' sons, and especially Charles, called Dauphin of Fiennes, and other great captains of royal blood and chieftains and lieutenants under him, the said Charles; and except all those who had a hand in the murder of the Duke of Burgoyne.

In these wars he behaved gallantly, and was seneschall of Normandy, as appears from his seal in the 20th of Henry VI. with six escallops; his crest a plume of Ostrich's feathers, issuing out of a ducal coronet, circumscribed, S. Thoma Dnj. Scalis et de Neucellis senescallj Normaniæ; without any supporters.

In the 3d of Henry VI. being then in France with the Duke of Bedford, the regent, he was elected Knight of the Garter at St. George's feast at Windsor. About 4 years after he was taken prisoner in France, and redeemed; he married Emme, daughter of Sir Simon Whalesburgh, probably of Whalesburgh in Coruwall, and in the 30th of the aforesaid King, with his wife, settled the manor of Wytlesford in Cambridgeshire, on Robert and Hugh Tilney, and their heirs male, and was in high favour with King Henry VI. and his Queen. On the arrival of the Earls of March, Warwick, and Salisbury, from Calais, and their entry into London on July 2, in the 38th of the said King, he took possession of, and secured the Tower of London, with other lords, for the King; but after the battle of Northampton, on the 9th of that month, wherein the King was taken, many in the Tower surrendering themselves, this lord endeavouring to make his escape, entered a wherry or boat, late in the evening, with 3 others, and rowing towards Westminster,³ to take sanctuary, was descried by a woman, and the wherry men falling upon him, killed him, and cast him on land, (as Stowe says⁴) besides St. Mary Overies.

Hall relates that on King Henry's entering into London after the aforesaid battle, with the Earl of March, &c. on July 16, the Tower of London was delivered to the said Earl by composition, but the Lord Scales suspecting the sequel of the delivery, entered a wherry, privily intending to have fled to the Queen, but was espied by diverse watermen belonging to the Earl of Warwick, who waited for his forthcoming on the Thams, suddenly taken, and shortly slain with many darts and daggers, and his body left all bloody and naked at the gate of the Clynke, which after was buried in the church adjoining, (that is, as I take it, in St. Mary Overey's) in Surry: he is said to have had a son, Thomas, who died before him, so that he left a daughter and sole heir, Elizabeth, then married, as is said, to Sir Henry Bouchier, Knt. 2d son of Henry Bouchier Earl of Essex, aged 24.

I have seen some writings that say he was killed on July the 24th in the evening, being the vigil of St. James.

He left a son, Thomas Lord Scales, who died, as I take it, a minor, as appears from the will of Anthony Earl Rivers, who married his sister and heir.

On the 27th of May, in the 2d of King Edward IV. I find the said Elizabeth, to be the wife of Anthony Wodevile, son and heir of Richard Wodevile Earl Rivers, lord treasurer to that King, and father of Elizabeth his Queen; and in February following was summoned to parliament by the title of Lord Scales.

In the said year, he and Elizabeth his wife conveyed by fine to Simon Baxter, &c. in trust, this manor, that of Scales How, of Barton Boudish, Reynham, Hillington, Wilton, Walton, Islington, Hickling, &c. with the advowsons of Hillington, Islington, and Rydon, in Norfolk; Rewenhale, and Shaldeford manors in Essex; Wyrlington and Aspale in Suffolk, with Newsels and Berkwey manors in Hertfordshire, all which were of her inheritance; and it appears that the said Anthony, then a knight, with his wife Elizabeth, presented to the church of Rewenhale aforesaid.

John Wodde, S. T. B. in 1461, who was instituted August 9, in the 5th of the said King, we find to be a Knight of the Garter; and in his 6th year, he encountered with great honour and gallantry, both on horseback and on foot, the Bastard of Burgoyne, (as may be seen in our historians⁵) in West Smithfield, London.

In the 13th of the said King, the Lady Elizabeth, his wife, died without issue: September 2, in his 15th year, he styled himself Earl Rivers, Lord of Scales and Neucels, and sealed with a large broad seal, with 6 coats, quarterly; first, argent, a fess canton, gules, Wodevile; 2d, gules, six escallops, argent, Lord Scales; 3d, a lion rampant, - - -⁶, 4th, a sun in its glory; quere, if not Saint Clere? 5th is obscure, and seems to be per pale, indented; 6th, vairy, - - - -, with an escutcheon of pretence, a griffin, segreant, probably in allusion to the family of De Ripariis, or Rivers, Earl of Devonshire; the crest an old man with a prolix beard, in his right hand a broad sword, held over his shoulder, with an open-sleeve gown, tasselled; supporters, a triton, half man in armour, and half fish, holding a broad sword erect, and a wolf gorged and chained, the helmet on his crest, as a baron; on the left side his name, signed by him as here, Rivieres.

His 2d wife was Mary, sole daughter and heir of Sir Henry Fitz-Lewes of Thorndon in Essex, whom he survived, and was to have married a third, Margaret, sister to James III. King of Scotland.

In the 22d of Edward IV. John Bishop of Rochester, and Sir Edward Wodevile his brother, were sent ambassadours to Scotland to concluded it, but it was broke off by that King's death, on April 9, 1483, he being seized and arrested by the Duke of Gloucester at Northampton, about the end of the said month, coming to London with the young King Edward V. of whom he had the governance, and forthwith committed to the castle of Sheriff-Hutton, in Yorkshire, where he made his last will, on June 23d following, the day before the cruel murder of the young King and his brother, in the Tower of London, as Dugdale relates, which was to this purpose, as follows;

“ I, Anthony Wodevile, in the castle of Sheriff Hutton, bequeath
 “ all my lands that were my father's, to my brother Sir Edward Wode- “ vile, and his heirs male, my heart to be buried (if I die south of “ Trent) before our lady of Pewe, beside St. Stephen's college at “ Westminster, also the lands that were my first wife's the Lady “ Scales, and Thomas Lord Scales's, her brother, to my brother Sir Ed- “ ward, and his heirs male; but he to whom it should come, before he “ took possession thereof, to deduct 500 marks to be employed for the “ souls of the said lady and her brother, and the souls of all the Scales's “ blood, &c. and to find a priest for one year to pray for them, his “ own soul, and all Christian souls, at our lady of Pewe; and another “ priest to sing at the chapel of the Rodes, in Greenwich, for his own “ soul, and all christian souls ”

He wills the manor of Tirington hall, in this town, the hundred of Frebidge, the manor of Wotcrton and advowson, in Norfolk, with the manor of Rokeys in Berkey, in Hertfordshire, to be sold, to make an hospital at Rochester, for 13 poor folk.

Directs his apparel for his body to be sold, with his horse-harness, &c. and with the money thereof, shirts and smocks to be bought for poor folks.

William Tunstall, Robert Poynts, Richard Hawte, William Catesby, Andrew Dimock, overseers of his will; but it does not appear that it was proved.

Soon after the date of this will, he was carried to Pomfret castle in Yorkshire, and was there brought on a scaffold by Sir Richard Ratcliff, (one of the Duke of Gloucester's chief confidants,) and not suffered to speak any thing in vindication of himself, Sir Richard telling the people he was a traitor.

I find this Sir Edward his brother, in his last will, dated February 20, 1490, and proved March 23d in the said year, to style himself Earl Rivers, and gives his body to be buried in the abbey of St. James at Northampton.

He left no children by his 2 wives, but by a beloved mistress, called Gwentlian, only daughter of Sir William Stradling, 3d son of Sir William Stradling of Glamorganshire, in Wales, and Isabel, his wife, he had a daughter Margaret, who married Sir Robert Poynts, of Acton-Iron in Gloucestershire.

Hall says he was beheaded at Pomfret, with the Lord Richard Grey, (the Queen's son, by her first husband,) Sir Thomas Vaughan, and Sir Richard Haute, (the same day the Lord Hastings was beheaded in the Tower) and their bodies were buried naked in the monastery there.

Dugdale says, that in the 2d of Richard III. John Duke of Norfolk had a grant of this lordship, and soon after (on the death of Richard) was forfeited,^s this grant was dated February 1, ao. 2 Richard III.

On the accession of King Henry VII. Elizabeth, daughter and heir of Sir John Howard, wife of John de Vere Earl of Oxford, was found one of the heirs of Elizabeth, late Lady Scales, abovementioned, as great grand-daughter of Margaret Scales, daughter of Robert Lord Scales, wife of Sir Robert Howard, and sister of Roger Lord Scales. The other heir was Sir William Tyndal, knighted on the creation of Arthur Prince of Wales, descended from Elizabeth Scales, sister of the aforesaid Margaret, which Elizabeth married Sir Roger Felbrigg, and had Sir Simon Felbrigg, whose daughter and heir, Alana, married Sir William Tyndal, grandfather to Sir William abovementioned.

On a division of the Scales's estate, this township was assigned to the family of the Earls of Oxford; and John de Vere Earl of Oxford, son of the abovementioned Elizabeth, was lord of this manor, and dying without issue, it descended to his nephew, John de Vere Earl of Oxford, son of his brother, Sir George de Vere; and on the death of the said John, his estate was divided amongst his three sisters and coheirs.

Dorothy, who married John Nevill Lord Latimer, and Elizabeth, who married Sir Anthony Wingfeld of Letheringham in Suffolk, Knt. of the Garter, vice-chamberlain, &c. to King Henry VIII. had each a moiety of this lordship.

John Lord Latimer, son of John Lord Latimer, by Dorothy, had livery of his part or moiety, in the beginning of Queen Elizabeth, who dying in 1577, his estate was divided amongst his 4 daughters and coheirs; and his right in this town came to Sir Thomas Cecil, afterwards Earl of Exeter, by the marriage of Dorothy, one of the said $\frac{1}{2}$ daughters and coheirs, who purchased also the Wingfeld part or moiety, and sold the whole to Sir Thomas Holland, by a license for so doing, (it being held in capite.) on January 1, 19 James I.

In 1635, Sir John Heveningham is said to be lord.

In 1649, Sir William Puston, Bart. was lord, and paid castleward to Dover castle, for the manor of Middleton.

Richard Berney, Esq. died lord in 1699, and this manor was ordered by a decree in Chancery, to be sold (1709) to pay his debts, being mortgaged by him to Mrs. Martell.

Isaac le Heup, Esq. was lord, and on his death it came to his two daughters and coheirs, by his wife, —, daughter and coheir of Peter Lombard, Esq. Queen Ann's tailor.

Mary, one of them, married Sir Edward Williams, Bart. of Wales; the other, Elizabeth, to Lloyd, Esq. of Epping in Essex.

At the survey, Alan Earl of Richmond had a lordship, which Ralph the Earl of Norfolk had, and Ribald possessed it under Alan: it consisted of two carucates of land, 3 villans, one acre of meadow, and 3 borderers, with 2 carucates, 18 acres of meadow, and a fishery valued at 20s.⁹

In the reign of Henry III. John de Longeville and his tenants, held here and in Hardwick, half a fee of the honour of Richmond; and in the 8th of Edward I. Hugh Verly died seized of land held of the said honour.

In the 50th of the said King, a fine was levied between John de Longvile and Margaret his wife, querents, and Nicholas de Wortley, deforcients, of this fee, and of the manor of Overton Longvile, in Huntingdonshire, the moiety of the manor of Coln in Bedfordshire, &c. granted to John, probably on his marriage settlement: but in the 20th of Edward III. Margery de Saltmarch held this half fee; and in the 35th of Henry VI. George Lord Latimer held it of Edmund Earl of Richmond, which is the last account I find of it.

BURY-ABBAY MANOR.

This abbot had also a small lordship. Richard held at the survey, of the abbot, a carucate which the abbey was possessed of in the Confessor's time, to which there belonged 3 villans, 2 borderers, and one servus, a carucate in demean, 20 acres of meadow, 2 salt-pits, &c. and a socman with 5 acres, valued at 20s.¹

It appears that John de Hastings held lands here in Edward the First's time, belonging to the manor of Gissing, in Norfolk, for which he paid castle-guard to Bury abbey.²

In an extent of the lands of the said manor, made in the 2d of Edward III. John Wood of Middleton was found to hold these lands, by the service of half a fee, of the said manor, and 23*d.* per ann. castle-guard; and in the evidences of Sir Rob. Kemp, of the manor of Gissing, by an indenture, dated in the 2*d* of Richard II. between Thomas Gardiner of Gissing, and John de Middleton, it appears that John bought these lands of John, son of William At the Wood, of Middleton, to be held of Gissing manor, by the 3*d* part of a fee, and 23*d.* ob. rent: and John Middleton held it in the 19*th* of the said King. In the 18*th* of Edward II. the heir of Hugh de Hastings, held of John de Hastings Lord Abergavenny, the same lands; and in the 23*d* of Edward III. Roger le Strange held the 3*d* part of the manor and advowson of Middleton, with the reversion of 2 parts, after the death of Maud, widow of Roger his father; and before this, in the 20*th* of the said King, John Attewood was found to hold the 3*d* part of a fee here, of Ralph de Hastings, of the fee of St. Edmund, which John, son of Walter Attewalter, formerly held.

In the 40*th* of the said King, there was a precept to distraint Robert, vicar of the church of Middleton, for his homage for a tenement, and land purchased of the manor of Woodhouse in Middleton; and in the 15*th* of Richard II. Sir John le Strange, son of Roger, and Alice his wife, were found to hold the manor and advowson by knight's service.

CASTLE-HALL MANOR.

Besides the manors abovementioned, William de Scohies had two lordships here, bestowed on him by the Conqueror; one of which was held as a manor by Turchill, in the Confessor's time, consisting of 2 carucates of land, with 4 villains, 6 borderers, and 4 servi, 30 acres of meadow, 2 carucates in demean, one amongst the tenants in the Confessor's time, afterwards half a one, a mill, a fishery, 8 salt-pits, valued at 5*l.* before the conquest, but after at 7*l.* *per ann.*³

Walter Giffard Earl of Bucks appears to be lord of a part of this town soon after the Conquest, and gave the tithes of 2 parts of his demean, to the priory of Norwich, and Notley abbey, which was confirmed by William Turbus Bishop of Norwich, and came to the family of the Earls of Clare, (as it is said,) by his daughter and heir.

It is certain it came to the Earls of Clare, and continued not long with Scohies, and constitute the manor called Castlchall, in Middleton, which was held of the said Earls.

Thomas de Wramplingham was found, together with Maud de Rokeland, and Henry Carbonel, to hold here and in Rungton, &c. one fee of the Earl of Gloucester and Clare, in the reign of Henry III. and Thomas de Warblington held the same.

In the 9*th* of Edward II. John Warblington, son of Thomas Warblington, and Margaret his wife, died seized of Castle-Hall, and Thomas was his son and heir. Oliver de Bonn and Margaret his wife, John de Bristol, &c. held this fee in the 20*th* of Edward III.

After this it was in the family of Scales, and Roger Lord Scales died seized of it in the 10*th* of Richard II.

Ralph Earl of Westmoreland, let to Laurence Trussebut, Esq. William Lampet and John Iketsale, the manors of Scales Hall, and Castle Hall, the manors of Reynham, Scales How, Islington, a water-mill called Erles mill, by Lynn, the 3d part of the manor of Haslynsfeld, with all the appertenance late Joan, Lady Scales's, then in the hands of the said Ralph, on account of the minority of Robert, son of Rob. Lord Scales, from the time of the death of the said Joan, till Rob. son of Rob. came of age, paying yearly to the said Earl, in the church of St. Paul's, London, the sum of 100*l.* per ann. on the feasts of Easter, St. John Baptist, St. Michael, and the nativity of our Lord, by deed, dated May 10, in the 3d year of Henry V.

The other lordship of Scohis, consisted of 6 freemen, who held one carucate of land, valued at 2*s.* 8*d.* Stigand the Archbishop of Canterbury had the soc of two of these, and it was delivered to Rafrid for one carucate of land.*

It is probably this also was included and joined to the other lordship, and so both made up the lordship of Castle Hall.

TYRRINGTON-HALL.

When an aid was granted on the marriage of King Henry the Third's sister to the Emperor, 1233. Thomas, son of Godard, held the 3d part of a fee in Middleton, of the Lord Bardolf's manor of North Rungton, (as I take it,) extending into this town, and in the 38th of that King, William Lord Bardolf had a charter for free-warren here, &c. in the reign of Edward III. Sir John Howard was found to have the reversion of this manor, late William Tyrington's, held in soccage of the honour of Wrongeq.

In the 14th of Henry IV. John Prentice was found to die seized of part of it; after this it was possessed by William Godered, Esq. made serjeant at law in 1425, one of the judges of the King's Bench in 1434, (from whom descended Guibon Goddard, Esq. serjeant at law in 1669, a worthy antiquary,) and this judge, a little before his death, sold this manor to Thomas Lord Scales, and so was united to Middleton-hall.

Catherine, his widow, by her will, proved August 8, 1464,⁵ bequeaths her body to be buried in the south isle of the church of Midyldone, gives legacies to Thomas Shuldham, her brother, and his wife Margaret, and to John Shuldham and Isabel his wife, to Thomas Shuldham, junior, 5*l.* to Hugh Shuldham 20*l.* and to Edward Shuldham, 13*l.* 16*s.* 8*d.* to Thomas, son of Thomas Fincham, 20*s.* mentions her three husbands, viz. William Bawde, Ralph Medylton, and William Goodered; this Catherine was a daughter of - - - - - Shouldham of Marham, in Norfolk, where are to be seen her arms, that of Baud, &c. in the church.

William de Albiney Earl of Sasser had also half a fee in this town, and enfeoffed in the reign of Henry II. Hoct de Middleton therein, this afterwards came to the Scales's, and Robert de Scales and his tenants were found to hold it of Robert Lord Montalt, of his castle of Rising, in the time of Henry III. and of Edward I. with his wife Isabel, of the feofment of Richard Weyland and Jean his wife, by the fourth part of a fee.⁶

John de Somery, who married a sister and coheir of the last Earl of Arundel, gave this lordship to John L' EStrange and Alianore his wife, daughter of John Lord Somery, and it was in the family of L' EStrange in the reign of Edward II. and III.

In this town the Lords Scales had their seat, part of which is still remaining, the gate-house, or tower. It seems to have been the entrance into a court, or quadrangle, which was moated in; this tower is built of brick, about 18 yards in height, and with turrets, &c. about 17 yards long, and 9 in breadth; over the arch is the shield of Scales, and was probably built by Thomas Lord Scales, in the reign of Henry VI. and the inside of it is much decayed; the area, or court within, is about 84 paces long, and 46 broad.

In this town is also an high mount, grown over with bushes, which seems to have been some place of strength and moment in ancient days.

The tenths of this town were 7*l.* and deducted 2*l.* 10*s.*

The Church of Middleton is dedicated to the Virgin Mary, and is a regular pile, consisting of a nave, a north and south isle, with a chancel; the nave, north and south isles are covered with lead, and the chancel with reed, and has a square tower with one bell.

In the windows of the north isle these arms are on painted glass,—gules, six escallops, argent, Lord Scales;—quarterly, gules and or, in the 1st quarter a mullet, argent, Vere Earl of Oxford; and bendy of six pieces, argent and gules, a bordure sable, bezanty, or; argent, three bendlets gules, &c. Bodringham, as I take it.

In a window here was,—Orate p. aiab; Blome et Emme uxor. ej. et benefactor. suor. vivor. et mortuor.

In the south isle windows, gules, three chevronsels, argent,—Baul of Essex, one of the husbands of Catherine Goderede above mentioned, to be buried in this isle.—azure, three mascles, argent, ----- impaling azure, an eagle displayed, or, beaked and membered, gules, Shouldham, and azure, three cinquefoils, argent, Fitton, impaling Shouldham.

On the pavement at the east end of this isle lies a marble gravestone, with the arms of Pierson, p. fess embattled, gules and azure, three suns, 2 and 1, or, (In memory of Tho. Pierson, Esq; &c. who died 17--,) impaling a chevron, ermine, between three cinquefoils, or roses.

Within the rails of the communion table, on the pavement, lies a marble gravestone,

In this church was the guild of St. Thomas.

The church was a rectory valued at 8 marks, but appropriated to the priory of Blackburg, by John of Oxford Bishop of Norwich, in the reign of King Richard I. on the calends of May, 1191, and is dedicated to the Virgin Mary.

The vicarage was valued then at 4 marks.—Peter-pence 12*d.* the prior of Norwich had a pension valued at 20*d.* per ann. and the abbot of Nutley one, valued at two marks and an half per ann. these two portions consisted of 2 parts of the tithes of the demans of Walter Giffard Earl of Bucks, granted by him, and confirmed by William Bishop of Norwich. Regist. 4 *Eccles. On the dissolution of Blackburgh priory, the appropriated rectory, with the patronage of the vicarage, came to the Crown, and were granted July 28, in the 9th of James I. to Franc. Morris, and Franc. Phelps, and conveyed by them on December 13, following, to Sir Henry Spelman; who, on his founding a Saxon lecture in Cambridge, conferred that office on Mr. Abraham Whelock, a person well skilled in that tongue, and for endowment settled on him and his successors, a sufficient yearly stipend, with presentation to the benefice of this church of Middleton.

On the death of Whelock in 1657, the disposal of the lecture fell to Roger Spelman, Esq. son of Sir John, son of the founder, who designed to bestow it on Mr. Samuel Foster, a learned and worthy divine, but Archbishop Usher recommended Mr. Sommer, to the patron, desiring that he would confer on him the pecuniary stipend, to enable him to prosecute a Saxon Dictionary, which would more improve that tongue, than a bare academick lecture. The patron complying with this advice, presented Sommer to the annual salary of that lecture. But Sommer, out of tenderness, would not accept it, without the free consent of Mr. Foster, who complied, and being content with this vicarage, left the annual salary to Sommer.

BLACKBURGH PRIORY.

Sir Roger de Scales and Muriel his wife, who lived in the time of King Stephen, and Henry II. were the founders of it, dedicated to St. Mary and St. Catherine, in a low, feany ground, called Shiplade, or Blackburgh. Religious of both sexes lived here, under the government of Hayms Wauter and Maud his mother, but Robert, son of Roger de Scales aforesaid, before the year 1200, settled it on nuns of the order of St. Bennet.

The founder endowed it with a marsh, arable lands, and a heath 80 perches broad and long from the bounds of Wirmegay to the plough land of Middleton, 20 acres in Blackburgh, and the plough land of Helegh, 11 perches breadth in the wood, 28 acres lying east of Helegh, and 13 west of Helegh, and foldsocken in all the fields of Middleton; the homage of Ednoth, wife, and children, and Sandyaknoll, 4 acres and $\frac{1}{2}$ of meadow in Haleth, and the land which belonged to him in Sengeberge and Haleth, next Lizcroft, one acre, 2 acres of meadow in Chanell, 12d. yearly rent of his brother William, all that belonged to him in Lodstoches and Lansay, 7 perches broad in the whole length, 12d. per ann. rent of his own gift, out of the mill of Windlington, and the church of Islington; witnesses, Sir John Bardolf, lord of Wrungey, Sir John Tibney, Sir William de Danton, Sir Robert de Causton, William Durant, &c.

Sir Robert de Scales gave the church Rainham St. Martin, appropriated to it by Walter Bishop of Norwich, in 1257.

William, son of Geffrey, of Bycham Parva, and Richard his brother, and Martin, son of Roger, of the said town, and William his brother, gave to this priory the advowson of the church of Bycham Parva, with the appertenances:—witnesses, Mr. Robert de Bilney, official of Norwich, Sir Ralph de Gatley, Sir Eudo Arsick, Sir Frere de Caprevill. Sir William Lovell of Barton, Thomas de Gatley, Sir Geffrey de Buisley, Adam, parson of Gatley, Richard St. Germain.

Emma de Ballofago, or Beaufoe, gave 400 eels yearly out of her fishery at Wilton, for the soul of Isabella Freville, and her own soul, at the beginning of Leut, 9 sticks in the pool called Lodwere, and 7 sticks in her part of Anwere: this Emma was one of the daughters and coheirs of Fulk de Beaufoe, lord of Wilton in King John's time; Margery, her sister, was married to Robert de Scales.

The prioress was found to hold lands in Wattlington, Foston, Seche, Hardwick and Wattlington, of the Lord Bardolf, in the 3d of Edward III

Robert de Scales gave a rent in Middleton to find a light before the altar of St. Mary Magdalen in the priory church.

Here were a prioress and 10 nuns.

On the 19th of June, in the 4th of Edward VI, the site of this dissolved priory, the manor of Blackburgh, and the fair were granted by the King to Thomas Thirlby Bishop of Norwich, and his successors, on the payment of 1*l*. 3*s*. 9*d*. per ann. into the court of augmentation, and is now held by lease of the see of Norwich. WEST-NEWTON,

WROTE Nivetuna in the grand survey, that is a tuna, or town, nigh to water, or river, (as this is) and not, as some may conceive, from its new site or, erection.⁷

It was a beruite to the manor of Snetesham, and held by the Archbishop Stigand in the Confessor's time, in his own right, who being in arms against the Conqueror, he seized on it, and gave it to Odo Bishop of Baieur in Frunce, his brother-in-law, lord at the survey; when it consisted of one carucate and an half, held by 6 villains, 3 borderers, 2 servi, and 2 carucates in demean; 2 also amongst the tenants, with 20 acres of meadow; and 2 socmen held 16 acres of land and half a carucate, one runcus, and 7 sheep.⁸

Odo rebelling, as has been observed, against King William II. was deprived of it, and it was granted by that King to William de Albin, ancestor to the Earls of Sussex, &c. by whom the family of Aungerville was enfeoffed in this manor.

Sir Benedict de Aungerville was lord in the reign of Henry II. he had 3 daughters and coheirs, one married to William de Snetterton, alias de Bukenhams, the second to Hugh de Bellofago, or Beaufo, and the third, Susan, to Sir Andrew de Sherneburn, who dying without issue, this township was divided between Bukenhams and Beaufo, and so became two lordships.

BUKENHAM MANOR.

William de Suetterton, or Bukenham, was succeeded by Hugh, his son, who married Alice, daughter and coheir of Ralph de Somerton and Susan his wife, sister and coheir of Gosceline de Lodnes; and had Ralph de Bukenham, his son and heir,⁹ who was lord in the 41st of Henry III. Hugh de Bukenham succeeded, who kept his court here on the vigil of St. Catherine, in the 16th of Edward I. 1287, and married Margaret, daughter of Miles le Parker, and held one fee in this town.

In 1292, Sir William le Parker kept a court as guardian to Hugh, son and heir of Hugh; and in 1297, Hugh de Bukenham kept his court, and in the 28th of that King, by the name of Sir Hugh de Sueterton, as appears from the old roll that I have seen.

In the 9th of Edward II. Hugh was returned as lord of this town, and had free-warren, and in this family it continued, Hugh Bokenham settling it on Emma his wife, by his last will in 1462. After this it was in the Copledikes, (as in Appleton,) then in the Cokets, who conveyed it to Conynsby, and in the 4th of Elizabeth, Humphrey Conynsby was lord. After this it came to Clement Paston, Esq. and after to the Hostes, and from them by a daughter, as in Sandringham, to Henry Cornish Henley, Esq.

BEAUFO'S, OR RIVETT'S.

Hugh de Bellofago, or Beufo, gave name to this lordship, whose descendant, Sir Nicholas, was lord in the 9th of Edward II. and left two daughters and coheirs; Amicia, who married Thomas de Berdewelle, lord of a manor in West Herling, in her right, and Alice, married to John Rivet of Fretton in Norfolk; and in the 5th of Edward III. a fine was levied between John Rivet and Alice his wife, and Thomas de Berdewelle and Amicia his wife;¹ wherein 19 messuages, several great parcels of land here, in Appleton, Sandringham, Wulferton, Babingley, &c. were conveyed to, and settled on Alice.

After this, it was in the Bertrams, of Saxlingham, by Holt; and John Bertram, by his will, dated July 15, 1462, devised it to be sold, after the decease of his daughters, Mary and Ann;² who were to have each of them 40s. per ann. out of it for life.

Some time after it was possessed by the Cobbs of Sandringham.

Jeffrey Cobb, Esq. had livery of it in the 20th of Elizabeth, and after him William Cobbe, Esq. It was sold by the Cobbes, to Judge Atkins, and by him to the Hosts, as in Sandringham, and so came to Henry Cornish Henley, Esq.

The town was taxed for tenths, &c. at 2*l.* 9*s.*

The CHURCH of Newton is dedicated to St. Peter, and St. Paul, and is a rectory valued in the King's books at 5*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* and is discharged of first-fruits, &c. and was charged anciently for Peter-pence 5*l.* per ann. the rectory at 5 marks.

⁹ This Ralph gave to Buckenham priory, the advowson of this church in the 41st of Hen. I.

² Reg. Brusyerd in Offic. Norwic.

Benedict de Aungerville gave the advowson of it to the priory of Windham, with the consent of his wife, and it was confirmed by the Earl of Arundel,³ or Sussex, lord of the fee; but there being a dispute relating to it, in the 41st of Henry III. a fine was then levied between Ralph de Bukenhams, and Sir Hugh de Beaufo, by which it was confirmed to the said priory; and so continued to the Dissolution, when it came to the Crown, and so remains.

PENTNEY,

MANOR AND PRIORY.

Is a village, pent in, or surrounded with water, held by Hagan in the Confessor's time, but on the conquest was bestowed on Roger Bigod, who was the first of that great family (afterwards Earls of Norfolk) who settled in England, and was a Norman Earl, (most probably,) taking place next to William Earl Warren, and before those bishops, &c. who held lordships in this county, as appears from the survey; for the services he performed at the conquest, he was highly rewarded with several lordships in Essex, &c. with 117 in Suffolk, and with these following in Norfolk.

Thetford,⁴ where he founded a famous abbey, and dying in 1107, was buried there.—Pentney, East Walton, Thorp, Fitcham, East Winch, Appleton, Grimston, and Massingham, in Freebridge hundred.—Ringstead, Hunstanton, in Smethden hundred: and Tichwell, in Docking hundred.—Mundford, Sturston, Linford, and Stanford, in Grimshoe hundred.—Wolton, Totington, Girston, Breccles, Saham, and Tomeston, in Weyland hundred.—Hockham, Norton, Shropham, Wilby, Besthorp, Rockland, Banham, and Bretenham, in Shropham hundred.—Lopham Magna and Parva, Snareshill, and Quidenham, in Gilcross hundred.—Repps, Rollsby, Sutton, Oby, Clipsby, Thurn, Burgh, Billockby, Bastwick, Somerton, and Winterton, in Flegg West hundred.—Shotesham, South Birlingham, Stoke, Surlingham, Bramerton, Saxlingham, Kirby, Framingham, Troxse, Rockland, Sithing, Bixley, Poringland, Wicklingham, Holveston, and Ailverton, in Heinste hundred.—Shimpling, Gissing, and Osmundston, in Diss hundred.—Mundham, Claxton, Watton, Norton, Ashby, Sething, Thurston, Carlton, Pirehou, Beddingham, and Appleton, in Lothing hundred, or Clavering.—Wissingset, in Launditch hundred.—Yaxham, and Thurton, in Milford hundred.—Creak, in Gallow hundred.—Burnham, Deepdale, and Reinham, in Brodercross hundred.—Elingham, in Fourhou hundred.—Narburgh, in South Greenhow hundred.—Wood-Dalling, and Gaerveley, in North Greenhow hundred.—Hunworth, Runc-ton, Aleby, Alburgh, Thurgarton, Calthorp, Catfield, Statham, Horsey, Brunstead, Hameton, Sustede, Aylmerton, Felbrigg, Gresham, Barningham, Metton, Ruston, Suffield, Antingham, Shipden, and Beckam, in North Erpingham hundred.—Thrigby, Filby, Runham, Nesse, in East Flegg hundred.—Hethel, Ketwick, Keteringham, Carlton, Flordon, Newton, Swerdeston, Braconash, Dunston, Mulbarton, Cringleford, Nelond, Manegreen, Wreningham Magna and Parva, Colucy, and Rainsthorp, in Humble-Yard hundred.—Fornset, Tanaton, Aslacton, Hadeston, Hemenhale, Tibenham, Moulton, Shelton, Hardwick,

In the time of the Confessor, as I have observed, *Hagane*⁵ was lord of this town or manor, and ejected; and Robert de Vallibus, or Faur, was enfeoffed herein, by Roger Bigot, and held it of him; 11 villains, 14 borderers, 6 servi, then belonged to it; there were 3 carucates in demean, and 3 amongst the tenants, 20 acres of meadow, 3 mills, the third part of a salt-work, and East Waltme was a beruite belonging to it; it was worth, in King Edward's time, 5*l. per ann* at the survey 7*l* the whole was five furlongs long, and 4 broad, and paid 8*d. gelt*, two churches endowed with 30 acres, one here, the other (as I take it) at Walton, valued at 2*s. 8d. per ann.* that is the 30 acres of glebe.⁶

Robert de Vallibus, who held this of Bigot, had two elder brothers, who also settled in England after the Norman conquest; Hubert, the eldest, had the whole barony of Gillesland in Cumberland, granted to him by Ranulph de Meschines, on whom William the 1st had bestowed the whole county; Ranulph de Faux had also certain lordships in the said county, and Robert the barony of Dalston.

This Robert founded the priory here for the souls of Agnes his wife, and their children, dedicated to the honour of the Holy Trinity, the blessed Virgin Mary, and St. Mary Magdalen, in the Isle, Eya, for canons regular of the order of St. Augustin; endowing it with the manor of Pentney, in the isle called Eya; the mill and miller of Brigintade, 2 salt-works, or pits, one at Lynn, the other at South Wotton, and the whole rent of Fulk de Congham.

The hermitage of Walney, Offsey, and Shertwood, with the appertinances at Wadington, the land called Crundale, containing 15 acres, the land of Richard the weaver, 13 acres in Wadington, the mill at Shotsham, with the land of Ralph, son of the priest, being 15 acres, with the appertinances; the advowsons of the churches of his lordships; Thorston, Chedston, Keteringham, Shotsham St. Botolph, and Allhalloes, and Houghton, with all the liberties, privileges, &c. warranting them against all the world.

At his death he left three sons, William, Oliver, and Henry; William, the eldest, confirmed his father's grants, and gave by deed a rent charge of 4*s. per ann.* out of land in Wootton, to be paid by William, the priest there, and his heirs. William de Faux, at his death, left also 3 sons, Robert, Adam, and William, who was of Pentney.

Robert, the eldest, had 7 sons, Robert, William, Oliver, John, Philip, ⁵ This Hagane was the same (as I take it) with Hacon, son of Swain, eldest son of Earl Goodwine, and brother of King Harold.

Roger, and Hugh; but Robert, the eldest of these 7, dying without issue, was succeeded by Oliver in his estate, who in the 13th of King John, gave 500 marks, and 5 palfreys for license to marry Petronill, widow of Henry de Mara, and to enjoy her estate, she being the widow of William de Longcamp, and lived till the 46th of Henry III. Henry de Longcamp being found her son and heir; this Oliver was one of the barons in arms against King John, and in the 29th of Henry III. answered for 32 knights fees. Robert his son died (as I take it) before his father Oliver, and left William his son, who about the 30th of the said King, married Alianore, daughter of William Ferrers Earl of Derby, and dying without issue before the 37th of the said reign, John de Vaux his brother appears to be his heir. In the 49th of Henry III. for his faithful services, he was made sheriff of Norfolk and Suffolk, and soon after governour of the castle of Norwich, and dying in the 16th of Edward I. left by Sybill his wife, two daughters and coheirs; Petronel, married to Sir William de Nerford, and Maud to William de Ros, lord of Hamlake, between whom his great estate was divided, and Sir William is said to have 25 knights fees with his lady, and the Lord Ros, 19 with his; the patronage of the priory here was also settled on Sir William, which had been till this time in the family of Vaux, the lordship of this town being granted (as I have observed) to the priory, on its foundation, to which I now return.

William, the prior and convent, gave by deed sans date, to Richard North, a tenement in South Wotton, which afterwards came to the monks of Wymondham.

In the 16th year of Henry III. Rowland le Sire and Helwise his wife, granted by fine to Simon, the prior, lands in Thorp; in the 24th of the said King, Nicholas de Hasting gave by fine to Simon the prior, a messuage and 2 carves of land in Thorp, (by Geyton;) and East Winch, and certain customs and services, which Thomas de Mutton demanded of the prior for lands held there.

In the 3d of Edward I. the prior was found to hold the advowson of the church of West Bilney, of the gift of Peter de Pelevile.

Sir John de Thorp gave in the 16th of Edward II. a lordship in Geyton Thorp, with a messuage, 100 acres of land, 4 of pasture there, and and in Walton, Wykes and Bekeswell, and the advowson of a moiety of the church of Geyton Thorp, with 28 acres of land in Tilney; and before this, in the 11th of the said King, the prior had license to purchase a messuage, 22 acres of land, 2 roods of pasture, and 7s. rent of Amicia, wife of John Butterwick, in Fincham and Stradeset, and in the 43d of Edward III. had a patent for the manor of Belhouse, in North Tudenham.

In the 44th of Edward III. the prior had a grant of free warren in this manor, West Bilney, and Thorp, and in the 12th of Richard II. the men of Pentney were allowed to be toll free, it being esteemed ancient demeans.

The prior, in the 21st of that King, had a suit about a house in Norwich, wherein he sets forth that Robert, son of Ralph, son of Wibert of Nexton, by Castleacre, was seized of 5s. rent per ann. out of a messuage in St. Mary's Parva, there in the time of Henry III. and the aforesaid Robert gave it to God, and the church of St. Mary Magdalen of Pentney, being before the statute of Mortmain, when Jeffrey was prior, who was seized of it by this gift, and all his successors to the time of Walter the present prior, so that he recovered.

In 1428, their temporalities in this town were valued at 23*l.* 2*s.* 3*d.* ob. and their whole temporalities at 67*l.* 17*s.* 7*d.* ob. q.

Walter, Bishop of Norwich, with the consent of his convent, and of John Earl of Northumberland, patron of the priory of Wirmegay, united and consolidated that priory, to this of Pentney, in 1468; on this the prior and convent here engaged to pay 40*d.* per ann. to the priory of Norwich, for a mediety of the church of Fordham in Norfolk, appropriated to Wirmegay, and 20*d.* per ann. for the church of Westbriggs appropriated thereto; and 12*d.* per ann. for this union, and consolidation of the said two priories.

The manor of Grantcourts in East Winch, and that of Curples in West Derham, and lands in Rexham, by West Derham, belonged to them.

This house had also a manor in Keteringham, with the rectory appropriated, and the patronage of the vicarage, to which Richard de la Rokele added land, and Alice de Kangham, who in 1249, gave 28 acres of land, 8 of wood, and 5*s.* rent per ann.

Shotesham All-Saints, and St. Botolph's rectories were appropriated, and they presented to the vicarages of those churches; Shotesham St. Mary's church was also appropriated, to which they presented a vicar, and was granted by William de Roos, with a carucate of land in 1311, who married Maud de Faur. The churches of Pentney, Thorston, West Bilney, Shanburn, and Refham, alias Whitwell, appropriated also, and the presentation of the vicar of Sharnbourn, Whitwell and Thorston, in Norfolk, was in this priory, with the patronage of St. Mary's church of Warham.

The rectories of Abington Parva, in Cambridgeshire, and of Cheleston in Suffolk, were appropriated, and they presented the vicars.

At its dissolution it was valued at 170*l.* 4*s.* 9*d.* q. as Dugdale; but 215*l.* 18*s.* 6*d.* as Speed, with the cell of Wirmegay. About the time of the suppression here was a prior, with 13 canons.

King Henry VIII. on the 11th of March, in his 30th year, granted to Thomas Mildmay, Esq. auditor of the Exchequer, the site of this dissolved priory, with a water mill, the manor of Pentney, called Ashwood, a foldcourse for 200 sheep, and all the messuages, lands, &c. belonging to the said prory in this town, and King Edward VI. in his 4th year, February 26, granted him the impropriated rectory. Sir Thomas Mildmay, his son, conveyed all the aforesaid premises to Francis Wynham, Esq. a judge of the King's Bench; and on April 1, in the 20th of James I. Sir Henry Windham had license to sell it to Sir Edward Bullock, Knt. of Falkbourn hall, in Essex, from whom it was conveyed to Sir Thomas Richardson, Knt. lord chief justice of the King's Bench; who died seized of it October 24, 1631; and Sir Thomas, his son, inherited it.

The family of Violet in Norfolk, had after this an interest herein.

Charles Nowys, Esq. of Wood Ditton in Cambridgeshire, was lord about 1710; and ——— Lloyd, Esq. of Epping in Essex, was lord, and his widow now possesses it.

The tenths of this village were valued at 48*s.* and 10*s.* was deducted.

This prior had criminal conversation with the prioress of Marham, as appeared by her confession,⁸ and John Dedham, Stephen Long, John Shipdam, Thomas Little, and Richard Clerk, canons, confessed themselves guilty of great incontinency.

Robert de Waterville was also prior, but the time is not mentioned.

RISING

WAS a beruite belonging to the great lordship of Suctesham in this neighbourhood, held by Stigand Archbishop of Canterbury, in the time of King Edward, who being in arms against the Conqueror, was deprived not only of his see of Canterbury, but of all his lay fees and inheritance, of which this was one; and was given by King William, to Odo Bishop of Bayeux in Normandy, half brother to the said King, who held it when the Book of Domesday was made in 1085.

It then consisted of 3 carucates of land, held by 12 villains and 38 borderers, 3 servi, and 14 acres of meadow, 2 carucates in demean, and 2 amongst the tenants, and 7 socmen had 24 acres of land, to whom there always belonged one carucate; there were 3 mills, 12 salt pits,² or salt works, and a fishery, and 3 socmen held 60 acres of land, with one carucate, and one socman, 60 acres and one carucate, and 26 borderers, one carucate and 8 acres of meadow, one mill, and one salt pit.³

Odo Bishop of Bayeux, and also Earl of Kent, being in arms against King William II. in the beginning of his reign, in behalf of Robert Duke of Normandy, the Conqueror's eldest son, who laid claim to the crown of England, was deprived of this manor and all his other estates in England, and this was given by the said King to William d'Albini, styled Pincerna Regis, the King's butler, ancestor to the Earls of Sussex and Arundel, of that name. He was son of Roger de Albini, a Norman, by Amicia de Mowbray his wife, and married Maud, daughter of Roger Bigod, ancestor of the Earls of Norfolk,⁴ with whom he had 10 knights fees in Norfolk. William was his son and heir.

This probably was the William above mentioned, son of William, the Pincerna, who was created by King Henry I. Earl of Sussex, remarkably famous for his gallant actions, and married Adeliza, the dowager Queen of King Henry I. daughter of Godfrey Duke of Lo-rain; by whom he had William, his son and heir, who sealed, as his father did, with gules, a lion rampant, or.

Agatha de Trussbut wife of William de Albiney, lord of Rising, and Earl of Arundel, paid King John at Lynn, October 11, A°. 18, 100 marks of silver for his freedom, being a prisoner for rebellion.

In this family this lordship continued till the death of Hugh de Albiney on the 7th of May, 1243, in the 27th year of Henry III. who leaving no issue by Isabel his wife, daughter of William Earl Warren and Surry, his four sisters and coheirs divided his large inheritance between them. About that time the lady Isabel, relict of Earl Hugh, had an assignation of dower in these knights fees, held chiefly, if not wholly, of the honour of Arundel and Sussex;⁶ viz. three knights fees held by John de Bulmer in Wotton; two held by Thomas de Grimston; two by Hugh de Verley;—half a fee by Hubert Hacun;—the fourth part of a fee by Thomas de Ingaldesthorp; three fees by Henry de Shelton; two by Giles de Wachesham; three, and a fourth part, by William de Brom; one by William Rusteng; one by Ralph de Ho: half a fee by Thomas de Hengham; six by Henry Tregoz; two by John le Fleming; three by William Aguilon; one by William de Dixe; one by Peter de Hotot, and half a one by Walter de Cherleot. And in the 28th of the said reign, she gave a fine to the King that she might marry to whom she thought proper, or pleased; and for a relief of lands late Joan de Beauchamp's, as one of her heirs.

This Earl Hugh gave to King Henry III. in his 18th year, a fine of 2050 marks, to have seizen of the King's term of his inheritance till his full age, for all the castles and manors whercof his brother died possessed, and of all the Earl of Chester's and Lincoln's inheritance, his uncle; which was in the King's hands, by reason of his nonage, reserving to the King the presentations to all the churches till his full age.

This township, with the castle, and the fourth part of the Tolbothe at Lynn, &c. was assigned to Roger de Monte-Alto, Lord of Montalt, or Mohaut, who married Cecily, fourth daughter of William Earl of Sussex, and sister and coheir to Earl Hugh, who made it his chief seat and place of residence. In the 29th of the said reign, the heirs of Hugh Earl of Sussex, accounted for 76*l.* for 76 knight's fees, on the aid for marrying the King's eldest daughter: this Roger gave to the King three pallreys to have a partition of the late Roger's estates; and in the 38th of the said King, had a grant of a fair in this town, and a charter for a free-warren here.⁷

Roger (called Robert, by Dugdale) Lord Montalt died in the 44th of Henry III. and left John, his son and heir, who married first, Allen, widow of Robert de Stockport, and secondly Millecentia, daughter of William de Cantilupo, and coheiress with her sister, lady Joan Hastings, mother of John de Hastings,) to her brother, George de Catelupo; she was relict of Eudo le Zouch, lord of Harringworth, in Northamptonshire, by whom she had William le Zouch, her heir, but had no issue by John Lord Montalt: she appears to be his widow in the 19th of Edward I. and died in the 27th of the said King.⁸

I find upon record Cecilia de Monthalt, relict of Roger, was in the King's hands in the 52d of Henry III. who claimed the power of giving her in marriage, she holding in fee 60*l. per ann.*⁹

Robert Lord Montalt succeeded his brother John, about the 52d of the aforesaid King, and Richard Hawardyn held of him one fee here, and in that year, the King's bailiff was not permitted to enter into this village, the lord having the return of all writs.

On his death in the 3d of Edward I. he was found to have held it in capite, to have a chase, free-warren, assise of bread and beer, the lete, wreck at sea, and other royalties;¹ and the heirs of William de Milliers held of him here and in Wymondham, &c. one fee and the fourth part of a fee.

He was succeeded by Roger, his son and heir, by Isabel his wife, who married Julian, daughter of Roger Clifford, and was impleaded on account of the rights of his chase, in the 18th of Edward I. by William Rusteng, lord of Congham, a dog of his tenant having his claws cut off by this lord's servants. He dying in the 25th of the said King, aged 27, without issue, was succeeded by his brother, Robert Lord Montalt, who was the eighteenth lord of parliament, who sealed the famous letter sent to the Pope, in the 29th year of Edward I. denying the kingdom of Scotland to be of his fee, or that he had any jurisdiction in temporal affairs, dated at Lincoln, February 12, 1301.

In the 1st of Edward II. he was summoned, amongst other nobles, to attend the King's coronation, to be solemnized the Sunday next after the feast of St. Valentine, by writ dated at Dover, January 8. In the 12th of the said King, the charter of wreck at sea, in all his lands in this county was confirmed to him.—Snetsham, Hecham, Munstanton, Thornham, Tichwell, &c. are particularly mentioned.

William de Albini Earl of Sussex having one in the time of Henry III. through the whole hundreds of Freebridge and Smithden.

In the 18th of the said King, on September 30, the King sent a precept to this Lord, and Thomas Lord Bardolph, to inform them of Mortimer's approach, and to be careful of the country hereabouts.

This Robert appears to have inherited large possessions, as heir to his brother: he paid to King Edward I. for relief on his entrance on them 25*l.* for the 4th part of the earldom of Arundel.—6*l. 5s.* for the 4th part of the earldom of Chester.—12*l. 10s.* for two fees and an half held of the King in capite in Cheshire.—10*l.* for the manor of Kenyng-hale, in Norfolk, the manors of Wymondham and Bukenham held of the King by being his butler; also he held the manors of Hawerden and Boseley in Cheshire of the King in capite, by the service of being steward to the Earls of Chester, and placing the first dish on the table of the said Earl, at Chester, on the nativity of our Lord and Saviour; the manors of Leston and La Lee, the moiety of Wrichholm in Cheshire, of the King, by the service of two fees and an half, and to find a judge to sit every six weeks at Chester to try causes.

This Robert, and Emma his wife, conveyed by fine to Henry de Cliff, clerk, the castle and manor of Montalt in Wales, the castle and manors of Hawardyn and Neston in Cheshire, the stewardship of Chester, the manor of Boseley in the said county, the manors of Walton on Trent, Dere and Cheylesmore in Warwickshire, 1071. yearly rent from the priory of Coventry, with the homage and service of the prior, the castle of Rysing, the manors of Rysing, Snetesham, and Kenynghale; the fourth part of the Tolbothe of Lenne in Norfolk; Cassingland and Framesden in Suffolk, with all their rights, privileges and appertenance thereunto belonging; which the said Henry reconveyed to the said Robert and Emma, and their heirs male, lawfully begotten; remainder to Isabella, Dowager Queen of England, for life, then to John of Eltham, second son of King Edward II. Earl of Cornwall, and his heirs; with a remainder to King Edward III. and his heirs, by a deed dated at Nottingham, May 8th, in the first year of King Edward III. witnesses, John Bishop of Ely, the King's chancellor, Sir William de Herle, Roger de Bylney, Roger de Watcill, Nicholas de Govevill, and John Walewyn, Knts.; for this settlement the King paid to the lord Montalt 10,000 marks.

This Robert Lord Montalt died on Tuesday next after the feast of the nativity of our Lord, in the year 1329, in the 3d of Edward III. without issue, and was buried in the priory of Shouldham in Norfolk, being the last heir male of that family, who took their name from a hill, in Flintshire, in Wales, where they anciently resided, and had a castle.

The first upon record was Norman, one of the barons of Hugh Earl of Chester.

Ralph, his brother, had a son Robert, who was steward, and one of the barons of the Earl of Chester, and grandfather of Roger, who married Cecily, sister and coheir of Hugh Earl of Arundel.

The lady Emma, his widow, by deed dated at London, December 3, in the 5th of the aforesaid King, surrendered up all the aforementioned castles, manors, &c. with all her rights in London, (for 400*l.* per ann. annuity,) to the Queen Dowager; to this deed is a round seal about the bigness of a shilling, with 2 shields; one being quarterly, with a bordure, the arms (as I take it) of her first husband,² the other, azure, a lion rampant, argent, the arms of her second, and,

S. EMME DE MONTE ALTO.

Soon after this, she died, and was buried in the body of the church of Stradgeset, in Norfolk, a large gravestone of black marble lying over her, at this day. Whose daughter she was, does not appear; she was probably a daughter of De Stradsete, a family of great antiquity, lords of Stradsete.

At her death, the Queen Dowager Isabell took possession of this

² Richard Fitz John (son of Richard Fitz John, barons of the realm) was her husband, great grandson of Jeffrey Fitz Piers Earl of Essex; he died in the 23d, or 25th of Edward I. and is said to be buried in the priory of Shouldham. Fitz John Lord Vescie bore quarterly, or and gules, a bordure vairy, argent and azure.

lordship and castle, &c. and Sir Robert de Morley, (cousin and heir to Robert; the last Lord Montalt,) son of William de Morley of Morley, and the lady - - - - -, sister to the said Lord Robert, by his deed dated at Swanton Morley, in Norfolk, May 2, in the 8th year of King Edward III. released and confirmed the settlement aforesaid, made by his uncle, &c. on the said Queen, with all his rights to the lands of his uncle in Leicestershire, Warwickshire, and Oxfordshire; he sealed with argent, a lion rampant, sable, crowned or, circumscribed, SIGILLUM ROBTI DE MORLEY.

King Edward III. in his eleventh year, October 1, settled the reversion of this manor and castle on his eldest son, Edward, after the death of his mother; John of Eltham, Earl of Cornwall, (his brother,) being dead, and leaving no issue, on whom it was before settled.

In the 20th of the said King, John Armurer de Rysing, Robert Berners, and John Cook, were found to hold the fourth part of a fee here, of Queen Isabell, which Richard de Bulmer formerly held.

This Queen had her residence here the greatest part of her widowhood, after the execution of her great favourite Mortimer Earl of March.

Grafton tells us, that the King, by the advice of his council, committed his mother (as prisoner) to be kept close in a castle, (but does not name it,) where she remained during her life: her commitment was in King Edward's 4th year, 1350.

In the 14th year of his reign, the King and his Queen were at this castle, paying a visit to his mother, and made some stay here, as appears by the account rolls of Adam de Reffham and John de Newland of Lenne, by Risinge, and sending a present of wine to him.

In August 1340, (14th of Edward III.) Queen Isabel sent her precept from this castle to John de Cokesford, mayor of Lenne, to send her eight carpenters to make several preparations therein.

In his 18th year, the King, on the 2d of August, was lodged here, as appears from several letters dated from this place,³ and sent to William Bishop of Norwich, at Avignon, to be presented to the Pope.

On April 4, in 1357, (the 31st of Edward III.) a safe conduct was granted to William de Leith, a Scotchman, to wait on her here,⁴ and in the next year following, (1358,) she died at this castle, on August 22, and was brought from hence about the end of November following; on the 20th of which month the King directed, by letter, the sheriffs of London and Middlesex to cleanse the streets of London, called Bishop's-gate and Aldgate, from dirt and dung, against the coming of the body of his mother; and directs by another, (dated December 1, following,) the treasurer and Barons of the Exchequer to allow 9*l.* which the sheriffs had expended for that purpose: she was buried in the midst of the choir of the Gray-friars church in London, and had a tomb of alabaster erected to her memory.

It may be here observed that Mortimer, her great favourite, was here buried, as Stow in his Annals, p. 350, quarto.

On the death of Queen Isabel, this lordship (and honour, as it is called) descended to her grandson, Edward Prince of Wales, and was valued, as appears from an account of his revenue, at 90*l. per ann.* and on the death of this prince, to his son Richard, soon after King of England, by the name of Richard II.

On Monday after the feast of the decollation of St. John Baptist, in the 2d year of this King Richard II. an inquisition was taken before Thomas Gissing, Richard Withermersel and Simon de Fincham, assigned to make a true value of the castle and manor of Rysing, with its appertenances, by the oaths of honest and lawful men, viz. Edward Warren, William Sefull, John de Teversham, John Salmon, William Lambrith, Sim. de Hall, John Boteler, John Pinchto, Richard Florys, John Sekelow, John Drye, John Seman and Roger Bately; who say upon their oaths, that the lord's fields, pastures, and marsh lands appertaining to the said manor, are let to John Salmon, to farm for the term of 7 years, giving 40 marks per ann. with the part of the Talbothe at Lynn, belonging thereto, and is let to Jeffrey de Talbothe, paying 40 marks per ann. to the King; that 5 mills belonging to the manor, are worth, above all reprises, 10*l.* per ann. that the perquisites of the courts, view of frankpledge of Rysing, North Wooton, and Ridon, belonging to the said manor are worth 10*l.* per ann. that the rents of assises belonging to the said manor are worth 20*l.* per ann. that the sale of conies in the warren of the said manor, are worth 20 marks per ann. that the sale of wood is worth 10 marks per ann. without any waste or destruction to be made. That there is a certain dovecoat worth 6*s.* 8*d.* per ann. that there is a certain watermill in the marsh of the said manor worth 20*s.* per ann. that there is a certain water called Brodes, worth 5*s.* per ann. that the toll of Rysing is worth 40*s.* per ann. that there is one meadow, called Wardale meadow, worth 12*d.* per ann. and several parcels of land let to several men worth 9*s.* 2*d.* per ann. and certain water, called Wigenhall, which Edward Noun holds for life by the grant of Edward, late Prince of Wales, worth 8 marks per ann. that John Kadeneys holds certain lands and tenements in Rysinge, Ridon, and Wooton, for term of life, by grant of the said prince, worth 2*l.* 10*s.* per ann. also there were certain knights fees belonging to the castle and manor, viz. Roger Colvill, Knt. holds in Carelton, and Petoughe one fee,—Thomas de Latymer Clynal holds in Gissingland one fee,—Robert de Brokcnhul, holds in the same town the 10th part of a fee,—Emma Wylot holds in Framesden the seventh part of a fee,—John Hyloday in the same town, the fifth part of a fee,—John Winston holds in the same town the seventh part of a fee,—John de Inglose holds three knight fees and an half in Loddon and Stratton,—Richard, son of Osbert, the 6th part of a fee in Besthorp,—William de Rokingham, in Elingham, the fourth part of a fee,—Thomas de Hengham, in Baconsthorn, half a fee,—John L'Strange, Knt. in Hunstanton, Totington, Ringsted, and Holm, five knights fees,—William de Milliers, in Wymondham and Rysinge one fee,—Emma de Warren, in Wooton, three fees, Roger de Scales, in Middteton, half a fee; and they say that the advowson of the church, &c. of Rysinge, and South Wooton belongs to the said castle and manor.

In the aforesaid second year of his reign, the King granted to John Montfort, sirnamed the Valiant, Duke of Britain and Earl of Richmond, and to Joan his wife, called by the King, in his grant, his sister, in exchange for the castle of Brest in Britany.

Of this Joan, a query arises: Godfrey, in his History of King Charles VII. of France, says that he married to his second wife, a daughter of Edward the Black Prince, father of King Richard II. but as none of our genealogists have mentioned this, he must be mistaken. Philip L'Abbe, in his Tableaux Genealogiques, observes that the second wife of the aforesaid John, was Joan, daughter of Thomas Holland, Earl of Kent, by Joan his wife, called the Fair Maid of Kent, daughter of Edmund Plantaginet Earl of Kent; and afterwards married to Edward the Black Prince, and so was (as he words it) "Soeur Uterine de Richd. le II. Roy d' Angleterre," that is, sister by her mother, to Richard II.

On Montfort's defection from the crown, of England, (and deposition from all titles of honour in England, by act of parliament, in the 14th of the said King) it was seized into the King's hands, who in the said year gave it to Thomas de Woodstock, Duke of Gloucester, sixth son to King Edward III. who being murdered at Calais, in the 21st year of King Richard, Edmund de Langley Duke of York 5th son to King Edward III. obtained a grant of it,⁵ with the manors of Beeston, and Mileham, &c. in Norfolk, and died possessed of it in the 4th of King Henry IV. when it descended to his eldest son, Edward Duke of York; who being slain in the famous battle of Agincourt, in France, in the 3d of Henry V. it came to his brother, Richard de Conningsbergh Earl of Cambridge, who being beheaded in the said year, it fell to the Crown, where it remained till the 36th of Henry VIII. when an act of parliament passed, ratifying an exchange between the King, Thomas Howard Duke of Norfolk, and Henry his son Earl of Arundel and Surry; they giving to the King the manors of Walton, Trinley, Falkenham, with the rectories of Walton and Felixton, in Suffolk, for the castle manor, and chase of Rysing, and all its appertenances, with the manors of Thorpe, Gaywood, South Walsham, Halvergate and Ditchingham in Norfolk, Doningworth, Cratfield, Hoo, Staverton, and Bromswell, in Suffolk, to be held of the King in capite, by the 30th part of a knight's fee and the rent of 26*l.* per ann. payable at St. Michael into the court of augmentations. Henry, the son, Earl of Arundel, &c. being attainted in his father's life time, the Duke enjoyed this manor, &c. till his death in the 1st and 2d of Philip and Mary, when an act of parliament passed for the restoring of the son of the attainted Earl.

In the accounts of Sir John Arundel, Knt. receiver of the dutchy of Cornwall, in the reign of Henry the Eighth, (as I take it) he had allowances for 40*s.* per ann. paid to Sir Henry Marny, Knt. as steward of this lordship; 13*l.* 8*s.* as constable of the castle: 4*l.* 11*s.* 3*d.* as ranger of the chase, and for two under foresters, called walkers, 53*s.* 4*d.* per ann. at this time Sir Thomas Lovel, Knight of the Garter, was farmer of the demeans and the warren.

On the attainder of Thomas Duke of Norfolk, in the 15th of Elizabeth, it came again to the Crown, and she granted it to Edward Earl of Oxford, with the demeans of Gaywood; but this grant was soon revoked, and it was granted to Henry Howard Earl of Northampton, brother to the Duke of Norfolk, attainted; who held it to his death in 1616, and having no issue it descended to Thomas Howard Earl of Arundel, his heir; which Thomas was grandson to Thomas Duke of Norfolk, aforesaid, and brother to the Earl of Northampton; and in this family it remained till it was bought by Thomas Howard,

The Duke of Norfolk has the title of Lord Howard, of Castle-Rysing; Henry Howard of Castle-Rysing, heir of the said family, being so created by letters patents, March 27, in the 21st of King Charles II.

Two members of parliament are chosen by the free burghers, their representatives, therein.

The town takes its name from its site, (Rye is the name of a river in Yorkshire, &c. and of a borough town in Sussex) by a river, on a hill, which affords a fine prospect, overlooking a large arm of the sea, and from Ing, a meadow, or marshy ground.

Sir Henry Spelman, (who lived at Congham, in the neighbourhood of it) says it has been a famous port, but being stopped up with sands, was the cause of its great decay.

The said author observes that it is a burgh of such antiquity that the royal archives and records give no account of it; the site of it such, that he thinks the Romans had a place of defence here, some of their coin being found here, and a Constantine being brought to him.

That the sea had formerly its course near to, and came up probably to the town, appears in some measure from its being drowned in winter, frequently, on spring tides, the salt water overflowing the banks between this town and Babingley, and from the name of a street, that comes up to this town from the low ground, called by the inhabitants at this day, HAVEN-GATE LANE, which is very ousy, and in this lane there was some years past, in digging, taken up a piece of an anchor belonging to some ship.

In the 31st of Elizabeth, on the 1st of August, a survey of this lordship was made by Sir Nicholas Bacon, Knt. John Hill, Esq. one of the auditors of the Exchequer, Robert Buxton, Esq. and Robert Shephard, Gent. commissioners appointed by that Queen, to survey this manor, part of the lands of Philip Earl of Arundel, attainted and convicted; who on the oaths of Henry Mordant, Gent. Thomas Winde, Gent. Thomas Spratt, Gent. Joseph Wright, Gent. and 15 others, present an affirm, that the town of Castle Rysing is an ancient burgh, and hath in it a mayor and burgesses; and many ancient privileges, franchises and liberties have been granted to Hugh de Albini, Earl of Sussex and Arundel, some time lord of the manor, which privileges have been heretofore found by divers inquisitions, viz.

First, it is granted to this said Earl and his heirs, his stewards and tenants from this time, to be quit and free of pannage, tallage, passage, payage, lastage, stallage, portage, pesage and terrage, through the parts of England; also that they shall have a mayor, that by them shall be chosen, and be presented to the Earls and his steward.

* Thus the Rye-house in Hertfordshire, palustri solo, assurgens nomen inde &c.—Spelman says in recto quem ferens, Rising. Icenia, faciunt angulo Isis et Congus fluvii e

They shall sell, or give their burgages to whom they will, without any gainsaying.

If a burgess die, the next heir shall enter into burgage without any gainsaying.

The lord shall not have the custody or the heir of a burgager, but his kin, or next cousin by the mother's side.

Their heyres shall marry themselves, wheresoever they like.

If seizure of a burgage be made, it shall be by the bayleifs, and keepers of the market.

They shall take for their debtes, in the town of Rysing and without, as far as the warren stretches.

They shall distraint no burgess within his burgage.

If actions, or strife shall happen between burgess and burgess, in the town, or without, the mayor shall have them attached, shall set them a day until the Monday next, and before him shall their tales be told and brought,

If their tales happen not to be appeals of felony, or of a deadly wound, or such other as longeth to the Crown.

Also full amercement in court the burgesse that is guilty, and hath trespassed shall make to the mayor, and that shall he present to the steward, or lord's bayleif, and they shall do therein their wills.

If the lord will have any burgess in his service, he shall find him reasonable expences.

They shall not serve to the hundred, or shire, they shall not be put upon assise,

They shall not be distressed by bayleys of the hundred.

They shall not be accused at the view of frank-pledge for answer, but he that trespasses for that pledge shall make amends.

If the son of a burgess shall enter into frank-pledge, that is to say, the lete, he shall not pay, and he shall have free entry into the common pastures of the town.

The burgesses have grant of a fair, or free mart, from the feast of St. Matthew, during 15 days, and two markets in the week, Monday and Thursday.

They shall give no custom in the market of Rysinge, of their corn, that comes out of their barns, or any other thing that they buy to their proper use in the said market, and they shall do no suit.

If any burgesse be a merchant, and put any thing to the market of Rysinge to sell, he shall give half custom, except bakers, who shall give whole custom to the lord.

Also they shall give no custom, or usage, in the havens of the lord in the marsh.⁷

If any burgess be summoned before the lord, or his steward, his summons shall be made by the mayor, and by none other.

If the lord make his eldest son a knight, or his eldest daughter be married, then the burgesses shall give him reasonable help, else not.

The servants of the lord shall not take the geese, capens, or fish, or flesh, meat or drink, at their wills, without leave, of the burgesses, and without their consent.

Also they shall have all their measures the same as in Norwich.

⁷ In the Latin charter it is said in the ports of the lord by the marsh, in portibus; nostris.

That the warren hath been by the space of 2 or 3 years past greatly surcharged, the warrener being covenanted to leave for his view, 3800 coneyes; he has killed the last year, 17000, and may kill for this year as many or more, his number for view being treble reserved, and by this the castle stock of 600 weathers is utterly overthrown, and the inhabitants and tenants of the towns adjoining, injured, which will be an occasion of impairing her majestie's rent, and the undoing of the inhabitants, &c. and that by the increase of these conies by the warrener, and their breeding in the castle ditches and banks, the same are decayed, and the walls are already in part, and the rest in danger of overthrowing, that the said banks and ditches are no parcel of the warren, and that the constabulary of the castle is no part of the warren of Rysing, and that the burgh, and the closes belonging, &c. are also no part of the warren.

By this presentment it appears that Hugh de Albini Earl of Arundel and Sussex had a charter for many royal privileges and liberties, with that of a mayor, in this lordship, and this must be in some year between 1233, (the Earl being then a minor) and 1242, in which year he died,

I have seen an old copy, or transcript of a charter, beginning thus.

The conclusion also of this charter is wanting, but as there are several privileges in this, not mentioned in the presentment above, I shall here insert them, viz.

The return of all writs.

A gaol in the said borough for felons and offenders in its liberties, to be kept by whom the mayor and burgesses shall depute, till delivered to be tried at Norwich, by the King's judges.

Cognizance of all pleas, as well real as personal, in the liberties of the said burgh.

A pye-powder court.

Not to be impleaded in any other court or assise, on account of any tenement, lands, or debts, whilst living in the said burgh.

The mayor to be coroner in the said burgh and its liberty, and to take an oath on his admission before the lord's bayliff, also to be clerk of the market.

<sup>8</sup> It is probable that this was a charter of confirmation, granted by King Edward III. at the request of his mother Isabel, Queen Dowager, in the 18th of his reign; in the same year it appears, that she obtained a grant of a mayor, &c. for Coventry, of which city she had the lordship, that this was in Edward the Third's reign, appears from the word Ducibus therein, Edward, his son, being the first created Duke in England, Ao. 11 Edward III.

To have a tumbrell, pillory, assise of bread and beer, wine, and all victuals, &c. scrutiny of all weights, measures, with the punishment of delinquents against the statutes therein.

The burgesses, &c. through the whole kingdom, as well by land, as by water, as well in London as without, may buy and sell of and to foreigners, and natives, all manner of merchandise, &c. without hindrance, and as the citizens of London do.

No merchant, or any other person, shall hinder or oppose any merchants, or others coming to this burgh by land, or by water, with victuals, or any other things to be sold, or to buy, before they shall arrive here, under the penalty of -----

It is here observable, that there was a mayor and burgesses at the time of this grant. The oldest mayor that I have met with is John Armourer, in the 17th year of King Edward III. A. 1343.

John Ward chose mayor, A. 21. Edward III.

This decayed and superannuated burgh has a mayor, (but no aldermen, at this time,) who is chosen annually, the day before St. Michael by the free burghers, or voters, who were about 60 or 70 in number, in 1716, but he is not sworn into his office till the court lete, which is held about All-Saints day, and has a mace carried before him to church on Sundays by a serjeant, and on other public occasions.

The mayor is obliged to take an oath at the court lete, before he enters on his office, to be administered to him by the steward of the manor, which the new elect in 1662, refused, and had a fine of 40*l.* set upon him then in December, at the lete, by the steward, for not complying.

In a petition to the lord of this manor, (Henry Howard, Esq.) in the said year, signed by Robert Buthoer, mayor, and 24 free burghers, and inhabitants, is this request;

“ We do most humbly desire of your honour to be pleased to hold
“ a court lete yearly, presently after the feast of St. Michael, that the “ new elect may then be sworn, and have some reasonable allowance
“ for the time of his office, sufficient to countervail the loss of his time,
“ not heretofore considered.”

There was formerly a burgh court kept, as appears from a large table of fees kept by the mayor, to which there belonged a steward and a jury of 12; which is now laid aside, as is an old custom and punishment of the clog and shackle. No market is now kept, but a mean peddling fair on May 1, said to have been anciently for 15 days.

The seal of the corporation, or mayor, is a castle.

By what has been observed, it appears that the publishers of Britannia Ant. et Nova, in 6 vols. are mistaken in saying that there is a market kept here, 12 aldermen, that the Molbrays were ancient lords of it, &c.

The castle of Rysing was built after the grant of the town and lordship by King William II. to William de Albini, that King's pincerna, or butler, and probably by his son, William, the first Earl of Sussex, who died in 1176; it stands upon a hill, on the south side of the town, from whence is a fine prospect over land, and an arm of the sea. Great part of the walls of the keep, or inward tower, are still standing, being a Gothick pile, much resembling that of Norwich, and little inferior the walls being about 3 yards thick, consisting chiefly of free-stone, with iron, or car stone, encompassed with a great circular ditch, and bank of earth, on which stood also a strong stone wall, as appears from the presentment above mentioned in the 31st of Elizabeth, when the wall on the said bank is said to be in part, and the rest in danger of being, overthrown by the warrenner's conies. This ditch, now dry, was probably, formerly filled with water; there is but one entrance to it, on the east-side, over a strong stone bridge, about 30 paces long, (with a gate-house thereon,) about 8 or 9 paces broad, and is supported by one arch. The inward part of the castle, or keep, is all in ruins, except one room, where the court leet of this lordship is held; no doubt the apartments here were grand and sumptuous, when Queen Isabel here resided, and when the great King Edward III. with his Queen and court, were often entertained, and lodged here.<sup>1</sup>

On the walls, which are decaying, (having no cover,) were towers, or turrets, which the lords of the manors of Hunstanton, Reydon, and the Wottons, were by their tenures obliged to guard and defend. The compass of the ditch that incloses the whole is above 1080 paces.

It had the privilege of prisa, that is, of taking provision in the neighbouring villages, for the maintenance of the garrison, paying for it within 40 days.

Mr. Millecent has a print of the ruins of it, and Mr. Buck has one, dedicated to the Lady Viscountess Andover.

It seems to have been by its site a place of strength and consequence. In the 18th of Edward II. September 22, that King sent his precept to the Lord Montalt, the lord of it, to have great care and guard of it, on account of the approach of Mortimer; as he did at the same time, to the Lord Bardolf, of his castle at Wirmegay.

Mortimer, the great favourite of his Queen, making his escape out of the Tower of London in the preceding month, was then with her in France, and both preparing to land with an army in England, to dethrone this King, which they soon after effected.

Persons famous for their gallantry in military affairs and actions, appear to have been honoured with the constablenesship and government of it.

Queen Isabel, Dowager of England, gave it (being lady of the manor and castle) to John de Herlyug, as appears by her patent.

“ ISABEL, by the Grace of God, Queen of England, Lady of Ire“ land, Countess of Pontiffè, &c. to whom these presents shall come, “ greeting.”

“ Know ye, that We, for the good and faithful service which our be“ loved servant John of Herlyug hath long since performed to our “ thrice dear son the king, and likewise to Us, have granted to the said “ John, for the term of his life, the constablenesship and guard of our “ castle of Rysing, and to be surveyor of our chace there, he receiving “ of Us the said offices during his life, every day 12*d.* of the profits of “ our manor there, by the hands of our bayliffe and provost, for the “ time being, wherefore we command all them whom it shall any wayes “ concern, that to the said John, as to our constable, guardian, and

“ surveyor there, they be attending and respondent in the manner as appertains to the said offices. In testimony of which, we have caused these our letters patents to be drawn.”

“ Given at our castle of Hertford, the 6th day of November, in the 20th year of the reign of our aforesaid deare son the king.”

After this, Edward, Prince of Wales, confirmed the same in the following manner.

“ We, for the affection we beare to the person of the said John Herlyng, &c. at his request confirm to him the grant which our said lady and grand mother hath made, &c. and besides, in consideration of the contumelies and hardships, the said John hath from day to day in the service of our said lord and father, the king, and being therefore willing for that cause to shew him more especial favour, We doe, and grant, &c. to the said John, in case the said castle and manor should come into our hands, by the decease of our said lady and grandmother, &c. the reversion being in Us, the said constablenesship, &c. to hold for the terme of his life, &c.”

“ In witness whereof, We have caused these our letters to be made patents. Given at London under our privy seale, the 21st day of July, in the reign of our said lord and father the King of England, the 27th, and of France the 14th.”

King Edward III. also approved and ratified the said letters patents; witnesses, the king, at Westminster, &c.

The aforesaid John de Herlyng, Knt. was a famous soldier, remarkable for his skill in maritime affairs, and had the custody of the sea coasts, about Bristol, in 1342: he was lord of East Herling, in Norfolk.

In the sixth year of King Henry IV. John Wodehouse occurs constable, who was remarkably famous in the following reign at the battle of Agincourt in France.

Ralph Lord Cromwell was constable in the reign of Henry VI. The said King, in his 27th year, granted to Thomas Daniel, Esq. the office of constable, keeper of the forest, chace, or warren, then held by Ralph Lord Cromwell, on the death of the said lord, or on rendering up his letters patents, or any other way, when they shall be vacant, to him the said Thomas, and to his heirs lawfully begotten, to receive the same fees and perquisites, &c. as the said Ralph holds; dated at Canterbury, the 8th of September. This Thomas was afterwards made a knight, and married Margaret, daughter of Sir Robert Howard, and sister of John, the first Duke of Norfolk, of that family; he is said to have been attainted in the first of Edward IV. but was afterwards restored in blood and possessions, in the 14th of that King.<sup>2</sup>

In the 34th of Henry VI. Thomas Lord Scales, had a patent to be governour, or constable, and appointed to reside there for its better safeguard.

In the 1st of Henry VII. John Vere Earl of Oxford was made constable of the castle, steward of the honour of Rising, and ranger of the chase for life, who commanded the vanguard in the battle of Bosworth, wherein King Richard III. was slain.

In the time of King Henry VIII. Sir Henry Marny Lord Marny

was constable, and had 18*l.* 8*s.* per ann. fee allowed him: it is reasonable to suppose, it was at that time in a good state and condition. This Lord Marny was one of the chief commanders under Charles Brandon Duke of Suffolk, on his taking Montdidier in France, in the 15th of Henry VIII.; he had also 40*s.* per ann. as steward of this lordship, and 4*l.* 1*s.* 3*d.* per ann. as ranger of the chase, and 53*s.* 4*d.* per ann. for two under foresters, or walkers.

Near to the castle on the south side, stood a chapel for the service of the lord, &c. now in ruins.

The town is remarkable also for an hospital built by Henry Howard Earl of Northampton. In the accounts of Owen Shepherd, Gent. in the sixth of King James I. receiver of the lands, &c. of the said Earl, he accounts for 451*l.* 14*s.* 2*d.* ob. paid in that year to Richard Howell, junior, Esq. for building this almshouse.

It stands near to the east end of the churchyard, and is a square building, containing 12 rooms or apartments for 12 poor women, and one good room for the governess, with a spacious hall and kitchen, and a decent chapel, which projects from the rest on the east side; the letters patent for the foundation bear date June 1, in the 13th year of the aforesaid King.

It is endowed with 100*l.* per ann. out of lands lying in Rising, Roydon, South and North Wotton, and Gaywood, also with 5*l.* every fifth year from an hospital in Greenwich, founded by the said Earl for a stock or fund to repair it.

Their monthly allowance is 8*s.* each, and the governess has 12*s.* but on certain festival days appointed by the founder, viz. All-Saints, Christmas, New Year's, Epiphany, Purification, St. Matthias, (which is the founder's birth day,) Annunciation, Easter-day, Ascension, Whitsunday, Trinity Sunday, St. John Baptist's, and St. Michael's day, they have an addition of one shilling to the governess, and 8*d.* to every poor woman. Every year each poor woman, (and the governess,) has for their constant apparel a gown of strong cloth, or kersey, of a dark colour, and every seventh year a livery gown, (and a hat,) of blue broad cloth lined with baize, with the founder's badge or cognizance set on the breast, being a lion rampant, argent, embroidered. The governess is allowed two chaldron of coals per ann. and the rest one chaldron, each. They are obliged to be regularly and constant at the church of Rising on Sundays, and at their own chapel every day at 9 in the morning and 3 in the afternoon, by the toll of a bell, where the governess reads prayers; they are also enjoined to use certain prayers (appointed by their founder) morning and evening, in their own apartments, and not to go out without the leave of the governess.

The qualifications required on admission are; They must be of an honest life and conversation, religious, grave and discreet, able to read, if such a one may be had, a single woman, her place to be void upon marriage, to be 56 years of age at least, no common beggar, harlot, scold, drunkard, haunter of taverns, inns, or ale-houses; to lose their places if, after admission, any lands descend to them of the value of 1*l.* per ann. or goods to the value of 50*l.* To go to prayers 3 times every day, and to say the Lord's Prayer, the Creed, and a prayer ordered by the founder; to go to church morning and evening every Sunday and holiday, and Wednesday and Friday. On being guilty of atheism, heresy, blasphemy, faction in the hospital, injury, or disgracing the assistants, neglect of duty, or misbehaviour in the performance of duty, to do any thing to the hurt or prejudice of the hospital, is expulsion.

The duty of the governess it to preserve the household stuff of the hospital, to take care of the sick, to cause the gates to be shut morning and evening at due hours; to deliver out the blue gowns, every Sunday and holiday morning, and to receive the same back again at night. To ring the bell every morning and evening for prayers, to shut the gates at prayer time, to look to the reparations of the hospital, that not so much as one stone be missing either in the walls, or upon the hospital, by the space of a month, to keep the piece of ground on the north-west side of the hospital next adjoining to the walls, and to preserve the trees, to keep her garden plot fair and handsome, to reside constantly there, not to lye abroad without license, nor above 7 days (with license) in any one year; to give security in 20*l.* penalty upon her admission, for the performance of duty, the security to be given to the mayor of Rising; she is also to read prayers appointed in the chapel twice every day, not to permit any stranger to lye in the hospital, to dine and sup with the poor women in the hall on festival days.

The offences of the governess, by the statutes of the founder, are to be certified to the Earl of Arundel, or his heir, (who is now the Earl of Suffolk) by two of the assistants, and then the Earl to take order therein, by expulsion, or otherwise, as he shall think fit.

If the Earl of Arundel, or his next heir, within 60 days after a certificate sent to him of a death or removal, does not appoint a new governess, or poor woman, then the mayor of Lynn is to do it.

This noble Earl, who was highly eminent for his learning, and many great endowments and virtues, founded two other hospitals: one at Greenwich in Kent, for 20 poor men, and a warden; the other at Chau, in Shropshire, for 12 poor men and a warden; he was buried in the chapel of Dover-castle, in Kent, of which he was governour in 1614, afterwards removed, placed and deposited at the east end of the chapel of his hospital at Greenwich, in 1696, together with his monument, by the order of the mercer's company, trustees of the said hospital; in his epitaph he is styled,—Inter Nobiles Literatissimus.

Here was also a famous chase for deer, and a warren belonging to this lordship.

In the 39th of Elizabeth, great disputes arose about the bounds and limits of them, between Ann Countess of Arundel, widow of Philip Earl of Arundel, and William Cobb, Esq. Henry Spilman, &c. and other neighbouring lords of manors, this lordship being part of her jointure; and in the said year depositions were taken at Lynn, on the 26th of July, before Thomas Fermer, Richard Stubbs, John Willoughby, and William Guybon, Esq.

John Jeffrey of Rysing castle, labourer, aged 76, then deposed that he had known Rising chase and warren 60 years; that he dwelt in Wotton and Rising all his life, and boundeth the limits, purlwe, or walks of the chase, thus:

From Rysinge to Babingley-Mill, from thence to Rattleman's Lane, so to Hull Lane, so to Butler's Cross, so in a green way leading to Newton, so to Wades-Mill, so southward down a way leading to Capp-Mill, so to Pedder's Lane, or waye, so to Gatton, so to Hillington bridge, so southward over the moor to Homeston, so into Ruston's Lane, so to two lanes, the names he remembreth not, so southward to Bones bridge, so along the river to Weyvelinge house, so along the river to Bawsey Dike, so by the old river to Bawsey water, and so along the river to Gaywoode bridge. And further saith, that so much of the ground as lyeth in the towns of Rising, North and South Wotton, Ryfflye, Grimston, Weyvelingham, and Rydon, are within the limits of the chase, and have been reputed, used, let, &c. as parcel of the said chase. He saith also that the bounds and limits of the said warren extend from Rydon, to Hall-Hill, and so near to Rydon church, and thence down a way to Hillington Causey, thence to Querne Hill, and so to Wardyke; and he saith that the keepers, &c. have at their wills, used to chase and rechase the deer, within the said limits; that in the 9 acres, there were burrowing a 1000 conies and diverse falls; that the warrenners have at their wills, until now of late, quietly and peaceably hunted, hayed, ferited, digged, killed, and carried away all such conies as bred and burrowed upon the 9 acres, Congham Lyings and Moor, and that the warrenners always paid tithle conies thereon to the parsons of Congham, and he never heard any farm conies to Mr. Spilman, or any other for the nine acres and Congham Lyings: he saith Mr. Waller's grounds begin at King's Thorn, where sometime was great store of conies, and so southward to the said pitts, so to Hall-Hill, so to the hangings of Goldworthy Hill, unto the south side thereof, and never knew it ploughed but by Mrs. Waller: he knoweth the grounds in Mrs. Waller's occupation in Rydon, extending to Shepherd's Hill, with all Rydon Lyugs and so to Skegny Fen, and thence to Rydon Shrubbs, and so to Eleven Herne, called Rydon-Common; and saith in both these places last bounded in Rydon, the warreners used like liberty as before in Congham 9 acres and Lyngs; and paid tithle conies to the parson of Rydon; that in Weyveling grounds used the like liberty, as in any other part of the warren, without any interruption, until now of late years: he deposeth the same of South Wotton grounds, and of Great Cromer's Close, and Little Cromer's Close, both which lye in Risinge.

The temporalities of Flitcham priory were 2*s.*; of Pentney priory 1*d.*; of Buckenham 4*d.*

The tenths of the town were 6*l.*—Deducted, 6*s.* 8*d.*

The CHURCH of Rising is an ancient pile built in a conventual manner, with a tower between the body of it and the chancel, which last is now in ruins, the walls only of part of it being standing; also a south cross isle joining to the tower, which is entirely in ruins: the west end is adorned with antique carving and small arches, in the tower are 3 bells, but one is split, the roof of the church is flat, covered with lead, long but narrow, and is dedicated to St. Laurence.

There are no inscriptions in the church.

In the porch was a grave-stone, with part of an inscription, viz. Isabella Regina, in memory no doubt of some of that Queen's servants, or retinue, which induced some persons to fancy that she herself was here buried.

The church was taxed formerly at 10 marks and a half, now at 8*l.* in the King's books, and is discharged of first fruits, &c.

It pays no procurations, only synodals; being exempt from all episcopal jurisdiction, and archidiaconal, except induction by the archdeacon of Norwich, and the patronage is in the lord of the manor. The rector has the probate of wills, not as rector, but as commissary, nominated by the lord of the manor, derived, as it is said, from a Norman custom, rather claimed, by the lord, in right of his castle, &c.

Here was the gild of Corpus Christi.

REYDON, OR RYDON,

WAS in King Edward's time a beruwite, or berwick, appertaining, or belonging to Stigand the Archbishop of Canterbury's great or capital lordship of Snetesham, consisting of one socman, 25 borderers, and 2 servi, who held one carucate of land, 6 acres of meadow, with one carucate in demean, and a half one amongst the the tenants, 2 salt pits, or salt works, and 8 socmen had 2 carucates of land and 16 acres 5 borderers, also 2 carucates, and one salt pit, and the moiety of another, all which were valued together with Snetesham, and held by Stigand as a lay fee.<sup>2</sup>

Stigand being dispossessed by the Conqueror, it was given by him to his brother Odo Bishop of Baieux, in France, and Earl of Kent, who was lord of it at the grand survey.

It takes its name from Rye, or Rei, of which see in Rysing, and Don, or Dun, a hill. Odo taking part with Robert Duke of Normandy, the Conqueror's eldest son, against King William II. was deprived of this, and all his estates in England, and then granted by him to William de Albini, pincerna regis,<sup>3</sup> or the King's grand butler, ancestor to the Earls of Albini and Sussex, in which family it continued till the death of Hugh de Albini Earl of Sussex, &c. who dying without issue in the 27th year of King Henry III. and his estate being divided amongst his sisters and coheirs, this lordship came, together with the honour, or manor, of Rysing-castle, to Roger de Monte Alto, or Montault, by the marriage of Cecily, fourth sister and coheir of the said Hugh; and at the same time the patronage of the rectory was on the said division granted to Robert, Lord Tateshale, who married Mabel, the eldest sister and coheir, as his part of the advowsons belonging to the said inheritance, after the decease of Isabel, widow of the aforesaid Earl Hugh, who held it in dower.

In the 12th of Henry III. a fine was levied of customs and services, to be done for lands in this town and Congham, between Emme, daughter of Robert de Bintre, and Robert her son, querents, and Alan, son of Jeffrey de Rydon, and William, son of Humphrey; and in the 20th of Edward III. the heirs of William de Blakeney, &c. were found to hold the fourth part of a fee, in Reydon, which Robert Rydon formerly held, belonging to the Earl of Arundel, which was afterwards in the hands of Edmund Belzeter, William Rising, and their pareeners, in the 3d of Henry IV.

But the chief tenure was, about the end of Edward II. and in the beginning of Edward the Third's reign, in the family of Wodehouse, if not before.

Sir Richard de Wodehouse, son of Sir William, lived in the reign of Edward III. and was lord of Rydon, and by virtue of this lordship, &c. held of the castle of Rising, was obliged to repair and maintain a tower of that castle called Wodehouse's tower, and paid a sum of monee yearly for the castle guard, and as I presume lived here.

John Wodehouse, Esq. of the body to King Henry V. famous for his gallant behaviour at the battle of Agincourt, had his residence here, and was constable of the castle of Rising.

It appears from a MS. of William de Worcester, alias Botoner,<sup>4</sup> who lived in the reigns of Henry VI. and Edward IV. that he was in the retinue and family of Sir John Fastolfe, Knt. of the Garter, (his herald, and one of his executors,) that this John Wodehouse built here a large and most royal and beautiful manor-house, called the Rey, on the river hereby, which cost him above 2000 marks sterling, with stately offices, &c. about a mile from Rising, in which he died in 1430; and that this noble edifice was entirely destroyed, and pulled down to the ground, by the advice and assistance of Thomas Lord Scales, about September 21, 1454, by the consent of the heir of the founder, and his particular friend; the reason assigned is, that Thomas Danyel, Esq. of Lancashire, late sheriff of Norfolk, by the assistance and power of John (Mowbray) Duke of Norfolk, on account of his marrying a kinswoman of the said Duke, pretending a right and title to the said lordship, falsely asserting that Wodehouse, the heir to his father,<sup>5</sup> (the founder) had given it to him. On this pretence he several times entered the same by force, and a great army of the Duke. And this the Lord Scales did out of a good intention, though much to the loss and damage of Wodehouse's heir.

Upon this I presume the said Thomas Daniel became lord, and was also constable of Rising castle, &c. but on the accession of Edward IV. the said Thomas is said to have been attainted, and it was then most likely granted to Anthony Woodvile, who was created Lord Scales, having married Elizabeth, daughter and heir of Thomas Lord Scales, abovementioned; on the death of this lady, in the 13th of Edward IV. it was found that she held this manor of Rydon; and Anthony Lord Scales, &c. in her right presented to this rectory in 1473, and 1479.

On the death of Anthony Lord Scales and Earl Rivers, it probably came again into the Wodehouse family, in 1552, and 1561, Margaret, widow of Thomas Wodehouse, Esq. eldest son of Sir Roger Wodehouse, (who died in 1547, before his father,) being jointured herein, presented to the church, and Roger Wodehouse, Esq. was lord in the 36th of Henry VIII.

John Wodehouse, Esq. Thomas Daniel, Esq. married Margaret, daughter of Sir Robert Howard, by Margaret, daughter and coheir of Thomas Mowbray Duke of Norfolk.

Soon after this it was possessed by Ralph Waller, Esq. who presented to the church in 1564, and 1572, afterwards Richard Hovell, Esq. was lord of it. In the 2d year of King James I. the receiver of Henry Howard Earl of Northampton, accounted for 1100*l.* paid to Richard Hovell, Esq. for the purchase of the manor of Rydon, and in the next year a fine was levied thereof, and of lauds bought there of Thomas Foster, and Edward Callow, &c.

The said Earl, by deed dated April 13, in the 8th of King James, granted to Owen Shepherd, the next presentation of this church, to which is his seal of arms, four coats, viz. Howard, Brotherton, Warren, and Mowbray, within the garter; and died possessed of it in 1616, and then came to Thomas Howard Earl of Arundel, his heir, and afterwards to the Howards, Earls of Berkshire, and to the present lord, the Earl of Suffolk, as in Rysing.

It was taxed for tenths, &c. with Congham, at 5*l.* 3*s.*

I have seen a brass coin of Queen Isabel, mother of King Edward III. when she resided here, and held this lordship in capite, somewhat larger than our present shilling;<sup>6</sup> on it these arms—quarterly, an antique ship (as in that age) in the sea, or water; the old arms of this borough, (though the modern arms are represented to be a castle triple-towered) the legend obscure.

The reverse, in a lozenge, the arms of that Queen, as a widow; four flower-de-lis of France; at that time the Kings of France bore semy-de-lis; and on King Edward the Third's claim to that crown, he assumed, and quartered the same; the legend is obscure, but, RA. is plainly to be seen, for Regina, as I take it.

The CHURCH is dedicated to All-Saints, and is a rectory, the ancient valor was 6 marks and an half, and paid Peter-pence 4*d.*

The present valor is 5*l.* and is discharged of first-fruits and tenths, and exempted from all episcopal and archidiaconal visitations, except induction, and the rector has a probate of all wills in this parish.

The priory of Eye had a portion of tithe valued at 26*s.* 8*d.* per ann:

NORTH RUNGTON.

THIS town takes its name from its site, as surrounded with water: Turchetel was lord of it in the Confessor's time, a freeman, and had 2 carucates of land, 11 villains, 7 borderers, and 2 servi, with 30 acres of meadow; there were 2 carucates in demean, and one amongst the tenants, one mill, and the moiety of another, 4 salt pits, and the third part of another, &c. a church endowed with 30 acres; 13 socmen belonged to this manor, with 37 acres and a carucate.<sup>7</sup>

It was always valued at 6*l.* 4*s.* per ann. the whole was one leuca long and broad, and paid 12*d.* of a 20*s.* gelt, and East Winch was measured with it, (that is the part which Hermerus held there) and the Conqueror gave it to Hermerus de Ferrarijs, who was lord at the survey.

The descendants of this Hermerus assumed the name of Wirmegay, which town was his chief seat and residence: Richard de Wirmegay was father of William de Wirmegay, who lived in the reign of Henry II. was Baron of Wirmegay, and held 14 knights fees belonging to it, &c.

Reginald de Warren, second son to William, the 2d Earl Warren and Surry, married Alice, daughter and heir of the said William de Wirmegay, and had by her William de Warren, who lived in the reign of King Richard I. and dying in the 11th of King John, left Beatrice his daughter and heir, then the widow of Dodo Bardolf, son of Thomas de Bardolf; by Dodo, she had William Bardolf, Lord Bardolf, who in the 27th of Henry III. had that honour and barony delivered to him, together with this town, as a part, or member of it.

In this family it continued till the death of Thomas Lord Bardolf, who was beheaded and attainted, being in rebellion against King Henry IV. and that King granted it to his brother, Thomas Beaufort Duke of Exeter.

It came afterwards to Sir William Phelips Lord Bardolf, so to John Viscount Beaumont, and on the death of William Viscount Beaumont, and his lady, this manor and honour of Wirmegay fell to the Crown, as in Wirmegay, and so continued for some years.

In the 1st of King Edward VI. Christopher Coningsby, Esq. of Wallington<sup>s</sup> was found to die seized of it, and left it to his three daughters and coheirs, Elizabeth, Ann, and Amy. Francis Gawdy, Esq. by the marriage of Elizabeth, the eldest, had a third part of the same Thomas Clark, Esq. of Hampshire, who married Amy, and Alexander Balam, Esq. who married Ann, held the other two parts in the 1st of Elizabeth, which were purchased by the said Gawdy, afterwards a knight, and lord chief justice of the Common Pleas. At his death in or about 1605, it came to his daughter and heir, Elizabeth, who by Sir William Hatton, alias Newport, had a daughter and heir, Frances, married to Robert Rich Earl of Warwick, lord of this town in her right, and was sold by him on the 1st of June, in the 12th year of King James I. to George Cremer, alias Skryme, which George was third son of John Cremer of Snetesham, in Norfolk, by Ann, daughter of ——— Tash: George married Elizabeth, daughter of Adam Williamson, of Keswicke in Cumberland, and had Sir John Cremer, Knt. his eldest son, and Edmund Cremer, his 2d son; Sir John married Sarah, daughter of Sir Edward Filmer of East Sutton, in Kent, by whom he had a son and 3 daughters, who all died young, Edmund the second son lived at Westwinch, and married Anne, daughter of Richard Tryce, of Godmanchester in Huntingtonshire, and left Anne, his daughter and heir, who being married to William Lord Fitz Williams, of Lefford, in Ireland, in 1694, was living with this lady his wife; at Milton in Northamptonshire, and in this family it now remains.

Sir William de Rungeton was high sheriff of Norfolk, in the 16th of Edward II. and sealed with 2, 2, and 1 escallops, or flowers-de-lis.

Another lordship in this town was held at the survey, by William de Scohies, and by Turchill, in the Confessor's time; it consisted of one carucate of land held by 2 borderers, and 20 acres of meadow, one carucate in demean, and half a one amongst the tenants; 7 socmen belonged to it, in King Edward's time, who held then 60 acres, and 2 carucates; at the survey they held but one carucate and 8 acres of meadow, valued at 3l. per ann.

Soon after the conquest this seems to be possessed by William Giffard Earl of Buckingham, and by the marriage of the daughter and heir of that family it came to the Earls of Clare,

To this town the hamlets of Seche Magna, and Hardwick belong.

SECHEY MAGNA,

AND

HARDWICK,

ARE two hamlets belonging to North Runcton: Setche Magna is on the great road from London to Lynn, on a navigable river, called (higher up) the Nar; but in an old record, I find the river here called the Eye, and so probably takes its name, as set on that river, over which there is here a bridge.

It was part of the Lord Bardolf's manor of Runcton, and that lord had a charter of free-warren at Magna Seche, A. 33 of Henry III. with a weekly mercate on Monday, and 2 fairs in the year. From those lords it past as above, and was part of the Earl of Warwick's manor of Runcton, who in the reign of King James I. had the grant of a weekly mercate here every fortnight, on Tuesday, for fat cattle, and butchers from Norwich, and all parts of this country resort to it.

Jeffrey Fitz Piers Earl of Essex gave all his lands in North Runcton, Sudlebow and Sechey, held of the Earl of Clare, to the priory of Shouldham, and in the 8th of Richard II. Thomas de Warblington held one fee in Seche, South Lynn, Hardwick, and West Winch, of the honour of Clare.

In the 12th of Henry III. a fine was levied between Ralph de Normancill, and Alice his wife, petents, and Henry de Havill, tenant, of the third part of 8l. rent per ann. in Hardwick, Runcton, Sechith and Lenne, as the dower of Alice, from Ralph de Gernemuth, her late husband; and in the 52d of the said King, two fines were levied between Nicholas Durant, and Simon, vicar of Midleton, of a message and Barges came with coals, &c. up here, on the rive Eye, lately made navigable to Narburgh, &c.

These two hamlets had their chapels, and they were both standing in 1528.

On the 24th of May, in the 7th of James I. Francis Morrice and *Franc. The college to present the brother, or kindred of Hopes: the rector to have the acre, with the buildings on it, for a parsonage-house, keeping it in repair, and the Notley tithes; paying a fee farm rent of 40s. per ann. and 11l. 12s. per ann. viz. 3l. 8s. 8d. to the vice master of Trinity college, towards the maintenance of a poor scholar, to enjoy it 5 years after his admission, to be chosen by the vice master, and mayor of Lynn, out of Lynn free-school;—3l. 8s. 8d. to the church-wardens and overseers of North Rungton;—3l. 8s. 8d. to the church-wardens and overseers of Geyton;—6s. to Middleton poor;—10s. to East Winch;—3s. 4d. to East Walton;—3s. 4d. to Dudlington, and 3s. 4d. to Colveston poor, to be given to them who come to church, and in groats; and if the officers do not distribute it, the parish to lose their share for next year, and then to be paid to the chamberlain of Lyn, for the prisoners there.

Notley, tithe abovementioned, was the tithe of two parts of the demean land of Walter Giffard Earl of Bucks, in this town and in Middleton, given by him to Notley abbey in Bucks, founded by him.

SANDRINGHAM.

Called Sant-Dersingham, in the book of Domesday, from sand and Dersingham, of which see under that town.

A freeman in the Confessor's time enjoyed it under Herold, afterwards King of England, but being ejected at the Conquest, it was bestowed on Robert Fitz Corbon, or Corbution, who held the lordship of Saxingham, and Stokes, in the hundred of Hensted;—Rushale and Sterston, in that of Earsham;—Lothna, (Loddon) Golosa, (Gelsdon) Mundham and Brome, in the hundred of Lothpingga, (Cluvinger hundred)—Berningham, in South Erpingham.—Shelton, Sterston, Stratton and Freton, in Depwade, hundred;—Hadscø and Sarpestuna (Yelverton) in Cluvinger hundred.

Ralph held it under Robert: it consisted of 5 borderers, who held then a carucate, but at the survey there were neither borderers, nor a carucate; one servus then, and 3 acres and an half of meadow, and one carucate amongst the tenants, with a salt-pit, and was valued at 20s.<sup>1</sup>

WOOD-HALL.

William Fitz Corbun, or Curcon, whose son, Ralph Curzan, was lord of a manor in Stoke Holy Cross in the reign of King Henry II. was descended from Robert aforesaid, and also lords here; and by one of them was conveyed to Simon de Whatefield, from whom it came to Reginald de Wode and Alice his wife, who were lords in 1265, when he impleaded several persons for carrying away his goods from Sandringham, &c. and in the 14th of Edward I. Thomas de Wyklewode and Mary his wife, William, son of Geff. de Rugham, and Alice, his wife, sued Reginald for a messuage and 50 acres of land, with the appertinances in this town; this was purchased of them by Reginald, and conveyed by fine to him in the said year. Soon after this the abbot of St. Bennet, at Holm, had an interest in it; in 1296, Sir Richard de la Rokele had license from King Edward I. to exchange his manor of Greensvill, or Gresville in Stoke Holy Cross, for this of Woodhall.

In the 20th of Edward III. Roger de Sandringham, and Alice, late wife of John Rivet, were found to hold the fourth part of a fee in this town, which Peter, son of Robert, and Jeffrey Clerk formerly held: it came not long after into the family of the Cobbs, by the marriage of the daughter and heiress of Rivet. In the first year of King Richard III. November 4, Jeffrey Cobbe de Sandringham was bound in a bond for money to William Berdwell, Esq. and in the 2d of Henry IV. John Cobbe, son and heir of Jeffrey Cobbe, and of Alianora his wife, released to William Staundon, of Wympole in Cambridgeshire, and his heirs, all his right in the manor of Wympole, called Franceys. William Cobbe, of Sandringham, is mentioned in deeds of land, dated in the 8th and 13th of Edward IV. and is said to have married a daughter of ——— Briston, of Norfolk.<sup>2</sup>

On the 1st of July in the 8th of Henry VII. William Cobbe, of Sandringham, by his will then dated, bequeaths his body to be buried in the church of St. Mary Magdalen, of Sandringham, by Elizabeth his wife;<sup>3</sup> appoints Geffrey his son and heir, Symon Batchcroft, and Thomas Walpole, his executors: mentions William and Thomas, his younger sons, and Agnes his second wife, (who survived him) and Ralph Geyton, his father in law, and gives this manor with those of Babingley and Wolverton, to Jeff. his son. Thomas Walpole, of Lynn Bishop's, Esq. in his will dated 1512, calls this Jeffrey, his brother in law, having married his sister, ——— Walpole.

William Cobbe, (son of Jeffrey) married Dorothy, daughter of Sir John Spelman of Narburgh, and was father of Jeffrey, who had livery of the lordships of Rivets, Butlers, and Chapps, in this town Babingley and Wolverton, in the 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary: this Jeffrey married Elizabeth, daughter of Osbert Mundeford, Esq. of Feltwell, by whom he had William Cobbe, Esq. his son and heir, who had livery of this manor, &c. about 1580, on the death of his father. This William married (as is said) Elizabeth, or Mary, daughter of Sir Henry Bedingfeld of Oxburgh, and died May 16, 1612, as appears from an inquisition taken at Watton, September 18, in the said year, when Mary was found to be his widow, and Jeffrey Cobbe, Esq. his son and heir, by the said Mary, and she presented to the church of Sandringham in 1614.

Jeffrey married Elizabeth, daughter and heiress of Anthony Twaits of Hardingham, Esq. by whom he had William, his son and heir, aged 10 years on the death of his father Jeffrey, July 14, 1623: this William was a great royalist, and a colonel in the army, or militia, and suffered greatly on that account; he married Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Henry Bedingfeld of Oxburgh, and had by her, 4 sons and several daughters.

Jeffrey, his eldest son, was aged 25, in 1664, in which year his father presented to this rectory; this Jeffrey, married Frances, daughter of Isaac Astley, of Melton Constable, Esq. and sold this lordship about the year 1686, to Sir Edward Atkins, lord chief baron of the Exchequer, who shortly after conveyed it to James Host, Esq. (son of Theodore Hoost and Jane,<sup>4</sup> daughter of James Desmarstres) a rich merchant of London, who by Elizabeth, daughter of Edward Sley, alderman of London, had James Host, Esq. who married Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Edward Walpole, Knight of the Bath, of Houghton, in Norfolk, by whom he had James Host, Esq. whose son and heir, James, married Susan, daughter of Anthony Hammond, Esq. of South Wotton, by Lynn, leaving a daughter and heiress, Susan, who married Henry Cornish Henley, Esq. lord in her right, and resides in the hall, or manor-house.

The arms of Host—azure, a bull's head, cabosed, argent, winged and horned, or.

The manors also of West hall and Butlers, in Babingley, extended into this town. John de Tateshale and Catharine his wife and John Le Boteler, and their tenants, in the 21st of Edward I. were found to hold one fee here, in Babingley, and Wolfreton, and in the said reign, Peter de Snetsham was found to hold a quarter of a fee in this town, of Robert de Tateshale, who held it in capite.

The Botelers, lords here and in Babingley, were descended from Nicholas Pincerna, or Boteler, who was enfeoffed in the reign of King John, in the lordship of Wickmere, in Norfolk, by Roger Bigot Earl of Norfolk, and appears to be lord there, and of Sandringham, Babingley, and Wolverton. Emma Le Butiler, widow, and Thomas Le Butiler were living in 1232.

Nicholas Le Butiler was lord here, &c. in 1249, and married Beatrice, who afterwards remarried William Fitz Reyner, and was his wife of the Duke of Alva. There is a curious picture here of a young lady of the family, burned in those times, for her religion as a Protestant.

in 1272; this Nicholas had a daughter and coheir, married to William de Sancto Claro, who sold his right or moiety here, to William de Heveningham: and Felice occurs the widow of St. Cleer, in 1285; but after this it appears that John de Botiler, who married Ida, daughter and coheir of John de Babingley, had a lordship here, in the 26th of Edward I. son (as I take it) of Sir Ralph le Botiler, probably brother of the aforesaid Nicholas; and in this family it continued till Margaret, daughter and heir of Sir John le Boteler brought it, about the end of Edward the Third's reign, to Jeffrey Cobbe, and so remained (as I have before observed) till conveyed to Sir Edward Atkins, &c.

West-hall, or Tateshale manor, passed, as is mentioned in Babingley, from the heirs of Tateshale. to the Lord Scales, &c. and so to his heirs, till conveyed to the Cobbs, and sold also with Wood-hall manor to Sir Edward Atkins, &c. and the patronage of this church was in the Tateshales and Cliftons, &c. who had a moiety of it as lords of this manor, and that of Babingley, as heirs to Eudo, son of Spiruwin.<sup>5</sup>

On Sandringham heath is dug up great plenty of stone, called carr, or iron stone.

The master of the preceptory of Carbrook, in Norfolk, held lands here at the will of the prior of St. John, of Jerusalem, in the 41st of Henry III.

The temporalities of Fritcham priory were 2s. in 1428, and of West-acre 2s.

Nine acres of land here, lately belonging to Westacre priory, in the tenure of Jeffrey Cobbe, were granted September 15, in the 3d of Elizabeth, to Ed. Warner and Robert Shelton.

The CHURCH of Sandringham is dedicated to St. Mary Magdalen. and is a rectory; the old valor was 4 marks and an half, and paid 8d. Peter-pence, was in the patronage of the prior of Westacre, and the lord of West-hall, in Babingley, (the lord Tatishale.) and his heirs, &c.

The present valor is 5l. 6s. 8d. and is discharged of tenths, &c.

It is a single pile, with a tower at the west end.

In this church (as Weever says) was buried Richard Fitz John, patron of the church, as his epitaph declares,<sup>6</sup>—Priez pur le Alme du Richard Fitz-Jean, patron de ceste Maison, as still appears by the incision on the stone, wherein the letters of brass were fixed, and stolen off.

T I L N E Y.

THE Lord Bardolf's manor of Islington, and that of William de Scolies of Broughton, &c. extended here; and Heyld Montford, see in Islington.

LORD BARDOLF'S FEE.

At the survey Hermerus, (de Ferrarijs) of whom see in Wirmegay, alias Wrongey, had a lordship in Tilney, held by Turchetel, a freeman, in King Edward's time, and was deposed.

It consisted of a carucate of land, 7 borderers, 2 servi, and 24 acres of meadow, one carucate in demean, and one amongst the tenants, 7 salt-pits, &c. 310 sheep, always valued at 3*l.* per ann. and 6 acres of land valued at 12*d.* belonged to it.

A lordship also<sup>s</sup> Islington, (as I observed,) of the said Hermerus, extended into this town of Tilney.

Lx sol. i et xxiiii ac. pti. sep. i car. in dnio, et i huic jacet vi ac. tre. et val. xiid.

It was part of the honour of Wirmegay, the barony of the Lords Bardolf; and being a considerable lordship, several persons were enfeoffed therein; from whence sprung up many lordships, held by different parts of fees and tenures here, and the presentation to the church of Tilney belonged formerly to the Lord Bardoffs, as capital lords.

CHERVILE'S MANOR.

The family of Chervile, or Kervile, was early enfeoffed of part. In the 10th of Richard I. a fine was levied between Simon, son of Roger de Chervile, petent, and Robert, son Walter de Chervile, of lands in Tilney.

Sir Frederick de Chervill held 2 fees in Tilney, Islington, Wigenhale, and Clenchwarton, (when an aid was granted, on the marriage of King Henry the Third's sister to the Emperor of Germany) of the honour of Wimegeye;<sup>8</sup> and was found in the 34th of that King, to have a gallows, in Tilney, and the liberty, or power of trying and hanging offenders.

In the 4th of Edward I. William Lord Bardolf was found to die seized of a manor here, held in capite, by the service of paying castle guard to the castle of Norwich, 7s. per month, and half a mark per annum.

From the Cherviles it came partly to the Marmions, and to the Tilneys, probably by some marriage, Sir John Tilney having a lordship here, in Edward the Third's time, who was son of Sir Thomas de Tilney: Sir John was styled of Quaplode, in Lincolnshire, and left two daughters and coheirs, Isabell married to Jeffrey Folwile, by whom he had Maud, a daughter and heir, married to Sir John Woodford, whose son, Sir Robert of Sproxtun, in Leicestershire, gave his grandson John, in the 26th of Henry VI. lands here. Alice, another daughter and coheir of Sir John Tilney, married Edmund Kervile, of Wigenhale, St. Mary's.

WEST DERHAM ABBEY MANOR.

This abbey had considerable possessions in this town. William and Adam, sons of Turgis de Wigenhale, Walter, son of Herbert de Bintre, John Sculham, Alan, son of Philip de Tilney, &c. gave lands by deed sans date, to this abbey. In the 5th of King John, Adam de Wescunham, and Basilia his wife conveyed lands in Tylney to Ralph, abbot of Derham; and in the 34th of Henry III. it appears that the abbot had a manor here, and required service on that account from William, son of Richard de Tylney.

A patent was granted to the abbot, to purchase of Robert de Gold, &c. 2 messuages, and 31 acres of land in the said town, in the 17th of Edward II.

In the 3d of Edward III. he was found to hold 3 parts of a fee in Tilney, and Wigenhale, of the Lord Bardolf; and in the 20th of that King, in those towns, the 8th part of a fee of the said lord, which William de Chervile and Thomas de Graungia, formerly held; and in the 33d of the said King, he was found to hold lands by the service of 6d. per ann. here, given him and his successours, by Henry de Westing, cappellane, and Steph. Talbot, of Fincham, held by knight's service of the Lord Bardolf.

It appears from a roll of the honour of Wirmegay, that in the 3d of Henry IV. he held 2 fees in Tilney and Wigenhale, of the said lord, which were sold him by Robert Marmyon, with the rents and services of all his tenants, which he held of the fee of Frederick de Charevile, of the ancestrie of Adam de Mildenhale, coming by his father and mother, with the tenants of Sir John Tilney, in Tilney Chervile, and Tirington Chervile; and in 1428, the temporalities of this abbey were valued at 13l. 16s. 4d.

On the dissolution of this abbey, it came to the Crown, and was granted, July 3, in the 2d of Elizabeth, to Richard Nicholls, of Tilney, with all its appertenances in Tylney, Tyrinton, Islington, and Clenchwarton, with the rectory of Rougham, in Norfolk, belonging to Westacre priory, and the rectory of Downton, in Norfolk, belonging to the priory of Marmound; and George Nicholls held it in the 27th of that Queen.

FENN'S AND NOON'S MANOR.

In the reign of Henry III. Philip de Fenne, and his tenants, were found to hold the 3d part of a knight's fee here, and in Wigenhale, of the Lord Bardolf; and the heirs of John Noon held also, with the abbot of Derham 2 fees in the said towns of the same lord.

In the 14th of Edward I. Nicholas None and John None occur as landholders here; and in the 31st of that King, a fine was levied between Edmund Bardolf, querent, John, son of William Noon, of Tilney, and Isabel his wife, deforciant, of a messuage, a mill, 25 acres of land, in Tilney, and Tyrinton, which William de Bradenham, and Maud hiswife held in dower, and granted to Edmund, after their decease.

In the 9th of Edward II. William de Fenne is named amongst the lords of manors here; and the said William and Joan his wife, of Tylney, held it in the 2d of Edward III. as appears by a fine then evied.

In the 3d of the said King, the heirs of John Noon held, as appears from the escheat rolls, the 4th part of a fee of the Lord Bardolf, in Tilney; in the 7th year of the same reign a fine was levied between Edmund, son of John Noon, and Alice his wife, Walter de Glemesford, &c. trustees of this manor, then settled on Edmund and Alice in tail: the said Edmund, by the inquisitions taken in the 20th of the said King, held the 3d part of a fee, which Philip de Fenne, and his tenants formerly held, and Edmund occurs lord in the 41st of Edward III.

John Marshall, of Tyrinton, &c. conveyed lands in Tydd St. Mary's to Robert, son of John Noon, of Tylney, and Margaret his wife, and the heirs of Margaret, in the 1st year of Richard II. and in the 2d of that King, lands here were conveyed by fine to John Noon.

Sir Edmund Noon occurs lord in the 3d of Henry IV. and in the 5th of Henry VI. Thomas Noon held the 8th part of a fee in Tilney, William de Fenn was a commissioner of the marshes and sewers, in the 9th of Edward III.

Wigenhale, and Clenchwarton, of Thomas Beaufort Duke of Exeter, lord of the honour of Wirmegeye.

A fine in the 18th of Henry VI. was levied between John Overcell, &c. querents, Thomas Palmer, and Alice his wife, daughter and heir of Robert Noone, of Tilney, deforciant of lands here.

MARSHALL'S MANOR.

WILLIAM, son of John Le Mareschalle, had also a lordship held of the honour of Wirmegey, and it appears from a pleading at Norwich, in Hillary term, in the 15th of Edward I. that the said King had granted to him <sup>1</sup> A. 12, a fair in his lordship of Tilney, for 5 days, beginning on the vigil, the day of St. Lawrence, and 3 days after, yearly; and produced then his charter of the said King for the same, the Mareschalls having also a manor in Terington, and living in that town, I shall there speak more of them, and of the Duntons, who held lands here.

WENDLING - ABBOT'S MANOR.

In the 24th of Henry III. the abbot held in this town and in Wigenhale the 8th part of a fee of the honour of Wirmegey, and in the 20th of Edward III. the inquisitions say that William de Bradenham held it of the abbot for the term of his life; and in 1428, the temporalities of that abbey were taxed at 54s. 11d. in this town.

On the dissolution of the religious houses, in the time of Henry VIII. this monastery came to the Crown; and on the 30th of August, Queen Elizabeth, in her 13th year, granted it, with all the lands and tenements, &c. belonging to it, in the towns of Tilney, Islington, Clenchwarton, Walpole, Emmeth, and Gayton, to Thomas Jennyns and Ed. Forth.

I take the lands that Jordan Foliot, son of Sir Richard Foliot, confirmed to Sir William Foliot, his brother, by deed sans date, in this town, and Islington, of the purchase formerly of Robert de Stotville, his uncle, with liberties, &c. belonging, for 6s. 9d. rent per ann. made up part of this manor.

WESTACRE PRIORY.

Jeffrey Sutton aliened lands in this town, Terington, Wigenhale, &c. to this priory, in the 6th of Edward II. and John Wigenhale, 60 acres of land, and 12 of pasture here, in Terington and Wygenhale, in the 7th of the said King; and Thomas de Tilney granted to the prior 8l. per ann. out of land in Tilney, Wigenhale, and Clenchwarton, to found a chantry in the church of St. German's, of Wigenhale.

In the 3d of Edward III. the prior held a quarter of a fee, of the Lord Bardolf, and his temporalities in 1428, were valued at 3l. 0s. 8d. per ann. or as some say 40s. 8d.

EARL OF CLARE'S FEE.

Tort, a freeman, was lord of a manor in Tilney, in King Edward's time, which at the survey, was possessed by Ralph Bainard, and Gaosfrid, or Geffrey held it under him; it consisted of one carucate of land, 5 villains, 4 borderers, and 4 acres of meadow; there was one carucate also in demean, and one among the tenants, 5 salt-pits, with the moiety of another, &c. formerly 15 sheep, at the survey 200; in King Edward's time it was valued at 40s. afterwards at 10s. and at the survey at 60s. per ann.<sup>2</sup>

Tort, or Torn, as he is also written in Domesday Book, held several lordships in this county, in which I find this Lord Bainard to succeed him, and is called a Thane, in the account of the town of Wheatacre, in the hundred of Clavering. Gaosfrid, or Geffrey, was either brother, or son to the Lord Ralph; that he was a relation appears from his being styled Gaosfrid Bainard, in the town of Kerdeston, in the hundred of Eynesford; it is certain that this Lord Ralph had by Juga, his wife, a son and heir, Geffrey Baynard, and was succeeded by William Baynard, who taking part with Helias Earl of Mayne, Phil. de Bruose, William Mallet, and other conspirators against King Henry I. lost his barony, great part of which that King gave to Robert, son of Richard, son of Gilbert Earl of Clare, from whom the Lords Fitz Walter descended; but as I do not find any mention of those lords, it is most probable that this part of the Boynards' estate was granted to Gilbert Fitz Richard, or to his father, Richard Fitz-Gilbert, Earl of Brion, &c. in Normandy, who married Rohesia, daughter and heir of Waite Giffard Earl of Bucks: this Walter had also a considerable lordship in the town of Islington, which also descended to Richard Fitz Gilbert. Gilbert Fitz Richard was Earl of Clare, about the end of Henry the First's reign. That the Earls of Clare had a manor in this town appears from ancient records; and was divided into several parts, or fees.

In the 8th year of the reign of King John, it appears from a pleading that Godfrey, son of Godwine, held part of a fee in Tilney; and in King Henry the Third's time, Jordan Foliot confirmed by deed sans date, to his brother Sir William Foliot, (both of them sons of Sir Richard Foliot) all his land in Tilney and Islington, purchased formerly of Sir Robert de Stotcville, his uncle, with all liberties, commons, and easements thereto belonging, with 3s. 9d. rent per ann.; witnesses, Sir William Bardolf, Roger de Vaux, John de Ingaldesthorp, John Strange, and William de Tirington, Knts. John de Wigenhale, Thomas de Wesenham, William de Medlers, &c. and in the 43d of the said King a fine was levied between William de Wendling, clerk, querent, Gyles de Fernon and Joan his wife, impediens, of 40s. rent per ann. in this town, Wigenhale, Clenchwarton, North Lynn, &c. granted to William, to be held of Gyles and Joan, and the heirs of Joan.

John Fitz John, of Reynham, John de Fenn, and John de Wigenhale held the 3d part of a fee in this town, Clenchwarton, and Wigenhale, of Richard son of Simon, belonging to the honour of Clare.

In the 52d of Henry III. Thomas de Warblington, in Susser, and Elizabeth his wife, conveyed to William de Sculham, a mark's rent here, and in Wigenhale, and the homages and services of several persons, viz. Richard de Sculham, &c. who held by several rents and suits of court at Tilney.

In the 8th of Edward II. Thomas de Warblington held one fee here, in Middleton, Clenchwarton, Wigenhale, West Winch, Hardwick, Seche, and South Lynn, of the said honour.

Sir John de Fitton had also about this time a considerable estate here. In the 9th of the said King, John Le Neve of Tilney, and Alice his wife, conveyed lands to Sir John, and Margaret his wife; and in the 17th year of that King, Ralph de Edynesthorp, vicar of St. German's Wigenhale, conveyed to him, and Amicia, his then wife, 13 messuages, a mill, 250 acres of land, 62 of meadow, 34 of pasture, 60 of heath, and 6 marks rent per ann. &c. in Tilney, Terrington, Wigenhale, and Islington, settled on Sir John and Amicia, in tail, remainder to Thomas, first, and after to John, sons of John de Tilney, who married Sir John Fitton's, sister.

In fines of lands lying in this town, frequent mention is made of the Tilney family. Robert de Tilney lived in the reign of King Henry III. and Godfrey, his son, was found to have a manor here, in the 3d of Edward I.

William, son of Godfrey de Tilney, gave lands sans date, to Castleacre priory—witnesses, Alexander de Ingaldesthorp, William de Dunham, &c.

In the 16th of that King, Walter de Tilney purchased of Roger de Plympton, and Maud his wife, Thomas Florentyn, and Katharine, his wife, lands in this town, by fine levied. In the 4th of Edward II. William, son of Nicholas, son of Geffrey de Tylney, conveyed lands here to John, son of Richard Sefoul, and Katherine, his wife, by fine; and John de Tilney, and Henry Blower, of Tylney, conveyed lands by fine to John Styward, in the 3d of Richard II.

Philip, son of Frederick de Tilney, who lived at Boston, in Lincolnshire, Esq. was possessed of a manor, or lands here, as appears by his will dated on the feast of St. Ambrose, in the 11th year of King Richard II. and Frederick had 50 acres of land here, conveyed to him by fine, which Nicholas Blower held for the life of Agnes, widow of John, son of William Noon, of Tilney.

In the 47th of Edward III. and in the 43d of that King, John, son of Geffrey de Tilney and Agnes, his wife, had lands conveyed to them by fine.

John de Woodnorton, before this, impleaded in the court of King's Bench, John, son of Thomas de Reynham, for 60 acres of land, 30s. rent, with the moiety of a messuage, in Tylney, Sith Clenchwarton, and Wigenhale, and in the said year, Alan, son of John de Reynham, uncle of Elias de Hauville, was seized in demean of 51 acres of land in this town.

In the 5th of Henry VI. a fine was levied between John Tyrell, Esq. Robert Smith, &c. querents, Thomas Tyrell, Esq. and Katherine, his wife, Robert Stonham, Esq. and Mary his wife, deforciant of a manor, in Tilney, conveyed to Smith.

Thomas Godsalve, Esq. son and heir of Thomas Godsalve, of Norwich, released on October 1, in the 30th of Henry VIII. according to his father's will, to Thomas, his brother, lands in several towns, with his manor, or messuages in Tilney.

Sir Robert Audley had livery of a lordship here, about the 18th of Queen Elizabeth.

Pentney priory had lands here, held of the Bardolfs, valued in 1428, at 41s. at the dissolution, granted to Edward, Lord Clynton, November 26, A<sup>d</sup>. 5 Edward VI.

Wirmegey priory also land, valued then at 21s. 4d.

The monks of Thetford, in rents, 9s. per ann. the priory of Ixworth, in meadow grounds 9s. per ann.

Weaver, in his Funeral Monuments,<sup>3</sup> gives an extract from a book then in the hands of Thomas Tilney, of Hadley, in Suffolk, Esq. which belonged (as in a note of the said book is said) to Sir Frederick Tilney, of Boston, in Lincolnshire, who was knighted at Acon in the Holy Land, by King Richard I. in his 3d year; a knight remarkable for his great stature, and strength of body; and was buried with his ancestors in the church of Tirington, by Tilney, whose height was to be seen there at that time, viz. 1556.

After him 16 knights succeeded, (of the name of Tilney) and in the estate; who all lived at Boston, till it came to Thomas Duke of Norfolk, by the marriage of a daughter and heiress of an elder brother.

The last of this knightly family, was then Sir Phil. Tilney of Shelleigh, in Suffolk, father of the above Thomas Tilney, of Hadley.

The book here mentioned, in 1727, was in the hands of Peter Le Neve, Norroy, but the note above-mentioned appears by the hand to be written long after the siege of Acon, and about the reign of King Henry VIII. or Edward VI. and there was no such succession of knights, as here mentioned.

PRIOR OF LEWES'S MANOR, OR KENWICK'S,

Was part of the capital lordship of that prior in West-Walton, and granted by the name of Kenwick, in Tilney, in the reign of King Richard I. with the consent of the abbot of Clugny, of Burgundy, in France, (to which abbey Lewes was a cell) to Alan, son of Robert de Snetsham, alias de Inglethorp, in fee farm, at 20 marks per ann. most of the demean lands belonging to it being exempted from tithe.

Thomas de Ingaldesthorp was lord in the 8th of King John, and in the 3d of Edward I. John de Ingaldesthorp was found to hold a knight's fee in this town, and Wigenhale, and had the assise of bread, beer, &c. he also held lands of the Bishop of Ely, and of William de Terrington, paying to them 31s. per ann. Thomas de Ingaldesthorp had a charter of free-warren in his lands here, at Sneteshum, &c. in the 33d of that King, and Sir William de Ingaldesthorp died lord in the 46th of the said reign.

Sir Thomas de Ingaldesthorp founded a chapel, or oratory in this manor, for the ease of his family, and heirs; no tithe, or oblations belonged to it, and there was no institution or induction, as the jury found in the 1st of Richard II. but it was a false return.

On the death of Sir Edmund de Ingaldesthorp, the last heir male of this family, in the 35th of Henry VI. it passed (as may be seen in the manor of Bellase's, in Emmeth) to the Nevills. Isabell, his daughter and heir, being married to John Nevill, a younger son of Richard Earl of Salisbury, created by King Edward IV. Lord Marquis Montacute.

On a division of the estate of his son, George Nevill Duke of Bedford, between his 5 sisters and coheirs, this came to the Lady Elizabeth, one of the said sisters, who married Thomas Lord Scroop of Upsale, and Massam, and presented to the chapel of Kenwick, in 1530, then a widow: by an inquisition taken October 14, in the 10th of Henry VIII. the jury find that the said lady died in the 9th of that King; and left it to her niece, Lucy, on condition that she married John Cuttes, Esq.<sup>4</sup> son and heir of Sir John Cuttes, of Cambridgeshire, which Lucy was daughter of Lucy Nevill, (sister of the Lady Scroop) who married first, Sir Thomas Fitz Williams, of Aldwarke, in Yorkshire, and afterwards Sir Anthony Brown, and John Cuttes, Esq. was lord in the 12th of Elizabeth.

The Earl of Fitz Williams, lord in 1750, and 1765.

The tenths were 30*l.* 6*s.*—Deducted 3*l.*

The abbot of Bury's manor, in Islington, extended into this town: this was possessed by the Keens in 1720, and by his Excellency Sir Benjamin Keen, Knt. of the Bath, his Majesty's ambassador to the King of Spain, and is now held by the Bishop of Ely.

Here was also a lordship called Broughton's, from a family of that name: see in Islington.

This town gives name to a famous common, called Tilney Smeeth, whereon 30000, or more, large Marshland sheep, and the great cattle of seven towns, to which it belongs, are constantly said to feed; about two miles in breadth and -- in length, viz. Tilney, Terrington, Clench-warton, Islington,<sup>5</sup> Walpole, West Walton, Walsoken, and Emmeth: a piece of land so fruitful, (as was reported by a courtier to King James the First, at his first coming to the crown) "that if over night a wand, or "rod, was laid on the ground, by the morning it would be covered with "grass of that night's growth, so as not to be discerned;" to which that king is said, in a jocose manner, to reply, "that he knew some "grounds in Scotland, where if an horse was put in over night, they "could not see him, or discern him in the morning." Of this plain, or Smeeth, there is a tradition, which the common people retain, that in old time, the inhabitants of these towns had a contest with the lords of the manors, about the bounds and limits of it; when one Hickifric, a person of great stature and courage, assisting the said inhabitants, in their rights of common, took an axle-tree from a cart wheel, instead of a sword, and the wheel for a shield, or buckler, and thus armed, soon repelled the invaders; and for proof of this notable exploit, they to this day shew (says Sir William Dugdale<sup>6</sup>) a large grave-stone, near the east end of the chancel, in Tilney churchyard, whereon the form of a cross is so cut, or carved, as that the upper part thereof (wherewith the carver hath adorned it) being circular, they will therefore needs have it to be the grave-stone of Hickifric, and to be as a memorial of his gallantry.

The stone coffin which stands now out of the ground, in Tilney, churchyard, on the north side of the church, will not receive a person above 6 feet in length, and this is shewn as belonging formerly to the giant Hickifric; the cross, said to be a representation of the cart-wheel, is a cross pattee, on the summit of a staff; which staff is styled an axle-tree; such crosses pattee on the head of a staff, were emblems, or tokens that some Knight Templar was therein interred, and many such are to be seen at this day in old churches.

Til, is the name of a river in Northumberland, and many towns take their names from Til; as Tilbrook in Bedfordshire, Tilford, in Surry, Tilbury, in Essex, &c.

The CHURCH of Tilney is dedicated to all the Saints, and is a large building, consisting of a nave, north and south isle, with a chancel covered with lead; at the west end stands a square tower, with pinnacles, and -- bells therein; on the tower, a spire of free-stone.

At the west end of the north isle, is an old altar monument, but no arms, or inscription on it: near this, against the lowest pillar, may be observed a place for the holy water, some chapel and altar being here; in the second window, as you ascend, are the remains of some of the Apostles, with labels of the creed; also the figures of St. Catharine, and of the Virgin Mary, with the child Jesus; and at the bottom,

Alicie uxoris sue.

On the pavement hereby is a marble grave-stone, with these arms -----, in a bend between two bendlets, three escallops, ---- on a canton, ----, a garb—King, impaling -----, argent, two pallets vert, and on a canton, or, a mullet, gules, Heblethwayt.

Mr. Heblethwayt, rector of Great Snoring, in Norfolk, and had issue by her 6 children, Robert, Lydia, Sarah, Ann, Elizabeth, and Charles; Elizabeth only surviv'd him; he died Jan. 15, 1693, aged 52.*

On another adjoining, the same arms for,

Sarah, wife of Arthur King, who died 18, of July 1717, aged 72, and left, one daughter, Elizabeth, married to Christ. Bedingfeld Esq. of Wighton, in Norfolk.

In the 3d window, the figure of St. Christopher, with Jesus on his shoulder.

In the 4th window, other of the Apostles, with labels, and the effigies of a man and his wife, their heads broke off, and on their knees; at the bottom a broken fragment,

In the 5th window, St. James the Great, St. Peter beginning the creed, &c.

The upper part, or east end of this isle, is taken in by a screen; on the pannels are painted several arms; argent, a cross patonce - -, probably it was vert, Sefoul, and now obscure through time, as the rest are (the Sefouls had an estate in this town in Edward the First's time, &c.)—argent, a chevron, between three mullets, gules—Broughton; on a fess, argent, three roses, gules; sable, on a bend, argent, three flowers-de-lis of the first; and sable on a fess, argent, three roses, gules, as they now appear; the whole screen is ornamented with roses, mullets and stars; within this screen is a long, narrow chapel, probably dedicated to the Virgin Mary; the windows being painted with M and crowns over it, in many places, and with a lily, in a flower-pot; the lily being the emblem of purity and chastity.

Ferdinando King of Arragon instituted an order of knighthood under the name of the lily, about the year 1403. Here are also the figures of St. John the Baptist, St. John the Evangelist, that of Edward the Confessor, &c.

In a window, a person on his knees, at confession, a priest standing by him, and on the pavement, a gravestone deprived of its shields, &c. of brass, and now thereon is an inscription for—Mr. Tho. Say, who dyed Feb. 20, 1683, aged 54; and on another adjoining,

In memory of Sarah, wife of Mr. Edmund Say, who died December 18, 1679, aged 46.

The east end of the south isle is also taken in by a screen, and was an old chapel; in the east window, the figure of St. John the Evangelist, and—In principio erat verbum, &c.; and in a south window that of the Virgin: on the pavement, a marble stone, with the arms of Towers, ermine, a castle triple-towered, gules, and

On the walls of this chapel, are painted several shields, now much obscured by length of time, quarterly, azure, a lion rampant, argent, collared, with a label of three points, in the first and 4th quarter, Cokil, of Newton in the isle, and or, three chessrooks, gules, (quere if not Pinchbeck) in the 2d and 3d quarter, gules, three waterbudgets, ermine, Ross—gules, a cross ingrailed argent, Ingletorpe;—quarterly, or and gules, a bordure, sable, bezanty, Rochford;—vairy, argent and sable, over all a bend, gules; a lion rampant; azure, a fess between two chevrons, argent, Tendering;—checque, a fess gules;—St. George's shield, a cross gules; azure, three cinquefoils, or, Lord Bardolf; also Lord Scales,—Howard, - - - - and or, a cross ingrailed vert,—Noon; argent, three hunter's horns, sable, Blowere, as I take it.

Adam de Blowere was a commissioner for the banks and sewers of Marshland in 1294.

The roof of the nave is of oak, supported by principals, with angels, their wings extended: on a window over the first arch, on the south side—argent, three hunter's horns, sable, Blowere: on a window over the 2d arch of the nave, on the north side, argent, a chevron between three wolves heads erased, gules, Lovell.

At the lower end of the nave, on a grave-stone,

*Here lyeth interred the body of Thomas Bold, sometym vicker of Tilney, worshipfully descended of the ancient family of the Bolds, of Bold-Hall, in Lancashire, who changed this life for a better, Nov. 8, 1658, and wayts the resurrection of the just. This church with the vicarage and the portions therein belonging to Nutteley abbey, in Buckinghamshire, and to that of Buy, was valued in 1428, at 120 marks, Peter-pence 2s.

The present valor of the vicarage is 30*l.* and is not discharged.

RECTORS.

Godfrey de Acre occurs rector in the 22d of Edward I.

1327, Ymbert de Monte Martino, was instituted rector—rector also of Castre Holy Trinity, by Yarmouth, presented by Sir Thomas Bardolf; he resigned Bradwell juxta Mare in Essex.

1371, William de Humberstone, presented by the King; and in 1374, by the King to the rectory of Harlow, in Essex; and to that of Yoovil in Wells diocese, 1375.

In the 20th of Edward III. a fine was levied between Mary de St. Paul Countess of Pembroke, and John Lord Bardolf, of the patronage of this rectory, and an acre of land, viz. the churchyard, held in capite, and conveyed then to the Countess for 48 marks, the fine being levied by a special precept: the family of Bardolf is, by all accounts that I have seen, said to have purchased it of Sir Frederick de Cherville, in the reign of Henry III. but as the Cherewiles' manor in this town was held of the Lords Bardolf, who had the chief fee in it, it is most probable that it was always an appendix to their capital manor.

King Edward III. in his 32d year, granted a patent to appropriate it to Pembroke-Hall, in Cambridge, by the gift of the foundress, (the said Countess of Pembroke) and a vicarage settled.

VICARS.

In 1372, February 15, John de Appleby was instituted vicar, presented by the master and fellows of St. Mary Valence's Hall, in Cambridge, Pembroke-Hall being at that time so called.

1394, Mr. William Moryn. Ditto.

A patent was granted in the 15th of Richard II. for a messuage, one cottage, and 26 acres of land, in this town, to the vicar of this church, aliened by Richard Morice, &c. One of this name was master of Pembroke-hall at this time, 1409, John Spencer, A.M. ditto, and occurs in 1423.

—, Robert Patchet, vicar.

Robert Housson, or Howysson, occurs vicar 1442, and 1430.

Richard Stubbs, vicar about 1460, S.T.P. and master of Clare-Hall.

Thomas Bold occurs vicar 1630, and compounded then, March 22, for first-fruits.

1638, William Paris, compounded February 1.

Henry Jenkins, vicar, and rector of Rungton-Holm, cum Wallington, died 1732.

1732, John Whaley, D. D. master of St. Peter's college in Cambridge. Ditto.

1748, Mr. J. Peele, vicar, on Whaley's death. Ditto.

Richard Peverell, Esq. of Tilney, died seized of lands here, as by his will in 1423: he gives a horse of 10*l.* value to his Lord, Thomas Duke of Exeter, to be supervisor of his will.

Robert Howsson, vicar, wills to be buried in the place, where the font formerly stood, in the church of All-Saints, Tilney; orders a priest to sing for him 10 years at Trinity altar, in that church, and gives a silver cup to it;—10 marks to buy vestments, and a portifory for the two chaplains serving in St. Laurence's, in Tilney, and a marble stone to be laid over him.

Robert Kervill of Tylney wills, in 1514, to be buried in this church, gives to Gilbert his son, all his lands and tenements, in Tylney and Islington, except 40 acres to Katherine his wife, for life; to Rickard his son 10*l.*

In this parish is a chapel (belonging to the mother-church of Tilney All-Saints) dedicated to St. Laurence.

In this chapel were the arms of Inglethorp, and Noon; and argent, on a chevron, azure, between three tigers heads erased sable, three crescents, ermin—Nicholas, impaling Hunston.

Thomas Little, chantry priest here, had a pension in Edward the Fourth's time of 4l. per ann. on the dissolution of it.

There was also in the manor of Inglethorp, at Kenwick in this town, a free chapel dedicated to St. Thomas the Martyr, founded by Thomas de Ingaldesthorp, in the reign of King John, and had a portion of tithes belonging to it in the church, given probably by the founder, and valued in 1428, at 6 marks per ann. and here was the guild of the Trinity.

King Richard II. as guardian to the heir of Sir William de Inglethorp, enjoined, in his first year, Alianore, wife of the late Sir William, to admit Hugh de Gandeby, to this chapel.

CHAPLAINS.

On the dissolution of it, Ralph Cantrell, the late chaplain, had a pension allowed him of 5l. per ann. which he held in the 5th of Edward VI. admitted October 15, 1532, by the Bishop, on a lapse.

I find these persons admitted chaplains.

April 30, 1377, Hugh de Gandeby, presented by the King.

July 30, 1474, Richard Mitton, by Sir William Norrys, Knt. and the lady Isabella de Montecute his wife.

September 10, 1481, Mr. Nicholas Goldwell, LL. B. by ditto.

November 27, 1505, William Leigh, by Sir William Norrys, Knt.

May 9, 1510, Thomas Blithe, by Elizabeth Lady Scroop, widow.

TYRINGTON.

THIS town, though very considerable in its bounds and lands, is not mentioned in the book of Domesday, and the reason is, that there was at that time, no independent manor or lordship, with its lands here, held of the King; all the lands herein, belonged to, and depended on, some neighbouring lordships and towns, where they had their site, and extended themselves into this; and were under those lordships and towns valued and extended and accounted for.

The subject and design of that most valuable record, (Book of Domesday) being to set forth and ascertain those lands only, which were held in capite, and that in the proper place, where the heads of such fees and tenures lay, and immediately appertained and belonged. Many indeed have maintained that if a town was not to be found in that book, it was not at that time in being; not considering and reflecting rightly on the true subject and design of that book: this led Camden, and after him others, to assert Roiston in Hertfordshire, not to have a being in the time of the Conqueror, the case being the same with that town, as with this of Tyrington, as will appear.

The town of Roiston being included under the account of the manors and lordships of Berkwey, Tharfield, Melburn, Bassingbourn, &c. all which extended into it, and included the whole township of Roiston: and many instances of the same kind might be mentioned, and often here occur.

That the town of Tyrington was in the Saxon age, long before the Conquest, appears from a grant of Godric, brother to Eduoth, abbot of Ramsay, about the year 970, who gave to that abbey his lands, in Turingtona, on condition that Eduoth should free it from the service called Heregeat; <sup>7</sup> which was wont to be paid to the lord by free heirs after their father's decease, now called a Hariot.

By this it appears that the aforesaid Godric had, about a century before the conquest, a lordship in this town of Tyrington.

BARDOLPH'S FEE.

Hermerus de Ferrariis, who held a manor in Tilney, and Islington, in the Conqueror's time, was also lord of part of this town, into which the said manor extended; <sup>8</sup> this came after to the Lords Bardolf; and was a member of the honour, or barony of Wirmegay: part of this was held by the ancient family of Terington, who assumed their name from this town.

In the 7th of King John, a fine was levied between Ralph de Tyrington, petent, and Robert de Tirington, his brother, deforciant, of lands in Terington. In the 12th of the same King, Mr. Richard de Tyrington, was a great favourite of that King to whom he gave an annuity of 20 marks per ann. for his life; and in the 34th of Henry III. John, son of Geffrey de Tirington, impleaded Adam Prudekin for the right of a way beyond the land of Adam de Terrington.<sup>9</sup>

William de Tyrington, in the 49th of the said reign, had a charter for free-warren, in his demean lands here, and in Middleton; about the same time lived Ralph de Tirington; and in the 3d of Edward I. Sir William de Tirington had wreck at sea, assise of beer and bread, and the amercements of his tenants, as he had in the 52d of Henry III.<sup>1</sup>

Ralph de Tirrington, also, held 3 virgates of land in Tirington, of the Bishop of Ely, paying 5s. 4d. per ann. and And. de Tirington, half a virgate of the Bishop in Walpole, paying 47s. 5d. per ann. in Henry the Third's reign.

In the year 1500, William Battayle, Esq. had an interest in this manor, and was patron of the free chapel of St. James belonging to it.

In 1323, one of the same name, was a commissioner to view the banks and sewers of Marshland; William Batail married, as I take it, Ida, daughter of Sir William de Tirington, and was lord in her right.

In 1338, Thomas Howard, of Wigenhale, son of William Howard, and Margaret his wife, daughter of William Noon, of Tilney, William Alisaundre, Sir John Bardolf, &c. presented to the chapel.

By an inquisition taken in 1346, the heirs of Ida, late wife of William Batail, were found to hold the 3d part of a fee of the Lord Bardolf; so that Thomas Howard, William Alisaundre, and Sir John Bardolf married, most likely, 3 of the daughters and coheirs of William Batail and Ida his wife; and it appears that John Avenell married Joan, and Sir Robert de Caston, married Isabell, 2 other of the said daughters and coheirs.

Afterwards the whole right above, was in the Loveells. Thomas Lovell of Barton Bendish, Esq. presented in 1416; by his will dated September 10, A<sup>o</sup>. 9, of Henry V. he gives it to his 2d son, Nicholas, who presented in 1424,; from the Loveells it came to the Howards, and Wentworths, being united to Howard's manor, as I shall show.

HOWARD'S MANOR.

Ralph de Stretton, and his partners, held the fourth part of a fee. Hamo de Nersford, and William, son of Herlewin, held each the fourth part of a fee, in 1234, of the honour of Wirnegeye; on the aid then granted at the marriage of King Henry's sister, Isabel, to the Emperor; and in 1239, William de Kerdeston granted to William, son of Herlewin of Tyrington, a messuage, with a carucate of land, by fine, in this town.

William Howard purchased lands here, in Walpole and Tylney, in the 20th of Edward I. of John de Hoyland and Sibill his wife.

In the 21st of Edward I. Peter, son of John de Spalding,<sup>2</sup> and Hamon de Narborow, held the fourth part of a fee, John de Fytton, Philip de Fenne, and their tenants the 12th part of a fee, and William Howard, William Batail, and Robert de Causton, or Causton, the 3d part of a fee, of the Lord Bardolf.

Messuages and lands here, were sold (by fine levied in the 27th of that King) by John de Dulingham, to William, son of Andrew Howard, and William Howard had lands in Tyrington, Walpole and Tilney, conveyed to him, by fine, in the 33d of the said reign, from Robert de Causton; and in the following year, William Howard was querent in a fine, Robert de Causton and Isabel his wife, deforeiants, of the 4th part of 70 messuages, 2 mills, 500 acres of land, 6 of pasture, 200 of marsh, and 40s. rent in this town, Walpole and Tilney, granted to William, who granted to Robert and Isabel 60 acres of land, 40 pence rent, and 2 parts of a messuage, in Tyrington, and Tilney, to hold to them and their heirs: this I take to be Sir William, the judge, ancestor of the Dukes of Norfolk.

The said William Howard, bought of John Gybon, and Lucia his wife, the 3d part of 3 parts of the manor of Tyrington, by fine, in the 1st of Edward II. in the following year John Howard and Joan his wife had 3 parts of a manor in Tyrington, one messuage, and 2 caru-cares of land in Pentney, Assewell, Thorp, (Geyton Thorp) Walton East, and Nareford, conveyed to them by Richard de Cornwall.

This was Sir John Howard's, (eldest son and heir of Sir William the judge) on his marriage with the said Joan, daughter of Richard, and sister of Richard de Cornwall; yet the said Richard had some right still in this town, for in the 3d of the said King, Richard de Cornwall, the father, as appears from the eschact rolls, was found to hold with Battayle the fourth part of a fee.

In the 20th of Edward III. John Avenell and Joan his wife, held the fourth part of a fee, which Peter, son of John Spalding, formerly held; and the said John and Joan, with Robert de Causton and the heirs of Ila, late wife of William Bataile, held the 3d part of a fee of the Lord Bardolf; and at the same time John de Tilney, and his parceners, held the 12th part of a fee of the said lord, which John de Fitton formerly held. Peter Spalding sold his part or manor, (having enfranchised several villains) to Sir John Howard the elder.

In the 3d of Richard II. a fine was levied of the manor of Howards, in Tyrington, with that of Wigenhale, &c. between William Ufford Earl of Suffolk, Sir John Lovell, Sir John Tudenham, Knts. &c. feoffees, querents, and Sir Robert Howard and Margaret his wife, deforciant; and in the 2d of Henry IV. Sir John Howard was lord, which Sir John on his death, in 1437, left to Henry Howard his second son, by the lady Alice, daughter of Sir William Tendring, his 2d wife, the manor of Terrington Howards, and East Walton, &c. whose daughter and sole heir, Elizabeth, brought it by marriage to Henry, 2d son of Roger Wentworth, Esq. of Nettled in Suffolk, (who died seized of it the 22d of Edward IV.) by whom he had Roger Wentworth of Codham, Suffolk, Knt. who died in the 33d of Henry VIII. and by Anne his wife, daughter and heir of Humphrey Tyrell of Warley, in Essex, (second son of Sir Thomas Tyrell, of Heron, in Essex) had Sir John Wentworth of Codham, and Gosteld, who had livery of this manor in the 31st of Henry VIII. and dying September 3, 1567, was buried at Gosfield, in Essex; leaving by Anne, his wife, daughter of ——— Bettenham, of Pluckley, in Kent, Esq. two daughters and coheirs, Mary, (married to Thomas Lord Wentworth) who died without issue; and Ann, married first to Sir Hugh Rich, son and heir to Richard, Lord Rich; afterwards to Henry Lord Matrevers, son and heir to Henry Fitz Alan Earl of Arundel,<sup>3</sup> and third to Sir William Dean, of Deans-Hall, in Great Maplested, in Essex: this lady Anne, then Lady Matrevers, had livery of this lordship, about the 13th of Elizabeth, and being sole heiress to her father, had a great inheritance; the manors of Wyston, those of Overhall, and Netherhall, in Passingford, Cavendish, Impeys, Hinktons, and Bully Hall in Clare, in Suffolk, Gerener's in Withermondeford, &c. and in jointure, Sythingham manor, Nortofts, in Finchingfeld, Chilterditch, Belchamp-Otto, Belchamp William, Overhall, in Gestingthorp, Hodinge, with Park-Hall in Gosfield, Belhous-hall, and Shardelows, Codham-Hall, Tostington, Cheyneys, Hampton, Wychards, Woodmanecote, cum Northwood, Nutbeans, Wolbeding, Nicholls, in Schalleford, and Gorings, all in Essex.

<sup>3</sup> He was son and heir of Henry Earl Dorset, and died without issue, aged 19, of Arundel, by Katherine his wife, at Brussels, and was there buried in daughter of Thomas Grey Marquis of 1555.

In the 11th of Elizabeth, this manor was conveyed to her husband, Sir William Dean, with the manor of East Walton, by fine, but this had no effect, for in the 19th of Elizabeth, by indenture, dated April 24, she demised to Jerome Bettenham, and James Walton, the manor of Tyrington Howard's, in Tyrington, and that of East Walton, and that of St. John's in Norfolk; * those of Overhall, Netherhall, Howton, Impey, and Bulley-Hall, in Poslingford, Hindon, Stansfield, Candish, and Clare, in Suffolk, for 200 years, next after the death of the said Lady Matrevers, who was buried at Gosfield, in Essex, January 10, 1580.

By an inquisition taken (post mortem) January 14, in the 7th of Charles I. at Ipswich, it was found that Sir Edward Villiers, Knt. died seized of the manor of Terrington Howard's, Overhall, and Netherhall, in Poslingford; the manors of Impeys and Bully-Hall, &c. in Suffolk, and that by Barbara his wife, daughter of Sir John St. John, he had a son and heir, William Villiers, aged 20, in 1625; the will of Sir Edward bears date August 3, 1625, but he died February 2, 1626.

After this it came to the Hovels, and so to Fowlkes.

In 1653, Martin Fowlks, Esq. was lord of Tyrington Howard's, &c. see in Hillington.

William Folkes, Esq. the present lord.

Ralph de Stretton, (who in 1234, with his parceners, as is observed before, held the fourth part of a fee in this town) had heirs of the same name, who inherited it.

Sir Godfrey de Stratton, the last, had a daughter and heir Alice, who married Roger Cavendish, whose daughter and coheir, Margaret, married 1st to ——— Leveney, after to Thomas Barsham: his daughter and heir Catherine, by William Southeote, of Battlebridge, in Surry, Esq. had a daughter and heir Elizabeth, married first to Richard Langham, and after to Richard Weldon: this Elizabeth Weldon, widow, by a letter of attorney dated February 19, in the 15th of Edward IV. empowers Thomas St. John, Esq. to enter into all lands in Tirrington, and Feltwell, Norfolk, and in Assington in Suffolk.

DUNTON'S ALIAS MARSHALL'S MANOR, AND MONK'S.

Hugh de Duntone was lord in Henry the Third's time.

In the 12th of Edward I. Hugh, son of Alan de Duntone, had lands conveyed to him by fine, which he purchased of Thomas Picot of this town, and Agnes his wife; and in the said year, Walter, son of Adam, of Tirington, sold lands to him here.

William, son of John Le Moyne, or Monk, held here with his tenants the 12th part of a fee, in the 21st of the said reign as he did in Henry the Third's time, of the Lord Bardolf.

In the 14th of Edward II. a fine was levied between William de Duntone and Alice his wife, and Master John Howard, of lands conveyed to William and Alice; and in the 17th of the said King, another was levied wherein lands here were conveyed to Geffrey Le Mareshall of Tirington, from Thomas le Grey, of the same town, and Alice his wife. Walter Marschall was witness to a deed of Sir Henry Walpole, in the time of Henry III.

* Term. Trinit. N. 4.

William Monk was found (as appears from the eschaet rolls) in the 3d of Edward III. to hold a manor called Terington Monks, by the fourth part of a fee, of the Lord Bardolf.

In the 16th of the said King, there was a pleading between Peter Fauks, and Robert, son of William Moncks, for a messuage, 55 acres of land, and 200 of marsh, in this town and Tilney; which Peter proved to be conveyed by Will. Moncks, father of Robert, to Robert, father of Peter; and in the 20th of the same King, Adam de Walsham, and his parceners, were found to hold the 12th part of a fee of the Lord Bardolf, which Will. son of John Monk and his tenants formerly held: Sir William de Duntou was then a commissioner of the banks, &c.

John Duntou was, in 25th of that reign, by an inquisition post mortem, found to hold lands here, in North Clenchwarton, and North Lynn; and another John Duntou was found to die possessed of the same, in the 43d of the aforesaid King.

In the 1st of Richard II. John Marshall, of Terington, &c. conveyed lands in Tydde St. Mary, to John Noon, of Tilney, and Margaret his wife; his seal was quarterly, in the 1st and 4th -----, in the 2d and 3d a mullet; and Lawrence Trusbut, John Kervil, &c.

Walter Noon, clerk, confirmed to Walter Trayt and Katharine, his wife, for the life of Katharine, an annuity of 5 marks, issuing out of 6 messuages, 130 acres of land, 20 of meadow, 40 of marsh, pasture for 300 sheep, 40s. rent, and the rent of one quarter of salt, in this town, formerly, belonging to John Marchall;—witnesses, Sir John de Ingaldesthorp, Sir Henry de Rocheford, Robert Kervil, Walter Godard, Richard Blowere, Steph. Gyboun, Symon Catwe, and Walter Balding; dated at Tyrington, in the 11th of Henry IV.

In the 5th of Henry VI. Thomas Beaufort Duke of Exeter had the 4th part of a fee in this town, held by Sir John Howard, the 8th part of a fee held by Sir Philip Braunch, and the 8th part of one, held by William Marchale, as parcel of the honour of Wirmegay, as appears from the eschaet rolls, and John Earl of Somerset was his son, aged 24 years.

By an inquisition taken post mortem, in the 9th of Elizabeth, Henry Repps, Esq. was found to have held the manor of Duntou's alias Marshal's in this town, of that Queen, as of the honour of Wirmegay, by the 8th part of a fee; a messuage and 33 acres of land, (in Walpole) with 12 of pasture, of Sir John Wentworth, of his manor in Terington, by fealty, and paying 6s. per ann.

GODARD'S MANOR.

In 1233, Thomas, son of Godard, held the third part of a fee in Middleton, of the Lord Bardolf; and lands here, and a fine was levied in the 31st of Edward III. of lands conveyed by William Alyxander and Margaret his wife, to Nicholas Godard; as William Howard, of Wigenhale, and Elizabeth his wife, did to Nicholas and Walter Godard, in the 3d of Richard II.

About this time Walter Godard was lord of Denver's, in Walpole, as may be there scen, by the marriage of the heiress of that family.

Robert Godard, Esq. was living in the 12th of Henry VI. son and heir of Walter, and held a lordship here and in Walpole of Joan, abbess of Elnestow in Bedfordshire, and was buried in Tyrington church, in 1448.

After this William Godard, Esq. a judge of the King's Bench, had an interest herein, and Catharine his wife, who died in 1464; and in the 12th of Edward IV. John Well, of Wisbeach, and Agnes his wife, daughter and heir of John Godard, conveyed lands to Henry Balding, Esq. and Gregory Gybbon, of West Lynn, Esq.

BISHOP OF ELY'S MANOR.

This was the principal manor of this town, and belonged to the Bishop's great lordships of West Walton,<sup>5</sup> Wisbech, &c. which extended into this town.

In the 31st of Henry III. a fine was levied between Hugh Bishop of Ely, petent, and John, son of Wace, deforciant, of customs and services, which the Bishop demanded for the free tenement, held of the Bishop, in Tyrington, with 45 acres, for which he was to pay 20s. sterling yearly, granted to him by the Bishop, on the payment of 15s. 4d. per ann. saving to the Bishop the general aid, when it was to be levied through the bishoprick, upon his freemen, by the King's precept.

In the 35th of that King, the Bishop had a grant of free warren in all his demean lands here.

In his 52d year, a fine was levied between Walter de Hemenhale and Hugh Bishop, wherein Walter released all his right in this manor and advowson, to the Bishop and his successours; except 40 acres of land, 40s. rent, 10 acres of meadow, 20 of marsh, and 10 of pasture. About this time Ralph de Tyrington held 3 virgates<sup>6</sup> of land of the Bishop of Ely, in Liverington, paying 5s. 4d. per ann. and Andrew de Tyrington half a virgate, in Walpole, paying 17s. 10d.

In the 5th of this King there was an extent made of this manor, as appears from the register of the Bishop of Ely, in the Cottonian library,<sup>7</sup> now in the Museum; the jury present it to be in the liberty of that Bishop in Marshland, that his bailiff might hold pleas of all that the sheriff might, with writ and without, assise of bread and beer, and ameracements of his tenants, wreck at sea, the patronage of the church of Tyrington, and of the chapel of St. John's, towards the marsh, with all the tithes, except two parts of the tithe of the land of William, son of William here; and the fee of Sir William Bardolf, called knight's-land; the demean of the manor consisted of 497 acres 1 rood and a half, by the lesser hundred, and the perch of 7 feet, which might be ploughed with 6 oxen, and 6 scotts to harrow, and carry the corn and dung; the meadows were 269 acres and half a rood, fresh pasture 46 acres, 3 roods and a half, salt pasture 1210 acres, all held by severalty.

The towns of Tyrington, Tylney, Walpole, Walton, and the soke of

Walsokene, were to common and dig turfs, &c. in the marsh, called West Fen, but none could sell, or give any turfs away without leave of all the lords, having common within the boundary thereof, being 3 miles long, and 2 and a half broad, &c. the stock was 12 cows, one bull, 6 hogs, one boar, and 1400 sheep, by the greater hundred, 2 windmills: the free tenants are there named, and one of them had a salt pit, or work, called Coltwayneshill, paying 10 bleds<sup>s</sup> of salt: the Bishop ought to have 2 parts of wreck at sea, and royal fishes, and the prior of Leves one part, the finder to have 4d. the Bishop and prior to pay all charges, &c.

In an account of the Bishop of Ely's revenue here, in the 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary, (Edmund Pierpont, receiver) it amounted to 173*l.* 7*s.* 0*h.* q. per ann.

It remained in the see of Ely till the death of Dr. Cox, in 1581, when it came to the Crown by an act of Parliament made in the 4th of Elizabeth, which empowered her to grant and convey the impropriate tithes, glebe lands, &c. of rectories, (lodged in the Crown on the dissolution of religious houses) to several episcopal sees; and for her to take into the right of the Crown, (on the vacancy of any see) any part of the honours, castles, manors, lands, &c. of the said sees; as should amount to the yearly value of such rectories impropriate, to be settled on them for ever; and thus this goodly manor, with many other belonging to the see of Ely, came to the Crown, on the death of Bishop Cox aforesaid.

In 1590, Thomas and Richard Ladd, alias Baker, farmed it of Queen Elizabeth: Richard had a lease from Bishop Thirlby, dated April 20, in the first of her reign, of the site of the manor of Terington, with all the houses, barns, &c. also certain customary rents, called bond days works, with certain lands thereto belonging, but the advowsons of the churches, wards, and many lands were excepted; and the Queen, in the 17th of March, in her 27th year, renewed the same.

King James I. granted this manor, with all its appertenances, to his eldest son Henry, and after to Charles Prince of Wales. In the 21st of that King, the receiver accounted for 175*l.* 12*s.* 3*d.* q. for rent of the said manor lands, 10*l.* 12*s.* 9*d.* 0*h.* q. perquisites of court, in fines of land only; and for moneys due to the Prince from the customary tenants at the Prince's first coming to this manor, and then paid 11*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* in the whole 197*l.* 18*s.* 5*d.*

After this it was assigned to Queen Catherine, consort of King Charles II. as part of her dowry, and was farmed by Sir James Chapman Fuller, Baronet; and in the year 1696, was granted to William Bentinck Earl of Portland, by King William III.

Count Bentinck, a younger son of this family, who lives in Holland, is lord of it, and of the greatest part of this town.

The priory of Ely had also lands here in 1428, held of the Bishop's fee, valued with their rent in salt, then at 50*s.* per ann.

PRIOR OF LEWES'S MANOR.

This was part of the said Prior's manor of West-Walton, and extended into this town, to which the reader is referred. The temporalities of the priory in 1428, were valued at 12*l.* 3*s.* 2*d.* ob.

And in the 5th of Edward III. Sir John Howard was found to hold part of this fee of the prior, as appears from the escheat rolls.

Walter Tirington LL.D. was a celebrated writer and author, and born in this town, as was John Colton, first master of Gonville-Hall in Cambridge, and preferred to the primacy of Ireland, by King Henry IV. Archbishop of Armagh in Ireland.<sup>9</sup>

Simon Bishop of Norwich confirmed in 1262, to the monks of Cas-teacre, two parts of the tithes of the demesns of William Alwin, held by him of the Lord Bardolf. This was the portion that priory held here, valued at 30*s.* per ann. in 1428.

In the 6th of Edward II. Jeffrey Sutton aliened to the priory of Westacre, 60 acres of land here, and in Tilney, Wigenhale, &c.

John Wigenhale aliened in the 7th of the said King, to the said priory, a messuage and 60 acres of land, and 12 of pasture here, in Tilney and Wigenhale.

There were certain rents of salt here payable by divers persons who held of the fee of Sir William de Tirington, to the prioress of St. Cross of Bungey, viz. of Walter, son of ——— de Marham, for one messuage; 3 acres and a half in his croft, 2 combs of salt, &c. as appears from a roll of the prioress of St. Crosse of Bungey, sans date, amongst the evidences of the Duke of Norfolk.

It may be observed that few towns in this hundred, lying near the Ouse, &c. were without salt-pits, or salt-works, at the conquest and after.

In the 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary, Thomas Walbot held a close of pasture (given to find a lamp burning for ever in this church) of the manor of East-Greenwich, by knight's service.

This was an ancient family; Sir Robert de Causton purchased lands here of Adam Walbode and Julian his wife, in the 21st of Edward III.

Queen Elizabeth, in her 27th year, demised to Thomas Sydney, Gent. 5 acres of land called Bower's Hill in Terrington, with 4 acres and 3 roods called Cobbeshill, and Tookeshill, for 21 years, paying 22*s.* 6*d.* per ann. dated July 3, probably belonging to the Bishop of Ely's land.

The tenths were 14*l.* 14*s.* 1*d.*

The CHURCH of Tyrington is dedicated to St. Clement, and is a very beautiful, large, and noble building of free-stone, in the form of a cathedral church. Here also is an old marble gravestone, deprived of its brass plate, and has now a modern inscription for vicar, to build a chapel in the lordship of the Bishop of Ely, at the cross called Peykes-cross, to the honour of God and the Holy Cross: and in 1428, mention is made of a pilgrimage to Tyrington St. John's.<sup>7</sup>

It is said to be made parochial and free from the church of St. Clement, by Thomas Archbishop of Canterbury, in 1530, but I find no institution to it as a parochial church, and remains at this time a chapel to the said church, for the service of the parishioners, being about 2 miles from the mother church.

It is a regular pile, with a nave, 2 isles, and a chancel covered with lead, a square stone tower with four pinnacles and 4 bells standing at the south-west corner.

In this chapel were the arms of Denver, and Inglethorp, also sable, three anchors, argent; and argent on a chevron, azure, three cinquefoils in a bordure, or; and an effigies of one on his knees holding the arms of Denver, and a legend,

In the chapel-yard is an altar tomb erected

To the memory of John Farthing, of Gayton, in Norfolk, Gent: who dyed May 18, 1712, aged 56: erected by his brother, James Farthing of King's Lynn, merchant.

The Bishop of Norwich, on September 5, 1422, translated the feast of the dedication of the church of St. Clement, from the octaves of St. Martin, and of the church, or chapel of St. John annexed to it, from the feast of the seven sleepers, to the 24th of September.

Here was also a free chapel dedicated to St. James, as appears from the following institutions:

This free chapel on its dissolution in King Edward the Sixth's time, was valued at 6*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* per ann. and in 1571, the tithe corn and hay belonging to it, is said to be worth 7*l.* 10*s.* per ann.

Several towns in England take their names from Ter, as Terlinge in Essex, Terring, in Sussex, Tersal, in Nottinghamshire.

WALPOLE

TAKES its name from the great wall, or sea bank, raised to defend it, and from a pool, or deep water near to that wall. Of this great parish, only this account is to be found in the great survey, or book called Domesday.

John, nephew of Waleran, held in Walpola half a carucate of land, with 6 borderers, who had half a carucate valued at 5*s.* per ann. which was possessed by a freeman in the Confessor's time.<sup>s</sup> Waleran was some officer under the Conqueror, and Earl of Mellant, in Normandy. He held also one in Ringstead, one in Hunstanton, and in Titchwell, in Smithden hundred;—also in Weyland hundred, the lordships of Cabrook Magna and Parva;—in Shropham hundred, one at Brettenham; and one at Saxlingham, in the hundred of Hensted. All which he had of the gift of the Conqueror, and dying before the survey was made, they were then held by John, his nephew and heir.

EARL OF CLARE'S MANOR.

How long it continued in this John's possession does not appear; probably on his death it was granted to the Giffard's family, Earls of Bucks, who had considerable possessions in this tract and neighbourhood; and by the marriage of a daughter and heiress of Giffard, the second Earl, was brought into the family of the Earls of Clare.

In the 47th of Henry III. Richard de Clare Earl of Clare was found, as appears from the escheat rolls, to have held lands in Walpole, by knight's service.

In the 52d of that King Hamon Moynstrail had a manor here, which I take to be this; and then gave license of distress for rent due to the prioress of Carhow, for lands in Hecham; and in the 7th of Edward I. Adam Mustroil settled lands here, and in Hunstanton, on Hamon his son, by fine.

In the 21st year of King Edward I. John Lovell and his tenants held this manor by the 3d part of a fee, of the Earl of Gloucester, and in the 1st of Edward II. John Lovell of Tichmersh, settled it with that of Hunstanton, on William Lovell, and the heirs of his body, by fine then levied: the said William was found in the 8th of that King to die seized of it, held of the honour of Clare.

It appears, in the 20th of Edward III. from the inquisitions, that William Lovell, and his tenants held in Walpole the 3d part of a fee of the Earl of Gloucester, which John Lovell formerly held, and had a charter for free-warren in all his demean lands here, and in Hunstanton; and in the 22d of Richard II. Roger Mortimer, Earl of March, was found to hold in capite, one fee in this town, Hunstanton and Walton, held by William Lovell, as parcel of the honour of Clare, and John Lovell held the 3d part of a fee of the Earl of March, in Walpole, and was under age, and the King's ward in the 3d of Henry IV.

Edmund Mortimer Earl of March was found to hold one fee in Walpole, Hunstanton and Walton, held by William Lovell, in the 3d of Henry VI. and in the 13th of Edward IV. the jury present that Robert Fitz Symon held, the day he died, the manors of Hunstanton and Walpole, Mocking, in Essex, Lillingston, Lovell, in Oxfordshire, the moiety of the manor of Achester, in Northamptonshire, and that Joan, the wife of Robert Timperley, was his daughter and heir, then 22 years old.

John Pell was lord of Lovell's manor, with messuages, lands and tenements in the 13th and in the 42d of Elizabeth.

John Richards, alias Glover, and Joan his wife, had a præcipe to deliver to John Moore, the manor of Lovells in this town, and Terrington, &c.

By an inquisition taken at Norwich October 1, in the 5th year of King Charles I. after the death of Henry Reppes, Esq. who died the 23d of March, 1628, it was found that he died possessed of this manor of Lovells, held of the King, of his honour of Clare, by knight's service; and is called a decayed and reputed manor.

Valentine Upwood, Esq. lord, and Samuel Upwood in 1716.

Besides this little lordship, there were two very considerable ones in this township of Walpole, one belonging to the church of Ely, another to the Earl Warren, at the time when Domesday Book was made; and yet no account occurs, or is to be found in Domesday Book, of these; or any mention made of Walpole, (excepting the account of John, nephew of Walcran's manor above observed) and the reason is that the manor of the aforesaid John, was the only independent manor, held in capite of the King, in this town, and had its site herein; whereas the lordships of the church of Ely, and the Earl Warren, though held also in capite, were dependent manors, on the church of Ely's capital manor of West Walton, and Wisbeach, and the Earl Warren's capital manor, in the said town of Walton, which had their sites there, and extended in Walpole, Turington, &c. and so were valued and accounted for under the capital manor of West Walton, &c. where, no doubt, all duties and services of those who held lands in

Walpole, and Tyrington, of the aforesaid Bishop, and Earl, were constantly performed and due.

ELY MANOR.

Oswi, a noble Saxon, and Leofleda his wife, father and mother of Alwyn, gave, on the admission of their son Alwyn into the monastery of Ely, (where he became a monk, and was after Bishop of Elmham, in Norfolk, in 1021,) the manors of Walpole, with those of Wisbeach, Walsoken, West Walton, Tyrington, in Norfolk, Stutchworth, Catledge, Dullingham, and March, in Cambridgeshire, Denbenham, Woodbridge, and Brightwell, in Suffolk:<sup>9</sup> the said Leofleda, was daughter of Brithnod, duke and alderman of the East-Angles, slain at the battle of Maldon in Essex, by the Danes, in 1093.

On the back part of the stalls, on the north side of the quire, facing the north transept of the cathedral of Ely, are some very antique paintings of Saxon Bishops, &c. one representing the Bishop aforesaid, with this writing,—Alwyn<sup>o</sup>. Episc<sup>o</sup>. Helm.

Another representing Brithnod, and—Brithnod<sup>o</sup> Dux Northumb. both being here buried, as tradition will have it.

This lordship continued in the priory, till it was changed into an episcopal see, in the reign of Henry I. when it was assigned to the Bishop, as part of his revenue; and in the 35th of Henry III. the Bishop of Ely had a charter of free warren in all his demean lands in this town.

In the 3d of Edward I. the Bishop was found to have return of all writs, and pleas de namio retito, and would not permit the King's bailiff to enter into his liberty within the towns of West Walton, Walsoken, Walpole, and Tyrington; the ameracements of all his men within the same, with wreck at sea, assise of bread and beer, a gallows, &c. and besides this, about the said time he was found to have the patronage of the church of St. Peter, in Walpole, the fees and homages of Sir Stephen de Marisco, and Sir Roger de Mustrail, the demean lands were 141 acres, a rood and a half of arable land, to be tilled with two ploughs of 6 oxen each, and three scots to harrow; the meadow lands were 50 acres, with 17 of pasture, common of pasture in West Fen, &c. the stock was 6 cows, one boar, and 200 sheep, one windmill; the free tenants were Henry, son of Osbert de Walpole, Sir Stephen de Marisco, the lady Agnes de Walpole, widow, Sir William, son of Herlewin, of Terrington, the heirs of Alan, son of Algar, &c.<sup>1</sup>

In the 16th of Edward III. the Bishop of Ely, and the prior of Lewes, brought their action against several persons in this town, for hindering the weekly mercate, which they had here on Thursday, breaking in pieces the stalls, tumbrell, and pillory, for which they were outlawed, but in the 21st of the said King, had a pardon.

In the year 1454, (William Grey, then Bishop of Ely) this lordship was valued at 49*l.* 4*s.* 10*d.* per ann. but in an account of it, made in the 2d and 3d of Philip and Mary, it was but 40*l.* 8*s.* 9*d.* q. per ann.

It remained in the see of Ely, till the death of Dr. Cor, in 1581, when it came to the Crown, by act of parliament in the 4th of Elizabeth, and Thomas Bendish, Esq. farmed the demean lands in 1500:<sup>2</sup> and in the 8th of James I. the quitrents of the free and customary tenants amounted to 25*l.* 4*s.* 8*d.* q. per ann. and the farm 18*l.* 15*s.* 5*d.*

And that year granted, November 12, to John Eldred, and J. Ferdon, Gent, (valued at 48*l.* 5*s.* 9*d.*) to farm.

MARSHE'S, OR COLEVILE'S MANOR.

In the 2d year of King Richard II. Sir William Marsh, Knt. and Mary his wife, conveyed 60 acres of land here by fine to Thomas de Cockfield, clerk, Henry de Lesingham, and James Walsham; this Sir William was lord of a manor held under the Bishop of Ely; and in the 3d of Edward I. Geffrey de Marisco, or Marsh, held a knight's fee of the Bishop in this town, Walton, and Walsoken, had the assise of bread and beer, of his tenants, and at the same time Sir Stephen de Marisco was a free tenant, or lord of part of this town, whose daughter and heir, Desiderata, brought the manor of the family de Marisco, to Roger de Colvile (by marriage) son of Sir Roger de Colvile, of Caxton in Cambridgeshire.

In the 15th of Edward I. a fine was levied between Jeffrey de Sandiacre, and Roger, son of Roger de Colvile and Desiderata his wife, of this manor, who acknowledged it to be the right of Desiderata, and she and her husband Roger conveyed it to Jeffrey for life, remainder to the heirs of Desiderata. This Roger died in the 28th of that King, and left Jeffrey his son and heir.

Sir John Colvile<sup>3</sup> and his tenants held, in the 3d of Henry IV. (as appears by an inquisition then taken at Bishop's Lynn, on Monday before the feast of St. Agnes the Virgin, before Sir John White, Knight, &c.) half a fee in Walpole, Walton, and Walsoken, of the Bishop of Ely, and the Bishop held it in capite. In the said year, on Monday next after the feast of the Epiphany, John Lynstock, Nicholas Deguisson, capellani, grant by deed to Sir John Colvil, Knt. John Manning of Crimplesham, John Karvill, of Wigenhale, Richard Pccerell, of Tylney, Simon Derby, vicar of Terrington, Edmund Massingham, of Walton, &c. all the manors and lands which they had in Walpole, West Walton, Walsoken, Emneth, Well Barsham, Hyndryngham, Kettleston, and Cicyk, of the gift of Richard Bennett;—witnesses, Walter Goddard, Sim. Calow, Richard Boure, Thomas de Vere, and Thomas de Geyton; and in the 9th of Henry VII. Francis Colvile died seized of it, and left Richard, his son and heir, who died lord of this manor, and one in Walsoken, A<sup>o</sup>. 17 of Henry VIII. held of the Bishop of Ely.

WALPOLE'S MANOR.

The truly ancient family of the Walpoles, of Houghton in Norfolk, Earls of Orford, were many ages past enfeoff'd in lands, and a lordship in this town, from which, according to the Norman custom, they assumed their name. Of this family was Jeffrey de Walpole, son of Reginald, as appears by deed sans date.<sup>4</sup>

Amongst the names of those knights who owed service to the Bishop of Ely, as appears from an Exchequer book, Jocelinus de Walpol is named to hold half a fee in Walpol, Walton, and Hakebeck; <sup>5</sup> and among the free tenants of the said Bishop, Adam de Walpol is said to hold half a virgate, and a piece of pasture, paying one mark per ann. and Jocelinus de Walpol half a virgate; Osbert de Strudsett the fourth part of a virgate, John Norman, William de Sculham, Alan, son of Algar, Ralph, son of Joceline, and Roger his brother, Andrew de Tūington, and William de Camera, &c.

Ralph, son of Joceline, appears to have three sons, Thomas, Alan, and Richard de Walpole, from a pleading in the 34th of Henry III. when Peter and William de Walpole were sons of Thomas de Walpole. And before this, in the 12th of the said King, a fine was levied between Claricia, daughter of Alan de Walpole, Thomas de Cheyle and Christian his wife, Robert Chambertain, and Mariona his wife, petents, and Henry de Walpole, tenent, of 40 acres of land in this town, granted to Henry; and in the 19th of the said reign, Richard de Walpole was petent in a fine, and Walter, son of Alan, and Katharine his wife tenent, of lands here. A son of Joceline, was a benefactor to the priory of Lewes.

About this time lived Sir Henry de Walpol, Knight, who by deed, sans date, granted to Thomas de Spalding, burgess of Lynn, for his homage and service, and for 20 marks sterling, certain lands in Terington, to be held of him and his heirs, paying to the lords of the fee the accustomed services and dues, viz. 6d. (de censu) at the feast of St. Michael, and to him and his heirs one clove at the feast of St. John Baptist; witnesses to this deed, sans date, are Sir William de Tūington, Sir John de Wygenhale, Knights; Hugh de Dunstone, Nicholas de Hecham, Walter Mareschal, William de Mundesford, Nicholas de Burw. John de Bausey, clerk, &c.

To this is affixed his seal, a fess between two chevrons; which arms are born at this day by the Earl of Orford; of the same family was Rolph de Walpole, who was Bishop of Ely in the reign of Edward I. and bore the same arms.

Before this, it is said that the family removed from Walpole to Houghton in Norfolk, on the marriage of Richard, son of Reginald de Walpole, with Emme, daughter of Walter, son of William de Havelton or Houghton; but they still continued to have an interest and a manor here.

For in the 5th of Edward II. Henry de Walpole, (and Alice his wife) appears to be lord both of Houghton and Walpole, by a fine then levied.

In the 3d of that King lands in Tylney and Wigenhale were settled on John son of Alexander de Walpole, by Alexander his father; and in the 6th of the said reign, Bartholomew de Walpole, son of John de Walpole, and Catharine his wife, held lands in Walpole.

Henry, son of Henry de Walpole, by his will, dated 1442, orders his trustees of this manor, to enfeof Henry his son, in tail, in the same; and Thomas Walpole, Gent. son of John Walpole, Esq. by his deed, dated March 30, in the 12th of Henry VII. granted to Thomas Aleyn of Walpole, a messuage, lands, and a salt-work with the grains, &c. in this town.

John Walpole of Houghton, Esq. by his will, dated February 28, in the 30 of Elizabeth, and proved in April following, bequeaths to Katharine his wife, all his lands in Walpole and Walton, to her and her heirs, towards the preferment of the marriage of his daughters.

ROCHFORD'S MANOR.

The ancient family of de Rochford had also a manor in this town, held, as it seems, of the see of Ely. Of these I shall treat as I find them in due order and time, from ancient authentick records and evidences. They take their name from a town in Essex, of which they were enfeofed soon after the conquest.

Waleran de Rochford was witness to a deed of Thomas, son of Thomas Darcy, of lands given by him to Kirksted abbey in Lincolnshire, in the reign of King Stephen.<sup>6</sup>

About this time lived Simon de Rocheford, who gave lands at Soberie in Berkshire, to the priory of Clarkenwell? and Emme his wife lands to the abbey of Faude or Valle Dei in Lincolnshire.

Wido de Rochford was a witness to the foundation deed of the abbey of Nately in Bucks, founded by Walter Giffard Earl of Bucks, in the reign of Henry I. and John de Rocheford, son of Guy or Wido de Rocheford, was under age, 16 years old, had a brother aged 12, and a sister 13.<sup>7</sup>

This John was a ward of King Henry II. in his 30th year, and his land at Rocheford in Essex was valued at 12*l.* per ann. and half Beredon in Essex, with one hide of the fee of Earl William, was 11*l.* 10*s.* per ann.

William de Rocheford, by deed sans date, gave to the church of Beverley in Yorkshire, Thomas de Newton his villain, cum tota sequela; witnesses, Sir Thomas de Becock, Waleran de Sancta Letitia, Rayner de Aldeburgh, and Master Roger de Richmond.

Digarius de Rocheford was seneschal of Anjou in France, in the first of Richard I. John de Rocheford, son of Guy, (as I take it,) paid 10*s.* scutage to the sheriff of Norfolk, towards the redemption of the King, in the 6th or Richard I. and in the 8th of that King, paid 20*s.* for one fee, scutage, for the army in Normandy.

Robert de Rocheford was a witness to the grant of Elsenham church in Essex, to the monastery of Walden, by Beatrix de Maundevile Lady Say; about this time, John de Rocheford abovementioned was ving, and had an interest in Appleton, and Flithaam, in the 20th of Henry III.

In the 9th of that King, John Donetland conveyed by fine the fourth part of a fee, in Langeford, to Ralph de Rochford, who granted it back to the said John for life, remainder to Robert de Rocheford, his brother, and his heirs: and John was patron of the church of Rochford in Essex, in 1219, and lord.

John de Rochford de Kirby, and Margaret his wife, were living in the 34th of Henry III. and in the 40th of that King, Sir Ralph de Rochford was querent, and Eudo or Guy de Rochford, and Gracia his wife impedients, of lands in Senberch in Somersetshire; and in the 45th of that King, the manor of Hyptoft Hall in Erston, and T. ft and Holland, in Lincolnshire, were conveyed by fine to Sir Ralph, &c.

Sir Guy de Rochford, lord of Rochford, purchased of John de Burgh Earl of Kent, all his marshes in Rochford, and held in capite at Berden, a messuage with a garden, dove-house, above 600 acres of arable land, 6 of meadow, 30 of pasture, and 3s. rent per ann. with a wood, wind-mill, and advowson of the rectory, by the service of one fee, and the patronage of Rochford.

In 1272, he was witness, with 10 other Norfolk knights, to a deed of John de Burgh Earl of Kent, (son and heir of Hubert de Burgh Earl of Kent) whereby he granted to his valet, Haltwin de Cankewell, the lordship of Newton by Castleacre; the witnesses were Sir John de Vaux de Shotesham, Tho. Rosselyne, William de Weyland, Guy de Rochford, Richard de Sandchirche, Anselm de Geyse, John de Bretton, Richard de Belhouse, William de Gyney, William de Calthorp, knights, &c. Sir Guy died in the following year, 1273.

He was found to hold Rochford as the head of his barony, and Margaret his widow had her dower in that manor, and marshes of Foulness.

On the death of Sir Guy, his estate descended to Sir John de Rochford, son of a brother of Sir Guy, on a Quo Warranto brought in the 3d of Edward I. on account of wreck of sea, and other privileges belonging to the manor of Rochford. The said John pleaded that they were given to his uncle Guy, by John de Burgo, Earl of Kent, and confirmed by King Henry III.

To this John, Ralph de Rochford and Agnes his wife, conveyed lands by fine, in the counties of Stafford, Derby, and Nottingham; and Theobald de Nevile conveyed to the said Ralph, the manor of Fenne in Lincolnshire, and Grave in Warwickshire, in the 12th of the said King.

Sir John de Rochford, Sir Richard de la Rokley, &c. were witnesses to a grant of Sir William Baud, Knight, of Corinzhain in Essex, of a fat buck and doe, yearly, to the church of St. Paul in London, in the 30th of that King, in which year he died.

Sir Robert de Rochford was his son and heir, and presented to the church of Rochford, in 1321. In the 17th of Edward II. the King confirmed to him, and Christian his wife, the grant of the marshes abovementioned, and it appears by the escheat rolls, that he died in the eleventh year of Edward III. that he and Isabel his wife, daughter of William Fitz Harin, held the manors of Rochford and Berden, with 1100 acres of marsh in Rochford, and that Thomas was his son and heir, aged 25.

About this time lived Sir Waleran de Rochford, who with Jeffrey de la Legh, was a knight of the shire of Hertford, in parliament, in the 8th of Edward II.

Sir Thomas Rochford, son of Sir Robert, released to Adam, son of Geffrey de Derham, of Suffolk, in the 11th of Edward III. all his right in the manor of Bernehalle.

After this I meet with nothing more of this family in Essex. Newcourt observes,<sup>1</sup> that soon after the year 1324, there being no heir general, the estate escheating to the Crown, King Edward III. in his 14th year, granted the honour of Rayleigh, (to which the lordship of Rochford belonged,) with the hundred of Rochford, to William de Bohun Earl of Northampton. But that there were other branches of the family is manifest.

Sir Ralph Rochford (as I have observed) was living in the 40th of Henry III.<sup>2</sup> and in the 30th of Edward I. Sir Ralph, with Henry Spigivne were the King's justices, and held the assise, tried several causes at Lynn, in Norfolk, on Tuesday after Whitsunday-week; and in the 7th of Edward II. had a pardon for adhering to Thomas Earl of Lancaster, and for the death of Peirs de Gaveston, the King's great favourite. He was father of Sir Saier de Rochford, a commissioner of the banks and sewers in Lincolnshire, in the 16th of Edward III.

In the 22d of Edward III. a fine was levied between him and Joan his wife, and John Cleymond of Kirkton, who conveyed lands in Walpole, and at Brandeston in Suffolk, St. Botolph, Benington, Tofts, and Shirbeck in Lincolnshire, to Sir Sayer and Joan, in tail.

Ralph de Rochford, in the 26th of Edward III. was a commissioner to view and repair the banks in Marshland. And in the 28th of that King, Sir Ralph, (son of Sir Sayer de Rochford, Knight, and Maud his wife,) were querents, and Sir Sayer de Rochford of Stivekey in Norfolk, and Ralph de Bigeney, deforcients, of lands in Walpole, Hindringham, Barsham, Keteleston, Creyke, and Geyst in Norfolk: and in the said year, Sir Ralph, and Maud his wife, granted to Sir Saier de Rochford of Stivekey a messuage with a windmill in Walpol, with all his lands and tenements in Walpol, Walsoken, Enemeth, and messuages in Hindringham, with all the services, rents, wards, reliefs, escheats, villains, by deed, dated on Thursday after the feast of St. Winwaloy.

To this Sir Ralph and Maud his wife Robert Lacock of Walsingham, clerk, &c. in the 41st of Edward III. granted messuages, lands, tenements, rents, services, &c. in East Barsham, Norfolk.

Sir Ralph was buried in the church of St. Peter's, in Walpole, with his wife Maud, who is said to be a daughter and coheir of Sir James Walpole, and was here buried in 1369.

About this time lived Sir John de Rochford, probably eldest son of Sir Ralph; to whom John de Atte-Chambre, and Margaret his wife, conveyed lands in the 52d of Edward III. and Sir William Skipwith, and Alice his wife, in the 40th of that King, surrendered to him the manor of Calthorp, Covenham, and Uphall in Lincolnshire.

for life, remainder to Sayer de Rochford son and heir of Sir Ralph; and Sir Sayer the elder was living the 28th of Edward III.

There was also John Rochford, Esq. who married Joan, daughter of Sir Ralph, sister and heir of Robert de Grendon, of Grendon in Warwickshire,<sup>3</sup> by whom he had Sir Ralph Rochford, which John married to his 2d wife Isabella, widow of John de Rochford, who had dower granted her by her son-in-law, Sir Ralph, in the — of the said King.

This Ralph married Joan, daughter of Sir Hugh de Meynill, by whom he had a daughter and heir, Margery, and Joan his widow remarried Hugh de Askeby.

Sir Sayer de Rochford, probably brother of Sir John, and a son of Sir Ralph, was an eminent soldier in the wars of France; in the 33d of King Edward III. undertook to keep safely the King of France (then a prisoner in England) at Somerton castle in Lincolnshire, and was to be allowed him 2s. per day; <sup>4</sup> Sir John de Kirton was joined with him in this charge, and being a banneret was to have 4s. per day; and they were allowed for each esquire with them, 12d. per day.

This seems to be the Saier at Stiveky, who married Joan, one of the daughters and coheirs of Sir Roger Hillary, by whom he had Sir John de Rochford; and by his first wife Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Ralph Perlye, Sir Ralph Rochford.

John, son of Sir Sayer de Rochford, and Alice his wife, is mentioned in a fine levied in the 5th of Richard II. and Sir John de Rochford, Knight, in another fine of lands in Holbeach, in the 8th of that King; and was witness to a grant of John de Halmeton, of an annual rent of 10 marks, issuing out of the lands of Sir John de Litsbury in Tyd St. Mary's, to Frederic de Tilney.

In the same year Sir Ralph Rochford had the manor and advowson of the church of Askele, by Parteneu in Lincolnshire, conveyed to him by Reginald Curteys and Cecilia his wife.

This Sir Ralph is said to be the son of Sir Saer the elder, by his first wife, Eliz. daughter of Sir Ralph de Arley, and dying in 1401, was buried in the church of St. Giles's, Cripplegate, and found to die seized of Arley and Slowley, in Warwickshire, held of Sir John Odingsels by the service of one knight's fee; and John Rochford, Esq. was his son and heir.

Sir John de Rochford was steward to the Bishop of Ely, and constable of Wisbeach castle, in the 20th of Richard II. whose only son, William, was buried in the church of St. Peter's of Walpole.

I also find mention made of Sir John de Rochford, alderman of the gild of Boston, in 1323, where he seems to have had his chief residence; and in the 10th of Richard II. was appointed a commissioner to assess the loan demanded of 200 marks from the inhabitants thereof, for the King in his necessities, dated Sep. 22, and died on the feast of St. Lucia, the Virgin, in 1410;<sup>5</sup> leaving, as some say, three daughters and coheirs, by Alice his wife, daughter of Sir Hugh Hastings; his mother Joan, dying, as appears by the eschaet rolls, in 1303.

On a division of the estate of Sir Roger Hillary, in the 13th of Henry IV. Elizabeth, Lady Clinton, was found to be a cousin and coheir (by a daughter of Sir Rog. and sister of the Lady Joan Rochford) as were Joan and Margaret, two of the daughters and coheirs of Sir John Rochford, and Alice his wife, Joan being then the wife of Robert Roos of Godney in Lincolnshire, Esq. and Margaret the widow of Sir Frederick Tilney of Boston.

At the same time John Gibthorp, a minor, son of Sir William Gibthorp, and Alice his wife, daughter also and coheir of Sir John Rochford, were proved to be cousins of the Lady Elizabeth Clinton, and coheirs of Sir Roger Hillary, Knight and Bart.

The Rochfords were such a numerous family, and of so many branches, that it is not easy to distinguish, or make a regular descent of them, and we find that they varied on this account their arms: some bore quarterly, or and gules, in a bordure sable, bezanty: others the same quarterly, in a bordure indented, uncharged: I find also an annulet bore in the first quarter, also a de-lis, bore by some: the crest of the Rochfords was a man's head, with a prolix beard, thereon an high almain cap, on a wreath, mantled ermin.

We must now return to Henry Rochford, Esq. who was found to be son and heir of Sir Ralph, in 1401, which Sir Ralph, with Sir Robert de Leek, Sir Philip de Tilney, Sir John Bussey, and Sir John Rochfords, Knts. had a patent from King Richard II. in this year, September 25th, to proclaim, and take care that the grasiers in Holland and Kestعان, in Lincolnshire, presume not to sell any of their cattle, or horses, at a higher price than was customary, and was father of Sir Ralph brother of Henry, who in 1401, had order from King Henry IV. to pay 50 marks out of the lordship of Newenton Lougerile, in Buckinghamshire, (which he farmed of the King) to Sir Thomas Erpingham. On the attainder of Thomas Mowbray Duke of Norfolk, in the 6th of the said King, he had, with Sir John Tiptot, a grant of all the apparel, pertaining to the body of that Duke, and all his harness for peace and war, as well for great horses called coursers, or saddles for tilts and tournaments; was governor of the castle of Hammes, in France, and lieutenant of Guieu.

In the 5th of Henry VI. Sir William Malloy and Margaret his wife, conveyed messuages and lands to him, and Richard Leek, Esq. in North and South Stoke, in Lincolnshire, and in the said year he surrendered his right in the manor of Wychampton, in Dorsetshire, to Sir Gilbert Kyghley. He was living at Walpole, in 1446, and died before 1455. In the leidger book of Boston, Margaret, late the wife of Sir Ralph Rochford, is said to die in that year.

In the east window of the north isle of St. Peter's church of Walpole, is to be seen the effigies of this knight in armour, (as I take it,) and that of his lady, on their knees; on his surtout are the arms of Rochford, quarterly, or and gules, in the 2d quarter an annulet sable, in a bordure of the same, bezanty. On the outward vest, or mantle of the lady are the said arms, and on her inward vest, gules, an eagle displayed, or, with an annulet on the breast of the eagle, sable, she being a Godard: the same arms of Rochford and Godard, impaled, are, or were to be seen in a window of the north isle of the church of Braintree, in Essex.

In the 3d of Henry IV. Sir Henry Rochford conveyed in trust to

Richard Revel, vicar of Walpole, all his manors, lands, and tenements in Walpole, West Walton, Emneth, Well, Barsham, Hindringham, Kettleston, and Creke; he was also lord of Arley, and Stokly, in Worwickshire, which he sold to Thomas Bate: in the 7th of Henry V. he was returned by the justices of the peace of this county, as a person of ancient coat armour, and one of the 20 lances, able to serve the King in his wars.

He is said to have married two wives; by Isabel, the first, daughter of Sir Steph. Burdet, he had three daughters; Alice, married to Sir Robert Leake, Mabel, to Sir John Hamelyn, and Isabel to Clement Derby; four sons; Ralph, John, Thomas, and Henry: by Elizabeth, his second wife, daughter of Nicholas de Reresby, two daughters; Mary, the wife of Thomas Aungvine, and Margaret, the wife of Henry Bellingham.

William de Worcester, in his MSS. abovementioned, says he married a daughter of ——— Braunch, relict of Sir ———; and it appears that the Lady Catharine Braunche, widow of Sir ——— Braunche, by her will dated in 1420, and proved September 5, following, bequeaths to Catharine, daughter of Sir Henry Rochford, Knt. 10 marks, and to John, son of Sir John Rothenale, a silver cup with a foot. In the 7th of Henry VI. Sir Henry, with John, and Thomas his sons, Esq. sold lands in Tilney, and in the 14th of that King was a commissioner for the fen banks, &c.

Ralph Rochford, Esq. (son and heir of Henry) was by some called a Knight. Thomas Rochford, Esq. his brother, by his will dated January 30, 1436, and proved February 25 following, requires to be buried in the chapel of St. Mary, in the church of St. Peter of Walpole, names Margaret his wife executrix, to whom he gives his lands in Ringsted and Holme, to pay his debts, and if she should be with child, the issue to have them, and she her dower in his lands at Walpole.<sup>7</sup>

In the 33d of Henry VI. in a deed of this Ralph, of lands in Castle Rysing, dated September 26, at Walpole, he styles himself Ralph Rochford, late Esq. now clerk, (nup. Armiger modo Clericus) by his wife Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Marmaduke Constable, he had 3 sons; Henry, the eldest, Ralph, of Langholm, and Saier, of Barton.

Henry had a lordship in Boston, called Fenn's, and that of Rochford in Shirbeck, and in the 7th of Henry VII. Sir Henry Rochford, Knt. was one of the justices of the peace, and of the goal delivery, within the Bishop of Ely's liberty in Norfolk.

After this I find nothing more of the Rochfords; as the Bishop of Ely was the capital lord, and their estate was held of him it was vested in that see, and so continued, till granted by act of parliament, in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, to the Crown, on an exchange of lands with the Bishop.

DENVER'S MANOR, OR GODARD'S,

Had its rise from a division of that lordship, which Henry de Walpole, son of Osbert de Walpole held, who dying without issue, his two aunts, Isabel and Alice, sisters of Osbert, were heirs to it. In the 41st of Henry III. a fine was levied between Isabel, and Walter de Denver, and Alice his wife, tenants of a moiety of 2 carucates of land, 4l. 11s. 0½d. rent, with the moiety of the rent of 8000 turf in Walpole, Tylney, Well, and Lymm, which Isabel claimed as her part of the inheritance of Henry, son of Osbert de Walpole, nephew of Isabel and Alice, which Isabel released to Alice, with the land which William de Wendling held for life, of the said inheritance in Wisbeach Littleport and Crekenere, in Cambridgeshire, and which Robelina, widow of the said Henry, and Sarah, widow of Osbert de Walpole held in dower. Osbert was son of Sir Walter de Denver, and in the 21st of Edward I. John, son of Osbert and Egelina, his mother, and Sir Robert de Hackbeach held also lands here; Sir Robert Howard, and their under tenants, held half a fee here, in Walton, and Hackbeach, of the Earl Warren.

The aforesaid Walter de Denver and Alice his wife, in the 34th of Henry III. sued James de Creik and Sarah his wife, Henry de Walpole having granted to her the wool of his stock of 300 sheep in his manor of How, by East Derham, in Norfolk, till the marriage of Alice; and was detained from her.

Sir John de Denver, Knt. de Hakebeche, &c. held in the 20th of Edward III. half a fee here, in Walton, &c. of the Bishop of Ely, which John, son of Osbert de Walpole, and Egelina his mother, &c. formerly held.

Walter Godard held it in the 5th of Richard II. and Catharine his wife, with 2 messuages, 140 acres of land, 4l. rent per ann. &c. in Walpole, Tilney, Walton, Well, &c. and the advowson of Walpole chapel. Catharine seems to be heiress of Denvers. Walter presented to that church in 1395.

From the Denvers it came by marriage to the Godards, who quartered the arms of the Denvers, of whom see in Tyrington; of this family was Sir John Godard, governour of Loviers, in Normandy, in the 6th of Henry V. under the Duke of Clarence, on whose death in the 9th of Henry VI. several lands in Lincolnshire, &c. came to his son and heir John, a minor, who dying without issue, Agnes, (wife of Sir Brian Stapleton.) then the wife of Robert Wadesley, Esq. of Yorkshire, and Sir Robert Ughtred<sup>s</sup> were his cousins and next heirs. But in the said reign, it appears that Robert Godarde was lord, and was buried in the church of Tyrington in 1448, into which town this manor extended, and he quartered the arms of Denver; Elizabeth his daughter and heir seems to have married Robert Sutton, Esq.

In the 20th of Henry VII. a fine was levied between Sir James Hobart, Sir Richard Southwell, Sir Henry Ogard, knts. and Richard Braunche, Esq. querents, and Thomas Sutton and Elizabeth his wife, daughter and heir of Robert Godard, (as I take it) deforciant, of the manor of Denvers, and lands in Walpole, Tylney, Terrington, Clench-warton, Walton, Lynn, and Well, and the advowson of the chantry in the chapel of St. Catherine, in Walpole, and Sir James Hobart, in the 2d of Henry VIII. settled on Walter Hobart, his son and heir, and Anne his wife, and their heirs male, a rent charge of 6*l.* 1*8s.* 4*d.* per ann. out of this manor, and Sir Walter Hobart of Hales-Hall, in Lodne, had the advowson of the chapel of St. Mary, at the Fen end, in Walpole, in the 20th of the said King.

Afterwards it came to the Hunstons, a family of good account in Lincolnshire, Marshland, &c. John Hunston, Gent. had an estate in the 40th of Edward III. in Tydd St. Marics, Lincolnshire, and Thomas Hunston, Gent. had lands, and lived at Walpole, in the 1st of Richard II. Thomas Hunston, in the 17th of Edward IV. and Thomas in the 19th of Henry VIII.

Henry Hunston, of Walpole, Esq. was living in the reign of Henry VIII. and married Jane, daughter of Sir John Audley of Swaffham, Knt.

William Hunston, of Walpole, Gent. had a patent from Sir Gilbert Dethick, dated February 6th, in the 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary, of these arms and quarterings, 1st, sable, four lozenges, 1, 2, 1, ermine in a bordure engrailed, or;—in the 2d quarter the arms of Denvers;—in the 3d quarter, sable, three lozenges, in a triangle ermin, the arms of Haltoft, as I take it;—and in the 4th quarter, a lion's head caboshed, or, langued gules, in chief, three plates between two flaunches, ermin; the crest, a hind's head coupéd or, in his mouth a holly slip, vert, with berries, gules. He died in the 9th of Elizabeth, and left William, his son and heir aged 26, who was lord in the 38th of that Queen.

Thomas Hunston, Esq. sold it to John Hare, Esq. son of John Hare, citizen, and mercer of London, with several messuages, lands, &c. that came to the Hunstons from the Godards, Walpoles, and Rochfords, called in the conveyance, the manors of Denvers, and Walpoles; and Henry Hare, Lord Colraine, his direct heir, died possessed of it in 1749, and on his death descending to an alien, was in the King's hands.

PRIOR OF LEWES'S MANOR

Was a part, or member of the prior's capital manor in West Walton, given by William, the first Earl Warren, as is observed in that town.

In the reign of Henry II. the prior had a mill of the gift of Sowline, son of Nicholas de Walpole, and Sir Henry de Walpole gave the title of 300 sheep, in the marshes of Fridland, and Redland, in Walpole, which he and his father Joceline, held of them.

John, son of Robert, son of Gilbert de Walpole, granted all the lands which his ancestors held here, for 10 marks; witnesses, Sir William de Terrington, Sir Hugh de Pinkney, Sir Drue de Acton, Goff. de Marisco, &c.

In the 3d of Edward I. the prior was found to have wreck at sea, a gallows, assise of bread and beer, &c. of his tenants in Marshland, the advowson of the church of St. Andrews, of Walpole, of the gift of Hamelin Plantaginet, Earl Warren, a weekly mercate, on Thursday.

and a fair on the feast of St. Peter and St. Paul, and for two days more, which belonged equally to the prior and the Bishop of Ely.

Adam Grey of West Walton gave a messuage, a toft, and 16 acres of land, in this town, West Walton, with the right of a free bull, late Julian's, widow of Richard Betele, bedel of Cambridge, by deed in the 4th of Henry V.

The temporalities of it in 1428, were valued at 3*l.* 3*s.* 4*d.*

After the Dissolution it came to the Crown, and was granted December 22, in the 29th of Henry VIII. to Thomas Duke of Norfolk, with the appropriated rectory, and advowson of the vicarage, and passed from that family to the Hares, as may be seen at large in West Walton.

Henry Hare Lord Colrain died possessed of it in 1749; on his death it came as an escheat to the Crown.

There were lands in this parish called Wylde, belonging to the late nunnery of Elvestow, in Bedfordshire, granted in the 2d of Queen Mary, to Thomas Reve and Giles Isham.

PANNEL'S MANOR.

The Welbys of Lincolnshire, had a considerable interest in this town. Joan Welby, widow of Moulton, possessed it, and on her son Richard Welby's Esq. marriage with Elizabeth, daughter of Sir William Calthorp, of Ludham in Norfolk, settled it on them September 10, in the 8th of Edward IV. Christopher Langholm, Esq. on the death of his brother, had livery of it in the 29th of Henry VIII. held, as is said, of the prior of Lewes; in the 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary, Christopher Langholm conveyed it to Richard Goodrick; and Thomas Hewer had præcipe, in the 3d of Elizabeth, to deliver it to Andrew Ogard.

After this it came to the Coneys. John Coney lived here in the reign of Henry VIII. and Thomas Coney, Gent. of Sutton in Lincolnshire, was father of William Coney, Esq. of Walpole, who bore sable, a fess between two cottises, or, and three coney's sejant, argent: the crest, a talbot's head coupéd, issuing out of a mural coronet, or.

This William was a justice of the peace, and by Abigail his wife, daughter of ——— Tilson of Gedney, had a son Robert, who married Alice, daughter of Sir Robert Barkham, Knt. of Waynfleet, in Lincolnshire, and was father of Robert, a minor, in 1664, who dying sans issue, William Coney, Esq. his brother, was his heir, and by Edith, daughter of Sir Humphry Edwin, Lord Mayor of London, in 1697, was father of Edwin Coney, Esq. high sheriff of Norfolk, in 1734, whose son, by ———, daughter of ——— Turner, Esq. of Lynn, now possesses it.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH is one of the most beautiful parish churches in England, built of free-stone, consisting of a nave, 2 isles, and a chancel, all covered with lead; at the west end stands a noble, stately tower of stone, embattled.

On the stone work of the south porch, as you enter, are the arms of Goddard, and Denver, quarterly with Goddard's crest, an eagle's head erect; and on the stone-work towards the east end, near the great arch, the arms of Rochford: these families (as I take it) were the chief benefactors to the building of the church, which was about the beginning of the reign of King Henry VI. In the year 1423, I find the windows to be glazed and set up.

At the east end of this south isle, lie several marble grave-stones.

Hic jacet Robertus Cony, Armiger, de Walpole, in comit. Norf. qui ex uxore Alicia, filiâ Rob. Barkham de Wainfleet, in comit. Lincoln. Equitis auratj; 8 filios et 6 filias suscepit, Norfolciam, Ao. 1673, Vicecomes tuebatur. vir in patriam devotus, in Deum devotissimus, in regem fidelis, in suos liberalis, in alios benevolus, in probos suavis, in malos severus, in omnes humanus; obt. 5, Apr. 1707, ætat. 72.

On the summit are the arms of Cony, sable, a fess between two cottises, or, and three coneyes sejant, argent, impaling Barkham, argent, three pallets, gules, and a chevron over all, or.

Another,

In memory of Robert Cony, son of Robert Cony, Esq; and Alice his wife, &c. who died Nov. 8, 1683, aged 21.

One,

In memory of Alice, wife of Robert Cony, Esq; who died Oct. 3, 1676, ætat. 41.

Also one,

In memory of William Cony, Esq; son of Robert Cony, Esq; and Alice his wife, &c. who died Jan. 6, 1742, aged 82: who married Edith, daughter of Sir Humphrey Edwin, Kt. of the city of London: with the arms of Cony, impaling -----, a cross floy engrailed between four birds, -----.

On an altar monument here, now deprived of its brasses, were painted anciently these arms, sable, four fusils, or lozenges, 1, 2, and 1, ermin in a borbure engrailed, or—Hunston; impaling, azure, a chevron, between 3 bucks trippant, or—Green; also Hunston, with Audley and Touchet, quarterly, viz. gules, a fret, or, and ermin a chevron, gules. By this it appears that this was for one of the family of Hunstons, who had a lordship in this parish.

On the pavement here are several gravestones for the family of Richers.

 ——— Bernard Richers.——— Valery Richers, Gent. who died a batchelor, in 1708, aged 75.—— — Matthew Richers, Gent. who died June 19, 1713, and Sarah his wife, in 1716.

In the east window of this south isle, which was formerly ornamented with curious painted glass, is to be seen the effigies of a person on his knees, with a great broad belt hanging over his shoulder, therein a great broad sword, and this label;

In the said window, no doubt, was the figure of St. James, before whom he was a supplicant.

Here was the altar and chantry of St. James. The person here represented was Sir Thomas Daniell, a person of eminency in the reign

The east end of this isle is taken in by a screen, and was the chapel and burial-place of the Rochfords. On the pavement lies a large marble gravestone, whereon has been a long great cross of brass, standing on a pedestal of four steps, with a cross on the head of it, and six shields, three on each side, all reaved, as is the inscription, which was on a rim of brass round it, of which this only remains,

This is said to be in memory of William, only son of Sir John Rochford, who left three daughters and coheirs.

South of this stands a large altar monument, ornamented with curious brass work, and the effigies of a knight in armour, a lion at his feet, with that of his lady, and a dog at her feet, over his head are two shields, with Rochford's arms and a flower-de-lis, in the 1st and 4th quarter, the two shields over the lady are gone, and so is the rim of brass that went round it, with its inscription, this only remaining; que obiit * * * * Anno Dni. Millesimo tricentesimo, sexagesimo nono:*

Weaver says this is the monument of Sir Ralph Rochford, Knt<sup>o</sup> this Sir Ralph (as I have above observed) was son of Sir Saier de Rochford, and married Matilda, daughter and coheir (as is said) of a Walpole.

The east window of this chapel is beautified with the effigies of many saints, &c.; at the bottom of the pannels are the pourtraitures of a man in armour on his knees; on his surtout, argent, a bend ingrailed, azure, and a chief gules; this I take to be for Ralph Lord Cromwell, Lord Tateshale, governour of Rising castle, in the time of Henry VI. and that of his wife, who appears by her arms, on her vest, or inward garment, to be a Rochford, quarterly, or and gules, &c. and on her outward garment, the arms of Cromwell. Also the pourtraiture of a Rochford in armour, with the shield of Rochford, and an annulet sable, in the 2d quarter, and his lady with the arms of Godard, on her inward vest, with an annulet, azure, on the breast of the ealge. Another pourtraiture of a Rochford, and a lady with the arms of Rochford on her outward vest, and of Cromwell (though obscure) on her inward vest.

On the pavement of the chancel, lie several gravestones—one with a brass plate,

In memory of Henry Frencham A.M. sometime fellow of Magdalen College, Oxford, and for the space of 30 years parson of Walpole, a faithful feeder of his flock, who took to wife Anne Walcard, widow, daughter of Robert Baynard Esq; by whom he had Barnabas and Anne, he died Jan. 31, 1629, in the 71st year of his age; with these arms cut in stone, viz. six coats, quarterly—1st, a fess between two chevrons—2d, an eagle displayed, with two necks—3d, a bend fusily—4th, a cross ingrailed—5th, a cross moline—6th, as the first; the crest, an unicorn's head erased.

On another with a brass plate,

Of your charite pray for the soule of Syr John Whetom, su'tyme

A gravestone,

On a marble grave-stone, argent, three lozenges, azure, each charged with an escalop, or; crest a stag's head erased, with a branch in his mouth,—Hart,

On the windows on the south side of this chancel, have been painted several saints ; St. Alban, St. William Archbishop of York ; St. Hugh Bishop of Lincoln ; St. Cuthburga, St. Etheldreda with a crosier ; St. Scaburga, with a palm branch, are still remaining : at the bottom an orate for the persons that glazed it, the date of the year 1423 is to be seen in three of the windows, and under the 5th window,

On the windows on the north side also, have been many ; in the 3d window is St. John the Evangelist, and—*Orate p. aiá Joh. Frecep, ::::, A<sup>o</sup>. The ascent to the communion table consists of many steps, under it is an arch, which will contain many horses, for the use of those parishioners, who are obliged, by the badness and length of the ways, to come on horseback to church.

Besides the chantry of St. James, there was in this church the chantry of St. Catherine, also the chantry of St. Edmund and St. Thomas, but in which church they were I cannot say. The chantry of St. Thomas was valued at 4*l.* 13*s.* 9*d.* and that of St. Edmund, at its dissolution in King Edward the Sixth's time at 6*l.* 8*s.* 4*d.* and I find these pensions paid to the late chantry priests.—William Clerk, late incumbent of a chantry, in 1555, 4*l.* 1*s.* 6*d.* per ann.—William alias Robert Lynne, late incumbent of a chantry in Walpole church 5*l.* per ann.—William Ebden, late incumbent of, &c. in Walpole church 5*l.* per ann.

VIII.* to Nicholas Rookwood.

There is a curious print of this church, dedicated to the late Lord Colerain, who was (as I presume) at the charge of it.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH: this is a regular, well built church consisting of a nave, a north and south isle, a chancel, with a south porch, all covered with lead.

At the west end is a square steeple, with 4 bells.

RECTORS.

In 1229, Alexander was rector, when it appears that he had a vicar under him. Ralph, then his vicar, perceiving the tithes of certain lands in this parish, of right belonged to the prior and convent of Lewes, and that Adam, his predecessor, by violence took the said tithes by the assent of Alexander, rector, restored the same.<sup>1</sup> The tithes here mentioned were those which William the first Earl Warren gave to the aforesaid priory; and in 1230, Thomas Bishop of Norwich ordained that the rector of this parish should pay to the priory aforesaid 6 marks per ann. and so take the said tithes to himself, and the rector of Lewes's mediety in West Walton 4 marks per ann.

1294, Boga de Clare occurs rector of Walpole; this church, as I take it.

John de Brews was rector in the reign of Edward I. the rectory was then taxed at 64 marks per ann. Peter-pençe 16d. the prior of Lewes had a portion of tithe, valued at 5l. per ann.

Robert de Spiney, resigned in 1325.

1339, Thomas de Lewes, by John Earl Warren, on a grant from the King, of the advowson: the priory of Lewes being in the King's hands, on account of the wars.

1344, The King presented to this church, the temporalities being in him.

VICARS.

1362, Walter Colton, presented to the vicarage (newly erected) by the prior, &c. of Lewes. In the 26th of Edward III. the prior had a grant to appropriate this church.

Hugh de Chintriaco, prior of Lewes, ordered May 5, 1361, that whereas the churches of Walpole, and East Greensted, in Sussex, were appropriated to that house, 30s. per ann. should be paid to the sacrist, and another sum to the monks for cloathing out of the profits of the said churches; this appropriation was confirmed by Audrian, minister of the order of the Cistericians, on the feast of the purification in the said year; and on this the prior was taxed for tithes of the rectory at 42 marks, 8s. 10d. ob. q. and the vicar at 21 marks 4s. 5d. q.; and and on July 31, 1372, it was agreed by indenture between the prior and Walter, vicar, that he should obtain a confirmation to be made between them.

—, Richard Bennet.

Richard Revell occurs vicar in 1401.

John Cannock.

1472, William Canyngston.

1504, Thomas Leman, instituted.

1504, John Daycot, vicar, wills to be buried on the north side of this church, before his hall; gives 30 stone of lead to the church work, and a suit of vestments of white damask branched with angels of gold, or lily pots, like the red suit in the said church, and a cow to the parish.

On the 22d, of December, in the 29th of Henry VIII. this appropriated rectory, with the advowson of the vicarage, was granted to Thomas Howard Duke of Norfolk, which was conveyed by fine to the King, by Robert, the prior, and the convent of Lewes.

The prior from time beyond memory, used to pay to the Bishops of Norwich an annual pension of 3l. 11s. 1d. out of this rectory appropriated, but Robert, the late prior, and convent having demised this rectory to Nicholas Fordham, Gent. for 60 years, the Bishop of Norwich released the pension to Fordham, for the term of his lease July 12, A. 1 Edward VI.

1597, Robert Dixon, on March 22d, compounded for first fruits.

1599, Francis Ireland, October 23d compounded, presented by John Holland, Esq. hac vice.

The present valor is 26*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* and pays tenths and first fruits.

In this town the Romish saint, St. Godric, is said to have been born, who was at first a pedlar, and after went on a pilgrimage to Rome and Jerusalem, and lived a hermit at Finchale, near Durham, where he died in 1170;<sup>2</sup> many miracles are ascribed to him, and his girdle that he left had so great a virtue in it, as to make barren women fruitful.

The sea bank at this town from St. Hellin's chapel next Terrington, to Novechgate in West Walton, is 3 miles in length.

At a place called Cross Keys, in this parish, is a passage over the Washes, at the mouth of the river Nene, to Long Sutton, in Lincolnshire, (when the tide is out, and before its reflux,) for horses and carriages, and King John passing over here into Lincolnshire, a little time before his death, not observing this, lost most of his baggage, or carriages, by the reflux of the tide.

Here is a guide always attending to conduct passengers over, bearing a wand, or rod in his hand, probably in imitation of Moses, who held a rod, when he conducted the Israelites through the Red Sea.

WALSOKEN.

RAMSEY ABBOTS, OR POPENHOW MANOR.

THE principal manor of this town was given to the abbey of Ramsley, in Huntingdonshire, by Aitwin Duke of the East-Angles, also styled alderman of the East Angles, on his founding of that abbey in 1069, by the name of Five Hides in Walsoken, and was confirmed to that house by King Edgar: the said abbey held it at the grand survey by the name of the Land of St. Bennet of Ramsley, the abbey being dedicated to that great patron of the monastick order; it consisted then of one carucate of land held by 11 villains, and 6 borderers, with 12 acres of meadow, one carucate in demean, and half a one amongst the tenants, a fishery, &c. and 7 socmen belonged to it, with 13 acres, valued at 20*s.*<sup>4</sup>

This manor was called by the name of Popenho; and in the 44th of Henry III. a fine was levied between Hugh, abbot of Ramsley, lord, and Geffrey de Marisco, or Marsh, one of his chief freeholders, about the repairing of the walls, and cleansing the drains, which Geffrey and his heirs were to repair, &c.

In the 3d of Edward I. the abbot was found to have wreck at sea, assise of bread and beer, in Walsoken, Popenho, the 3d part of the village belonging to him, with the advowson of the church held in capite of the King, and belonging to his barony.

In the 26th of the said King, there being a contest between William de Luda, Bishop of Ely, and John de Sautre, abbot of Ramsey, about the lete of this village, it was agreed that the lete of it should be jointly held by the bailiffs of the Bishop, the abbot, and the prior of Lewes, (which shows that there were 3 distinct manors here then) in common, and that the secrets of the lete, with the verdict should be given to the Bishop's steward, or bailiff, who should communicate it to the other bailiffs, who should declare it to their proper tenants; and the profit of their lete, &c. should be taken by each steward, of their proper tenants. About this time this manor was worth 15 marks per ann. to the abbot.

About the year 1400, in the 5th year of Thomas, the abbot Richard, son of John Atmere, of Walsoken, carpenter, being a villain of blood of this manor, paid the abbot a fine of 2s. per ann. for liberty to live out of it, though still to be his villain; and in or about 1428, the temporalities of the abbot in this town in rent, mill, perquisites, and cattle, were valued at 23*l.* 19*s.* 9*d.* per ann.

On the dissolution of this abbey, it came to the Crown, and was granted by King Henry VIII. February 26, in his 36th year, by the name of Popenhowe, alias Walsoken manor, with the advowson of the rectory, to Sir Thomas Wriothesley, and Sir Richard Southwell, (which Sir Richard was one of the King's visitors of the abbies, priories, &c.) with all the rights and privileges enjoyed by the abbots, and as specified in the 14th of Edward I. by a quo warranto, together with the manor of Westfield in Mitford hundred Norfolk, which belonged to the Charter-House, London: and in the 3d of Elizabeth, it appears, that the rent of assise of the free tenants was 24*s.* 8*d.* ob. Jeffrey Colvile's, Esq. rent 8*s.* assise of the customary tenants 6*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* the custos, or chaplain of Trinity 4*s.* per ann. perquisites of court 2*l.* 19*s.* 10*d.* ob.

On the 25th of January, in the 24th of Elizabeth, it was conveyed by Sir Richard Southwell, to Thomas Barrow, Esq. of Cranworth in Norfolk, together with the pension of 40*s.* per ann. payable to the lord by the rector; being then valued at 101*l.* 14*s.* 8*d.* per ann. in the whole, as by a particular account under the hand of Sir Richard appeared.

Thomas Barrow, Esq. and William, his son and heir, sold it April 2, in the 31st of the said Queen, to Richard Cattyn, of Honingham, Esq. and Dionysia his wife, who October 12, in the 33d of Elizabeth, conveyed it to Sir Henry Gawdy, of Claxton, in Norfolk, whose son Sir Robert, conveyed it by fine levied in Michaelmas term, in the 20th of James I. to Everard Buckworth of Wisbeach, Esq. John Adderley, John Hewar, &c. trustees for Sir Thomas Hewer of Emmeth, who by will dated January 21, in the 5th of Charles I. settled it on Laurence Oxburgh, and his heirs male, son of his nephew Thomas Oxburgh, Gent. son of Thomas Oxburgh, Esq. and Thomasine his wife, sister of the said Sir Thomas Hewer, enjoining him and his heirs to write themselves Hewer, alias Oxburgh, and for want of such issue, on Thomas Hewer, son of John Hewer, late of Mileham, in Norfolk, &c.

the aforesaid Laurence Hewer, alias Oxburgh, with his son Laurence, conveyed it, July 15, 1669, to John Colvile, Esq. and John Wise, whose son, Josiah Colvile, Esq. (to pay his father's creditors) sold it April 21, 1685, to John Creed, Esq. of Oundle, in Northamptonshire, and in this family it remained in 1742, and in 1762.

MARSHES, OR ELY MANOR.

Here was a manor called Marshes, from the family of De Marisco, who held lands of the see of Ely, and of the abbot of Ramsey. In the 4th year of King Henry III. a month after Easter, a fine was levied before Hubert de Burgo, chief justice of England, Robert de Vere Earl of Oxford, Martin de Pateshull, Ralph Hareng, Steph. de Segrave, justices, between Henry, abbot of Ramsey, tenant, and Stephen de Marisco, tenant of 60 acres of land here, the abbot having impleaded him for 11 virgates of land in this town, which he released to the abbot, who grants to Steph. the 60 acres aforesaid, and 60 more in this fine for the free rent of 5s. per ann. the said Steph. held also in Walsoken, and Newton, one fee of the Bishop of Ely.

In the 44th of the said King, Geffrey de Marisco covenanted to repair the walls and banks of the sea and marshes, for which the abbot was distrained, and on this, Geffrey and his heirs were received into all benefits and prayers made in the abbey church for ever; the custom in this town and all Marshland being then, that the freeholders of the manors repair the banks so far as their lands lie; and the said Geffrey, in the 3d of Edward I. held in this town, West Walton, Walpole, &c. one fee of the bishop of Ely.

This lordship came on the death of Geffrey, by marriage, to Sir Roger de Colvile, a family of great antiquity in Cambridgeshire. Robert de Colevile was living in the 3d of Henry III. Sir Henry de Colevile was sheriff of Cambridgeshire and Huntingdonshire, in the 35th of that King; Philip de Colevile defended in the 53d of the said reign, the castle of Gloucester, against that King's son, and had a pardon on December 25th in the said year.

In the year 1277, the Bishop of Ely was the capital lord, had the lete, return of writs, cognisance of all pleas, when it is said that the whole town entered commoners in West Fenn, and were to clean their portions of the Pokedyke, 5 furlongs and 16 perches; the Bishop, and the abbot of Ramsey had each a moiety of the sea wreck, royal fishes, &c. with free warren.

A fine was levied in the 15th of Edward I. between Geff. de Sandi-aere, querent, and Roger, son of Roger de Colvile, and Desiderata his wife, of this lordship, settled on Geffrey for life; this Roger was, as I take it, son of Sir Roger, (who was sheriff of Norfolk and Suffolk, in the 51st of Henry III. and Nicholan his wife) and married Desiderata, daughter of Stephen de Marsh, and had by her also the lordships of Tydd St. Gyles, and Newton.

Jeffrey de Colvile was son of Roger, and Desiderata his wife: between this Jeffrey, and Robert de Watervill and Desiderata, (his wife) a fine was levied in the 2d of Edward II. of this manor, settled on Jeffrey; and in the 11th of the said King a composition was made between the Bishop of Ely and him, about the view of frank-pledge, the lete, and amerciements of the tenants here.

By the inquisitions taken in the 20th of Edward III. it appears that John Colvile then held half a knight's fee in Walsoken, West Walton, and Walpole, of the Bishop of Ely, and in the 35th of the said King, Sir John de Colvile<sup>5</sup> died beyond sea, seized of the said manors, with those of Newton, Tydd St. Gyles, Mersh, (or Marche) in Cambridgeshire, and Sir John Colvile, Knt. was his son and heir, aged 23; this Sir John Colvile, Sir John Shardelowe, Sir William Cheynee, and John Leverington, were appointed in the 10th of Richard II. in the county of Cambridge, to proclaim that no grasiers, or sellers of cattle, or horses, &c. should sell them at a higher price than usual: he married Alice, and held together a moiety of the manor of Strete, in Kent, (probably Stone Strete) called Chiveler's, and dying possessed of this lordship, &c. in the 17th of Richard II. John Colvile was his son and heir, 29 years old, as appears from the eschaet roll, which says he held 207 acres of land here, belonging to his manor. This Sir John sealed with the arms of Colvile, as his father, and quartered or, three chess rooks, gules;<sup>6</sup> crest, a lion passant, in the 46th of Edward III.

About this time lived William Colvile, Esq. who was one of those who accompanied John Duke of Lancaster into Spain, in the 9th of Richard II. and by the eschaets, in the 14th of the said King, Joan Colvile, first the wife of John Engayne, afterwards of Sir William Colvile, Knt. aged 30, then died. John de St. Quintin is therein called her brother. Sir John Colvile, and his tenants, on an inquisition taken at Lyn Bishop's on Monday before the feast of St. Agnes, Henry IV. Ao. 3, before Sir John White, Knt. held half a fee here, in Walton, and Walpole, of the Bishop of Ely.

Sir John Colvile, in the 8th of Henry IV. had a patent to found a chantry in the chapel of St. Mary, in Newton, on the sea coast (super costeram maris) and to endow it with 40*l. per ann.*

In the 8th of Henry V. Sir John Colvile granted to Thomas Langley Bishop of Durham, Sir Thomas Erpingham, &c. feoffees, this manor; and to Thomas Duke of Clarence, Humphrey Duke of Gloucester, &c. feoffees, his manors of Newton, in Cambridgeshire, and Tydd St. Gyles; and is said to die in the 4th of Henry VI. some of these Colviles married a daughter of Mackworth of Normington in Rutlandshire; and in the church of Newton, was a shield of Colvile, impaling Wythe, azure, three griffins passant, in pale, or.

In the 8th of Henry VI. Sir John Colvile of Newton had an inquisition, ad quod damnum, on his settling 5 messuages, 110 acres of land, in Newton, Leverington, Wisbeach, Elme, and a fishery, called Depewere, in Wisbeach, on a chantry in the church of Newton, and died, as is said, about the 24th of Henry VI. leaving Sir John Colvile, his son and heir, who married Ann, daughter of Sir Henry Ingels of Dilham, in Norfolk, and died in the fourth year of King Henry VII.

and in the 9th of the said King, it appears she was remarried to Sir Robert Brandon.

Francis Colvile, Esq. succeeded his brother, Sir John, and died seized of this manor in the 9th year, and then a knight, leaving Richard, his son and heir, by Katharine, daughter of John Townsend of Reynham, in Norfolk, Esq. which Richard, by an inquisition taken at Thetford, November 2, in the 17th of Henry VIII. was found to die September 5, in the said year seized of this manor, that of Newton, &c. and Geoffrey was his son and heir, aged 11 years, by Etheldreda his wife, who had livery of it, &c. in the 27th of the said King: he married Katharine daughter of Sir John Hind, of Madingley, in Cambridgeshire, who joined with him in conveying by fine to Edward Thwayts, and Elizabeth his wife, the manor of Strete in Kent, and died in the year 1575, leaving John Colvile, his son and heir, who was found to hold this manor of Queen Elizabeth, as of her manor of West Walton, by the 8th part of a fee, late parcel of the Bishop of Ely's lands; which John Colvile, Esq. married Ann, daughter and heir of Nicholas Pincebek, of Pincebek, in Lincolnshire, Esq. by whom he had Richard Colvile, Esq. lord here and of Newton, who by Mary his wife, daughter of Sir Thomas Bernardiston of Ketton, in Suffolk, and Elizabeth his wife, daughter of Thomas Hauchet, had Sir Thomas Colvile, Knt. his eldest son, who married Alice, daughter of Sir William Spencer, of Yarnton, in Oxfordshire, and dying sans issue, October 17, 1611, was succeeded in this manor, &c. by his brother, Richard Colvile, Esq. who in 1638, sued Sir Philip Loudon, Knt. in the court of chivalry, for words, &c. and dying in 1650, left by Sarah his wife, daughter of Sir John Laurence of Iver, in Buckinghamshire, Bart. several sons; John, who died unmarried, William Colvile, Esq. who was justice of peace for Cambridgeshire, and married Ann, daughter of Sir Richard Stone of Steekley, in Huntingdonshire, and died sine prole.

I meet also with 2 younger sons of the said Sir Thomas Edred, and Jeffrey Colvile, who by —, daughter of — Peak, of Walsoken, had Richard Colvile, of Newton, in the isle of Ely, who married Frances, daughter of Thomas Carter, alderman and lord mayor of York,<sup>7</sup> which Thomas died in 1686, aged 52.

Also John Colvile, Esq. who is said to have been a goldsmith of London, and purchased the manor of Popenhoe, in this town, and had by Dorothy his wife, daughter of — Bishop of London, Josiah Colvile, Esq. of Lincoln's Inn, London, in 1685, then aged 27, died at Wisbeach, December 25, 1705, and was buried at Newton, leaving Ann his sister and heir. Robert Colvile, Esq. of Newton, in the isle of Ely, is now lord.

I find also a little manor, called Colleter's, or Collector's, in this town, held of the Colviles. In the 9th of Henry VIII. Sir John Audley, and Elizabeth his wife conveyed to Thomas Spring, &c. a messuage, 380 acres of land, 10s. per ann. rent, by fine, in this town, Walpole, West Walton, Tirington, &c. and in the 15th of that King, Thomas Spring was found to hold the manor of Collectors, of Sir John Colvile, Knt. in soccage, and the rent of 13s. 8d. with one cock, and one hen, per

ann. and in the 11th of Elizabeth it was conveyed from the Springs, to Henry Hunston, of whom see in Walpole.

John Low, Esq. was lately possessed of a manor, after him Thomas Potter, Esq. youngest son of Archbishop Potter, and his widow now holds it.

The prior of Lewes in Sussex had also a manor here belonging to his lordship of West Walton, which in 1428 was found to be worth 6*l.* 12*s.* 8*d.* ob. per ann. which on the dissolution was granted to Thomas Duke of Norfolk: of this see in West Walton.

The CHURCH of Walsoken is dedicated to All-Saints, and has a nave, north and south isle, with a chancel covered with lead; at the west end is a tower, with a spire of free-stone.

Pope Urban VI. Boniface IX. Martin V. Paul II. and Sixtus V. granted to the brothers and sisters of this fraternity, and to all who were benefactors to it, surprising indulgences, as will appear from what I have here subjoined, taken from a rude and imperfect copy of a deed of admission of two persons into this fraternity, under the seal of the aforesaid Eborard.

By a like deed, John Berners, Esq. was admitted in 1476, (who was second son of Thomas Berners, Esq. 2d son of Sir John Berners Lord Berners) who married a daughter and coheir of Sir Henry Bruin of South Okendon in Essex, remarried to Robert Harleston.

John Alcock, Bishop of Ely, March 4, 1487, granted 40 days indulgence to all who contributed to the support of this hospital.

To this guild there also belonged certain chaplains. Thomas Martynson, priest of the hospital, in 1512, wills to be buried in the chapel or chapel yard of this hospital, as that shall please the master.

Thomas Jackson died custos in 1475.

Hewet, custos, succeeded.

Thomas Jackson, custos, and the brethren, granted indulgence to Maurice Jenkin and Margaret his wife, March 2, 1468, by virtue of the Pope's bull aforesaid.

On its dissolution, King Edward VI. granted, it on the 21 of August, in his 6th year, to Mary Duchess of Richmond and Somerset, with all the messuages, lands, &c. belonging to it in Walsoken, West Walton, Wisbeche, Leverington, Elme, and Enmyth, to be held by knight's service, and in capite of the King.

Soon after this, and in the said year, Robert Balaw held it in capite of the King, by the 3d part of a fee; and 125 acres belonged to it, as appears in the 21 of Elizabeth, when Alexander Balam had a pardon for purchasing it of Robert Balam, without license, which Robert died September 2, 14 of Elizabeth, and left Elizabeth his wife daughter, as it is said, of Sir John Cressener of Morley in Norfolk; ——— Balam of Barton-Mills in Suffolk, son of Alexander Balam, was his cousin and heir, on whose death it came to Charles Balam Esq.<sup>9</sup> younger son of Alexander, which Charles was found to die seized of it May 31, in the 34th of the said Queen; and Robert was his son and heir, aged 12 years; and the said Charles also held a capital messuage in Walsoken, called St. Rokes, with 4 acres, &c. belonging to it, held of the King in capite, and the service of 26s. 8d. per ann.

Probably this capital messuage was the chapel of St. Roche's, to which Thomas Martynson, priest of Trinity-Hospital aforesaid, was a benefactor, and left a legacy to the light of St. Anne in St Roche's chapel, in 1512; and in November 3, in 1639, Charles' Balam, son of Robert, died possessed of it.

Mention is made of Walsoken hermitage in the 2d of Henry V.

Balam bore sable, on a fess, between three stars, argent, as many pellets.

The prior of Mermond had lands in this town, granted July 23, in the 2d of Queen Mary, to Thomas Reve, and Giles Isham, taxed in 1428 at 4l. 10s. 2d. ob. and at the said time had a grant of lands belonging to the priory of Mirmound. The temporalities in 1428, were 4l. 10s. 2d. ob.

Walsoken sea bank, from Newgate-Slowe to Emmeth sea-dike, was three miles in length.

WEST-WALTON.

THAT is, a town by the wall or mound which was to defend it from the tides, &c. and called West in respect of another Walton in this hundred, &c. lying east of it. Toche, a freeman, was lord of it in the Confessor's time, a Saxon thane of great possessions, lord also of Castleacre, in both which William Earl Warren and Surry succeeded him on the conquest, when he was dispossessed. St. Peter held under him one carucate of land; to this lordship belonged 60 villains, 60 borderers, 8 servi, 100 acres of meadow, and 5 carucates in demean; there were 6 carucates amongst the tenants; seven salt works at the survey, and formerly 36 breeding mares; at the survey none, &c. pannaage for 114 swine, and 800 sheep; 6 soemen also belonged to it with a carucate of land, and 40 acres of meadow; there were also 17 borderers and 3 carucates and an half, and 7 saltpits; the whole valued at 17*l.* 10*s.* per ann. and is 4 leucas long, and 2 furlongs broad whoever is lord of it, and pays 2*s.* of a 20*s.* gelt.<sup>2</sup>

This is of the fee of Fredric. By St. Peter we are to understand the priory of Lewes, which was a cell to the abbey of St. Peter in Burgundy, in France; and by this it appears that the priory of Lewes was founded by the Earl Warren, (to which he gave this manor,) before the survey.

THE PRIOR OF LEWES'S MANOR.

Fredric abovementioned often occurs in Domesday book, in towns and lordships of the Earl Warren, and seems to be lord of it after Toche, before the Earl Warren had possession of it; thus Gressenhale in Launditch hundred.

Toche held in the reign of King Edward, afterwards Fredric; and Lexham Ofchetel, a freeman, held it in King Edward's days, afterwards Fredric.

The value and extent of this lordship shews the greatness of it, extending itself into Walsoken, Emneth, Walpole and Tyrington.

William, the first Earl Warren, being in full possession of this lordship, gave it to the priory of Lewes in Sussex, founded by the said Earl for the soul of Gundreda his Countess.

Henry II. by his charter, sans date, granted and confirmed to the monks of St. Pancrase of Lewes, all the lands, tenures and churches they had in the time of King Henry his grandfather. A (Alured) Bishop of Worcester, and Henry, son of Gerold the chamberlain, witnesses.

In the 3d of Edward I. the prior was found to hold wreck at sea, gallows, assise of bread and beer, &c. with the moiety of the advowson, (or a mediety) of the church of West-Walton, of the gift of Hamelyn Plantaginet Earl Warren and Surry.

About this time it appears from an old deed, sans date, in the Exchequer court, amongst the evidences of the priory of Lewes, That whereas there had been suit between that prior on the one part, and Sir Thomas, Knt. of St. Omer, Symon le Curteys, and others, parceners in Upwell-Marsh, as well before the King's justices, &c. about common of pasture in Upwell-Marsh, in Norfolk, in which the prior claimed right of common, and the others denied it; at length it was agreed that the prior and his successors should have right for all their own cattle belonging to the manor of West Walton, freely; but the prior, his tenants, villains, &c. should not bring any cattle belonging to any other of his manors to feed there, &c. and that the prior should be helping to them to maintain the liberty of common according to the quantity of their lands in Upwell, &c. to which the said parceners put their common seal:

Witnesses, Adam de Hakbeache, Sir Walter de Denver, Knt. Joceline, son of Nicholas de Walpol, &c. The prior, ao. 15, had a patent for a fair and mercate here.

The temporalities of this priory in 1428, were valued in this town, in land, mill, perquisites of court, &c. at 18*l.* 1*s.* per ann.

On the 7th of May, 1434, Robert Auncell, prior of Lewes, granted to William Pyrton, subprior, and his successours, 10 marks per ann. for their support, viz. 4 marks of the pension of this church of West Walton, and 6 marks of the pension of St. Olaves, Southwark, to celebrate an anniversary for this prior after his decease.

On the dissolution of the priory of Lewes, Robert, the last prior, granted this lordship, that of Walsoken, &c. by fine, passed in St. Michaelmas term, to King Henry VIII. in his 29 year; and on the 22d of December in the said year, the King granted it to Thomas Howard Duke of Norfolk, together with the mediety of the church belonging to the said priory, to be held in capite by knight's service; but was forfeited to the Crown afterwards, on the attainder of the Duke of Norfolk, and granted July 1. by Queen Elizabeth, in her 23d year, to Philip Howard Earl of Arundel, son of Tho. the late Duke, which Philip being also attainted, it came again to the Crown, and was granted November 22. in the 6th year of King James I. to Thomas Earl of Suffolk.

And on December 1. in the 10th of King James I. this lordship, with that of Walsoken and Walpole, late belonging to the prior of Lewes, was conveyed to John Hare, Esq. son of John Hare, increer of London, (brother of Sir Nicholas Hare) by Dorothy his wife; which John Hare, by Margaret his wife, daughter of John Croch of Corubury in Hertfordshire, Esq. had Hugh Hare, who was created lord of Colrain in Ireland, August 3. 1625, and by Lucy, daughter of Henry Earl of Manchester, had Henry Lord Colrain, who by Constantia, daughter of Sir Richard Lucy of Broxbourn in Hertfordshire, Bart. had Hugh Hare, Esq. who died before his father, and left by Lydia his wife, daughter of Matthew Carleton of Edmuntton, in Middlesex, Esq. Hen. Hare his son, born May 11. 1693, Lord of Colrain, who married Constantia, daughter of ——— Hanger, of London, merchant.

On the death of the late Henry Lord Colrain, in 1749, it came to the Crown, as an escheat, his heir being a minor and an alien.

At the survey, the abböt or church of Ely, was found to hold, as in the Confessor's reign, lordships in Marham, Beckeswell, Fincham, Fosthorp, Hilgey, Fordham, and Downham in Clacklose hundred;—West Walton and Islington, in Freebridge hundred;—Feltwell Northwold, and Muntford in Grimsbow hundred;—Bridgham, Rendham, in Shropham hundred;—Banham, Norton, Rushworth, in Gilleross hundred;—Orwick, How, in Launditch hundred;—Derham, Thorp, Catzeley, Tudenham, Shipdam, Matteshall, Thurston, Yakesham, in Mitford hundred;—Brunsthorp, in Brothercross hundred;—Pulham, Pilerton, in Ersham hundred;—Titeshall, Thelton, in Diss hundred;—Thurton, in Loddon hundred;—Stratton, in Deepwade hundred.

BISHOP OF ELY'S MANOR.

St. Adeldreda, or St. Audrey, that is the church of Ely, held in the time of King Edward, and at the survey, a lordship containing then 4 carucates of land, 20 villains, 40 borderers, and 13 servi, 100 acres of meadow, a fishery; there were 5 carucates in demean, and 3 amongst the tenants, 24 saltworks, 1300 sheep; and 47 acres in Islington belonged to it, which 2 villains held; and 7 socmen had a carucate of land, and 11 borderers, and 3 servi, with 2 carucates, and was always valued at 15*l. per ann.*<sup>3</sup>

The lands belonging to this manor, the many villains, borderers, &c. and the value of it, at that time, testify that it was a large and capital manor, and indeed we find it to take in part of Walsoken, Walpole, Tyrington, &c.

In the 35th of Henry III. the Bishop of Ely had a charter of free warren here, &c. lete, and other liberties, as in Walsoken, and a mercate and fair in the 55th of the said King.

By inquisitions of the free men of the Bishop of Ely's manor, in 1277, it was presented that this town was within the Bishop's lete in Marshland, where the bishop's bailiff within the lete might hold pleas of all things which the sheriff might, with writ or without; had return of writs, cognizance of all measures; that the Bishop had a moiety of the advowson of the church, with his demean and homages, and the demean and homage of Sir Stephen de Marisco; the demean were 201 acres of arable, to be ploughed by two ploughs of 6 oxen each, and 3 scots to harrow; there were lost by the inundation of the sea, and turned to marsh 33 acres and an half; there were 63 acres of wood, 90 acres of pasture, common of pasture in West-Fen.

The whole town was to cleanse 5 furlongs of the Poke-Dike. The stock was 10 cows, one free bull, no hogs, one free boar, 300 sheep, one windmill; and the free tenants were Henry, son of Osbert de Walpole, John de Walpole, William de Sculham, John de Ingaldesthorp, &c. divers customs of the manor are mentioned, as Heriots, &c.

In the 34th of Henry VI. the Bishop's manor was valued at 69*l. 8s. 6d. q. per ann.* and it continued in the see of Ely till the reign of Queen Elizabeth, when by an act of Parliament it came to the Crown,<sup>4</sup> and in the 21st of King James I. it was possessed by Charles Prince of Wales, and afterwards was held by Katherine Queen Dowager of King Charles II.

In the reign of King James I. the rents of the free and customary tenants, were 13*l. 9s. 11d. q.* and the rent of the manor or farm, 150*l. 7s. q. per ann.*

This is now held by William Folkes, Esq. by lease from the Crown.

Sir Stephen de Marisco, as has been observed, held here and in Walsoken, &c. a lordship, which afterwards came to the Colvile's, (of

Osbert de Stradeset, son of Roger de Stradeset, also held lands of the see of Ely; he and his wife Maud gave by deed sans date, to Castleacre priory,<sup>5</sup> 26 acres of marsh here, which was the land of Roger le Hare, and all the right they had therein, for the health of their souls, saving to the Bishop of Ely, half a mark of silver yearly, to be paid at the four stated times of payment, and saving the work<sup>6</sup> that was to be done at the castle of Wisbeach, with other freemen of Walton;—witnesses, Walter de Nieuth, steward of the Earl Warren, Geff. de Melders, Adam de Hakebech, Ralph Dalionn Alexander Sewer of Aera, John de Fincham, Ralph de Barsham, &c. sans date.

It is here added, "as the deed of Eustachius, of good memory, late Bishop of Ely, fully testifies."

In the 6th of King John, a fine was levied between William de Sculham, querent, Robert Haacteyn and Joane his wife, of a messuage, 20 acres of land and 12s. rent in this town, Walsoken and Haggebech, (in Emneth) granted to William, from the heirs of Joan: and in the 35th of Henry III. a fine was passed between Agnes, the widow of William de Sculham, querent, and John de Sculham, tenant, of the moiety of 720 acres of land and marsh, 3 mills, 4 salt-pits, 3s. rent, and the third part of the twelfth part of one knight's fee in this town, Walsoken, Walpole, Tirington, Tylney, Sechithe, Clenchwarton, and Lenne, which Agnes claimed as her dower, with 2 crofts in Clenchwarton, &c. granted to her in dower, she releasing all her right (to John) in the rest.

LOVELL'S MANOR, &c. CLARE FEE.

The family of Repps had also lands in this town, held of several lords. Thomas de Repps was a commissioner of sewers, to view the sea walls, bridges and causeys along the sea coast between Wygnhale, Tyrington, and Lenne, and to levy money for their repairs, in the 2d year of Edward III.; and in the 38th of Henry VI. William Lovell held here, in Walpole, &c. one fee of the honour of Clare.

In the 24th of Henry VIII. Robert, prior of St. Pancrase, of Lewes, and the convent, demised to John Repps, late of West Walton. Gent. their manor of West Walton, the site of the manor, houses, demesne lands, meadows, feeding pastures, (except the hall, and two chambers at both ends of the hall,) with the garden, the meadow called Bromstoven, and the New-Hall, at the yearly rent of 20l. 12s. 4d.

Repps was to farm the same, to find the prior's officers, when they came, oats, hay, and beans as long as they staid; the prior to repair the sea banks, sea dykes, fen dykes, and to pay the King's dues; and in the 31st of Henry VIII. the manor of Sybcelis, or Syolys, with messuages and tenements in West Walton, and Walpole, was conveyed to him by fine, from Thomas Holland, Gent. which manor (as I take it) was late Henry Smith's, Margaret, one of his daughters and coheirs, being married to this John Repps, another daughter and coheir to Holland.

By an inquisition taken at Norwich, October 1, in the 5th of Charles I. it was found that Henry Repps, Esq. died in the 4th of Charles I. on the 23d of March, seized of a capital messuage, 324 acres of land, of which the messuage with 58 acres, was held of the King's manor in West Walton, in soccage, and paid 12s. 1½d. per ann. also of 16 acres held of Colevile's manor, in soccage, of 54 acres held of Hunston's manor, in soccage, and of 196 acres held of the manor of West Walton, in soccage; and the manor of Clare, in Walpole, held of the King, of the honour of Clare, by knight's service, and John was his son and heir, aged 18, September 16, in 1629, by Ann, daughter of — Cotterell Esq.

John Repps, Esq. died possessed of it about 1750, leaving 3 daughters and coheirs; Frances, married to the Rev. Mr. Baldwin, rector of Brand Parva; Dorothy, married to George Schutz, Esq. and Vertue, to John Hays, Esq.

This John, on his father's death in 1723, paid his fine for this manor, which extended into Walpole, and held of the honour of Clare.

The tenths of this town were 23l.—Deducted 2l. 12s.

The family being extinct in the male line, by the death of John Repps, Esq. who died at Matteshale, in Norfolk, in 1750, I shall here give a copy of the direct descent of the said gentleman, taken from his pedigree.

REPPS'S PEDIGREE

Ralph de Repps lived in the time of the Conqueror, and had Bartholomew de Repps his son and heir.

Nicholas de Repps married Avelyne, daughter of Henry de Hemeby, of Ingworth.

Peter, son and heir of Sir Peter de Hobois, gave lands to her in Calthorpe.

Launce Dauyel of Walsoken died seized of 180 acres of land, in this town, and Walsoken, in the 33d of Henry VI. in the 32d of the said King, he was found aged 50, and to be heir and cousin of Joan, widow of Thomas Chepstele, and thereby had the manor of Stanhow Marshes or Marshes, in Norfolk, which he enjoyed but one year, and left them to his son, Thomas Dauyel, who was then 30 years old: this Thomas was constable (as I take it) of Rysing Castle, and afterwards a knight: see in Rysing.

The Church of West Walton is dedicated to St. Mary, it has a curious free-stone tower, standing south of the church, about 22 yards, in which are 5 bells, a nave, a north and south isle, all covered with lead, with a chancel, and consists of two medieties.

In the north isle, on a monument,

EAST - WALTON.

THE principal part of this town was in the hands of Roger Bigot, a Norman chief, ancestor of the Earls of Norfolk, and was a berewite depending on his lordship of Pentney, of which Hagane<sup>8</sup> was lord in the Confessor's time: it consisted of one carucate of land, 6 borderers, 3 servi, one carucate in demean, 16 acres of meadow, 3 beasts for burden, formerly of 20 mares, at the survey of 7, 20 animalia, probably cows, 30 swine, and formerly 40 sheep, now of 92, and 7 skeps of bees; 10 socmen here held 72 acres, and one carucate; the whole, that is in Pentney, in King Edward's time, was valued at 5*l. per ann.* and when Bigot received, at the same, but at the survey was improved to 7*l. per ann.* and Robert de Vaux held it of Bigot; it was with Pentney 5 furlongs long, and 4 broad, paid 8*l. gelt*; there were 2 churches endowed with 30 acres, valued at 2*s. 8d.* that is one here, the other at Pentney.<sup>9</sup>

WEST DERHAM ABBEY MANOR

In the 8th year of Richard I. there was a controversy between Margaret, sister of John Le Moyne, and Roger Buche, about a knight's fee held by them, and which neither of them would allow the other to have, so that they both joined afterwards in giving it to the abbot and canons of West Derham, the abbot giving to each of them 150 marks; and in the reign of King Henry III. the abbot was found to hold it by one fee of John de Vaux. On the death of this Sir John de Vaux, Maud his wife, lady of Surlingham, was found to hold it in the 16th of Edward I. and on a partition of the estate, between the two daughters and coheirs, Maud, who married William Lord Ross, had it assigned to her share; the abbot claimed the privilege of a gallows, assise of bread, free warren, &c. in common with the prior of Westacre, and William de Reymerston, as appears from the rolls of the hundred in the 3d of Edward I.

In the 15th of Richard II. John Charte aliened lands here, and 26 acres at Holkham, to the abbot.

In the 3d of Henry IV. the abbot was found to hold it of the heirs of Vaux, and they of Thomas Mowbray Duke of Norfolk, and he of the King in capite; and in the year 1428, the temporalities of the abbot in this town were valued at 12*l.* 16*s.* 3*d.* per ann.

On the 5th of July in the 29th of Henry VIII. Robert Forman, abbot of West Derham, leased to William Baker, yeoman, of East Walton, for 60 years from Michaelmas before the date, the site of the said manor, with all the houses, closes, meadows, demean lands, liberty of foldage, profits, of courts, fines, amercements, wards, marriages, reliefs, eschaets, &c.; and on the 11th of April, King Edward VI. in his 4th year granted it to Thomas Bishop of Norwich, and his successors, and it is held of the Bishop, by lease, at this day. Bishop Scambler leased it for 80 years in 1588, to Queen Elizabeth, at 8*l.* per ann.

LANGLEY ABBEY MANOR.

The abbot of Langley had the 3d part of a fee, which was held in the reign of Henry III. by Alexander de Butterwick, of Sir John de Vaux, belonging to Bigot's fee, and on the division of Vaux's estate came, as above shown, to William Lord Ross. In the 21st of Edward I. William Howard, (the founder of the Norfolk family, or a son of him,) purchased of the said Alexander, by fine,<sup>1</sup> 20 messuages, 1 mill, 500 acres of pasture, and 40*s.* rent per ann. in this town, Billency, Ayleswesthorp and Narford; and in the 20th of Edward III. Sir John Howard was found to hold this 3d part of a fee, (late Butterwick's), of the heirs of Huntingfeld; but in the 5th of the said King, Sir John Howard was found by the escheat-roll, to hold this manor of the abbot, paying 35*s.* 5*d.* per ann. and the abbot of John de Ross of his manor of Watton, by the fourth part of a fee; and in 1428, the temporalities of the aforesaid abbot were valued at the said 35*s.* 5*d.* q. per ann.

PRIOR OF PENTNEY'S MANOR.

Part of that lordship, which Robert de Vaux held of Bigot, at the survey, was also given by him, or some of his posterity, to the priory of Pentney: and in the reign of Edward III. Sir John Howard held of the prior, lands by the service of 7*s.* per ann.; in 1428, the temporalities of the prior, were valued at 23*s.* 3*d.* per ann.

Concealed lands in this town, belonging to this priory, were granted to John Dyer and Henry Cressencr, by Queen Elizabeth, April 10, in her 16th year.

The prior also held lands of the Lord Bardolf, in this town, as I shall show under that fee.

RICHMOND FEE. OR MANOR.

Alan, Earl of Richmond, in Yorkshire, had a part of this township conferred on him by the Conqueror, for his eminent services, which Turchill held in the Confessor's time; to this belonged one carucate, 6 villains, and one borderer; there was also one carucate in demean, half a one amongst the tenants, with a mill, valued at 20s. per ann. all Walton is one leuca long, and half a leuca broad, and pays 18d. of a 20s. gelt; Bawsey, and Wike, are included in this measure and payment.<sup>2</sup>

In the reign of Henry III. the prior of Westacre held lands of this honour of Richmond, and in his 23d year, John le Chaplein, and others, were sued by Robert de Tateshale, for not doing suit and service to his hundred court of Frethbrigg for these lands: John's plea was that they belonged to the honour of Richmond, and that service was performed for the said lands, in the court of Peter de Saxoy Earl of Richmond, at his court in Swaffham.

In the said reign of Henry III. John de Longvile, and his tenants held here, in Middleton, and Hardwick, half a fee of this honour, and Hugh de Ferly died possessed of lands held of it, in the 8th of Edward I.; in the 30th of that King, John de Longvile, and Margaret his wife, had a lordship here, with that of Ocerton Longvile, in Huntingdoushire, and the moiety of Cohn, in Bedfordshire. In the 30th of Edward III. Margery de Saltmarsh, was found to hold half a fee here, and in Hardwick, formerly Lougviles.

In the 14th of Henry VI. John Duke of Bedford died seized of this fee, as part of his honour of Richmond, and in the 35th of that King, Edmund Earl of Richmond was found to have it, and George Lord Latimer held it under him; and Richard Lord Latimer held it of the said honour, in the 9th of Henry VII.

WESTACRE PRIORY MANOR.

Ralph de Tony had also two socmen belonging to his capital manor of Necton, who held lands here, which he gave to the priory of Westacre, founded by him; this was valued under the lordship of Necton; the prior also, in the reign of Henry III. was found to hold the fourth part of a fee, of the honour of Richmond, and to have royal liberties in the 3d of Edward I. a gallows, free-warren, assise of bread and beer.

Jeffrey Sutton, aliened in the 6th of Edward II. a messuage, 60 acres here and in Westacre, Wygenhale, Tyington, Tylney, &c. to the said prior, and in the 5th of Edward III. Sir John Howard was found to hold of the prior lands, by the service of 4s. per ann. the temporalities of the priory in 1428, were valued at 10*l.* 17*s.* 9*d.* ob. in lands, a mill, &c.

In the 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary, this manor, by the name of Emehouse, or Westacre manor, in East Walton, was granted on the 8th of July to John Eliot, and Alexander Chesnall, to be held in capite; and Eliot, had license to alienate it, in the 5th and 6th of the said reign, to Thomas Gresham and his heirs; and the Lady Ann Gresham, his widow, died possessed of it November 23, in the 39th of Elizabeth, and William Read, Esq. her son, by her first husband, inherited it, being then aged 50.

In 1580, it was valued at 1*l.* 8*s.* 8*d.* per ann. besides the sheep pasture, and the patronage of the vicarage belonged to it.

Sir William Withipole held it in the reign of King James I.

It afterwards was conveyed to Sir Edward Barkham, alderman of London, and lord mayor, in 1621, and so came to Edward Spilman, Esq. as in Westacre,<sup>4</sup> who was lord and patron, and sold it in 1760, to Philip Case, Esq. of Lynn, who is lord of the whole town.

Hermerus de Ferrarijs had also a part of this township: under the title of invasions, in Domesday, we find that he had seized on 91 acres which 3 freemen formerly held; and Bordin held it under him; to this belonged 9 borderers, with 12 acres of meadow; there was formerly one carucate and an half, but at the survey only one, valued at 9*s.* 4*d.* and over these he had not the protection; there was also a moiety of a church, with 15 acres, valued at 2*s.*<sup>5</sup>

After Hermerus, it was possessed by the Lords Bardolf, as part of the honour of Wrongcy.

In the 2d of Edward II. John Howard and Joan his wife, had 2 carucates of land in this town, Pentney, and Ayles-Thorp, conveyed to them by Richard de Cornwall; this was Sir John Howard, son and heir of Sir William Howard, the judge; which Sir John married Joan de Cornwall, daughter of Richard, and sister of Richard de Cornwall.

In the 37th of Edward III. Sir Robert de Causton was found to hold lands here of the said honour, and William Lord Bardolf had one fee here in Geyton Thorp, Wykes, &c. in the 13th of Richard II. as appears from the eschaet rolls; and the prior of Pentney held lands of Thomas Beaufort Duke of Exeter, lord of that honour in the 5th of Henry VI. Sir Robert conveyed his right to the Howards.

Sir John Howard dying in 1437, left this to Henry Howard, his 2d son, by the Lady Alice, his 2d wife, daughter of Sir William Tendring, with the manor of Stranges, in this town; and by Elizabeth, his daughter and heir, it came by marriage to Henry Wentworth, 2d son of Roger Wentworth, Esq. of Nettlested, in Suffolk, &c. (See in Tyrington.)

Ann, Lady Matrevers, as heiress to the Wentworths, enjoyed it, and in the 11th of Elizabeth, conveyed it to Sir William Dean, her 3d husband, as in Tyrington.

HOWARD AND STRANGE'S MANOR.

Ralph de Beaufoe, a Norman baron, had also a lordship in this town, which Bund, a freeman, held in the reign of King Edward, consisting of a carucate of land, and Odarus held it of Beaufoe; 4 villains and 8 borderers, 4 acres of meadow belonged to it, with one carucate in demean, one carucate amongst the tenants; and one freeman held 8 acres of land. It was valued at 20s. per ann. in King Edward's time.<sup>6</sup>

This lordship assumed the name of Strange's (as I take it) from William le Strange, who held it in the reign of Henry III. by the fourth part of a fee, of the heirs of Beaufoe; but in the 20th of Edward III. Robert le Strange held it of Hubert de Rye; the prior of Castleacre had part of it; and in the 5th of the said King, Sir John Howard was found to hold it on his death, of the aforesaid Roger, by the service of 2s. per ann. and it was valued at 15l. per ann.

William Walton of East Walton had it conveyed to him by fine, in the 21st of Richard II. from William Curson and Maud his wife.

This I take to have been a moiety of it; for in the 26th of Edward III. William Carbonel released to Dame Alice Howard, all his right in this manor, settled on him before, and that his should remain to Sir Robert Howard her son, which seems to have been the other moiety.

In the 13th of Henry IV. a fine was levied between William Walton, querent, and Walter Glemsford and Margaret his wife, of the manor of Stranges, 11 messuages, 480 acres of land, 40 of meadow, 40 of pasture, and 4l. 2s. rent per ann. in this town, &c. conveyed to Walton, on paying 5l. per ann. to Margaret for life.

In the 22d of Edward IV. Henry Wentworth, of Nettledest in Suffolk, died seized of the manor of Strange's, late Howard's, and Howard's manor in Terington, the manor of Cavendish in Suffolk, &c.

But in the 2d of Henry VI. Peter Prior, rector of Heylston in Norfolk (being a trustee for it, as I take it) demised it to Alice, widow of Sir John Howard, in fee; and in the 16th of that King, Sir John Howard, senior, died seized of it, leaving it to his grand-daughter Elizabeth, wife to John de Vere Earl of Oxford, and it was in the Oxford family in the reign of King Henry VIII.

The other moiety was in Sir Robert Southwell, who was found to hold it of the Lord Morley, in the 6th of Henry VIII. and Richard Southwell, Esq. was his cousin and heir.

In an account of the estate of that family, it appears that Sir Richard granted it to Sir Thomas Gresham, Knt.

Here was also a lordship granted by King Henry VIII. to Sir Richard Southwell, in the 38th of that King, and after regranted to that King on an exchange for other lands in the said year, December 11, given by the King to Christ's college, Oxford, and held of that college by Sir Edward Barkham, Bart. and after by the Spilmans, his heirs, and now by Philip Case, Esq.

EAST - WINCH.

IN the book of Domesday is called Winic, from Win, which in the British language signifies water, and Ic or Ise, a general name, in these parts for any stream or rivulet, the inhabitants of this part of the Heptarchy, or East Angles, being called by the Romans the Icenii; also Wininc, as seated in a wet meadow.

The principal lordship at the survey was in the Crown. Godric farmed it, or had the care of it for the King.<sup>7</sup>

In King Edward's time it was a beruite to Sporle, (a considerable lordship belonging to the Crown, in the hundred of South Greenhow,) and contained 2 carucates of land, with 11 villains and 24 acres of meadow, 2 carucates in demean, &c. and one amongst the tenants. When Godric entered on it he found 24 sheep, 9 swine, &c. and a fishery; 12 socmen belonged to it with 54 acres of land, and 8 acres of meadow, and there was always one carucate and an half, with 10 acres of meadow; the whole was valued in Sporle, and was half a leuca long, and 4 furlongs broad, and paid 8*d.* to a 20*s.* gelt.

GRANCOURT'S MANOR.

This manor, with Sporle, which was royal demean, was given (as some say) by King Edward to Ralph Waker or Gauder, Earl of Norfolk, (but Dugdale more truly supposes him to be of Britany in France, and to be made Earl by the Conqueror,) and was taken as a beruite or lordship of Sporle.

On his rebellion, it is certain, if he ever was in possession of it, (which does not clearly appear,) it was forfeited to the Conqueror, and after the making the book of Domesday, was granted by the Conqueror to Alan, son of Flaald.

The first that I meet with upon record to have been lord after this, is Sir Ralph Le Strange, who lived in the reign of Henry II. and gave the rectory of this church to the priory of Carhow by Norwich, which was after appropriated to that house, by Roger Sherwing, Bishop of Norwich.

In the 4th of King John, Philip de Burnham and Emme his wife, (one of the daughters and coheirs of Sir Ralph) impleaded Fulk D'Eiry and Maud his wife, another daughter and coheir of Sir Ralph, for a moiety of this town, and messuages here, in Litcham and Ringsted.

Alan, son of Flaald, was lord of Milcham, and ancestor to the Earls of Arundel, under whom the family of Le Strange held many lordships, and of these Earls: the Howards, afterwards lords of this manor, were found to hold it.

Sir William de Calthorp, who married Cecilia, daughter of Philip de Burnham, sister and coheir of William de Burnham, had a right herein; and in the 45th of Henry III. they granted it by fine to William de Grancourt, and his heirs, to be held of them; and Walter de Grancourt, son of William, was lord in the 14th of Edward I.

William Howard purchased it of Thomas de Grancourt, in the 26th of that King; and in the 28th of the said reign, 2 messuages 4 carucates and 60 acres of land, 50 of meadow, with 6 marks per ann. rent, in this town and Middleton, were settled by fine of Robert de Shuddham, in Easter term, on the aforesaid William, and Alice his wife.

This was Sir William Howard, the famous judge, founder of the noble family of the Howards, ancestor to the Dukes of Norfolk, &c. It appears that he resided here in the 34th of the aforesaid King, from the accounts of the chamberlains of Lynn, in the said year, when several presents were sent to him and his lady, from the corporation, for his good services, viz.

Item in uno carcoss. bovis misso D'ne Alice Howard usq; Winch vi sol. — It. in vino p. duas vices miss. D'no Willo. Howard cum duobus carcoss. vitul. et uno scuto apri xiii sol. viiid. — It. in duob; salmon. miss. D'no. Willo. Howard vigil. posche xi sol.

This Sir William was found to hold it by the fourth part of a fee, of Richard Earl of Arundel.

He was an eminent lawyer, and before he was a judge, a counsellor retained by that corporation, with an annual pension.

In the 5th of Edward III. Sir John Howard, senior, was found to hold of Hamon L'Estrange the manor of East Winch, by the fourth part of a fee, valued at 30*l. per ann.* In the 20th of Richard II. Sir John Howard resided here, and by Elizabeth daughter and sole heir of John Howard, son and heir of Sir John Howard, it came by marriage to John Vere, Earl of Oxford, who had livery of it in 1437. This Earl was beheaded in 1460, and Elizabeth his widow settled it (being her own inheritance) in trust, on Richard Duke of Gloucester, for her and her heirs; and on the death of her grandson, John Vere, the 14th Earl of Oxford, without issue, it was assigned to John Nevil Lord Latimer, and to Sir Anthony Wingfeld, by the marriage of Dorothy and Elizabeth, two of the sisters and coheirs of the said Earl; the Wingfelds parting with their moiety to the Nevils, Dorothy, a daughter and coheir of John, Lord Latimer, who died in the year 1577, brought it by marriage, to Thomas Cecil Earl of Exeter, eldest son to William Cecil, Lord Burleigh; and the said Thomas, and Sir Richard Cecil, aliened it to William Barnes, Esq. in the 17th of King James I. April 20, (son of Edward Barnes, Esq. of Soham in Cambridgeshire;) he married first Thomasine, one of the daughters of Richard Howell, Esq. of Hillington in Norfolk, and his 2d wife was Thomasine, daughter of Owen Shepherd, Esq. of Kirby Bedon in Norfolk, by whom he had 2 sons, William Barnes, Esq. and Owen Barnes, town clerk of Lynn, who died single, and was buried at East Winch, in 1670, &c.

William, the eldest, died at East Winch, March, 16, 1661, and left by Anne his wife, daughter of Thomas Coppin of Marketcell, in the parish of Caddington in Bedfordshire, Tho. Barnes, Esq. who married Mary, alias Isabella, daughter of Sir John Griffith of Tilbury Fort in Essex, widow of Will. Langley, Esq. by whom she had children, who dying in their infancy, the said Thomas Barnes gave it at his death to his wife and to her son William Langley, Esq. 2d son of William Langley, Esq. her first husband.

The said Thomas Barnes had a brother, Edward Barnes of East Carleton in Norfolk, Gent. who married Lucy, daughter of Nicholas Barber of Fressingfield in Suffolk.

William Langley, Esq. (father of William, who was lord of this town by the grant of Thomas Barnes, Esq. (was eldest son of Sir Roger Langley, Bart. of Sheriff Hutton in Yorkshire, and died before his father in 1689, leaving by his wife aforesaid, daughter of Sir John Griffith, several sons.

Roger, the eldest, succeeded his grandfather in 1698; William, the 2d son, was lord of this manor, and left by Margaret his wife, daughter of ——— Sutton of Barbadoes, Esq. an only daughter, and was succeeded in this lordship by Thomas Langley, Esq. his younger brother; and in 1716, on the death of his eldest brother, Sir Roger was heir to the honour, and a baronet. He married ———, daughter of Captain Robert Edgeworth, of Langwood in the county of Meath in Ireland, and had issue 2 sons and 2 daughters, and was living in this town in the year 1720, much reduced, and in a state of poverty.

After this, it was possessed by Mr. Cotton, of Cutler's Hall in London, attorney, and was mortgaged to Archibald Hutchinsonson, Esq. whose widow possessing it in 1762, Sir John Tyrrell, Bart. of Essex, (heir to the Cottons,) has obtained a decree in chancery for a redemption.

Another part or moiety of this manor of the King's, held by Godric, came to Fulk d' Eiry, by Maud his wife, daughter and coheir (as I have observed, of Sir Ralph L'Estrange, and was held by him in the fourth of King John.

It was possessed by Jeffrey de Yry or D' Eiry, in the 6th of Henry III. when a fine was levied before Hubert de Burgh, chief justice, Martin de Pateshul, Stephen de Segrave, Thomas de Heydon, Hugh Ruffus, and Fulk Baynard, the King's justices, between the said Jeffrey and Margaret, prioress of Blackburgh, about the course of a certain water here, which the prioress had diverted to the damage of Jeffrey's mill, being compromised on an agreement about opening the sluices of the said mill.

About this time William de Bellomonte is said to hold a quarter of a fee, and William Constable had also some interest in this town, as appears from a pleading in the 34th of Henry III. His estate was seized in the 49th of the said King, he having been in the battles of Lewes and Evesham on the part of the barons, which was after restored to him.

In the 13th of Edward I. June 2, a grant of free warren in this lordship, in Gedney and Wynesley in Lincolnshire, in Burton Constable, Pagle, and Holm in Yorkshire, was passed to Simon Constable.

PENTNEY PRIORY MANOR.

Roger Bigot had the grant of a lordship, in this village, from the Conqueror which Guerd, a freeman, King Harold's brother, possessed in the days of the Confessor containing 60 acres of land, and 11 of meadow, with 6 villains, 3 borderers, and 2 carucates valued formerly at 40s. at the survey at 60s. and Robert de Vaux held it of Bigot.<sup>8</sup>

Roger Bigot was ancestor of the Bigots Earls of Norfolk; and Roger Bigot Earl of Norfolk gave it to William de Hastings, steward to King Henry II. on his marriage with Margery his daughter, who then became the capital lord; and was granted about the year 1250, with the consent of Sir Nicholas de Hastings, to the priory of Pentney, by William, or John de Vaux; and in the 16th of Edward I. John de Vaux was found to die seized of one fee here and in Geyton Thorp, held of him by the prior of Pentney. See in Geyton Thorp.

In 1428, the temporalities of this convent were valued at 8*l.* 18*s.* 2½*d.* q. per ann. King Henry VIII. at the Dissolution, granted it February 14, in his 29th year, for a certain term of years, to Thomas Earl of Rutland, and John Dethick, Gent. farmed it of the said Earl, at 10*l.* 2*s.* 5*d.* per ann. King Edward VI. in his fourth year, April 11, gave it to the see of Norwich, and it is held at this time by lease, of that Bishop.

It is said to be called in the grant of King Edward VI. Grancourt's manor, lately belonging to the priory of Pentney, but without any reason, as far as I have seen, and was leased to Queen Elizabeth, in 1588, for 80 years, by Dr. Scambler, Bishop of Norwich, at 10*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.* per ann.

Ralph de Tony had also two socmen, who held 8 acres.<sup>1</sup>

In the 12th of Edward II. Alicia, widow of Henry, son of Hugh de Narburgh, conveyed messuages and lands here to John de Acre and Ellen, his wife, by fine.

Hermerus de Ferrarijs had seized on two freemen, who had 30 acres, and Bordin held it of Hermerus, with half a carucate, and 2 acres of meadow, valued at 15*d.* and of these he had not the protection, or commendation: Stigand the Archbishop had the soc.<sup>2</sup>

Hermerus was lord of Wirmegay, and ancestor of the Lords Bardolf: Margaret Atte-Drove, and her parceners, held lands here, in the reign of Edward III. as appears from a roll of the honour of Wirmegay.

The temporalities of Flitcham priory were valued in 1428, at 11*s.* per ann. and of Sporle at 16*s.*

The tenths were 3*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* and the town in old writings is sometimes called Pedders Winch.

The CHURCH is dedicated to All-Saints.

In the chancel east window are the arms of Vere Earl of Oxford, of Howard, Vere and Howard impaled, also p. pale, or, and gules, a lion passant, argent, Plaiz.

Against the north wall is a mural monument of marble, with the arms of Barns, argent, two bars, counterembattled sable, in chief, three pellets.

On the north side of this chancel, is the old chapel and burial-place of the Howards, dedicated to St. Mary, as appears from the will of Sir Robert Howard who died in 1388, and was here buried according to his desire: in Weaver's time his enarched monument against the south wall of the said chapel, with some of the escutcheons wherewith it was ornamented, were to be distinguished, and this part of the epitaph remained :

But this part of the epitaph, with the shields and arms, is defaced, and great part of the monument itself destroyed many years past ; also the two grave-stones mentioned by him, and the effigies of one of the Howard family, in the east window, (the founder of the chapel) have met with the same fate.

This chapel, in Weaver's time, was much defaced, the lead that covered it being taken off and sold, but was then repairing by Thomas Howard Earl of Arundel and Surry, and at this time is in a worse state than in Weaver's.

Sir Robert Howard, abovementioned, married Margaret, daughter and coheir of Robert Lord Scales, who was buried by her husband : they resided, and died in this town, and it is probable that this chapel was erected by Sir William Howard, the judge, who (as I have observed) was lord, and resided here with his family, where it is likely, he and others of the family were interred.

On the west wall of this chapel is a neat monument of marble, with the arms of Barns, impaling Shepherd, argent, on a chief, gules, three Danish hatchets, or ; and Barns impaling Hovell, sable, a crescent, or.

Near unto this place lyeth the body of William Barns, Esq. son of Edward Barns, of Soham in Cambridgeshire, Esq. who first married Thomasine, daughter of Richard Hovell, of Hillington, Esq. by whom he had 5 daughters, after whose death he took to wife Thomasine, the daughter of Owen Shepherd, of Kirby, in this county, Esq. and (removed his seat to this place) had by her 5 sons and 8 daughters, and did for many years, with great prudence and fidelity, serve his king and country, in the office of justice of the peace, at length, such was the iniquity of the times, that loyalty was esteemed a crime, when not allurements, or threats, from him who usurped the highest power, could seduce him from his constant adherence to his abandoned prince, and the persecuted church of England ; he retired to a private life, devoting himself wholly to the service of God and religion, and peaceably departed hence in the 77th year of his age, 1657, expecting a joyful resurrection. To whose memory Frances Stanton, his second daughter, out of her tender love and dutiful affection, erected this monument. Semper Idem.

The church was anciently a rectory, valued at 10 marks, and 3s. 4d. and paid Peter-pence 11d. but being granted to the priory of Carhox, and appropriated to that house, (as is abovementioned,) by Roger Skerwing Bishop of Norwich, a vicarage was then settled and endowed in the patronage of the said priory, valued at 40s. per ann. the prior of Spotle had also a portion of tithes valued at 16s. per ann.

The present valor of this vicarage is 8l. 3s. 9d. and is discharged of first fruits, &c.

WEST WINCH.

WEST WINCH MANOR.

RAINALD, son of Ivo, held the chief lordship of this town, at the time of the grand survey, by a grant from the Conqueror, which Godwin, a freeman, Earl of Kent, and father of King Harold, held in the reign of the Confessor, consisting of 14 villains, 6 borderers, and 1 servus, at the survey, but of 4 in King Edward's time, 20 acres of meadow, 2 carucates in demean, and half a one amongst the tenants, 2 salt pits, &c. 23 soemen held 36 acres of land, with half a carucate, and 4 acres of meadow, then valued at 3*l.* afterwards at 100*s.* at the survey at 10*l. per ann.* From this Rainald it came to the Earls of Clare, as may be seen in Crimplesham.⁴

Simon, son of Richard, held this lordship of the honour of Clare, in the 2d year of King John, as appears from a pleading then between him and Alexander Barr, in Michaelmas term.

Ernald de Torley, about the reign of Henry III. held half a fee here of Simon, son of Richard, and he of the Earl of Clare; and in the 41st of Henry III. the guardianship of James de Beauveys, who held land, in this town, was granted by Stephen de Beauveys and Julian his wife, to Michael de Merlaw: this James was son and heir of Bartholomew de Beauveys, and probably was the same James de Beauveys, or de Belzago, one of the first mayors of Lynn, in 1270; and before this, in 1267, Thomas de Warblington, who held lands here of the honour of Clare, with Isabel his wife, granted them by fine to the said James, with rents and services.

In 1312, John de Merlaw seems to be lord of this manor, and then presented to the rectory of this church; and in 1323, Walter Henry of Babingley, conveyed lands here, by fine, to the said John Merlaw and Margaret his wife: in 1295, and 1311, he was mayor of Lynn.

William and Christiana de Suburgo presented in 1321, and John Attewode, in 1349, as lords of this manor; in 1387, John Drew, burgess of Lynn, and in 1388; but in 1389, John Bolt, of Lenue, who in 1398, gave the patronage of this rectory, with an acre of land to the priory of Blackburgh.

Robert Rauds, of Horsham St. Faith, bequeaths by will, in 1452, his lordship here, to Richard, his son.⁵

In the 6th of Henry VIII. Sir Robert Southwell was found to die seized of this manor, which extended into Hardwick, Sechy, and South Lynn, held of the honour of Clare, and 10 messuages, 500 acres of land, 40 of meadow, 100 of pasture, 60 of wood, and 10s. rent, and left it to his cousin and heir, Richard, son of Francis, brother of Sir Robert; but in Trinity term, in the 29th of Henry VIII. Richard Southwell, Esq. conveyed it to William Conynsby, Esq. and it came after that to Sir Francis Gawdy, (as in North Rungton;) and so to the Earl of Warwick, and was bought of him in the 10th of James I. by John Pell, Gent.

On the 22d of September, in the 18th of King James I. the jury find that Richard Shebbs of Sedgeford, in Norfolk, Esq. was possessed of this manor of West Winch, called Fincham's, and that he had infeoffed therein, Sir Philip Wodehouse, Bart. Edward Paston, Esq. &c. by deed dated the 10th of June, in the 12th of the said King, to the use of himself for life, remainder to William Yelverton, junior, (son of Sir William, and Dionysia his wife, eldest daughter of the said Richard) and on Ursula his intended wife, daughter of Sir Thomas Richardson, &c. and was after in the Pells.

From the family of the Pells, it came to the Walpoles.

Robert Walpole Earl of Orford died seized of it, and his grandson is the present lord.

Under the title of Invasiones, we find that Hermerus de Ferrariis had seized on a freeman, who held one carucate of land, and 12 borderers, valued at 6s. 8d.⁶

Hermerus was ancestor to the Lords Bardolf, and being a part of the barony of Wirmegay, had the same lords as in Wirmegey, till united to the manor above.

John de Wilton, in the reign of Edward III. had a manor in West Wick and Hardwick, called Wilton and West Winch Moigne, held by a quarter of a fee of the Lord Bardolf. Christopher Conynsby held this, and so was united, as I take it, to the lordship of West Winch, held of the honour of Clare, as aforesaid.

The church of West Winch is dedicated to St. Mary; the rectory was valued at 8 marks, Peter-pence 7d.

WEST ACRE.

THE MANOR AND PRIORY.

THIS town is thus called in respect of its site on a river, as South-acre, Castle, or East-Acre, all which towns occur in the Conqueror's book of Domesday, by the name of Acre, without any adjunct or distinction, being all seated on the same stream, or running water, as Acre signifies in the Saxon tongue. See in Castleacre.

At the survey it was the lordship of Ralph de Tony, descended from Malahulcius, uncle to Rollo, grandfather to William the Conqueror, and son of Roger de Tony, by Alice his wife, daughter of William Fitz-Osbern, one of the Conqueror's lords and generals, and created by him Earl of Hereford.

Roger de Tony was standard-bearer of Normandy, and Ralph the son inherited the same office, was a Norman baron, and attended Duke William in the decisive battle of Hastings; and for his great services was rewarded with many lordships in Berkshire, Hertfordshire, Gloucestershire, Herefordshire, and with these following in Norfolk.

Necton Bradenham, Pickenham, Cressingham Parva, Caldecote, Culesthorp, and Bodney, in Southgreenhow hundred; Ickburgh, Sturston, and Carbrook in Grimshow hundred: Fransham, Dunham, and Godwick in Launditch hundred; Shingham in Clacklose hundred; Walton, Acre, Thorp, Lynn, and East Winch in Freebridge hundred; Breccles in Weyland hundred; Wratham Magna and Parva, in Shrop-ham hundred.

In the time of the Confessor, Harold, then Earl of the East-Angles, was lord of this village, and at his death, when King of England.⁸

It was a berewic depending on his manor of Necton, containing 3 carucates of land, 6 villains, 8 borderers, 2 servi, with 4 acres of meadow; and there were 2 carucates in demean, with one amongst the tenants, pannage for 40 swine, 3 mills, with the moiety of another a fishery, 5 saltworks, &c. seventeen socmen, also and 14 borderers belonged to it, who held 405 acres of land, and 2 acres of meadow, with 5 carucates.

Turbin also held of Herold, 9 carucates of land, with 3 borderers, and 4 acres of meadow, and had 2 carucates in demean, &c. a carucate amongst the tenants, 2 oxen and a mill.

It was one leuca long and broad, and paid 16*d.* gelt, when the hundred paid 20*s.* and was valued with Necton.

Ralph de Tony married Elizabeth, or Isabel, daughter of Simon de Montfort, and left issue Ralph his son and heir, (Roger his eldest son dying young,) and was buried with his ancestors in the abbey of Conchis in Normandy, in the 2*d* year of King Henry I.

Leland says⁹ he married Alice, daughter and coheir of Waldief Earl of Huntingdon.

This Ralph de Tony was the founder of the priory of Westacre, dedicated it to St. Mary and All-Saints, and with his wife, his sons Roger and Ralph, granted for their own souls and their ancestors, his manor of Westacre with the parish church, (dedicated to All-Saints;) to Oliver she priest, or rector of it, and Walter his son; to which deed were witnesses—Gilbert Bloud, William de Portis, William de Lira, George Gros, &c. with all the soc of Noienton. It was a cell of the priory of Lewes.

On this grant, Oliver and Walter his sons, entered into the order of the Chuniac monks of this priory, with all their effects. Not only priests, but even bishops, were in this age married, and no restraints in this respect were laid upon them.—The Popes, Bouiface I. and Felix III. were sons of priests; and Gelarius was the son of a bishop, &c.

The founder gave them also the manor and advowson of Godwick.

Amongst their ancient benefactors were Osmund de Stutevile, William, son of Stangrene, Thomas Ingaldesthorp, Robert de Scales, Turgil the merchant, Joceline, son of Eudo de Nerford, Godfrey de Newmarch, John Grey of Narburgh, Jeffrey, son of Walter de Marham, Simon de Quatremarch de Roudham.

In the 10th of Richard I. a fine was levied between Bartholomew de Runhale, Roger de Repps and Mabel his wife, and Gilbert de Runhale, and William, prior of the church of St. Mary and All-Saints, of Westacre, whereby the patronage of the church of Runhale was granted to the prior, who gave to each of them a gold ring, and they were to be partakers of the prayers of the convent.

Roger, Lord Tony, accounted, in the 10th of King John, for 10 marks to the Exchequer, that the way which used to be through the middle of the priory-court, should be (as it was altered) without the said court.

A fine was levied in the 16th of Henry III. between Bartholomew, son of Simon, and Robert, the prior of Westacre, of 44 acres of land, with 2 messuages in Grimston, granted to the prior; and in the 19th of that King, the convent paid 100*s.* as an aid, on the marriage of the King's sister to the Emperor of Germany.

In his 41st year, Robert the prior purchased of Henry, son of Margaret, with a messuage, with one carucate of land, 5 acres of meadow 2*d.* rent in Pentney, by fine then levied; and they had also a manor in Narburgh, in the 43d of Edward III.

In the 5d of Edward I. the prior was found to hold this town in pure alms of the barony of Tony; and in the 6th of Edward II.

⁹ Vol. iv. p. 246.

Jeffrey de Sutton aliened to this convent, a messuage, 60 acres of land 12 of meadow, 40 of pasture, 7 of heath, with 9s. rent in this town, Walton, Lynn, Wygenhale, Tilney, Terington, Clenchwarton, &c.

In the following year, William de Wygenhale assigned a messuage, 102 acres of land in Westacre and Custhorp, with 12s. rent, in exchange for lands in Wygenhale, Islington, and Tilney; and in the 13th year here was a patent for 100 acres of land, 100 of pasture, and 3 messuages here, in Grimston, Congham, Rydun, &c. late the Lady Maud de Tony's.

In the 43d of Edward III. Thomas de Beauchamp Earl of Warwick (as heir to the Lord Tony) had the patronage of the priory in the reign of Henry VI. and Richard Nevill Earl of Warwick held it in right of his wife, Anne de Beauchamp, sister and heir to her brother, Henry Duke of Warwick.

King Edward IV. in his 19th year July 7, granted the convent an annual fair, being on the feast or translation of St. Tho. the Martyr, (as he was profanely stiled) Archbishop of Canterbury.

About this time I find they had the manor of Godscroft in South Lynn, and then valued at 15*l. per ann.*

The priory had the patronage of the following churches, or vicarages, their rectories being appropriated to it: Breccles, Roughton, West Barsham, Marham, Narford, Apleton, Ashwicken, Lesyate, Wygenhale St. Mary's, and South Lynn, with 2 parts of the rectory of Narburgh, and the rectory appropriated of Necton.

The churches of Westacre and Runhale were wholly appropriated, and served by a curate.

The church of Bodney was in their patronage.

A portion of the rectory of Necton belonged to them.

In 1428, their temporalities in this town were valued at 38*l. 4s. 0d. ob. per ann.* and the whole of their temporalities at 140*l. 5s. 7d. q. per ann.* and the whole of their temporalities and spiritualities, at 256*l. 11s. 0d. ob.* besides a portion in Roughton, with the portion of the prior of Castleacre in that church, which they had in farm.

PRIORS.

Oliver, who had been rector of the parish church of Westacre, was the first prior.

William occurs prior in the 10th of Richard I.

Hubert occurs prior about 1210.

Godwin, occurs about the end of King John's reign.

William, occurs in the 12th of Henry III.

Robert, in the 16th and 21st of Henry III.

Simon, in 1249.

Robert, in the 41st of Henry III.

John, in the 52d of Henry III.

Henry de Acra, admitted prior, 1300.*

William de Wesenham, admitted, 1320.

John de Stow, prior.

Nicholas de Buttele, prior, admitted 1373.

John de Acre, 1390.

John de Watlington, 1414.

John de Westacre, 1417.

John Fakenham, 1450, on the death of John de West.

John Cosyn, 1460.

Richard Patwe, or Palle, 1467, on Cosyn's resignation.

Richard or Thomas Clerk, occurs prior in 1503, and S.T.B.

William Louth, occurs in 1520.

Thomas Brygget, S.T.B. occurs in 1522.

William Wingfeld occurs in 1526; he was the last prior, and with 15 monks of this priory, on August 31, 1534, subscribed to the King's supremacy, and on January 14, in the 29th year of King Henry VIII. with 8 of his monks, surrendered this priory to the King, who granted to them pensions for life.

The prior's pension was 40*l. per ann.* a considerable annuity at that time. He was living in the Marian days, 1555, enjoyed his pension, and was rector of Burnham Thorp in Norfolk, in King Edward the Sixth's reign, and a married priest.

Sir Robert Townsend was also then living, and had a pension of 26*s. 8d.* as (formerly) steward of this priory. He was an eminent lawyer, being a serjeant, and justice of Chester.

Wingfeld the prior, and these following monks, are said to have confessed (to the King's visitors,) themselves guilty of most flagrant acts of incontinency, &c. viz. William Cobbs, William Startwait, John Thory, William Colison, Richard Franke, Edmund Meke, Richard Bagnal, William Sheltram, John Whytinge, John Barber, Thomas Bradman, and Richard Hall.⁸

At its dissolution valued at 260*l.* 13*s.* 7*d. q.* as Dugdale; but as Speed, at 308*l.* 9*s.* 11*d. q. per ann.*

The convent boasted that they had a piece of St. Andrew's finger set in silver, which they had pawned for 40*l.* but the visitors did not think fit to redeem it at that price.

Robert Rands of Horsham St. Faith's, by his will, in 1452, gives to the priory, 20*s.* to the chapel of St. Nicholas therein, 6*s. 8d.* and to St. Peter's chapel there, the said sum.⁹

The seal of the priory was large, of an oblong circular form, and of black wax, with a curious impress, containing under an arch, the effigies of the Virgin Mary, with the child Jesus in her left hand, seated, and treading on the dragon; on each side of the arch stands a monk or a religious, with hands erect, as praying; over this on the summit in an arch, is represented, in a profane manner, the Trinity, as to be seen in the Romish breviaries, viz. God the father in the form of an old man seated, his arms extended, supporting the cross, on which is Jesus, and a dove hovering about the ear of God the Father, and this legend round it;

SANCTORVM. DE WESTACRE.

On the reverse is a small head conped, and round it MVNDVS, AGIT. MVNDUM. CONTERE. MVNDVS. ERIS. Above this head is a star, below it a crescent. I am inclined to think this head is to represent Thomas of Becket, Archbishop of Canterbury.

The priory church stood a little space eastward of the present farmhouse, and was a large pile, built in a cathedral or conventual manner, as may be traced out from its site and foundation; only part of the tower at the west end of the south isle is now remaining. The cloister joined to this south isle, and there was a door here leading into the west end of the south isle, and another out of it into the church by the great tower that stood between the church and the choir. On the east side of the cloister was a way leading (as I take it) into the chapter-house, the north and south walls of which are partly standing as is part of the dormitory, (as I conceive it,) which was either over part of the west side of the cloister or joined to it.

The gate-house leading out of the town into the outward court, or site of the priory, is still standing: over the centre of the arch as you enter, are 3 shields carved on stone: Quarterly in the first and fourth, gules, a fess, between six cross crosslets, or, Beauchamp Earl of Warwick; in the 2d and 3d, checque, or, and azure, a chevron, ermine, Tarquin Earl of Warwick; and in an escutcheon of pretence, argent, a maunch, gules Lord Tony. On the right side of this is the shield, of Tony, and on the left side that of Beauchamp; by the first shield, bearing Tony in an escutcheon of pretence, it appears that this gate-house, which is of stone, was built by Guy de Beauchamp Earl of Warwick, who married Alice, sister and heir to Robert Lord Tony, which Guy died in 1315.

King Henry VIII. in his 30th year, March 15, granted to Mary Duchess of Richmond and Somerset, for life, the site of this priory, with the manor and appropriated rectory; and she by deed, dated at Keninghale, confirmed to Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas Holland, of Swinestede in Lincolnshire, Esq. an annuity of 20*l.* out of it. King Edward VI. in his 7th year, July 1, granted the reversion to Sir Thomas Gresham, in which is also mentioned a grant of certain fold-courses in Wiken, Stowborow, and Custhorpe; 2 rabbit-warrens in Wiken and Custhorp, with the lordships of those places; the rectory of Westacre, with meadows called Willes meadows, and a mill, called Petenow mill. All which was confirmed to him by Queen Mary, in her first year, April 9.

After the death of Sir Thomas, it was sold by Thomas Cecil, afterwards Earl of Exeter, who conveyed it to Horatio Palavicini, an Italian, who before his coming into England had dipped his fingers very deep into the treasures of the church, as Spelman relates; that is, being treasurer, or having some office in the Pope's treasury at Rome, had robbed it and fled.¹

Sir Toby, his youngest son, inherited it, and after many suits, &c. with his eldest brother Edward, having consumed his estate, sold it to Sir Edward Barkham, alderman of London, and Lord Mayor in 1621, created Baronet June 28, 1623; from which family it came to Charles Yallop, Esq. (son and heir of Sir Robert Yallop) by the marriage of Hellen, daughter and heiress of Sir Edward Barkham, Bart. whose son, Edward Spilman, Esq. is lord, taking that name from his grandfather, Sir Robert Yallop's marriage with Dorothy, daughter of Clement Spilman, Esq. of Grey's Inn, one of the Barons of the Exchequer, has conveyed it in 1761, to Richard Hamond, Esq. of South Wooton, reserving the manor-house, and certain lands for life.

The arms of Yallop were gules, an orle between eight billets, or; those of Spilman, sable, plateé, between two flaunches, argent.

The monastery of Ely had lands in Acra, (but in which Acra is not mentioned,) in the Confessor's time, and at the survey, half a carucate of land held by 2 borderers, one servus, with an acre of meadow, and 30 sheep, valued at 3*s.* per ann. called in Domesday book St. Adeldreda's land, the foundress of that monastery.* Of this I find no further account, but that it was in this town.

The CHURCH of Westacre is dedicated to All-Saints, and built mostly of flint stones, and embattled. It was a rectory, valued at 11 marks, paid Peter-pence, 16*d.* and appropriated to the priory.

The tower is foursquare and embattled, has one bell, and both church and chancel are covered with tile.

On the battlements of the church and tower are the arms of Sir Edward Barkham, the first baronet of that name, who repaired and ornamented it;—argent, 3 pallets, gules, over all, a chevron, or; impaling the arms of his lady;—argent, on a pale, sable, 3 crosses pattee, or, in a bordure ingrailed of the 2*d.* Crouch.

He had a large manor-house or hall in this parish, called Highe-House, which he built. This being ruinous, &c. Edward Spilman, Esq. late lord, built a very curious and stately pile near to the site of the old hall.

Sir Edward also erected several seats of oak in the church, with a pulpit and reading desk, wainscoting the chancel and seating it, inclosing the communion table.

His descendant, Sir Edward, gave in 1672, a silver cup, gilt, weighing 10 ounces, with his arms, and a cover of 5 ounces; a silver paten gilt, of about 19 ounces, with a silver flagon, gilt, about 61 ounces.

On the pavement of the chancel is a black marble,

WAS a village in the Saxon age, and at the survey called Culestorpa, and Sculatorpa, as seated on a shoal or shallow water; it stood on the south side of the river Nar, directly opposite to Westacre, but was in South Greenhow hundred; the Lord Tony being lord of it at the survey, and so being as a beruite to Westacre; I have here accounted for it: 3 socmen held one carucate, but the King had the soc and sac of them; and a borderer had a carucate.³

This was most likely given by the Lord Tony to his priory on the foundation of it, and at the dissolution was granted to the Duchess of Richmond, and so came to Edward Spilman, Esq. the late lord, and to Richard Hamond, Esq.

On this part the convent, as I take it, built a large chapel now in ruins called Becket's chapel, dedicated to that Archbishop, where, on July 7, was an annual fair; at the north-east point of this chapel was an house or cell, wherein a eustos and a monk or two dwelt, and performed service; by this, not only pilgrims used to pass to the Lady of Walsingham, but many also came on purpose to pay their devotion here, where likely there might be some particular relict of that Archbishop.

In 1506, I find mention of a pilgrimage to St. Thomas of Westacre.⁴ It was built chiefly of flint, was 60 feet long, and 30 broad, and was inclosed as a cemetery with a wall of flint.

John Spilman, Esq. in the 6th of Elizabeth, held closes called St. Thomas's, late Westacre priory's, in Narburgh.

In the 16th of Elizabeth, April 10, concealed rents and tithes at Thorp, in Westacre, were granted to Edward Dyer and H. Cressiner, in fee farm, belonging lately to Letheringham priory in Suffolk.—Wiken, and Stowborow, were, no doubt, places adjoining.

Master William de Westacre, chancellor to the Bishop of Norwich, gave by will, in 1418, to St. John's altar in this priory church, his missal, his best cup, and gilt osculatory, with a silver cruet, &c. for his chaplain to celebrate there for him; and to the high altar his two best silver dishes; and to the repair of St. Nicholas's chapel there, 20s. to the repair of St. Thomas's chapel in Westacre field, 20s.

W I G E N H A L E IN MARSHLAND.

SIR WILLIAM DUGDALE, in his History of Imbanking,⁶ is of opinion that the Romans were the persons who originally gained from the sea this part of Norfolk, called Marshland, where the Saxons were also invited to settle, from the extraordinary fertility of the soil; and that they did so is evident (says he) from the authentick survey taken by the Norman Conqueror, which showeth that the towns now in being there were also extant in the days of King Edward the Confessor.

That this is a just observation is not to be denied, to which we may add, that those towns have also Saxon names, and the lords of many of those towns are accounted for with their fees and tenures, in the said survey, as they were held both in the reign of King Edward the Confessor, and in that of the Conqueror; but the account of the Wigenhales, which make four distinct townships and parishes, is not so particular as several of the other townships.

The whole that the survey mentions of them is this; that Hermerus

de Ferrarijs had invaded or ejected a freeman out of half a carucate of land that he held in Wigrehale in King Edward's time valued at 3s. per ann. and of him he had not the protection, was not lord of the fee;⁷ and which of the Wigenhales this was does not appear.

The reason of this must be that the Wigenhales being parts or members of several adjoining lordships and villages, are accounted for and valued under them, (as is frequently found in the survey) or that the greatest part of the Wigenhales were at that time again overflowed, a standing pool or lake, and rendered quite unprofitable and neglected by their old lords or owners.

Wigrehale is undoubtedly a Saxon name, and seems to set forth and signify, that at this place was a great force or press of water, both from the sea and river Ouse, expressed by the word Wigre, Hygre, or Eager, (as it is generally called at this day,) which denotes a raging swell or roul of water, increased by the opposition of any bank or fence against it, and Hale, which does not signify a hall or mansion-house, (as many antiquaries interpret it) Hale, is the same as Ale, that is all-water; thus Alesham, Alesford, Halesworth,⁸ &c. or it may be derived from Wick, or Wicken, and Halewick, &c. being a turn of water or a river.

And it appears from an ancient pleading, that before the year 1181 (27th of Henry II. that there was neither any habitation, or ground that yielded profit within that part of Wigenhale (St. Mary Magdalen) from a place called Bustard's Dole, to the south side of the said town, except the monastery of Crabhouse, of which I shall treat,) with certain lands belonging thereto, all being then waste, and in the nature of a desolate fen.⁹

But afterwards divers inhabitants in the neighbourhood came, and by draining and banking, gained as much by their industry as they could, and that they might the more securely enjoy the same, were content to be tenants for it unto such great men (or lords) of whom they held their other lands; and upon this agreement and occasion, by a common consent was made the old podike, first raised about 1222.—

The neighbouring lords, whose tenants set about this work, and the time of their so doing, will in some measure appear from a fine levied in the 8th of Richard I. 1187, between Peter, son of Richard de Wigrehale, querent, and William, son of Alan of Clenchwarton, tenant, of 4 carucates of land in Wigenhale, Clenchwarton, Islington, Tylney, &c. granted to Peter, being part of the fees or lordships of Simon, son of Richard, &c. who held under the Earls of Clare, who had the lands of William de Scohies, lord at the conquest.

At the same time, Peter de Bexwell held lands of the Lord Bardolf, which Hermerus de Ferrarijs was lord of, at the grand survey; as the abbots of Bury, the priors of Ely and Lewis did in capite; the prior of Westacre of the Lord Tony; Godfrey de Lisewis under Hugh de Montfort; Robert de Capravile or Kervile, under the Earl Warren, lords at the survey.

⁹ Chartular. de Castleacre.

The register of Castleacre observes that his podike made as above, by common agreement and aid, was in the time of Walter de Sculham, William Fitz-Alan, Richard, son of Brunswan, Philip Ulketel, Osbert at the Bridge, Thomas de Caprevil, Roger, son of Hildebrand.—(Reg. Cast. p. 14+.) No doubt principal undertakers.

In the 2d of Henry III. 1217, it appears that this good work of draining had been successful; for Hugh de Burgo Earl of Kent, and lord chief justice of England, and Eustachius Bishop of Ely, had then a grant or writ of seisen, of all the marsh between Wiggehale and Well, Hakebeche, Tylney, and Tyrington;* no doubt on some assurances of their better embanking and securing it, and that what they had performed, might very probably induce the neighbouring lord's tenants and others to proceed further.

W I G E N H A L E , S T . M A R Y M A G D A L E N .

THE principal lordship in this town was in the family of Caprevill, Cherevile or Kervile. Sir Frederick (or Fraer) de Caprevilla gave by deed, sans date, in the beginning of Henry the Third's reign to the prior of Castleacre, his tenement and manor, as well in this town, as what extended out of it, with the demean lands, foldages, free bull and boar, the meadows, pastures, rents, services, freemen, villains, mills, fisheries, wards, reliefs, with the advowson and patronage of the church of St. Mary Magdalen;—witnesses, Sir William de Terrington, Sir Martin de Littlebury, Sir Reginald de St. Martin, Sir Hamond de Patesle, &c.

Soon after this grant, the rectory was appropriated to the said priory, a vicarage was settled in their presentation, and in 1227, John de Pagrave appears to be instituted vicar.

Robert de Cherevile, by deed sans date, confirmed to the prior all that he held of his fee (which I take to be of the Earl Warren) in the time of his ancestors here; also 5 perches, in the churchyard of St. Mary Magdalen, for which he hath an exchange, and what Hugh the priest holds of his fee, in Bichto; the land which Lefstan, and Hugh, the priest, held; and the land that Aschill, son of Brunild, held, for which 3 marks were paid to him, and one bezant to his wife.

Robert Quirel, alias Sorel, and Agnes his wife, granted by fine, in the 42d of Henry III. to John, prior, 4 acres and a half of land, and 2 acres and a half of meadow here, with the appertenances.

Jeffrey de Snetesham granted them 2 villains, Peter de Bekeswell one, and Nicholas Lotte 10 acres; Roger, son of Richard le Pindar, and Wimer his brother gave them lands, and Richard, son of William de Bynctre, certain homages and services here; Nicholas de Wigenhale, son of Alan de Wigenhale, gave them also, by deed sans date, lands in this parish.

In the 13th of Edward II. the number of acres in this parish, between the Pokedych, and Westfenlode, and from Mikledole north, to between the bank and mere, as measured, surveyed, and found by a provost and 12 jurymen, at the King's command, was one thousand, one hundred, eleven acres and a half, with half a rood.

In 1428, the temporalities of Castleacre priory, in land, a mill, &c. were valued at 4*l.* 9*s.* 6*d.* per ann.: and being a cell to the priory of Lewes, in Sussex, a pension of 13*s.* 4*d.* per ann. was paid out of this manor to Lewes.

In the 16th of Henry VI. the office of water bailiff from Staplewere to Larkshern, was granted by patent to Giles St. Loo, for life, and in the 1st of Henry VII. the office of water bailiff of Magdalen Bridge, was granted to Geffrey Wade, during the King's pleasure.

I have seen a memorandum wrote by Gybbon Goddard, Esq. serjeant at law, and recorder of Lynn, who was a curious collector of antiquities, and died in 1671, wherein he observes that in his time, in digging to set down a new sluice, a little beneath Magdalen fall, which is about half a mile from Magdalen-bridge, on Marshland side, there was found, about 16 foot within soyle, a grave-stone, of about 8 foot long, and a cart-wheel near to it; the grave-stone is now in Magdalen churchyard; Mr. Emerson, from whom (says he) I had this relation, was the man that employed the workmen: many oaks and firs are daily taken up, and they lie about 2 or 3 foot deep under the soil.

All the land in this parish is said to be freehold, and certain freehold rents are paid to the Lord Fitz-Williams, lord of Kenwick in Tilney, and to Sir Richard Brown, who is lord of Wigenhale, St. Mary's. William de Lisewise, who was founder of the priory of Crabhouse, in this town, had a lordship here in the reign of Henry II. and in Islington and Clenchwarton; by a daughter and coheir of his grandson, it came by marriage to the Ingaldesthorps, and Sir Edmund de Ingaldesthorp died seized of lordships in the aforesaid towus, 1456, leaving Isabell, his only daughter and heir, married to John Nevill, Marquis Montacute, whose estate being afterwards divided amongst his 5 daughters and coheirs, this came by Lucy, one of the said daughters and coheirs, to the family of Fitz Williams, by her marriage with Sir Thomas Fitz Williams, (of Aldwark, in Yorkshire;) in the reign of King Henry VII.

The Church of St. Mary Magdalen of Wigenhale, is a regular good building, consisting of a nave, a north and south isle, with its porch, and a chancel, all covered with lead; at the west end stands a four square tower of stone.

On a black marble, in the chancel,

Hoc sub marmore jacent Thomas et Susanna Knight, conjuges: hæc obiit, Nov. 13, 1678. die. quondam hujus ecclesie vicarius. Mort. 15, 1696. And this shield, argent, three panes, gules, and on a canton, of the second, a spur or, Knight, impaling -----, a castle triple-towered, Towers, as I take it.

In the middle isle, is also a grave-stone

In memory of Mr. John Parlet, of Watlington, who dyed July 12, 1700, aged 66 years: and for, Elizabeth, wife of Mr. Greg. Parlet, of Tilney, who died August 13, 1710, aged 39.

On the pannels of the screen are the emblems of the four Evangelists; also sable, a fess nebuly, argent, between six billets, or, in a window.

The upper part of the north isle has been a chapel, being taken in with a screen.

A black marble gravestone, in this isle,

In memory of Mr. Francis Spensley, who dyed June 23, 1687, unmarried, and left an estate in this parish to his nephew's only child; he is said to be above fourscore years of age; and these arms, quarterly, p. cross wavy, or and ---, four martlets counterchanged.

Also here lies a stone whereon was the effigies of a man and his wife, &c.; there now remain only the portraitures of 9 boys, and 4 girls.

In the east window is the broken effigies of St. Nicholas the Pope on his throne, and in the other windows north, those of St. Bruno, St. Adelm, St. Sampson, St. German, St. Cuthbert, St. Hugh, Bishops, and St. Leo, and St. Silvester, Popes.

The east end of the south isle is taken in with a screen, and has been a chapel: on a piece of an old oaken seat, here, is or, on two barnulets, gules, three waterbudgets, argent, the arms of Willoughby.

In a window over the middle arch, on the south side, are these arms, sable, a lion rampant, argent, Stapleton;—barry of six, gules and argent, a bordure, sable, Moulton, as I take it; gules, a chevron, or, between three plates—Bevil; and per pale, azure and or, a lis counterchanged.

There were formerly in this church, in the east window of the chancel, the arms of England and France, quarterly;—of the Earl Warren,—of Albany Earl of Arundel, and Earl Warren, quarterly; and the effigies of St. Mary Magdalen.

In a south window of the chancel, Howard and Denver.

In a north window of the chancel, Inguldesthorp—azure, two swords in saltire, argent, lilted or: above this an archbishop's pall fringed, charged with cross crosslets fitchee, sable, and in chief, a mitre of 3d; underneath, part of a broken inscription, ssssssss, p. aiab; Tho. prior de sssss.

And about the church, the arms of Kerville, Scales, Berney, Gissing, Heveningham, Lord Lovell, Bovile, and a griffin segreant.

In the church was a chantry valued at the Dissolution at 5l. 15s. 5d. ob.

The rectory of this church was given to the priory of Castleacre, by Sir Frederick de Capravill, (as I have before observed) and was appropriated to that monastery by Thomas de Blundevile Bishop of Norwich, in 1227, or 1228.

The settlement of the vicar was made by him, who was to have the altarage with all small tithes, tithe of all pulse, (leguminum,) that is, pease, beans, vetches, &c. and a moiety of the tithe hay; ² all other title to be ceded to the prior and convent; it is dated at North Elmham, on the 15th of the kal. of January, in the 2d year of his pontificate.

This was confirmed by William Bishop of Norwich (Bishop Raleigh) in 1213, when the title of turf in the said parish was granted to the vicar, or 4s. instead of the tithe, or 12000 turf instead of the 4s.³ dated at North Elmham, on the ides of April, in the fourth year of his pontificate.

In this monastery the rectory remained, with the patronage of the vicarage, till the dissolution of it, when, in the 29th of Henry VIII. Thomas the prior, conveyed them by fine to that King, and on the 22d of December, in the said year, the King granted them to Thomas Duke of Norfolk; and the said Duke, on the first of November, in the first year of Queen Elizabeth, granted by deed to Thomas Welles of this town, the rectory, and the advowson of the vicarage, and Welles presented in 1565, &c.

By an inquisition taken at Norwich, January 14, in the 22d of James I. it was found that Thomas Oxborough, Esq. died December 8, in the 21st of that King, possessed of this rectory, 66 acres of land, the advowson of the vicarage, 3 messuages, one cottage, 16 acres of pasture, and 30 of marsh, in this parish and St. German's, late parcel of the priory of Castleacre, held in capite by knight's service.

Thomas was his son and heir, by Thomasine his wife, who held the same, and had by Audrey his wife, Hewer Oxborough, his son and heir, and Laurence, his second son; Hewer dying in 1628, it came so his brother Lawrence, then aged 18.

Mr Bateson died possessed of the rectory and advowson of the vicarage, and his daughter and heir, Susanuah, being married to Mr. Garforth, vicar, possessed them in her right.

In 1428, I find the rectory taxed at 24 marks, and the vicarage at 7 marks; Peter-pence 11*d. ob.*

The vicarage is taxed in the King's books now at 8*l. 6s. 8d.* and is capable of being augmented.

William de Lisewise gave to the prior of St. Margaret, and convent at Lynn, 12 acres of land in Wygenhale, sans date.—Regist. 5. Eccles. Cath. Norwic. fol. 50.

Robert, prior of Westacre, by deed sans date, released to the priory of Castleacre, all the tithes which they had in this parish, in tofts and crofts, between Staplewere, and the north part of the dole of John Fitz Richard.—Reg. Castleacr. fol. 86.

The temporalities of the canons of Thetford here, were valued in 1428, at 9*s.*

The prior of Ixworth's at 9*s.* and the prior of Pentney's, at 2*l. 1s.*

On November 16, in the 6th of Edward VI. 40 acres belonging hereto, in the tenure of Ed. Baker, were granted to Edward Lord Clynton.

William de Constantiis was rector of this church about the year 1200, in the time of John of Oxford Bishop of Norwich.

CRABHOUSE NUNNERY.

In this parish of Wigenhale St. Mary Magdalen, on the bank of the river Ouse, south of the town, was this house (dedicated to St. John the Evangelist) of nuns of the order of St. Augustine.

It was founded by Roger, the prior, and convent of Reynham, about 1181, with the consent of William de Lisewise, who was lord of the site, and the founder of the little priory (called Normansburgh) in South Reinham; this William lived in the reign of King Henry II. and held lordships in Gately, Reinham, &c. under the Montforts, which family descended from Hugh de Monteforti, who was lord also of Islington, Clenchwarton, &c. (towns adjoining to this) of the gift of the Conqueror, and Lisewise held under him.

This prior granted to Læna or Leva, daughter of Godr. de Lynne, a nun, all the small tract of ground here, (called a desert and solitary place) that was inhabited by a hermit, and not overflowed, with the hermitage: Læna and her nuns were to hold it freely by the payment of 12*d.* per ann. to the priory of Normansburgh, as appears from the following deed of Roger, the prior, and his canons:

Universis St. matris eccles. filijs, Rogeri servus servorum. Dei prior humilimus de Reinham, et fratres sui canonici salut. omnipot. Dei benedictionem, &c. Nos communi consensu dedisse et concessisse Dno. Godfrey, (son of the aforesaid William), with the consent of Maud his wife, William, his son and heir, and all his children confirmed the grant of his father, (at the hermitage, and land here which John, the hermit held) to the said nunnery, and to be held of the priory of Normansburgh.

Reginald, son of Hamon de Thorpeland, by the command of King Henry II. son of Maud the Empress, sold to this priory 5 acres of land in the marsh, by Wigenhale, for 5 marks;—witnesses, Gilbert, the priest of Denver, Alurcd, capellane of the church of St. Edmund's, Peter capellane of Caldecotes, Constant, son of Godfrey of Linn, Ralph, clerk of Thorpeland, Sim. de Caiti, William, son of Peter Bekeswell, Peter de Pehcill, Robert de Wallington, Robert de Cherevile, &c.

The said Reginald and his wife Rheda, or Theda, gave to God, St.

* Called also in some writings Heremitorium.

Mary, St. John, and St. Thomas, and the nuns of this priory, serving God in the desert (Heremo) by Wiggchale, with their daughter, whom they had given to be educated, and to serve God there, a toft of one acre of pasture, 8 acres in Thorpland field, also 12*d.* rent per ann. and 6 other acres; witnesses, Jeff. dean of Fincham, Helmade, priest of Thorp, &c.

In the 2*d* of Edward III. several lands were alienated to this house; and in 38*th* of that King, John, the rector of Castre St. Edmund, in Norfolk, gave a messuage, with 38 acres of land in Clenchwarton, and in Wigenhale, held of the heirs of William de Ingaldesthorp, paying 2*s.* per ann.

In the 2*d* of Richard II. the church of St. Peter's of Wigenhale was appropriated to it. In the 11*th* of that King, Nicholas Beaupre, &c. alienated to it a messuage, and 33 acres of land in Thorpland, Wygenhale, and Tilney; and in the 15*th* of the said King, the prioress had the fishery in Wygenhale, belonging to the manor of Rangeton.

Henry IV. in his 12*th* year, granted a patent for 35 acres and a rood in Wigenhale.

In the 25*th* of Henry VI. license was given to purchase tenements and lands, to the value of 10*l.* per ann. Sir Edmund de Ingaldesthorp was found, in the 35*th* of that King, to die seized of the patronage of it; and in the 38*th* of the said reign, a patent was granted for certain tenements in Wygenhal, and North Clenchwarton.

At its dissolution it was valued at 24*l.* 19*s.* 6*d.* as Dugdale; but at 21*l.* 16*s.* 7*d.* as Speed.

PRIORESSES.

Lana, or Læca was the first prioress.

Cecilia, occurs prioress in 1249.

Agnes de Methelwold, admitted prioress, 1315.*

Margaret Costeyn, on the death of Agnes, 1344.

Oliva de Swaffham, 1349.

Cecilia de Well, 1341.

Cecilia de Beaupre, occurs 1376.

Matilda Talbot, on Beaupre's death, 1396.

Joan Wigenhale occurs prioress in 1427.⁵

Margery Daubency, 1415.

Etheldreda Walmece, 1468.

Elizabeth Breden occurs about 1500.

Margaret Stutfield was prioress at the dissolution, and about 10 years before.

In the Compendium Compertorium, we have this account of the prioress and some of the nuns at its dissolution:

Margeria Stutfield, priorissa, habuit unam prolem.

Agnes Smith, unam, e soluto.

Cecilia Barnesley, duas proles, unam ex soluto, alter ex laico, et Elizabetha Brown, duas proles ex solutis habuere.

And they were accused of alienating certain lands to Coningby, and to Gybon.

* Regist. Norw. Lib. Instit. ⁵ Reg. Norw. Surflete, p. 15.

Here were a prioress, and 6 or 7 nuns.

Edward Perys, rector of Wallington, wills to be buried in this priory church, in 1427; as did William Trusbut, S. T. P. in 1450, rector of Wallington, and John Wyche, alias Babber, of Stow Bardolf, in 1456, who gave a messuage, called Brungers, with a right of a fishery thereto belonging; also John Gelham of Stow Bardolf, in 1468, and gave legacies to the prioress and every nun.

Spelman, in his Glossary, observes, that there were in this priory, in 1425, two antiphonarys, which cost them 26 marks, a great sum in that age.

On the 28th of June, Queen Mary in her fist year⁶ granted to Sir John Gage, Kut. of Susser, the site of this priory, gardens, orchard, and demean lands appertaining to it, with the moiety of the title of a field, called Peter's field, and a moiety of the rectory of St. Peter's Wigenhale, with all the messuages, lands, &c. belonging to it in Wigenhale, Tidney, Islington, Sechy, East Winch, Clenchwarton, Lynue, Wimbotsham, Thorpe, Elme, Elmuth, &c. to be held by knight's service. Sir John, by his will, dated February 20, 1555, and proved June 10, following, gives to the vicar of St. Mary Magdalen, Wigenhale, the title of a field here, called part of the demeanes of Crabhouse; the vicar and his successors, praying for him by nome, in the parish church every Sunday at high mass, for evermore. Sir Edward Gage, his son, died seized of it in 1568; and after him, John Gage, Esq. possessed it; but in the 12th of Elizabeth, Thomas Guilford, had license to alienate the manor of Crabhouse, with the appertenances to Thomas Low, and in the 21st of that Queen, William Chapman, and Robert Wythen, had a pardon for purchasing it of Low, without license, and in that year Thomas Hanmer had license to alienate it with the moiety of St. Peter's Wigenhale rectory, to Roger Powel.

After this it was possessed by Mr. John Wright. Spelman says his son consumed his estate, and sold it to Mr. William Guybon, of Wallington, who held it about 1640: of this family was Mrs. Guybon, who married Captain Pamplin, of Wallington, by Mildenhale, who surviving him, and dying without issue, gave it by will to Mrs. Howlet, her companion, that lived with her, and she left it to her nephew, whose daughter, or niece, brought it by marriage to Mr. Thorold, the late owner.

In the 4th of Elizabeth, August 25, the Queen granted to Cecilia Pykerell concealed lands in Wigenhale, in the tenure of German Sherete; and April 10, in her 16th year, she granted to Edward Dyer, and Henry Cressener, concealed lands lately belonging to West Derham abbey.

A messuage in this parish, with a pightell adjoining, and 7 acres of land, Abbot's dole, Mormion's, or Marrion's dole, &c. with 8 acres of land, and a dole, called She's dole, with the appertenances in the tenure of Edward Rumney, and William Hall, lately belonging to West Derham abbey, were granted 22d of November, in the 5th of James I. to Robert Morgan, and George Warde, to be held in soccage of the manor of Greenwich.

The temporalities of this abbey in the Wigenhales, were valued in 1428, at 5*l.* 8*s.* 10*d.* ob. with the priory of Wynwaloy.

⁶ Some accounts say Feb. 21, Ao. 1. et 2do Phil. and Mary.

On the 22d of July, in the 7th of James I. 45 acres of land and pasture, in the fields of Wigenhale, called Heydole, &c. were granted to Robert Angell, and John Walker, being part of the possessions of the aforesaid abbey, lately let at 4*l.* 15*s.* per ann.

WIGENHALE ST. MARY'S.

HERMERUS DE FERRARIIS, who had by the gift of the Conqueror, lordships in Tilney, and Istington, was also Lord here; those manors extending here, which came after to the lords Bardolph.

The ancient family of Capravill, or Kervile, held the chief manor in this town, of the Lords Bardolph, and had their seat or residence here. Robert de Capravill, Simon, son of Roger, and Robert, son of Walter de Cherevill, and Jeffrey de Cherevile were living in the reign *Richard I.*⁷

Reginald de Kerevilla, or Kervill, who married Alice, daughter of Sir Richard de la Rokeley, and had with her the lordship of Greenvill, in Stoke Holy Cross, lived in the reign of King John. Sir Frederick de Capravill was found to hold in Wigenhale, two knights fees of the honour of Wirmegay, of the Lord Bardolph, when an aid was granted to King Henry III. on the marriage of his sister Isabel, to the Emperor; and Robert de Cherevile, by deed sans date was a benefactor to the priory of Castleacre, and Alice de Cherevile, conveyed lands in Tilney, by fine in the 5th of Henry III. to Philip de Cherevile.

William, son of William de Kervile, of Wigenhale, bought lands of Edmund de Sexton, by fine, in the 21st of *Edward I.*⁸ and Martin Snelling, and Agnes his wife, conveyed by fine to William de Kervill, and John, his son, lands in Tilney, in the 3^d of Edward II. and William de Wigenhale, and Petronilla his wife, lands in Wigenhale, &c. to Jahn de Kervile, and a mill in the 17th that King; and one of the same name was witness to a deed in the 1st and 7th of Edward III.

After this lived Edmund Kervil, who married Alice, daughter and coheir of Sir John Tilney, of Quaplode, in Lincolnshire. Sir Robert Kervile of Wigenhale was son of this Edmund, (as I take it) and dying most probably in foreign parts, his heart was buried in this parish church: he is said to be the ancestor of the Kervils, of Watlington, and to have an elder brother, John, who married a daughter of Thomas Fitz Williams, Esq. of Maplethorp, in Lincolnshire, and was lord of this manor.

Thomas Kervile, Esq. was lord in the year 1467, and had by Mary

the priory of Castleacre. Reg. Castleac. sans date.

⁸ About this time William Chervill, and Thomas at the Grange held the eight part of a fee of the Earl Warren.

his wife, daughter and coheir of Gilbert Haultoft, of the isle of Ely, Baron of the Exchequer in the time of Henry VI. Humphrey was his son and heir, who married Alice, or Anne, daughter of John Fincham, Esq. of Fincham, by whom he had Humphrey, his son and heir, who married Anne, daughter of Jeff. Cobbe, Esq. of Saundringham, Norfolk, and had 3 sons, and 7 daughters.

Thomas, his eldest, William his second, and Edmund the third, who married Catharine, daughter of William Saunders, Esq. she married to her second husband, John Spelman, Esq. of Narburgh, and to her third, Miles Corbet, Esq.

Alice Kerville, a daughter, married first John Bedingfeld, Esq. and afterwards Sir John Sulyard, Knt.—Elizabeth married Robert Bozon of Wiscenset, Esq.—Eleanor to Neal, Esq.—Joan, to John Shouldham, Esq.—Catharine, to ——— Gawsell, Esq.—Margaret, first married Nicholas Dean of Wigenhale, Gent. and afterwards John Shorditch, alias Berwell, Esq. of Berwell, and Mary to ———.

Thomas Kervil, Esq. the eldest son, married Alice, daughter of Sir Henry Bedingfeld of Oxburgh, by whom he had Henry Kervil, Esq. who, by Winefred, his wife, daughter of Sir Anthony Thorold, Knt. and relict of George Clifton, Esq. of Nottinghamshire; her third husband was Sir Edward Gawsell, Knt. and Sir Henry Kervil, who married Mary, daughter of Franc. Plowden, Esq. by whom he had two children, who died in their infancy. He was a bigotted papist, and about November 1620, was accused by Sir Cristopher Heydon, Knt. that the Papists met at his house, in order to subscribe to and assist the Emperor, against the King of Bohemia, when King James I. requested a loan (for the recovery of the Palatinate) from the nobility and gentry of England, whereupon he was sent for to the council table, imprisoned some time, and his papers seized, but was afterwards released.

Sir Henry Spelman says that on his death, (1624,) the estate of the Kerviles came into the family of the Cobbs of Saundringham;⁹ but it is certain it did not continue long so.

In the 21st of King Charles I. John Williamson, Gent. had a præcipe to deliver it to Gregory Gawsell, Esq. who was eldest son of Thomas Gawsell, Esq. of Watlington, and dying unmarried in 1656, this lordship came to Hatton Berners, Esq. (son of Arthur Berners, Esq. of Finchingfield, in Essex, by Elizabeth his wife, eldest sister of Gregory Gawsell aforesaid,) who was high sheriff of Norfolk, in 1666, and on his death in 1713, it descended to Gregory his eldest son, who dying unmarried in 1715, his brother William was his heir, who married and had several children, and dying in 1727, this estate was soon after sold, in order to pay his debts, &c. to Sir Robert Brown, Bart. who was his Majesty's resident, or consul, at Venice, and created a Baronet in the 5th of King George II. was a member of parliament for Ilchester, in Somersetshire, and 1741, appointed paymaster of all his Majesty's works, and lord of this town; his arms,—gules, a chevron, between three fleurs-de-lis, or;—crest, on a wreath, a demy lion rampant, gules, in his dexter paw a fleur-de-lis, as before;—motto, Gaudco: he died October 5, 1760, leaving a widow and two daughters:

At a place called Wathden, or Waterden, in this parish, Serjeant

⁹ Pasche Ao. 21 James I. N. 41.

Godard observes there was to be seen in his time some remains of a church, also bones that appear at a low ebb upon the river side.

The old hall, or manor-house, was a large building of brick, with a good tower, or gate-house, embattled and built by the Kerviles, with their arms thereon; the greatest part of it is pulled down, and inhabited by a tenant.

WESTACRE PRIORY MANOR.

In the 14th of Edward I. Hubert, prior of Westacre, held lands here, as appears by a fine; in the said year, Robert, son of William, son of Ivo de Wigenhale, impleaded Hubert, prior, on account of lands here, and in the 34th of the said King, Robert de Walpole aliened lands to that priory.—Esch. N. 136.

In the 6th of Edward II. Jeffrey Sutton aliened lands to the afore-said priory, viz. 60 acres of land in Wigenhale, Walton, Tilney, Tirington, &c. (Inquis. ad qd. damn. N. 15.) and in the 7th of the said King, William de Wigenhale aliened to the said house 102 acres of land, &c. 12s. rent in Wigenhale and Custhorp, by way of exchange; (Inquis. ad. qd. damn. N. 102 :) also John Wigenhale 60 acres of land, 12 of meadow, with a messuage in Wigenhale, Tirington, Tilney, &c. in the said year. N. 112.

In the 3d of Edward III. the said prior was found to hold the 4th part of a fee in Wigenhale and Tilney of the Lord Bardolph.

In 1428, the temporalities of this priory here were valued at 14*l.* 9*s.* per ann. in land, rent, and a mill, and their spiritualities (that is the appropriated rectory) at 12 marks.

On the Dissolution it came to the Crown; and in the 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary, lands belonging to this house, in the tenure of John Saunderson, were granted to Sir John Perrot, p. 2. on July 2, but the appropriated rectory was granted by Queen Elizabeth, in her 2d year, July 2, to John Harryngton, and George Burden, and the patronage of the vicarage remained in the Crown.

The Bishop of Ely had a little homage here of several free tenants, probably belonging to his manor of West Walton, which extended here, but it had not a lete.

The prior of Bernwell in Cambridgeshire was found to hold the fourth part of a fee in Wigenhale, of the Lord Bardolph, in the 3d of Edward III. and his temporalities in 1428, were valued at 2*l.* 13*s.* per ann.

The abbot of Derham, and Edward Noon, were found to hold in Wigenhale, and Tilney, in the 3d of Henry IV. two knights fees of the Lord Bardolf, 45 acres of land, meadows, &c. in Wigenhale, granted July 22, in the 7th of James I. to Robert Angel, and John Walker, called Heydole, lately belonging to West Derham abbey.

The prior of Wirmegey's temporalities, in Wigenhale, were valued at 2*l.* 3*s.* 10*d.* ob.

The abbot of Bury had a manor here, &c. valued at 2*l.* 0*s.* 6*d.* ob. William de Sculldham, gave to this abbey, for his own soul, and that of Adeliza his wife, a toft, which Seman and his wife, Leofwot, held in the parish of Wigenhale St. Mary, and a croft in Waterdeue, which Sampson, abbot of Bury, who lived in the reign of King

Richard I. confirmed to William, son of Alan, ancestor (as it is said) of the family of the Howards. Regist. Sacrist. Bur. fol. 58, 59.

Queen Elizabeth, on April 10, in her 16th year, granted concealed lands, belonging to this abbey, in the tenure of William Prentys, William Hoe, and others, to Edward Dyer, and Henry Cressener.—P. 10.

The CHURCH, dedicated to St. Mary, is a very regular pile, having a body, a north and south isle, and a chancel; the nave, or body is thatched, the isles, and a south porch covered with lead; in the steeple, which is foursquare, are 5 bells.

In the east window of the south isle, are azure, three cinquefoils, or, Lord Bardolf's arms; gules, six escallops, argent, Lord Scates, and gules, a cross ingrailed, argent, Ingelthorp.

This east part is divided from the other part, by an oaken screen, and was an old chapel; here is a stately altar monument of marble and alabaster, whereon lie the effigies of a man in armour, and his lady in alabaster, resting their heads on cushions, with their hands in a supplicant posture; below them is the portraiture of a little girl, with her hands conjoined, and by her, a boy in swaddling cloaths; on one side of them is Kervill's arms, gules, a chevron, or, between three leopards faces, argent, impaling azure, a fess indented, in chief, two lis's, or, Plowden;—on the other side Kervil impaling Lovell, of Barton.—On the west end Kervile impaling sable, three bars, sable, over all, a bend ermin, Fincham; and Kervill impaling sable, three covered cups, argent, Boteler, or Butler.—At the east end Kervill, and Plowden in single shields.¹ On this stand 4 marble pilasters of the Corinthian order, with their capitals gilt with gold, supporting an entablature of the same; on the summit is a goat passant, sable, attired or; the crest of Kervill, and his arms as above.

On a black marble wall-piece this inscription:

Hic deponitur corpus Henricij Kervilij, equitis aurati, filij et heredis Henricij Kervilij Armig. de Winesfreda conjuge sua Antonij Thorold militis, filia procreati; uxorem duxit Mariam, Franciscij Plowden, Armig. gnatam, e qua prolem binam, sed in cunabulis extinctam suscepit, Gervasium scilicet et Mariam; sororem habuit unicam, Annam Rob^o. Thorold, Armig. nuptam, sine exitu defunctam, 26 Junij, 1624, obiit, et in illo antiqui sui stemmatis Kervillorum nomen, Quam reliquit conjux vita, eum sequutu est, consors morte Martij 6to eodem anno.

In the lowest window of this south isle is the triangular emblem of the Trinity; in the next, sable, a fess dancette, between three mullets pierced, argent, Wesensham, and azure, or argent, two chevrons, sable, Dalling.—In the 3d window, azure, three cinquefoils, argent, Fitton,—and in the fourth, gules, a fess between six lis, argent, Thorp; and gules, a bend between six crossslets, fitchée, argent, Howard.

In the west window, argent, a lion rampant, sable, crowned or, on his shoulder, a lis, argent, Morley.

On a marble stone lying near the east end of this isle;

¹ Also Kervile impaling ermine, a sable, three goats, saliant argent, The spread eagle, gules, Bedingfield; and rod.

Here lye the bodies of Grace and Katherine, daughters of Hatton Berners, Esq; and Bridget his wife, the only sister of Sir Symon Leach, of Devonshire, Kt. of the Bath; Grace dyed the 16th of July 1682, aged above 4 years, the other the 10th of Novcember 1680, aged 4 months.—Also the bodies of William and Mary the son and daughter of William Berners, Esq; he dyed 15th of April 1718, aged 4 months; she the 1st of April 1719, aged 4 months.

Adjoining lies a small marble stone, with an heart (in the centre of brass, and round it 4 labels, or pieces of brass, each in form of a crescent, thus inscribed.—

Orate p. a'ia Dnj Robertj—Kervile Militis de Wigenhale—Filijs Edmundi Kervile de—Wygenhule, cujus cor hic humatur.

At the lower end of the nave are several grave-stones, in memory of the Harwicks;—viz. of Sarah, daughter of Thomas Harwick, and Ann, who dyed 29th of May 1700.—Of Mary, daughter of Richard Harwick, Gent. and Etheldreda his wife who dyed May 9, 1702, aged 7 months.—Of Richard Harwick, Gent. who dyed April 8, 1691, aged 72.—Of Etheldreda, wife of Richard Harwick, Gent. who dyed December 31, 1694, aged 57.

In this nave stands a stately brass eagle, with its pedestal supported by three lions, with this inscription ;

Orate p. aia Fratris Roberti Barnard Guardianj de Walsingham, A°. Dnj. 1518.

Also a gravestone,

In memory of William Robinson, who dyed Dccember 4, 1665, aged 55.

The seats here and in both the isles are of oak, and carved with the figures of saints, &c. and on the upper seat, on the south side, are the arms of Kervile, and Butler.

The windows over the arches of this nave have been curiously painted. In that over the 5th arch, on the south side, is the salutation of the blessed Virgin; in the upper window over the fifth arch, on the north side, is the figure of our Saviour, &c.; in the pannels below, the arms of Kervile, and Kervile impaling Lovel. In that over the fourth arch, St. Simon, under him Kervile impaling Butler.—St. Jude, under him Kervile alone. St. Matthias, under him Kervile impaling Fincham.—In that over the 3d arch St. Philip, under him Kervile, impaling sable, two piles, argent, Pyke.—St. Bartholomew, and under him Kervile, alone.—St. Matthew, under him Kervile, impaling, azure an eagle displayed, or, Shouldham, quartering gules, a chief ermin, Narburgh.

It is to be observed that there were in these 4 lowest windows, the figures of the twelve Apostles, 3 in each window; those abovementioned are what remained when I viewed the church in 1730; as some of these are broken and lost through time, &c. so are also several impalements of the Kerviles, which shewed the matches, or marriages, of the family: in an ancient MS. I perceive there were also these following.

Kervile, impaling barry of six, or, and azure, a canton ermine. Gawsell.—Kervile impaling Haultoft, sable, four lozenges, ermine, in a bordure, ingrailed, argent, Kervile impaling Buresley.

The east part of the north isle was also a chapel, and is divided from the rest by a screen: in the east window, are the arms of Howard, also gules, a saltier ingrailed argent, Kerdeston, as I take it; and in the west window of the said isle, or, three barrulets, sable,² over all a lion rampant, gules; and sable on a bend argent, three lis of the first.

In the chancel east window is gules, a fess between six cross crosslets, or, Beauchamp; and on a canton, a maunch, gules, the arms of Tony, and anciently sable, a chevron, ermin, between three cross crosslets botony fitchè, and the Lord Scales.

Here lyeth the body of Hatton Barners, Esq; who dyed November 23, 1713, aged 73.

Another with the arms of Barners,

Also one for

Bridget wife of Hatton Barners, only sister, to Sir Simon Leach, of Devonshire, knight of the Bath, she died January 15, 1705.

One

In memory of William Barners, Esq. who dyed June 9. 1727, aged 22 years, and of Jane his wife, who dyed April 10, 1725, aged 41: with the arms of Barners, impaling three lions passant, 2 and 1. Another with the arms of Barners, for Gregory Barners, Esq. who dyed February 14. 1715, aged 34 years.

In this church were also the arms of the see of Ely.—The East-Angles, or of Bury abbey; and azure, a fess between two chevrons, argent, Tendring.

Humphrey Kervile, of this town, by his will dated October 6, 1540, was here buried.

The vicarage is valued in the King's books at 12*l.* 10*s.* the King is patron. The ancient valor of it was 7 marks; *Peter-pence 1*d.

The church was appropriated to the priory of Westacre, in Norfolk, given to it by the Lord Bardolf, (as I conceive,) or by Ralph de Tonys, founder of that monastery.

The rectory was valued at 12 marks.

On the Dissolution it came to the Crown, and Queen Elizabeth in her second year, July 2, granted this rectory to John Harrington, and George Burden.

² Rather barry, or and sable, of &c.

Here were lands belonging to St. Stephen's college, in Westminster, valued at 3*l.* per ann. which were granted in the 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary, to Sir John Perrot,—p.2, in the tenure of Thomas Jackson.

SADLEBOW.

Is an hamlet belonging to the parish of St. Mary Wigenhale. John de Sculham, (or Shouldham), Ralph, son of Richard, son of Elias de Wigenhale, William, son of Walter de Tilney, and Bartholemew de Tilney, by deeds sans date, gave lands here to West Derham abbey. John de St. Dennis and Cecilia his wife, conveyed lands, here in the 5th of Edward I. by fine, to Richard de Brundon and Agnes his wife.

In the 8th of Edward II. Thomas de Warblington was found to hold one fee here, in Clenchwarton, Sechee, West-Winch, Hardwick, &c. of the honour of Clare; and in the 22d of Richard II. and 38th of Henry VI. the honour of Clare had lands here: and John de Britton, in the 8th of Edward IV. was found to die seized of a lordship in Sallebow.

Richard Lacy, of this hamlet, by his will in 1509, desires to be buried in the church of St. Mary Wigenhale, and bequeaths 4 acres of arable land to the said church, to find wax candles to burn before the rood, every Sunday, and holyday, in time of divine service.

Robert Apreece, Esq. on July 7, 1662, sold his manor here to Mr. Daniel Rawlinson, citizen of London, who by his last will in 1667, left it to his eldest son, Sir Thomas Rawlinson, afterwards Lord Mayor of London, by whom it was settled in jointure, on Mary his wife, daughter of Richard Tayler, Esq. of Chiswick, in Middlesex, in 1680, and on her death, in 1724, it came to her eldest son, Thomas; and on his death, to his brother, Richard Rawlinson, LL.D. of London, who sold it in November 1735, to Sir Robert Brown, Bart. a fee farm rent of 5*l. per ann.* free from all charges, &c. being reserved out of it, and granted to the Doctor and his heirs for ever

WIGENHALE ST. PETER'S.

As the towns of Wigenhale St. Mary Magdalen, and St. Mary's, with their churches, stand on the west side of the great river Ouse, in Marshland, so the towns of St. Peter's, and St. German's Wigenhale, with their churches, stand on the east side of the said river, in that part of the hundred, that is called Freebridge citra Lynn.

SHOULDHAM PRIORY MANOR.

The two principal owners of this town, and at the conquest, seem to be William de Schoies; after that the Giffards, from whom the Earls of Clare descended, and Hugh de Monteforti, of whom see in Crabhouse, above mentioned.

In the reign of King John, Jeffery Fitzpiers Earl of Essex, who held large possessions of the honour of Clare, gave, on his foundation of Shouldham priory, all his lands here, with a moiety of the advowson of this church, which was appropriated to it, and William de Wygen- hale, who held considerable lands of the said honour, aliened to the aforesaid priory 6 acres in Wigenhale, and many acres in several other towns.

The temporalities of this house in 1428, in land, rent, and a mill, were valued at 10*l.* 5*s.* 1*d.* per ann. and at the dissolution at 15*l.* 4*s.* per ann.; part of these lands was granted in the 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary, to Sir John Perrot, to be held by the 20th part of a fee, and in the 8th of Elizabeth, was in the possession of Henry Doyle. Perrot had lands, and a barn, granted to him July 27, in the 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary.

Thomas de Warbington and Simon Fitz Richard were found in the 8th of Edward II. to hold lands of the Earl of Clare; see in Clench-warton and Islington.

Hugh de Montfort's part came afterwards to the Lord Scales, and Ingaldesthorp; and in the 12th of Henry III. it appears by a fine, that a moiety of the advowson of this church was held by Thomas de Ingaldesthorp, and Robert de Scales.

In the 26th of Edward I. Robert de Rungeton, acknowledged that he ought to acquit the prior of Shouldham, of the service which Robert de Scales required of him, for the free tenement held of Robert, in Wigenhale, in pure and perpetual alms, and of 14 acres of land, with their appertenance: the family of De Lisewiz had also lands under the Lord Montfort's fee

Sir Robert Brown, Bart. late lord: his manor of St. Mary's Wigenhale extended here, and now is in his lady.

The Church of St. Peter's has a nave, or body, covered with tiles, a south isle covered with lead, a chancel with reed, and a square tower with one bell.

It consisted anciently of two rectories, or medietyes, each valued at 11 marks, and paid Peter-pence 14*d.* one in the Earl of Clare's fee was very early appropriated to Shouldham priory, and a vicarage endowed, of which the prior was patron, but the Bishop of Norwich, for the most part presented; this on the Dissolution came to the Crown, and the vicar is presented by the Lord Chancellor, valued in the King's Books at 9*l.* and his discharged from the payment of first fruits, &c.

The other mediety in Montfort's fee was appropriated to Crabhouse priory, and no vicarage was settled, and called the mediety of Robert the rector, (in the 2d year of Richard II.) but the patronage appears to be in that house in 1310: of this moiety see in Crabhouse priory.

In the church windows were the arms of Kerville and of Shouldham, and in a north window sable, three mallets, argent, Rainham.

Here are gravestones,

On the font two cross keys, St. Peter's arms.

Spark's chantry in this church was granted July 23, in the 4th of Edward VI. with all its lands and rents, &c. in the tenure of Robert More, to Nicholas le Strange; and in the 23d of Eliz. Peter Perse, cousin and heir of Humphrey Cony, late of this town, held part of these lands, being son of Thomas Perse, son of Margaret Perse, sister of John Cony, father of Humphrey.

Henry Doyle held all the lands and tenements with 25 acres in Wigenhale and South Lynu, in the 8th of Queen Elizabeth, lately belonging to the monastery of Shouldham, which were granted to Sir John Perrot, ao. 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary.

ST. GERMAN'S WIGENHALE.

WILLIAM DE SCOHIES had considerable lordships in Islington, and in Cleuchcarton, at the survey, that extended, as it seems, into this town, and soon after came to Walter Giffard Earl of Buckingham, whose son Walter, and his Countess, gave to the monks of the church of Norwich, serving God at Lenn,⁴ the church of St. German's of Wigenhale, together with a certain payment of 5s. per ann. which their chaplains received out of the same; to which deed, sans date, made in the presence and assent of William (Turbus, as I take it) Bishop of Norwich, Richard and Adam, chaplains to Walter and his Countess, Jeffrey, son of William, Philip de Gerardeville, Gerard de Redham, William de Archdeacon, William de Hastings, Peter Constable, &c. are witnesses; and William Bishop of Norwich confirmed the said grant, together with two parts the title of North Rungton and Middleton, belonging all to the demean of the fee of the said Walter.

William, son of Robert de Sculham, quitclaimed to Simon, prior of Norwich, for 100s. all his right in the advowson of the said church; witnesses, Sir Richard, son of Peter de Wigenhale, Sir Ralph Berry, Sir Walter, son of John de Wigenhale, sans date.

On the death of Earl Walter this lordship came to Rohesia, his daughter or sister, who being married to Richard Fitz-Gilbert Earl of Brion, &c. in Normandy, ancestor to the Earls of Clare, they became lords of this fee.

FITTON'S MANOR.

The ancient family of Fitton were very early enfeoffed herein. Sir Alan de Fitton or Phitton, Elias de Fitton, Adam de Fitton, clerk, and Walter de Phiton, &c. were witnesses to a deed, sans date, of Hugh de Ross, of lands in Tydd St. Mary, in Lincolnshire.

In the 55th of Henry III. Robert de Fytton purchased by fine of William de Hexyngham and Gratiana his wife, and her heirs, 36 acres of land, and 32 pence rent, per ann. in Wigenhale.

About this time lived Sir Edmund de Fitton, lord of this manor of Fitton's, who had a daughter Alice, married to Sir William Howard, and a son, John de Fitton, who was one the justices appointed to take care of the preservation of the lands in Marshland from being overflowed, in the 15th of Edward I.

John de Fitton, and Margery his wife, in the 6th of Edward II. settled on themselves in tail, by fine, 20 messuages, a mill, 394 acres of land, 83 of meadow, 41 of pasture, 60 of heath, 120 of marsh, 60 of moor, and the rent of 11*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* with 5 quarters of salt in Wigenhale, Tilney, Islington, &c. and in the 17th of the said King, by a fine levied between John de Fitton, and Amicia his wife; and Ralph de Edynesthorp, vicar of St. German's, 13 messuages, a mill, 250 acres of land, 62 of meadow, 24 of pasture, 60 of heath, and 6 marks per ann. rent were settled on John and Amicia his wife, in tail, in Wigenhale, Islington, &c. remainder to Thomas, first son, and after to John, 2d son of John de Tilney.

John de Fitton, styled Sir John in some writings, dying without issue, Thomas de Tilney, son of John de Tilney, by a sister of John de Fitton, succeeded in the estate abovementioned, settled on him.

In the first of Edward III. Sir Thomas Tilney, on April 12, had license of mortmain to settle 8*l.* per ann. out of 80 acres of his land in Wigenhale, Clenchwarton &c. and to give and assign it to the prior of Norwich, to find two secular chaplains, the one to serve at the altar of St. Thomas the Martyr, in the church of St. German's, and the other in the chapel of St. James in the manor of Fitton, and to pray for the souls of Robert de Fitton, and Alice his wife, Sir John de Fitton and Margery and Amicia his wives; Hervey de Saham, William de Saham, Godfrey, son of Berewenne, and Catherine his wife, William de Scutham, and Beatrix his wife, and the soul of the said Sir Thomas Tilney, when he departs this life, and the souls of his ancestors and benefactors for ever.

And accordingly lands were settled by a deed of the said Sir Thomas, dated at Wigenhale, on Monday after the feast of the Invention of the holy cross, in the first of the aforesaid King, which he had of the grant, &c. of Sir John de Fitton.

In another deed, dated May 12, 1327, it is expressed that these two, who were to officiate, were to be secular priests, and to serve at the altar of St. Thomas in the church of St. German's.

Afterwards Tilney's part and right in this manor was in the family of Braunch, and Catherine, Lady Braunch, widow of Sir John Braunch, gave by her will, dated at Castre Holy Trinity, on Sunday after the feast of St. Peter ad vincula, 1420, gives her manor here to her son William, with an injunction that it should descend to the heirs males of the family, and never be sold. Sir Philip was his eldest son; and to John her son, she gave the manor of Stodey in Holt hundred, and her body to be buried in the chantry of St. Thomas in this church, and to the repair of it 40*s.* Proved September 5, 1420; and William Braunch, Esq. of Spilsby in Lincolnshire, appointed Richard Tuptand to be incumbent of the said chantry, by his deed, dated June 5, 1460, on the death of Henry Wigan, the last incumbent.

In the 2d of Edward VI. John Kervile is said to hold the manor of Braunch's, of Tyndale, by knight's service. Thomas Kervile was lord in the 2d of Elizabeth, and Henry was then found to be his son and heir.

The manor of Fitton's is now in the corporation of Lynn.

Part of the manor of Fitton's in this town came to Sir William

Howard, by the marriage of Alice, one of the daughters of Sir Edmund, and sister and coheir to Sir John de Fitton, which Sir William had considerable estates in these towns, as descended from the ancient family of De Wigenhale, who took their names from these towns. As the noble family of the Howards, Dukes of Norfolk, Earls of Suffolk, Berkshire, Carlisle, Stafford, Effingham, &c. derive their descent from this truly great and eminent person, it will be excusable in me if I mention some things relating to this family, which, as far as I have yet seen, have not been observed by other authors.

The first that I meet with of the ancient family of de Wigenhale, is Peter, whose son, Simon de Wigenhale, was found to owe half a mark for exporting corn without license, in the 24th (1178) of Henry II. and at the same time Robert Passelew owed half a mark, Alured and Sward de Lenne, half a mark, on the same account.⁵

In an old pedigree of the family of the Howards, in Caius college Cambridge, Fulco or Fulk, stands at the head of it. Of this Fulco I find no account or voucher, that he bore the name of Wigenhale; but that Jeffrey was son of Fulco, appears from certain deeds, also that Alan was son of Jeffrey; that William was son of Alan, appears also from ancient deeds.

In the 8th of Richard I. (1197) a fine was levied between Peter son of Richard de Wigenhale, querent, and William, son of Alan de Clenchwarton, tenant of 4 carucates of land in Wigenhale, Clenchwarton, Tilney, Lenne, Istington, &c. granted to Peter, who reconveyed them to Alan.

This considerable parcel of land is said to belong to the fees of several lords, viz. of Simon Fitz-Richard, who held of the Earls of Clare; of Peter de Bekeswell, who held of the church of Ely; of the abbey of Bury; of the priory of Lewis; ⁶ of the Earl of Britain's fee; of the Earl Warren's; of Godfrey de Lisewis, (that is the Earl Montfort's fee,) &c. and William grants to Peter and his heirs the tenement which Richard his father held of him in Wigenhale, with lands in Tilney, called Potter's Croft.

It is very probable that this Peter, son of Richard de Wigenhale, was some near relation to William, son of Alan de Clenchwarton, by this trust reposed in him, in this fine.

This William is said to have assumed the name of de Wigenhale; but by the fine above, he rather, at that time, seems to bear the same name with his father, viz. De Clenchwarton; but this is no objection or argument against his taking up afterwards the name of De Wigenhale.

They who are conversant in very ancient deeds, &c. may often observe, that persons who held different tenures or lordships, often varied their names according to the names of the towns wherein these their lordships lay, and their sons followed the same practice, not always taking the name of their father, but from the lordship of some town wherein they were enfeoffed.

This, therefore, makes a great difficulty in the settling of ancient pedigrees, when these practices and customs were so prevailing and common; and it appears by the aforesaid fine, that Alan de Clenchwarton and his son William de Clenchwarton, might justly do the same, as they had manors, &c. in both these towns. Thus Sir Peter de Hobbies, who, died no. 1239, wrote himself Sir Peter de Hobbies, and Sir Peter de Calthorp, being lord of both these towns.

Sampson abbot of Bury, by his deed, sans date, (about 1200,) granted to William, son of Alan, his land in Wigenhale, the toft and croft which Scman and his wife Lestsware, held in Wigenhale, and which William de Sculham gave to that abbey, on his paying a pound of incense every year.

John was his son, who by the name of John, son of William de Wigenhale, in the reign of Henry III. was found to hold, with John de Hakebeche, the 3d part of a fee in Wigenhale and Tilney, of the honour of Richmond.

In the said reign I find Sir John de Wigenhale, witness to a deed of ——— Kerville, sans date.

This John, son of Sir William de Wigenhale,⁷ is said to have assumed the surname of Howard, most likely from some office, trust of honour, or dignity committed to him.

How, in Saxon, signifies a Hill or Mound, and so it may signify from the ward or care that he had of some particular fortification, or castle on a hill, or care over the sea banks, &c.

Here I cannot but observe, that in the book of Domesday made by the Conqueror, I meet with a Saxon thane to have been lord of Boyton in Waltham hundred, and deprived of it at the conquest, called Hofward, a name of affinity, if not the same, with Howard.

To this I may add the ancient family of Ogard in Norfolk, of which was the famous Sir Andrew Ogard, who lived in the reign of Henry VI. lord of Old Buckenham, &c. in Norfolk, a name also of near affinity, betokening a guard over the sea, or certain waters.

And that John, son of Will. de Wigenhale assumed that name, appears from some old deeds. This John married Lucia, daughter of John Gernund, who was a person of considerable fortunes and eminency in that age, as appears by his being a witness to deeds, sans date, and taking place of John de Fitton, and Jeffrey de Kerville, lords of Wigenhale, &c. and is said to have borne, quarterly, gules and vert, an escarbuncle over all, or. By this Lucy, John, son of William de Wigenhale or Howard, had William Howard, his eldest son, and left Lucy his widow.

The Wigenhales being a numerous family, and many taking their names from the towns, either as lords or as natives, make it (as I observed) a difficult task to ascertain any thing absolutely before this time.

Sir Will. Dugdale was so sensible of this, and having, it is probable, not seen many evidences from fines, &c. (as I have in part here specified) places this William Howard at the head of this noble family, and, as he observes, "After much fruitless search to satisfy himself " as well as others."

Of this William I shall give certain occurrences taken also from authentick evidences, and not mentioned (as far as I can perceive) by any other author.

In a deed, sans date, of John de Norwold, abbot of Bury, to John de Hakebech of Wigenhale, of messuages and lands there, some are said to be butted on Fitton's Green, with the common pasture, west, the great bank of Wigenhale, east, and butting on the lands of William Howard, &c.⁸

To this deed, Sir William de Pakenham, Richard Weyland, Adam de Hakebeche, Roger de Colvil, junior, Philip de la Fen, John Fitz-Walter, Knights, John de Fitton, William Howard, Daniel de Breccles, Robert de Norwold, &c. were witnesses. This was before his being knighted, which was in or about 1278. Being bred to the law, he became highly eminent, was retained by several persons of dignity, by societies and corporations, from whom he had a settled annual pension.

His chief place of residence was at East Winch, by Lynn, of which town he was lord: it is manifest he lived there from the 13th of Edward I. to the 34th of that King; in those years several presents were sent to him and his lady, from the corporation, for his good services to them, as appears from the Chamberlain's accounts of that town, extant at this day on rolls of parchment, and stand thus:

Item, in uno carcos. bovis misso Dne. Alicie Howard, usq; Wynch 11s. that is, for a carcase of an ox, and sending it to the Lady Alicie Howard, at Wynch, 6s.—Item, in vino p. duas vices miss. Dno. Will^o. Howard, cum duob; carcos. vitul. et uno scuto apri xiiis.—that is, for wine sent twice to Sir William Howard, with 2 calves, and a collar, or shield of brawn, 13s.—Item, in duob; salmon. miss. Dno. Will^o. Howard vigil Pasche xis.—that is, for 2 salmons sent to Sir William Howard on the vigil of Easter xis.—By this it appears that he was a knight in the year 1285, and some say he was made judge of the Common Pleas in 1280.

In the 14th of Edward I. Richard de Brandon and Agnes his wife conveyed lands in Wigenhale to him, by fine. In the 18th of that King, he purchased lands, and a mill in Wigenhale, and lands in Clenchwarton, by fine, of John, son of Richard de Wiggehale, also lands in Tilney of William de Rugham, and is then called William Howard of Wigenhale, and in the 21st of that King, he gave to the abbey of West Derham 22 aeres of moor, and 28 of marsh, in Tyrington and Tilney, and being constituted one of the justices of the Common Pleas, in the 26th (1297) of Edward I. took his oath, and some say he was then made chief justice of the King's Bench.

In the 27th of the said King he purchased lands by fine of James, son of Thomas de Wigenhale, and in the 31st the abbot of Bury confirmed to him lands, called Abbots-Dale, for life;—witnesses, John de Fitton, John de Hakebech, John de Reynham, Robert de Rungeton, William de la Fenne, &c. and purchased lands of Robert Curson, by fine, in Tyrington, Tilney and Walpole, in the 33d of the said King; in which year he was made one of the justices of Trail Baston, to enquire after intruders on other men's lands, and malefactors, who committed murders, burnings, robberies, or other damages in houses, woods, parks, &c. the receivers and abettors of them. He was also at this time one of the King's council, and gave advice that if the King should prefer the Bishop of Byblis, whom the Pope had provided for, by his bull, to be prior of Goldingham in Scotland, that would be a derogation to the King's crown and dignity, and therefore not grantable; whereupon the King sent a letter of refusal to the Pope in the said year: the justices of Traylbaston, in commission with him, were John Botetourt, Nicholas Frembaud, and Roger Harcwedon, for the Countess of Gloucester, Northampton, Oxon, Berks, Bedford, Bucks, Essex, Hertford, Rutland, Cambridge, and Huntingdon.

He was summoned, with other judges, (by writ dated January 8, in the 1st of Edward II.) who were of the King's counsel, to attend at the coronation, to be solemnized at Westminster, on the Sunday next after the feast of St. Valentine, and died, as is said, in the following year. It is highly probable that he was buried in the chapel of St. Mary, on the south side of the chancel of East Winch church, which chapel, I am inclined to think, was built by him, being lord of this manor, and residing there, as I have shown; several also of his successours lived there, and was buried there, whose grave-stones, about 2 centuries past, were to be seen; and Sir Robert Howard, his great-grandson, lived and died there in 1388, also buried in this chapel, and had a tomb erected over him, as may be seen in Weaver.⁹

Sir William married 2 wives; Alice, the first, was the daughter of Sir Robert Ufford, afterwards Earl of Suffolk, by whom he left no issue; his second wife was Alice, daughter of Sir Edmund Fitton of Wigenhale St. German's, who bore azure, three cinquefoils, argent, the arms of the Lords Bardolph, under whom he held lands, the colours only varied, by whom he had Sir John Howard, his son and heir; she survived him, and was living in 1310.

John was of age before his father's death, and married in the 2d of Edward II. Joan, daughter of Richard de Cornwall and Joan his wife, and afterwards heir to Richard her brother, who bore argent, a lion rampant, gules, in a bordure engrailed sable, bezante, as descended from Richard Earl of Cornwall, son of King John, and Emperor of Germany. In the 15th of Edward II. a fine was levied between him and the lady Joan his wife, by which the manor of Wigenhale was settled on them for life, remainder to John, their son; was also then lord of East Winch, East Walton, and Terrington; and Joan, widow of Richard de Cornwall, on her daughter's marriage with Sir John, settled her lands in Pentney, Nereford, Alethorp, East Walton, and the 3d part of her manor in Tirington, on him, and her daughter Joan, and their heirs.

At his death, in the 5th of Edward III. he was found to hold the manor of Wigenhale, (St. German's as I take it,) of the Lord Bardolph, paying 4*d. ob. per ann.* and of Thomas de Reynham, by 12*d. per ann.* and at this time the crosses in the arms of Howard are said to have been, botony, fitché; and their crest, out of a crown a pyramid, on the summit, a plume of feathers, as was to be seen in the chapel of East Winch, where this knight was buried, and had a grave-stone, with his, and his lady's pourtraitures thereon in brass.

Sir John Howard, his son and heir, by the lady Joan, writes himself in the 10th of Edward III. of Wigenhale St. German's in a grant of land, at Seche, to William Duraunt of South Lynn, and in the 15th of that King, this knight, with Thomas Lord Bardolf, and Sir John de Thorp, were appointed commissioners to array the county of Norfolk, and to seize all persons who should rise up in arms against the King.¹ In 1346, he obtained a grant for a market every Friday, and a fair every year, at his manor of Wigenhale, on the feast of St. Mary Mag- dalen, which fair is kept at this time, and the Lord Bardolf had the rent of 10s. 2d. per ann. conveyed to him by Sir John and Alice his wife, in 1348, by fine; by this lady Alice, (daughter and heir of Sir Robert de Bois of Fersfield, who bore ermine, a cross sable) he left Sir Robert his son and heir; she survived her husband, and died on Monday before the feast of the nativity of the Blessed Virgin, in the 46th of Edward III.

Sir Robert Howard resided for the most part on his manor-house, at East Winch, and died there in 1388, and was buried according to his will, in the chapel of St. Mary, belonging to that church.

What I have above observed of this family are occurrences taken from authentick records and evidences, and not mentioned for the most part by any author, and serve to clear up many things relating to it in ancient days; and to Sir William Howard, who undoubtedly was the chief founder of it. They who are desirous of seeing more of the Howards, may consult Dugdale's Baronage, the History of the Peerage, Mr. Blomfield's Hist. of Norfolk, in his 3d [vi.] vol. &c.

Sir John Howard, grandson of Sir Robert abovementioned, left by Joan his wife, sister and heir of Sir John Walton, an only daughter and heir, Elizabeth, who brought this lordship, and many others of this family, to John de Vere Earl of Oxford, in 1428, by marriage; and on the death of John de Vere Earl of Oxford, in 1526, it came to his three sisters and coheirs, Elizabeth, married to Sir Anthony Wingfield, Dorothy, to John Nevill Lord Latimer, and Ursula, to Sir Edward Knightley, who dying without issue, the Lords Latimer, and the Wingfields, had each a moiety of this manor.

Richard Everard, by his will dated May 20, 1566, gave the manor of Fittons, to John Everard, and by an inquisition taken at Hoxon, the last day of March, in 15th of Elizabeth, on the death of John Everard, the jury find that he died seized of it, 12 messuages, 300 acres of land, 100 of meadow, 200 of pasture, 10 of wood 100 of moor, 200 of marsh, and 40s. rent in Wigenhale St. Germain's, and Islington, on December 15, last past, without issue, and that Henry Everard, of Linstead in Suffolk, was his cousin and heir, all which were held of the Lord Latimer, and Sir Robert Wingfield, by fealty, and the payment of 1s. per ann.

In the 40th of Elizabeth, Simon, and Edmund Green, Gent. had a præcipe to surrender to William Downing, the manor of Fitton's in Wigenhale.

This manor was lately possessed by Sir Robert Brown, Bart. and is now held by his widow.

The office of water-bailiff from Stapleswere, to Larks Hirne, was granted in the 16th of Henry VI. to Giles St. Loo, and in the 26th of that King, to John Ledred for life. The river Ouse, formerly between this town and Islington, used to run between certain banks, distant asunder, 12 perches but by great floods became a full mile over, as appears from a petition to King Edward III. in his 36th year.

In the 13th of Elizabeth August 18, - - - - Jenyns, and Ed. Forth had a grant of the fishery in the river Ouse, from Knight's Goole, to Stapleswere, with the toll and profits of German's bridge.

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. German, was formerly a rectory valued at 24 marks, but being appropriated to the office of the cellarer in the church of Norwich, by John de Grey Bishop of Norwich, a vicarage was settled, valued at 6 marks, Peter-pence 7*d.*; the vicarage was in the presentation of the priory of Norwich, and is now in the dean and chapter, and the great tithes were let to Sir Robert Brown, Bart. the present valor of the vicarage is 6*l. per ann.* and is discharged of first fruits and tenths.

It consists of a nave, and a south isle covered with lead, and a north isle with tiles, and a chancel.

Some time past the floor of the church was found to be at least 8 feet below the high water mark of the adjoining river Ouse. The tower is four-square, and there are 4 bells.

On a gravestone in the church,—

Orate p. aia Ele Elwyn quo'd. uxoris Will. Elwyne—Orate p. aia Willi. Elwyn, generosi, qui obt. octavo die Apr. A°. Dni. 1508.

On an old seat the arms of Fincham.

In the east window of the north isles were the arms of Fitton, and, Orate p. Joh. de Phitton et Margeria, uxore ejus: who probably built this isle, and was here buried.

In the windows of the church were also the arms of Heydon, of Baconsthorp, Norwich priory, Lord Bardolf, Lord Scales, Howard, Inguldesthorp; Fincham, impaling argent, a chevron between three bears heads couped, sable, muzzled or, Berry; also gules, a cross between four lions rampant; and argent, a lion rampant, azure.

In the chancel a gravestone,

In memory of Mrs. Martha Appleton, eldest daughter and coheir of Mr. Thomas Moor and Martha his wife, who died Oct. 10, 1653, wife of Robert Appleton, Esq; with the arms of Appleton, argent, a fess ingrailed, sable, between three apples leafed, vert, impaling Moor, sable, a swan, argent, in a bordure ingrailed, or.

Another,

In memory of Dorothy, daughter of Thomas Moor, and wife of—Wright, of Wainford, who dyed 1662, with the arms of Wright, sable, a chevron ingrailed, between three lis, or, on a chief, of the 2d, three spears heads, azure, impaling Moor; both their epitaphs are in doggerel verse, by their father Moor, who was so much in love with his Muse, that he made his own last will in verse.

Here is also a gravestone,

In memory of the said Thomas Moor, who died November 7, 1667, aged 65.—and thus inscrib'd—Hic situs est Thomas Moore, generosus. qui annorum satur hac vita tandem peracta, in meliorem feliciter transmigravit septimo die Novem. Ao. Dni. 1667, atatis 65.—Martha filia Roberti Appleton, Armigeri, et defuncti, nepotis monumentum hoc memoriae ejus sacrum mærens posuit.

WOLFERTON.

THIS town is not named in the book of Domesday, being a hamlet to the town of Babingley. Peter Valoins's manor there held by Butler, and that of Eudo, son of Spiruwin, by Tateshall: also that of Robert Fitz Corbon of Sandringham, extending into this town; so that all the lands here are accounted for, to which I refer the reader.

There is a town in Suffolk, seated like this, near the mouth of the river Orwell, and of the same name; also Wolwich in Kent, and an island in Zeland, called Wolferdyke, and Wolfenbuttel, in Germany, seated by marshy grounds. Vol, in the British tongue, or Wol, signifies caput, the head, so that Vol, Re, or Er, (water) and Ton, bespeaks a town at the head of the water.

The prior of Shouldham had also an interest in this town: Christiana, daughter of Robert Lord Fitz Walter, (by Gunnora, daughter and heir of Robert de Valoins) who married William de Mandeville Earl of Essex, gave a little lordship to that priory.

In the 4th of Edward I. a fine was levied between Benedict, prior of Shouldham, and Barth. Cutlinger, and Sybill his wife, of certain lands, called Ellys-hill and Burgh, granted to the prior; and in the 15th of Richard II. Thomas, vicar of the church of Fincham, aliened to the prior 28 acres of moor, called Nort Wro, in this township, and in the next year 38 acres of marsh were aliened to him.

On the dissolution of the priory, this was granted, May 7, Ao. 36 of Henry VIII. to William Cobbe, Esq. to be held by the 20th part of a fee; from the Cobbes, it came with Sandringham, to the Hostes and so to Henry Cornish Henley, Esq.

The prior of Binham's temporalities here, and in Babingley, were valued at 4s. 4d. per ann.

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Peter, and is a rectory, formerly valued at 6 marks and 10s. per ann. and paid Peter-pence 8*d.* the present valor is 12*l.* per ann. and stands charged with first fruits, &c.

SOUTH WOOTON.

AT the time of the survey, it appears that this town, and that of North Wooton was but one lordship and one town, called Widetuna. In the time of King Edward, Godwin,² a freeman, was lord; at the survey the King, and Godric took care of it for him. In Godwin's time there were 2 carucates in demean, afterwards one, then 24 villans, afterwards 15, who held half a carucate, and 2 soemen, with 25 acres of meadow, then 20 saltpits, afterwards 14; 22 soemen also belonged to it, who held 12 acres of land and half a carucate; when he entered on it; there was one runcus, or a beast of burden, one cow, 10 swine, and 120 sheep, the same continued; it was then valued at 4*l.* per ann. at the survey at 9*l.* and paid 20*s.* fine or income: the whole was half a leuca long and broad, whoever may possess it, and pays 12*d.* gelt.³

From the Crown it came into the family of De Albancay, or Albini, Earls of Sussex, &c.⁴ given by King William II. to William de Albini, the King's butler, &c. for his good services; and on the division of the estate of that family, on the death of the last Earl, Hugh, in the 27th of Henry III. became vested in Roger Lord de Monte-Alto, or Montalt, by his marriage with Cecily, fourth sister and coheir to that Earl, as may be seen in Rysing.

Under the Lords Montalt, it was held by the family of Bulmer. John de Bulmer was found to hold it by the service of two knights fees and an half in the reigns of Henry III. and *Edward I.*⁵

It appears by a pleading that John de Gourney, who was against King Henry III. in the barons wars, and in the battles of Lexes and Evesham, had the manor of South Wooton, which he demised for 12 years to Steph. de Balesham, and that John de Bulmer, of —, seized it into the King's hands; on this the court of the King's Bench commanded the sheriff to summon a jury in his court, to enquire into the truth of the matter, and to return the inquisition into the King's Bench, Roger de Bulmer being bail for John; but it appears to have continued in the same family, Richard de Bulmer, son of Sir John, being lord, and giving land here to John de Warren, by deed sans date, sealed with a bull passant: there was also a family of this name in Yorkshire, who were parliamentary barons, and bore gules, billette, a lion rampant, or.

John de Bulmer, grandfather of Richard, had a grant of free warren in his manor of Bulmer and Welburn, in Yorkshire, April 12, in the 35th of Henry III. and was lord of Wherlton, or Wilton, in Cleveland, in Yorkshire. In the 21st of that King, a fine was sued between him and Richard de Percy, of a moiety of that manor, conveyed then to him; and Sir John, father of Richard, was also lord of Lasingby and West Cotham, in the said county.

This John gave, for his own soul, and that of Theophania his wife,⁶ for that of John, his father,⁷ and Alice,⁸ his mother, 2 combs of salt out of his new salt works here, to the priory of Walsingham: also to Richard his eldest son, and Clementia his wife, daughter of Sir Gervase de Clifton, the manor of South Wooton in tail;—witnesses, Robert de Tateshale, William Bardolf, William Rusteyn, Ralph Byroun, Ralph Fitz William, Marmaduc de Tweng, William de Roseles, and Robert Guer, knights, sans date. Theophania styles herself, late

In the 30th of Edward I. there was a contest between her, then the wife of Hugh de Massingham, and the Lord Robert Montalt, of whom this lordship was held; and she gave 15*l.* relief, due on the death of her husband, Richard de Bulmer; witness, Sir Robert de Bilney, Knt.

Thomas, son of Richard, of South Wotton, and Emma his wife, gave to Richard their son, 100*s.* rent of the tenants, formerly of Richard de Bulmer, in South and North Wotton;—witnesses, Sir John de Gyllham, Sir James de Belvaco, Knt. John le Botiler, Henry de Wyken, Ralph de Hawyrdyn, and John de Congham, sans date.

In the 31st of Edward I. Robert Lord Montalt sold to John de Warren of this town, the custody, or guardianship of Alice, daughter and heiress of Richard de Bulmere, and Clementia his wife, for 60*l.* Montalt sealed with two seals hanging from a tree, in two escotheons, the first (as it is said) charged with an orle, the 2d with a lion rampant, the arms of Montalt, who bore azure, a lion rampant, argent.

This Alice, heiress of Bulmer, was afterwards married to Geffrey de Warren, son of John de Warren.

In the 28th of Edward I. Hugh de Massingham and Clementia his wife brought their action against Ralph de Bulmer, son of John, and brother of Richard, for her thirds in the manors of Wherlton, in Cleveland, Thornton, by Rustbergh, Lasingby, East and West Cotham, Bulmer and Welbington, in which she had her dower, by the will and assent of John aforesaid, father of Richard.¹

This family of Bulmer was decended from Bertram de Bulmer, who, with the assent of Aschetil his son, gave to the monks of Riveaux, in Yorkshire, a carucate of land in Welleburn, in that county, in pure alms, which Aschetil, son of Gospatric, held of him;—witnesses, William de Staingrist, Drogo de Harun, Robert de Sproxton, Peter de Welmund, &c.

The pedigree, in some measure, after this, appears from a pleading at York assizes in the 21st of Edward I. before Hugh de Cressingham, &c.²

BULMER'S PEDIGREE.

In the 9th of Edward II. Geffrey de Warren was lord, and Sir John Howard also of this town, of which Sir John I shall presently treat: and the said Geffery occurs lord in the 16th of Edward III. and Emme de Warren held 3 fees here, &c. A^d. 2d of Richard II.

But in the third year of Henry IV. the heirs of Geffrey and their tenants, were found to hold a knight's fee here, of the Duke of York, of his castle of Rysing; and in the 16th of Henry VI. Thomas Phelip, and Elizabeth his wife, conveyed by fine to Thomas Staunton, a moiety of this manor, from the heirs of Elizabeth, that is what land, &c. was in this town, and from this it seems to be divided; see North Wotton.

In the 7th year of Henry VIII. Sir William Capel, Knt. lord mayor of London in 1503, died seized of this lordship, held of the castle of Rysing; and by his last will and testament, gives this and all other his manors in Norfolk, for life, to Margaret his wife, remainder to his son and heir, Sir Gyles, &c.

In the 44th of Queen Elizabeth, it was held by Thomas Wynde, Gent. of Arthur Capel, Esq. this Thomas had considerable possessions here in his own right; 109 acres held in fee, or capite; certain lands, called the abbot of Windham's: divers lands late Salter's called Kingston's; certain closes, a tenement and lands, called Guybon's, all in this town; the lordship of Geywoode, late Boson's, &c. and in the 39th of Elizabeth had a grant of the hundred, &c. of Frebridge; he had a daughter Margaret, married to Henry Cromwell, Esq. of Upwood, in Huntingdonshire, second son of Sir Henry Cromwell, brother to Sir Oliver Cromwell, of Hitchingbrook; his son, Sir Robert Wynde, married Elizabeth, daughter of Edmund Jermyn, fifth son of Sir Ambrose Jermyn of Rushbroke in Suffolk, was heir to his father's lands, and had also lands in Ashill, and South Pickenham, in Norfolk, late Thomas Bradbury's, Gent. Alpes Course in Swaffham Market, &c. and Henry was his son and heir; but Sir Robert sold his lands to the Earl of Northampton in 3d of Charles I.

The last of this family was the late William Winde, Esq. who for many years attended on the Princess Sophia, mother to King George I. and on her death, came into England, and was a commissioner of the salt duties.

³ This Ralph had issue male, and the family ended in Sir Richard Bulmer, Knt. who dyed the 9th of October, in the 5th and 6th of Philip and Mary.

About the year 1700, it was possessed by Mr. Harriot, goldsmith, in Fleet-street, London, and afterwards by his son, Dr. Harriot, L.L.D. and in 1762, the widow Heriot possessed it.

HOWARD'S MANOR.

Richard de Bulmer and Clementia his wife enfeoff Sir John Howard and the lady Joan his wife in certain rents here, and in the 9th of Edward II. Sir John was found, and Geffrey de Warren, to be lords of this town; and in the 15th of Edward III. Sir John, on his death, was found to hold of Geffrey aforesaid, by the service of 36s. and 9d. per ann. a messuage and one carucate of land.

In the 15th of Edward III. Geff. de Warren and Alice his wife, sued Lady Joan, late wife of Sir John Howard, &c. for 18 acres of land and an half, and the rent of 8 quarters of salt and an half here; and in the following year the said lady and her son John complained that they were disseised by the aforesaid Geff. &c. of a manor which Richard de Bulmer gave to her, &c. with the rent of 4l. per ann. issuing out of certain lands and free tenants here.

Sir Robert Howard and Margaret his wife settled this manor, with that of Wigenhale, &c. in the 3d of Richard II. for certain uses;⁵ and in the 20th of the said King, Sir John Howard confirmed it to Margaret, late wife of Sir Robert to Sir Simon Felbrigg, Robert de Felbrigg, Simon Barret, Michael de Beverley, clerk, and Robert Aylward; witnesses, Laurence Trussbut, Thomas Kervyle, Thomas Howard, &c. dated at East Winch on the Nativity of the blessed Virgin.

In the 34th of Henry VIII. William Overend and Catherine his wife, conveyed to Humphry Jurdon 4 messuages, with land and liberty of a fold in this town and Gaywode, by fine, and the said Humphry and Alice his wife in the following year passed it to John Waller.

The tenths of the town were 3l. 13s.—Deducted 10s.

The prior of Windham was taxed for his temporalities at 24s. 11d. the prior of Pentney for his, in rent and salt, at 6s. 8d.

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Mary; the ancient valor was 8 marks and an half, Peter-pence 7d.—The present valor is 8l. 6s. 8d. and is a rectory, in the presentation of the lord of Rysing, chief lord of the town.

NORTH WOTTON.

THIS and South Wotton, as I have observed, made, at the survey, one town, and belonged to one lord. King William II. granted it to William de Albini, his butler, together with Rysing, from which family it came by a daughter and coheir to Roger de Montalt, of which family William de Mulieres was found to hold it in the 3d of Edward I. afterwards the Bulmers held it, as in South Wotton, and from them it came to the Warrens.

In the 33d of Henry VI. Thomas Cornwallis, Esq. and James Stanton, Gent. remitted to Thomas Salter, of North Wotton, and Ralph Geyton, Gent. lands late Constable's; and the said Thomas, and Ralph, in the 8th of Edward IV. enfeoffed John Fincham of Fucham, John Coket of Ampton, in Suffolk, &c. of all their lands, tenements, marshes, rents, and services, with liberty of foldage.

Edmund Church, of Badburgham, in Cambridgeshire, confirmed to Thomas Salter, of North Wotton, Ralph Salter, &c. all his lands and tenements, marshes, &c. descended to him from Thomas Stanton, on February 8, in the 19th of Edward IV. and Salter confirmed to Robert, his son, and Margaret, daughter of John Cobbe, of Ipswich, his intended wife, &c. in the 18th of Henry VII. his messuage and lands. Salter's interest herein came to John Broke, Gent. who granted it in the 3d of Elizabeth, to Edward Broke, Gent. and he conveyed it in the 6th of that Queen, to Thomas Duke of Norfolk.

WINDHAM PRIORY MANOR

Took its rise from lands, &c. granted by the Albini's to the priory of Windham, who in the reign of Edward I. claimed free warren. In the 2d of Edward II. the priory purchased 36 acres of land, 3 of meadow, 6s. rent per ann. and 26 acres of marsh, so that their temporalities were valued at 4*l.* 8s. 4*d.* per ann. in 1428; and the prior held in Wotton, and Congham, the 40th part of a fee of the Earl of Arundel.

John de Forthington, by deed sans date, granted to Richard Noth, lands in this town and South Wotton, common of pasture for 100 sheep; Noth gave it with, 2s. rent, to the prior.

After the Dissolution it was granted, February 12, in the 5th of Elizabeth, with the impropriate rectory, and advowson of vicarage, to Thomas Duke of Norfolk, and afterwards to Henry Howard Earl of Northampton, and passed as in Rysing, to the Earls of Berkshire, who were lords and patrons, and now is in the Earl of Suffolk.

Concealed lands belonging to the said priory granted April 4, in the 24th of Elizabeth, to Theophilus Adams, and James Woodshawe.

The Church is dedicated to All-Saints, was formerly a rectory valued at 9 marks, and paid Peter-pence 6*d.* William de Albini Earl of Sussex, grandson to the founder of Windham priory, gave to the said monastery, the rectory of this church: Roger de Muliers and his wife had an interest in it,⁶ which they granted, as Benedict de Aungerville, also had, who confirmed it.

Thomas de Blundevile Bishop of Norwich appropriated it, and a vicarage was settled, valued at 40s. per ann.

The spiritualities of Windham priory were 9 marks.—The present valor of the vicarage is 10*l.*

NORTH GREENHOW HUNDRED.

W I G H T O N.

IT appears from Domesday Book, that the royalty of this hundred, and the lordship of the town of Wighton were both in the Crown, and were possessed by King Edward the Confessor. The hundred takes its name from the many hills, and tumuli, and the town from its site, on a river; Wis, Wissey, Wi, &c. being a general name for rivers among the Britons, as Wisbeach, &c. called also Guistone, from Guy, or Qui-Water.

This manor extended into several towns, 12 carucates of land belonged to it, held by 26 villains, and 24 borderers, &c. one carucate in demean, with 10 carucates among the tenants, &c. and 19 socmen and 3 borderers, 4 carucates and 45 acres of land: it was valued at 10*l.* 6 sextaries and an half of honey, with 4*ls.* for customary dues in King Edward's reign, but at the survey at 23*l.* paid by weight, was one leuca long, and one broad, and paid 7*d.* gelt.¹

King Henry II. as lord and patron, gave this church (by the name of *Wichetune*²) to the cathedral church of the Holy Trinity of Norwich, for the health of his own soul, his father Geffrey's, and his mother Maud's, and his grandfather's King Henry I. &c. which John, the Bishop of Norwich, and the prior and convent had granted at his request to Richard de Britt, his clerk, for life, on his paying one mark of silver yearly, to the altar of the said church, and its repair at Easter;—witnesses, Geffrey Bishop of Ely, Geffrey my son, Humph. de Buhun, constable, William, son of Ald. Dapifer.

Soon after this William de Kaion, or Ken, had a grant of this lordship, to be held of the Crown by one fee: this William gave to the said church of Norwich all the right and jurisdiction which he had in the lands belonging to them, as lord of the hundred, and this town, and for this grant William, then prior, gave him 20 marks of silver, and a palfrey of 3 marks value, and to Eustachius his son, one mark; the said William was, in the 4th of King John, a benefactor to the priory of Binham, and in the 8th of Henry III. William, his son, was to pay relief for his father's land here, and at Morden, in Cambridgeshire.

In the 29th of Henry III. Philip de Albiny was lord, on a grant from that King, being forfeited by Ken, who is styled the Norman, and a rebel; and paid then 20s. for one fee here.

Prince Edward possessed them in the 34th of that King, when they were valued at 60*l.* per ann. but in the 41st of that reign Jeffrey de Lysiguan, the King's half brother, had a grant of them, and the hundred was valued at 10*l.* per ann.

In the 1st of Edward I. it was found that William de Ken had sold considerable parts of the demeans; and in his 15th year, Joan de Bernake, widow of Jeffrey de Lysiguan, had an interest herein, the jury then present that this lordship was of the value of 60*l.* and the hundred of 10*l.* per ann. that Jeffrey, son and heir of Jeffrey Lysiguan, was under age, and in the King's custody, that his father had a grant of them, on an exchange for lands in Ireland, with the King, and that John de Harcourt and Joan his wife, (whom I take to be the mother of the minor) held the same as his guardians.

This Jeffrey, the son, died about the end of the aforesaid reign; it being found in the 1st of *Edward II.*³ that he had enfeoffed Richard de Walsingham, of 200 acres of land, &c. on his paying 10*l.* per ann. to him, and his heirs; about this time the hundred court was held at a place called Crunle, (probably nigh Warham;) by the waterside, near to a fortification as it is said.

Drogo de Merlaw, nephew and heir to Jeffrey, gave 100*l.* relief for these, and the manor of Paunton, in Leicestershire, &c. on whose death, in the 11th of Edward II. they came to his two daughters and coheirs; Joan, the wife of Ralph Earl of Ewe and Guysnes, in France, aged 22, and Margaret, a minor.

Robert Earl of Ewe, and constable of France, taking part with Philip de Valois, King of France, forfeited them, and being taken prisoner in the 19th of Edward III. at Caen, in Normandy, paid 80,000 florins for his ransom.

In the following year, Philippa Queen of England, enjoyed them, as did Sir Robert Knowls in the 43th of that King; and in the next year they were granted to John of Gaunt Duke of Lancaster, with the manor of Fakenham, on June 25, and so became part of the duchy of Lancaster, and lodged in the Crown.

In the 6th year of King Charles I. they were purchased by the city of London, for 126*l.* 14*s.* 3*d.* the fee farm rent to the Crown being 45*l.* 1*s.* 11*d.* q. per ann. and the trustees for the city sold it to Humphrey Bedingfeld, Esq. whose grandson, Christopher Bedingfeld, Esq. counsellor at law, died seized in 1750 leaving 3 daughters, and coheirs, and conveyed by them to the late Earl of Leicester.

An ancient family of the Geggs had a considerable estate here.

³ Regist. Walsingham. p. 2, and 53.

Robert Gyggs left two sons, Christopher and John, which last dying in 1518, left by Agnes his wife, Robert, whose daughter and heir Anne, married John, son of Andrew Russel, his daughter and heir Grace, brought by marriage the family estate to Edmund Bedingfeld, Esq. fifth son of Sir Edmund Bedingfeld, of Oxburgh, Knt. by Grace his wife, daughter of the Lord Marny, whose descendents may be seen in the following pedigree.

B I N H A M.

ESKET, a freeman, was lord of this village, but deprived at the conquest, when it was granted to Peter Lord Ialains, the Conqueror's nephew.

It was found to consist of 3 carucates of land, 3 villains, 13 botderers, 2 servi, &c. but at the survey there were 6 carucates in demean, a carucate and half, and 11 acres of meadow among the tenants, a mill, &c. paying 16s. There were 8 horses at the lord's-hall, at the survey 5, &c. (with lands in Wells, &c.) valued at 20*l.* was one leuca long, and half a one broad, and paid 2s. gelt.⁶ See in Wells.

Peter, the lord, and Albreda his wife, founded here, with the consent of the Conqueror, a priory of Benedictine monks, dedicated to St. Mary, as a cell to the abbey of St. Albans, but to be subject only, as the priory of Lewes was, to that of St. Peter of Clugni, in France, and paying only to St. Albans a mark of silver annually; but not finished till the beginning of the reign of King Henry I.

The founder endowed it with the lordship of this town, and other considerable grants of land, &c. and Roger, his son, confirmed what his father had given, and was himself a considerable benefactor, as were Peter and Robert de Valoines, who were buried here.

King Henry I. gave them a charter for a fair, for 4 days, beginning on the vigil of St. Mary, and a weekly mercate on Wednesday; and in the 2d of King John a fine was levied, wherein William de Chaen, or Ken, lord of North Greenhow hundred, and Wighton, grants to the prior, certain customs due to him as lord, and the prior grants that the men of Wighton should be free from toll in Binham market.

In the said reign, Robert Lord Fitzwalter claimed the patronage of the priory, and besieged it, in order to reinstate Thomas, the prior, deposed by the prior of St. Albans, and the King sends forces to defend it. Pope Innocent, in 1250, confirmed by bull the grant of the church of Westley, in Cambridgeshire, to them; and Reginald de Bacon, in the 46th of Henry III. gave a moiety of Laringsset church; and in the 14th of Edward II. there were resident (as is said) a prior and 13 monks.

COCKTHORP.

IN the grand survey, it is called Thorp, but to distinguish it from other towns in Norfolk of that name, gained the additional name of Coke or Cock, setting forth its site to be near some river or water, as Cockley-Cleve, Cokesford, &c.

Part of this town, on the conquest, was held by William Beaufoe Bishop of Thetford, in right of that see, and was possessed by Bishop Almar, in the time of King Edward, belonging to his manor of Langham, containing one socman and 2 borderers. Another part, consisting of 100 acres of land, and half an acre of meadow, a carucate and an half, &c. held by two freemen in King Edward's reign, was invaded or seized on by Bishop Beaufoe; and William Denvers held it of him; valued before the conquest at 20s. at the survey at 30s.² and Beaufoe held it in fee, not of the sec.

In the reign of Henry III. Thomas Bacon was found to hold a quarter of a fee of Hugh Lord Bardolf, Hugh of the Bishop of Norwich, and the Bishop of the King in capite; and Roger, son of Thomas Bacon, was lord, and presented to the church of Cockthorp in 13 --; in the said year, he conveyed by fine, before William de Bereford, &c. to Richer, son of Ralph de Refham, and Joan his wife, this lordship for their lives, excepting the advowson of the church, and a messuage, called Le-Parsons, on their paying a yearly rent of a rose.

Afterwards it came to Sir Oliver Calthorp, by the marriage of Isabel, daughter of Sir Robert, and sister and coheir of Bartholomew Bacon of Erwarton in Suffolk. The said Isabel, dying in the 12th year of King Henry IV. gave by will, this lordship, with that of Smitterly or Blakeney, to her 2d son, Richard Calthorp, Esq. he married Margaret, daughter of William, and sister and heir of John Irmingland, rector of Strevekey St. John's, who bore, gules, on a fess, between six billets, argent, three Cornish choughs proper. He was buried according to his testament, dated February 1, 1438, and proved in the said month, before the holy cross in the church of Cockthorp; and his last will is dated the same day and year.

It may be proper to observe here, that at first the testament was distinct from the last will, and related to the goods and chattels of the deceased; and the will was another act or deed by itself, and related to the settlement of the lands; the testament was first made, and the will after, and sometimes in the same deed.

Margaret, his wife, survived him, and remarried Robert Mekylfeld, Esq. of Blyford, whom she also survived. Her will is dated February 20, 1478, and proved December 12, 1480, whereby she orders her body to be buried by that of her husband, Richard Calthorp, and a chaplain to pray for her soul, and her husband's in Cockthorp church; gives several legacies to the poor of this town, Strevekey, Bynham, Langham and Blakeney, 20 marks.

John Calthorp, Esq. was their son and heir, and married Alice, daughter of John Astley, Esq. of Melton Constable in Norfolk.

His testament and last will is dated June 6, 1503, wherein he requires to be buried in the church of Cockthorp, but he was buried in the middle of the chancel of the monastery church of the Carmes at Blakeney, of which he was the principal founder.

Alice, his wife, survived him, and was buried by him, by whom he had Christopher, his son and heir, who in the 34th of Henry VIII. paid 2s. 4d. for a fine and homage of one quarter of a fee in Cockthorp, due for one year: he was also lord of Sturston, in right of Alianoze his wife, one of the daughters and heirs of Robert Bernard, Esq. and Anne his wife, daughter and heir of Thomas Pygott, Gent. He died in 1517, and was buried in the church of Cockthorp.

James Calthorp, Esq. his son, married Elizabeth, daughter of Robert

This James sold to Henry Calthorp of Ampton in Suffolk, Esq. this lordship. Sir Henry was his uncle, 2d son of Sir James Calthorp, and an eminent lawyer, solicitor-general to Queen Henrietta Maria, and of her council, recorder of London, &c.

By an inquisition taken at Norwich, September 14, 1637, Sir Henry was found to die seized of this manor, those of Aldby, Blakeney, Wyveton, Acle, &c. in Norfolk, and that of Ampton in Suffolk, on the first of August, in the said year, leaving by Dorothy, daughter and coheir of Edward Humfrey, Gent. James, his son and heir, aged 11 years, who married ———, daughter of ——— Reynolds, sister of Sir John Reynolds of Hampshire.

This James Calthorp is said to have been knighted by Oliver Cromwell: he had 3 sons; James, Christopher, and Reynolds.

was one villain, and 3 borderers, 6 socmen, who held 18 acres of land, and 7 of meadow, in the whole, 3 carucates, valued at 30s. at the survey at 40s.⁸

In the 35th of Edward I. William de Swillington and Joan Bonyle had an interest in part of a fee, held of Bygod.

Thomas Gibbs and Margaret his wife, conveyed lands by fine to John Cosyn, parson of Fulmodeston, and William Gibbs, in the 3d of Henry IV. held with his parceners half a fee of the heirs of Carbonel, and Walter de Wolterton, and his parceners half a fee, of the said heirs, and they of the Lord Mowbray.

This came to John Windham, Esq. so to the Heydons, and to the Harbords.

MOUNTGRACE-PRIORY.

Maud de Harscove, in the reign of King Henry II. gave to the abbey of Savigny, in Normandy, a manor in this town, whereupon there came over some Cistercian monks of that place, of which this is sometimes mentioned as a cell, or priory of itself, and sometimes as parcel of Long Benington priory, in Lincolnshire.⁹ Upon the dissolution of alien priories, it was given first to Epworth, then to the Spittle on the Street, (Lincolnshire;) after that to the Carthusians near Coventry, by King Richard II. and afterwards to the priory of Mountgrace, in Yorkshire, and as parcel of this last priory was granted in the 2d and 3d of Philip and Mary, to Martyn Hastyngs and James Bourn.

On April 3d, in the 12th of Elizabeth, James Bourn was found to die November 20th past, seized of this lordship, 300 acres of land, and pasture, of the rectory, and advowson of the vicarage, leaving it to his nephew James Bourn.

In the 16th of Elizabeth, Martin Hastings, by license, alienated his right to Charles Stutvyle: and in the 18th Stutvyle passed 2 parts of the capital messuage called Savigny, or Mountgrace's, to Giles Mabbs, who with John How, convey the same to Gregory Pagnave; soon after it came to William Heydon, Esq. and so united to the lordships above.

The tenths were 6*l.* 7*s.*—Deducted 13*s.* 4*d.*—The temporalities of Walsingham priory 3*s.*

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Andrew, and is a vicarage valued at 5*l.* 8*s.* 1*d.* ob.

It was formerly a rectory valued at 40 marks, the priory of Castle-acre: had a portion of tithe (valued at 6*s.* 8*d.* in 1428) confirmed to them in 1265, by Simon, Bishop of Norwich; and abbey of Savigny, a portion valued at 20*s.* per ann. Peter-pence 2*s.* 1*d.*

The church consists of 2 isles, and a chancel, and has 3 bells.

On a grave-stone in the south isle, with a brass plate,

E G M E R E.

THE principal lordship of Edgamer (as it is wrote in the book of Domesday) was in the see of Thetford, and held by Ailmer, Bishop of Elmham, in the time of the Confessor, when it contained 3 carucates of land, 14 villains, 2 servi, 2 carucates in demean, and 2 amongst the tenants, &c. 180 sheep, and 7 soemen belonged to it, with 45 acres and 2 carucates, valued then at 30s. at the survey at 45s. 4d. and one soeman of William, the Bishop, ploughed one carucate, with 2 oxen.¹ Morel held it of this William Beaufoe, bishop, at the survey; and it seems to take its name as being seated near some mere, or moor.

In the reign of Henry III. Agnes de Mortimer, was found to hold half a fee, William de Shipeden, half a fee, and Godwin de Thornham, half a quarter of one, belonging to the see of Norwich; and William Athetwald had 4 messuages, with lands conveyed by fine to him by Thomas Hunt and Christian his wife, in the 11th year of Edward II. This William was lord of a manor, and presented to a moiety of this church, in the 5th year of the said King; and in the 10th of the said King, John de Shipedene, of Eggemere, and Catharine his wife conveyed to him several messuages, lands, rents, and services, but in the 15th of Edward II. the said William conveyed his manor and right of advowson to Edmund de Lecch of Beeston, in Norfolk, and Margaret, his wife, who regranted them to William for life.

John Leche, in 20th of Edward III. was found to hold half a fee of the Bishop, which William de Shipeden formerly held; half a fee, which Robert de Kelling, with half a fee, that Godwin de Thornham formerly held; and in the 25th of that King, John Leche, clerk, William, parson of Ingaldesthorp, Edmund Gurnay, John de Holcham, pass it by fine to John de Wolterton, parson of Harpley, &c. who in the 27th of the said King, conveyed it, with one messuage, 240 acres of land and 5s. rent here, and in other towns, to John de Egmere and his heirs.

John Corbet had an interest herein, in the 13th of Richard II. and was allowed freewarren, as granted to John Leche, by King Edward III. in his 18th year, and in the 17th of Richard III. William Winter had a confirmation of it.

In the 3d of Henry IV. John Aysbornham, held half a fee of the Bishop, with one fee formerly John de Leche's; and in 1418 William Winter, Esq. presented to this church: soon after it seems to have been in the hands of certain trustees, who had license on March 3.

in the third year of Henry VI. to alien this manor of Eggemer, with the patronage of the church, to the prior and convent of Walsingham; the names of these trustees were, Sir Simon Felbrigg, Sir Edmund Berry, John Wodehouse, Esq. William Paston, &c.; it was valued at 13*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* per ann. and paid 3*s.* 6*d.* for every fee every 30 weeks, to Norwich castle guard, and 10*s.* relief.²

On the dissolution of the said priory, King Henry VIII. on the 22d of March, in his 30th year, grants it to James Bulleyne, in exchange for the manors of Heverreal, and Kensing in Kent: after this it came to Sir Thomas Gresham, Knt. whose widow, Lady Anne, sold it to Sir Nicholas Bacon, lord keeper, in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, and his descendant, Sir Edmund Bacon, Bart. died lately possessed of it, and his daughter, Mary Bacon, held it in 1758; and presented to the church, as lady of the manor, 1761.

The Earl Warren had also an interest in this town, half a carucate of land held by 3 borderers, and a socman, with 12 acres, held by Elvolt, a freeman, in King Edward's time, but delivered to Frederic, to make up his lordships, and was valued in *Barsham*³

Robert Fitz Ralph held half a fee, in the 18th of Henry III. of the Earl Warren. In the year 1300, William Fitz John, presented to a moiety of this church.

In the 17th of Edward II. Richard de Walsingham, held a quarter of a fee of the Earl of Pembroke, and in 1339, Sir John de Lech presented to a moiety.

William, son of Richard de Walsingham, was a minor in the 20th, and in the custody of the Earl Warren; and in 1385, Sir John Plays presented to a moiety, after this it was united (as I take it) to the fee abovementioned.

Part of this town was a beruite belonging to the King's manor of Wighton, (of which manor see there,) this part was half a carucate of land, &c. and the town was in the whole half a leuca long, and also half broad, and paid 6*d.* gelt.⁴

The prior of Petreston, in the reign of Henry III. was found to hold a quarter and half of a fee, of the Bishop of Norwich; and in the 29th of Edward I. this priory gave to that of Westacre, a messuage, and the moiety of a carucate of land, at Rushmore, in Suffolk, in exchange for a messuage, and a moiety of a carucate here; this came to the priory of Walsingham, when the priory of Petreston was united to it.

At the Dissolution it came to the Crown.

The tenths were 6*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*—Deducted 5*s.* and valued together with Quarles.

The CHURCH is a rectory valued at 8*l.* and is now demolished, and the inhabitants go to the church of Waterden, and are there buried, &c. Sir Nicholas Bacon is said to have profaned it, and turned it into a barn. Here were anciently two medieties, one called the HINDRINGHAM.

THE capital lordship of this town belonged to the Bishop of Elmham; and Ailmer the Bishop held it with 4 carucates of land in King Edward's reign.

William Beaufoe was lord of it, and Bishop of Thetford, at the survey. In Ailmer's time 11 villain, 20 borderers, 8 servi, and 4 carucates belonged to it in demean, 5 carucates of the men, or tenants, paunage for 10 swine, a mill, 5 acres of meadow, &c. 160 sheep, 6 vessels, or skeps of bees, and 7 socmen had half a carucate of land, and they ploughed in King Edward's time 2 carucates; it was then valued at 10*l.* but at the survey at 15*l. per ann.* and was one leuca long, and one broad, and paid 2*s.* gelt.⁶

Bishop Beaufoe had invaded, or seized on and retained as his own right, and a lay fee, 8 freemen who held 3 carucates of land, and 14 borderers who held under the said Bishop Ailmer, who had paunage for 10 swine, 5 acres of meadow, and 5 carucates, valued at 40*s.* after at 50*s.* and William Denvers had a moiety of this land.⁷

DEAN AND CHAPTER OF NORWICH'S MANOR.

Herbert Bishop of Norwich, on his founding the priory of Norwich, gave this lordship to it, and was held by the prior and convent of Norwich.

In the time of King John, William le Ken granted to the prior of Norwich a freedom from all suits, and dues, to his hundred of North Greenhow, (as may be seen at large in the account of that hundred,) and in the 3d of Edward I. the prior was found to have the lete, assise of bread and beer, freewarren, and a pilllory.

About this time, mention is made of certain tenants belonging to them, called Lanceti, who were to have their sheep in the lord's fold, from Martinmas to Candlemas, and then to have their ewes out of the fold, and to pay foldage, but their other sheep continued in the lord's fold the whole year. A Lancelagium seemed to contain 8 acres.

John de Rudham, by deed sans date, granted to William de Kirkely, the prior, 5s. rent per ann.

In the 15th of Henry III. William prior of Norwich, granted to Thomas de Elmham 15 acres to be held of the prior, &c. paying 4s. 4d. per ann. and in the 6th of Edward II. Thomas de Hindringham aliened to the priory a tenement and 2 acres.

The temporalities of this priory were valued in 1421, at 38*l.* 3s. 10d. per ann. and this lordship is now in the Dean and Chapter of Norwich: and in the 1st of Richard III. Henry Heydon, Esq. gave 55 acres of land and pasture, September 23, to the prior, &c. on a release of 32s. rent due to them per ann.

NOWER'S MANOR.

In the reign of King John, William de Nuers, Roger de Burnham, and Julian his wife, Robert Fitz Ralph, and Alice his wife, and Robert de Utlage, held 9 parts of 2 fees here, in Beeston, &c. and in the reign of Henry III. Alan de Noers, had a quarter of a fee of Hugh Lord Bardolf, and he of the Bishop of Norwich, and at the said time William de Noers, a quarter of a fee also.

A fine was levied in the 14th of Edward I. between Robert Rutenev, querent, and Cecilia, daughter of Alan aforesaid, John Le Merchand and Oliva his wife, Peter de Sharnton and Mary his wife, Alan, son of Thomas, and Elizabeth, (sister as I take it and coheirs with Cecilia) who conveyed messuages and lands to Robert.

William de Nowers, in the 3d of Edward III. had the fourth part of a fee, and in the 20th of that King, Rose de Nowers, and John, son of Adam de Bulwere, of this town, passed by fine to John de Raudworth, the moiety of 5s. 70 parts of land, 8 of meadow, 4 of pasture, and 30s. rent here, in Binham, &c. in the 28th of that reign, which Rose, widow of William de Nowers, held for life.

In the 3d of Henry IV. Thomas de Estle, or Astley, held a quarter of a fee of the Lord Bardolf, and he of the Bishop, late Nowers; and John Kirkman, and his parceners, William Ingram, Thomas Wake, and John Gloos, held a quarter of a fee of the said Thomas, which Alan Noers late held; and Thomas Astley, Esq. son and heir, settled this manor in the 7th of Henry VII. as a jointure on Elizabeth, daughter of William Clipsby, of Oby; in the 30th of Henry VIII. Thomas Astley, and John, his son and heir, sold it to Sir Roger Townsend of Rainham; and George Townsend, Esq. with Alice his wife, passed it in Queen Mary's reign, to Thomas Townsend, Esq. from the *Townsend*s it was conveyed about 1570, to Martin Hastings, who sold it to Giles Mabbs, or Nabbs, Gent. he left two daughters and coheirs; Mary, married to Riches Brown, Esq. of Falmodeston, and ——— married to James Ward, Gent. of Hindringham.

WILBY'S MANOR.

Another part of this great episcopal lordship was in the hands of the ancient family of De Burgolion; and Ralph, son of John de Rudham, held half a fee, of Robert Burgolion, in the time of King Henry III. and he of the Bishop; and in the 3d of Edward I. William le Burguillon, of Suaring, was found to hold the same, and to have enfeoffed John de Rudham, of the same, in his life time, for which reason the jury was in doubt whether Walter, his heir, should be in ward to William Lord Bardolf, who held it of the Bishop, or no, this being a greater enfeoffment than Kerdeston manor, from William de Say. Eschaet.

In the 13th of Edward II. Ralph de Rudham, by deed dated, confirmed to Roger Hervey, of this town, certain herbage lands, and John Agar, Joan Hervey, &c. held a quarter of a fee, in the 20th of that King, of Hugh de Burgelyon, and at the said time, John de Wilby, and Joan Hervey held half a fee of Ralph de Astley, and he of the Bishop, which Ralph, son of John de Rudham, formerly had; it appears that Hervey's part was 5 messnages, 84 acres of land, 16 of meadow here, and in Thursford.

In the 5th of Henry VI. Thomas Beaufort Duke of Exeter, died seized (as lord of Wrongey, the Bardolf's estate) of three quarters of a fee here, &c. held by William Shelton, and the fourth part of one held by John Wilby, and in the 22d of Henry VIII. this lordship of Wilby was possessed by John Hall of Halsted, in Lincolnshire.

PERNOW HALL.

This was also a lordship belonging to the Bishop's fee, and in the reign of Edward III. was possessed by John de Egmere, and is said to be held of the manor of Nowers, in this town.

In the 13th of Henry VI. Richard Chappe grants to Henry Beaufort, Cardinal and Bishop of Winchester, William de la Pole, Earl of Suffolk, Sir Thomas Kerdeston, Sir Thomas Todenham, William Billingford, Esq. &c. his manor of Parnow-hall, in Hindringham, to them and their heirs for ever, dated at this town on Saturday next before the feast of St. Philip and St. James: his seal is about the bigness of a crown piece, and is,—gules, a fess wavy, between six billets, argent.

After this it came to the Welbys, who held it of the Astleys, lords of the manor of Nowers. Richard Wilby and Dorothy his wife, passed it in the 32d of Henry VIII. to Edmund Framingham.

George Davy, of Gunthorp, son of Thomas Davy, was found to die seized of it, September 4, in the last year of Philip and Mary, and Richard Davy, was found his son and heir aged 30, and was purchased of Christopher Davy, by Richard Godfrey, Esq. about the 20th of Elizabeth, who sealed with -----, three bulls heads caboshed.

COLDHAM- HALL.

William Baynard had this hall conveyed to him, in the 16th of Edward IV. by Thomas Gloys and Margaret his wife, with 124 acres of land, and a foldcourse, in this town, Bathele, &c.

In the 27th of Henry VIII. John Wotton, and William Fermer, Esq. held a fee of the Bishop, and paid 3s. 6d. every 30 weeks, to Norwich castle guard; and in the following year, the said John surrendered his right herein, with the liberty of a foldage, to Miles Groos; and in the 31st of the said King, William Farmer conveyed his to Margaret Stamford.

After this it was possessed by Francis Bedingfeld, who sold it in the 34th of Elizabeth to Richard Godfrey, Esq. abovementioned, and --- Godfrey, Esq. a master in chancery, sold it to Isaac le Heup, Esq.

Besides the abovementioned lordships, the King had a small fee at the survey, in this town, his great manor of Wighton extending here; viz. half a carucate,⁸ but it might be made up one whole carucate.

In the reign of Henry III. Thomas, son of Gilbert, the merchant, Adam Fitz Robert, &c. held 17 acres, which Jeffrey Story sold to them of the free manor belonging to Wighton, 20 years (as it is said) before the reign of King Henry.

After this Gregory de Holkham held the 40th part of a fee here, of the manor of Wyston, then in the hands of the Earl Warren, who held in capite.

Osbern, bishop of Exeter, (as I take it,) had also an interest here, 32 acres of land, and a carucate which 3 freemen held before the Conquest, valued at 10s. the King and the Earl had always the sac; and these three men, which Berard holds of the Bishop, Drogo de Beuraria's men or tenants laid claim to, as belonging to their lord Drogo's fee.⁹

Osbern had also the manor of Bauham, and Wica, in Gilcross hundred;—of Tasburgh, and Fornsett, in Depewade hundred, given him by the Conqueror.

This tenure (as I conceive) was held soon after by some of the Bishop of Norwich's men, and united, soon after this, to some of the manors abovementioned.

Drogo de Beuraria, or Drew de Beveres, was a noble Fleming, who attended the Conqueror on the invasion, and made by him Lord of Holderness, in Yorkshire, with a grant of these manors in Norfolk; Basingham, and Berningham, in North Erpingham hundred;—Sarlingham, in Heinsted hundred;—Burgh, and Erpingham, in South Erpingham hundred; with this of Hindringham, which Ulf, and Osward held for a manor, with 2 carucates of land in King Edward's time, when there were 8 villains, and 8 borderers, 2 carucates in demean, with 3 acres of meadow, valued then at 4*l.* at the survey at 30*s.* per ann.¹

H O L K H A M.

THE principal lordship of this town was, after the conquest, granted to Tovi, one of the Conqueror's attendants, on the deprivation of Ketel, a freeman, who was lord in the reign of King Edward, when there belonged to it, 3 carucates of land, 2 villains, 8 borderers, with 5 servi; there were two carucates in demean, one and an half among the tenants, &c. with a rood of meadow, a mill, 4 cows, &c. 21 swine, &c. and 300 sheep; there were 18 socmen, with all their customary dues, who held 56 acres of land, and 2 carucates, and of these he had the soc.

To this lordship 3 freemen were added; two of them were under the protection of Herald, and one under that of Gert, and held a carcate and half of land under Tovi's predecessor; 9 borderers and 7 socmen, with 4 carucates, and 16 acres of land belonged to them, &c. the whole was then valued at 6*l.* afterwards, and at the survey, at 8*l. per ann.* it was one leuca broad, and long, and paid 2*s. gelt.*³

Tovi had, besides this manor, the grant of the following lordships, Hackford, in the hundred of Fourhoe;—Stokes, Thorp, Newton, and Keningham, in Humbleyard hundred, and one in Heinstede hundred.

Soon after the survey, probably on the death of Tovi, it came as an eschaet to the Crown, and was granted by King William II. to his great favourite William de Albini, his butler (Pincerna Regis) ancestor of the Earls of Arundel, lord of Wymondham, Rysing Castle, and Buckenham, who enfeoffed Hubert de Munchensi thereof, ancestor of the Lords de Munchensi; and Agnes widow of Warin de Monchensi held it in dower in the 33d of Henry II.

Sir Warin de Monchensi had a charter of freewarren, in the reign of King Henry III. and Thomas de Holchan released to him in 1227, common of pasture for 200 sheep, 7 cows, with all his right in two marshes, called Burgh marsh, and Little marsh, saving his own right of common.

William Lord Monchensi, his son and heir, left a daughter and sole heir, Dionisia, who brought it by marriage in 1296, to Sir Hugh de Vere, a younger son of Robert Earl of Oxford, being held of the Lord Tateshal, who married one of the heiresses of the Earl of Arundel, by half a fee; and had a sheepwalk, the lete, wreck at sea, &c. and having no issue, this lordship came to Adomare de Valentia Earl of Pembroke, son of William de Valentia Earl of Pembroke, and Joan his wife, sister of William, Lord Monchensy, father of the said Dionysia.

On the death of Adomare de Valentia, in the 17th of Edward II.

and a division of his inheritance, it was assigned to David de Strabolgi, in right of Joan his wife, daughter of John Comyn, Lord of Badenagh, in Tindale, by Joan his wife, one of the sisters and coheirs, of the said Adomare, where it remained, till his descendant David Earl of Athol, on his death, in the 49th of Edward III. left it to his two daughters and coheirs, (Elizabeth and Philippa), by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of the Lord Ferrers of Groby.

Elizabeth, the eldest, married first Sir Thomas Percy, and secondly Sir John Scroop, and had livery of a moiety of this lordship, in 1377; and in 1388, being then a widow, conveyed it to Sir John Halsham, of Kent, and Philippa his wife, (her sister,) who had for her first husband, Sir Ralph Percy, brother of Sir Thomas.

In 1395, John Halsham, Esq. was found to be son and heir of Philippa, and was lord in the 3d of Henry V. Sir Hugh de Halsham died lord in the 20th of Henry VI. Petronella his wife surviving, when Joan, daughter and heir of Richard Halsham, his brother, wife of John Lewkenor, Esq. of Goring in Sussex, was his heir, John Lewkenor, Esq. in the 4th of Edward IV. settled it by fine on Thomas Randolf, with the manor of West Lexham.

After this it was in the family of Boleyns of Blickling. Sir William Boleyn, second son of Sir Jeff. Boleyn, (Lord Mayor of Loudon,) died possessed of it in 1505.

Thomas Gresham, Esq. purchased it of Sir James Boleyn, by fine, in the 4th and 5th of Philip and Mary. By an inquisition taken May 9, in the 39th of Elizabeth, the Lady Ann Gresham, widow of Sir Thomas, was found to have held the manor of Holkham, and Burgh-hall; and William Read, Esq. was her son and heir, by her first husband, William Read, Esq. This was held of the heirs of Tateshall, by half a fee.

It appears she had two flocks of sheep, one called Holkham-Burgh flock, containing 457 sheep, the other called Southouse flock, containing 469.

In the 21st of King James, the Lady Mary Read, widow of Sir William Read, possessed it.

Soon after it was purchased by William Wheatly, Esq; prothonary of the Common Pleas, who was also lord of Hill-Hall, in this town, and left it to Anthony his son and heir, who by Anne his wife, daughter of William Armiger, Esq. of North Creke, had 3 daughters and coheirs; Muriel, the eldest, brought it by marriage to John Coke; Esq. fourth son of the famous Sir Edward Coke, lord chief justice of England, as I shall show in the pedigree of that family.

Part of this town was a beruite to the King's manor of Wighton, held by the Confessor, and at the survey by the Conqueror; it contained 3 carucates of land, but it lay waste then.*

The Conqueror had also a carucate of land, of which Alwin a freeman was deprived: this also belonged to his manor of Wighton; and there were 3 borderers, with 7 soemen, who had 2 carucates among them, and him, who held the land.

This seems to be possessed by William de Ken, lord of Wighton, in the reign of King Richard I. and King John; and by his son William, in that of Henry III. who forfeited it on his rebellion; and it was granted by that King to Philip de Aibini, (as the lands of the Normans;) who was lord in the 29th year of that reign, but in the 32d of the said King, it was conferred on William de Valentia Earl of Pembroke, the King's half brother, and his son, Adomare de Valentia, inherited it, and so it became united to the lordship abovementioned, and came to John Coke, Esq.

Alan Earl of Richmond had in this town, at the survey, in Warham, and in Well, the tenure of 11 soemen, and 6 borderers, who held 2 carucates of land, and an acre of meadow, valued at 40s. Ribald was enclosed of it by Alan. Edwi, the Conqueror's steward, laid claim to one of them, who had 30 acres, as the hundred witnesses;⁵ of this see in Warham.

William Earl Warren had also a small fee, which Walter held under him, half a carucate of land; this was part of the manor of Burnham Thorp, and valued with it.⁶

These were the capital lords at the survey; some account of those who held under them here follows.

Two soemen who belonged to the King's manor of Wighton, with 10s. rent in land here, were given by King Henry II. in his 3d year, to Roger de Tony and Ida his wife, in free marriage.

In the 12th of Henry III. Bertram de Holkham had an interest here; and in the 20th of that King, Peter de Holkham held a quarter of a fee, Richard Hacon the 16th part of one, and Walter Dakeny, the 6th part, of the Earl of Arundel; William Venter held also at the same time the 16th part of a fee, and John, son of Adam le Bret, a quarter of a fee, of the honour of Arundel.

Baldwin de Akeney had a lordship in the aforesaid reign, which came to John, his son; and Baldwin, son of John de Akeney, and Alice his wife, had the letc, in the 14th of Edward I. which the lord of Wighton formerly held, also tenements and lands which were royal demesns, with freewarren, pillory, tumbrel, as granted by King Henry III. to his ancestors, with a weekly mercate on Munday, and a fair on the feast of the decollation of St. John Baptist.

Here was a great fish mercate, and 4d. per ann. was paid for the fish stalls to the lord of Wighton.

On an inquisition taken in the 34th of the said King before the stewards of Sir Hugh de Veer, Sir William de Calthorp, (who held the Earl Warren's fee) and the prior of Walsingham, concerning the fold-courses, the jury find that there were 9 common fold courses;⁷ 2 belonging to Creke abbey, 3 to the prior of Walsingham, 4 to the prior of Peterston, Martin Godwyn, and John de Brett, with others near the salt marsh, belonging to Sir Hugh de Veer, the prior of Walsingham, and the abbot of West Derham.

Burnham, and Cecilia his wife, conveyed by fine to Richard Neal, of Burnham, and Catherine his wife, lands here, and in Swainsthorp, held of the Earl of Pembroke, by the fourth part of a fee; and the said Richard held it in 1323, and in the 20th of Edward III.

The tenants of Walter Hakon were found to have the 16th part of a fee, John Kirkham, a quarter of a fee, of the heirs of Sir Roger le Brome, of the Arundel fee, which John, son of Adam le Brett formerly held; and Jeffrey Miniot, a quarter of a fee late Eustach. de Brett's, and John Veutre, the 16th part of a fee, late William Veuter's.

Thomas Neal in the 50th of Edward III. was found to have held a lordship here, with a tenement in Kypton, by Wesenham: Margaret, his sister and coheir, was the wife of John Quarles, and Mary, the other sister, was the wife of John de Lyng.

In 1384, John de Holkham died lord of a manor here, in Holme, and Ringstead, as appears by his will, dated on St. Stephen's day,⁸ wherein he mentions Margaret his wife, and Gregory his son, and gives to John, his son, the manor of Burnham Deepdale; in the said year, Ed. Holkham, Esq. living in the abbey of Holm, was buried there.

By the inquisitions taken in the 3d of Henry IV. Thomas Dikeman of Old Lynn held then the 16th part of a fee late Hakon's, Sir Robert Knolls, William Calthorp, Simon Veutre, John Hicklyng, and the prior of Walsingham here, in Burnham, and Wighton, the 3d part of a fee of the honour of Arundel; Gregory de Holkham a quarter of a fee of the said honour, and Simon Veutre here, and in Stivekey, half a fee of the dutchy of Lancaster.

Edmund Lucas, and John, had at the same time a quarter of a fee, of Arundel, in right of Jeff. Neal, deceased, as his heir.

Thomas Lucas, Esq. of Holkham, lord of Neal's manor, bequeaths his body to be buried in the church of St. Withburga of Holkham, by his testament,⁹ (dated February, 25, 1446) and gives this lordship, with those of Surlingham, and Swainthorp, the advowson of St. Laurence's church in Laringsete, the manor of Kypton in Wesenham, and Raynham, to his wife Etheldreda, till his daughter Elizabeth came of age, then the moiety of Kypton was to be his daughter's; remainder of the whole to his daughter and her heirs.

In 1533, William Wootton, Gent. and John Wootton, Esq. convey it to William Pepys, Gent.; and Thomas Pepys, Gent. died seized of it by the name of Neels, alias Lucas manor, in 1569, and orders it by his will to be sold. In 1572, it was possessed by William Wheatly, Esq. who was afterwards, by the purchase of the Greshams estate, lord of the greatest part of this town, and so descended to John Coke, Esq. as above shown.

In 1247, a fine was levied between Hugh de Cressi, petent, and Ralph de Akeny, tenant of half a messuage, and half a carucate of land in Holkham, which Ralph had, who granted to Symon, prior of Petreston, the moiety thereof to the west, except the capital messuage, and the windmill, which were to remain to Ralph, with a proviso, that Ralph, or his heirs should not set up a fold, but that the prior and his successors might, as belonging to their moiety.

The prior had a patent in the 11th of Edward II. to purchase 50 acres of land, and 4s. rent of William Bulman, in this town: but in the 28th of Henry VI. the prior of Walsingham had a grant of these lands, and the said priory; and so continued till the Dissolution, when they came to the Crown.

King Edward VI. in 1549, granted Peterstone priory manor, and lands in this town, &c. to the see of Norwich, where it remains at this time.

The temporalities of this priory were valued at 8s. 8d. in 1428.

In 1538, Avery Gryggs, Esq. was returned to have held lately the quarter of a fee of the Bishop of Norwich.

Creke abbey had an interest herein.

Reginald, son of Jeffrey de Holkham, granted by fine to William, abbot of Creke, a messuage, and 40 acres of land in the 31st of Henry III. and their temporalities were valued in 1428, at 58s. 5d. ob. and those of the monks of Thetford at 16d.—of West Derham 96s. 6d.

Lands here in the tenure of Roger Hopkins, containing 40 acres, granted July 27, in the 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary, to Sir John Parrot; also 18 acres granted in the 19th of Elizabeth, to Ed. Grimston, November 28.

The tenths of the town were 9l. 10s.—Deducted 1l. 10s.

The great antiquary and historian Camden, derives this family of Coke, from “William Coke,¹ of Dodington,² in South Greenhow hundred, Norfolk, mentioned in a deed, in 1206, who held also in the “said year, the lordship of South Burgh in Mitford hundred, and “conveyed lands there, held by knight’s service, to William, son of “Gelelan, by Felice his wife. William had Jeffrey his son, residing “at Dodington, in the 36th year of Henry III. who married Margaret, daughter and coheir of Aten de Attlebrigg, and left Thomas Coke of Dodington, living in the 50th of that King, and father of “Thomas, of the said town, living in the 44th of Edward I. who had “John Coke of Dodington, in the 9th of Edward II. and was father “of Sir Thomas Coke, lord of Dodington, Fouldon, &c. by his wife “Eleunor, daughter of ----- Stanlaw; as may be seen in Colling’s History of the Peerage.”

To this I shall add that Dodington abovementioned should be Didlington, a town adjoining to Fouldon, and that Thomas Coke of Didlington, in the 24th of Henry III. was found to hold one fee and a half of the Earl Warren, in that town, and that Roger Coke held the same, as lord, in the 34th of that King, had view of frank pledge, and Robert Coke was lord in the 9th of Edward I. and had the assise of bread, beer, &c.

In the History of the Peerage, it is also said, that “John Coke was “lord of Dodington, in the 9th of Edward II. and father of Sir “Thomas Coke, who served in the wars of France, was lord of Dodington and Foulden, created a knight banneret, and in the 22d of “Edward II. had a grant of 100l. per ann. In the 25th of that “King, he is styled late Seneschal of Gascoign, had a grant of a “place, called De La Trene, of the value of 200l. per ann. for life, “lately enjoyed by William Ferreol, a rebel: his son Thomas dying “s. p. his inheritance descended to John Coke, second son, brother

“ of Sir Thomas, who had a son John, and he a son Robert, who married Agnes, daughter and heir of Roger Crispin.”

In an old pedigree that I have seen, I find that John Coke, Esq. of Croxtwick, in Norfolk, was father of Robert: this John,³ (as I take it) was son of John Coke, the brother of Sir Thomas, and removed from Croxtwick, to East Ruston, and was father of Robert Coke, of East Ruston, Esq. who married Agnes, daughter and heir of Roger Crispin, Esq. of Hapsburgh in Norfolk.

³ John Coke, the brother of Sir Thomas, was living in 1632, at Whitwell, in Norfolk.

The Right Honourable Thomas Coke Earl of Leicester, his father, died April 20, 1759, and was buried at Titteshall, the burial-place of his ancestors.

The Honourable Wenman Coke, Esq. member of parliament for Derby, is heir apparent.

The town takes its name from its site, lying near to some remarkable hills, Hoec-tig-Ham; and, as tradition says, was one of the country seats of Anna King of the East-Angles; and Withburga, his youngest daughter, who was sainted for her piety, (of whom see in East-Derham.) was here born and educated.

It was anciently a place of consequence, and eminency for trade and shipping. In the 4th year of Edward II. the King sent his writ to this town, Burnham, Snetterley, Lynn and Yarmouth, to provide ships to be sent to Scotland, the King being then at war with the Scots;⁵ and this town, with that of Burnham Deepdale, was appointed to provide one ship in the reign of Edward III. in order, with others, to transport the King's army from Dublin, in Ireland, to Scotland.

But what renders this village highly remarkable in this present age, is the noble, stately, sumptuous palace, erected by the late Right Honourable Lord of it, which may be justly said to be in all respects, one of the best houses (if not the best) in all Great Britain; and may it so remain a splendid monument of his great worth and dignity, to latest posterity!

The building of Holkham-house was finished by Margaret, Countess Dowager of Leicester, in the year 1764, having expended therein upwards of eleven thousand pounds since Lord Leicester's death; and the furnishing of the house was completed in the year 1766, at the additional expense of more than three thousand pounds, by her Ladyship.

Influenced by a tender regard to indigent, and widowed age, in the year 1755, her Ladyship built and endowed, and in 1763, further endowed, in this parish, an alms-house for the maintenance of three men and three women, to have sixpence a day each; one chaldron of coals each, annually, and to have new cloaths once in two years; to be elected by the possessor of Holkham-house, out of some parish in which the estates thereto belonging lie: the building and furnishing the six dwellings, and purchasing the rents and estates for the support and maintenance of the whole, cost her Ladyship about two thousand three hundred pounds.

In the spring, 1767, her Ladyship began to repair Holkham-church. All the outside walls and stone window frames were repaired throughout; the roof made strong, and part of it new leaded; the inside of the whole stuccoed and cieled; the floors entirely new paved; the pews and seats all new, and erected in a regular form. The pulpit, desks, communion table, and rails thereto, all mahogany; a marble font; plate for the communion; linen and books for all the services; the old monuments restored: the vestry room fitted up, and all the windows new glazed. The whole was finished at Easter, 1768, at the sole expense of her Ladyship, amounting to about one thousand pounds.

A book of this nature, as a public record, with great propriety endeavours to eternize the memory of those truly great and noble benefactors, to whom works of consummate excellence, and public acts of piety and charity, have deservedly given superior distinction in the age in which they lived.

His Lordship's arms were per pale, gules and azure, three eaglets displayed, argent, (as granted to Sir Edward Coke the judge, by Robert Cook, Clarencieux.) crest, on a chapeau, gules turned up ermine, an ostrich, argent, with an horseshoe in his beak, azure; supporters, two ostriches, argent, gorged and collared, with a ducal coronet.

Motto, Prudens, qui patiens. The quarterings of this family see in Tittleshale.

The CHURCH stands east of the town, near the sea, on a hill, and is a noted sea mark, commanding an extensive prospect over the great German ocean; the hill seems to have been thrown up in the Saxon age, and Danish invasions, and to have served as a speculum or fort; and there is another hill at a little distance, where several human bones, and pieces of iron armour have been found in digging, and was probably a large tumulus.

It is dedicated to St. Withburga, and has a nave, north and south isle, with a chancel, all covered with lead. At the south-west corner of the south isle, stands a strong four-square tower embattled, with 4 bells; the lower part serves as a porch to the church; the north and south isles extend on each side of the chancel, and serve as buttresses against the raging wind, &c. of the sea. The east end of both these isles were chapels, and are inclosed.

In the chapel on the south side, against the east wall, is a large marble monument,—To the reviving memory of William Wheatley, Esq; and Martha Skinner his wife, and Anthony Wheatley, Esq; and Anne Armiger his wife, and also of Muriel Coke, late wife of John Coke of Holkham, in the county of Norfolk, Esq; the fourth son of the Right Honourable Sir Edward Coke, knight, late chief judge of the court of Common Pleas, and afterwards chief judge of the King's Bench, and one of his Majesty's privy council, by Bridget Paston, one of the coheirs of John Paston, Esq; her father; and the said Muriel Coke was sole daughter and heir of Anthony Wheatley, by Anne Armiger his wife, and the said Anthony was son of William Wheatley, Esq; late prothonotary in the court of Common Pleas, by Martha Skinner, daughter of Anthony Skinner, of Warwickshire, Esq; and the said Anne Armiger, wife of the said Anthony was one of the daughters of William Armiger the elder, late of North Creak in Norfolk, Esq; by Anne Manjuer his wife, sole sister and heir of Richard Mansuer, Esq. her brother. Her loving husband, John Coke, Esq; to whom she bare six sons, and nine daughters, and lyeth here buried, erected this monument to her memory; she died the 4th of July, in the year 1636.

On this monument are small pourtraitures of the abovementioned William Wheatley, and Martha his wife: of Anthony and Anne his wife; of John Coke and Muriel his wife, on their knees, with desks before them, and these arms; quarterly in the first and fourth, sable a fess, ermin, between three talbots, passant, argent; in the 2d and 3d, argent, a bend between two bears salient, sable, both borne by the name of Wheatly; and impaling sable, a chevron, between three griffins heads erased, argent, Skinner; Wheatley impaling azure, two bars, argent, between three helmets, or, Armiger; also Coke impaling Wheatley.

On the basis of the monument are several children kneeling.

Against the south wall, over an altar tomb, is a mural monument,

To the pious memory of Miles Armiger, gent. the son of William Armiger, deceased, late of North Creak, Esq; which William, by his wife, Anne Mansuer, the sole sister and heir of her brother, Richard Mansuer, Esq. had issue, William his eldest son, who married Catherine, the sole daughter of John Hoe, Esq. by whom he had issue ten sons and nine daughters; Miles the 2d, and Mansuer his 3d son. Anne his eldest daughter, married to Anthony Wheatley of Hill Hall in Holkham, Esq. who had issue, one daughter. Susan the 2d daughter, married to John Fountaine, of Salle, in Norfolk, Esq. one of his majesty's justices of the peace. Jane the 3d daughter, married to John Osborne of Tile-Hall in Lachingdon, Esser. Miles died a bachelor May 10, 1639, aged 64 years.

Here lyeth interred Susan Doyley, only daughter and heir of Edmund Doyley, Esq; and Bridget his wife. Edmund was the only son and heir of Sir Henry Doyley knight, of Shottesham-Hall in Norfolk. Bridget was the eldest daughter of John, son of Sir Edw. Coke, &c. she died February 18, in the 5th year of her age, 1639.

On the pavement a gravestone,

In memory of Jane Osborne, late wife of John Osborne of Tiled-Hall in Lachingdon, Essex, Esq; daughter of William Armiger, of North Creak, who died March 26, 1618, ætat. 22.

Orate p. a'ia. Robi Dockyng, qui obt. - - - 1458.

The church had anciently two medieties, one belonging to the King's manor, the other to that of Toci, which coming into the Crown, the patronage of both rested there, till granted with those lordships from the Crown.

Hubert de Montchensy, lord of one, by deed, sans date, and Gilbert Fitz-Richard, lord of Cley, gave to the priory of Castleacre, two parts of their tithes in Holkham, and Cley juxta mare, of all things tithable;⁶ —witnesses, Jeffrey de Tresgoz, Henry de Clava, Ralph Fitz-Eudo, Roger de Montchensi, Warin de Montchensi, his brother.

An agreement was made between John, the prior of Castleacre, and Simon, abbot of West Derham, reciting that the prior of Castleacre had let to the abbot two parts of the corn tithes of the demean lands, formerly Sir Warin de Montchensy's, in Holkham, at the yearly rent of 40s. the abbot to be at all charges, and in default of the rent, or any part thereof, to pay 20s.

The said abbot and convent tie all the lands and tenements which they hold of the fee of the Earl Warren in Norfolk, that the bailiff of the said Earl, for the time being, may distrain goods and chattels, found in the said tenements and lands, and keep them back till the prior was fully satisfied for the said 40s. rent, and 20s. by way of damage, for not keeping the term of payment; dated the day after the feast of St. Mary Magdalen, 1304.

William Lord Montchensi gave a moiety of this church to the abbey of West Derham, and King John.⁷ in his 2d year confirmed it with all its rights. This was valued at 35 marks, and was appropriated by John Bishop of Norwich.

On this a vicarage was settled called Richard's vicarage, valued at 6 marks.

1339, William de Frausham, presented to a moiety as rector, by the abbot, &c. of West Derham.

King John, in his 16th year, granted to the monastery of St. Martin de Monte Viterbij, in Tuscany, 30 marks per ann. out of a moiety of this church: witnesses, William Archbishop of Burdeaux, R. Tetragor, episcopo, and signed by Ralph de Nevill, (the King's chancellor, as I take it, then dean of Litchfield, and after Bishop of Chichester) dated May 26, at Partnay.

This mediety was also valued at 35 marks, and appropriated to the monastery of St. Martin, and a vicarage was settled, called Walter's, valued at 5 marks. This mediety was let to farm to the prior and convent of Walsingham.

1321, Walter de Helweton, presented by Aymer de Valence, Earl of Pembroke, to this mediety, as rector; who recovered it in the King's court against the abbey of St. Martin, and so set aside, the title not being clear, and no Bishop consenting to the appropriation.

Stephen Herring presented to this mediety as rector.

In 1347, the abbot of West Derham, having obtained titles to both these medieties, and advowsons, Will. Bishop of Norw. this year, re-appropriated them, settled the 2 vicarages again, and consolidated them, Frausham and Herring resigning their 2 medieties or rectories, and Herring was instituted to the consolidated vicarages, the Bishop reserving a pension of 4 marks per ann. to the see, and 5s. per ann. to the sacrist of Norwich priory, and the nomination to the vicarage.

1347, Steph Herring, nominated by the Bishop, to the convent of West Derham.

In the church were the guilds of St. Withburga, and of Corpus Christi.

On May 2, in the 3d of Edward VI. the rectory and patronage of the vicarage, lately in West Derham, being in the Crown, was granted to Sir John Clere; and about the said time, Dr. Thirlby Bishop of Norwich released to the King 59s. 8d. pension issuing out of the rectory.

The present valor is 8*l.* 13s. 4d. and is discharged. The patronage was in the Earl of Leicester.

This family's name is of great antiquity: Coke or Cocke (from whence it is derived) is the name of a river (so called by the ancient Britons;) in Norfolk and other counties, as Cokesford, and Cock-Thorpe, Cocker, or Cockre, in Cumberland, Cokeley, in Suffolk, &c.

HOUGHTON,

CALLLED Houghton in the Hole, by the hills, and in old writings Hacton, from its site by the hills, was a beruite to the King's manor of Wighton, in King Edward's time, and remained so at the survey; 4 carucates of land belonged to it, 5 villains, and 5 borderers, one carucate in demean, and 3 carucates among the tenants, with pasture for 1000 sheep, 3 acres of meadow, with 2 mills, and was half a leuca long, and half broad, paying 4d. gelt.⁸

The family of De Vallibus or Vaux, were early enfeoffed of this lordship, and was held in the reign of Henry II. and King Stephen, by Robert de Vaux, and Sir Oliver de Vaux was lord of Hocton, in the reign of Henry III. held in capite by the service of 20s. per ann. to the King, as lord of the hundred.

Sir John de Vaux dying in the 16th of Edward I. it came to his two daughters and coheirs, Petronilla, and Maud, who held it by the payment of 20s. to the hundred, and a quarter of wheat per ann. and had the lete, a gallows, and other royal liberties.

NERFORD'S MANOR.

Petronilla married Sir William de Nerford, and held a moiety of it in her right, and in this family it continued till issue male failing, on the death of Sir John de Nerford, in the 38th of Edward III. it descended to his only daughter, Margery, who died possessed in 1417, leaving it (as I take it) to the Lord Cobham, and so passed as in Nerford manor, in Holt.

After this it came to the Lexham's, and William Lexham was lord, in the 31st of Henry VI. and one of the same name left it in the 15th of Henry VII. to his four daughters and coheirs.

ROSS'S MANOR.

Maud, youngest daughter and coheir of Sir John de Vaux, had also a moiety, which by her marriage came to William Lord Ross of Hamlake, in which family it continued, and came, after the attainder of Thomas, Lord Ross,⁹ to his eldest daughter, Elizabeth, who married Sir Robert Maners, whose son, George Lord Ross, inherited it, and was sold by Henry Earl of Rutland, his descendant.

In 1551, Martin Hastings, Gent. presented to the vicarage, but whether he was lord does not appear.

Gyles Symonds, of Hilderston, Gent. was lord of the town in the year 1571, and had livery of it, with the manor of Whitwell, by Refham, about the 1st of Elizabeth, and Henry Sidney, Esq. was lord in the 42d of Elizabeth.[†]

In 1720, Colonel Lee possessed it, and his son, Henry Lee Warner, Esq. died lord, and his son inherits it.

The tenths were 2*l.* 6*s.* —Deductions none.

The CHURCH was dedicated to St. Giles, and was a rectory, valued at 12 marks; on its appropriation to the priory of St. Faith's, in Horsham, a vicarage was settled, valued at 5 marks, and the Peter-pence were 6*d.* ob. the present valor is 8*l.*

Q U A R L E S.

IN the book of Domesday, it is wrote Guervelei, and was then held by Turstin, son of Guido, of Roger Bigot, and was a beruite belonging to the manor of North Creke, with one carucate of land, and 5 borderers, and valued in Creke.

The King's manor also of Wighton extended into this township, to which there belonged half a carucate of land; but at the survey it is said there was no land belonging to this part, and that there might be one carucate; the whole was 4 furlongs long, and 4 broad, and paid 6*d*. gelt, and called Huerveles.²

Turstin abovementioned, son of Guido, was enfeoffed by Roger Bigot of North Creke manor, with this. He was ancestor of the family of De Creke, and in the beginning of Henry the Third's reign, the tenants of Robert, son of Ralph Quarles, held one half fee of the Crekes, and they of Bigot Earl of Norfolk;³ and Maud, late wife of

Martin de Quarvels, in the 41st of that King, recovered seisin of certain tenements here, against Thomas de Burgo; and in his 43d year, a fine was levied between Petronilla de Orwell, of Cambridgeshire, and Nicholas de Wharffes and Amabilia his wife, by which Petronilla conveyed the advowson of the church of this town to Nicholas, and his wife, and Petronilla had rent here, granted to her. William Quarles was, in the reign of Henry III. a benefactor to Creke abbey.

Sir John de Thorp was Lord in the 35th of Edward I. and in the 4th of Edward III. Edmund de Baconthorp held it of Robert de Thorp, he of the Bygots Earls of Norfolk.

Sir Stephen de Hales aliened this manor with 145 acres of land, &c. in Holcham, and Burnham, with the rent of 10 marks, to Creke abbey, and in the 3d of Henry IV. the said abbey was found to hold a quarter of a fee, their temporalities, in 1428, being valued at 5*l.*

At the dissolution of that abbey, it was granted with it, Ao. 22 of Henry VII. to Margaret Countess of Richmond, the King's mother, and on her founding of Christ college, in Cambridge, was settled by her on that society, and is held of that college, by lease, at this day.

Here is now a farm, or manor-house, only remaining, and was valued in the reign of King William III. at 120*l. per ann.*

THE CHURCH has been demolished many years, and was in ruins in 1571.

It was anciently a rectory, valued at 5 marks, and the vicarage, after its appropriation to Creke abbey, so valued, and in the patronage of that convent: Peter-pence were 7*d.*

VICARS.

Richard Buckenham occurs vicar about 1300.

1310, sequestration of it granted to Ed. Birston, and in the said year, instituted vicar, presented by the abbot, &c. of Creke.

1330, John Staloun.

1393, Nicholas Walsingham; after this I find no institutions.

In the 30th of Henry III. Ralph, son of Silurus gave 28 acres of land to Symon, the prior, &c. of Petreston, and in the 12th of Edward II. William Bulman and Cecilia his wife, sold lands to them. The prior in the 20th of Edward III. held half a fee of Beatrix de Creke, as said, which the tenants of Robert, son of Ralph de Quarles formerly held, and their temporalities were valued at 47*s. 10d.* in 1428.

STIVEKEY.

THE principal lordship of this town was granted to Rainald son of Ivo, a Norman, of which Ketel was Lord in King Edward's time, and deprived, 2 carucates of land then belonged to it, and 16 borderers, 3 servi, 3 acres of meadow, 2 carucates in demean, and one of the tenants, 2 mills; and when Rainold entered on it there were 3 horses, 30 cows, and 180 sheep; 5 acres with half a carucate of land belonged to the soc. Four socmen were also added to this manor with a carucate and an half of land, which the King gave him livery of; and 7 borderers, with 3 carucates and 2 acres of meadow, one mill, and the moiety of another; this was valued at 4*l.* and 4 tenants paid 40*s.* it was half a leuca long, and half broad, and paid 2*l.* gelt, and there was a church endowed with 30 acres, valued at 2*s.* per ann.*

TURTEVILLE'S AND IRMINGLAND'S MANORS

Were held of the Earls of Clare, to which family the lands of Rainold, son of Ivo, descended.

A family who assumed their name from this village was early enfeoffed thereof. Jeffrey and Hugh de Stivekey lived in the reign of Richard I. and in the 4th year of Henry III. a fine was levied between Philip de Stivekey, and Bartholomew de Stivekey, of 15*l.* per ann land in this town, Warham, and Irestede, in a plea of warrantia charta, whereby Bartholomew grants to Philip 4*l.* 0*s.* 8*d.* rent per ann. of the said land, held by Philip in Warham, &c. in tail, with 10*s.* 4*l.* land in this town, which Beatrix their mother held in dower, and the rest was to be Bartholomew's.

William de Turteville, and Gratiana de Hevingham, (or Heveningham), grant that the land here, and of Cokesford, which Jeffrey de Stivekey their cousin died seized of, was held by knight's service, and that Sibilla his wife was to have a dower therein.

In the 2d of Edward I. and in the 11th of that King, William de Hevingham, and John de Turteville agreed to divide the estate of Jeffrey aforesaid, and to present alternately to the rectory of the church of St. John Baptist, in this town; from this arose the two manors of Turteville's and Heveningham's. William de Hevingham and Isabel his wife were living in the 31st of Edward I.

After this Heveningham's moiety came to the Irminglands, and Ralph de Irmingland presented to the church of St. John Baptist, in this town, as lord in 1327; Ralph and Maud his wife were living in the 5th and 12th of Edward II.

Robert, son of William de Turteville and Alice his wife, held a moiety in 13th of Edward III. and Robert presented to the church aforesaid; and in the 20th of that King, the said Robert and Agnes de Irmingland, widow, (and second wife to Ralph,) held one fee of the honour of Clare, which William de Hevenham formerly held.

In the 3d of Henry IV. Thomas Turteville, and William Irmingland were lords.

After this the Irminglands moiety came to three sisters, and coheirs. — Cecilia, married to Thomas Weston, Anne to Thomas Daubeny,⁵ and Margaret to Jeremy Wodehouse, Esq. 4th son of Sir John Wodehouse, of Kimberley, and after remarried to John Usher; and these daughters of Richard Irmingland, Esq. conveyed their right to John Winter, and John Wynter, Esq. presented as lord to the church of St. John, in 1491.

The other moiety, called Turteville's, was held by William de Turteville in 1383, and seems to be in Sir William Yelverton in 1458; and soon after it came to John Winter, Esq.⁶

In 1497, Sir Henry Heydon presented to the abovementioned church in right of Turteville's manor, and as guardian to Henry, son and heir of John Winter.

Both the moieties being thus united, the Lady Margaret Winter presented in 1504, and Henry Winter, Esq. in 1518.

In the 28th of Henry VIII. John Winter, Gent. conveyed it, with Dorothy his wife, to Sir William Fermour, of East Barsham, Knt. and Thomas Fermour, Esq. by indenture, November 4, in the 12th of Elizabeth, passed it to Thomas Andrews and his heirs, together with the lordships of Stiffkey, Curlew, Est Hall, &c. in this town, and 30 messuages, with the advowsons of the churches of St. John Baptist and St. Mary's of Stivekey; from whom it was conveyed to Sir Nicholas Bacon, lord-keeper in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, who gave it to his son, Sir Nathaniel Bacon, Knt. of the Bath, by whose daughter and coheir, Anne, (married to Sir John Townsend, Knt. of Rainham) it came into the family and so continues, the Right Honourable George Lord Viscount Townsend being the present lord.

In 1764, Mr. Osborne, in his sale of books, had original court rolls of this manor, and that of Eccles by the Sea, then possessed by Sir Nicholas Bacon, lord.

CURLEW'S MANOR.

Richard Curlew was found to hold half a fee of the Earl of Gloucester, in the reign of Henry III. and Alexander de Curlew was impleaded about the 14th of Edward I. for 21 marks due on account of the purchase of a manor here, which he had bought of Richard de Dokkyng, late rector of Cockthorp.

Thomas de Curfew conveyed it in the 7th of Edward II. to William de Turteville, and Robert, son of the said William, and Alice his wife, possessed it in the 13th of Edward I. and so became united to the manor of Turteville.

EAST-HALL.

Geffrey Est was found in the 8th of Edward II. at his death, to have half a fee in this town, Wells and Warham; and in the 20th of Edward III. Thomas Est held it of Robert Turteville, he of Richard Fitz-Simon, who held of the Earl of Clare, formerly possessed by William de Hengham; and John Est, was lord of it in the 4th of Henry IV. after which it was united to Turteville's manor.

STIVEKEY-HALL.

William the Conqueror was lord of a manor, out of which Toke had been ejected, of one carucate of land, and 11 borderers, 6 servi, a carucate and a half in demean, and one of the tenants, 5 cows, 12 swine, 200 sheep, &c. 2 acres of meadow, and the moiety of a mill. And there was a little lordship belonging to this manor that extended into Wells. They were valued in King Edward's reign at 4*l.* at the survey at Cl.

Part of Stivekey was also a beruite to the King's manor of Aleshum, 4 borderers had in King Edward's time a carucate, and there was the same when Godwin received it, and half an acre of meadow; this was valued in Aleshum.⁷

All this was managed for the King, by Godwine, who was his steward, and all belonged to Toke before the Conquest. The King, had also in his own hands half a carucate of land here, belonging to his manor of Wighton.

All these possessions abovementioned remained some time in the Crown; the first that I find in possession of them, and held them in capite, was William de Wendevale, a Norman, whose brother, Robert, dying s. p. they escheated to the Crown, and were granted to the Earls of Pembroke, &c.

STIFFEKEY MANOR.

William de Valentia, half brother to King Henry III. and Earl of Pembroke, had a grant of this united manor, belonging to the Crown in the 32d of the said King, and a confirmation of it in his 35th year, to be held by the accustomed services, by half a fee; to it belonged a lete, assise of bread and beer, view of frank pledge, &c. and the advowson of St. Mary's church in this town.⁸

Amyer de Valcutia Earl of Pembroke, his son, inherited it, on whose death, in 1323, it descended to David de Strabolgi Earl of Athol in Scotland, in right of his wife; on whose death, in the 20th of Edward II. it came to his son David, who being a rebel, and in the Scots army, King Edward III. granted it, April 4, in his 9th year, to Sir Walter Manny, Knt. who presented, as lord, to the church of St. Mary in 1349 and 1352. He held it till David, the 3d Earl of Athol, was of age, who dying possessed of it, and of Holcham, in the 49th of Edward III. left issue, by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of Henry Lord Ferrers of Groby, two daughters and coheirs; Elizabeth, who married Sir Thomas Percy, a younger son of Henry Lord Percy, who had by her the lordship of Holcham and Possewyke; and Philippa, or Mary, who married Sir Ralph Percy, brother of Sir Thomas, and had this lordship and that of West Lexham; she surviving Sir Ralph, remarried Sir John Halsham, lord in her right, in the 12th of Richard II.

John Halsham presented as lord in 1413; and Sir Hugh Halsham dying lord in the 20th of Henry VI. and having no issue by Petronilla his wife, this lordship came to Joan, daughter and heir to his brother, Richard Halsham, wife of John Lewkenor, Esq. from whom it came to Sir Jeffrey Boleyn, Knt. and Lord Mayor of London, in 1457, whose son, Thomas Boleyn, presented to St. Mary's church in 1461, and 1463, as did Will. Boleyn, Esq. his brother, in 1474, &c. and Sir James Boleyn in 1542.

After this, James Calthorp, Esq. had an interest herein; but in the year 1564, John Baynard appears to be lord, who, with Edmund Baynard, sold it in the 13th of Queen Elizabeth, to Sir Nicholas Bacon, lord keeper, and he gave it to his 2d son, Sir Nathaniel Bacon, who, by Anne his wife, daughter of Sir Thomas Gresham, left 3 daughters and coheirs; and by Anne, the eldest, it came in marriage to Sir John Townsend of Keynham, and the Right Honourable George Lord Viscount Townsend is the present lord.

Sir Nicholas built the hall or manor-house, in 1604; on the gateway are his arms, with those of his last wife. The tenths were 8*l.* Deducted 20*s.*

In this village are two churches, St. John Baptist's and St. Mary's; that there was a church at the conquest, endowed with 30 acres, appears from Domesday book.

This church belonged to Ralph, son of Ivo, and so to the honour of Clare, and was afterwards (if not then) dedicated to St. John Baptist. It was a rectory, anciently valued at 20 marks, and paid Peter-pence 1*s.* 6*d.* The present valet is 18*l.* 8*s.* 4*d.*

1327, Will. de Horseford was instituted rector, presented by Ralph de Irmingtand, hac vice. In the 12th of Edward II. a fine was levied and William Storm settled this manor and advowson (as a trustee probably) on Ralph and Agnes his wife.

GREAT SNORING.

THE Conqueror, on the ejection of Ketel, took possession of this lordship, consisting of 3 carucates of land, one villain, and 22 borderers, 9 servi, 3 carucates in demean, with 3 carucates of the tenants, pannage for 8 swine, 8 acres of meadow, a mill, and 180 sheep: ⁹*Godric* took care of it for the King, and was steward of it. Thurseford was a beruite to it, and was measured together with it, as I shall shew there. It stands by a little stream or rivulet, called probably in the Saxon age, the Nar or Snar, as Little Snoring does on another, both which streams are soon after united.

How long this lordship continued in the Crown does not appear; that it was in the family of De Burgiloun, in the 41st of Henry III. we find by a pleading, when William de Burgiloun, was plaintiff against Alexander le Sergeant, &c. for disseising him of his common pasture in Snoring; and before this, in the 16th of Henry III. Richard, son of Geffrey de Esnaringes owed 40 marks for 2 knights fees, which Robert de Burguillon disseized him of, Robert granting to Geffrey 18 of them.

In the 3d of Edward I. William de Berguillon was found to hold this town and Thursford, of the Lord Bardolf, valued at 30*l.* per ann. by the service of 20*s.* with half a fee in Hindringham, the fourth part of one in Felbrig, and the third part of one in Kerdeston; and Walter was his son and heir, under age. And in the 14th of that King, Robert de Burgolyon claimed the assise of bread and beer, and died about the 20th of that King, then a knight.

This Sir Robert had by Sarah his wife, a son Robert, against whom, Walter, prior of Binham, brought his action about right of common, in the 24th of Edward I. Sir Robert Burgolyon was lord in the 15th of Edward II. and dying then possessed of a moiety of this lordship, Sarah his mother held the other moiety as part of her dower; and Hugh was his son and heir, aged 12 years. And in the following year on the death of Sarah his grandmother, he had the whole manor.

In 1322, the Lady Jonn de Burgolyon presented to the rectory of this church. Sir Ralph Shelton of Shelton in Norfolk, was his cousin and heir, and presented to this church, as lord, in 1353, was at the battle of Cresy, &c. and buried in the church of Shelton, in 1375. Sir Ralph, his son, was lord in the reign of Richard II. and William Shelton and Catharine his wife, daughter of Simon Barret, presented in 1420. This William was brother to Sir Ralph. In 1432, the King presented, on the minority of Ralph, son and heir, of John Shelton, Esq. and the said Ralph presented in 1459; he married Margaret, daughter of Robert Clerc of Ormesby, by whom he had Sir John Shelton, his son and heir, who died lord of this town and of Thursford, in 1539; by Anne his wife, daughter of Sir William Boleyn of Blicking; he had Sir John his successour, who by Margaret his wife, daughter of Henry Parker Lord Mortey, left Sir Ralph Shelton, who had livery of this lordship, with those of Thurston, Shelton, &c.

Thomas Shelton, Esq. was son and heir of Sir Ralph, by Mary his wife, daughter of Sir William Woodhouse of Watham; he was gentleman porter of the Tower of London, and married Elizabeth, daughter of Edward Flowerdew, a baron of the Exchequer, and was succeeded in the inheritance by his brother, Sir Ralph Shelton, who married Dorothy, daughter of Sir Robert Jernyn, of Rushbrook in Suffolk: he was killed at the isle of Rhé in France, in 1628 and died s. p.

This Sir Ralph sold this lordship, with that of Thursford, about the year 1611, to Thomas Richardson, Esq. seijeant at law, afterwards lord chief justice of the King's Bench.

This sale gave rise to a joke or pun, that is said to be made by Sir Ralph, which was, "That he could sleep without Snoring."

Sir Thomas Richardson, son of the lord justice, enjoyed it.

In 1695, James Ward, Gent. of Hindringham, was lord, who gave it with Thursford-Shelton's, to Mr. Nun of Thorpland, who held it in 1715.

The tenths were 5*l.* Deducted 13*s.* 4*d.*

The Church is dedicated to the Virgin Mary, and is a rectory, anciently valued at 40 marks and paid Peter-pence, 10*d.* ob. The present valor is 24*l.* in the King's books, and pays first fruits and tenths.

† William Shelton died lord in the 9th of Henry III. as by the 25th of Henry V. and John Shelton, Esq. cheat Rolls.

THURSFORD

WAS a beruite to Snoring Magna. There belonged to Snoring manor 40 acres of land, at the survey, a earucate, one borderer, 2 acres of meadow, a mill, and 27 socmen, with 5 earucates; and in Thursford, 5 socmen had 60 acres of land with half a carucate, and 3 freemen 3 earucates of land, &c. valued at 8*l.* in King Edward's time: at the survey paid 1*l.* 10*s.* 8*d.* as a fine or income: it was, with Snoring, one leuca long, and half a one broad, and paid 24*l.* gelt.² It was then the King's manor, and Godric was his steward of it, but Ketel was lord before, and deprived at the conquest.

It seems to take its name from its ford, or pass over the water, of the Thur, on which it stands, being wrote in Domesday book Turesfort.

William Burgolion had the lete of his tenants in this town and Snoring Magna, of the feofment of Sir William de Ken, by the charter of Henry II.

The family of Burgolion held this lordship as a member or beruite to Snoring Magna, from whom it passed to the Sheltons, the Richardsons, &c. and was held by Mr. Neen, in 1715, as is mentioned in Snoring Magna.

The prior of Bynham's manor of Berney extended into this town, which, on the dissolution of the convent, was granted to Thomas Paston, Esq. November 15, in the 33d of Henry VIII.

In the 15th of Edward I. the prior had the assise of bread and beer, and amercements of his men. In Queen Elizabeth's reign, it was possessed by the Haydons of Baconsthorp, and afterwards by Sir Thomas Guybon, Knt. descended from Tho. Guybon, Esq. of North Lynn, who by Agnes his 2d wife, daughter of Walter Baspole, of Norfolk, Gent. had William Guybon of Wattlington, Gent. who married Elizabeth,

The CHURCH and chancel are covered with lead, and has a square tower with two bells.

In the chancel is a monument of black and white marble, with iron rails before it.

M. S. Domino Thomæ Guybon, equiti aurato, Gulielmi filio Humfridi, - - - - - ex antiquissima Guybonorum gente tertio, vicecomiti, sub Carolo primo et secundo regibus, cirenarchiæ, viro per omnia integerrimo, erga Deum piissimo, ecclesiam orthodoxo, regem et monarchiam maxime devoto, patriam bone merito, vicinos benevolo, seipsum sobrio, omnes humano. Qui temporibus democraticis philobasilus, perfidis fidelis; et ob singularem fidem in principem et patriam non semel afflictus, afflictis patiens, dubiis prudens, arduis constans, turbidis tranquillus, malis bonus, bonis optimus, omnibus æquus.

Franciscus Guybon filius natu maximus ex testamento solus executor, ipsius monitu hoc monumentum P. P. — Abi et imitare.

Here lyeth the body of Sir Tho. Guybon, knight, son of William Guybon of Watlington, Esq. grandson of Humfry Guybon, Esq. high sheriff of Norfolk, 8 Eliz. married Barbara, eldest daughter of Sir William de Grey, of Merton in Norfolk, knight, and by her had issue, 3 sons, and as many daughters, viz. William his eldest son, married Mercy, one of the daughters of Sir Philip Parker the elder, of Arwarton in Suffolk, knight, and by her had issue, Thomas, his only son, and Barbara his only daughter, which Thomas died in the lifetime of his father, unmarried. Francis yet living; Barbara, his eldest daughter, died young and unmarried; Ann married with Robert Hall of Heigham, near Norwich, Esq; Mary yet living. A man of a most modest and harmless conversation, humble in prosperity, courteous, discreet, hospitable and exactly just, and upright to all men, by which virtues he preserved himself safe in the worst of times, after 66 years near spent, whereof 52 in happy marriage, he died the 29th of May, 1666.

On this is the arms of Guybon, or, a lion rampant, sable, on a bend over all, gules, three escallops, argent, impaling De Grey, azure, a fess between two chevronels, or, &c.

In the chancel lies an old gravestone in French,

De terre je suis fuire et formé et à la terre je suis retourné - - - - - Ellertune nom apellé parsonne de Thursford, estois, Jesu ave de moy pité.

This in memory of William de Ellerton, who died rector in 1393.

In the church and chancel were the arms of Shelton, Stanhow, Calthorp, Woodhouse of Hickling, Butts, and Buers, Burgulion, and gules, six dexter hands coupéd, argent, Wauncy; Shelton, quartering Illey, Burgulion and Cockfield.

Walsingham temporalities were 5s. 10d. Bynham priory temporalities for their manor 5l. 8s. in 1428.

The tenths were 47s. 4d. Deducted 15s. 4d.

W A R H A M,

So called from its site by a river, and a watery place or Ham; thus Warham in Dorsetshire, Ware in Hertfordshire, &c.

Walter Giffard had half a carucate of land, which belonged to two freeman, who held it in King Edward's reign, under Gert, when there was a borderer, and two carucates of land also, but at the survey a carucate and a half; valued as before at 16s.³

Gert was (as I take it) a younger son of the great Earl Godwine, brother to King Harold, slain with him at the battle of Hastings; and on his death, granted to Walter Giffard, created Earl of Buckingham, by the Conqueror.

In this town there were also resident 19 socmen, with 2 carucates of land, and the moiety of a mill belonging to the manor of Well, held by Ketel, before the Conquest, and by Aldit, at the survey, who was lord also of Well,⁴ out of which Ketel had been ejected, (as I shall there observe,) wherein it was valued, &c.

WARIHAM-HALL MANOR.

How long Aldit enjoyed it does not appear; it is probable it came soon after to the said Walter Giffard, or his son Walter; Earl of Bucks, who dying s. p. Richard de Clare Earl of Hertford, &c. (descended from Rohais, sister and coheir of the said Walter, who married Richard Fitz Gilbert, alias De Clare) ancestor of the Earls of Hertford and Clare, &c. inherited the same in the reign of King Richard I.

In the 32d of Henry III. Richard de Clare Earl of Gloucester and Hertford granted to his brother, William de Clare, this lordship, with that of Wells, &c; and in the 35th of that King, the abbot of Fonteney, in Normandy, gave to William the advowson of the church of Wells; ⁵ he is said to be poisoned in the second of the said reign, and on his death, this united manor came to his brother Richard.

Gilbert Earl of Clare and Gloucester being slain at Bannocksburne in Scotland, in the 7th of Edward II. his inheritance was divided between his three sisters and coheirs; Margaret, the wife of Piers de Gaveston, (King Edward the Second's great favourite,) remarried to Hugh de Audley Earl of Gloucester; Alianore, the wife of Hugh le Despencer, junior; and Elizabeth, wife of John de Burgh, son and heir of Richard Earl of Ulster, in Ireland; and in 1328, William le Zouche Lord of Glamorgan, presented to the church of All-Saints in this town, as lord in right of Alianore his wife, late the wife of Hugh le Despencer, the younger; and in 1341, Hugh le Despencer Lord Glamorgan.

In 1389, Elizabeth, Lady Despencer, and in 1406

Henry Beauchamp Duke of Warwick left it to his daughter and heir, Anne, who dying s. p. a minor, it came, in the 27th of Henry VI. to her aunt and heir, Anne, the wife of Richard Nevill Earl of Warwick, slain at Barnet field.

His inheritance being settled on his two daughters, Isabel and Anne, by parliament, Isabel, wife of George Duke of Clarence, and Anne, of Richard Duke of Gloucester, (afterwards King of England), who possessed this; and on his death, King Henry VII. restored this lordship, &c. to Anne, the Countess Dowager of Warwick, who conveyed it, &c. to the said King, from whom it descended to King Henry VIII.

It afterwards was in the Howards family, and Thomas Howard Earl of Surrey, in the second year of King James I. aliened it to Edmund Doyly, Esq. on April 2; from the Doylys it came to the Berneys, and so to the Turners: Sir John Turner, Bart. being the present lord.

NORTHALL MANOR.

Part of this town, and part of Wells, belonged to the King's manor of Wighton, who had one carucate of land in those towns, and there might be made up another, and this was valued, &c. in Wighton; see there.

The King had also in Warham half a carucate of land, an acre of meadow, valued at 2s. 6d. and this is said to belong to his manor of Holt.⁷

I take this to be that lordship which King Henry I. granted to Robert, son of Ernisins, whose son, Endo, held it, and Robert Endo's son rebelling against King John, he, by letters patents, dated September 15, in his 10th year, gave it to Geff. Fitz Piers Earl of Essex, with lands in Wells and Massingham,⁸ &c. and in Hatfield-Peverel, and Depeden, in Essex, forfeited by the statute De terris Normannorum, whose sons Geff. and William de Magnavile, both Earls of Essex, by his first wife, inherited and held it by one fee, of the honour of Gloucester.

On their demise s. p. it came to John Fitz John, descended by a second wife, from the aforesaid Geff. Fitz Peter, who held it in the 4th of Edward I.

Richard Fitz John enjoyed it on his brother's death, being a baron of the realm, and granted it A^o. 6 of Edward I. to Sir Thomas de ⁶ Isabel died 18th of Henry VI. seized of this manor and advowson.

Weyland, and his estate being confiscated, &c. it came to the Crown, and remained till King Edward II. gave it to Sir Walter de Norwich in fee farm, paying 8 marks per ann. into the Exchequer, by deed dated at Windsor, November 22, A. 11.

King Edward III. gave the 8 marks aforesaid, to the priory of Brodholme, in Nottinghamshire: and in the 31st of that King, Sir John de Norwich had a release thereof from the prioress.

On the death of Sir John, it descended to Catharine Brews, a nun at Dertford, in Kent, who held it A. 1 of Richard II. and by her trustees it seems to have been conveyed some years after, to Sir Robert Knouls, William Calthorp, junior, &c. who held it in the 5d of Henry IV.

Thomas Stede, by his will dated December 20, 1501, bequeaths to Thomas his son and heir, the manor of Northale, and William his brother died lord, in 1540, and was buried, as was his father Thomas, at Warham.

The Doylys seem to inherit it from the Stedes, and quarter their arms, argent, a lion rampant, azure, and so is now united to the other manors of the Doylys; see the baronettage of England.

The Bishop of Norwich's lordship of Hindringham extended into this town, and being in the see at the survey, Thetford, the Bishop, held one tenant here, with 12 acres.⁹

Alan Earl of Richmond had also a lordship in this town, Wells, and Holkham, of which King Herold was possessed; and Ribald held it under Alan, consisting of 11 soemen, and 6 borderers, with 2 carucates of land, and one acre of meadow, valued at 40s. and Edvi, the King's steward, laid claim to one man with 30 acres of land, as the hundred testified.¹

At the survey, Odo Bishop of Baieux in France, the Conqueror's half brother, had 2 soemen, with half a carucate of land, of which Stigand, Archbishop of Canterbury, who possessed it as a lay fee, and in his own right, had been deprived, and was valued at 30 pence; this on Odo's rebellion against King William I. came probably to the aforesaid Alan Earl of Richmond.

HALES MANOR.

Ribald, who held under Alan Earl of Richmond, was his brother, and lord of Middleham in Yorkshire.

In the 18th of King John, a fine was levied between Bartholomew de Wighton and Robert Ngun, by which Robert conveyed to Bartholomew, the advowson of the church of St. Mary Magdalen in this town, and in the 24th of Henry III. Bartholomew, son of Walter de Wycton, sold lands here to William de Boton and Agnes his wife, and was then patron of the aforesaid church: and Peter de Loringsete, in the said year, is said to hold the moiety of a fee.

William Jordan of Laringsete settled by fine on William de Hales, and Catharine his wife, the manor of Warham, the moiety of Testerton, &c. in 101

In the 9th of Edward III. and in the 20th, the said William was found to hold the 6th part of a fee, and the 20th part of one, of the Nevills, and of John de Fextre, (of the Earls of Richmond, and of Arundel;) it is probable that the 20th part here mentioned was the part that Odo Bishop of Baieux held, and was now in the earl of Arundel, and so of that King, which the family of De Wighton formerly held.

In the reign of Richard II. Sir Stephen de Hales held it, who dying s. p. Elizabeth, daughter and heir of his brother Thomas Hales, brought it by marriage to William Rokewode, sen.² and so to William Rokewode, Esq. his son, by whose daughter and coheir Agnes, it came to Sir Nicholas Appleyard, whose descendant John Appleyard, Esq. in the 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary, passed this manor of Warham-Hales, with many messuages and tolls, 2 water mills, 400 acres of land, 40 of pasture, 200 of moor, 200 of marsh, 20 of wood, 200 of heath, and 10s. rent, with a foldcourse in this town, Hells, &c. and the advowson of the church of Warham, to Ralph Symonds, Esq.

After this it was in the Doylys of Shotesham, and Henry Doyly, Esq. died lord in 1597, and Edmund Doyly, Esq. died possessed of the manor of Warham Hales, Warham North-hull, and Warham manors, in 1610.

Sir William Doyly, Bart. was lord in the reign of King Charles II. and alienated this with much of his patrimony.

Richard Berney, Esq. possessed it in the reign of King William III. and by a decree in Chancery, in 1709, it was ordered to be sold, and was purchased by Sir Charles Turner, grandson of Charles Turner, Gent. of Whissinget, who by Elizabeth, his wife, had Sir John Turner of Lynn, who died s. p. and William Turner, Gent. of North Elmham, father of Sir Charles, by Anne his wife, daughter of John Spooner of North Elmham.

Sir Charles married first, Anne, daughter of Robert Walpole, Esq. of Houghton, in Norfolk, (sister of Robert Earl of Oxford;) and was created a baronet; his second wife was Mary, daughter of Sir William Blois of Grundesburgh, relict of Sir Nevill Cathyn of Kirby Cane, in Norfolk: he was member of parliament for Lynn, and a teller of the Exchequer, and on November 22, 1758, dying without heir male, was succeeded in estate by his brother, Sir John Turner,³ Bart. collector of Lynn, who died 1759, and by his wife, daughter of ———. Allen, of London left Sir John Turner, Bart. his son, the present lord of this town, member of parliament for Lynn.

On the heath belonging to this town, called the Rayfield, is a square fortification, with a double ditch, ascribed to be the work of the Danes, after their landing at Weyburn.

The temporalities of Norwich priory were in Warham All Saints, valued at 4s. 8d. those of Petreston, in Warham St. Mary's 4s. 8d. those of Walsingham, in the said parish 33s. 6d. Fentney priory's temporalities in Warham 4s. 8d. and the spiritualities of Eynham priory 1s. 6d.

The tenths were 8*l.*—Deducted 13*s.* 4*d.*

Here were 3 churches—All-Saints—St. Mary's—and St. Mary Magdolen.

All-Saints was valued at 15 marks, and paid Peter-pence 4*d. ob.*; it is a rectory, and the present valor is 16*l.* and is in the patronage of the King.

GREAT OR OLD WALSINGHAM,
AND LITTLE, OR NEW WALSINGHAM.

BYNHAM PRIORY MANOR.

PETER DE VALOINS was lord of a part of the town of Walsingham Magna, at the survey, by the gift of the Conqueror, of which Bund (a thane of King Edward) was deprived, and Humphrey held it of Peter, the capital lord.

It then consisted of a carucate and a half of land, 3 villains, 7 borderers, with 2 carucates, and 4 acres of meadow in demean, one carucate and a half among the tenants, 3 servi, 5 cows, &c. 180 sheep, 9 skeps of bees, and one socman held 4 acres of land, valued at 40s. before this at 30s.

It was delivered, or granted to Peter, to make up, or complete one of his lordships, but his men or tenants did not know what manor.⁶

The aforesaid Humphrey, whom I find to be styled one of this Lord Peter's knights, gave, according to the practice of those times, 2 parts of the tithes of this lordship to the priory of Bynham,⁷ founded by his lord in the reign of Henry I. Roger Lord Valoins, his son, and Robert, his grandson, confirmed it with the moiety of St. Peter's church, the chantry that Robert Godechild held of the monks of St. Albans: also 2 carucates here, containing 190 acres of land, with the whole homage and demean of Humphrey, held of them, and the mill-meadow. The prior aforesaid, in the 15th of Edward I. had the assise of bread and beer, of his tenants: in 1428 their temporalities were valued at 9*l.* 17*s.* 1*d.* and their spiritualities here, or portion of tithes, at 15*s.*

On the general dissolution it was granted by the Crown, to Sir Thomas Paston, November 18, A. 33 Henry VIII. paying 9*s.* 7*d.* per annu.

THE KING'S MANOR.

King William seized on this, which was one of King Herold's lordships, and a beruite belonging to the royal manor of Fakenham, containing 3 carucates of land, 13 villains, 7 borderers, with one carucate

How long it continued in the Crown does not appear; it seems in the reign of King John to be forfeited by William de Brencourt, or Favercourt, on his rebellion against that King, and was granted in his 6th year (as an eschaet, and land of the Normans) to Richard Earl of Clare, of whom and his family, see in the following lordship.

THE EARL OF CLARE'S LORDSHIPS.

Rainald, son of Ivo, obtained two of the principal manors in these towns, on the Conquest: one in Great Walsingham, of which Ketel a freeman, was deprived, who had 19 borderers, with 3 carucates of land, 2 servi, 2 acres of meadow, and 2 carucates in demean, &c. 24 socmen belonged to it, with 70 acres of land, the moiety of a mill and 2 borderers, &c. valued at 6l per ann.; it was half a leuca long and the same in breadth, and paid 18d. gelt.

The same Rainald had also the grant of a lordship in Walsingham Parva, on the deprivation of the aforesaid Ketel, containing 2 carucates of land, 4 villains, 21 borderers, 2 servi, 2 carucates in demean, 2 carucates among the tenants, &c. an acre of meadow, with a mill; and half a carucate, with 14 acres of land, belonged to 5 socmen, &c. valued in King Edward's reign at 4l. at the survey at 3l. it was one leuca long, and one broad, and paid *24d. gelt.*⁹

Rainald was a Norman nobleman, and attended Duke William on his invasion; how long he possessed it does not appear; Halter Giffard Earl of Bucks, or his son, seems to have been the next lord, whose sister and coheir, Rohais, married Richard Fitz-Gilbert, alias de Clare, ancestor of the Earls of Hertford and Clare; whose descendants, the Earls of Clare, inherited it.

Richard de Clare, Earl, in the 32d of Henry III. gave these lordships to his brother, William de Clare, who had a grant of free warren in Walsingham Magna, and a weekly mercate on Friday, in the 35th of that King; also of a weekly mercate in Walsingham Parva, on Monday, and a fair, formerly granted to the prior of Walsingham, on whose death it came to the aforesaid Earl, and was held in capite by one fee and a half.

Gilbert de Clare Earl of Gloucester, was lord in the 14th of Edw. I. had the assise of bread and beer, a gallovs, and other royal privileges, and they were valued at 30*l. per ann.* after his death it came to Lionel Duke of Clarence, third son of King Edward III. by his marriage with Elizabeth, daughter and heir of William de Burgh Earl of Ulster, in Ireland, son and heir of Jou de Burgh Earl of Ulster, by the Lady Elizabeth his wife, third sister and coheir of Gilbert, Earl of Clare, Gloucester, &c.

The said Lionel dying in the 42d of Edward III. left Philippa, his only daughter and heir, and on her marriage with Edward Mortimer Earl of March, he became lord in her right. On the death of Edward, the last Earl of March, in the 3d of Henry VI. Anne, his sister and heir, being wife of Richard de Coninsby Earl of Cambridge, Richard their son, Duke of York, was lord, and his son King Edward IV. inherited it.

Elizabeth, Queen consort to King Henry VII. Anne, wife of Thomas Howard Earl of Surry, and Catharine, wife of William Courtney Earl of Devonshire, were daughters and coheirs of the said King. Anne and Catharine conveyed their right to King Henry VIII. and King Edward VI. in his 7th year, July 1. granted them to Thomas Gresham, Esq. and Queen Mary confirmed it April 9. in her first year, with the lordships of Collingham, Fennes, Marshes, Boates, Harkshaw's Walsingham Grange, and the demean lands in the tenure of Thomas Sybuey, &c. with a fold course, watermill, market and a fair on the nativity of the Virgin Mary, and a close planted with saffron, for which the town was famous at this time.

Sir Thomas Gresham, in the 16th of Elizabeth, granted to Edward Flowerdew, Esq. in consideration of the faithful counsel given him, an annuity out of it payable for life, and sealed it with his crest, a grasshopper: on his death his lady possessed it, and it came to her son, Sir William Read, lord in 16th of James I. and on his death, to his coheirs, George Lord Berkley, Sir William Withipole, the Earl and Countess of Desmond.

After this, in 1637, it was conveyed to Dr. John Warner Bishop of Rochester, a prelate famous for his noble acts of charity, on whose death it descended to his heir, John Lee Warner, D.D. archdeacon and prebendary of Rochester, son of Thomas Lee, of London, Gent. descended from the family of Lee of Lee-hall, in Shropshire, by Anne his wife, sister of the Bishop, whose eldest son, Henry Lee Warner, Esq. was lord in 1680, and his nephew, Henry Lee Warner, (son of ----- Warner, Esq. of Kensington, by -----, sister of Sir James How;) died lord on the 13th of December, 1760, and by ----- daughter of John Mills, Esq. of Nackington in Kent, left Henry Lee Warner, Esq. the present lord.

Here were also in ancient days several little lordships held of the Earls of Clare.

In the reign of Edward I. Adam, son of William de Romely, is mentioned: in the 20th of Edward III. Henry de Collingham held half a fee, &c.

The town gave name to the ancient family of De Walsingham. Sir

Richard de Walsingham lived in the reign of King Henry III. and was father of Sir Richard, one of the justices of Trailbaston, in Suffolk and Norfolk, with Sir John Le Briton, in the 33d of Edward I. father by Christian his wife, of Thomas de Walsingham, who married Amy, daughter and coheir of Sir Robert Stafford, of Egginton in Derbyshire; this Thomas (as I take it) had considerable lands, with a fold-course, here, late Romely's, granted to his father, and was living in the 13th of Edward II.; Thomas was father of Sir Richard, living in the reign of Edward III. and by Margaret, daughter and coheir of Adam Nortoft of Eggenere in Norfolk, had Richard, who married Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Thomas Dalingrey, and was father of Thomas Walsingham, Esq. who by Catharine his wife, sister of Sir William Belhouse of Essex, left Thomas, his son and heir, who removed into Kent, and died about 1456: this Thomas took to wife Margaret, daughter and heir of Adam Bam of Gillingham in Kent, from whom the great Sir Francis Walsingham, secretary of state in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, is descended.

The tenths of Walsingham Magna were 8*l.*—Deducted 1*l.*—Walsingham Parva 6*l.* 14*s.*—Deducted 13*s.* 4*d.*

The temporalities of Stoke by Clare 20*s.*—Of Bury 10*s.*—In Walsingham Parva.

The priory of St. Faith's of Horsham had a portion of tithe, valued at half a mark.

New Walsingham is a mercate town, and has two fairs in the year.

In the town of Old Walsingham, were two churches, All-Saints and St. Peter's.

The CHURCH of All-Saints was a rectory, valued at 15 marks, Peter-pence 14*d.* ob. and was given, by deed sans date, to the church of St. Mary of Walsingham, and the canons there, for his soul's health, and those of his father, mother, &c. in pure alms, with the appertenance in ploughed lands, meadows, pastures, &c. by Philip de Terra Vasta, (Travers's) the seal is oval, and is a knight in complete armour, on horseback, in full career. The Register of Norwich says it was the gift of Roeten de Terra Vasta, and was granted, saving the right of Richard de Drayton, who held the church as rector, for life.

In the 52d of Henry III. Richard de Fitechen conveyed by fine a moiety of the church of All-Saints, to Alan the prior of Walsingham, and the lands which the prior held of the gift of Richard Ancestor, who was probably Philip abovementioned; and Alan de Romely, son of William, by deed sans date, released all his right in this church given by his ancestor, P. de Terra Vasta, and gave an alder-ground to the priory.

On the appropriation of it, a vicarage was settled, valued then at 40*s.*

John Archbishop of Canterbury granted license to appropriate it in 1280.

VICARS OF ALL-SAINTS.

In the 14th of Edward I. Philip de Clopton occurs vicar.

1305, John Badingham was instituted vicar, presented by the prior and convent.

1329, Ralph de Alethorp, presented by the prior and convent.

1330, Adam Alexander.

1342, Martin de Sandringham.

1355, Jeff. Derham.

1360, Roger de Wirtham,

About this time, the vicarage was also united to the appropriated rectory, and became a curacy.

Thomas Sydney, Esq. of Walsingham Parva, had a grant of the rectories and churches of All-Saints, and St. Peter's, in Walsingham Magna, and of St. Mary's, in Walsingham Parva, lately belonging to the priory, by a patent, dated May 3, in the 7th year of King Edward VI. and Henry Lee Warner, Esq. is impropriator, and nominates the curates of the churches, as the Sydneys did.

The CHURCH of St. Peter's, of Walsingham Magna, was a rectory valued at 15 marks, paid Peter-pence 12d. and the prior of Bynham had a portion herein, valued at 15s. per ann.

RECTORS OF ST. PETER'S.

In the 21st of Henry III. Thomas de Leche was instituted rector.

Bartholomew de Ferentino occurs rector in the 14th of Edward I. and Philip, in 1307.

Richard de Clare Earl of Hertford gave it to the priory, and it was appropriated in the 8th year of Edward II. and so remains a curacy; Henry Lee Warner, Esq. being the impropriator.

In this church were the gilds of St. Peter, and of the purification.

John Dyr, priest of Walsingham Magna, by will in 1524, gave lands with a messuage and cottage in Walsingham Magna, to the repair of both these parish churches, and to the use of a gild-hall, for the parishioners of both parishes, on condition that the church-wardens of them cause to be sung in each church, Placebo, and Dirige, on Tuesday in Easter week.

The CHURCH of St. Mary in Walsingham Parva, was a rectory valued at 5*l.* and paid Peter-pence 14d. ob. it was granted, and appropriated to the priory about the year 1280, by Jeff. de Faverches, and so is a donative, or curacy. A pension of 2s. per ann. belonging to the see of Norwich, was released by Bishop Thirlby. The impropriation is in Henry Lee Warner, Esq.

A priest, called Jesus' priest, and the mass of Jesus, is mentioned in 1526. In the churchyard was the image of our Lady, in the wall.—The image of St. Anne, in the chapel, in the church.—St. Catharine's altar and gild, with that of the purification, annunciation, St. John Baptist's, St. Michael's, St. Ann's, St. George's, and the Holy Trinity.

The church is a regular pile, with a nave, north and south isle, and a chancel covered with lead, and has a square tower, with a spire, and 5 bells.

In it hangs a brass branch for candles, the gift of John Portington, Gent. in 1679: the font is of stone, with imagery work, and a wooden cover carved on it, Ex dono Jane Dominae Sidney, in piæ mentis indicium.

In the church are several gravestones with brass plates; those which are most material I shall here mention :

Hic jacet Jacobus Gresham, euj. a'ra. p'ptr. Deus.

Orate p. a'ra. D'ni Willi. Weston, capli euj. a'ie. &c.

Orate p. a'ra. Christoferi Athowe, sen. qui obt. viii die mensis Martij, A^o. D'ni. M.CCCC.XLII.

On the south side of the church, against the wall, is a remembrance for one Robert Anguish, with an arrow or dart, and a snake twisted round it; on one side of it is E. R. on the other, xxxii, and under it 1590, setting forth the year of his death, in the reign of Queen Elizabeth.

*This emblem here is set to view,
For Robert Anguish' sake,
Hast with wisdom must insew
A happy end to make.*

In the chancel is a curious brass stand, supported by 4 lions.

On a neat mural monument,

Sepultus jacet Gulielmus Miles, medicinae doctor, admodum peritus, apprime doctus, ignota virtutis vir, at non ignotus virtuti, nam prospectatissima probitate, fidelitate singulari, clementia admirabili, justitia et charitate præstantissimâ memoratu dignus. On a stately monument, with the effigies of 2 persons,

Here lyes in hope and expectation of the joyfull and desyred day of resurrection, &c. Sir Henry Sidney, Kt. descended from the stemme of Viscount Lisle, baron of Penhurst in Kent, lord chamberleyn to the queen's majesty, and governor of Flushing; his youth was seasoned with the fear of God, duty towards his parents, and love to learning, his following age yielded fruits of hospitality towards all men, of charity towards the poor, of faithfulness towards his friends, and of peaceableness towards his neighbours. He and his end was concluded with piety, with patience, and with a comfortable farewell at the term of 59 years, the 2d of November, A.D. 1612. Here joynd as well in the same hope of a joyfull resurrection, as in all piety and conjugall love to the said Sir Henry Sidney, rests the body of Dame Jane his wife, daughter of Frances Jermy of Brightwell in Suffolk, Esq. who after her peregrination of 73 years, injoying 28 thereof in the happy society of her said husband, and continuing his name and memory for 28 more in a most chast and retired widowhood, upon the 8 of August, 1638, departed this life, no lady more christianly, nor dyed more happily;—"Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all." Prov. 3, 29.

Also the arms of Sidney, with his quarterings, viz. first, or, a phaëon, argent, Sidney; 2d, argent, two barrulets, and in chief three leopards heads, sable; 3d, argent, three chevronels, gules, and a label of three points, azure, Barrington; 4th, argent, on a bend, gules, three lozenges, of the first, Mercye; 5th, quarterly, or, and gules, an escarbuncle, sable, Maudevile; 6th, azure, a chevron between three mullets, or, Chetwind; 7th, argent, three lions rampant, gules Belhouse; 8th, barry of ten, argent and gules, a chevron over all, or, Stokes; impaling, quarterly, argent, a lion rampant, guardant, gules, in the first and 4th, Jermy, and gules, a bend between six martlets, or, in the 2d and 3d.

This Lady Jane gave a close of above 4 acres to the support of the minister or curate of this church, for ever.

In this church were these arms, or, three chevronels, gules, the Earl of Clare, and Gloucester, &c. impaling, or, a cross, gules, Burgh Earl of Ulster; quarterly, barry of six, or and azure, an escotheon, argent, on a chief of the first, a pale between two esquires, dexter and sinister of the 2d, Mortimer Earl of March, &c.

After Sir Thomas Gresham's death the manors of Collingham, Fenn's, &c. were sold to Thomas Sydney, Esq. and upon an inquisition post mortem, 28th of Elizabeth, it was found he died seized of the abbey of Walsingham, and the perpetual curacy of All-Saints, and St. Peters, in Great Walsingham, and All-Saints in Little Walsingham, and divers lauds and mills, late Sir Thomas Gresham's, in Great and Little Walsingham, Houghton juxta Walsingham, Hinderingham, Wighton, and Egmere, the rectory of Houghton, and disposal of the vicarage of ditto; and that Henry Sydney (afterwards Sir Henry) is his son and heir, aged 30 years. Thomas also left him the manor of Ross in Houghton.

July 8, 1639, Robert Sydney Earl of Leicester, grants, on condition, the manor of Ross and divers lands, to Sir Ed. Leech, Henry English, and others; and, on July 20, 1650, in pursuance of a decree in Chancery, the said Earl sells the manor of Ross, the rectory and vicarage, and lands in Houghton, the abbey of Walsingham, with the perpetual curacies of the above three churches in Walsingham, with the rectorial and vicarial tithes, with all the lands, late Thomas Sydney's, Esq. to Henry Wynn, Edward English, and others. And on July 3, 1766, there was a bargain and sale of the abbey, the manor of Ross, and all the above lands and livings in Walsingham and Houghton, from Henry Wynn, and others, to Dr. John Lee, archdeacon of Rochester, for the use of Bishop Warner. The manors of Walsingham and Mills were separated from the abbey, and remained so till 1756, when they were purchased with divers lands, from Norbone Berkely, Lord Bottetourt, by Henry Lee Warner, Esq. who also purchased diverse other lands in Walsingham and Houghton, and the manors of Gaunts and Gurneys, in Houghton; and died, as before mentioned, in 1760, aged 72, and left the whole to his son, Henry Lee Warner, Esq. by will, who was also heir at law, and has built here an agreeable seat, on the site of the priory.

The present Henry Lee Warner, Esq. intends to erect a monument in Walsingham church to the memory of his father, who died as abovementioned, and to his mother, who died in July, 1770, aged 73, and was also buried in a vault in this church.

Mr. Warner's grandfather and grandmother, Lee, of Danejon near Canterbury, were buried here. She was daughter of Sir George Howe of Berwick St. Leonard's, in Wiltshire, and sister to Sir James Howe, who devised his whole estate to Mr. Warner's father, by his will, and who was also heir at law to him, in right of his mother, which estates also Mr. Warner now enjoys.

Bishop Warner and the rest of the family were buried at Rochester, where handsome monuments in that cathedral are erected to their memories.

WALSINGHAM PRIORY.

The widow lady of Ricoldie de Faverches, dwelling in Walsingham Parva, founded there, in or about 1061, a chapel in honour of the Virgin Mary, in all respects like to the Sancta Casa at Nazareth, where the Virgin was saluted by the angel Gabriel on a vision of the Virgin enjoining her thereto;² a pretence generally made use of in like foundations. Sir Geoffrey de Faverches, her son, soon after the conquest, endowed it, granting to Edwin, his clerk or chaplain, this chapel of St. Mary, with the church of All-Saints in the said town, with its appertences in lands, tithes, rents, services, &c. which the said Edwin possessed the day he went to Jerusalem; viz. 20s. per ann.

out of his demean, for two parts of the title of his land, the land at Snaring, which Hawis gave to God, and the said chapel, 8 acres in the field of the said town, with part of a meadow.

The said knight seems to be the first founder of the priory, built the priory church, and gave the chapel of our Lady all the ground within the site of the church, 8 acres of land, with 20s. rent per ann. out of his manor, if the yearly value of the offerings of our Lady did not exceed 5 marks.

This grant was confirmed by Robert de Bruccourt, and Roger Earl of Clare.

In the first of Henry II. William de Hocton (Houghton) answered for 30*l.* for the lands, farm or manor of Wicton, (Wighton) belonging to the King, and 10 marks to marry the widow of Jeffrey de Favercourt,³ (or Faveraches) with her lands, and to have the custody of her son till he was a knight, and then to hold the lands of him; by which it appears that this foundation and part of this town belonged to the King's manor.

William le Ken gave in King John's time, a messuage and 30 acres of land in Walsingham Magna and Wighton.

Damietta de Fitcham, and Emma de Beaufoe, gave lands in Flit-cham, which was a cell belonging to this priory; William Earl Warren Roger de Stradesete, and Nicholas his brother, with Symon, son of Hugh de Shouldham, lands, marsh, ground, and liberty of digging turfs in Marham.

In the 10th of Henry III. the prior had a grant of a mercate and a fair; and on the marriage of that King's sister with the Emperor, the prior paid 5 marks, and had a quietus; and in the 35th of that King, he had the grant (or confirmation) of the manor of Walsingham Parva, and a fair for 8 days,

Roger Earl of Clare confirmed the grant of All-Saints church, and gave the mill, out of which Sir Geffrey de Faveraches was to pay 20s. per ann. and Gilbert Earl of Clare gave 8 acres, &c. of land, and the ground without the west gate of the yard, called the Common-place.

William de Valentia, brother to King Henry III. gave 40s. in Walsingham, of the soc of Wiston, quit of all service and customs.

William de Longespee Earl of Salisbury gave lands. Roger, son of Ralph de Salle, lands in Sall, Hubert de Brisworth the 3d part of the advowson of St. Andrew's church in Buruham, and 25 acres of land in demean, with meadow and pastures, also 12 acres which Hervey Pike held of him, and several homages and rents. John Marshall 60 acres in the wood of Folsham, and 2 marks rent, with the church of Thymelthorp, and Richard de Burgh 12 acres in his Assart of Folsham.

Reginald and Stephen de Wharstles (Quarles) lands there. Sir John de Nerford, Richard, son of Gilbert de Wichingham, lands at Egmere. — Godwin, son of Reynford de Holkham, lands and a foldcourse; and Ralph, son of Robert Hacon of Holkham, lands there.

Sir Roger Colvile several homages in Wells. Bartholomew de Wicton a foldcourse there, with lands. Nicholas Peche the manor of Swifford in Swanington. Walter de Graudcourt lands and common of pasture for 15 sheep, 4 beasts, a horse, &c. in Fulmodeston. Adelina, widow of Geffrey Baynard, lands and rents in Byntre. Hubert de Burgh Earl of Kent, the church of St. Andrew of Bedingham, and that of Oulton, with 40 nummatas terræ. William le Ventre the church of St. Clement's of Burnham. Olivia le Marshal, all her rents, tenements, &c. that she purchased in Folsham and Byntre.

Randolf Earl of Chester, and Lincoln Hawis de Quincy, his sister, and John de Somery, lands in Lincolnshire. Sir Ralph de Hemenhale conveyed to them his manor in North Creke, with a moiety of the advowson of the church. Gilbert de Clare, Earl of Gloucester, gave lands to enlarge their court. Richard Earl of Gloucester and Maud his wife, lands also, as did Sir William de Clare, with liberty of common in both these towns; the prior granted to him all the stallage, toll and custom of the fairs, on their lands without the west gate, the prior having the 10th penny of the profits; also a grant of half the profits of the common place where the market on Saturday and Sunday was kept, on which Sir William released to the prior view of frankpledge, assise of bread and beer of their men, and a lete. The fair at this time began on the vigil of the nativity of the Virgin.

In the 21st of Edward I. the prior had temporalities and spiritualities to the value of 157*l.* 13*s.* 8*d.* per ann. And on June 6, in the 28th of that King, a grant of free warren in this town, Holkham, Burnham, &c.

A patent was granted to them in the 2d of Edward II. for acquiring lands and tenements to the value of 40*l.* per ann. and the said King, at the instance of his Queen, Isabel, granted license of mortmain to the value of 40 marks per ann and in part thereof, to appropriate the church of St. Peter's in Walsingham Magna, the patronage of the priory being then and long before, in the Earls of Clare, &c.—A license to purchase Bedingham manor, in Norfolk, ao. 13 Edward II.

In the 30th of Edward III. July 23, license was granted to the prior of Anglesey in Cambridgeshire, to grant to this priory 3 messuages, 3 tofts, one mill, 57 acres of land, 3 of meadow, and 34*s.* rent in Walsingham Magna and Parva; and in the said year the priory had a patent to purchase tenements here; and in the 40th of that King, one for tenements in Hoghton, Egmere, and North Creak.

Sir Stephen de Hales, &c. aliened in the 8th of Richard II. the manors of Ryburgh Magna and Parva, the advowson of Ryburgh Magna church, a messuage and 7 acres here, with the manor of Penshorp, and lands and tenements in Warham, Snoring, West Barsham, &c. to found a chantry for Sir Thomas de Felton, &c. Thomas his son, and Joan, wife of Sir Thomas.

License was granted in the 7th of Henry IV. to John Gourney and John Drcw, parson of Harpley, to amortize 20 acres of land in Burnham, to celebrate the obit of Sir Edmund de Reynham and Christian his wife; and in the said year to Sir Thomas Erpingham, &c. to sell the manor of Swanton Nowers, held by Joan, late wife of Sir Stephen Hales, with that of Branches in Wiveton, to this priory, to celebrate their anniversaries; and about the said time the prior is said to hold the 5th part of a fee of the Earl of March.

In the 3d of Henry VI. the prior had a patent for the lordship of Egmere, and tenements in Walsingham, Wighton, Waterden, &c. and in the 28th of that King their temporalities in Norfolk were taxed at 78*l.* 18*s.* ob. q. and their spiritualities at 78*l.* 16*s.* 8*d.* ob. q.

Richard Duke of York, father of King Edward IV. and patron of the priory, gave 6 acres and a rood of meadow, 26 acres of land, liberty of a tord, and messuages called the Lion, the Hoop, and the Star, and land in Walsingham Parva.

It appears that the prior had a mortuary of every parishioner in Walsingham, of the 2d best animal, and if there was but one, then of that. And in the 19th of Edward IV. in consideration that Henry Heydon, Esq. had granted to them his lands and fouldcourse in Walsingham Magna, and Hindringham, they granted to him their lands, tenements, rents, &c. in Melton Magna, Thirsford, Barney, Wode-ton, and many other towns.

In the 30th of Henry III. a fine was levied between Thorald de Briton of Wichingham, and Aveline his wife, and the prior of Walsingham, who had a grant of 24 acres of land, the services of several tenants, and 3s. 8d. per ann.

Aveline seems to have been the relict of Robert Hacon. Ralph de Fileston, gave it to his sister Aveline, in free marriage, with the consent of Maud his mother, with his homage in this town.

At the dissolution of religious houses, this fell with the rest in the 30th of Henry VIII. and was then valued, according to Dugdale, at 39l. 11s. 7d. ob. or as Speed, at 446l. 14s. 4d. per ann.

It was dedicated to the annunciation of the Virgin Mary; and the prior and canons were regulars of the order of St. Augustin.

PRIORS.

It is probable that Edwin, who was clerk or chaplain to Sir Geffrey de Faverches abovementioned, was the first prior.

Ralph,—Richard,—Alexander, were priors.

William, occurs prior in the first of Henry III.

Peter,—Alan, in 1253 and 1273.

William, in 1276.

John in 1290 and 1298.

1313, Walter de Wightone, admitted prior.

1335, Symon de Wjverton.

Simon Storm, or Ston; quere if not the same as occurs in 1344?

1349, Thomas de Clare, admitted prior.

1374, John de Naring.

1389, John de Hertford.

Hugh Well occurs prior, 1428.

Thomas Hunt, admitted, 1437.

1474, John Farewell.

William Lowth occurs prior 1489. In 1514, on a dispute with his canons, he was then obliged to resign; and was succeeded by Richard Fowell, prior of Lees in *Essex in 1519, being then prior of Walsingham, he was instituted October 4, rector of Egmere.

This Richard was the last prior, and surrendered it to the King; he, with Edmund Warham, the subprior, William Rose, and 19 other canons, subscribed to the King's supremacy, September 18, 1534; and on August 4, in the 30th of Henry VIII. he by deed inrolled in Chancery, surrendered this priory, with the cell of Flitcham, and all their possessions.

* He had been also rector of Belchamp Ofen, in Essex.

It appears that Sir Richard Southwell was one of the chief visitors at its dissolution, when John Lampley, William Mileham, Richard Garret, Robert Sall, John Clenchwarton, and John Watthy, canons, are said to have confessed themselves guilty of notorious incontinency, and that great superstition and much forgery was found in their feigned, pretended relicks and miracles.⁵

Vowel the prior, on the surrender, had a pension for life of 100*l.* per ann. and all the canons that signed the surrender with him, had certain pensions for life. In 1555, those who were then living, had the following pensions: John Harlow and Richard Garret, each, 5*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* per ann.—William Read, 6*l.*—Simon Brond, 4*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*—William Watkyn, Humphrey Wilson, Thomas Paule, Martin Claxton, and John Clerke, each, 4*l.* per ann.—Laurence Kidwell and Thomas Keyme, each, 40*s.* per ann.

I have seen a written note that says, in 1536, "This yer was Ralf Rogers and George Gysborrow, the subprior of Whalsyngham, with others, to the number of 15, condemned of treson, whereof 5 suffered."

The priory church was a grand edifice. The length of the nave from the west door to the great tower, or belfry, in the church, was 70 paces; the breadth of the nave (excepting the two isles) was 16 paces; the great tower, or bell-tower, was a square of 16 paces; the length of the choir was 50 paces, and the breadth 17; besides this, there was a building, probably at the east end of the choir, of 16 yards long and 10 broad.

But the greatest beauty and glory of this priory was the chapel⁶ of the blessed Virgin, which is said to have been about 8 yards long and 4 yards and 10 inches wide.

The remains of the building of the abbeve, now standing, are a large portal at the west entrance, very entire; the east window of the chapel, a very fine and richly ornamented high arch, built in the reign of Henry VII. the old one being pulled down; the refectory very entire, 78 feet long, and 27 broad; the walls 26 feet and an half high, the measures taken withinside. A good west window, and stone pulpit in it; the whole building very entire, with an old very good roof upon it. Buck in his plate of it (published in 1738, and dedicated to Henry Lee Warner, Esq.) has taken the roof off.

Twelve columns, with entire Gothick arches, part of the old cloisters built long before the last chapel.

The old abbey wall, near a mile in circuit, very entire. A stone bath, and two uncovered wells.

The length of the cloister (which was four square) was 54 paces. The length of the chapter-house 20 paces, the breadth 10.

Erasmus acquaints us that the chapel was a separate building from the priory church, and that it was not quite finished in his time: in this unfinished building there is (says he) a small chapel, all of wood, on each side of which is a little narrow door, where those were admitted who came with their offerings and paid their devotions, and had no light but from the wax candles, the odour of which was delightful, and glittered with jewels, gold and silver, insomuch, that it seemed to be the seat of the Gods." At the altar here was a canon resident, who received and took care of the offerings.

⁶ Founded in honour of the Annunciation. John Alcock, Bishop of Ely, granted 40 days pardon or indulgence, to all who before the altar of Sir John Cheyney, Knt. in the priory church, should hear mass, or the Lord's Prayer, with the angelick salutation for the souls of Sir John and the Lady Agnes his wife.

Hugh Blyford, priest, was keeper of this chapel, and buried therein in 1534.⁷

So great was the fame of this idol or image of the Lady of Walsingham, that foreigners of all nations came on a pilgrimage to her, insomuch that the number of her devotees and worshippers seemed to equal those of the Lady of Loretto in Italy, and the town of Walsingham Parva owed its chief support and maintenance thereto.

On March 24, in his 26th year, Henry III. appears to have paid his devotion to her; his precept enjoining all who held lands in capite, to meet him on the octaves of Easter, at Winchester, on an expedition into Crescoign, being dated here as above.

King Edward I. was here on January 8, in his 9th year;⁸ and again in his 22th year, on the purification of the Virgin; and on October 6, in his 9th year, King Edward II.

In the 35th of Edward II. John de Montfort Duke of Britain in France came, and had the King's liberate to the treasurer and chamberlains of the Exchequer, to deliver 9*l.* for the expenses of his journey here, and back to London; and in the said year the Duke of Anjou had license to visit here, and the shrine of St. Thomas of Canterbury.

David Bruys King of Scotland, had, in the 38th of the said King, a protection to come here, with 30 horse in his retinue; and his Queen, Margaret, made a vow to visit also St. Thomas of Canterbury.

Isabel, Countess of Warwick, in 1439, bequeathed her tablet, with the image of our Lady, to the church of Walsingham, which had a glass over it; also to the Lady there, her gown of alyz cloth of gold, with wide sleeves, and a tabernacle of silver like in the timbre, to that of our Lady of Caversham.

King Henry VII. mentions in his will, that he had ordered an image of silver, and gilt, to be made and offered up, and set before the Lady of Walsingham; and orders a like image for St. Thomas of Canterbury.

King Henry VIII. in his second year, shortly after Christmas, between Twelfth-day, and the Queen's churching, rode here: and in the said year, May 14, as appears in a MS. of payments, by the keeper of the privy seal, 6*s.* 8*d.* were then paid to Mr. Garney's for the King's offering to her, and signed by the King's hand.

Queen Catharine his wife, during the King's absence in France, in his 5th year, came and returned thanks to the Lady, for the great victory over the Scots at Floddenfield.

Sir Henry Spelman says, that when he was a youth, it was commonly reported that King Henry VIII. walked barefoot from the town of Barsham, to the chapel of the Lady, and presented her with a necklace of very great value.

⁷ Regist. Briggs, Norw. fol. 94

⁸ As appears by a patent dated here for the repair of London bridge.

Queen Catharine, in her will, desires that 500 masses should be said for her soul, and that a person should make a pilgrimage to our Lady at Walsingham, and distribute 200 nobles in charity upon the road. Smollet's Hist. vol. vi. p. 31.

So superstitious, so weak and credulous, were the commonalty, that they believed (as they were then imposed upon and taught) the Galaxius, or (what is called in the sky) Milky Way, was appointed by Providence to point out the particular place and residence of the Virgin, beyond all other places, and was, on that account, generally in that age, called Walsingham-Way; and I have heard old people of this country so to call and distinguish it some years past.

Among the many miracles, &c. that were ascribed to her, I cannot pass by one; on the north side at which you enter the close of this priory, was a very low and narrow wicket door, through which it was difficult for any one to pass on foot, being, as an old MS. says, "Not past an elne hye, and three quarters in bredth. And a certain Norfolk knight, Sir Raaf Boutetourt, armed cap a pee, and on horse-back, being in days of old, 1314, persued by a cruel enemy, and in the utmost danger of being taken, made full speed for this gate, and invoking this Lady for his deliverance, he immediately found himself and his horse within the close and sanctuary of the priory, in a safe asylum, and so fooled his enemy."

A memorial of this miracle was engraven on a plate of copper, whereon was the effigies of the Knight, his horse, &c. and nailed on the gate of the priory, and was seen by Erasmus, who also observes that there was preserved one joint of a finger of St. Peter, as large as that of the Colossus at Rhodes, &c.

But this so famous image of the Lady was, in the 30th of Henry VIII. brought to Chelsea by London, and there publickly burnt.

The seal of the priory was on the one side, the effigies of the Virgin seated, and the child Jesus in her arms; on the reverse the front or west-end of the priory church.

The offerings to this Lady, one year, amounted to 260*l.* 12*s.* 4*d.* ob.

The site of the priory was sold by King Henry VIII. for 90*l.* to Thomas Sydney, Gent. of Walsingham Parva, and Agnes his wife; the grant is dated November 7, ao. 31, with the churchyard, orchards, gardens, &c. and he was found to die seized of it in 1544.

This Sydney, as Sir Henry Spelman relates, was governor of the Spittle in this town, (as was reported,) and employed by the townsmen to buy the site of the priory for the use of the town, but obtained and kept it to himself.

It appears by an inquisition, on his death, that he was styled Gentleman, and was 2d son of William Sydney, Esq. by Thomasine his wife, daughter and heir of John Barrington, Esq. widow of William Lunsford of Battle in Sussex, and brother to Nicholas Sydney ancestor to the Earls of Leicester.

Thomas Sidney, Esq. son and heir of Thomas aforesaid, possessed it on his father's death, was customer of Lynn, and lett by Barbara his wife, sister of the great Sir Francis Walsingham, 2 sons; Thomas, the eldest, married Mary, daughter of Sir Robert Southwell, and dying without issue, Henry his brother succeeded, who was a knight, and married Jane, daughter of Francis Jermy, Esq. of Brightwell in Suffolk, and having no children, gave it to Robert Sidney Earl of Leicester.

After this, it was held by Nicholas Rookwood, Gent.

In this town of Walsingham Parva was also an house or priory of Grey Friars or Friars Minors, founded by the Lady Elizabeth de Burgh Countess of Clare, who had a patent for it in the 21st of Edward III.

The prior and convent of the canons here petitioned that lady against this foundation as their patroness, and exhibited several reasons.

First, that the parish churches would lose so much tithes as would be within the walls of the house that was to be built.

Secondly, the parishioners would neglect the parish churches, go to their oratory, hear mass, and make their offerings, &c. there.

Thirdly, that the goods of the present priory and canons would not keep them half a year, much less if any other order should come into the town; and whereas this order proposes to give caution that they will not prejudice the present priory, no caution can be taken, for they are to have no lands, nor goods, by virtue of their rule, or can or ought to procure any new habitation without the Pope's leave, under pain of excommunication; and they have places enough already hereabouts, viz. at Burham, 4 miles on one side, and at Snitterley on the other side, &c.

In the 8th of Richard II. they had a grant for turning the way leading from North Barsham, and inclosing it, to enlarge their manse.

In the reign of Henry VI. Richard Duke of York, their patron, aliened to them a messuage, 3 acres of land, a garden, 4 tenements, &c.

Robert Grey of Walsingham gave by will, in 1514, to the friars, two pair of censors of silver, of 10 marks value each.

Robert Pigot, buried here 1491, gives 6s. 8d. for his burial, 6s. 8d. to pray for his soul, and 6s. 8d. for a breakfast.

St. Anthony's altar here.

The site of this house was granted to John Eyer Esq. February 20, in the 36th of Henry VIII. then in the tenure of Roger Townsend and Thomas Sydney; valued at its dissolution at 3*l. per ann.* and in or near to it was a lady anchoress in 1526, &c.

Nehemiah Bond was owner of it in 1648, and left it to John Bond his son, and he held it in 1715.

The church of this friery is said to have been 54 paces long, and 52 broad, and the length and breadth of the great tower in the middle of it, 10 paces.

Sir Henry Spelman says⁹ that Mr. Jener was also possessed of it, and left it to his eldest son, Thomas, who settled it on his daughter, who married Bernard Utber, and was sold, as I take it, by Utber's daughter to Bond.

The free-school here is said to be founded by one Bond, who settled 43*l. per ann.* on the master, &c. Robert Baxter at Aylesham, by his will, dated April 2, 1572, seems to be a benefactor.

The bridewell was anciently a spittle-house: I find it mentioned in 1486; and in 1491, Robert Pigot, by his will dated September 13, gives his messuages, called the Spittle-houses, with the lands, freemen, and villains thereto belonging, in Walsingham and Houghtou to Robert Godfrey, alias Butcher, of Walsingham, and others, on condition that they settle them on John Ederich, a leprous of Norwich, and Cecil his wife, for their lives, and after; their assigns to admit thereto (for ever to remain) two leprous men, or one, of good families; and when they died, two, or one other of the same sort.

Nicholas Well, citizen and mercer, covenanted with the Earl of March, lord of the town, 16th Richard II. Jan. 17, the prior, John and Thomas de Lexham, &c. of this town, to enclose an old way called Oldmil's Sty, and to lay out another more convenient. He also built a fountain of stone at Blethow.

In 1675, by an account then taken of those in this town, who were above 16 years, the number is said to have been 503. It is a market town, the market being on Friday, and has a fair on Whitsun-Monday.

It gives title to the Lady Melosina de Schulemburge, created by King George I. Baroness of Alborough, Countess of Walsingham, April 10, 1722, and Dutchess of Kendal.

Called in the grand survey, Guella, as seated on a rivulet, near the great German ocean: Gui, Qui, and Wy, are British words, and many rivers there are which bear these names. The Conqueror gave the principal part or lordship here to Aldit, (and it was the only one that he possessed in this county,) on the deprivation of Ketel, who held it with 2 carucates of land in the reign of the Confessor; 5 villains and seven borderers belonged to it, and there were two in demean, with one among the tenants, pasture for 200 sheep, 4 cows, and at the survey 16; also a mill, and it extended into Warham, there being 19 socmen with their lands, who resided in Warham, as I have there observed.¹

The whole was valued in Ketel's time at 5*l.* but in Aldit's at 4*l. per ann.* was one leuca long and one broad, and paid with Warham 24*d.* gelt.

STAFFORD'S MANOR.

How long Aldit possessed it does not appear; after him the Giffards Earls of Bucks were lords of it, from whom it came to the Earls of Clare, as may be seen at large in Warham-Hall manor.

In the 14th of Edward I. Gilbert de Clare Earl of Gloucester, &c.

claimed wreck of sea, and it was found, that if a ship was in danger of a wreck, none of the men of Wells, Holkham, &c. dared to help, for fear of the Earl of Gloucester's bailiff; that if the ship was broke, and all the men drowned, the Earl had all the goods, but if a dog was left alive, then only a moiety; and that the Earl had a court in North Greenhow hundred, in which, if any one was injured, it was difficult to have any remedy. He had also assise of bread and beer, gallows, tumbrell, infangthyof, &c. and free warren; and this lordship, with that of Warham, was valued at 30*l. ob. q. per ann.*

On the death of Gilbert de Clare, the last of that name, Earl of Gloucester, in the 7th of King Edward II. his estate being divided between his 3 sisters and coheirs, this lordship came to Margaret, or Maud, who married first, Piers de Gaveston, (the King's great favourite,) and after Hugh de Audley, who in her right was lord of this town, and Earl of Gloucester; and on his death, in the 21st of Edward III. it descended to his only daughter, Margaret, wife of Ralph Lord Stafford.

In the 3d of Henry IV. Edmund Earl of Stafford was found to die seized of one fee here held in capite, called Colvile's and Huckbeche's, late the Earl of Gloucester's.

In this family it continued till the attainder of Edward Stafford Duke of Bucks, who was beheaded May 13, 1521, being then valued at 30*l. 11s. 10d. per ann.* and on July 12, in the 14th of Henry VIII. it was granted to Thomas Howard, Duke of Norfolk, and so remained in that family till the attainder and death of the Duke of Norfolk, in 1572.

King James I. in the beginning of his reign, gave it to Henry Howard Earl of Northampton, who was lord in the 7th of the said King; and in 1626, Thomas Howard Earl of Arundel and Surry.

By indenture, dated in the 13th of Charles II. John Dir, alias Ramsey, of Wickmere in Norfolk, heir to his uncle, John Dir, deceased, (a trustee for Thomas, late Earl of Arundel) being seized of it, for the payment of that Earl's debts, granted and released it to Sir William Playters of Sotterley in Suffolk, Bart. and Sir Richard Onslow of West Clendon in Surry, Knt.

After this, it was possessed by Thomas Lord Astley, and by him sold to Sir Cloudesley Shovell, an admiral, and so passed to Sir Charles Turner, Bart. whose nephew, Sir John Turner, Bart. is the present lord.

NORMAN'S MANOR.

Part of this town was a bernite to the Conqueror's lordship of Wighton: here and in Warham, one carucate of land belonged to it.² This seems to have remained in the Crown till King Henry I. granted it to Robert, son of Ernisius, and was afterwards forfeited to the Crown, and granted to Jeffrey Fitz-Piers Earl of Essex, as may be seen in Northall manor in Warham.

In the 36th of Henry VIII. Ralph Symonds was found to die possessed of it; and Ralph Symonds of Cley was his cousin and heir.

² Terra Regis. In Guelle et in Guarham i car. t're. s. i car. posset'ee.

From the Symonds's it came to Edward Clerk, Gent. and after to Mr. Curteys, merchant of Well.

At the survey the Conqueror had also a lordship of which Godric was bailiff, or his steward, and was a beruite to his manor of Stifkey, in King Edward's time, when Toke was lord: there was one carucate of land, but when Godric entered on it, there was none; 4 borderers then belonged to it, with half a carucate, &c. and 4 socmen, with 8 acres and half a carucate, also 13 socmen, with 40 acres of land, and half a carucate in King Edward's time, then valued at 4*l.* now at 6*l.*³

This fee seems to have been in the Earls of Clare, and so united to the capital manor of Stafford's.

Alan Earl of Richmond had also a lordship here and in Warham, held of him by Ribald: of this see in Warham.

There were also 2 men belonging to the Bishop of Thetford's lordship of Hindringham, who had 12 acres, with pasture for 100 sheep.⁴

Peter Lord Valoins' manor of Bynham extended into this town, consisting of half a carucate of land, and one borderer, valued at 4*l.* at the survey, after at 20*l.* together with the lordship of Bynham, &c.⁵

Roger Lord Valoins, son of Peter, who founded the priory of Bynham, gave to that priory all the land of this fee here, which Robert Godchild held, and Robert his son confirmed it.⁶ Richard, prior, and the convent of Norwich, with the consent of William Bishop of Norwich, about 1156, gave to the priory part of Wells-Marsh, for 5*s.* rent. Several of the family of De Snaring gave lands here.

In the 25th of Henry VI. the prior had a lete, and goods of felons belonging to his manor. About this time their temporalities were valued at 10*2s.* and 1*d.* per ann. At the dissolution it was granted November 15, in the 33d of Henry VIII. to Sir Thomas Paston.

In the reign of James I. it was in the hands of Edmund Doyly of Shottesham, Esq. and Sir Cloudesley Shovell, admiral, had it about 1700; afterwards Sir Charles Turner, Bart.

The CHURCH is a rectory, dedicated to All-Saints, anciently valued at 32 marks, Peter-pence 9*d.* ob. The prior of Bynham had a portion of 10*s.* per ann. On a complaint made by Thomas, rector of this church, to the Pope, sans date, for tithe, it was ordered that the priory tithes should be demised to him, for 10*s.* rent per ann. who released to them all their small tithes for 3 lambs, and 3 cheeses per ann. and for the tithe of the mill; if a layman held it, he should pay to the priory two parts of them, and one to the rector.

The present value is 26*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* and pays tenths, &c. Sir William de Clare gave the church of Warham (as it is said) to the abbot of Fonteney in France; and the abbot, by fine, in the 35th of Henry III. granted to him the patronage of this church.

HAPPING HUNDRED.

IN the reign of King Edward the Confessor, and at the survey, it is written Hapincha, and Hapinga, and in that of Henry the First's Happeshburgh, as appears from the charter of that King to the abbey of Wymondham: Will. de Burgh, in the 5th of Henry III. farmed this hundred, and those of East and West Flegg, of the Crown, at 18s. per ann. In the following year, the abbot of Holm, and William Lord Montchensey, were impleaded for keeping a ferry-boat, and taking of every foot passenger an halfpenny. The said abbot, in the 3d of Edward I. was found to have made a purpresture on the common bank of the river that ran between this hundred and that of Flegg, and that, with the prior of Norwich and Lord Montchensey, hindered persons from fishing on the said bank, (which is common,) unless a certain rent was paid to them.

John de Clavering farmed the said hundreds in the 9th of Edw. II.

King James I. by letters patents, dated December 29, in the -- year of his reign, granted to Sir Cha. Cornwallis this hundred of Happing, during the lives of Charles Cornwallis, Esq. eldest son of Sir William Cornwallis, and Thomas Cornwallis, son of Sir Will. and the life of Tho. Cornwallis, Esq. 2d son of Sir Charles, paying for it, with all its rights, court leets, felons goods, &c. 6l. 15s. 4d. ob. per ann.

Ab, Ac, and Ap, signifies in the British language water, or a river, and so specifies a hundred in watery meadows, thus Apton in Tunstede hundred.

BRUNSTEAD

WAS a beruite to Roger Bigot's great lordship of Sutton, at the survey, and was held of Roger by Robert; of this Edric was deprived on the conquest, who had 2 carucates of land, 2 villans, and 4 borderers, with one carucate in demean, and one among the tenants; a church endowed with 9 acres, &c. 8 acres of meadow, a mill, &c. 40 sheep, and 30 goats; 17 freemen held 110 acres under protection only, and St. Bennet's abbey had the protection of one; and there were 2 borderers with 2 carucates and 2 acres of meadow. One freeman also had 15 acres;¹ and this at the survey belonged to Bigot's fee, and out of this arose 2 lordships.

The family of de Gerner were lords of one in the 41st of Henry III. when a fine was levied between Stephen de Gerner, and William de Gerner, and Alice his wife.

Stephen de Granarijs, or Gerner, held half a fee of Hugh de Vere, of the Lord Montchensy, and he of Roger Bigot Earl of Norfolk; in the said reign this Sir Hugh had it in right of Dionysia his wife, daughter and heir of William Lord Monchensie.

In the 14th of Edward I. William son of William de Gerner, was under age, and the custody of his lands belonged to John de Rudham, and of his body to Rob. de Tateshale, who granted it to John, son of John L'Estrange-Tateshale, who held it in capite, as heir to the Albini's, Earls of Arundel, to whom it came by the marriage of a daughter of Roger Bigot's; and in the 9th of Edward I. William de Gerner was lord; and William de Gerner and Roger de Walsham, held each a quarter of a fee.

John de Walsham held a quarter of a fee of the manor of Sutton, of Lord Mowbray, in the 3d of Henry IV.

Griffith Lloyd, and Catherine his wife, in the 22d of Edward IV. convey the lordship of Brunstede, Walsham's, with lands in Statham, &c. to John Richers, Esq. who by certain deeds, appears to be a lawyer of Grey's Inn, from the heirs of Catharine, likely the heiress of Walsham; and in 1500, John Richers of Swanington, by his will, dated March 4, gives it to Henry his son, who conveyed it in the 34th of Henry VIII. to Jeffrey Osborne, in trust, and Henry Richers, Esq. son of Henry, inherited it.

The family of the Parkers had a lordship, held of William Lord Monchensie, and he of the Bigots, in the reign of Henry III.

William le Parker had a lordship, and a grant of free warren in the 56th of Henry III. and in the 3d of Edward I. William le Parker, and William le Gerner, had wreck at sea in Eccles.

John de Leem, in the 6th of Edward II. conveyed by fine, to William le Parker and Agatha his wife, 13 messuages, 120 acres of land in several towns, with a messuage and lands here, and two parts of this manor and advowson.

Sir William le Parker was lord, and lived here in the 4th of Edward III. as was John Parker in the 20th of that King.

Hugh Falstolf and Robert Caly settled the manor of Parker's on William Parker and Margaret his wife, in tail, in the 5th of Richard II.; and Margaret Parker, widow, of Great Yarmouth, relict of William Parker of Brunstede, by her will, dated June, 1420, requires to be buried in the church of St. Peter's of this town, by her husband; ² gives her seals, and the arms of Eccles, to Oliver Mendham, clerk, and was proved in 1423, November 29.

This Oliver, on February 20, in the 17th of Henry VI. as a trustee, grants to William d'Engain and Margaret his wife, and the heirs of

By this it seems they were the two daughters and coheirs of William Parker, and Margaret his wife. He bore argent, three bucks heads caboshed, gules; she seems to be of the family of De Eccles, who bore, argent, on a saltire, gules, two crossier staffs in saltire, or, and a leopard's head, of the first, in the centre.

Edward Calthorp, Esq. and Thomasine his wife, convey the manor of Parker's to Sir Thomas Wodehouse; and his son, Sir Henry, was lord about 1580, and sold it to Thomas Gryme.

Sir Henry Nevill was lord of the manor in 1603, and patron of the rectory; and in 1740 the Lord Abergavenny, from whom it came to the Earl of Orford, in whose family it remains.

Robert Malet, in the 20th of Henry III. held one fee here of Roger Bigod Earl of Norfolk; and Jeffrey de Turges and Julian his wife, and Simon de Boleyn, released their interest herein, in the 37th of that King, to Jeffrey de Burdevile, which Petronilla de Malet, widow of Robert Malet, uncle of Julian, and cousin of Simon, held in dower.

Robert Roose, or Rouse, held also half a fee of Hugh de Vere, and he of the Earl-Marshal Bygot, in Edward the First's reign; one of the same name held it in the 2d of Edward II.; and in the 5th of Edward III. Henry, son of Sir Robert Rose, conveyed the manor of Rose-Hall in Brunstede, to Margaret, widow of John Elys of Great Yarmouth, &c. Reginald Hervey, and Isabel his wife, convey to John Elys, of Brunstede, four marks rent out of lands held here, &c. in the 18th of Richard II.

Sir Miles Stapleton, Sir Simon Felbrigg, &c. held it as feoffees in the 3d of Henry IV.

CATFIELD.

THE abbot's manor of Ludham extended into this town, and was part of his barony, and held it by the gift of King Canute. In the reign of Edward I. there was an agreement between Sir Hugh de Vere, and Dionysia his wife, who held a moiety of the town, as heir to the barony of Montchensy, about the right of common here, as may be seen in Ludham; the abbot enjoyed the same privileges here as in other manors; and his temporalities, in 1428, were valued at 40*s.*

E C C L E S

WAS an hamlet to the great lordship of Hapsburgh, held by Edric the Dane, in the Confessor's time, and after by Ralph Earl of Norfolk, who, on his rebellion against the Conqueror, forfeited it. At the survey it was in the King's hands, and Godric took care of it as steward to the King; and it is accounted for in the book of Domesday in Hapesburgh.

The Conqueror, soon after the survey, gave it to Roger Bigot, ancestor to the Earls of Norfolk, in frank marriage with Ida de Tony; and the said Roger gave it on the marriage of Maud his daughter, to William de Albin, ancestor of the Earls of Arundel, &c. and the King's butler.

This lordship was held by the family of Le Parker, and by that of de Gener, in two moieties. In the 20th of Henry III. John le Parker had half a fee, of the honour of Rysing castle; in the 52d of that King, William de Parker of Brunstead had wreck at sea here; and in the 54th a fine was levied between him, and William de l'Gerner, by which it was agreed that the patronage of the church of Eccles should be alternate.

On Wednesday after the feast of St. Gregory, in the 33d of Edward I. by an inquisition taken at Eccles, before Robert Hereward, sheriff of Norfolk, it was found that William le Parker held this lordship of the inheritance of Nichola, formerly wife of John de Somery, as sister and coheir of the fourth part of the inheritance of Hugh, formerly Earl of Arundel, by half a fee; that there was a geld paid to the hundred of Happing, by the men of Eccles, and the tenants of the said William, besides 12*d.* which he paid for himself; and that the said William had these liberties belonging to his manor:

Cognisance of the pleas of his tenants and others, in his court here, to be held at his will;—also once a year, he had view of frank pledge, at one day's warning, as he pleases, from the feast of St. Martyn, in winter, till Easter, at which day he shall, for the certainty of the lete of his tenants, and residents within the lete, and the capital pledges and headboroughs at that day, pay a geld fee (sum not mentioned) to the bailiff of the hundred.

Also at that view the headboroughs shall answer the lord for all transgressions done in the said village, by any strangers in the whole year, or deliver to the lord the goods taken by distress of the delinquents.

Also the aforesaid William hath in the said village, wreck of sea, toll, lagan, and resting geld, customs and other profits upon the sea, and upon the land; to gather, and keep which, one bedel ought to be chose by all the headboroughs at the view.

Also the said William hath a custom, that of every crew of a ship, or boat, washing their nets in the said village, after Michaelmas to Martlemas, he shall have an hundred herrings.

Also he claims liberty of resting-geld, of the beasts of any strangers, resting one night on the common of the said village, in shack time, or in the time when the lands are enclosed of any tenant, for every fat beast an ob. as for horses, bullocks, oxen, steers, and cows, and for hogs not ringed, and for 3 hogs ringed, ob. and for 3 sheerlings, ob. for 3 calves, ob. for four geese, ob. and for 4 pigs, ob. and so in any other time, as well as in shack-time, he shall have of resting-geld double.

And he hath also another custom of resting-geld, that of all goods, chattels, things, and merchandises, coming to land by sea, without the help of the said William or his servant, or resting upon the land one day and one night, the said William shall have of all things worth 20s. 14d. and the price of those ought to be set by 4 or 6 of the headboroughs of the view of frank-pledge; and if the said William or his men, &c. immediately after imminent danger or after shipwreck, shall do their endeavour to save such things, then the said William shall have a third part of all such things, or the value of them, unless of his good will he will omit something, but must not be asked.

And if the aforesaid goods, merchandises, and other such goods and chattels, have rested there above one night and one day, then he shall have of them according to his pleasure, and according to what the possessors of them can agree among themselves.

Also he hath free bull and boar, wherever they shall stray through the whole hundred of Happing, no where to be impounded.

Also weyf and stray, liberty of a gallows and tumbrel, stolen goods of felons, free warren, and whatever is found far in the sea, called jetsan, free fold, so that no man can have a fold, unless for a certain fine, paid to him; common pasture for all cattle, and free fishing in the marshes of Ingham, Hickling, Lesingham, Hempstede, Palling; Waxham, and Horsey, yet no one of the said villages has any right of common here, or any in the said village, except they hold their tenements of this manor, and unless they hire it yearly of the said William.

Also all the tenants of the said William shall be free from toll in all places in England, for all things to be sold.

He also hath other customs; heweshift, reveshift, hirdeshift, ingeld-felsue, and bedgild, well known among them.

Herdershift, whereby the whole homage ought every year to choose one shepherd, for whom they ought to answer for the keeping the sheep of the said William.

Heweshift, reveshift, and ingel, are tributes paid to the lord's tenants.

Felsne, is money paid by the tenants to the lord, and was 20s. per ann. for the common aid.

Bedgeld is at every wedding of the men and women of the homage, the lord was to have a certain bed, or the price, according to the degree of the person married, whether noble or ignoble.

All these liberties and customs were allowed to belong to the aforesaid William Parker, by the high sheriff and jury in the inquisition abovementioned.

Will. le Parker, Esq. was living, and lord in the 9th of Henry IV. and sealed with three bucks heads, caboshed, and seems to have left 2 daughters and coheirs, married to the d'Engains.

On February 20, in the 17th of Henry VI Oliver Mendham, clerk, a trustee, granted to William d'Engain, and Margaret his wife, and the heirs of Margaret, a moiety of this manor and advowson, and in fault of Margaret's issue, remainder to Alice, wife of Peter d'Engain; and William Dengain, Esq. presented to this church in 1446, and 1466.

After this, it was in the Coots Richard Coote of Blownorton, Esq. who married Margaret, daughter of ——— Calthorp, was lord in the reign of Henry VII. and left it to his son, Christopher, who sold it to Ann Stede, widow of John Stede, Esq. in the 30th of Henry VIII. January 13, and she gave it to her son, William Brampton, Esq. by her husband, John Brampton, Esq. William dying s. p. was succeeded herein, by his brother, Thomas Brampton, Esq. who by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of ——— Rookwood of Langham in Norfolk, left Henry his son and heir, who inherited it.

This Henry, and Catharine his wife, passed it by fine to Roger Drury, Gent. of Yarmouth, with 10 messuages, 5 cottages, 140 acres of land, 20 of meadow, 30 of pasture, 10 of wood, 200 of heath, and 20s. rent in this town, and Hapsburgh, and kept his first court in the 37th of Elizabeth. Roger was 2d son of William Drury, Esq. of Beshorp, and father of Sir Drue Drury of this town, and Rollesby, Knt. and Bart.

The family of De Gerner (as I have observed) held a moiety of this manor; and William de Gerner held it by half a fee in the 41st of Henry III. of the honour of Rysing castle.

William, son of William de Gerner, was lord in the 14th of Edw. I. and had free warren. William de Gerner and Lucia his wife, settled in trust on Alexander, son of Walter de Walcote, and Thomas his brother, 16 messuages, 120 acres of land, 12 of pasture, 31 of wood, and 40s. rent in this town, Hempsted, Palling, and Stalham, with the advowson of this church.

Alexander Gerner, and Drogo his son, were living in the 31st of Edward III. and Drogo gave lands in the 40th of that King, in Tunsted, to the vicar of that church, for life.

John de Beketon was lord in the 3d of Henry IV. and held it by half a fee of the castle of Rysing: and in the 8th of Henry V. Sir Ralph Cromwell held it in capite. After this, it seems to be in the Calthorps and Sir William Calthorp had an interest herein in the 22d of Edward IV.

Francis Calthorp, in the 19th of Henry VIII. let to farm, to Thomas Woodhouse, Esq. of Waxham, the site of the manor of Eccles for 99 years, which lease was assigned November 7, in the 34th of Elizabeth, to Roger Drury, Esq. lord of the other moiety, who conveyed his right therein to Thomas Corbet, Esq. of Sprouston, with his own lordship, in 1611.

Ann Corbet, widow of Thomas Corbet, mother of Miles Corbet, Esq. and Mary his wife, Ed. Corbet, clerk, and Maud his wife, in the 19th of King Charles I. sell it to Thomas Thorogood and Frances his wife, who let it for 43*l.* per ann.

This Thomas was rector of Cressingham Magna, and kept his first court here in 1645, January 15.

On May 20, 1668, Thomas Thorogood sold it for 720*l.* to Edward Lamb, of Cawston; and Edward Lamb, Gent. was lord in the 9th of William III. and John Lamb. Gent. presented to the church as lord in 1738.

In 1605, the inhabitants of this village petitioned that their taxes might be moderated, setting forth that it had been a good town for fishermen, and that 80 or more householders had inhabited it, and 1300 acres of land belonged to it, but there were at that time but 14 householders, and not above 300 acres of land, the rest being all destroyed by the sea, together with the church; and in the 19th of King Charles I. at a sessions in January, at Norwich, they set forth that there had been 2000 acres, and 100 only were left, and they daily wasting.

In this village the abbey of St. Bennet had at the survey, a freeman, who held 15 acres, and paid all customary dues, valued at 15*d.* per ann. The King and the Earl had the soc.⁵

H A P P E S B U R G H.

EDRIC, a thane, or nobleman of Danish extraction, (as I take it,) held this great lordship in the reign of King Edward; of whom see in Sutton: 21 villains, 20 borderers, and 3 servi, had 13 carucates of land, there were three in demean also, with 9 carucates of meadow among the tenants, paunage for 16 swine, 4 cows, 18 swine, and 200 sheep; and 21 socmen held then 86 acres, and 5 carucates; twelve freemen held 4 carucates of land, of whom Edric had the protection only, and 8 villains, and 9 borderers, and a moiety of another belonged to them, with one servus, and half a carucate. These Edric, a man or dependant of Alan Earl of Richmond, seized on or invaded, and pledged them: there were then 10 carucates, and Ralph, the Earl of Norfolk, (who had a grant of this lordship on the expulsion of Edric the Dane,) added those freemen to the lordship, and so subjected them to the lord, with certain rents and duties, who before only chose one of power to protect them.

On this, we find that their tenures were taxed with the lordship, and Ralph Guader, Earl of Norfolk, was their lord, when he forfeited this manor, on his rebellion, valued at 7*l.* and what the freemen had at 40*s.*

In Ralph's time it was valued at 10*l.* at the survey it paid in all, 16*l.* quitrent, and 20*s.* for an income, and was one leuca and a half long, and the same in breadth, and 30*d.* also income whoever may be lord.⁶ Robert Malet claimed this lordship, and says that his father possessed it, when he was made marshal of the army, and the hundred witnessed this, but yet he did not hold it at the time of his death.⁷

After this, the Conqueror granted it to Roger Bigot, ancestor to the Earls of Norfolk. He gave it in frank marriage with his daughter, Maud, to William de Albiny, the King's, butler ancestor to the Earls of Arundel and Sussex.

This William, on his foundation of the priory of Wymondham, granted this whole town of Happesburgh (except the land of Ansgot the chamberlain) to the said priory, which was a cell to the abbey of St. Alban's,⁸ and, afterwards, at the burial of the aforesaid Maud his wife, confirmed the aforesaid grant, and on the said day gave the priory possession by delivering them a cross of silver, &c. King Henry I. and Richard I. granted them many privileges, and the prior, as lord of this manor, enjoyed the same privileges as the abbot of St. Alban's.

King Henry III. in his 39th year, April 17, directed his writ to Robert Savage, high sheriff of Norfolk, to cause a jury of 12 men, as well knights as lawful freemen to enquire, on oath, whether this prior, &c. had, or ought to have, the privileges that he claimed; witness, Henry de Bath, at Westminster; and he proved his right by charter; he had wreck at sea from the bounds of Eccles to the boundaries or division of this hundred, and that of Tunstede, and all ecclesiastical jurisdiction in this manor,⁹ as appears by a sentence given for them against the dean of Waxham, &c. by virtue of the privileges of Popes to the abbey of St. Alban's, of which this priory was a cell.

The temporalities of this priory, in 1428, were valued at 59*l.* 12*s.* 11*d.* ob. q.

On the Dissolution it came to the Crown, and on December 27, in the 3d of Edward VI. was granted to Sir John Clere.

It was, April 11, in 1549, first granted by King Edward VI. to Thomas Thirlby Bishop of Norwich, and his successours; but on June 19, 1550, the King reassumed it, and gave it to Sir John Clere; but by another grant of the said King, in the said year, it came again

William de Milliers and William Hawteyn, in the reign of Henry III. held a quarter of a fee of Robert Lord Montalt, lord of Rysing, who married one of the sisters and coheirs of Hugh de Albiny Earl of Arundel.

In the said reign a fine was levied between Godfrey de Melliers, petent, and Thomas de Whimpcell, tenent, of 30 acres of land; and in the 41st of that King, the said Godfrey impleaded William de Millers, on account of land.

In the 3d of Edward I. the heirs of William de Milliers, held here and in Wymondham, one fee, and a fourth part of the castle of Rising.

William de Milliers and his parceners held a quarter of a fee here in the 20th of Edward III.

CRISPIN'S MANOR.

In the 13th of Edward III. Simon de Crispin granted lands to Robert de Cockfield; and in the 9th of Edward II. Robert Crispin had a lordship in this town. John Crispin and his parceners, in the 3d of Henry IV. held a quarter of a fee of the honour of Rysing.

John Crispin, Esq. by his will, dated August 2, 1429, desires to be buried in the cathedral church of Norwich. In 1417, this John intailed this lordship and that of Lilleford, in Essex, on his nephew, John, son of Roger Crispin, his brother, and gave to Happesburgh church, by will, 3s. 4d.—and 40s. to the building a new rood-loft there.

The rents of assise of this manor, in the 20th of Henry VII. of the free and copyhold tenants, were 3*l.* 11*s.* 9*d.* ob. q. per ann. the whole profits of it in rent, farms of land, &c. amounted to 13*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.* 5. paid out of this to Happesburgh manor, 16*s.* 8*d.* per ann. and a pound of pepper valued at 12*d.* To East Ruston manor, 22*d.* per ann. and to the lord of the hundred 18*d.* and for Herringby fee (viz. an acre of land) 1*d.*

In the 4th of Edward VI. Sir Roger Townsend is said to have conveyed it to Robert Cook, by fine.

James Scambler, senior, Esq. died seised of it in 1633, and left it to his nephew, James Scambler, Esq. as in Hickling priory.

Alan Earl of Richmond, had a small fee here, of which 2 freemen were deprived at the conquest, who held 100 acres of land, 60 of which were the demean lands of Happesburgh, when Earl Ralph forfeited it, but Edric invaded it, and calls on Ivo de Tailbois and his parceners to warrant and pledge it; five borderers belonged to it with a carucate, and 60 acres valued at 6*s.* and 40 acres at 4*s.*¹

This seems to be held of the honour of Richmond, by the Lords de Valoines, who also held Hickling, Ingham, by the same tenure, see there. James Scambler, Esq. lord, died in 1633, and left it to his nephew.

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Mary, and was a rectory, valued at 53 marks, and granted to the priory of Wymondham, by the founder, soon after, and a vicarage was settled, valued at 5 marks.

In the reign of Edward I. it appears that the vicar had no house or land, and the priory had the patronage of the vicarage, which was settled before the year 1229;² it was to consist of all oblations in the tithes of flax, hemp, calves, colts, geese, of merchandise, in wills and oblations of the dead, and of yards, (curtilagis,) and homestalls.

Walter, archdeacon of Norfolk, agreed in 1251, to receive but one mark procurations for himself and successors. The Peter-pence were 30*d.*

IN the survey I find mention made of the town of Wimpwell, of which the abbot of St. Bennet was lord, containing a carucate and half of land, with 5 villains and 2 borderers, one carucate in demean, and one among the tenants, 4 acres of meadow, &c. and a freeman who was only under protection, and was expelled, had 9 acres and half a carucate, valued at 12*d.* the King and the Earl had the soc; the whole manor was valued at 30*s.* but Godric paid 4*l.* when he held it, as belonging to the Earl's fee.³ The abbot also held 12 acres, valued at 32*d.* of which a freeman had been deprived.

OVERHALL MANOR, &c.

Geffrey de Hickling held it of Eustace de Fesci in the 13th of King John, by one knight's fee, as Brian, father of Geffrey, did of William, father of Eustace, who held it of the Lord Robert de Valoines, and he of the honour of Richmond.

Thomas de Hickling claimed view of frank pledge, &c. in the 14th of Edward I. and Brian de Iketing and Elizabeth his wife, in the 29th of that King; and in the 2d of Edward II. William de Valoines settled it on his own decease, on Sir Robert de Ufford, of Suffolk, and Cecilia his wife. Thomas de Hickling and Dionysia his wife, held it of Cecilia by one fee, and the service of 10*s.* per ann. to Richmond castle, it being valued at 4*l.* 18*s.* 3*d.* per ann.

Brian was found their son and heir, aged 3 years; Dionysia had dower herein, and paid 10*l.* for license to remarry.

This part, thus held by de Hickling, was the lordship of Netherhall; the lordship of Overhall, in this parish, being held by Valoins, and now by the Earl of Suffolk.

In the 19th of Edward III. Sir Edmund de Ufford, le Frere, (that is brother to the Earl,) settled it as a trustee, on William, son of Robert Earl of Suffolk. William Earl of Suffolk died seized of Overhall manor in the 5th of Richard II. and it was after held by Isabel his wife, on whose death, in the 4th of Henry V. it came to the Lord Scales, who, with the Lord Willoughby, and Lord Ferrers of Groby, were heirs to William, late Earl of Suffolk.

Robert Lord Scales dying in the 7th of Henry V. Thomas, his brother, succeeded, who was lord in the 35th of Henry VI. and held it of the honour of Richmond; and Elizabeth, his daughter and heir, brought it by marriage to Anthony Woodville Lord Scales; and on the death of that lady, in the 13th of Edward IV. it was held by that lord, and granted with the lordship of Middleton in Norfolk, &c. (on his being beheaded) to Thomas Duke of Norfolk, by King Richard III.; but on the accession of Henry VII. Sir William Tyndale (being found to be one of the heirs of Elizabeth Lady Scales) had, on a division of the estate, this lordship of Overhall assigned to him; and Sir Thomas Tyndale was lord in the reign of Henry VIII. and Queen Mary.

After this it was in the Throgmortons, and was forfeited to the Crown by John Throgmorton, in the reign of King James, probably one concerned in the powder plot, or in Queen Elizabeth's reign, by plotting against her.

Thomas Cross, Esq. paid a rent of 10s. per ann. for this lordship here, to the lord of Swaffham, as Richmond see.

In 1630, Sir Charles le Gross held it by lease (as I take it) of the Crown, and kept a court and a lete; and in 1638, John Row petitioned the King to have a lease of Overhall manor for 31 years.

Afterwards it was in the Calthorps, lords of Netherhall: also in this town, in 1694, Martin Calthorp, Esq. on his marriage with Elizabeth, daughter of William Wilks of London, Gent. settled Overhall and Netherhall, &c. upon her.

This Martin spent his estate, and was reduced to great poverty; his lordships here were mortgaged to Wortley Montague, Esq. who entered on them, and turned him out, about 1717.

After this it was bought by the Walpoles: in 1740, Robert Lord Walpole, possessed it, and his son, the Earl of Orford, is lord.

NETHERHALL MANOR.

The family of de Hickling abovementioned held this lordship under the Lord Valoys: but in the 42d of Edward III. Reginald de Eccles and Richard de Waterden released to Sir Edward de Berkley and his heirs, all his right in the 3d part of Netherhall manor, and in Rishangles manor, in Suffolk; and the said Sir Edward, in the 45th of that King, granted to Aubrey de Vere Earl of Oxford, &c. his right in two parts of Netherhall, which he held in right of Jane his late wife, by the courtesy of England.

John de Eccles, &c. aliened, in the 4th of Richard II. the 3d part of this manor to the priory of Hickling.

Nicholas Spark, alias Chamberlain, released to Ralph Brunkele, cousin and heir of Robert Essex of Runham, all his right in the manors, lands, &c. of Hickling, Statham, &c. in the 5th of Henry IV.

After this, it was united to Overhall manor, and was held by the Earls of Orford.

HICKLING PRIORY.

Theobald de Valoins, son of Rob. Lord Valoins, was the founder of this priory in 1185, dedicated to St. Mary, St. Austin, and All-Saints, for canons of the order of St. Austine, and endowed with the churches of Hickling, and the churches of Parham and Haketon, or Hasketon, in Suffolk, and lands at Artum. Theobald and Avice his wife gave also the church of All-Saints of Ditton in Cambridgeshire.

William Lord Montchensy gave all his and at Kessingland in Suffolk, with 4 acres of common of pasture there; Mr. Robert de Waxtonesham, or Washam, a moiety of the advowson of that church, and Henry de Fleg the advowson of the other moiety, which was confirmed by King John in his fifth year, when he granted them a charter for a weekly mercate on Friday, in this town.

King Henry III. in his eleventh year, gave license to hold a fair for three days, on the vigil, day, and the morrow of the feast of All-Saints.

rent; and in the 7th of the said King, the prior had license to purchase 2 acres of meadow of William, parson of Eccles, and in the 25th of Edward III. to purchase tenements in Horsey and Palling, and to appropriate the church of Palling, as they had in the 29th of that King for the church of Shipden.

John de Eccles, in the 4th of Richard II. and Geffrey de Somerset, convey the 3d part of Netherhall manor, which Sir William Latimer of Danby, Sir Richard Sturry, Sir Lewis Clifford, Hugh Fastolf, &c. held for the life of Sir Edward de Berkley, to find a lamp perpetually burning in the priory church.

In the said year, William de Kirdeston aliened a third part of Netherhall manor to the prioress of Redingfeld in Suffolk, who, in the 8th of that King, conveyed it with the lordship of Boylaud-Hall in North Walsham, to this priory.

The prior, in the 3d of Henry IV. held here, in Catfield, and Heigham-Potter, 3 parts of a fee of the manor of Sutton, and this lordship, of Isabel Countess of Suffolk, of her manor of Overhall, of the honour of Richmond.

The temporalities here, in 1428, were 9s. 4d.

William Clifford, Esq. by deed, reciting that Sir Lewis Clifford, his uncle, whose heir he is, granted to John Styward, &c. all his part of the manor of Netherhall, late Sir Edward de Berkleys, and whereas the prior of Hickling gave to the said Lewis and his heirs, an annuity of 20*l.* per ann. to be paid out of their manors of Hickling and Palling.

William hereby assigns the said annuity to Henry Barton, citizen of London, and his heirs, in the 7th of Henry V. and in the 7th of Henry VI. Barton assigned it to Sir John Fastolf.

Adam de Scakilthorp, rector of Causton, gave to this priory, organs, in 1370, and 20s. rent.

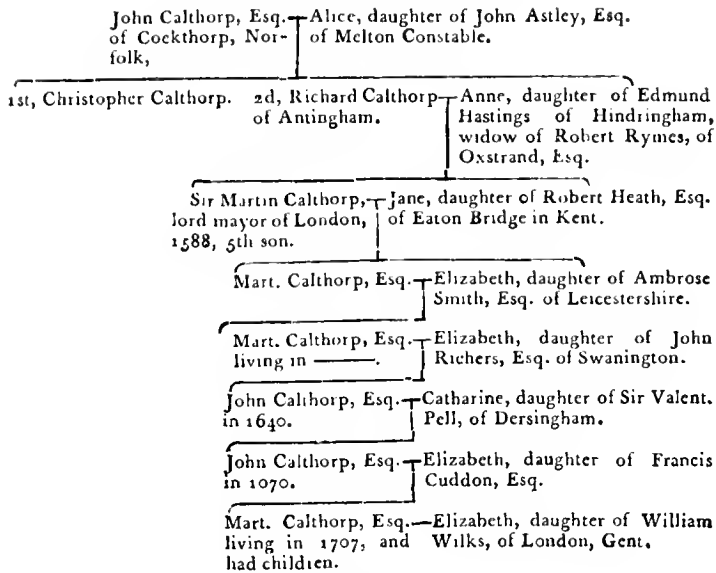

At the Dissolution it came to the Crown, and was granted (as I take it) to Sir William Wodehouse of Hickling, who was lord of it in the 30th of Henry VIII. and 2d of Edward VI.

By an inquisition taken at East Derham, April 18, in the 8th of Elizabeth, he was found to die seized of it, Nov. 15, in the 7th of that Queen, with the site and lands of the priory, and appropriated rectory, the manors of Palling, Boylaud's in North Walsham, Wyld's and Lynford's manors in Statham, Houchin's in Edingthorp, Shipdam and the park.

By Elizabeth his wife, widow of Sir Henry Parker, Knt. he left Henry his son and heir, Thomas, his 2d son, and William, his 3d son; and it was sold to Sir Martin Calthorp of London, in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, by Sir Thomas Wodehouse: Martin Calthorp, Esq. son and heir of Sir Martin, obtained in the first of King James's reign, an act of parliament (the estate being entailed) to sell lands to provide for a numerous family, and sold by license, January 12, 1602 of that King, the site of the priory, and lands, to James Scambler, senior, Esq. who died possessed of it in 1633. and left it to his nephew, James, son of his brother, Thomas Scambler, Esq. of Briston, and a great suit in chancery ensued on this sale, between Scambler the nephew, and John Calthorp, Esq.

In this family it remained till about the year 1717, when Wortley Montague, Esq. entered on it, and is now in the Earl of Orford.

HEMPSTEDE.

GODWIN Earl of Kent, father of King Harold, was lord of this town, before the conquest, when the Conqueror took possession of it, and at the survey Godric was steward, or took care of it for him: it contained 2 carucates and an half of land with 10 borderers, one carucate in demean, one among the tenants, and 15 acres of meadow, 2 cows, 13 swine, and 160 sheep; and 36 socmen held 108 acres, and there were 6 carucates; 16 freemen also had 2 carucates of land, with 3 borderers, and 6 carucates and 14 acres of meadow, then valued at 50s. and which the freemen had at 40s. but at the survey paid 8*l.* quitrent, and 20s. as an income in tale; was one leuca long and one broad, and paid 18*d.* gelt whoever held it.⁵

The family of de Colekirk or Colechurch, was, soon after the grand survey, enfeoffed of this royal manor.

Richard de Colekirk, with William and Richard his sons, were witnesses to a charter of Eborard Bishop of Norwich, in the reign of Henry I.

In the Red Book of the Exchequer, ao. 12 Henry II. we meet with this account; “ I, William de Colecherch, owe to my lord, Henry the King, the service of half a knight's fee in Norfolk, of the ancient tenure from the conquest, for I will not that my service should be concealed, but that I would do that which I ought, and I did homage to thee, my Lord, and to my Lord Henry your son, and did my service to your sheriff ”

The tenure was this lordship of Hempstede; and in the 30th of the said King, Richard his son held the same half fee; Jeffrey Peche married his widow, her custody, with that of Sara his daughter, or niece, and his heir, being granted by the King to Hugh de Cressey, who married her to Roger de S'co Dionisio (St. Dennis), and in her right was lord, and living in the 4th of *Henry III.*⁶ Sir Richard de St. Dennis was their son, and gave 50s. relief in the 22d of that King.

Hugh de St. Dennis had also an interest here, probably brother of Richard, who granted considerable lands to fund a lamp burning always in the church of St. Andrew of Hempstede, before the image of St. Margaret, for the health of his own soul, and that of his father and mother.

Sir Richard de St. Dennis left 2 daughters and coheirs; Isabel, who married John Mansell, and Joan, who married Roger le Cook, or Ken, and between these this lordship was divided, and they were living in the 3d of Edward II.

On the 24th of August, in the 5th of Edward III. Alexander de Walcote paid 15 marks to the King, on his purchasing of Roger le Ken and Joan his wife their moiety, and having license for it.

In the said year John Mansell died seized of a moiety, and Henry was his son and heir in the 5th of Edward II.

By an inquisition, taken in the 14th of Edward I. February 3, Henry Mansel was found to die seized of a moiety, and John was his son and heir by Beatrix his wife, (who survived him) daughter of Thomas de Roudham; and Sir Walter Walcot held a moiety in the 29th of that King, and presented to the church in 1355.

John Mansel died seized of a moiety August 6, in the 37th of the said King, and Walter his brother inherited it, on whose death, Alice his sister was found to be his heir, the wife of John Billing, alias de Beckham.

About this time a messuage was found to belong to it; 30 acres of it valued at 7s. 6d.; 3 of pasture at 12d.; a windmill, at 3s. 4d.; rent of assise, 8s.; 18 days work in autumn, at a penny a day: 100 days in winter, each day a halfpenny; 6 hens at Christmas, each valued at 1d.; and 120 eggs at Easter, 4d. also 30 acres in demean, held of Reginald de Eccles and the prior of Okeburn, valued at 5s. per ann.

Alice had, by John de Beckham, 2 daughters and coheirs, Beatrix and Rose; Rose married Robert Robell of Great Yarmouth, and enjoyed the moiety, late Mansell's, and paid relief for it in the 41st of Edward III.

Beatrix married Augustine Colevile, and they, in the 43d of the said King, conveyed lands in this town, by fine, to Robert Robell.

In 1383, John de Eccles de Billockby had a lordship here, and gives it, by will, to be sold, and appoints Robert Martham his executor.⁷

In 1398, Margaret, relict of Roger Gyney, by her testament, dated February 24, 1395, gives to her younger son, James Gyney, the manor of Hempstede, and lands in Eccles, with all her stock, on her death; and in the 3d of Henry IV. James Gyney, Esq. and Robert Robell, lords of Hempstede, were living; and in the following year, on an inquisition taken on Tuesday before the feast of St. Margaret the Vigin, at Norwich, John Strange escheater, Robert Robell was found to hold, at his death, February 24 past, a fourth part of this lordship, and Thomas was his son and heir.

⁶ Rot. de D'nab; &c. 30 Hen. II.

⁷ Reg. Harsyke, fol. 23.-- Ditto, fol. 256.

Beatrice, sister of this Rose, sold to this Thomas, her nephew, all her right in the said lordship, so that he enjoyed all Mansell's part.

John Gurney, Esq. had an interest herein in the 9th of that King; and in the 6th of Henry V. John Crosier had the 4th part of it.

James Gyney abovementioned, married Ela, probably daughter or sister of Thomas Robell. In the first year of Henry V. on St. Valentine's day, Robert Wright of Smalburgh, John Elwyn of Eccles, &c. convey to him a moiety of this manor, and a fourth part of the same, with the advowson of the church, and the lands and tenements, late Reginald de Eccles, so that he had 3 parts of the manor.

Ela seems to have brought with her one moiety, late Robelles: she was in the year 1420, remarried to John Ingram; and in the 22d of Henry VI. she was the wife of William Pickering, when they, with Robert Martham, encoffed John Tillesdale, &c. of three parts of this manor, late James Gyney's, by deed, dated May 20.

James, dying s. p. made Ela his wife, and John Reyner, his executors, and to sell the same.

Soon after this, on the death of the said Ela, it was conveyed by her trustees, Robert Martham, &c. to Sir Miles Stapleton of Ingham,⁸ who settled it on Elizabeth, his eldest daughter and coheir, on her marriage with Sir William Calthorp, who was lord of 3 parts in the 6th of Henry VII. and Sir Francis Calthorp was his son by the said Elizabeth, and he died seized of it in the 35th of Henry VIII. and William, his son, inherited it, who sold it about 1572 to Sir Robert Woods of Norwich, father of Robert Wood, Esq. by Anne, his wife, daughter of Augustine Steward, Esq. who married Elizabeth, daughter and coheir of John Woolmer of Thurston, whose son, Robert, by Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Thomas Richardson, left Thomas Wood, Esq. father of Thomas Wood, Esq. by Anne his wife, daughter of Thomas Peyton, Esq. which Thomas, by Ellen, daughter of Thomas Eyre, Esq. had Thomas his son, lord and patron of this town and church, and of Braconash, in 1746.

The remaining fourth part was in the hands of Thomas Stodhagh, in the 10th of Henry VI. in which year, Thomas Stodhagh, and Catherine, his wife, John Stodhagh and Catharine his wife, convey it to John Haydon, &c. with 2 messuages, 200 acres of land, 20 of meadow, 60 of heath, trustees, whereby it was settled on Thomas and Catharine for life; remainder to John and Catharine his wife; and John Stodhagh of Hempstede, Esq. in 1485, wills to be buried in this church by his father; gives to Roger his brother 10 marks, and the same sum to Richard his brother, with a legaey to the rector of this church, to pray for him and Alice his wife, and for John Stodagh and Catharine his wife, (his father and mother,) for one year every Lord's day,⁹ to William his son and heir he gives the manor of Badew Parva and Hatfield in Essex, and to Laurence his son his manor of Hempstede; proved April 21, 1486.

In the 11th of Henry VIII. John Palmer, Gent. encoffed Margaret Coot, William Paston, Esq. John Brampton, Esq. and Christopher Coot, Gent. on May 20, with 2 messuages, 100 acres of meadow, 10 of wood, and 20s. rent, &c. and in the 25th of that King, Christopher Coot and Elizabeth his wife convey it to William Lyster. After this

it was in John Bishop of Worsted, Gent. and William Bishop sold it to Michael Baker of Bacton; Baker to Repps of Hempstead, and Repps to Gyles Godrey; and John Corbet, Esq. was lord of Stody's manor, alias Bishop's, in the 15th of James I.

The tenths were 4*l.* 4*s.* Deducted 1*l.* 3*s.*

The temporalities of Okcburn priory in this town were valued at 3*l.* 6*s.* ob. q. of Bromholm, 11*s.* in 1428.

The CHURCH is a rectory, dedicated to St. Andrew, and was valued in the reign of Edward I. at 14 marks, then in the patronage of John Maunsel, lord of the manor. The rector had no house, but a grange and 17 acres. Peter-pence, 18*d.*

HIGHAM-POTTER.

THIS village is not mentioned in the book of Domesday being included and accounted for under the abbot of Holm's lordship of Waxham, or Ludham, and was given by King Canute to that abbey, on his foundation thereof, and was part of the abbot's barony of Tunsted.

In the time of Walter de Suffield Bishop of Norwich, the rent of assise was - -, and there were 75 acres of arable land at 8*d.* per acre, 57*s.* 6*d.* 10 acres of meadow at 6*d.* per acre, 5*s.* in demean; and in the 14th of Edward I. the abbot had wreck at sea, and other great privileges granted by Edward the Confessor.

In the 31th of Edward I. there was an agreement between Sir Hugh de Vere and his Lady, Dionysia, whose lordship of Sutton extended into this town, that there should be a pound made, 2 parts of it at the charge of the abbot, and one part of it at the charge of Sir Hugh, the drift of the commons to be by their 2 bailiffs, 2 parts of the profits to be to the abbot, and one to Sir Hugh;¹ that the men of both these lords should intercommon, except in Sleight common, which should be wholly to Sir Hugh's men, and that of West Fen, to the abbot's men; the fishery of Kindlos to remain to the abbot, paying 12*s.* per ann. with liberty to Sir Hugh to distrain for the rent in the abbot's manor of Ludham.

John Thorp, &c. in the 19th of Richard II. aliened to the abbey 10 acres of land here; and the temporalities of the abbot, in 1428, were valued at 7*l.* 1*d.*

On the Dissolution it came to the Crown, and on the exchange of lands between King Henry III. and the Bishop of Norwich, was granted to that see.

In Bishop Hopton's time the rent of assise was 7*l.* 15*s.* and the manor is in the see of Norwich at this time.

The tenths 5*l.* 15*s.* Deducted 1*l.* 15*s.*

In the 3d of Henry IV. the prior of Ingham had lands here, held of the manor of Sutton.

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Nicholas, and was a rectory. In the reign of King John the abbot presented Peter Bardolf to be vicar, who was to have all the altarage, tithe of hemp and flax, wool, cheese and hay, all the free land of the church, and a sheaf of the tenths of the demean of the abbot.²

In the reign of Edward I. it was a rectory, and the rector had a manse with the vicarage, valued at 30 marks; and the vicar had then all the land belonging to the church. The abbot was patron, had a portion of tithe valued at 4*s.*

1351, John Colyn, collated vicar, by the Bishop, the abbot refusing to present on the Bishop's nomination; and in 1354, it was ordained, November 29, that the abbot, &c. should pay yearly to the vicar 100s. and he was to have all the altarage: the rectory was taxed at 20 marks, and the vicarage at 10 marks.

FOUR freemen held in the Confessor's time, the principal tenure, or manor here, under the commendation or protection alone, of Edric de Laxafeld; the King and the Earl had the soc, 50 acres, with a carucate, and 6 acres of meadow belonging to it, and what they possessed was then valued at 40s. at the survey; when they were deprived, and Roger Bigot, ancestor of the Earls of Norfolk, was lord, at 68s. 8d.; the whole, with its beruits, was valued in King Edward's time at 90s. at the survey at 6l. 11s. 4d. and together with what the freemen had enjoyed at 10l. and was one of the lordships that Ralph Earl of Norfolk had, and was deprived of, on his rebellion against the Conqueror, and was taxed at 10l. per ann. when the Conqueror granted it to Roger Bigot, (as he says,) when his brother came from Apulia, with Geff. Ridel.

Roger Bigot had also 12 acres belonging to a freeman in King Edward's reign, by whom, and others in Stallham, Brunsted, &c. one carucate and 4 acres of meadow were held; of these Ailwin, his predecessor, had not even the commendation in King Edward's time, yet he claims them as belonging to his fee, by a grant of the Conqueror, because he had the commendation of them in the Conqueror's time: this was valued at 4s. and the King and the Earl had the soc.

The King had 4 freemen who held of him 20 acres, and half a carucate, valued at 2s. which also came to Roger. Ralf had 31 acres and an half, and 3 borderers, with half a carucate, and 4 acres and an half of meadow.⁴

Thomas de Thirne had an interest herein, and gave to Joseph, son of Bond de Horsey, and Hellen his niece, all the land that Bond held in this town, and what he held of his father, his mother, and his brother, paying yearly 4s. 3d.—witness, Sir Jeff. de Hickling and Brian his son, Sir Warin de Rolvesby. Sir Warin de Waxtonesham, William de Colekyrke, &c. by deed sans date: Thomas also grants to Reginald de Gelham, his nephew, son of Walter de Gelham, all the land of the fee of Joseph de Horsey, which Bond held of him and his ancestors, paying 3d. per ann.

In the 10th of Edward I. Sir Oliver de Ingham held of Thomas de Horsey, by the service of a rose, a messuage, and 40 acres of land, 10 of meadow, and Elizabeth, his widow, held it in dower, in the 15th of that King, as Mary, widow of Sir John de Ingham, did in the 9th of Edward II. from the Inghams it came, by marriage, to the Stapletons, and from them to the Calthorps, as in Ingham.

After this it was in the Pastons, and Sir William Paston died lord, in the first of Philip and Mary; in this family it continued many years, the Earl of Yarmouth being lord in 1740; after this it was sold to the Lord Anson, who died lord and patron, and his heirs possess it.

The tenths were 2l. 8s. 4d.—The temporalities of Hickling priory 9s. 6d.—of Weybridge 4s. 5d. q.

The CHURCH is dedicated to All-Saints, and was a rectory. Peter Bardulph was rector in the 13th year of King John, and had been presented to it by Godwin de Horsey: his son and heir, Adam, gave it to the priory of Hickling, and was appropriated thereto, and a vicarage was settled, in the reign of Edward I. The rectory was valued at 2 marks, the vicar had no manse, and the sacrist of that priory was said to occupy the manse which formerly belonged to the vicar. Peter-pence 8d. ob.

VICARS.

In 1315, John de Limpenhawe instituted vicar, presented by the prior.

1349, Alexander Derver.

1482, Robert North Repps, alias Webster.

1521, Edmund Whitsted: after this it was held several years by sequestration.

On the dissolution, this rectory impropriate, and the patronage of the vicarage was granted by King Henry VIII. to Sir William Woodhouse, and Sir Henry Woodhouse sold it to Sir William Paston.

In 1603, Richard Allen, the curate, certified that there were 58 communicants, and that for serving the cure he had some small tithes worth 40s. per ann. and that Sir William Paston had the rectory.

1609, Thomas Sadlington, vicar, presented by Sir William Patson.

1612, William Comfort, by Thomas Knevet.

1615, Richard Skipp.

1636, William Woodroff, by William Paston, Esq.

Here were the guilds of All-Saints, St. Mary, St. Ann, and St. John Baptist.

In 1740, the Earl of Yarmouth was patron, but the church has been several years in ruins: the present valor is 3l. 1s. 4d. and is discharged.

William Bishop of Thetford held at the survey, in his own right, as a lay fee, a lordship of which a freeman, under the commendation of Almar Bishop of Elmham, was deprived, consisting of 25 acres, 3 borderers, with half a carucate and 10 acres of meadow, valued at 11s.; the King and the Earl had the soc; and there were also 2 freemen under the commendation of Bishop Almar, who had 16 acres of land, and 5 of pasture, valued at 30*d.* of which they were deprived, and William de Noers held this under Bishop William aforesaid.⁵

Bishop Rugg, in Henry the Eighth's time, is said to have alienated revenues belonging to the see in this town, and Palling, with their appropriated rectories, &c. for Ingham Grange, rectory, &c. to Thomas Woodhouse, as I take it: see in Palling.

I N G H A M.

IN this town, which takes its name as seated in the meadow, 4 freemen held in King Edward's time 12 acres and half a carucate, and of these the King and the Earl had the soc, and was then valued at 40*s.* but at the survey, when Alan Earl of Richmond was lord of this and many other tenures here, by the grant of the Conqueror, it was valued at 9*l. per ann.*

Edric, also, the man of Edric de Laxfeld, held in the days of King Edward, 3 carucates of land, 9 villains, 14 borderers, 4 servi, and there were 2 carucates in demean, with 2 carucates and a half of the tenants, and 24 acres of meadow, 2 runci, 6 cows, &c. and 350 sheep, with 44 goats, and 7 socmen had 35 acres, and a carucate and a half of meadow. Edric, also, the man of Edric aforesaid, held then a carucate of land, to which there belonged 3 villains, 6 borderers, with a carucate in demean, &c. and 4 acres of meadow, 7 breeding mares, 6 cows, &c. with 60 goats, and there were 16 freemen under Edric's protection only, who held a carucate and 20 acres of land, also 2 borderers, with 3 carucates. This manor of Edric, was valued at 12*s.* and that of the freemen at 12*s.* and they were in all 11 furlongs long and 7 broad, whoever may possess them, and paid 11*d. q. gelt.*⁶

⁶ Terre Alani Comitit. — In Hincham,

The first tenure, or lordship abovementioned, held by the four freemen, was at the survey claimed, together with a lordship in Stalham, (as appears there,) by Robert Malet, but the Earl Alan held all the aforesaid tenure of the Conqueror in capite.

A family that took their name from this town, was very early enfeoffed thereof. Oliver de Ingham was living in 1183. John de Ingham was lord in the reign of Richard I. and in the seventh of King John, Robert de Tateshale gave 100*l.* to have the custody of all the lands of John de Ingham deceased, with the marriage of his heir, as freely as John held it when he died.

John de Ingham, heir of John, married Albreda, daughter and co-heir of William Wateran, a great baron, in Wiltshire: she after married William Botterell, who gave to the King, 2 horses for the great saddle, and a Norway goshaw, for license to marry her: by her first husband, she had Oliver de Ingham, to whom she gave the manor of Codeford, in Wiltshire, in the 51st of Henry III. In the 52d of that King, he had all forfeitures in his let, as lord of this town, and in the 54th was found heir to Albreda: and Walter de Ingham was living in the 19th of Henry III.

In the 9th of Edward I. Sir Oliver was summoned among other barons to attend the King in his expedition into Wales; he died soon after,⁷ and was found to hold this manor of the Lord Tateshale by one fee, to have free warren, the assise, and was lord also of West Dean, in Wiltshire, and John was his son and heir, by Elizabeth his wife, who was living in the 20th of Edward I. In the 22d of that King he was summoned to attend the King into Gascoigne, and in the 26th into Scotland; and in the said year Alan Hovell released to him (being then a knight) all right which he had in an annual payment of 2 robes and a saddle for his life, and all pensions, rents, and debts in one robe, for his Esq. and 2 robes, for 2 boys yearly, and all debts from the beginning of the world to the feast of St. Catharine, in this year; Alan surrendering to him all the writings which he had given Alan, concerning the estate which he had of John, in Ludham, Catfeld, Heyham, &c. dated at Gaunt in Flanders, on the feast of St. Catharine; witnesses, Sir John de Boutetourt, Sir Robert de Scales, Sir Walter de Gloucester, Sir Robert de Hausted, Sir Ralph de Noioun, Walter de Walcote, Adam de Catfeld, &c.

In the 34th of the said King, Sir John and Reginald, son of William de St. Martin, had a grant of the King, for livery of the manor of Steeple Langford, and the 3d part of East Greenstede manor, in Wiltshire, Sir Oliver Ingham, and William de St. Martin, had long before petitioned the King, for the same, they being the manors of

John de Monmouth, son and heir of Cecilia, who was hanged about the 10th of the said reign, for killing Adam de Gilbert, a chaplain, and the King had remitted the affair to the justices in parliament, and was not determined till at this time; this I presume was part of the barony of Walerau. Sir John died in or about the 3d of Edward II. and held this lordship, valued at 18*l.* per ann. by one fee, of the barony of Tateshale, the manor of Warham, by one, of the Earl of Norfolk, valued at 17*l.* and a manor, or messuage, with lands at Streston in Norfolk, at 4*l.* 6*s.* per ann. this last being given to his father, Sir Oliver by Roger de Evereaux, and Oliver was his son and heir, aged 40, probably by the Lady Mercy his wife, who was returned to be Lady of this manor in the 9th of Edward II. and was living in 1316, and 1328.

In the 7th of Edward II. Oliver, son and heir of Sir John Ingham, paid 50*l.* relief for a moiety of the barony of Walleran, (the other moiety being in Sir Reginald de St. Martin) and in right of this he was lord of West Dean, &c. in Wiltshire: Holinshed calls him a young, lusty, valiant knight, in great esteem with King Edward II.

Sir Oliver was also governor of Ellesmore castle, in Shropshire, and summoned to parliament in the 1st, 6th, and 14th of Edward III. and governour of Marlborough castle, and that of the Devizes, in the 14th of that King, and in the following year custos of Chester, constable of Burdeaux, in France, governour of Guilford castle; in the 17th of that King, justice of Chester, and had the King's writ directed to him, dated November 14, at Nottingham, to levy a hue and cry, and if possible to arrest Roger Mortimer, of Wygmore, the King's enemy;⁸ in the 19th of the said reign, he was seneschal of Gascoign, and lord warden of the marches of Guien; he raised a great army, and recovered the county of Aguois from the French. He was also seneschal of Aquitain, in the said reign, which King Edward III. confirmed to him, with an addition of 500 marks sterling, and after, of 77 sacks of wool and a half, out of the King's wool in Hampshire, was summoned to parliament among the barons in the first year, &c. of King Edward III. and in his 3d year, had a grant in fee of all the lands which were Sir Thomas Rosceline's, attainted, and a pardon for all offences, &c.; in the same year, he appears to be lord of Darenty, in Northamptonshire; in the 5th of that King, he settled on John his son, and Catharine his wife, on their marriage, the manor of Sterston, and their heirs, who dying without issue about the 12th of that King, the said Catharine took the veil, and was a nun, and in the following year Sir John de Thorp, Knt. granted to the abbess of the nuns of Clare, in the Minorities, at London, and her successours, an annuity of 20 marks out of his lands in Congham, Norfolk, and the said sum out of his lands at Combes and Helmington, in Suffolk, as did Thomas de Martham 20 marks annuity out of his lands at Martham, Horsey, Repps and Bastwick in Norfolk, during the life of the said Catharine, then a nun in that convent.

Sir Oliver died on Thursday before the purification of the blessed Virgin, in the 17th of Edward III. and had, by the Lady Elizabeth his wife, daughter of the Lord Zouch, 2 daughters, Elizabeth and Joan.

Tower, when Mortimer was taken; but this must be a great mistake.—Smollet's Hist. Ao. 1330.

He held this lordship by the 3d part of a fee, of the honour of Rysing. John, son of Robert de Ingham, was living about the said time, and seems to be related to Sir Oliver.

In the 14th of Edward III. Roger de Hempsted, parson of the portion of Shotford, in the church of Mendham, as trustee, conveyed to the said John, and Margaret his wife, 61 acres of land, 4 messuages, &c. in this town, Stalham and Bramsted, on whom they were settled in tail.

Elizabeth, the eldest daughter of Sir Oliver, died before him, and left, by Sir John de Curson her husband, Mary, a daughter, and heiress to her grandfather, aged at his death, 9 years. And in the 18th of Edward III. she had a moiety of the manor of West Dene, in Wiltshire, and all other the manors, &c. of her grandfather; the King granted the marriage of her to John de Cobham, his valet, and she married Stephen de Tumby, and dying s. p. in the 23d of the said King, Joan her aunt, came to her inheritance; and in the 18th of that King, Roger le Strange and Joan his wife, held a moiety.

Joan, the youngest daughter, married first, Lord Roger le Strange of Knockyn, and, after, Sir Miles Stapleton, Knt. of the Garter.

In the great Roll of the pipe, of the 28th of Edward III. under this title of Norfolk, it is said that Joan, the wife of Roger le Strange, aunt and heir of Mary, who was the wife, deceased, of Stephen de Tumby, ought to answer for her relief of all the lands held by the said Mary her cousin, in capite, but ought not to be summoned by the King's writ, the King considering the good services done to him, as well by Sir Oliver de Ingham whilst he lived, as by Sir Miles Stapleton, who married the said Joan, and for that the said Sir Miles and Joan, released the King of all debts which he owed Sir Oliver, who pardoned Sir Miles and his wife, for all debts and accounts which Sir Oliver owed to him at his death, or owing by Sir Miles and Joan, of wool, silver vessels, sums of moneys, or money impressed to them from the wardrobe, the King's chamber, or otherwise, and all arrearages of accounts whatsoever: also the two marks that they owed for the aid granted in the 20th of his reign, on the making his eldest son a knight, for 2 parts of a fee in Hampworth in Berkshire.

Sir Miles was son of Sir Gilbert Stapleton, Knt. by Maud his wife, daughter and coheir of Sir Brian Fitz-Alan, a great baron, lord of Bedal in Yorkshire, who bore or and gules, barry of eight, in whose right he and his posterity were lords of Bedal, as is here set forth.

STAPLETON'S PEDIGREE.

(a) Sir Miles had license to found a chantry for one priest in the church of North Morton in Berkshire, in the 23d of Edward III. May 14, and to settle 22 acres of land on it.

In the 14th of that King, he and Joan his wife settled by fine, the manor of Ingham and the advowson on themselves in tail, remainder to John, son of Sir Miles, by his first lady, Isolda, which John seems to have died s. p.

In the 26th of that reign, he and his lady granted to Sir Edmund Thorp, their right in a messuage in Nether Conesford-street in Norwich, and their right in the advowson of the church of Fresingfeld in Suffolk, on St. John Baptist's day. His seal was argent, a lion rampant. sable; his lady's seal was the arms of Le Strange, two lions passant, impaling Ingham, and on the edge or verge of this shield, were three coats or shields in a triangle, checque, on a fess, three crescents; and by the same deed Sir Edmund had power to take down and carry away the building about the moat in the manor of Horham in Suffolk.

In the 28th of that King it appears that he was lord of Cotherstone and Askham in Yorkshire; was Knight of the Garter, one of the founders, and in the wars of France with King Edward III. from his 16th to the 38th year of his reign, and died in the said year, on Wednesday before the feast of St. Nicholas; and the custody of his lands was granted on February 21, ao. 39, to the Queen, who, on May 12 following, granted them to Sir Brian Stapleton and Sir Roger de Bois.

At this time were living Sir Brian Stapleton of Hathesey, and Sir Brian Stapleton of Corleton, (as I take it,) in Yorkshire, both relations of the aforesaid Sir Miles; Sir Brian, probably, being his brother, famous for military services, being governor of Calais in the reign of King Edward II. and a commissioner to treat of a peace between that King and the King of France.

(b) Sir Miles Stapleton and the Lady Joan convey in the 32d of Edward III. the lordship of Horbling in Lincolnshire, which she held in jointure to Sir Alexander Aunsel.

Sir Miles died in the 5th of Henry V. lord of Waxham, Horsey, Thursk in Yorkshire, and Weybread in Suffolk : his badge was an owl with wings expanded, and crowned.

(c) Sir Brian Stapleton, son of Sir Miles and Ela his wife, daughter of Sir Edmund Ufford, by Eva his wife, daughter of Sir John Pierpoint, in the 3d of Henry VI. granted to feoffees all his right in the manor of Baynton Westhull, in Yorkshire, late his brother Edmund's, (which Edm. died in 1417,) sheriff of Norfolk in 1424, aged 40 at his father's death ; by his testament, dated April 5, 1438, and proved on August 5, he orders a priest to sing for him and Cecilia his wife, in the chapel of his son, where he keepeth his household ;⁹ gives to Brian Stapleton, his younger son, and Isabel his wife, 20*l.* per ann. to be paid by Miles his son and heir, out of the manor of Cotherton in Yorkshire ; money to the repairs of several churches ; legacies to the friars of the 4 orders at Norwich.

His will is dated May 4, in the said year, whereby he gives to Miles his son, all his household stuff, &c. at Ingham, with all his swans, and cygnets of the new and old mark : he had a daughter Ann, married to Thomas Heath, Esq. of Hengrave in Suffolk.

Sir Miles died lord of Codeford, and Longford in Wiltshire, Bekar, in Lincolnshire, and Stow Qui in Cambridgeshire.

(d) Sir Miles was son of Sir Brian Stapleton ; in 1428 he was a commissioner to look after the beacons of Norfolk ; in 1457 conveyed the manor of South Cove in Suffolk, to William Calthorp, Esq. who married Elizabeth his daughter, which lordship he bought of Ralph Estley, Esq. and Julian his wife ; and in the first of Edward IV. that of Kessingland in Suffolk, on his brother Brian, and was knight of the shire in parliament in the 28th of Henry VI. and at his death, September 30, 1466, left 2 daughters and coheirs, by Catharine, his 2d wife, Elizabeth and Joan : by his last will, he devised all his goods, chattels, and moveables, to be dispensed to pious uses, and all his manors to his feoffees, Thomas Betts, Humphrey Forster, John Heydon, John Fyncham, &c. for 4 years, to raise money for almes-deeds, for his soul's health ; and by his testament in 1444, wherein he styles himself Miles Stapleton, Esq. of Ingham, he gives legacies to this priory, this church, and that of Waxham, to the Friars-preachers of Yarmouth, and Norwich, &c. appoints the Lady Catharine, his wife, Lady Ela Brewes, John Fastolf, Edmund Clere of Stokesby, Esq. Symon Gunmore, &c. executors ; Thomas Bishop of Norwich, and William Earl of Suffolk, supervisors : proved December 21, 1466, by William Pykenham, LL. D. commissary of Thomas Archbishop of Canterbury, having bona notabilia ; he died seized of this lordship, and those of Horsey, Waxham, Lammas, and Sterston in Norfolk ; Weybread in Suffolk ; Bedal, Cotherton, and Askham, Brian in Yorkshire.

Catharine, his widow, remarried Sir Richard Harcourt of Ellenhale in Staffordshire ; and, on January 2, in the 7th of Edward IV. Sir Richard, and Dame Catharine his wife, received of Sir William Calthorp of Burnham Thorp, 80*l.* sterling in full for the farm of the manor of Ingham, for 2 years, due at St. Michaelmas last past.

Sir Rich. was father of Chris. Harcourt, Esq. by Eaith his first wife, who married Joane, the youngest daughter and coheir of Sir Miles Stapleton; ¹ but having interest in this lordship, I return to Sir William Calthorp, and Elizabeth his wife, the eldest daughter and coheir, who, on the death of Sir William, married Sir John Fortescue, lord chief justice of England, who was living here with his lady, Elizabeth, in the 22d of Henry VII. in great hospitality, as appears from his steward's account, John Glavyn, whose fee was 13s. 4d. per ann.

His expenses for 100 salt-fish, called ling, were 61s.;—for 200 salt fish, 66s. 8d.;—8 cades of red herrings, 28s.;—8 barrels of white herrings, 53s. 4d.;—malting of barley, charged at 6d. per quarter, and the carriage of it to Sir John's city-house, at Norwich, was at 2d. per quarter from Ingham (this was the house of the late Sir William Calthorp's, in St. Martin's, by the palace.);—Paid for a mare to ride to London, 20d.;—for grinding a quarter of wheat, 3d.;—wheat then 4s. 8d. per quarter.—To a chandler for making candels, 4d. a day;—paid tithe of Sir John's garden, 2s. 6d.

On the death of Sir John she married to Sir Edward Howard, lord admiral, and brother to the Duke of Norfolk, rather before Fortescue; Sir Edward was her husband in 17th of Henry VII.; she died in the last year of the said King.

Sir Francis Calthorp, son of Elizabeth, daughter and coheir of Sir Miles, and 2d wife of Sir William Calthorp, inherited this lordship, which Sir William died in 1494, and was buried in the priory of Carmes at Norwich, by his wife. Sir Francis had 2 wives, the first was Elizabeth, daughter of John Windham of Crownthorp, by whom he had no issue; his 2d wife was Elizabeth, daughter of Ralph Berney, Esq. of Gunton, in Norfolk, by whom he had William Calthorp, Esq. &c.

CALTHORP'S PEDIGREE.

William Calthorp, Esq. sold it to Sir Thomas Woodhouse of Waxham; Sir William Woodhouse possessed it after Sir Thomas his brother; and Sir Henry, son of Sir William, sold it to Sir Nicholas Bacon in 1583.

After this it came to the Johnsons; William Johnson of Canton in Norfolk, Gent. by his last will, dated August 9, 1636, gave it to his son, William Johnson, which will was proved in 1641: he was son of William Johnson Esq. alderman of Norwich, and married Hester, daughter of Francis Smalpiece, Esq. alderman and mayor of Norwich.

William Johnson, and Mary his wife, were living in 1658, and he was lord likewise.

fessor, 30 acres of land, and half a carucate, and an acre of meadow, valued at 6s. 8d.;² and the abbot had a lordship in the 3d of Henry IV. On the exchange of lands with King Henry VIII. and the Bishop of Norwich, this was granted to that see, and is now held by the Bishop with the priory grange, &c.

The tenths were 3*l.* 14s. Deducted 14s.

The Church is dedicated to the Holy Trinity; it was anciently a rectory, valued at 26 marks in the reign of Edward I. when the rector had a manse, and 30 acres of land, and paid Peter-pence, 12*d.*

The abbot of St. Bennet had a portion of tithe valued at one mark.

RECTORS.

1349, William de Bruggs, by Sir Roger Straunge.

1360, John de Baynton, by Sir Miles Stapleton of Bedale.

On June 12, in the said year, Thomas Percy Bishop of Norwich (on the petition of Sir Miles Stapilton, lord of the town, and patron of the church, who had rebuilt it, and founded a college of the religious order of the Holy Trinity and St. Victor, for the redemption of captives, and enlarged it with its church, and a tower for bells appropriated it thereto, Robert Marleburgh being appointed the first prior, and John Pevesey sacrist, who was to have the cure of the parishioners, with ordinances and statutes, a pension being reserved of 10s. per ann. to the Bishop: it consisted of a prior, sacrist, and 6 canons.

At its dissolution it was granted to Sir William Woodhouse of Waxham; and Bishop Rugg aliened the priory of Hickling, with revenues belonging to his see in Horsey, Palling, &c. and their appropriated rectories, for Ingham priory grange, lands, and rectory, and the rectory of Walcote, to Sir Thomas Woodhouse.

It was valued at 6*l.* 9s. 7*d.* ob. q. as Dugdale; at 7*l.* 2s. 7*d.* ob. as Speed.

The church is served by a stipendiary curate, nominated by the Bishop. In 1603 here were 140 communicants.

At the west end of the steeple are the arms of Stapleton, impaling de la Pole, and those of Ingham; and there are 5 bells; part of the church is leaded, and part tiled, the chancel leaded; over the south porch is a room, and in the south isle is the chapel of St. Mary.

It consists of a nave, a north and south isle, all formerly covered with lead, and the tower is beautiful.

In the chancel or choir lie many gravestones curiously ornamented, formerly for the family of Stapleton, &c. but have suffered much through length of time, and for want of the chancel's being well covered.

Under an arch on the north side, lies the effigies of Sir Oliver Ingham, in complete armour, on a mattress, with his gilt spurs, and a garter on his leg, as knight of that order, beholding (as Weaver says³)

THE PRIORY, OR COLLEGE MANOR

Of Ingham, was founded by Sir Miles Stapleton, and the Lady Joan his wife, daughter and coheir of Sir Oliver de Ingham, in the 34th of King Edward III. dedicated to St. Mary and the Holy Trinity, for redemption of captives taken by the Turks, (an order of friars, called Mattarins and Trinitarians founded by John de Matta, and Felix de Valois, in 1200,) confirmed by Pope Innocent III. who gave them leave to wear white robes, with a cross, red and blue, on their breasts, appointing all their possessions to be divided into three parts,—one part for their own subsistence, another for the relief of the poor, and the 3d for the redemption of captives, according to the rule of St. Victor, this house is said to have been the chief of this order, that is in respect of value. I meet with but 3 others in England; Thelesford in Warwickshire, Mottinden in Kent; and Knaresburgh in Yorkshire, all founded before this of Ingham.—Brother Richard of the house of Mottinden was provincial of the order in England.

All their churches were dedicated to the Trinity.

This priory to consist of a prior, minister, or custos, who had the care of the college, a sacrist, who had care of the parishioners, and to officiate for them; the church appropriated to the college. Richard Marleburgh was the first prior, and John de Pevesey the first sacrist, and there were 4 more brethren. They were to officiate and pray for the souls of King Edward III. Sir Miles Stapleton, and the Lady Joan, the founders; Sir Briant Stapleton, and the Lady Alice his wife, Sir Miles Stapleton de Hathesey, in Yorkshire; John de Boys, and Roger de Boys, his brother, Mr. Laur. de Thornhill, clerk William de Hemelesey, and Catharine his wife, and Reginald de Eccles, then living, and for the souls of Sir Gilbert de Stapleton, and the Lady Agnes, father and mother of Sir Miles, the founder, Sir Oliver de Ingham and the Lady Elizabeth; Sir Nicholas de Stapleton, and the Lady Catharine Boys, deceased; and on the 2d of July, in the aforesaid year, 1360, Thomas Bishop of Norwich appropriated to them this church; but at this time there appears to have been but a custos, and 2 chaplains or brethren.

In the 36th of the said King, they had a patent to enlarge their house; Sir Roger Boys, in the 2d of Richard II. &c. aliened a messuage, 84 acres of land, 2 of meadow, and one of pasture, in Worsted and Scothow.

John de Saxham, by his will in 1384, gives his lordship of Cockley-Cley, in Norfolk, with the advowson of the church of All-Saints, and lands and tenements in Treston, and Saxham Parva, and in the 16th of Richard II. Thomas Moor, &c. aliened the said manor, of Cley, with 8 messuages, 221 acres of land, 22 of meadow, 4 of moor, and the rent of 11s. 11d. in Ingham, Walcote, Worsted, Hickling, Catfield, Horsey, and the church of Walcote, and lands in Beacham Well, and Barton.

In the 2d of Henry IV. a patent was granted for lands in this town, Stalham, Walcote, and in the following year, for the church of Walcote.

Elizabeth Atte Fenn, and John de Northgate, gave lands in Westwick, and Worsted, and Robert Stutzile, capellane, left them by will, 6l. in 1481. Robert Smith, of Cley, gave 12 acres and an half to keep a mind-day for the souls of his father, mother, and himself and wife, on the vigil of St. Peter ad vincula, in the church of Cley St. Peter's, by Swaffham.

In the 27th of Henry VIII. 17l. per ann. was paid by Edward Garrard, to the prior for their lands in Ingham, Hickling, Stalham, Sutton, &c. the services and rents of Stalham-hall, &c. being excepted, and 20 comb of wheat, yearly by the tenant, who farmed their grange here, and the prior paid, 3d. per ann. to the sheriffs turn, 5s. 4d. to Sir Thomas Tindale's manor, and 13s. 4d. to the bailiff of Ingham manor, for their grange.—Their cloister joined to the north side of the church.

PRIORS.

Richard Martleburgh was appointed the first prior, 1360, and was living in 1373; and John de Pevesey was sacrist.

1383, John de Troves, admitted prior.

1429, Thomas Neteshead.

John Blakeney, occurs prior, 1439.

John Norwich in 1447.

1476, Thomas Ranworth.

Thomas Catfield, alias Godrede, occurs 1492, and in 1520.

John Say in 1534, and the last prior. He with Robert Barham, and four other brethren, subscribed to the Pope's supremacy August 5, 1534, and the prior with Christopher Brumstede, were found by the commissioners guilty of incontinency.

The seal of the priory was oblong, of red wax, the impress was the figure of the Trinity in an arch, under that a lion rampant, the arms of the founder.

King Edward I. in his 14th year, claimed 2*s.* per ann. rent, due to the hundred of Happing, out of it, but the abbot of Bec pleaded an exemption by grants of that King's ancestors; and King Henry VI. in his 13th year, granted license to John Norman, son of Henry Norman, a villain of this manor, to be promoted to any ecclesiastical benefice, notwithstanding his villanage.

By a parliament in the 2d of Henry V. it was dissolved among other alien priories, and seized by the Crown, and so remained for some time. King Henry VI. in his 19th year, granted the custody of it to Edmund Clere, for 20 years, paying 16*l.* per ann. but was soon after reconveyed to the King, in order to settle it with many other on King's college, in Cambridge, and Eaton college, on his foundation of them, and confirmed to them by his charter in 1444, and confirmed again by King Edward IV. on February 22. in his first year, with many privileges, as enjoyed by the abbot of Bec, &c. and remains so at this time.

L U D H A M.

THE abbot of St. Bennet was lord in King Edward's reign, this town (granted by King Canute) being part of the abbot's barony; at the survey he was found to have 5 carucates of land, held by 15 villains and 13 borderers, 2 servi, with 3 carucates in demean, 2 carucates, and half a carucate of the tenants, 100 acres of meadow, &c. and 115 socmen and the moiety of another, held 3 carucates of land with 15 acres; and there were 10 carucates and 15 acres of meadow; four freemen and the moiety of one, had a carucate and 15 acres; there were 3 borderers with 2 carucates, and 5 acres of meadow, of these, the abbot had the protection or commendation only; the King and the Earl had the soc; the whole was valued at 5*l.* at the survey and 6*l.* and it was 2 leucas and an half and 15 perches long, and one leuca and an half with 70 perches broad, and paid 5*d.* gelt. And there was one socman, with 30 acres and 4 borderers, with 3 acres and half a carucate of meadow, valued at 11*s.*⁶

By this account it appears to have been a very extensive manor. In the 30th of Henry III. the abbot had free warren; the rents of assise were 6*l.* 10*s.* there were 105 acres of arable land, at 5*d.* per acre, 10 acres of meadow at 6*d.* per acre, and was part of his barony of Tunstede, which barony is said to be held by two fees, and the moiety of a fee; and in the 14th of Edward I. he had the assise, view of frank pledge, a tumbrel, &c.

In the said year, Robert de Ludham, one of the justices of the Jews, having committed a falsity or breach of trust, was at the instances of the Queen's attorney, &c. brought before the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer, was put out of his office and committed to prison, probably of a family that had an interest here.

Sabina, daughter of John de Ludham, and John, son of Sabina, gave to the abbot and his successors, 35 acres of land in this town and Catfield, in exchange for other lands in the 34th of the said King.

On the dissolution of the abbey, this lordship came to the Crown, and on an exchange of lands between King Henry VIII. and the Bishop of Norwich, was granted to that see with the impropriated rectory, and patronage of the vicarage.

In the 3d and 4th year of Philip and Mary, the rents of assise were 21*l.* 4*s.* 9*d.* the site of the manor was 40*s.* and 16*l.* per ann. for the farm of 100 acres of pasture in 3 closes; the herbage of the park,

After this exchange, several Bishops resided here, and made it their country seat, being formerly only a grange or farm-house of the abbey; the Bishops Freak and Jegon crected several useful buildings to it.⁷

In Bishop Jegon's time, August 10, 1611, by the negligence of persons employed in brewing, a great fire happened, which burnt that and many other parts of it, with the Bishop's study, many books, MSS. and rolls relating to the see, with 800*l.* in gold and silver, great part of which was found unmelted, with much furniture and goods of the Bishop, so that there were left unburnt only the gentleman's and chaplain's lodgings, these alone being tiled and built by Bishop Freak.

After this Bishop Harsnet who resided here at times, built a chapel of brick, &c.

In a glass window of the hall, before this accident, the arms of the abbey were painted, and these verses setting forth the time of the building of it,

Dr. Redman, Bishop in Queen Elizabeth's time, procured a fair for this town, and a market. The Bishop of Norwich is lord.

The fair is yearly, on Thursday and Friday after Trinity Sunday.

The convent had also formerly a lordship here; the rents of it belonging to the cellarer, were 13s. 4d.; to the sacrist, 53s. 4d. ob. q. 4 bushels of oats to the almoner; 10*d. ob.* to the penitentiary, and 5s. a portion of tithe to the infirmary, which came by the aforesaid exchange also, to the see of Norwich: it was valued at 3*l.* 6s. per ann.

The temporalities of the abbot of Holm, in 1428, were 30*l.* 9s. 5*d.*

In this town also 7 freemen held half a carucate, the King and the Earl had the soc, and there was a carucate and a borderer.

Edric, a freeman of Edric de Layfield, had 60 acres of land in King Edward's time, 4 borderers, half a carucate, with 2 acres and an half of meadow, and 11 freemen had 80 acres of land; 19 socmen also held a carucate of land belonging to St. Bennet's abbey in King Edward's reign.⁸

Edric, a man of Alan Earl of Richmond, invaded or seized on it in the time of Ralph Earl of Norfolk, and was possessed of it when there was a division made of the lands of Ralph, between the King and Earl Alan, and the Earl had a carucate and an half, with 4 acres of meadow, valued at 10s.

⁷ The Bishops of Norwich have here, and near to it, about 300*l.* or 400*l.* per ann. in demean, supplying them in all kind of provision with great plenty, till leased out by Bishop Montague.

All these tenures abovementioned were, at the survey, possessed by Alan Earl of Richmond, and made up what was after called Bacon's manor in Ludham, &c. as will appear.

Sir Bartholomew de Bacon of Erwarton in Suffolk died lord of it, as by his will, proved in 1391, whose sister and heir, Isabel, brought it by marriage to Sir Oliver Calthorp; and Edward Calthorp, Esq. of Kirby Cane, sold it, with its appertinances in Catfield, Heigham-Potter, &c. for 350 marks to John Corbet, Gent. in the 30th of Henry VIII.

Bishop Rugg exchanged the manors of Wood-Bastwick, and Chamberer's, and Wood Bastwick rectory, for this manor, with John Corbet, Esq. October 12, 1545.

The tenths were 7*l.* 15*s.* 4*d.* Deducted 1*l.* 15*s.* 0*d.*

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Catharine, and was a rectory, valued at 43 marks, and appropriated to the abbey of St. Bennet, by Pandulf Bishop of Norwich, on the 6th of the ides of June, in the 4th of Pope Honorius III. and a vicarage was ordained valued at 8 marks.

In the reign of Edward I. the vicar had a manse and 16 acres of land; and the Peter-pence were 28*d.*

The presentation was in the abbot, &c. but nominated by the Bishop of Norwich.

Robert de Gloucester was presented to the rectory by King John, ao. 15, in the vacancy of the abbey.

PALLING.

GODWIN Earl of Kent, and father of Harold King of England, had a lordship in this town in the reign of the Confessor; William the Conqueror seized on it, and at the grand survey, Godric was bailiff or steward of it for that King; 3 carucates of land belonged to it with 9 villains and 14 borderers, one carucate in demean, and one among the tenants, 20 acres of meadow, 14 breeding mares, 2 runci, 23 swine, 71 sheep, then valued at 4*l.* at the survey at 6*l.* quit rent: it was 8 furlongs and 12 perches long, and 8 furlongs broad, and paid 12*d.* ob. gelt per ann.⁹

This lordship seems to have been held by the lords of Hempstede.

In the 4th of Richard II. John de Eccles aliened to the prior of Hickling a messuage, 40 acres of land, 50 of pasture, 10 of furze, and the rent of 60s. here, with lands in Waxham, and other lands here, as will appear.

Alan Earl of Richmond had a small fee belonging to a freeman in King Edward's time, who had 50 acres and half a carucate; Edric, Alan's man or tenant, had seized on this in the time of Ralph Earl of Norfolk, and it was valued at 2s. *per ann.*¹

In the 19th of Henry III. Walter de Ingham held this; and in 1261, there was an agreement between Adam, abbot of St. Bennet. and Sir Oliver Ingham, about wreck at sea, between Palling Cross and Wenkell Ditch, when Oliver released to the abbot his right therein, and the abbot regranted to him and his heirs half of it, and they were to gather it and keep it at their charge, till the abbot's bailiff of Ludham should come, and if any royal fish should come on shore, it was to be carried to Oliver's court at Waxham, and there be equally divided.²

In the 2d of Edward I. Sir Oliver was lord, and died seized of 30 acres of land above specified, which after came to the Stapletons, &c;

Roger Bigot, ancestor to the Earls of Norfolk, had, at the survey, one carucate of land with 5 borderers, one carucate in demean, and 24 acres and one carucate among the tenants, of which a freeman, Guert, (brother to King Harold) was deprived; 5 freemen also in this town, held 33 acres, and one carucate, which Hugh de Hosedene was enfeoffed of by Roger Bigot, valued at 20s. but at the survey at 40s. 4 of these 5 freemen could not leave it without paying 2s.³

The family of de Felbrigg were enfeoffed of this by the Lords Bigots, of whom see in Felbrigg.

Sir Roger Bigot of Felbrigg had a grant of free warren in the 9th of Edward I.—Sir Simon Felbrigg was lord in the 6th of Edward II. and had lands here conveyed to him by Richard de Refham, and Joan his wife.

In the 25th of Edward III. the prior of Hickling had license to purchase this manor, (as I take it,) and held in the 11th of Henry VI. half a fee of John Mowbray Duke of Norfolk, late Sir Simon de Felbrigg's.

The prior held also in the 5d of Henry IV. a quarter of a fee here of Sir Thomas Bardolf, which was held in the 19th of Henry III. by William de Ages.

In the 14th of Edward I. one of the same name had wreck at sea &c. as lord.—The temporalities of this priory, in 1423, were 42s. 10d.

The abbot of Holm's manor or revenues of Horsey and Palling, were, in the 33d of Henry VIII. April 9, let to farm to Sir Thomas Woodhouse of Waxham, for 99 years, with the parsonages and vicarages, and wreck at sea, and Sir Henry Woodhouse sold the lease in the 31st of Queen Elizabeth, to Nathaniel Bacon of Stichey, the

On May 30, ao Elizabeth 31, Sir Henry Woodhouse and Thomas Grime of Folsham, Gent. for 450*l.* grant the same (except the wreck at sea) to Nathaniel Bacon, Esq. of Stifkey.

Before this, on the 12th of July, in the first and 2d of Philip and Mary, Sir William Woodhouse of Hickling granted to Sir Thomas his brother, and his heirs, his right in the wreck at sea, which he had by the grant of King Henry VIII.

After this it came to Sir Martin Calthorp, lord of Hickling, and his son, Martin Calthorp, Esq. in 1604.

In this family it remained as in Hickling; and Martin Calthorp, Esq. was lord in 1717, when Wortley Montague, Esq. entered on it; afterwards purchased by the Lord Walpole, who possessed it in 1740, and his son, the Earl of Orford, is the present lord.

The tithes were 4*s.* Deducted 4*s.*

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Margaret, and was a rectory, valued at 5 marks, and appropriated to the priory of Hickling, and a vicarage was settled in the reign of Edward I.

There was a manse and 3 acres belonging to the rectory. The monks of Thetford had a portion of tithe valued at 3*s.* Peter-pence 12d. The prior had license to appropriate it in the 25th of Edward III.

On June 13, 1532, Richard Bishop of Norwich annexed it to the priory of Hickling, to be served by one of their canons.

In 1603, there was no vicar, and it had been served by a curate, as an impropriation. Sir Henry Woodhouse sold the impropriated rectory and patronage of the vicarage to Nath. Bacon, who conveyed it to the Calthorps, and Mar in Calthorp was patron, in 1747.

In 1612, Laund Sayer, occurs vicar.

The vicarage is charged at 2*l.* 6*s.* 7*d.* and is discharged; the Earl of Orford is patron.

RITSON EAST.

RALPH BAYNARD was lord of this town at the survey, and had enfeoffed Jeffrey Baynard of this manor, of which Ansgar, a freeman, who held it under Anger Stalra, was deprived; it consisted of 2 carucates of land, 16 villains, 5 servi, 2 carucates in demean, 2 of the tenants, &c. 5 acres of meadow, 5 runci, 10 cows, &c. 12 sheep, 40 goats: and 41 freemen had a carucate of land, and 8 carucates of meadow, valued at 4*l.* there was one freeman with 30 acres of land, and 2 borderers, and a carucate valued at 6*s.* and 1 freeman who held under Stigand, 2 carucates of land, 15 villains, &c. and one carucate and a half in demean; one carucate of the tenants, and 5 acres of meadow, valued at 40*s.* and 3 freemen 12 acres; and half a carucate valued at 4*s.* A freeman of Bishop Almar had also 2 carucates, and 15 villains, &c. with a carucate of the tenants, and 5 acres of meadow, &c. valued at 20*s.* and 3 socmen, 5 acres; and there was a mill, valued at 2*s.* the whole valued at 10*l.* 12*s.* at the survey at 20*l.* it was one leuca and a half long, one leuca and four furlongs broad, and the gelt was 19*d.* $\frac{1}{2}$.⁴

This appears to have been a very great manor, made up of several fees, and different tenures, before the grant of it to the Lord Baynard, and afterwards was divided, and made several distinct lordships. Geffrey, who held it under the Lord Ralph Baynard, was (as I conceive) a brother, or near relation, of the said Lord.

William Lord Baynard, a descendant of Ralph, who held it in capite, rebelling against King Henry I. forfeited this lordship, and his barony, and that King granted it to Robert, a younger son of Richard Fitz Gilbert, ancestor of the Earls of Clare, and from this Robert, the noble family of the Lords Fitz Walter take their rise. The head of this barony was Baynard castle, in London, which gives name to a ward in the said city.

From Geffrey, who was enfeoffed of it by the Lord Ralph, descended Sir Robert Baynard, who held it of the Lord Fitz Walter, of his barony of Baynard castle, as Sir Fulk Baynard, his son, did about the 20th of Henry III.

In the 52d of Henry III. Bartholomew Baynard, son of Sir Robert Baynard, (third son of Sir Fulk Baynard) dying s. p. Petronilla, his widow, remarried Hervey de Vaux; and Isabel, Maud, and Emme were his sisters, and coheirs, who granted to Petronilla the lordship that he held here for life, with a messuage, 72 acres of land, 2 of pasture, &c. in this town, and Happesburgh, by fine, remainder to Richard Esturmy, who with Joan his wife held it in the 54th of that King; but in the 1st of Edward I. William Esturmy, brother of Richard, conveyed his right herein to Robert Burnell Bishop of Bath and Wells, with the lordships of Helagh, upon Swale, Kirkeby, Herblawere, and Osmunderly, in Yorkshire; Morely, in Devonshire. In the 9th of that King the Bishop had a grant of free warren here, and in the 12th Peter de Huntingfeld, and Immania, who had a lordship in this town, convey that to him, with that of Wyckham in Kent, and Joan de Muncey, relict of Sir Richard Esturmy, released to him, in the 13th of that King, her interest herein, with messuages, lands, a mill, &c. and from this lord, it was after called the manor of Burnell, and he left it to his nephew.

Ingram Berenger, in the 5th of Edward II. conveyed to Edward Lord Burnel, and Aliva his wife, (as a trustee,) this manor, with that of Thurning, and 100s. rent in Ganton in Norfolk; Eydon, Crofton, and Acton Reynold in Shropshire; and Coupton Dauno in Somersetshire; this Edward dying, left Aliva his wife, by whom he had no issue, and Maud his sister, and heir, and was found to hold this lordship by the service of 40d. at the end of every 24 weeks, to Baynard castle, then valued at 15*l.* per ann.

Maud, his sister and heir, married Sir John de Handlo, Lord Burnell, in her right; in this family it remained till the 4th of Henry V. Edward Lord Burnell was found to die possessed of it, leaving by Jocosa his wife three daughters, and coheirs, Joyce, Catharine, and Mary; and on a division of the estate, this came to Cath. who married Sir Jn. Ratcliff, and they were possessed of it in the 18th of Henry VI. and the said Lady Catherine held it in dower, in the 31st of that King, and John Ratcliff, her son and heir, inherited it, ancestor to the Earls of Sussex.

In 1721, on June 27, an act passed for vesting the manor of Burnel, in Ruston, part of the estate of Jonas Rolf, Gent. and Lucy his wife, in trustees, to be sold for discharging of incumbrances thereof; and it was soon after possessed by the Earl of Orford, in which family it continues.

KERDESTON'S MANOR.

The family of Kerdeston was enfeoffed of a lordship here. William de Kerdeston, in the 6th of Henry III. was petent, and Robert Baynard, tenant, of common of pasture in 80 acres of land, in a fine, before Fulk Baynard, &c. the King's justices, and the said William held half a fee of the Lord Fitz Walter, and one of the said name was returned to be lord in the 9th of Edward II. Maud de Kerdeston, widow of Sir Roger, held it in the 20th of Edward III.

Sir William Kerdeston (son of Sir Roger) and Cecilia his wife, in the reign of Richard II. and Sir Thomas Kerdeston, and Elizabeth his wife, in the 3d of Henry VI. being then called Netherhall, alias Kerdeston's,⁵ and in the 24th of that King, it was settled on Sir Thomas Kerdeston and Philippa his wife in tail; remainder to William de la Pole Marquis of Suffolk, and Alice his wife.

In the 16th of Edward IV. John de la Pole Duke of Suffolk: was lord, and Edmund de la Pole Earl of Suffolk, who was beleaded in the 5th year of Henry VIII.; after this it was granted by the said King, as a forfeited estate, to Charles Brandon Duke of Suff. and being after his death again in the Crown, was granted April 11, in the 4th of Edward VI. to Thomas Thirlby Bishop of Norwich, and his successors, and so continues in the see of Norwich.

VAUX MANOR.

In the 20th of Henry III. William de Vaux, and Peter de Huntingfeld were found to hold one fee of Sir Fulk de Baynard, and Fulk of Robert Lord Fitz Walter; and in the 56th of that King Hervey de Vaux, and Isabel, or Petronilla, his wife, were querents, in a fine, Rich. Esturmy and Joan his wife, deforciant, of a messuage, 60 acres of land, 2 of pasture, &c. in this town, Happesburgh, &c. which Hervey and Isabel held before for the life of Hervey, by grant from Isabel, Baynard, Maud, and Emme her sisters, in demean, with homages, rents, services, &c. hereby granted to Hervey and Isabel, and the heirs of Hervey; to be held of the heirs of Richard and Joan, by half a fee, and the moiety of the fourth part of a fee, and paying castleward to Baynard castle, 12d. yearly for all services; Hervey paying to Richard 300 marks of silver.

In the 9th of Edward II. Burga, widow of William de Vaux, held it, and in the 5th of Edward III. the said lady; a fine was levied in the 50th of the said King, between John de Eccles, querent, and Sir John de Weyland and Burga, his wife, who was daughter and heir of William de Vaux, deforciant, of this manor, who granted to John, two parts of it during the life of Robert de Martham and Sibilla his wife, and by another fine, in the said year, Sir John and his lady were querents, and Robert and Sibilla, deforciant, of the two parts, now settled on Burgh and her heirs: Elizabeth, daughter, and heir of Sir John, and the lady Burga, married John Hurwell, Esq. of Warwick- shire, and had Joan, a daughter and heir, who married John Stretche, Esq. and enjoyed it in the reign of Henry V.

This lordship has been united to that of Barnel's, and is now in the Earl of Orford.

The Earl Warren had at the survey 10 acres and half a carucate, which four socmen held of Stigand Archbishop of Canterbury, in King Edward's reign as a lay fee:⁶ this stands under the hundred of Tunsted, and not in Happing, (as Ralph Baynard's is,) and was valued with the Earl's manor of Coltesham in South Erpingham hundred.

In this family it continued till the last Earl Warren, who died s. p.

It was afterwards granted to the Earl of Lancaster, and so to King Henry IV. and the Crown.

The abbot of St. Bennet had a carucate and 60 acres valued in Scothow;⁷ it appears that Stephen de Redham held lands here, and in Scothow, in the 33d of King John, paying 50s. per ann. and 50 combs of barley: this tenure is also placed in the hundred of Tunsted.

Roger of Poictiers had also 6 acres of land and one of meadow, of which a freeman was deprived: this was valued, and went with his lordship of Tunsted.⁸

The Church is dedicated to St. Mary, and was a rectory; Jeffrey and Ralph Baynard, about the reign of William I. gave the advowson to the priory of Lewes: Sir Fulk Baynard, son of Sir Robert, confirmed it; and the prior, in the 25th of Edward III. granted it to King Edward III. who settled it on the dean and canons of Windsor, on his foundation thereof. The Register of Castleacre says, that the advowson of this church, with those of Fishlake, and Sandale Magna, in Yorkshire; Whaddon, and Caxton, in Cambridgeshire, were granted by the prior,⁹ to that King, that the priory of Lewes might be made an Indigena, as by letters patents, May 20, A. 47 of Edward III.

William, the second Earl Warren, is said to have granted his interest in the patronage of this church to Lewes priory; Roger de Kerdeston, and William, his son, the tithes of their lands; by an inquisition sans date, it was found that Fabian, late parson of Ryston, presented Roland, his son, to the vicarage of this church, by a grant from the prior, though Robert Baynard opposed it.

RECTORS.

In 1270, William de Lewknore was rector.

1277, Ralph de Flemingham, instituted rector, presented by the prior of Lewes: at this time the rectory was valued at 55 marks, a manse and 60 acres belonged to it, and there was a vicarage valued at 12 marks. And before this, Peter de Hay, paying 3 marks, had by the gift of the prior this church, with a moiety of the chapel of Riddington, for life, and in 1254, Mr. John Pgrave died rector.

S T A L H A M.

THE abbot of St. Bennet at Holm had the principal lordship of this town in King Edward's time, and at the survey, when there was one carucate of land held by 2 villains and a borderer, one carucate in demean, and one among the tenants, &c. 4 acres of meadow, one runcus, 6 swine; and one of the abbot's men held 29 acres of land of the abbot in King Edward's reign, and half a carucate and 2 acres of meadow; the King and the Earl had the soc, and 9 freemen held 75 acres and 2 carucates then; the abbot had only the commendation of them; the King and the Earl had the soc.¹

The whole manor was valued at 20s. and what the freemen held 2s. It was one leuca and three furlongs in length, and 5 furlongs in breadth, and paid 17*d.* ob. gelt.

The family of De Stalham were, soon after the Conquest, enfeoffed of this lordship.

William de Stalham was found to hold of the abbot of St. Bennet, the 5th part of a fee of the old feofment here, and in Beston, in the 12th year of King *Henry II.*²

In the 34th of Henry III. Sir Will. de Stalham, son of William, released to the abbot all his right in the advowson of this church. Nicholas, abbot of St. Bennet, brought a writ of escheat, in the 11th of Edward I. against William de Stalham, for lands in Irstede, &c.

Sir Robert de Curzon, dying s. p. Sir William de Stalham, father of this William, had entered on the lands of Sir Robert, though no relation, but the abbot finding by an old roll, that Will. son of Ralph, some time held the lands in Stalham, Beston and Irstede, by the 5th part of a fee; and, in another roll, that William, son of William de Stalham, and Bartholomew, de Calthorp, held the same, Bartholomew holding them in Beston, by the tenth part of a fee, and the said William, half the lands in Beston, and the lands in Stalham, and Irstede by the 10th part of a fee.

The abbot continued the same to William, who gave to the abbot 60 marks of silver, and 2 villains, and performed suit of court for the same; dated at St. Bennet's.

This William de Stalham married Isabel, daughter and heir of Matthew de Gunton. And in the 22d of that King, the abbot impleaded Jeffrey Wythe and Isabel his wife, daughter and coheir of William de Stalham, for the guardianship of Juan, Alice, and Ellen, her sisters and coheirs.

In the 20th of Edw. III. Oliver de Wythe, and John, son of Robert de Ingham, held this lordship of the abbot, by the 4th part of a fee; Robert probably married also one of the aforesaid daughters and coheirs; and in the 3d of Henry IV. the prior of Ingham, John Colvile, and Richard de Stalham, are said to hold the said fee.

In 1285, it appears that the abbot and convent had a pound of incense yearly, and 2 garbs or 2 parts of the tithes of the ancient demesons of William de Stalham.³

In an extent of the revenues of the see of Norwich, after the death of Bishop Ruggs, among the rents of several towns, mention is made of the rents belonging to the see in Stalham, on the exchange of the lands belonging to the abbey of Holm, made with Bishop Rugg and Henry VIII. No doubt the interest and lands in this town, that belonged to that abbey, were granted to that Bishop, and alienated after by him to Sir William Woodhouse, as is said.

Alan Earl of Richmond had a lordship of which eleven freemen were deprived, who held 100 acres of land and 2 carucates of meadow, and the moiety of the soc, under commendation only, and the King was possessed of the other moiety of it; Alan had also 15 acres of land here, of which 2 freemen were deprived, of whom Edric had the commendation, with the moiety of the soc, and the King and the Earl the other moiety; valued (with the manor of Ingham, &c.) at 100s. and at the survey at 6l.⁴

Robert Malet laid claim to these 2 manors, which Edric his predecessor had only in King Edward's time, the commendation, and says that his father was seized of them, and Roger Bigot witnesses the same; and they were 2 leucas and an half long and 12 perches, and one leuca and 10 perches broad, and paid 15d. gelt.

The family of de Ingham held this lordship and that of Ingham, in the reign of Richard I. from whom it came to the Stapletons; part of it seems to be given to the priory of Ingham; and in the 3d of Henry IV. the prior of Ingham, was returned to have a lordship here, and part of it came from the Stapletons to the Calthorps, and was sold by them in the 26th of Henry VIII. to Thomas Woodhouse, Esq. of Waxham, was afterwards in Sir William Woodhouse, and Sir Henry his son was lord in 1575.

Roger Bigot had also at the survey a lordship with 60 acres of land, and a carucate and a half, and 3 acres of meadow, of which 9 freemen, who were only under commendation of Edric, were deprived, who had half the soc, and the King and the Earl the other half, also 15 acres of which a freeman was deprived; to this belonged many privileges.⁵

Several persons had an interest herein; Richard le Butler and

Nicholas de Stalham, in the 24th of Henry III. divided by fine this inheritance, here and in Hykmere; Nicholas had Stalham, and Richard Hykmere, who dying soon after, s. p. Nicholas enjoyed the whole.

In the 37th of Henry III. Geffrey de Turgijs and Julian his wife, with Simon de Boleyne, released to Jeffrey de Bourdevile, 2 parts of a manor, and 2 knights fees here and in Brunstede, which were to descend to them from Robert Malet, uncle of Juhan, and cousin of Simon; the 3d part of the same belonging to Jeffrey de Bordevile, from Robert Malet his uncle; and Petronilla, widow of Robert, held the same in dower.

This afterwards came to Rob. Rose and Petronilla his wife, and Jeffrey Wyndless of Chickering; and Henry Rose was returned as lord in the 9th of Edward II.

Sir William de Stalham had an interest here in the 17th of Edward I. and sealed with an estoil of eight points.

Roger Bigot Earl of Norfolk, in the 22d of that King, claimed the guardianship of the daughters and coheirs of this William.

In the 14th of Edward III. John, son of Robert de Ingham, had an interest here and in Brunstede; and in the 9th of Edward II. Jeffrey Wythe was returned to be lord, as marrying Isabel, a daughter and coheir of Sir William de Stalham.

Edmund de Clipsby was lord, and John Clipsby, Esq. his son, released all his right to the same, and lands here to John Derby, Esq. in the 2d of Henry V. and John Linford, by his testament, dated August 2, 1456, gives his body to be buried in this church; appoints Sibilla his wife, and John Stokewyke, of Somerton, his executors: gives certain lands and tenements, to Sibill, in this town, Ingham, and Hickling, for life, and mentions Margaret his late wife.

This afterwards was part of the possessions of the college of Heringby in Norfolk; and on April, 13, in 36th of Henry VIII. the manors of Stalham Hall, Linford, and Wild's, were granted by that King to Sir William Woodhouse, being given by Hugh Attefenn's will, in 1475, to that college, the founder of it, with 10*l.* per ann.

In 1750, Mrs. Delf of Norwich, had the manor of Linford and Wild's for life, remainder to Capt. Delf.

The tithes were 9*l.* Deducted 15*s.*

The temporalities of the priory of Campesey in Suffolk were 15*s.*; of Bromholm, 4*s.*; of Holm, 7*d.*

RECTORS.

The church is dedicated to St. Mary, and was a rectory, in the patronage of the abbot of Holm.

Mr. Peter de Acres occurs rector in 1247.

Opizo de Castellis, Decret. Dr. rector: he complained, That whereas he had been rector of this church for 20 years; and received the profits, the abbot and convent of Holm feigning him to be dead, had presented to the Bishop, Alan, son of Gilbert de Thornton, and afterwards, in 1290, feigning him dead, presented twice; first, Mr. Bartholomew de Benevite, and secondly Mr. William de Luda, to the great damage of the said Opizo, in 500 marks, Alan receiving the profits of one year, to the value of 60*l.* sterling.

On this the abbot was summoned to appear personally at Rome, to make answer.

1302, John de Ferentino, presented by the abbot. The rector had then a manse with 20 acres, valued at 35 marks; the abbot had a portion of tithe valued at one mark. Peter-pence were 14*d*.

1332, Mr. Thomas Falstoff, by the abbot.

WAS a very considerable large manor, and extended itself into many towns. Edric de Laxfield possessed it in the reign of the Conqueror, but the Conqueror gave it to Rog. Bigot, who was lord of it at the survey; in Edric's time there were 3 carucates and an half of laud, belonging to it, 6 villains and 17 borderers, with 2 carucates in demean, 3 among the tenants, paunage for 60 swine, 39 acres of meadow, half a salt pit and 2 runci, 23 breeding mares, 12 cows, &c. 180 sheep, and 4 skeps of bees, two socmen also had 12 acres and an half, and there was a church endowed with 10 acres, and the King and the Earl of Norfolk had the soc.⁶

Edric appears to have enjoyed many lordships in this neighbourhood, in the reign of King Edward I. that he was a Dane by extraction is probable, and perhaps bore some relation to that remarkable Edric, the traitor to King Edmund Ironside, of whom all history makes mention.

One thing is remarkable of Edric, the lord here; that he had, after the custom of the Normans, assumed his name from a town, probably Laxfield in Suffolk, a practice begun in the days of King Edward, and after the conquest generally followed.

Agnes, widow of Warine de Monte-Canisio, or Lord Montchensy, held it in dower, of Roger Bigot Earl of Norfolk, in the 30th of Henry II. valued at 16*l.* per ann. and in the 20th of Henry III. Warine de Montchensy held it by one fee; in the said year, Richard de Wendover Bishop of Rochester, Sir Robert de Lexington, William de York, William de Culeworth, and Henry de Bath, the King's justices, were witnesses to the release of the advowson of the church of Swanscomb, in Kent, (the head of the barony of Montchensy), to this lord, from the prior of Southwark, on the payment of 5 marks pension per ann.

In the 20th of Edward I. Sir Hugh de Feer and Dionysia his wife, daughter and heir of William Lord Montchensy, claimed the assize of bread, &c. view of frank pledge, a tumbrell, &c. and in the 34th of that King, one part of 500 acres of waste and marsh ground here, in Cattfield, Ludham, and Heigham Potter, were assigned to them, and 2 parts to the abbot of Holm, as lords of those towns. Adomare de Valcutia Earl of Pembroke, was lord in the 9th of Edward II. and died in the 17th of that King, and was then found to hold it of the Earl of Norfolk.

After this it descended to the Hastings Earls of Pembroke, and in the 41st of Edward III. Juliana Countess of Huntingdon, late wife of John Hastings Earl of Pembroke, died possessed of it; and in the 49th of that King, John Hastings Earl of Pembroke dying beyond sea, Ann his wife, daughter and heir of Sir Walter de Manny, held it in dower, valued at 21*l.* 2*s.* 8*d.* per ann.

From the Hastings it came to the Greys, Lords of Ruthin, and in the 21st of Richard II. Richard Earl of Arundel, and Philippa his wife, were found to be lords: the said Philippa was widow of John Hastings (the last of that family) Earl of Pembroke, and held it in dower; and on her decease, Reginald Lord Grey of Ruthyn enjoyed it, together with Brunsted, and valued at 50*l.* per ann. but in the 14th of Henry IV. Joan, widow of William Beauchamp Lord Abergavenny possessed it, and it descended to Elizabeth, daughter and heir of Richard Earl of Worcester, son of Will. who was married to Edward Nevill, fourth son of Ralph Nevill Earl of Westmoreland, and Edward Nevyle Lord Abergavenny presented to the church in 1436; in this family it still continues: see in Bergh-Apton, in Loddon hundred.

In the 55th of Henry VIII. Thomas Alverede was found to hold the manor of Osmond's in Sutton, 100 acres of land, &c. of the Duke of Norfolk, and left two daughters and coheirs, Margaret, and Anna, the wife of Richard Holditch, Esq.

The tenths were 3*l.* 8*s.*—Deducted 8*s.*

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Michael, consists of two isles, a square tower, with three bells, and a south porch, with a room over it, and is a rectory.

In the reign of King Edward I. William Lord de Montchensy was patron, when it was valued at 10 marks, the rector had a manse with 12 acres of land, Peter-pence 12*d.* and the abbot of St. Peter de Dyna had a portion of 13*s.* 4*d.* paid by the rector. In the 10th of Richard I. the sheriff of Norfolk certified that he had taken possession of the advowsons of this church, and of Brunsted, with the moiety of Catfield church, for the King, which William de Monchensy claimed against the abbot of St. Peter, sup. dinam, and that abbot quit-claimed to William de Montchensy, and his heirs, all his right in the said advowsons, on a grant of 40*s.* per ann. to be paid by the rectors of the said churches, A. 12 of Richard I. &c. The present valor is 6*l.* 16*s.* 8*d.* and is discharged.

In memory of Mary, late wife of Edward Doyley, Esq; who died October 4, 1649.

In the church were the arms of Nevill Lord Abergavenny, gules, on a saltire, argent, a rose of the first; also Nevill, quartering the Earl Warren and Surry, in the 2d quarter;—in the 3d quarter, the Earl of Clare, and Spencer Earl of Gloucester, quarterly;—in the 4th quarter, gules, a fess between six cross crozlets, or.---Beauchamp, in the chancel east window.

Here were the guilds of St Michael and Corpus Christi.

Lights of the Trinity, Crucifix, St. Nicholas, St. Mary, and St. Michael.

WALCOTE.

RALPH, brother of Ilger, had a grant of this town, on the deprivation of Edric, a thane, or one of the lords of the Confessor, and Humphrey held it at the survey of Ralph, when there belonged to it 4 carucates, and 6 acres of land, 8 villains, and 16 borderers, with 2 carucates in demean, and 2 among the tenants, with 8 acres of meadow, one mill, 3 cows, &c. 4 swine, &c. 80 sheep, &c. and 4 skeps of bees; a church endowed with 20 acres, valued at 20*d.* and 7 freemen, with the moiety of another who were only under commendation, had 70 acres, and 2 carucates, &c. there were also 4 freemen added to this lordship, in the Conqueror's time by Ralph, and Humphrey had them; they held 90 acres, formerly 3 carucates, and now 2 and an half valued at 15*s.* of two of these his predecessor had only the commendation, and the predecessor of Robert Malet the commendation of one, the King and the Earl had the soc, valued then at 40*s.* at the survey at 60*s.* and it was one leuca long, and half a one broad, and paid 15*d.* gelt, whoever was lord.⁷

This Ralph had also a grant of Edesfeld and Stody, in Holt hundred;—of Erpingham, in South Erpingham hundred;—of Honing in Tunsted hundred, with Ridlington.

EAST HALL.

Humphrey, who held it of Ralph, at the survey, was nephew, or a near relation to Ralph, who enfeoffed him of this and other lordships, and assumed his name from the town of Edesfeld, or Edgefield, of which he was also lord.

William de Edesfeld, and his mother Maud de Walcote, by deed, sans date,⁸ granted to the monks of Bromholm, two parts of the tithe of his demean here, and confirmed the gifts of Peter his father, and Humphrey his grandfather, to that priory which Humphrey was probably the lord above mentioned. William de Edesfeld was living, and lord, in the reign of Henry II. Peter de Edesfeld, by Hawise his wife, had a daughter and heir, Letitia, married to Sir William de Rosceline, and brought it into that family, as may be seen at large in Edgfield, in Holt hundred.

⁸ Reg. Bromh. fol. 39.

In the 51st of Edward I. the letc was in the King, and the lord paid 2s. per ann. for it. Peter de Rosceline, in 14th of Edward I. claimed wreck at sea, frank pledge, &c. he and Mabel his wife, living in the 9th of Edward II. Sir Thomas his son, inherited it, and dying s. p. his six sisters and coheirs inherited it, as in Edgfield; Joan, the fourth sister and coheir, married John Lord Willoughby of Eresby, who purchasing their rights herein, died seized of it, held of the manor of Horseford.

On the death of William Lord Willoughby, in the 18th of Hen. VIII. it descended to his daughter and sole heir, Catharine, who married Charles Brandon Duke of Suffolk; she survived him and having no issue by him, remarried Richard Bertue, Esq. by whom she had a son, Peregrine Lord Willoughby of Eresby.

After this it came to the Woodhouses, and Sir Henry Woodhouse was lord of this manor, called East Hall, and that of West-Hall, in this town, in the 18th of Elizabeth, and sold the demean and copyhold lands to the tenants.

This lordship is now in the Earl of Orford.

WEST HALL.

About the reign of Henry III. this town seems to have been held by two different lords; and divided into East Hall, and West Hall. In the 24th of Henry III. Sir Jeffrey Fregoz, Sir And. de Hengham, Sir Thomas Bacon, and Sir Adam de Tycteshale, with Roger de Thurkelby, and Letitia his wife, were petents in a fine, and Thomas de Walcote, deforciant, of the advowson of this church, who was lord of this moiety, and living in the 34th of that King, and in the 9th of Edward II. Alexander de Walcot was lord and presented to this church in 1302, and this lordship was settled with 120, acres of land, 15s. rent, &c. on Alexander and Maud, in the 9th of Edward II. and on Cecilia, Elizabeth, Mariota, and Margaret his daughters.

In the 13th of Edward III. Alexander de Walcot conveyed his right herein to Sir Walter de Walcote, who was lord in the 20th of Edward III. and died in the 29th of that King, leaving three daughters and coheirs, (as in Sporing Parva,) who conveyed their right to Robert Herward, Esq. and Margaret, widow of John Elys, in the 6th of Richard II. and in the 6th of Henry IV. Thomas D'Engain, Esq. and Margaret his wife, passed it to the Lord Willoughby, and so was united with that of East Hall.

The CHURCH is a rectory dedicated to All-Saints, and in the reign of Edward I. valued at 20 marks, and the rector is then said to have most beautiful edifices, and many acres of land: the prior of Bromholm had a pension of 20s. Peter-pence 20s.

RECTORS.

In 1302, Hugh de Walcot, instituted, presented by Alexander de Walcote.

1309, John de Walcote. Ditto.

1347, Symon de Walcote, by Thomas de Walcote, rector of Felbrigg.

1383, Walter de Feundenhale, by John Plays.

1389, Mr. John Deen, by Sir Roger Boys.

1400, William de Sheffield, by the prior of Ingham, alienated to him, by Thomas Moor, in the 16th of Richard II. as in Ingham, and after appropriated thereto.

1402, Ralph de Middleton. Ditto.

1403, Warin Jeffrey, vicar, presented by the prior.

1409, Robert Pays.

1414, Alan Smith.

1416, John Reve.

1424, John Avelyn.

1447, John Straget.

1450, William Dancastre.

1457, William Langton.

1460, And. Smalbergh.

1477, Robert Calow.

1487, Sim. Sheringham.

Nicholas Crow.

In 1555, Robert Coustable, curate.

1591, John Bird, vicar, by the Bishop.

William Hembling, occurs curate in 1618; and before this in 1603, Thomas Canon, who certified that there were 110 communicants.

This rectory inappropriate was granted (as I take it) with Ingham priory, to Sir William Woodhouse, by King Henry VIII. who exchanged it with Bishop Rugg, with the said priory, for Hickling priory, &c. and this impropriated rectory remains in the see of Norwich, and is served by a stipendiary curate, nominated by the Bishop.

In the chancel,

In the church were the arms of Calthorp—Also Felbrigg; and ermin, a maunch, gules, argent, on a fess ingrailed, between three escallops, argent—and ermin, on a fess gules, three escallops, argent;—gyrony of ten, or and gules.

In the church was the altar of St. Mary.

The tenths were 6*l.*—Deducted 2*l.*

The temporalities of Bromholm, 17s. 4d. ob.

Besides the lordships abovementioned, Ralph, brother of Ilgar, had invaded, or seized on the property of 3 freemen, who had 90 acres, and 3 carucates, valued at 20s. per ann.;⁹ this was also held by Humphrey, and added to his manor aforesaid.

W A X H A M.

ALAN Earl of Richmond had the principal part of this town at the survey: two freemen, one of whom belonged to Edric, the other to St. Bennet's abbey, were deprived of 161 acres, and had 13 borderers, and 2 carucates and an half, and 18 acres of meadow.

The said Earl also possessed 80 acres of land, of which the said Edric, a freeman, was deprived, with 12 borderers, and a carucate in demean, one among the tenants, and 6 acres of meadow, 6 swine, 2 cows, and 100 sheep belonged to it, valued at 10s.

There was also a church endowed with 18 acres, valued at 18d. Edric added to it 2 socmen of St. Bennet's abbey, in the time of Ralph Earl of Norfolk, with 3 acres and an half, valued at 6d. and 8 freemen, under protection only, had 80 acres of land and 2 carucates of meadow, valued, at 5s.

Edric had the whole at the time when Earl Ralf forfeited; the King and the Earl had the soc.¹

There were formerly two towns of this name, one called Waxham Magna or Waxham St. John's, and Waxham Parva, or Waxham St. Margaret; great part of both these made up Earl Alan's manor, of which the ancient and noble family of Inghams were soon after the conquest enfeoffed.

Olivcr de Ingham was lord of it in 1183, (when the third part of his great tithe belonging to it was confirmed to the monks of St. Bennet;) as was Sir John de Ingham in the reign of King John.

From this family it came by marriage to Sir Miles Stapleton, and from that family, by marriage, to Sir William Calthorpe, whose grandson, William Calthorpe, Esq. sold it to Sir Thomas Woodhouse, and Sir William his brother succeeded him, and left it Sir Henry Wood- house, who was lord in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, and of the manor of Ingham, as may be seen there at large.

This family of the Woodhouses is a distinct family from that of Kimberley, and bore, for their arms, quarterly, azure, and ermine, in the first quarter a leopard's head, or; which arms belong to the family of Power, and I find these Woodhouses to be formerly styled Woodhouse, alias Power.

John Woodhouse of Waxham, Esq. married Alice, daughter of William Croft, of Whilton in Norfolk, Esq. and was father of Sir Thomas and Sir William Woodhouse.

WOODHOUSE'S PEDIGREE.

Sir William, son of Sir William Woodhouse, lived in the reign of King James I. and is said to have been the first person in England that erected and invented decoys for the taking of wild ducks.

In 1733, Thomas Blofield presented, as lord, to the churches of St. John and St. Margaret of Waxham.

The abbot of St. Bennet of Holm, was lord of a manor here at the survey, and in King Edward's reign, consisting of 2 carucates and 8 acres of land, with 3 borderers, one carucate in demean, and half a one among the tenants, 60 acres of meadow, &c. and 25 socmen and the moiety of one, had 160 acres, and 3 carucates and an half of meadow; 2 freemen under protection only, had 20 acres and a carucate; of these two the King and the Earl had the soc, and there was another, the soc of whom was in the abbey of St. Bennet.

The whole was valued at 4*l.* and what the freemen had at 3*4d.* It was one leuca and an half and one furlong long, and one leuca broad the gelt was 30*d.*²

This lordship, which appears to have been a very considerable one was no doubt, at the dissolution of religious houses, in the said abbey, and granted with its other lordships, &c. on the exchange of lands between the King and the Bishop of Norwich, to that see.³

The manor of Gelham Hall in Waxham was leased to Thomas Woodhouse, Esq. in 1549, and valued at 7*l.* 7*d.* per ann.

It probably took this name from an ancient family, De Gelham, who might have held it of the abbots. Soon after the exchange, which was in 1535, Bishop Rugg seems to have leased it to Thomas Woodhouse, who had several large grants of lands, &c. belonging to the abbey of St. Bennet, &c. from the said King; and rents are mentioned payable out of Waxham, in an extent of the revenues of the see, made after Bishop Rugg's death, so that it is at this time held (by lease of the Bishop,) by Berney Brograve, Esq. who presents to the 2 churches.

There were (as I have observed) formerly two towns here, Waxham Magna and Waxham Parva.

The CHURCH of Great Waxham was a rectory, dedicated to St. John, the rector had a competent manse with land, was valued at 9 marks, paid Peter-pence, 2*s.* 8*d.* and Oliver de Ingham was patron in the reign of Edward. I.

HOLT HUNDRED.

THIS hundred was in the Crown in the time of King Edward, and on the conquest the Conqueror was lord of it. In the 43d of Henry III. it was valued at 12*l. per ann.* and in the 14th of Edward I. William de Gyselham is said to hold it for the King.

John de Claving held it by a grant of King Edward I. for life, and possessed it in the 9th of Edward II. being worth 10*l. per ann.* and in the 39th of Edward III. Robert de Corby had it.

In the reign of King James I. it was granted to Sir Charles Cornwallis during life, and to Charles, eldest son of Sir William Cornwallis and Thomas, 2d son of Sir Charles, &c. and the longest liver of them, with all its rights, courts, letes, felons goods, &c. paying 7*l. 7s. 4d. per ann.*

BATHELE OR BALE.

THE chief lordship was in the Crown, as a beruite to the royal manor of Fakenham: in King Edward's reign a freeman held it under that King, with 2 carucates of land, 10 borderers, 2 servi, 2 carucates in demean, at the survey but one, and one carucate of the tenants, with 4 acres of meadow, and 2 socmen with 20 acres of land half a carucate and an acre of meadow, valued at 20*s.* and was one leuca long, and half a one broad, and paid 6½*d. gelt.*¹

In the 9th of King John, Otwic de Clipesthorp, and Agnes his wife, conveyed all their lands, services, and customs of the inheritance of theirs, to Robert Burnel; and in the beginning of Henry III. the said Robert was found to be lord, being the King's demeans, and paying 10*l. per ann.* to Fakenham manor.

On the death of Robert Burnel his two daughters and coheirs inherited it.

HENGHAM'S MANOR.

Andrew de Hengham had one moiety in right of Amabilia his wife, one of the said daughters and coheirs; and in 1250, Henry de Hengham had a charter of free warren here and in Shropham.

Sir Roger de Fravino, or Atte Ashe, died seized of it in the first of Edward II. as a member of Fakenham manor, performing suit of court there every 3 weeks, and by the service or payment of 100s. per ann. Lucia, his daughter and heir, married Sir Robert Baynard, son of Robt. Baynard of Whetacre, who was found to die seized of it in the 4th of Ed. III. with a capital messuage and letc; and in the 16th of the said King, Sir Edmund de Thorp was lord, in right of Joan his wife, sister and heir of Thomas, son of Sir Robert Baynard.

Thomas Thorp, Esq. a younger son of Sir Edmund, presented to the church of Bathely, as lord, in 1411; and Amicia, widow of Robert Thorp, in 1447;—united to Noion's manor.

NUGUN'S, OR NOION'S MANOR.

Joan, daughter and coheir of Robert Burnell, married Richard de Nugun, who was lord in her right. On a division of the estate, Sir Ralph, his son, presented in right of this moiety to this church, in 1313, as did Sir John de Noion, son of Sir Ralph, and Alice his wife, in 1339, by his attorney. Sir William de Wichingham presented in 1380, and Robert Norwich, and John Lynford, in 1420.

Ralph Noion had two daughters; Helwise, married to John Norton, and Cecilia, to Ralph de Dalling.

Thomas Digby, Gent. was lord and patron in 1572, and Richard Godfrey in the 35th of Queen Elizabeth. R. Godfrey of Hindringham was lord in the 8th of James I. and had the letc, the fee being 10s. and Richard Hindringham was lord in 1669; that Godfrey sold the estate from the manor.

Isaac le Heup, Esq. was lord and patron in 1740; and on his death it came to his 2 daughters and coheirs Elizabeth and Mary.

Alan Earl of Richmond had also a little lordship, which a freeman of King Harold possessed, containing half a carucate of land, with one borderer, &c. valued at 3s. *per ann.*²

Thomas, son of Gilbert de Hindringham, in the 10th of Edward I. held in Bathele, Brunham, and Sharnton, the moiety of a fee, valued at 4 marks per ann. and paid 5s. castleguard at Richmond.

Afterwards the Wilbys were lords of it. In the reign of Henry IV. Thomas Wilby had the manor of Wilby's in this town and Field-Dalling, in the 6th of Henry VIII. and William was found to be his son and heir; as in Field-Dalling.

The tenths were 2l. 12s. Deducted 6s. 8d.

The CHURCH is a rectory, dedicated to All-Saints. The old valor was 16 marks. Peter-pence, 6d. the present valor 10l. 13s. 4d.

In this town was also a chapel dedicated to St. Botolph, in 1421. Richard Brown, gave by will, in 1510, 13s. 4d. to the repair of it.

Here was also a remarkable great oak, so large and hollow, that 10 or 12 men might stand upright in it, not far from the west end of the church.

B A Y F I E L D

WAS a beruite to the King's manor of Holt: 9 socmen had 20 acres of land in King Edward's time, and at the survey, with 2 carucates of land; and the 4th part of a mill belonged to it, valued at 10s. 8d. it was one leuca long, and half a one broad, and paid 8d. gelt.³

The family of de Vaux were early enfeoft of this manor, with that of Holt, &c. Sir John de Vaux claimed view of frank pldge, assise of bread and beer, &c. in the 14th of Edward I.

From this family it came to the Lords Ross, and the Nerfords, as in Holt.

Another lordship was at the survey in Walter Giffard Earl of Bucks,

³ Terra Regis—In Baiafelda ix soc. et viiid. et hab. i leug. in long. et dim. de xx ac. et habi. T.R.E. ii car. et mo. in lat. et viiid. in gelt. et quarta pars de i mol. et val. x sol. et out of which Godric, a freeman, had been ejected; to it belonged 40 acres of land, 3 borderers, with one carucate, and the 3d part of a mill, also one socman with 10 acres, valued then at 10s. at the survey at 20s.⁴

This came from the Giffards to the Earls of Clare, by marriage of the heiress of Giffard.

Adam de Calthorp, John de Reppes, and Reginald de Bucun, held one fee of the Earl of Gloucester and Clare, in the beginning of King Henry the Third's reign; and in the 8th of Edward I. Alice, daughter of Richard de Bayfield, conveyed to Reginald de Reppes, son of John de Reppes, lands here, &c.

And in the 14th of Edward I. a fine was levied between Reginald de Reppes, querent, Walter de Melford and Alice de Reppes, deforcients, of 8 messuages and lands in this town, Holt, Sniterle, Glaunford, &c. with the advowson of the church of St. Margaret of Bayfield, conveyed to Alice and Walter, who regranted them to Reginald for life; she was probably mother of Reginald, and late wife of John de Reppes.

In the 11th of Edward II. Edmund de Newbourne and Alice his wife, conveyed the manor of Bayfield to Robert Hethe, by fine, probably in trust.

Alice de Reppes, and Walter de Calthorp, held here and in Huneworth, one fee of the Earl of Gloucester, in the 20th of Edward III. which Elizabeth de Calthorp and Reginald de Reppes formerly held.

Sir Bartholomew de Calthorp presented to this church as lord in 1346.

Edmund Newborne appears from a rental to be lord in the 46th of Edward III. and presented to the church in 1380, and in 1393.

John Yelverton of Bayfeld, and Elizabeth, widow of Robert Clere, presented in 1421: she appears to be lady of this manor in 1430, and held her first court then, in Bayfield-Hall; probably as her jointure, and relict of John Yelverton.⁵ William Yelverton, who was after a judge, and her son, (as I conceive,) being also then present.

In the family of Yelverton it continued; and by an inquisition taken at Walsingham Parva, October 4, in the 30th of Elizabeth, William Yelverton was found to die seized of it August 12, in the 28th of that Queen, held of the honour of Clare, and Henry was his son and heir; and in 1634, Sir Henry Yelverton was lord, and presented to this church.

From the Yelvertons it came to the Jermys, and Robert Jermy, Esq. presented as lord in 1661; and John Jermy, Esq. was lord in 1693, when there was but few houses in the town. John Jermy, Esq. was lord in 1744.

The Bayfields are said to have an interest here in the time of Henry III. Sir Jeffrey de Bayfeld, Knt. bore sable, two bars wavy, ermine.

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Margaret, and was formerly valued with a portion of Peter le Carson, at 5*l.* 10*s.* Peter-pence, 5*d*

“ This tortoise in 1685, was brought by Mr. Robert Swallow from Smyrna to Bayfield, and in July, 1686, given to John Jermy, Esq. It yearly, in November, went under ground, there laid and slept till the latter end of March. In May, she made a hole in the middle of a gravel walk, most open to the sun, and therein usually laid 9 eggs, but never produced any young, having no commerce with a male; she was found dead in the earth in April, 1743.”

BLAKENEY OR SNITERLEY.

PART of this town of Sniterly was a beruite to the King's manor of Holt; here was one carucate of land, 7 villains and one borderer, also one carucate among the freemen, and was valued with Holt.⁶

Snet or Snyte, is an obsolete name of many rivers or streams of water, from which several towns take their names: thus Snetterton in Norfolk and Lincolnshire, Sneton in Yorkshire, &c.

The family of De Faux was soon after the conquest enfeoffed of this as in Holt, from whom it came to the Lord Ross, and so to the Nar-fords, &c. as in Holt.

The principal lordship was held by Edric, a freeman of Harold, and granted by the Conqueror to William de Beaufoe Bishop of Thetford, to be held by him as a lay fee, in his own right, which Bishop gave it and many other lordships to his fee, and to be enjoyed by his successors.

At the survey, William de Noiers held it of the said prelate, as a lay fee; to it there belonged 2 carucates of land, 2 villains, 25 borderers, and one survus, 2 carucates in demean, and 2 carucates with 3 acres of meadow among the tenant, one mill and 2 socmen, with 24 acres and half a carucate; valued in King Edward's time, at 40s. at the survey at 4*l.* and a church endowed with 30 acres, valued at 16*d*.⁷

In the 12th of Henry II. Peter de Melton, called also Peter de Constable, was lord, and held three knights fees and an half in Norfolk, of the Bishop of Norwich; and on the death of Jeffrey de Constable, a descendant from the said Peter, it came to his three sisters and coheirs; Alice, who married Robert de Cockfeld;—Isabel, married to Adam de Cockfeld, and Edith, married to Sir Thomas de Estle, between whom it seems to have been divided, about the 18th of Henry III.

COCKFELD'S MANOR.

Sir John de Cockfeld, son of Robert and Alice, purchased his aunt Isabel's part, and was living in the 15th of Edward I. and claimed view of frankpledge, assise of bread and beer, &c. with two parts of the tite

In the 9th of Edward II. John, son of John de Cockfeld, conveyed by fine, to John Bacon, clerk, a mill, certain rents, with the advowson of the church of Sniterley, Cecilia, widow of John de Cockfeld being the living, and in the 11th of that King her dower, and all the interests of the Cockfelds herein, were soon after in the Bacons, and Sir John Bacon, presented to the church in 1340.

Sir Bartholomew Bacon, son and heir of Sir Robert, was, in the 15th of Richard II. found to die possessed of it; and Isabel, wife of Sir Oliver Calthorp, was found to be his sister and heir, as appears from the escheat rolls. The said Isabel gave it to her 2d son, Richard Calthorp, Esq. with the manor of Cockthorp. In this branch of the family it continued, till James Calthorp, Esq. son and heir of Christopher, sold it to Sir Henry Calthorp of Ampton, knight, in Suffolk, who died lord in 1637, and James was his son and heir.—See in Cockthorpe.

ASTLEY'S, ALIAS HOLYWELL MANOR.

This manor took its name from Robert Holywell, 2d husband of Edith de Constable, (who married first Sir Thomas de Estele) who claimed the same liberties in the 15th of Edward I. as Cockfeld, and had the 3d part of the lete.

Holywell held it in right of his wife; afterwards it came to the Astleys, as her right heirs, who were lords also of Melton, in this hundred, where a particular account of them may be seen; and in the 3d of Edward III. Thomas de Estley and Sir Edmund Bacon held one fee in this town of the Lord Bardolf, who held of the Bishop of Norwich; it remained in the Astleys till Isaac Astley, Esq. by indenture dated January 3, in the 31st of Elizabeth, sold it to James Calthorp, Esq. of Cockthorpe, who conveyed it to Sir Henry Calthorp, whose descendant, James Calthorp, Esq. was lord in 1698, and James Calthorp, Esq. in 1727.

CLARE MANOR.

Walter Giffard, who was Earl of Bucks, had also at the survey a lordship, which Toka held under King Harold, consisting then of 30 acres, and a carucate, &c. valued then at 5s. at the survey at 10s.;⁵ this after came to the family of Clare, by the marriage of the heiress of Giffard.

Richard Earl of Clare was lord in the reign of Henry III. and Robert Fitz Simon held it of that honour, and William de Brun, or Brome, held here, in Cley, and Wiceton, two fees of the said honour, in the 8th of Edward II.

Robert Beales possessed it in the reign of King Charles I. as in Cley.

Blakeney, or Sniterley, was one and the same town: Sniterley was undoubtedly the ancient name, and was so called in the 7th of Henry III. when that King granted a market here to Peter de Meaunton; the first time that I meet with the name of Blakeney is in the reign of Edward III.

It was in ancient days a famous sea port, much frequented by the merchants of Germany.

In the 14th of Edward I. Henry Flyke, and Helebrand de Lubeck brought their action against Thomas Bargeys, &c. for seizing and taking by force a ship loaded with cloth and other merchandize, drove ashore at this port, and valued (as said) at 14000*l.*

King Edward II. in his 3d year, charged this town with one ship of war, to be sent to Dublyn, to transport the King's forces raised there, to Scotland, and in the following year, sent to this town, Yarmouth, Lynne, Burnham, and Holkham, to provide ships to be sent to Scotland.

In the 31st of Edward III. is a statute relating to the sale of fish here, there being a great fair held at Blakeney, on that account, to which persons came from all parts. In the 25th of Edward I. I find the convent of Carrow to lay in a stock of 180 fish, (cod and ling, as I take it,) and in the 9th of Richard II. when other mariners were impressed, for the King's service, the fishermen of Blakeney, Cloy, Cromer, and of the adjacent parts, were excepted.

In the 27th of Henry VI. William Conyngton, and Katharine his wife, conveyed by fine, to John Hegdon, &c. a messuage, 70 acres of land, one ustrini, and one minera, which I interpret a melting-house, with a mine, or mineral, belonged to it in Snitterley, &c.

The tenths were 12*l.*—Deducted 5*l.*

The CHURCH is very spacious, both in length and breadth, containing a nave, 2 isles, and a chancel, all built of stone, with a stately, large, and lofty four-square tower of stone, and is a famous sea-mark; the chancel roof is curiously vaulted with free-stone, and covered as the church, with lead: at the north-east corner of the chancel arises a lofty stone turret, wherein was formerly (as reported) a fire-beacon, or light-house: on the pavement a gravestone for,

In the north isle,

^o It is probable he was buried in the church of the Carmes, of this town, and removed here at the dissolution. See in Cckthorp.

On the north buttress of the tower is this shield carved, ----- three mitres, the lowest pierced with a crosier, probably for the arms of the see of Norwich; and on the south buttress, a cross, under that a dolphin embowed in a bordure of escallops.

The church is a rectory dedicated to St. Nicholas, and was formerly valued, with the chapel of Glanford annexed, at 50 marks, the Peter-pence 13*d. ob.* the present valor is 26*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* and pays first-fruits and tenths: the priory of Castleacre had a portion in it valued at 4*s.* and that of Carbrook one.

In the 21st of Edward I. John Stormer, and Thomas Tholer, copyhold tenants of William de Roos, lord of the town, and Maud his wife, did fealty for lands and tenements, they held of him here, and in Cley; and after they gave part of these lands, 13 acres and $\frac{1}{2}$ to God, and the Virgin Mary, that the Carmelite friars, by the King's license, and that of Sir William Roos, might inhabit therein for ever, and might build a chapel, and other necessary buildings thereon, the said friars being bound to pray for the good estate of the said Sir William Roos and his Lady Maud, on pain of excommunication, and to have and to hold that lord and lady, and their heirs, for their principal founders, who gave them 100 marks, to build their church and houses, and promise to build their hall, with a kitchen and chambers, proper and convenient for the reception of them and their heirs, with liberty for them at all times, of free entrance and exit whenever they shall think proper to come and stay there; the said Sir William and his heirs repairing the same, and was finished, A.D. 1321.

The site of this house, with the East and West closes, Kyll close, Tanners acre, and Hollyn's close, the stallage, shops, cellars, fair, mercate and customs here, were granted February 6, in the 33d of Henry VIII. to Wilsam Read, who in the said year had license to alien it to Richard Gresham, and Richard had license for the same, in the 36th of that King, to Peter Scottow; John, his son and heir, had livery of it in the 4th of Elizabeth. Cecilia Scottow aliened it to Thomas Barker, who held it about the 18th of Elizabeth.

Another part, or fee, was in Walter Giffard, out of which a free-man had been expelled, who had 30 acres, and there were three borderers, with a carucate and an acre of meadow, valued then at 8s. at the survey at 5s.³

From the Giffards it came to the Earls of Clare, as in Smutterley alias Biakency.

The tenths were 4Cs.—Deducted 10s.

The temporalities of Walsingham were 2s.;—of Waburn 21s. 4d.—and of Westacre 6d.

The church, about 20 years past, was in decent repair, and there was service in it; at present it is in ruins: it had a nave, with a north isle, together about 30 feet broad, and in length, with the chancel, about 60 feet, all covered with lead, and a square tower, with one large bell. BODHAM OR BODENHAM, TAKES its name as seated in a fine winding valley; thus Bodeney in Norfolk, &c. At the survey Hugh de Montfort had the capital lordship, which Bund, a Saxon thane, was lord of, in the reign of the Confessor, consisting of two carucates of land, 17 villains, &c. and 4 borderers; there were then 2 carucates in demean, and 2 among the tenants, 2 acres of meadow, &c. 17 goats, and 2 soemen had 30 acres of land, with half a carucate, then valued at 20s. at the survey at 10s. it was 10 furlongs long, and 5 broad, and paid 12d. gelt,⁴ and Ralph held it under his lord Hugh.

The descendants of this Ralph, according to the custom of that age, assumed the name De Bodham, and De Bosco de Bodham, from some wood near their seat.

Henry de Bosco de Bodham was lord in the 5th of King John, or held lands here in the 12th of Henry III. William, son of Philip de Bodham, was querent, in a fine, and William de Magnewariu and Alice his wife tenants of one knight's fee here, the dower of Alice, and mention is therein made of Oliva, widow of William de Bodham; and in the 34th of that King, William de Bodham was found to hold one knight's fee, and was not a knight.

In the 52d of the said reign, William de Bodham sold one fee here, &c. to Roger de Thirkelby, with the advowson of the church, and 2 acres of land; Roger's brother, Walter de Turteby, or Thiskelby, and his heir, gave it to the priory of Langley, in Norfolk; the aforesaid William, also sold the greatest part of his lands, and kept only the lordship and demean lands about it, which lands Philip and Ralph his sons are said to have surrendered into the king's hands, for the use of Matthew de Gellham.

In the 55th of Henry III. a fine was levied between Matthew de Gelham, and Ralph de Unworth, of a messuage and one carucate of land granted to Roger, who regranted certain of the said lands, to Matthew for life: Roger de Hunworth appears to be lord in the 28th of Edward I. and held one fee, paying 10s. per ann. castle guard to Dover, and 2s. hundred shot; in the 34th of that King, John was found to be his son and heir, and paid 100s. relief, he died in the 23d of Edward III. and Margaret his wife survived him, and William was found to be his son and heir, aged 11 years.

About this time the lordship seems to be divided. Simon de Bosco de Bodham sued Warine Thurkelby on account of 12 messuages, 118 acres of land, 64 of heath, 3 of pasture, with 5s. rent in this town, Baconsthorp, &c. but Warine recovered against him, in the 35th of Edward I. and a fine was levied in the 10th of Edward III. between Henry de Hauvile and Isabel his wife, querents, Thomas de Bosco, of Bodham, deforciant, of the lordship of Bodham, who settled it on Henry and Isabel for life, remainder to himself.

Thomas de Bodham and Elizabeth his wife conveyed by fine, in the 26th of that King, the fourth part of the manor, to John de Wesenham. John de Bodham was found to die seized of lands held of Dover castle, in the 34th of the said reign, as was Margaret Bodham in the 28th.

In the 39th of Edward III. William de Honeyworth died aged 26, and Catharine was his sister, aged 23: Margaret, wife of James de Rungeton, seems to be another sister; between these, their brothers inheritance was divided, and in the said year, the said James, and Margaret, conveyed to Will. de Tutington, and Edw. de Gresham, 2 messuages, several great parcels of land, and a fold-course in Bodham, and Baconsthorpe.

Three fines in the year following were levied—one between John Burnel, parson of Berningham Parva, &c. querents, Richard Colman and Emma his wife, deforciant of the 5th part of the manor of Bodham, settled on John, their trustee; and between Margareci, widow of John, son of Thomas de Bodham, holding a third part of two parts, and Alice, widow of Thomas de Bodham, holding a third part of a fifth part thereof.—The second fine was between Rob. Hereward of Abdeburgh, querent, and William de Wilby and Joan his wife, John de Merle and Margaret his wife, deforciant, of two other fifth parts, then sold to Robert Hereward, quit of the heir of Joan, and Margaret, whereby Emma, and they two seem to be heirs of the manor, and likely daughters and coheirs of John, son of Thomas de Bodham, and that the whole interest came after to Hereward.

In the 7th of Henry IV. John Atte Bowre of Bodham died seized of lands and tenements, and paying guard fee to Dover castle, and Roger was his son and heir, aged 40 years; the said Roger was found to die possessed of a messuage, 28 acres of land, one of meadow, &c. 6 of heath, and 13s. 4d. rent, in Bodham, and West Beckham, held by the 4th part of a fee, and John Bourne was his cousin and next heir.

In the reign of Edward IV. John Heydon, Esq. was lord, and died possessed of it; and on June 20, in the 37th of Henry VIII. messuages and lands here were granted to Robert Heydon, in which family it continued in 1616, when Sir Christopher Heydon presented to this church.

John Laug, Gent. was lord and patron in 1701, and then presented.

The tenths were 2l. 4s.—Deduct 14s.

Walter Giffard Earl of Bucks had also a manor here which went also along with his manor of Laringset, with one carucate of land, 9 borderers, 2 servi, one carucate in demean, and one among the tenants, &c. 2 acres of meadow, valued at 10s. in King Edward's time; at the survey at 30s.⁵

This came by marriage to the Eails of Clare.

Roger de Peiers held here and in Laringset, &c. two fees of Petrouilla de Neiford.

In the 7th of Edward II. for 4l. sterling, she granted the custody of all the lands of Thomas, son of Simon de Bosco of Bodham, a minor, to Roger de Gresham, which lands, &c. Cecilia, wife of Henry de Bosco, held in dower, in Bodham, and the lands, &c. which Thomas de Bosco, Emma de Bosco, and Grace de Bosco held there.

Thomas Hales held here, in Hott, Laringsete, &c. a fee of the Lord Ross, and Margaret de Neiford, in the 5d of Henry IV.

Edmund Mortimer Earl of March held in capite, in the 3d of Henry IV.

John Winter, in the 3d of Henry IV. held half a fee of the Earl of March, and in the 1st of Henry V. Edmund Winter, and Oliva his wife conveyed a moiety of this lordship to Roger Scot, Esq. and Roger Hunt.

BRINTON

WAS a beruite belonging to William Beaufoe Bishop of Thetford's capital manor of Thornage, belonging to the see, in the Saxon age, and is accounted for under that town, to which I refer the reader.

In Edward's the First's time, the Bishop had view of frank pledge, assise of bread and beer, a gallows, and other privileges.

It remained in the see of Norwich till it came to the Crown, on the great exchange of lands made by act of parliament, in the 27th of Henry VIII. and was granted the 1st of July, in his 28th year, to William Butts, M. BURGH PARVA.

THIS town is not mentioned in Domesday Book, but appears to belong to the Bishop of Norwich's lordship of Melton: it seems to take its name from the river Bure, that rises here, and runs to Yarmouth.

The family of De Melton, alias Le Constable of Melton, were the ancient lords of this village, and by the marriage of Edith, one of the daughters and coheirs of that family, it came to Sir Thomas de Estely; and in 1317, Steph. de Astlee, presented as lord to the church of Burgh, in which family it still remains, Sir Edward Astley, Bart. of Melton, being lord, as may be there seen.

BRUNINGHAM, OR BURNINGHAM,

So called as seated on meadows, by the river Bure.

The greatest part of this town was granted to William de Beanford Bishop of Thetford, by the Conqueror, to be held as a lay fee, and in his own right, out of which 4 freemen of King Harold had been ejected, who possessed 2 carucates and a half of land, and Roger Lungusensis held it under the Bishop, 9 villains, 13 borderers belonged to it, and there had been 3 carucates in demean, and 2 carucates and an half among the tenants, pannage for 30 swine, 6 acres of meadow, and a mill, &c. 5 skeps of bees, 3 socmen had 12 acres and half a carucate, valued in Harold's time at 50s. at the survey at 4*l.* was one leuca long, and 8 furlongs broad, and paid 13*d.* gelt, and there was a church endowed with 12 acres valued at 12*d.*

There was also another lordship, or part of land, with 6 acres, with a church, endowed with 12 acres valued at 12*d.* which R. the Earl, (that is Ralph Earl of Norfolk) held, and forfeited it on his rebellion, as I take it, and after him A. the Earl, (Alan Earl of Richmond probably) as the hundred witnessed, was lord.⁹

The family of De Mealton, of Melton Constable, were early enfeoffed of these tenures, by the Bishops of Norwich; and on a division of their estate among the daughters and coheirs, this became the inheritance of Sir Thomas de Estlee, by the marriage of Edith, one of the said daughters, and Thomas de Asteleye presented to this church in 1328, in which family part of the aforesaid tenures remain.

Part of the said tenure, in the 20th of Edward III. was found to be held by John de Wesenham by the 6th part of a fee, of Ralph de Estle, which Lucy de Bryningham formerly held.

In the 3d of Henry IV. the Lady Catharine Braunch possessed the said 6th part, and Robert Braunch, Esq. by his will dated January 13, 1502, proved April 6, 1505, died lord of it, leaving Jane his wife, and John his grandson, son and heir of Henry Braunch, his son, heir to the said Edward.

John Braunch, Esq. conveyed it in the 28th of Henry VIII. to John Bozoun.

Robert Bozoun, Esq. of Stodey, by deed dated in the 14th of Elizabeth, sold it to Sir Nicholas Bacon, Knt. Lord Keeper of the seal, and Nicholas Bacon, Esq. his son and heir, in this family it remained till Sir Edmund Bacon of Garboldisham sold it to Edmund Britiff, Esq. Edmund Britiff, Esq. was lord about 1720.

WELBY'S MANOR.

Another lordship was granted to Alan Earl of Richmond, out of which Turber, a freeman, under the protection of Herold, was ejected, who had 30 acres, and 1 villain, one borderer, with a carucate, paunage for 3 swine, and 2 acres of meadow, valued then at 10s. at the survey at 5s. and Geffrey held it of Alan.¹

In the 8th of Edward I. Thomas son of Gilbert de Hindringham, held half a fee here, in Bathele, &c. of the honour of Richmond.

John Wilby was lord of it in the 3d of Henry IV. &c.—See in Batheley and Dalling.

The tenths were 3*l.* 10*s.* 0*d.* Deducted 13*s.* 6*d.*

Reginald de Meauton, son of Peter le Constable, gave to Walsingham priory 6*d.* rent here.²

The King granted license this year to appropriate it to Trinity Hall in Cambridge, and the Bishop of Norwich, William Bateman, who was the capital lord of the fee, and of this town, appropriated it on October 15, 1350, to the said hall, of which he was the founder. Richard de Ling was his chancellor, and many times also chancellor of the University of Cambridge, &c.

The Bishop reserved a pension of one mark per ann. payable to the see, and it was to be served by a stipendiary curate.

BURSTON, OR BRISTON,

TA K E S its name from the river Bure. The principal manor belonged to King Edward, as lord of Holt, on which it was a dependant, and the Conqueror held it as such at the survey, when 5 socmen, belonging to Holt manor, held a carucate and 20 acres of land, had pannage for 20 swine, and was valued at 12s. it was one leuca long, and half a leuca broad, and paid 13*d.* gelt, whoever possessed it.³

This, as I take it, was the lordship called Briston-Mauteby's.

EARL WARREN'S MANOR.

The Earl Warren had also a lordship by grant of the Conqueror, out of which Toke, a Saxon thane, had been ejected, who had 14 socmen with half a carucate of land and 3 borderers, also 4 carucates, with pannage for 20 swine, valued at 16s.⁴

The ancient family of De Burston or Briston, were lords of it. In the 34th of Henry III. Roger de Leonibus, or Lions, impleaded Ralph de Birston for 2 parts of a fee in this town.

This Roger was son of Jeffrey de Lions, who married Matilda, daughter and coheir of William de Lions, who lived in the reign of Henry II. and left also 2 other daughters and coheirs, Hawise and Beatrice, and they dying s. p. he claimed it as heir.

William de Grantcourt, lord of Fulmodeston, proving that Jeffrey de Lions had levied a fine of the same to his ancestor, William de Grantcourt, Briston held his possession.

In the 41st of the aforesaid King, Roger de Lenham gave lauds in Burston and Thurning, to Roger de Briston, on his marriage with Amabilia; and Robert de Briston held half a fee of the Earl Warren, when the aid was granted to this king, on the marriage of his sister to the Emperor.

Thomas, son of John de Briston, in the 10th of Edward I. demanded against John de Cockfeld, the advowson of this church of All-Saints of Briston, and sets forth his descent in this manner:

Robert de Briston had 2 sons, the eldest, Robert, died s.p. Roger his brother was his heir, and had issue, Robert, who died s.p. and John, who was father of Thomas, the present lord.

John de Cockfeld calls to warrant Robert de Cockfeld, who pleaded that he held it in parcenary with Edith, daughter of Peter le Constable, grandfather of Robert de Cockfeld, &c. and in the 14th of Edward I. he impleaded Peter de Letheringset and Agnes his wife, on account of waste, &c. in the lands, woods, houses, and gardens, held in dower by the said Agnes, in Birston, the inheritance of the said Thomas.

In the 9th of Edward II. John de Birston was lord, and in the 17th a fine was levied between John, and Joan his wife, querents, John le Poure, &c. deforcients, whereby lands here were settled on John de Birston, remainder to Peter and John his sons; and in the 6th of Edward III. this lordship was settled on the said John and Joan for life; remainder to John, Roger, Adam, Nicholas, &c. his sons, in tail. The arms of this family was quarterly, argent, and sable, a bend over all, or.

John de Birston in the 20th of that King, held half a fee of the Calthorps, (as was found) and they of the Earl Warren; and in the 34th, John de Birston and Maud his wife, were living, and had the manor of Wolterton in East Barsham.

In the 4th of Henry IV. John de Bryston held half a fee of the Earl of Arundel. John de Bryston was living in the 9th of that King, aged 40, and was born in this town, and had been abroad in the King's service, and his father, John Bryston, Esq. had been in many voyages and services, and the aforesaid John was living in the first year of King Henry VI.

In the 7th of Henry VI. John Ingram and Ela his wife, conveyed in trust to Benedict Turner, vicar of Birston, this manor, with lands, and 2s. 8d. per ann. held by Ela for life.

Ralph Briston, Esq. died lord in the 11th of Henry VII. and John Copping was found to be his heir; and in the next year John Windham purchased it of William Sutton and Joan his wife. Sir Thomas Windham died seized of it in 1522.

The Bishop of Norwich's manor of Melton extended into this town.

MAUTEBY'S MANOR.

Here was also another lordship in this town, held by the King at the survey, as part of his lordship of Holt; of this the ancient family of De Basingham were enfeoffed, from whom it came by marriage to the De Mautebys in the reign of King Edward I. and so to the Pastons, in the time of King Henry VI. and was sold by Sir William Paston, Bart. in the 18th of Charles I. to Erasmus Earl, Esq. and by the death of Erasmus Earl, Esq. came to his sister and heir, —, who married William Wigget Bulwer, Esq. lord in 1764.

WAS a beraitte to King Edward's manor of Holt, and at the survey was in the hands of the Conqueror, as royal demcan; 2 carucates of land, 24 villains, 21 borderers, and 2 servi, belonged to it; there was one carucate in demcan, and another might be restored to it, and 12 among the tenants, one acre of meadow, 7 swine, 140 sheep, and was valued together with Holt.⁶

Hugh Earl of Gloucester, seems to have a grant of this manor from the Crown, soon after the conquest, and after came to the Earls of Albemarle and Devonshire, who held it in capite, and was held of them by the Fauxes.

NERFORD'S MOIETY.

The family of De Fallibus or Faux, was enfeoffed of it with Holt and Houghton, and possessed it in the reign of Henry II. and on the death of Sir John de Faux, in the 16th of Edward I. it was divided between his 2 daughters and coheirs; Petronilla married Sir William de Nerford, who was lord of this moiety in her right, and had view of frank pledge, assise of bread and beer of his tenants; and Peter de Letheringset is said to hold it of the Nerfords, with Holt, by one fee.

In the 3d of Edward II. the Lady Petronilla obtained license for a fair on the eve and feast of St. Margaret the Virgin. In this family it remained till the death of Margery, sole daughter and heir of Sir John de Nerford, in 1417, as may be seen in Holt.

In 1492, Robert Tyrchit and Richard Gascoign seem to have an interest herein, &c.

It came after to the family of Symonds, of which was John Symonds, who died in 1505, and was buried in this church with his two wives, as was John, his son, a merchant, who died in 1508, and his wife, Agnes, in 1511, leaving Ralph Symonds, Esq. her son and heir.

John Symonds, Esq. of Cley, was grandson of Richard Symonds of Suthfield, and Margaret his wife, and 2d son of John Symonds, by Jane, daughter of William Theobald; the aforesaid John died July 24, 1502, and had by Agnes his wife, daughter of William Sanderson of London, John his son, who died in 1508, father of Ralph, who dying 1557, left Gyles his son and heir, by Elizabeth, daughter of William Bishop of Yarmouth, who by Catharine, daughter of Sir Anthony Ley of Bucks, had Ralph, his son. John, (by Anne, daughter of Jeffrey Cobb of Saudringham,) married Anne, daughter of Richard Toothby of Lincolnshire.

LORD ROSS'S MOIETY.

William Lord Ross of Hamlake was lord of a moiety also of this town, in right of Maud, youngest daughter and coheir of Sir John de Vaux, in which family it remained till it came by marriage to Sir Robert Manners, whose descendant, Thomas Earl of Rutland, in the first and 2d of Philip and Mary, sold it to Thomas Lodge, Esq. as may be seen at large in Holt.

In 1572, Sir Christopher Heydon was lord and patron of the church, and both the moieties seem to be in him at that time.

Charles Britiff, Esq. died lord in November, 1703, and was buried in the church of Cley. Peter Wilson, Esq. died lord and patron in 1740.

The lordship of Wiveton extended into this town. Simon Fitz Richard held the fourth part of a fee here in the reign of Henry III. of the Earl of Gloucester and Clare, the capital lord, which came after to the Mortimers Earls of March, &c. the family of Briggs had an interest in it in the 35th of Henry VIII.

Robert Beales, Gent. died seized of it ao. 17 of Charles I. and Robert was his son and heir.

Ralph de Hauwile held lands by grand sergeanty, by keeping the King's hawks, in King John's reign.

The tenths were 10*l.* the temporalities of Castleacre priory 13*s.* 4*d.*

Hubert de Monchensy gave 2 parts of his tithe here and in Holkham, to it, which was confirmed by John Bishop of Norwich, in 1181.

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Margaret the Virgin, and is a rectory; the old valor was 34 marks; paid Peter-pence, 16*d.* The present valor is 22*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* and pays first fruits, &c.

It is a very large regular pile, consisting of a nave, a north and south isle, and a chancel built of free-stone, and covered with lead, and there seems to have been two wings or cross isles.

At the west end stands a four square tower, and was built, as I take it, (by the arms) in the reign of Henry VI. About the arch of the south porch are many arms carved in the stone; France and England, quarterly; Lord Ross; Mortimer Earl of March, and Burgh, quarterly; Delapole Duke of Suffolk, and Wingfield, quarterly; Narford; Fauv; Erpingham; a plain cross, St. George's shield; St. Peter's, 2 keys in saltire; a cup with a serpent issuing out of it, St. John's; a saltire, St. Andrew; the emblem or arms of the Trinity; three escallops, St. James's; two swords in saltire, St. Paul, &c.

There has also been at the west end a curious porch, or entrance into the nave, of stone, as appears from the ruins.

The east end of the south isle has been a chapel belonging formerly to the German merchants; on the roof are delineated several black spead eagles, with two heads, couped, &c.

E D G E F I E L D

Is situated in the south-east part of Holt hundred: it was anciently spelt Edisfelde, Edithsfeld, Edesfeld, and Eggefild.

There was formerly a cross in this parish, for Custancie Adam, relict of William, son of Ralf, priest of Eggefild, who about the time of King John, or Henry III. enfeoffed her son, Stephen, for half a mark of silver, in one piece of land lying in the field of Eggefild, abutting upon the way which led from the cross of Eggefild towards Bynham.

In the 30th of Henry III. 1245, Walter le Rus and Alice his wife held 12 acres of land in Eggefild, by the service of repairing the iron work of the King's ploughs. In the 13th of Edward II. 1399, a tournament was designed to be held in this town between divers men of arms, but was prevented by the King's writ, dated at York, 20th of October, and directed to the sheriff of Norfolk and Suffolk.

There are 2 manors in this town: the one is now called Edgefield Ellingham's, the other Bynham Priory Manor, or Edgefield Bacon's.

EDGEFIELD ELLINGHAM'S.

From Domesday book it appears that Ralph,⁷ the brother of Ilgar, had a grant of a lordship in this town from the Conqueror, on the deprivation of Bondo, a freeman of Herold, in the reign of King Edward the Confessor, and that there were 2 carucates of land, two villains, seven borderers, two bond slaves, two carucates of demean, and two amongst the tenants, pannage for 100 swine, five acres of meadow, one mill, two beasts of burden; in the Confessor's time there were seven swine, in the Conqueror's 23, then 7 sheep, now 80, then 13 goats, now 21, then one skep of bees, now two; and 17 socmen had 24 acres of land, accounted for in the carucates above.

It was then valued (in the Confessor's time) at 30s. now (in the Conqueror's) at 40s. It was one leuca⁸ long and half an one broad, and paid to the King 9d. in the gelt,⁹ or tribute, and Humphrey held it under Ralph.

⁸ Spelman, in his Glossary, says the leuca in Domesday means one mile only, but 'tis in general found that two miles of the present measure answer much better the definition of that word.

The ancient family of de Edisfield (descended perhaps from Humphrey above-mentioned,) had this lordship.

William de Edisfeld was lord and patron in the time of Henry II. 1154. His son, Peter de Edisfeld, succeeded him, and was (with Robert Fitz-Roger) sheriff of Norfolk, in the 3d of Richard I. 1191. He left by Hawisia his wife, an only daughter and heiress, Letitia, who marrying Sir William de Rosceline,¹ this estate descended to their son, Sir Thomas Rosceline, to whom Henry III. in his 51st year, 1266, granted free warren in his demean lands in this town, Walcote, Norton, Hekingham, Drayton, Tusburch, &c.

Letitia, his mother, being left a widow, married Sir Roger de Thurkeby, who, with his wife, presented to this church in the 3d of Edward I. 1274.

Sir Peter de Rosceline, the son of Sir Thomas, succeeded, and in the 14th of Ed. I. 1285, claimed view of frank pledge, and assise of bread and beer amongst his tenants; in the 22d year of the said reign, 1293, he had a summons to attend the King at Portsmouth, in order to accompany him to undertake the recovery of Gasconie, then possessed by the French King; and in 1300 and 1312, he presented to this church. In King Edward the Second's time, great disturbances arising between that King and his Barons, on account of his favourites, the Spencers, Sir Thomas de Rosceline, the son of Sir Peter, and the then lord of this manor, seems to have been on the Barons side, as in the 16th of Edward II. 1322, he was in rebellion against that King, and forfeited this manor, then valued at 15*l. per ann.* and that of Walcote, then valued at 17*l.*

In the 2d of Ed. III. 1328, he was banished, with many others, for taking part with the Earl of Lancaster against the great favourite Mortimer, but appears to have been restored to favour and his estate the following year.

In the 8th of Edward III. 1334, he confirmed by deed, this manor with that of Norton, and their advowsons, and the advowson of Hhet-acre, to Alexander de Walcote, and Adam, parson of Edgefeld: he was living in the tenth, but died without issue before the 15th year of the same reign, 1341; and, by his will, gave lands for a chaplain to pray for his soul, and for the soul of his grandfather, in the chapel of St. Mary the Virgin, founded by his grandfather in his manor here.

His inheritance came to his six sisters and coheirs.

Margery, the eldest, married Sir John Champaine; - - - - the 2d, married Ralf de Bokenham; Alice, the 3d, married Sir William Daye; Joan, the 4th, married John Lord Willoughby of Eresby; Maud, the 5th, married Sir Robert Tiffen; and Mary, the 6th, married Sir John Camois.

John Lord Willoughby, and Joan his wife, had the several shares of the others in this manor, &c. conveyed to; them for in the 23d of Edward III. 1349, this lord died seized of the whole; and Joan his wife, surviving him, married Sir William Synthweyt, who presented to this church in 1352.

*John Lord Willoughby*² was son and heir, and died seized of this manor, &c. in the 46th of Edward III. leaving Robert Lord Wil- loughby, his son and heir, who, in the 6th of Richard II. settled this estate on his son, William, and Lucea his wife, and the heirs of their bodies, (with the remainder to his heirs.

He (Robert Lord Willoughby) sealed with the arms of Beck, or Beke, to which family he was heir :

The seal is round, about the size of a crown piece; the arms are gules, a cross moline, argent, on his helmet a pair of horns issuing out of a coronet; on each side of the arms a lion sejant, guardant, supporting a lofty flourishing tree, and round the rim these words :

Œ: Roberti: de: Willoughbi: domini: crugby:

On his death, in the 20th of Richard II. he was succeeded by his son and heir, William Lord Willoughby, who died at Edgefield in the 11th of year of Henry IV. leaving Robert Lord Willoughby, his son and heir, aged 24 years, lord of this manor and of Walcote, Whetacre, Chetgrave, and Roughton.

This Lord Robert died in the 30th of Henry VI. leaving Joan his daughter, then a minor of 7 years of age, but afterwards married to Sir Richard Welles; she had no interest in this lordship, that being entailed on the heirs male, so that it came to Sir Robert Willoughby, son of Thomas, a younger brother to the late Robert Lord Willoughby, with the honour, &c.

In this family of Willoughby, Lords of Eresby, it remained till the death of William Lord Willoughby, on the 19th of October, 18th of Henry VIII.; it then descended to his daughter and sole heir, Catharine, who had livery of it in the 26th of Henry VIII.

She was afterwards 4th wife of Charles Brandon Duke of Suffolk, but surviving him, and having no issue, she married again, and brought this estate to her 2d husband, Richard Bertie, Esq.

She was a lady remarkably zealous for the reformation, and, on that account, was obliged, in the fiery days of Queen Mary, to take refuge in foreign countries; by this husband she had a son, called Peregrine, (being born abroad in these times of trouble and distress) who, on the death of his mother, in the 23d of Elizabeth, had a summons to parliament as Lord Willoughby of Eresby, and from him the present Duke of Ancaster is descended.

Richard Stubbs, Esq. purchased this manor and advowson of Thomas Cropley,³ Esq. about the first of Elizabeth.

He died about the 19th of James I. and was succeeded by his eldest daughter and coheir, Dionesia, Lady of Sir William Yelverton of Rougham, Bart. who held this manor, &c. till the 5th of Charles II.

Lady Mary Jernyn, relict of Sir Thomas Jernyn, Bart. of Rushbrook in Suffolk, was then lady and patroness.

At her decease, in the 33d of Charles II. Thomas Newton, Gent. succeeded. In the 12th of William III. Thomas Marcon, Esq. possessed it: he married Rebecca, daughter of Sir Benjamin Wrench, Knt. as physician at Norwich; and after his decease, in 1723, she married Colonel Harbord.

³ Quere, if the Pastons had not this manor before Thomas Cropley, Esq. of whom Stubbs purchased it in the first of Elizabeth, 1538?

Stubbs bears for his arms, sable, on a bend; or, between three pheons, argent, as many fermaux, gules.

On her death this manor and advowson came to John Mareon, Esq. of Swaffham, (son of Edward Mareon of Fornset, and cousin of the beforementioned John,) the present lord and patron.

BYNHAM PRIORY MANOR, NOW CALLED EDGEFIELD BACON'S.

In the time of Edward the Confessor (1041—1063) it appears from Domesday book, that Scet, a freeman, held here fourscore acres of land, five villains, one borderer, and one carucate of land, paunage for 100 swine, two acres of meadow, and 2 soemen with twelve acres of land, which lay towards Binham.⁴

At the conquest this was granted to Peter de Valoins, or de Valeniis, who in the reign of Henry I. (1100—1135) founded the priory of Bynham. Roger de Valoins, his son, succeeded him, and confirmed 2 parts of the tithes of his lordship here; after him, Robert his son, confirmed his whole demesne and lordship, with the homages, wood, alders, and free warren in this parish, to that priory.

During the subsequent reigns of King Stephen, Henry II. Richard I. John, Henry III. and Edward I. this manor, and the possessions of Bynham priory in this town were very much increased by numerous grants and gifts of lands, rents, &c. as appears from the following extract taken from the register of that priory.⁵

John, surnamed Le Strange, for the health of the souls of King Henry the younger, and Aleanor his Queen, and of William Earl of Arundel, his lord, and Queen Adeliza his wife, &c. gave to the monks of Bynham all the fee that Ralf de Hunstanton had in Eggefeld, and his son Simon after him, and after his brother Reginald de Brun, to whom the said John le Strange succeeded as right heir.

Simon, son of Hamo, of Hemsted, quitted his claim to them of his right in lands and a mill in Eggefeld.

Maul, daughter of Jeffrey de Suerdeston, gave them 6 acres of land in Eggefeld held of the church of Walsingham, for the soul of Sir William, late of Eggefeld.

Richer de Causton gave lands in Eggefeld, and common in his pasture, and heath, of his whole fee in Hemsted and Plumsted, for the monks own sheep, where any of his men had common and beasts.

Stephen de Causton and Beatrix his wife, gave them an acre of land in this town.

William, son of Rosceline, and Lettice his wife, daughter of Peter of Eggefeld, acknowledged in the King's court at Norwich, before Sir G. de Boeland, Fulco de Breant, Ralf Gerner, Richard de Syng, Jordan de Sankevil, Simon de L'Isie, and Johu de Worsted, clerk, the King's justices itinerant in Norfolk, that they had no right to claim freewarren, or common, in the monks of Bynham wood, &c. in Eggefeld: Witnesses, Roger de Remerston, Vicecom: Fulco Baynard, Alexander de Basingborne, steward of Pandulfus, Bishop elect of Norwich, &c. &c.

There was likewise another agreement made, on Friday before the feast of All-Saints, in Egefeld churchyard, between the prior of Bynham, and Sir William, son of Rosceline, of all demands of customs, &c. that Sir William demanded of the prior's men here, before the prior of Cokesford, William Fitz Simon, &c. &c. that the tenants of the prior should do only three days work to Sir William and his heirs, &c. and therefore should have common as they were wont.

William de Albeny and Maud his wife, and their son William, for Roger Bigot's soul, confirmed the gift of Simon, son of Ralf, to these monks, of lands in Edgefeld.

Ralf, son of Richard Maudit, gave the monks 12*d.* rent, issuing out of lands here, and two hens yearly.

There was an agreement between the priors of Bynham and Walsingham, concerning the services of Reginald son of Thomas of Holtkham, and others, and likewise concerning 6 acres of land here, and in Holkham, with several services assigned to one monastery, and to the other.

John (de Grey) Bishop of Norwich, recorded the agreement made between the prior of Bynham, and Richard, parson of Egefeld, with the consent of William of Egefeld the patron, that the prior should have a chapel⁶ to hear divine service in, whenever he should come here.

Simon de Hemsted and Arice his wife, and Hamo their son, granted to the monks, the water between Hempsted and Egefeld, to better the monks mill.

Ralph, son of Alexander, and Egefeld, gave the services of Michael de Aldeby here, to the monks.

Simon of Hemsted, by fine levied the 18th of Henry III. 1234, granted 18 acres of land in this town to the monks.

Alice de Melton, in her widowhood, confirmed to the monks 6*d.* yearly rent, payable by Agnes Maudit.

Ralf Maudit of Egefeld granted to the monks of Bynham, all his lands here, with a messuage, and his right in the lands, formerly John Godchep's, with the dower of Alice de Melton, wife of his brother Roger, and the lands of Agnes his sister; the prior regranted to him and Maud his wife, a messuage for life, with 7 quarters of barley, and 8*s.* yearly, and finding for their son, Richard, convenient livelihood, in meat and drink during life.

The priors of Bynham continued lords of this manor till the 36th Henry VIII. 1545, when this priory, amongst others, being suppressed the manors and estates belonging to it came into that King's possession, and were by him granted away to divers of his subjects.

This manor and estate, with all its appertinances, rights, privileges, &c. &c. and the great wood in Eggefeld, then called Prioure wood, were granted by the letters patent of *Henry the VIII.*⁹ (bearing date the 3d of March, 1545, 36th of Henry VIII.) in as full and ample a manner as before possessed by the prior and convent, to Sir William Butts,⁴ and his heirs for ever, with other manors and estates in other counties, upon his paying into the treasury, the sum of 767*l.* 12s. 6*d.*

GUNT HORP.

THE Conqueror had a lordship here consisting of half a carucate of land, held by Atin, in King Edward's time, with 4 borderers, pannage for 4 swine, one acre of meadow, and one carucate and an half valued then at 20s. at the survey at 40s. and this was added to it, out of the land of Ailmar, Bishop of Elmham. It was one leuca long, and four furlongs broad, and paid 6d. $\frac{1}{2}$. gelt.⁵

Here was also another lordship belonging to the Conqueror, of one carucate of land belonging to the King's manor of Causton, (in South Erpingham, which King Harold held,) to which there belonged eleven borderers; there was one carucate in demean, and one among the tenants, &c. with 2 acres of meadow, and this manor was valued, &c. in Causton.⁶

The first lordship abovementioned was held at first of the King, by the ancient family of Avenel, and after of the honour of Clare, and the last mentioned lordship by the family of De Mey, &c. and each of them had a moiety in the advowson. I shall therefore treat of them jointly, and according to the series of time.

Ralph Avenel paid 10 marks to the King in the first of Henry II. to have soc and sac of his lordship; and in 1201, William, son of Robert le Mey, had 20s. lands, formerly the King's demean, granted by Henry I. and held (as I take it) with Causton, by grand serjeanty, the keeping a hound (brachettus) for the King.

In the 47th of Henry III. Richard de Clare Earl of Clare was the capital lord, and a suit was then commenced, on his withdrawing the lete from the sheriff and the King.

In the 9th of Edward I. a fine was levied between Bartholomew le Mey of this town, Bartholomew de Bodham, and Ralph Avenel, by which it was agreed that Bartholomew Mey and his heirs should have the first presentation to this church; Ralph Avenel and his heirs, the 2d, Mey the 3d, Avenel the 4th, Bartholomew de Bodham the 5th, and Avenel the 6th; but after this, Ralph, son of Bartholomew de Mey, &c. conveyed their right to Ralph Avenel.

Alice, late wife of Ralph Avenel, sued, in the 28th of the said King, John, son of Ralph, for dower claiming a moiety of a messuage, 200 acres of land, 20 of meadow, 15 of wood, 30 acres of pasture, and 40s. rent in this town, Bathely, and Sharnton, with a moiety of the advowson of this church.

Ralph le Mey and John Avenel were lords in the 9th of Edward II. and held in this town and Batheley, one fee of the Earl of Gloucester.

In the following year, John son of Andrew Avenel, as a trustee, settled on John Avenel, and Joan his wife, in tail, 5 messuages, 100 acres of land, 20 of meadow, 40 of pasture, and 40s. rent in this town, and Sharnton, with the advowson of this church.

In the 20th of Edward III. Joan, relict of John Avenel, was patroness: she, with John le Mey and his parceners, were lords.

In the 22d of Richard II. John Avenel and Ralph le Mey held one fee of the Earl of March, and had the lete.

After this, Avenel's interest here came to the Welbys, by the marriage of Jane, daughter and heir of John Avenel, with William de Wilby, of an ancient family who had considerable lordships and estates in Lincolnshire, and the said Joan, relict of William de Wilbeygh, presented to this church in 1396.

In the 3d of Henry VI. I find the Meys to have an interest here, but after I meet with no mention of them, so that I conclude the whole was vested in the Welbys.

In the 18th of Henry VI. William Wilby was lord and patron; and on his death, in the said year, Thomas was found to be his son and heir, and died possessed of it, May 18, in the 5th of Henry VIII. William, his son and heir, being aged 19.

On the death of Thomas Wilby, of Hindringham, Esq. it came to Gregory Davy, Esq. by the marriage of Catharine, daughter of the said Thomas.

Gregory Davy, Esq. died lord in the last year of Philip and Mary, and was succeeded by his son, Richard, who was lord and patron, on whose death, in the 17th of Elizabeth, Christopher Davy was found to be his son and heir, by Ann his wife, daughter of William Cobb, Esq. of Sandringham; Christopher married Elizabeth, daughter of Clement Pagrave, of Norwood Burningham, by whom he had Gregory, his son and heir.

In the 20th of the said Queen it was purchased of the aforesaid Christopher, by Richard Godfrey, Esq. who was lord and patron; and ——— Godfrey, Esq. a master in Chancery, sold it to James le Heup, Esq.

In 1740, Isaac le Heup, Esq. was lord and patron.

He left 2 daughters and coheirs; Elizabeth married to ——— Lloyd, Esq. and ——— married to Sir Edward Williams, Bart. of Langoy castle in Breconshire in Wales.

BINHAM PRIORY MANOR.

Peter Lord Valoins had the grant of a lordship at the Conquest, which a freeman of King Harold possessed, of half a carucate of land 7 borderers and one servus, and 2 carucates, &c. one acre of meadow valued at 10s.; this he had livery of to make up his manor of Berney.⁷

Peter Lord Valoins, grandson of the aforesaid lord, gave to this priory all his lands in this town, and they were confirmed by Robert his brother, with the homages and a marsh.

William de St. Plouch released all the lands which he and his father William, held; and Roger, son of Richard de Gunthorp, gave lands, &c.

The prior had view of frank pledge, assise of bread and beer of his tenants, in the 14th of Edward I. and his temporalities in 1428 were valued at 3*l.* 2*s.* and 3*d.* per ann.

At the Dissolution it was granted by King Henry VIII. in his 33d year, to Thomas Paston, knight, or as some accounts say, Bishop Rugg exchanged it in the 34th of that King, with Dersingham impropriate rectory, &c. and gave to that knight the manor of Paston, &c.

The tenths were 2*l.* 10*s.* 0*d.* Deducted 6*s.* Temporalities of Walsingham priory, 3*s.* 4*d.*

WAS a beruite to the King's manor of Holt, with 30 acres; 5 borderers belonged to it with one carucate, and half a carucate of the tenants, &c. then valued at 5s. and 4d. and at the survey at 33s. and 3d. and was one leuca long and one broad, and paid 7d. gelt.⁸

A family, who took their name from this town, were early enfeoffed of it. In the 29th of Hen. II. Simon de Hempstede and Hamo his son quit claimed to Henry de Marisco and his heirs, the advowson of this church for 6 marks of silver, at Northampton, before Ralph Glauwile, justiciary of the King, Roger, son of Reynfr. William Basset, and William Mald, *Camerar. Regis.*⁹ This Hamon, called also de Empstede, gave lands to Castleacre priory, lying near Holt mill.

In the 24th of Henry III. Richer, son of Hugh de Causton, and Julian his wife, Stephen de Causton, and Beatrice his wife, grant to Simon, prior of Norwich, the advowson of this church and that of Plumstede.

William de Ormesby and Agnes his wife, grant, in the 22d of Edward I. to Henry, prior of Norwich, the advowson of this church for 20l.;¹ and in the said year, settled by fine, on John their son, and Catharine his wife, this lordship, with that of Gestwyke, remainder to Robert and William their sons; but some disputes arising about the right of this advowson, it was conveyed to the prior by another fine, in the 31st of that King, by the aforesaid William and Agnes, after a solemn inquisition, when it was found that the prior and his predecessors were possessed of it before the statute of mortmain.

In the said year Sir Robert de Hengham bought of William de Ormesby, and Agnes his wife, a mill, with the pool in Hemstede, with several villains, rents and services, William and Agnes, and the heirs of Agnes, to have the liberty of first grinding therein, but not to erect any mill here.

William de Ormesby, by his deed, dated at Ouby, on Thursday after the feast of St. Paul, confirmed to Sir Robert the grant of the water-mill, called Waldemill, with the pool in Hemstede and Holt, with all the fishing, in as ample a manner as Agnes his mother and her ancestors ever had, paying 40s. per ann. and Sir John de Ormesby was lord in the 20th and 24th of Edward III. and is said to hold it of the Earl of Albemarle.

In the 3d of Henry IV. the Lady Alice Caley, relict of Sir William Caley, of Oby, had this lordship; and by Agnes, one of their daughters and coheirs, it came to Sir Jh. de Harsike of Southacre, by marriage. Sir Rog. Harsike his son enjoyed it; and by the marriage of Joan, one

PRIORY MANOR.

The prior of Norwich had possessions in the 2d of Henry II. when they granted lands to Henry de Marisco;² and Philip de Candos gave, in 1176, lands to John Bishop of Norwich, which Pope Alexander III. confirmed by his bull. Hugh de Causton, son of Richer, gave his part of a watermill, called Mary's Milne, with the pool and fishery.

H O L T,

IN the Saxon tongue, signifies a wood, from which (it is probable) it derived its name. It was an extensive lordship and royal demeans in the time of the Confessor, who was lord of it, containing 2 carucates of land, 24 villains, and as many borderers, and 2 servi, &c. there were eleven carucates among the tenants, paurage for 60 swine, 6 acres of meadow, 5 mills, a mercate, and a port belonging to it, which was (as I take it) at Cley, a beruite to this lordship, as was Sniterley, Batheley, Hempstede, and other neighbouring places, and with Cley and Sniterley was valued at 20*l. per ann.* and one noctem (entertainment in honey for one day)³ with 100*s.* and customary dues, but paid to the Conqueror, lord of it, 50*l. per ann.* in money; Holt and Cley were together, 2 leucas long, and one broad, and paid 2*s.* and 4*d.* gelt. Eight freemen, belonged to it in King Edward's time, who had 3 carucates of land and an half; and at the survey Walter Giffard (who was Earl of Bucks) was lord of it, by a grant of the Conqueror, as his men say; and there then belonged to it one freeman, with 23 acres, under the protection of Earl Hugh;⁴ and all Holt, with its beruites, paid 66*l.* in money, *per ann.*⁵

Earl Hugh, here mentioned, was Earl of Chester, and had a grant of this great lordship from the Crown, soon after this survey, and was held by the Vaures of the said Earl, and after by the Earl of Albemarle, &c.

The family of De Vallibus, or Vaux, were soon after the Conquest enfeofft of this lordship. Robert de Vaux held it in the 5th of King

Stephen, and gave then 53*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* livery, for lands of his wife's inheritance: in the Vaux it continued till the death of Sir John de Vaux, in the 16th of Edward I. who was a parliamentary baron, &c. and found to hold it of the Earl of Albemarle.⁶ Margaret de Riparijs, Countess of Devon, recovered her dower in 7 knights fees in this town, Cley, &c. held by Baldwin, the late Earl her husband, (see in Wayborn;) and the freeman's tenures that Giffard held were after united to the capital manor.

NERFORD'S MANOR:

Sir John de Vaux left by Sybill his wife, two daughters and coheirs; Petronilla the eldest, married Sir William de Nerford, who in her right had a moiety of this town: in the 3d of Edward II. the said Petronilla, then a widow, had a grant of freewarren, and a weekly mercate, on Tuesday, and a fair on the eve and day of St. Matthew.

Sir John Nerford possessed it in the 2d of Edward III. settled it on himself, and Agnes his wife, daughter of William de Berford, and Sir Thomas, his brother, in the 9th of that King, on Agnes his wife, and on his death it came to his son John.

Sir John de Nerford, in or about the 38th of Edward III. dying, left Margery, his sole daughter and heir, who is said to have vowed a single life; she settled this manor on the Lady Alice de Nevill, in which the said Lady Alice had an interest, probably as widow of Sir John, or Sir Thomas de Nerford; this Lady Alice, married to her second husband, Sir John Nevill of Essex, who presented to this church in 1349, &c. and she in 1375, and 1382.

Soon after her death, Robert Tyrwhit, and Richard Gascoign, presented to this church, in 1422, as lords, and in 1466, Elizabeth Dutchess of Suffolk.

In the reign of Queen Elizabeth, Sir Christopher Heydon was lord and patron: by the Heydons it was sold to James Hobart, Esq. whose son Edmund died possessed of it in 1666: his daughter and heir, Hannah brought it by marriage to Dr. William Briggs, physician, in ordinary to King William III. whose son, Henry Briggs, D. D. was rector of this church, and chaplain to King George II. and died lord and patron in 1748; he married Grace, only daughter of William Briggs, merchant of Leverpole, and left several children.

William Briggs, M. D. was son of Augustine Briggs, Esq. four times member of parliament for the city of Norwich, descended from the Briggs of Salle.

ROSS'S MANOR.

Maud, youngest daughter and coheir of Sir John de Vaux, married William Lord Ros of Hamlake, lord of a moiety in her right of this town: William, his son and heir, died seized of it in the 17th of Edward III.; in this family it continued till Thomas Lord Ros, being attainted in the first year of Edward IV. for his adherence to King Henry VI. John Tiftoft Earl of Worcester had a grant of it, whose sister Philippa the said Thomas Lord Ross had married, and by her had Edmund, a son, and three daughters; Elianor, Isabel, and Margaret: Edmund his son never inherited it, being obliged to live an obscure and private life, but Elianore being married to Sir Robert Maners of Ethale-castle in Northumberland, obtained a grant of it, and his son and heir, George, by the said lady, was Lord Ros; Thomas, his son and heir, was Earl of Rutland: Henry Earl of Rutland, his son, and the Lady Margaret, his wife, sold it in the 1st and 2d of Philip and Mary, to Thomas Lodge, Esq. afterwards Lord Mayor of London; it came then to Sir Christopher Heydon, and so to Hobart, and Briggs, and was united to the other moiety.

PERERS MANOR.

The family of Perers gave name to it.⁷ Roger de Perers held one fee in the 18th of Henry III. Robert de Perers was eschaetor in Norfolk, about the 3d of Edward I. and held one fee here, in Edgfeld Letheringset, &c. of the Vaur.

Sir Roger de Perers lived in the reign of Edward II. and in the 7th of Edward III. a fine was levied between Roger de Perers and Alianore his wife, querents, William de Sechford, &c. deforcients; when this lordship was settled on them, remainder to Gunnora, widow of John de Perers, sister and coheir of Sir Thomas de Ornesby, and John, son of John de Percers, and his heirs in tail, &c.

Of this family was Alice Perers, (that being her true name, and not Peirce, as she is generally called,) the famous mistress of King Edward III. who in his 47th year granted her all the jewels which belonged to Philippa, his late Queen, with all her goods and chattels, which were in the possession of Euphemia, wife of Sir Walter de Haselacton, and delivered to her by the King's order: she had been one of Queen Philippa's maids of honour, and married, it is said Sir Thomas de Nerford, a younger son of Sir Thomas, and brother (as I take it) to Sir John de Nerford; which Sir Thomas died in 1371, and his will was proved on November 28, in that year,⁸ wherein he styles himself of Holt, and desires to be buried there.

Soon after the death of King Edward, being obnoxious to the Duke of Lancaster, and other great lords, she was accused of the statute of maintenance, and was attainted Mo. 1 of Richard II. in parliament, and her goods forfeited: but in the 3d year of the said King, (being then the wife of Sir William de Wyndesore,) he restored to them divers manors and lands.

The Greshams afterwards possessed it, and Sir John Gresham, Knt. and alderman of London, bought it of his elder brother, William Gresham, Esq. in this capital messuage, or manor-house, their father John Gresham, Esq. lived, and here the said Sir John, and his brother Sir Richard (who were lord mayors of London) were born; the deed of sale is dated October 14, in the 39th of Henry VIII. and the purchase was 170*l.* Sir John converted it into a school-house, endowing it with this manor, and a grove, called Prior's Grove, for 50 free-scholars, the master to have a salary of 30*l.* per ann. and the usher 20 nobles; leaving the patronage and government of it to the fishmongers company of London.

In a window of the hall were the arms of Sir John, argent, a chevron, ermines, between three mullets pierced, sable, impaling those of his lady, argent, a demy lion, gules, in a bordure, sable, platée: Mary, daughter and heir of Thomas Ipswall, is said to have been his first lady, and Catharine Sampson, his second, relict of Edward Dormer, Esq. of Fulham in Middlesex.

Over the door, of the school, the arms of the fishmongers company, and those of Sir John, with this inscription, Founded by Sir John Gresham, alderman and citizen of London.

A scholarship in Sidney college, Cambridge, belongs to the school, and a fellowship there to the said company. William Bennet, citizen and fishmonger of London, for 60*l.* paid to the master and fellows, had a grant from them, to himself, the master and wardens, of that company, of a fellowship, to be enjoyed from time to time, by such person of the said college, who is from this school, with the same allowance as the founder gave:—of the Greshams, see in Thorp-Market.

HALES'S MANOR.

In the 20th of Edward III. William de Hales, Thomas de Grimsby, and William de Norton held 2 fees in Holt, Leringset, and Sherington of the Nerfords and Lord Ros, which Agnes, late wife of Peter de Leringset, held; and in the 25th of that King, Sir Stephen de Hales manumitted several villains of this manor; he was a person of great eminency in this county, and taken prisoner by Litster, and the Norfolk rebels, in the reign of Richard II. On his death it came to his brother Thomas, whose daughter and heir, Elizabeth, brought it by marriage, to William Rokewode, Esq. of Warham: his son William, by his will dated in 1474, orders it to descend according to his father's settlement, and leaving two daughters, Margaret and Agnes, Sir Nicholas Appleyard of Brakenash enjoyed it on his marriage with Agnes: Roger, his son and heir, died lord in the 20th of Henry VIII. and John his son had livery of it, who in the 2d and 3d of Philip and Mary, conveyed it by fine to Sir John Gresham, being held of the manor of Ross.

After this it came to Thomas Hunt, Esq. soapboiler of London, who was lord in the 35th of Elizabeth, and Margaret, widow of his son William Hunt, and daughter of George Briggs of Wiveton, held it.

Thomas Tomlinson, citizen and skinner of London, sold it (as is said) with Holt mercate, to James Hobart, Esq. and so was united to the lordship of Holt, Nerford, &c.

Hamon, son of Simon de Hempstede lived in the reign of King Richard I. and granted a quitrent of toll in his market of Holt, to the canons of Waltham, and their tenants, for the soul of Simon his father, Avice his mother, &c.⁹ Thomas Fitz Synon gave two hawks to hold his wood here, and in Cley, in peace, in the 7th of King John, and Simon Fitz Simon, in the 53d of Henry III. had a grant of confirmation of the mercate, and of free warren here.

In the 3d of Edward I. Hugh de Caly was found to hold the mercate in capite, and paying 20s. per ann. and John de Ormesby sued several for not paying the toll due at his mercate here, on Saturday; but in the 2d of Henry V. it is said to have descended from Sir William Caly, to his two daughters and coheirs; Agnes, married to Sir John Harsyk of Southacre, and Alice, to John Clipesby, Esq.; and Sir Roger held it with 2 acres of land, called the Market-place, and had a right of stallage, picage, toll, &c. Richard Dorward, Esq. and Joan his wife, &c. daughter and coheir of Sir Roger Harsick, owned it, in the 33d of Henry VI. and by his daughter and heir, Margaret, it came to Sir Ju. Wingfield, of Dunham Magna, and his descendants. Thomas Wingfield, Esq. conveyed it in the 24th of Henry VIII. to the Earl of Rutland, and being united to his manor of Ross, came, as there mentioned, to Dr. Briggs.

The tenths were 5l. 4s.—Deducted 6s. 8d.

The temporalities of Waborne priory were 2s. 5d.; of Fakenhamdam 4s.; of Castleacre priory 3s. 4d.; and in 1244, Sir Hamon de Hempsted, paid to that priory 10s. rent per ann. out of a mill in this town.¹ Simon son of Peter de Cley confirmed his father's gift, and his own, of a mill, with the third sheaf of his tithe.

On May day, 1708, great part of the town was destroyed by a dreadful fire, so fierce that the butchers could not save (as it is said) the meat on their stalls, being Saturday.

The CHURCH of Holt is a rectory dedicated to St. Andrew; the old valor was 30 marks, Peter-pence 10d. ob. and the present valor 11l. 17s. 3d.

Before the fire it had a nave, north and south isle, a square tower, with a spire so high as to be a sea-mark; the chancel, after this, was fitted up for the reception of the parishioners. In the south isle of the church was a monument,

In memory of Mr. Thomas Tallis, school-master of the free-school.

On the south wall of the chancel is a mural monument,

DEACONS.

In 1318, Alan March was collated to it, by the Bishop of Norwich.

HUNWORTH

WAS a beruite to the King's manor of Holt; to it belonged 3 socmen with 16 acres, an acre of meadow, one carucate and a mill, valued in King Edward's reign at 40*d.* at the survey at 11*s.* and was one leuca and 2 furlongs long, and half a leuca broad, and paid 12*d.* gelt, whoever was lord of it.²

It is worthy of our observation here, to consider what advantages the Normans, on the conquest, made of their lands, to what an excessive price and value they raised them, and in so short a space of time; as in the instance here before us, that which produced but 40*d. per ann.* was raised to 11*s.* and that in the space of 20 years, and probably much less, all which was done to oppress the tenants of every degree, most of which were the English, and the example set (as here) by the Conqueror himself.

Worth, betokens its site to be where 2 rivers meet and unite; and Hun, probably, was a name of one of them, a name frequently met with in this county, &c.

Ralph de Havile had lands here in grand serjeanty, for keeping the King's hawks in the reign of Richard I.

After this, it was possessed by the family of de Povere, and in the 14th of King John, a fine was levied between Roger le Povere and Beatrix his wife, and Isabella de Stodey, of 30 acres of land in Ditton, with a mill in Huneworth, called Sherehung,³ held by the service of 5*s. per ann.* and a pound of pepper, of the priory of Norwich, by which

tnc. val. xld. mo. xi sol. et ht. i leu. et ³ The clear water of the river Hun.

Roger and his wife had the mill, and Isabel and her son, Geffrey, the land.

Ditton was a place or hamlet near to Huneworth, as it seems. Gerard, prior of Norwich, granted to Hamon, clerk of Stodey, land at Dittune, which was late Ralph Passelew's, to be held by 5s. per ann.

This land was granted to the church by Ralph Passelew, and confirmed by Pope Alexander III. in 1176.

Robert le Povere had a grant of free warren in the 51st of Henry III. and in the 16th of Edward I. Roger le Povere was found to hold here and in Holt, a knight's fee of Sir John de Vaux. Sir John le Povere, in 25th of that king, conveyed to Thomas de Birston certain messuages, mills, and lands here, and in Stody; and in the following year, by his deed, dated at Stodey, on Sunday next after the feast of St. Luke, to Peter de Birston, parson of Bodham, one acre of land, with the advowson of this church. These Povers seem to be the same family with the Perers.

In the 9th of Edward II. Thomas de Birston, and Edmund de Stodey, were returned to be lords; and Thomas de Birston presented to the church as lord, in 1318, as did John de Stodey, in 1349, and 1362, but in the year 1378, John de Ludham presented; in 1385, John de Blakeney; and in 1395, Simon Baret, as lords.

For this knowledge we are obliged to the institution books at Norwich, having no other record to assist us, books of inestimable value, great antiquity, well kept and preserved, consisting of above 40 volumes in folio.

In 1414, the Lady Catharine Braunch presented; and the said Lady, relict of Sir ——— Braunch, held it in the 3d of Henry IV. In this family the lordship continued some years; Robert Braunch, Esq. presented in 1474, and was living at Stodey, and witness to the will of Henry Daniel of Appleton, in October, 1498; and John Braunch, Esq. presented by his assigns to the church of Stodey, in 1554.

Soon after it was in the Bozuns, and John Bozun, Esq. presented to the church of Stodey, of which town he was lord, and of this, in 1551.

Robert Bozune, Esq. his son, inherited it, and conveyed to Sir Nicholas Bacon, lord keeper, who presented to this church in 1585.

It remained in this family till Sir Edmund Bacon, Bart. of Garboldesham, that last heir male of the family, sold it to Edmund Britiff, Esq. with Stodey.—Robert Britiff, Esq. was lord and patron in 1712, and it came to the Earl of Buckingham, who married the daughter and heir of Britiff.

Alan Earl of Richmond had a lordship at the survey, which was held in King Edward's time by Alestan: there belonged to it 30 acres of land, 8 villains, pannage for 111 swine, half an acre of meadow, 2 mills, and 2 carucates; the whole was valued under Saxthorp, and Ribald held it of Alan.*

In the 3d of Henry IV. the heirs of Peter Jecks were found to hold the fourth part of a fee of the Lord Mowbray.

Thomas Fincham, by his will, dated March 1, 1550, died lord of this manor; soon after it came to Sir Nicholas Bacon, who is said to be lord of the manor of Harthill's, sometime Fincham's, and so was united to the other lordship, as will appear.

The manor of Letheringset extended into this town. Walter Giffard Earl of Bucks had 60 acres belonging to his lordship of Letheringset, to which there belonged in the time of King Edward, when Oslak was lord, 2 carucates, at the survey but one, with an acre of meadow, a mill, and the moiety of another, valued at 10s.⁵

The tenths of this town, with that of Stodey, were 4*l.* 12*s.* Deducted 1*l.* 0*s.* 0*d.*

K E L L I N G.

HUGH Earl of Chester had a grant of a lordship in this village, out of which Osgot, who was lord in King Edward's time, had been ejected; there then belonged to it 3 carucates, 2 villains, 13 borderers, 4 servi, 3 carucates in demean, 4 carucates of the tenants, and an acre of meadow, &c. valued then at 40*s.* at the survey at 60*s.* was one leuca and an half long, and one broad, and paid 18*d.* gelt;⁷ and Ralph held it under the Earl Hugh de Albini, who was a Norman lord, son of the Conqueror's sister, and had also of his gift, the manors of Shropham in Shropham hundred; Waborn in this hundred; Hedenham in Loth- ingland hundred; with Sithing and Wodeton; Fundenhale, Eiland, and Habeton in Depwade hundred; Kerby and Ravingham, in Clavering hundred.

Ralph also held a lordship here of Earl Hugh, who had invaded 12 freemen who were under the protection of King Harold, and lived in Waborn, Salthouse, Killing, &c. holding 3 carucates of land and 15 acres, with one villain, 25 borderers, and 7 carucates, &c. 4 acres of meadow, 7 mills, valued then at 7*l.* at the survey at 11*l.* per ann. and out of these arose two lordships.⁸

The lordship of this town extended into Salthouse, and was held by a family who took their name from it, and had the patronage of the church.

Sir Hubert de Kelling was witness to a deed, sans date, and lord also of Salthouse, where an account may be seen of that family and its descendants, and was that which Osgot was deprived of.

ILKETESHALE'S MANOR

Was that which Harold's freemen abovementioned held, and were ejected, and the Ilketeshalls possessed it after Ralph. Sir Gilbert de Ilketeshale was lord of this manor, with that of Hedenham in Northfolk, and of Ilketeshale in Suffolk, from whence they assumed their name; and Sir Thomas was his son and heir, as appears from the register of Holm abbey, and a fine levied in the 7th of Henry III. Gilbert was son and heir of Sir Thomas, and had a charter for freewarren in Kelling, Salthouse and Hedingham, and Ilketeshale, in the 32d of that King.

Sir James de Ilketeshale was son of Gilbert, and in the 52d of the aforesaid King, mortgaged for 27 marks and an half of silver, to the Lady Sarra, prioress of the church of the Holy Cross of Bungey, lands, from the feast of the nativity of the Blessed Virgin, to the purification following, and if the money was not then paid, the nuns to have the lands for ever: witnesses, Sir Henry de Ryveshale, Sir William de Brom, &c.

In the following year, he conveyed an acre of land and the advowson of the church of St. John Baptist, of Ilketeshale, by fine, to the said priory: he married Maud, daughter of Richard de la Rokele, and was father of James de Ilketeshale, who married Aliva, daughter of Sir Thomas Weland, the judge, and released to him, his wife, and his heirs, in the 13th of Edward I. all his right in this lordship, and died about the 18th of the said reign.

Sir James, had, by Aliva his wife, a son, James, who was also a knight, and took to wife Ida, daughter and coheir of Sir Robert de Stafford, Knt. by Gundreda his wife; and Sir Robert was son of Sir William, by Ermetrude his wife, daughter and coheir of Robert, son of Walkeline, lord of Rodbourn, Moggynton, and Egggynton, in Derbyshire.

In the 6th of Edward II. a deed was executed between Sir James de Ilketeshale on one part, and James his son, and Ida his wife, whereby James and Ida grant the manor of Kelling to Sir James, for life, and Sir James released to them 9*l.* per ann. out of his 15*l.* per ann. annuity, which they were to pay him and Aliva his wife, for the manor of Hedenham; dated at Ilketeshale, on Monday next after the feast of St. Michael. Soon after it is probable, Sir James the father died.

Sir James de Ilketeshale was lord in the 9th of Edward II. as appears from the famous record called Nomina Villarum, and was burnt in the fire of London, 1666: he and Ida his wife were living in the 15th of Edward III. Ida his wife survived him, but they both died in the 15th of Edward III. and left 2 sons, Robert and Philip.

Robert, in the said year, confirmed this manor in trust to Robert Gyn, parson of Hedenham, and sealed with or, a fess between two chevrons, gules, and a canton, ermine.

In the 28th of that King, Sir Philip de Ilketeshale remitted to Sir Robert his brother and Claricia his wife, and their heirs, all his right in this manor, by deed dated at Kelling, on Monday next after the feast of Pentecost.

Sir Robert, then living at Hedenham, confirmed this lordship and that of Hedenham, to Sir William de Kerdeston, Sir Thomas Savage, &c. in trust, by deed dated on Tuesday, in Whitsunday, in the said year.

Sir Robert died before the year 1381, when Claricia, his late wife, was the wife of Sir Robert de Morley, and she was living in the 15th of Richard II. and had dower in this lordship; by the said Claricia Sir Robert de Ilketeshale had 2 sons, and a daughter, Joan, married to William de Sharborne, Esq. to this William and Joan his wife, Sir Robert de Morley and his Lady Claricia, demised, as a portion for Joan, 100*l.* for 10 years, in the 5th of Richard II.

William de Ilketeshale, younger son of Sir Robert, was living in the 19th of Richard II. and released then all his right in the manors of Kelling and Hedenham, to William de la Marche, only surviving feoffee of his father, &c.; and in the said year, the said William de Marche confirmed them to Sir Thomas de Ilketeshale, son and heir of Sir Robert. This Sir Thomas married Isabel, daughter of — —, afterwards remarried to William Deyvile, Esq.

In the 4th of Henry IV. December 14, Sir Thomas settled this lordship, with all its rents, services, &c. and wreck at sea, on his feoffees, Thomas Astley, and John Byrston, Esq. &c. by his will, dated at Horseley, in the diocese of Winchester, in May, 1416, wherein he requires his body to be buried in the church of Horsley All-Saints, gives to Isabel his wife, this manor for life, unless his daughter should marry with the consent of her kinsfolks, then to her on her marriage; to Philip his son, an annuity of 20*s.* per ann. 40*s.* to the poor tenants of Hedenham, 20*l.* to build a new roof for that church; to Isabel his wife, all his goods, and wills a chaplain to pray for him in the church aforesaid for nine years; his will was proved by his wife April 17, in 1417.

It is probable that Philip his son, and also his daughter, died s. p.; in the 9th of Henry VI. William Deyvyll and the lady Isabel Ilketeshale his wife held it, and in the 18th of that King; and in the 38th of that King, the said lady and Thomas Deyvill her son were bound to Laur. Fitz Piers of Bernham-Brome, Gent. and he to them in bonds of 100*l.* to stand to the arbitration of John Heydon, &c. about the right of the manors of Kelling and Hedenham, by deed dated May 10. About this time there were disputes between his lady and the heirs of Sir Tho. her late husband. It appears that he had four sisters; Joan, married to William de Sharnbourn, Esq. Idonea, to —————, whose daughter and heir Margery, was wife of Laur. Fitz Piers abovementioned; Margaret married to Thomas Seive, of Worsted, and the fourth sister ———— to Gilbert de Debenham.

In the 31st of the said King, John Ovy and Cecilia his wife, Will. Smith and Joan his wife, Thomas Jeffreys and Margaret his wife, the three daughters and coheirs of Margaret Seive, enfeoff John Earl of Oxford, and Sir Miles Stapleton, of their right in the fourth part of this manor; and in the 7th of Edward IV. Cecilia Ovy, Margaret Jeffreys, Joan Smith, &c. conveyed their rights to Hugh Fenn, and Henry Heydon, and in the 15th of that King, in October Hugh Fenne and John Dynu release all their right to John Heydon, and Henry Heydon, Esq. and in the 26th of Henry VIII. Isabel, widow of Sir Henry Sherbourn, and Thomas her son, released all their right to Sir John Heydon, so the whole became vested in the Heydon family, and so remained some time, Sir Christopher Heydon presenting to this church in 1603.

The Rev. Mr. Girdleston came to this estate on the decease of Mrs. Lang.—He is since dead, and his son, a minor, is the present lord and patron.

The tenths were 2*l.* 8*s.*—Deducted 12*s.*

There is an ancient proverb—As old as Kelling Common.

Here was also a lordship belonging to Roger, son of Renard, and held of him by Ralph, son of Hagan, out of which Wester, a freeman of Guert, (brother of King Harold) was ejected, consisting of 2 carucates of land, 6 villans and 20 borderers, 2 carucates in demean, 2 among the tenants, and an acre of meadow, &c. valued at 20s. but at the survey at 40s.⁹

The family of Braunche had an interest herein, of which see in North Barsham. Sir Peter Braunche, son of Richard Braunche, of Gresham, conveyed to the prior of Binham, for 25 marks, in the 24th of Henry III. all his estate in Kelling and Salthouse,¹ (except a parcel of land given by him to Salthouse church) with 4s. aid per ann. which his men were used to pay him, yielding to him only the service due to the King, which was when the scutage was 2s. to pay 4s. and so when more, paying more, and when less, less; witnesses, Sir Robert de Curshun, Sir Roger de Perers, Sir Jeff. de Merston.

Sir Nicholas Braunche confirmed this grant by his deed dated at Frome in Somersetshire, in the 14th of Edward II. and sealed with a de-lis, and a lable of 5 points.

William, son of Sir Thomas de Waborne, gave them lands in Kelling and Salthouse, with Grenberew windmill, for the soul of Alice his wife, and Albreda his mother, in the reign of Henry III.; and there was an agreement in the 21st of that King, before Robert de Lexington, William de Ebor. Adam Fitz William, and William de Culeworth, between the prior of Merton in Surrey, and William, son of Thomas de Wabrun of the services due to the prior, from William, for lands here given to Binham priory, after King Henry III. confirmed to the priory of Merton, all their liberties, which lands enjoyed the said privileges, as held of the prior of Merton, and were conveyed to the prior of Binham, by agreement made between Thomas, son of William de Wabrun, and lady Albreda his mother, and the prior.

In the 31st of the said King, Robert, son of Sir Hubert of Kelling, gives to Binham prior half a mark rent per ann. out of Grenbergh mill, and 16 acres of land in Kelling and Salthouse. Peter Stoun, of Kelling, and Salthouse, gave rent and lands, as did Roger de Langham. This Thomas Waburn conveyed by fine, in the the 35th of Henry III. to Richard, prior of Binham, the 4th part of a fee in Kelling, and Salthouse, the prior engaging to find Thomas, for life, several pittances of meat, drink, oats, &c.

LANGHAM.

WILLIAM DE BEAUFOE Bishop of Thetford was lord in his own right, and held it as a lay fee at the survey, on the deprivation, or death of Guert, brother of King Harold, who was slain with that King at the battle of Hastings, who had 4 carucates of land, 31 villains, 4 borderers, and 5 servi; there were 4 carucates in demean, and 8 carucates, with 8 acres of meadow among the tenants, a mill &c, and 17 socmen held 80 acres of land, and 4 carucates: here were two churches, with 16 acres, valued at 16*d.* valued formerly at 8*l.* at the survey at 20*l.* was one leuca long, and one broad, and paid 2*s.* gelt; 60 acres were taken from this manor, and possessed then by Peter de Valoins.²

It takes its name from its length, a Long-Ham; and after we find this lordship divided into two towns and manors.

LANGHAM MAGNA.

POPE ALEXANDER the Third, in 1176, confirmed to John Bishop of Norwich the rectory of this church. Herbert the Bishop of Norwich had before this granted a portion of tithe out of it to the prior of Norwich, which was valued at 3*l.* 10*s.* per ann. and John Bishop aforesaid, gave to Ralph Hindoveston, chaplain, (or vicar,) two parts of the tithes of his demean, with all the small tithe of his hall or palace, saving the monks portion.

In the 6th of Henry III. Pandulf, Bishop elect, gave a fine to have a mercate here weekly, (till the King came of age,) and Walter, the Bishop in the 35th of that King, had a charter of free warren in his demean. The Bishop of Norwich, in the 15th of Edward I. claimed the assise, view of frank pledge, a gallows, and a weekly mercate on Thursday; and it seems he had a castle here.

It remained in the see till the exchange made between King Henry VIII. in his 27th year, and Bishop Rugg, of lands and manors,

LEATHERINGSET,

Called in Domesday Book Leringseta, as seated in some meadow lands, on a river probably called the Ler, was the lordship of Walter Giffard Earl of Bucks, granted to him by the Conqueror, on the ejection of Oslac, a freeman, lord of it in King Edward's time, who had one carucate of land, 7 borderers, one carucate and an half in demean, with a carucate and 2 acres of meadow among his tenants, or men, a mill, &c. 80 sheep, 2 skeps of bees, and a socman with one acre valued then at 20s. and 25s. at the survey, was 8 furlongs long, and 5 broad, and paid 1*£d.* whoever held it.³

Under the Earl it was held about the time of the survey by Grimbald, who built a church here, and gave it to his third son, Edmund. This lord was founder of the family of De Leringset, alias De Bacon. Ranulph was his eldest son, who, as the register of Binham priory sets forth, was dangerously wounded at the fairs in this town, and gave to Ralph his brother a moiety of his inheritance. Gilbert de Laringseta was son of Ranulph, and had Jordan de Laringseta, who married Isabel, by whom he had Adam, wrote sometimes Adam Fitz-Jordan, and father of Peter, who granted to the priory of Binham lands abutting on those of Roger le Veyle with a moiety of the advowson of the church, about the 20th of Henry III. and by another deed, the other moiety.

In an action brought by the prior against Hugoline, widow of Peter, she released her right therein. In a writ of enquiry to the Bishop of Norwich, to put the prior in possession of the moiety which he had recovered, dated 1274, the jury say that the prior had had a right.

This Peter, styled de Leatheringset, held the eighth part of a fee in the 52d of Henry III. of the Earl of Clare, into which family Earl Giffard's estate came by marriage, and was found to have no right of receiving knighthood, having only 100s. rent per ann. To this Peter and Agnes his wife, Thomas de Ormesby, parson of Stodey, conveyed lands here, in Holt, Sharnton, &c.

Soon after this Peter seems to die s. p. and the elder branch of that family being extinct, it is proper to observe that Ralph, second son of Grimbald, who had also an interest here, had a son, Roger, father of Robert, who assumed the name of Bacon, and is sometimes called Robert Fitz Roger, a person of great power, and cousin of Jeff. Ridel Bishop of Ely; he was father of Reginald Bacon, who confirmed to Simon Fitz Simon the homage of Richard. At church, the of Laringsete, his sons and heirs, 12 acres of land and 3s. rent, in the 27th of Henry III. and held the eighth part of a fee of the Earl of Clare, and presented to a moiety of this church. The pedigree of the Bacons says he was father of Richard Bacon, who by Alice, daughter of Conan, son of Elias de Moulton had 5 sons; 1st Sir Robert Bacon, 2d Roger, called Doctor Mirabilis, 3d Sir Stephen, 4th Bartholomew, a justice in Eyre, and the 5th Sir Henry Bacon of Letheringsset, justice itinerant; to some of their descendants, Peter de Letheringssete's part, most likely came. In the 21st of Edward I. John de Cave recovered a mediety against Henry Bacon, and the 8th of Edward II. the heirs of Thomas Bacon were found to hold this lordship.

In the 22d of Richard II. Thomas Jordan possessed it, and in the 3d of Henry VI. Thomas Jordan was found to die seized of it; one of the same name was lord in the 38th of that King.

In 1458, John Heydon, Gent. was lord, and presented to both the moieties: from the Heydons it came to Sir Henry Sidney, and after to John Jermy, Esq. who presented in 1626, and Robert Jermy, Esq. in 1674.

Hammond Ward, Gent. lord, conveyed it to Thomas Girdlestone.

The King's manor of Holt extended here. King John, in his second year, confirmed to Roger le Feile of Fisbley, lands here to be held by the service of keeping the king's hawks; and Roger, son of Roger le Feyle grants to John his son, lands in this town, and West Bastwick, in the 4th of Edward I. Roger de Perers, had lands about that time of the Faux, and Robert le Pever of Stodey had confirmation of a charter for free warren. In the reign of Richard II. William Woodhose died seized of a manor called Harde-Greys, alias La Feyles, held in capite by knight's service, and Thomasine, Olive, and Elizabeth were his daughters and heirs.

Le Feile's interest came to Philip Curson of Letheringsset, (son of Walter) alderman of London, by Agnes his second wife, daughter and heir of John le Feile: this Philip, by testament dated the 24th of June, 1502, bequeaths his body to be buried in this church: his son John left by Frances his wife, daughter of John Wingfeld of Dunham Magna, Norfolk, a son John, who married Dorothy, daughter of Henry Walpote, Esq. of Hurpley, and died in 1558.

Thomas Fairfax had a precipe to render to Thomas Cloudsley, Gent. and John Fairfax, the manor of La Feyles, in the 12th of James I. See in Wood Bastwick, in South Watsham hundred.

The Bishop of Norwich's lordship of Saxlingham also extended here. Thomas de Saxlingham had a messuage, 3 acres of land, 5 of meadow, 3 and an half of pasture, with a water-mill and the rent of 5s. in the 13th of Richard II. and Margaret, daughter of his brother Henry, and wife of Thomas Plumbe, was then found to be his heir. See in Saxlingham.

Sir Henry Sidney afterwards held it, and conveyed it to John Jermy

Esq. and in 1715, Nathiel Burrell was lord and patron, as was John Burrell in 1739.

The CHURCH is a rectory dedicated to St. Andrew, and consists, of a nave and 2 isles, a round tower, or steeple, with 3 bells.

The present valor is 12*l*.

At the east window of the chancel is a mural monument with this epitaph,

In this chancel resteth the body of Hammond Ward, of Letheringset, Esq; who married Mary, daughter of Sir James Calthorpe, of Cockthorpe, Kt. and by her had issue twelve sons and four daughters, he departed this life the 20th of March, 1650; with the arms of Ward, azure, in a double tressure, flory, or, a buck trippant of the 2d, impaling Calthorpe.

Another mural monument thus inscribed,

M. S. of Charles Worsley, late rector of Salthouse, descended from an ancient family of the Worsleys of Plat in Lancashire, and son of Edw. late rector of this church, and Mary Playford of North Repps, his mother, which said Charles, with Beatrice Claxton of Booton, his wife, lye interred under these marbles, in hopes of a blessed resurrection, obt. 24, Dec. 1682, A^o. et. 29; and these arms, gules, on a chief, argent, a mural crown, or—Worsley—impaling, gules, on a fess between three hedgehogs, argent, an escocheon, Barry of ten, of the 2d, and azure, a canton ermin—Claxton.

On a grave-stone,

Kempe, militis, qui quidem Ric. ob. 28, Jan. A^o. 1650, ætat. suæ 74.—Orate p. a'ia, Philippi Curson, Gent.

In the church on a stone,

Memoriæ Gulielmi Donne, Gen. qui defunctus vitæ viii^o die mensis Novem. A^o. 1684, æt. suæ 39, (caucijs hic positus) beatam in Christo resurrectionem præstolatur; and these arms, azure, a wolf sahent argent, impaling ----- on a chevron ingrailed, two lioncels rampant, between as many crescents.

In this church were two medietyes, each valued at 15 marks: one was called Adam's mediety, the other Thomas de Chyvaler's; Peterpence Hd. and Fakenham dam priory had a portion of tithe valued at 2*s*.

Grimbald (as I have observed) was founder of the church, and presented his third son, Edmund, to it, who was instituted rector.*

On his death, Hamon, younger son of Gilbert, was admitted, presented by Jordan his brother: Hamon is also said to be rector of the whole church, and to have ceded in his old age a moiety of it to Jeffrey Ridel, archdeacon of Ely.

I cannot find this Jeffrey was archdeacon of Ely, but of Canterbury; and after Bishop of Elly, in 1174.

* Lib. institut. Norw.

On Hamond's death, Adam Fitz Jordan presented Thomas his brother to a moiety. On the death of Thomas, Robert de Beverley was presented to a moiety by the prior of Binham.

MELTON CONSTABLE.

THIS lordship was granted by the Conqueror to William de Beaufo Bishop of Thetford, to be held of him as a lay fee, and in his own right, (with many other,) being his lord chancellor, &c. out of which 4 freemen of King Herold were expelled, and Roger de Lyons held it of the bishop, with Anschetel the provost, with 3 carucates of land; 2 villains and 32 borderers belonged to it, with 7 carucates and an half; there was paunage in the wood for 60 swine, and 6 acres of meadow, 2 beasts for burden, and 7 cows, &c. and a church endowed with 6 acres valued at 5*l.* the whole valued formerly at 30s. at the survey at 40s. per ann. and was one leuca long and half a leuca broad, and paid 10*l.* gelt.⁵

From this Anschetel, the provost, descended the family of De Mealton, who according to the Norman custom assumed that name from their lordship, and sometimes wrote themselves De Constable, from the office and place that they held under the Bishops of Norwich, by whom they had been enfeoffed of it.

The office of constable related as well to affairs of peace, as to military affairs. The Conqueror seems first to have appointed this office: his grand constable, or marshal, was styled Princeps Militie Domus Regis, and was hereditary, of whose dignity and authority our statutes and histories afford many proofs, and many lordships were held under the King by virtue of it; and the same was in this family, the office appearing to be hereditary, and by virtue of it, held the lordships of Burgh, Langham, Bruningham, Briston, Sniterle, West Tofts, East Tudenham, Melton, &c.

In the reign of King Henry II. 12, Peter le Constable de

Mealton held 3 knight fees and an half of the old feofment of William Bishop of Norwich, and about 1150, Peter le Constable and Geffrey his son were witnesses to a confirmation of lands in Dilham, &c. given by Robert, son of Palph.⁶

Peter Constable de Mealton, was sheriff of Norfolk and Suffolk, in the 31, 4th, and 5th of King John.

Geffrey, son of Peter, son of Geffrey le Constable, by his deed sans date confirmed to Hugo de-----, his serjeant (servicium) the lands late Robert Marzua's.

Also Peter de Mealton, Constabularius, son of Geffrey, by deed sans date, granted to Clement de Longham, his serjeant, 24 acres in Sniterly; witnesses, William de Meanton, Bart. de Marham, William de Stodey, &c. and sealed with a man on horseback in armour.

In the 5th of Henry III. Mariel, widow of William de Constable of Mealton, feigned herself to be enfeiant, and a writ was awarded to the sheriff, to convene her before him, and the keeper of the pleas of the Crown to have her examined, which was done accordingly, and she was found not to be with child; in the following year she appears to be the wife of John de Somera, and released with him all her right in the thirds of this town. Gargh, Bramingham, Langhan, Sniterly, and East Tudnham, and Peter granted to them for the life of Mariel an annuity of 16*l.* per ann. payable in Windham priory, half yearly, without any charge, by a fine then levied. Peter aforesaid probably was brother of William,

Robert de Scales, and Reginald de Mealton gave 60 marks to the said King, in his 21st year, to have the custody of the marriage of the heir of Peter Constable of Mealton, according to the fine which they paid to Thomas, late Bishop of Norwich.

In the 41st of that King, Jeffrey de Burnavill, and Maud his wife, were impleaded, to know what right they had in the inheritance of Peter de Meanton, who answer that they claimed nothing but by right of dower, Maud being widow of Geffrey, son and heir of Peter, and Isabel his wife.

On the death of this Geffrey, his 3 sisters were found to be his co-heirs, Isabel, Alice, and Eliith.

ASTLEY'S MANOR.

Sir Thomas Estele, Lord Estele, had a 3d part of this town, and of the inheritance of Jeffrey aforesaid, by the marriage of Editb, his 3d sister and coheir, descended from Philip de Estley, lord of Astley, in the 12th of Henry II. (which gave name to the family) and other lordships in Warwickshire, and which his grandfather had been enfeoffed of in the reign of King Henry I. as may be seen in *Dugdale's Baro-nage*⁷ and his History of Warwickshire, in his account of the family at large; my business being to observe such things as principally belong to the family, and which in some measure have not been observed or mentioned by any authors in print.

This Thomas appears to be a knight in the 26th of Henry III. and one of the justices for the goal-delivery at Warwick, and took part with the barons in their rebellion in the 47th of that King, and was slain at the battle of Evesham in the 49th of that King.

He married two wives, Joan, the daughter of Ernald de Bois, a person of great eminency in Leicestershire, (according to Dugdale,) but, as Burton says, Heleen, daughter and coheir of Gerard de Camerde, lord of Creke in Northamptonshire; ⁸ and by the said Joan, (as I take it) had Andrew Lord Astley, from whom descended the eldest branch of this family in Warwickshire.

By Edith, his 2d wife, he had Thomas de Estlee, Stephen, and Ralph. To Thomas his son he gave, in the 47th of Henry III. his manor of Hill Morton, with the advowson of the church in tail: witnesses, Sir Robert Moton, Sir Robert de Verdun, and Walter de Holewell, and sealed with a seal of a triangular form; the impress a cinquefoil, which arms they bore in allusion to those of Robert Earl of Leicester, &c. of whom they held lordships, only varying the colours according to the custom of that age; Robert bearing in a field, gules, a cinquefoil, ermine, and they bearing the same charge at this time, in a field, azure.

Edith, widow of Sir Thomas, married Robert de Holewell, and afterwards Thomas Peche, who in the 9th of Edward I. seems to have held a court leet here and in other towns in her right.

Thomas de Astley, eldest son of Sir Thomas, died without issue in the 13th of Edward I. his mother Edith then living, who in the following year claimed view of frank pledge, assise, &c. in this town; and Stephen de Astley, his brother, had a grant of free warren in this town, and East Tudenham, in the 14th of that King. In the said year, Thomas, son of John de Briston, released to him all his right in the inheritance of Peter le Constable, and in the church of Birston, as one of the heirs of Peter, by a fine levied.

By this, it appears to me, that there were 4 sisters and coheirs, and one of them was married to John de Briston, father of this Thomas.

In the 18th of the said King Edward I. Edith de Astley, granted to Stephen her son, all her inheritance in this town, Burgh, Bruningham, Lungham, Sniterle, East Tudenham, Wiveton, Glanford, Saxlingham, Shurton, Hindringham, &c. which descended to her on the death of Geffrey, son of Peter le Constable, with the advowson of this town, Burgh St. Mary, Bruningham, and Rackey Parva, to which deed were witnesses, Luke de Ely, archdeacon of Coventry, William de Castré, Thomas de Wolvey, Roger de Cokil, Simon de Nowers, Edmund de Hengrave, Richard de la Rokete, Knights, dated at Weddyngton in Warwickshire. One of the lordships that Dugdale observes to be assigned by the King, out of commiseration for her maintenance, on the death of her husband Sir Thomas.

This Stephen was living in the 29th of Edward I. when an agreement was made between him and Benedict, prior of St. Olaves Herringflete, or Herringhy, when he remitted to the prior the 3d part of 8 marks, annual rent in East Tudenham, and Tudenham Faldgate, for the souls of his ancestors.

Stephen was living in 1317, and presented then to this church, but died soon after, surviving, as I take it, both his brothers, Sir Ralph, the younger dying in or about the 25th of Edward I.

⁸ Burton's Hist. of Leicestershire, p. 58.

In the 32d of Edward I. Nicholas, son of Andrew de Astley, was impleaded by Sir George de Charnels, to keep the agreement made between the said Sir George and Sir Andrew, father of Nicholas, for the custody of the lands of Thomas, son and heir of Sir Ralph de Asteley and which Sir Andrew, had granted to Sir George, viz. the manor of Hill-Morton in Warwickshire, and the 3d part of it, which Roesia, widow of Sir Ralph, held in dower, when she should happen to die.

It is to be observed, that this lordship came to Sir Ralph on the death of his brother Thomas, and so descended to Thomas, son of Sir Ralph, who was also lord of Melton, &c. on the death of his uncle Stephen.

In 1324, this Thomas presented to the church of Rackheath Parva, and in the following year to that of Melton.

In the 8th of Edward II. John de Charnels, clerk, was a trustee for Thomas, son of Sir Ralph de Asteley, Knt. and Margaret his wife: she was daughter of Sir George de Charnels, lord of Elmesthorp, in Leicestershire, who bore azure, a cross ingrailed, or.

In the 17th of that King there was an indenture between this Thomas de Astley, cousin and heir of Stephen de Astley on one part, and Sir John de Gurney, Sir Nicholas de Herdwyk, and Joan de Astley, on the other part, for founding certain chaplains, but were not mentioned: witnesses, Sir Robert de Nowers, Sir John de Cockfeld, William de Fileby, &c. Quere, if this Joan was not relict of Stephen?

In the 9th of Edward III. he had a quietus from the King, dated April 20, from all military services, and bearing of arms; probably on account of his age; but was living in the 15th of the said King, 1341, and presented to this church, in which year he died, Margaret his widow surviving.

Sir Ralph de Asteley was his son and heir, and presented to the church of Melton in 1342.

In the 21st of Edward III. William de Cantele obliged himself to pay 12*d.* per ann. for lands in East Tudenham, to Sir Ralph; and in the 31st of that King, Sir Ralph confirmed in trust, to Sir Thomas de St. Omer, and Henry de Berney, &c. his lordships of Melton and Langham Castle, and all his lands there and in Burgh, Bramingham, Bryston, Irmingland, Gcystwick, Guuthorp, Hindringham, Sniterle, Wireton, Glandford, and Laringsett: witnesses, Sir Robert de Cockfeld, Sir John de Rattlesden, Sir John de Erpingham, and sealed with a cinquefoil, ermine, in a bordure, - - - - -.

Sir Ralph was living in 1355, and presented to this church; but in 1367 his trustees presented.

About this time (I presume) he died leaving Thomas his son and heir, by Agnes his wife, daughter of Edward or Ralph Gerbridge of Norfolk.

In the 47th of the aforesaid King, 1368, John Charve, and Henry de Berney, trustees of Sir Ralph, conveyed to Thomas and Margaret his wife, the manor of Astley Hall in Langham and Melton, &c.

This Margaret was his first wife, and daughter of ——— Elm-rugge, who bore sable, on a chief, argent, three elm leaves slip, vert, and in the 5th of Richard II. being a knight, demised to Ralph Ernys of Field-Dalling, many of his lands for a term of years.

In the 9th of that King he had a protection granted him, being then to accompany John of Gaunt Duke of Lancaster into Spain, where he died in the 11th of the said King,

On the 3d of May, in the said year, the King granted the custody of all his lands in Hindringham. He settled his estates before his departure out of England, and his will was, that as soon as his death was known in England, his feoffees should pay to Margaret his daughter, 10 marks; to Joan and Catharine his daughters, 40s. each, and bequeath his lands to Thomas his son; to Catharine his wife, the manor of Hilmorton for life; remainder to Thomas his son.

And in the said year, Henry le Spencer Bishop of Norwich received of Catharine, relict of Sir Thomas, 85 marks sterling, wherein she was bound for the ward and marriage of Thomas, son and heir of the late Sir Thomas.

This Catharine was daughter of Sir Roger Bacon of Baconsthorp, Knt. and mother, as I take it, of Thomas the minor.

In the 18th of Richard II. Thomas de Astley, son and heir of Sir Thomas, granted in trust, this manor, to Sir Robert Carbonel, and sealed with the cinquefoil, in a bordure ingrailed; and after, in the 3d of Henry V. to Sir Simon Felbrigg, Sir Robert de Berney, and Sir Edmund de Oldhall, this, with other manors, and was living in the year 1422, when he and Isabel his wife presented to this church.

He married two wives; Elizabeth, the first, was daughter of ——— Dacres, who bore gules, 3 escallops, argent; his 2d was Isabel, daughter of Jeffrey Okes, of Shrubland in Suffolk, and bore sable, on a fess, between six acorns, argent, three oak leaves, vert.

By Isabel he had John his son and heir, who took to wife Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Edward Witchingham; by his will, dated April 8, 1475,⁹ and proved June 23 following, it appears that he had 2 sons, Thomas and Robert, a daughter, Alice, married to John Calthorp, Esq. and a daughter, Constantia, to whom he bequeaths 40*l.* his manor of Melton to his executors for 2 years, to perform his will, and his body to be buried in the church of the Carmes at Blakeney.

Thomas Astley, Esq. son and heir, had 2 wives; Margery, daughter of William Lumner, Esq. of Mauntingon, in Norfolk, who bore sable, on a bend, azure, cotted, ermine, three escallops, gules.

To this Thomas and his wife, John his father, in the 11th of Edward IV. granted the manor of Holewell Hall in Langham, and that of Hindringham Nowers; the 2d wife of Thomas was Elizabeth, daughter of William Clipsby of Oxby, Esq.

In the 7th year of Henry VII. Thomas Spicer, &c. at the instance of Thomas Astley, Esq. son and heir of John Astley, late of Melton, confirmed to the said Thomas and Elizabeth his wife, one of the daughters of William Clipsby, late of Oxby, Esq. deceased, the manors of Langham and Hindringham aforesaid, dated May 2; witnesses, Sir Henry Heydon, Edward Paston, John Clipsby, Esq. &c.

By his first wife he had Thomas, his eldest son, to whom he gave the manors of Melton, Burgh, and Bruningham; and to Ralph his son, the manor of Hindringham, by his will, dated June 7, and proved March 12, 1500, and was buried in the chancel of the church of the Carmes of Blakeney.

Thomas Astley, son and heir of Thomas, enfeoffed in the 22d of Henry VII. Hill. Eton, &c. of this manor in trust, and married first, Anne, daughter of Edw. Boughton of Lawford, in Warwickshire, who bore sable, three crescents, or;—and had by her John, his son and heir; his 2d wife was Anne or Hellen, daughter of Robert Wode of East Barsham, Esq. and sister of Elizabeth, the wife of Sir James Boleyn of Blickling, by whom he had also a son, John, who was master of the Jewel-house.

She died in child-bed, and was buried at Blickling.

In the 26th of Henry VIII. January 4, Thomas Astley,¹ Esq. settled on his trustees, for his own use, and after for that of John his son and heir apparent, and Frances his wife, daughter and heir of John Cheue, Esq. of Settingbourn in Kent, the manor of Melton.

Cheuey bore crmin, on a bend, sable, three martlets, or.

By an inquisition, taken September 16, in the 35th of Henry VIII. at Norwich castle, Thomas Asteley, Esq. of Melton, was found to die October 19, last past, seized of this manor and advowson, and the manors of Burgh, Bruningham, Langham, &c. and John was his son and heir, aged 30.

This John was, by Frances aforesaid, father of Isaac Astley, Esq. John his father dying about the year 1558; in 1557 he presented to this church, and in 1559 Frances his widow presented, also in 1564.

Isaac married Mary, daughter of Edward Waldgrave, Esq. of Borley in Essex, who bore per pale, gules and argent, a roundle counter-changed, and presented in 1593, and had by the said Mary, Thomas, his eldest son, and Jacob, who for his many eminent services to King Charles I. was created by him Lord Asteley of Reading.

Thomas Astley, Esq. married Frances, daughter and coheir of ——— Dean of Tilney in Marshland, Norfolk, by whom he had 3 sons, Sir Francis, who was high sheriff of Norfolk in 1635, and died in the same year without issue, leaving Elizabeth his wife, daughter of Sir James Atham of ———, in Hertfordshire: he was buried in the Savoy church at London, and his lady remarried to the Lord Digby, and after to Sir Robert Bernard, serjeant at law.

Sir Isaac, the 2d son, was also high sheriff of Norfolk, created Bart. in 1641, January 21.

He took to wife first, Rachel, daughter of Augustine Messinger of Hackford in Norfolk, Esq. and 2dly, Bridget, daughter of John Coke, of Holkham, Esq. who survived him: he died s. p. December 7, 1659.

Sir Edward, the 3d son, was high sheriff of Norfolk, and a Baronet, and married Elizabeth, only daughter of Jacob Lord Asteley of Reading, who surviving him, married Henry Clifton, Esq. of Tostrees in Norfolk, by which lady he had Sir Jacob Astley, Bart. who was many years knight of the shire for the county of Norfolk: by his wife, Blanch, daughter of Sir Philip Wodehouse of Kimberley, Bart. he had Jacob, his son and heir, who died at Oxford in 1681. Sir Jacob dying in 1729, August 17, was succeeded in honour and estate, by his 2d son, Sir Philip, who married Elizabeth, daughter and heir of ——— Braunby of Yarmouth, Esq. who died in 1755, leaving 2 sons, Jacob, and Edward, who was a commissioner of the Salt-office, and died single.

Sir Jacob Astley, Bart. eldest son of Sir Philip, died January 5, 1760; and, by Lucy his first wife, daughter of Sir Nicholas L'Estrange, he had 2 sons, Edward, and John, rector of Thornage in Norfolk, and a daughter, Lucy, married to Edward Pratt, Esq. son and heir of Roger Prat, Esq. of Ruston, by Downham in Norfolk.

His 2d wife was ————, relict of ———— Page, Esq. of Sar-thorp, and his 3d, Elizabeth, daughter and coheir of Christopher Bellingfeld, Esq. of Wighton in Norfolk; by these he had no issue.

Sir Edward Astley, the present Bart. married first, Rhoda, daughter of Francis Blake Deval, Esq. and by her has 2 sons living: his present lady is Ann, youngest daughter of Christopher Milles, Esq. of Nackington, in Kent, and sister of Richard Milles of North Elmham, Esq. the present member for Canterbury.

Sir Edward was elected member for this county, 23 March, 1768.

Sir Jacob Astley, Bart. grandfather of Sir Jacob, built the present hall or manor-house, of brick, which stands in a large park, a very agreeable and handsome seat, of which there is a print, and about it are several large ponds, stored with fish, and fine avenues: and there is a turret on the summit covered with lead, affording an agreeable prospect towards the sea and land: and there is a very neat and elegant chapel.

The town is seated near the rise of the river Bure.

COCKFIELD'S MANORS.

I have already observed that on the death of Jeff. de Meauton, alias Le Constable, son of Peter, his three sisters, Isabel, Alice, and Edith were his coheirs, between whom this lordship was divided; Edith married Sir Thomas de Astley, Isabel married Adam de Cockfeld, and Alice married Robert de Cockfeld, brother of Adam, (as I take it,) and sons of Adam de Cockfeld, by Agatha, or Isabel, daughter of Sir Robert de Aquillon, by Agatha his wife, daughter and coheir of Falk de Beaufoe, lord of Hockwold and Wilton, in her right.

The family of Cockfeld seem to descend from a younger son of the noble family of the Veres Earls of Oxford; Alberic de Vere had a younger brother, Roger, who held the lordship of Cockfeld in Suffolk, of the abbots of Bury, immediately after the conquest, and Anselm, abbot of Bury, who lived in the reign of Henry I. granted the service of Roger to his brother, Alberic de Vere, at the King's request; from this town they took their surname.²

Adam de Cockfeld left a daughter and heir, Nesta, who was Lady Semere in Suffolk, and married Matthew de Leyham.

In the reign of Richard I. Sampson, abbot of Bury, settled for life on Adam, son of Robert de Cockfeld, the manors of Grotten and Semere in Suffolk,³ and a fine was levied between the said abbot and Adam, in the 7th of that King, of the hundred of Cosford, wherein Adam, grandfather of Adam, is mentioned, and in the 10th of that King, a fine was levied between Lucy de Cockfeld and Adam her son.

In the 41st of Henry III. a fine was levied between John, son of Robert de Cockfeld and Isabel, and Adam de Cockfeld and Isabel his wife, impiedent, of two messuages, two carucates of land, 105s. rent in Mealting, Burgh, Burningham, Sniterley, Birston, and East Tuddenham, with the advowson of the church of Birston, with all the demans, homages, services of freemen, advowsons of churches, knights fees, wards, reliefs, eschaets, villages, woods, alders, meads, pastures, waters, pools, ponds, parks, &c. belonging; and whatever Adam and Isabel had of the inheritance of Peter de Mealton, father of Isabel, one of whose heirs she was, all which were released to John and his heirs, to be held of Robert de Cockfeld and Alice his wife, for the life of Alice, and after her decease of the chief lord of the fee, with a third part of the lands, tenements, and advowsons of churches, which Jeffrey de Burnavill and Maud his wife held in dower of the said inheritance, she being, as it appears, relict of Geffrey de Mealton.

Sir John de Cockfeld was at that time one of the justices of the King's Bench; and in the 56th of that King had an annuity of 40*l.* per ann. as one of those justices.

In the 14th of Edward I. John de Cockfeld claimed view of frank pledge, and other liberties belonging to their manor, (now united,) as belonging to the barony of the see of Norwich, and William Inge, serjeant at law, and John de Cockfeld, were in the 26th of the said reign appointed justices to enquire after the grievances of the people of England, in Lincolushire, Nottinghamshire, Rutlandshire, Northamptonshire, Norfolk, and Suffolk; concerning things taken from the churchmen and laity, in wool, hides, leather, corn, beasts, flesh, fish, &c. either for the keeping of the seas, or any other reason after the war with France; according to the King's promise before his going over into Flanders and to do all other things according to the form of instructions sent them from the King and his council.

In the 12th of Edward II. John de Catfeld, clerk, Eustachius de Dalling, &c. trustees, settled this manor on John de Cockfeld and Margaret his wife, for their lives, remainder on Reginald, son of John, in fee tail; remainder to John, another son.

We find Sir John de Cockfeld to present to the church of Birston in 1305, and Cecilia his relict in 1311, and 1330, who were father and mother of John, who married Margaret; and in 1349, Sir John de Cockfeld presented to Birston.

John Cockfeld, Esq. was probably his son, and died before the year 1365, when Simon, Bishop of Ely, granted an indulgence of 40 days, to all who on confession of their sins, and saying Ave-Mary and the angelick salutation, for the health of the soul of the said John, buried in the conventual church of Wykes in Essex: he died before Sir John, his father, and Sir Thomas his brother was lord in the 36th of that King, and his son, Sir Robert de Cockfeld, was lord in the 5th of Richard II.

Sir John de Cockfeld, son of Sir Robert, kept his first court in the 4th of Henry V.; he married Margaret, daughter of Thomas Foljambe, and died s. p. about the 30th of Henry VI. and was then the wife of Ralph Mouboucher. After this it came to Agnes, sister and heir of Sir John, who brought it by marriage to John Talbys, Esq. of Lincolushire, and so to John Ascough, Esq. of the said county, as may be seen in East Tuddenham, in Mitford hundred, who sold it to John Wynham, Esq. in the reign of Henry VI. Sir Thomas Wyndham died seized of it in 1522: his son Edmund, in the 27th of Henry VIII. held with Thomas Astley, Esq. three knights fees, and 3 quarters of the Bishop of Norwich, paying castle guard to Norwich from 30 weeks to 30, 5s. 6d. for each fee; and was sold by a fine levied in the 34th of the said King to Sir William Butts, whose son William was lord, and by the heiress of this family came to Sir Nich. Bacon, Bart. whose son, Sir Edmund, sold it to the Astleys, in which family it now remains.

Besides what is above observed, I find that Remigius, son of Will. de Meuling had an interest in this town, and by his deed, granted and surrendered to William Bishop of Norwich, for himself and heirs, all those knights fees which he held of the Bishop and his church of Norwich, in capite, in Saxlingham, Egmere, Long-Stratton, Shippeden, &c. viz. in Meuling, the sixth part of a fee, which William de Mulsop held of him, &c. dated in the 10th of Edward I. 1281.

From the register of Castleacre,⁴ we learn several curious particulars relating to the ancient family of de Mealton, or Constable.

Alice de Warren, in her widowhood, with the consent of her son and heir, Sir Jeffrey de Mealton, gave by deed to the monks of Castleacre the yearly rent of 3s. out of a mill in Tudeham (East;) witnesses, Roger, son of Osbern, Fulk de Manpinchun, Roger de Saxlingham, &c. and by another deed confirms the same, willing the monks to remember her, and with the said yearly rent, to mend their towels, sans date.

By her will in Latin, beginning thus,

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, Amen, This is the testament of Alice de Warren—Imprimis, I give my body to be buried in the church of St. Mary, of the monks of Aera, and two of my better sort of horses, with a vestment for a priest, and a chalice, (or a cup) and half a mark rent, per ann. for ever out of my mill in Tudeham, &c.

Geffrey Constable de Meauton, heir of his mother Alice de Warren, by deed confirmed the abovementioned grants.

Peter de Mealtun confirmed also by deed the said grant of his mother Alice, &c. and moreover gave to the said monks the yearly rent of 12d. to be received of Reiner de la Dale of Tudeham.

Peter de Meautun Constable, son and heir of Sir Peter de Meauton, and Dame Alice de Warren, his mother, bound himself to pay in performance of his mother's will to the monks of Castleacre at Easter 40d. and at Michaelmas 40d.—Dated at Castleacre 15th of the calends of February, 1228;—witnesses Sir William de Mortimer, Sir Adam de Birlingham, Sir Robert Burnell, Sir Richard de Mortimer, &c.

By these deeds it appears that Sir Peter de Mealtun married Alice, a daughter of the Earl Warren, and had by her Sir Jeff. who dying without issue, was succeeded by Peter his brother, which Peter was father (as I conceive) of Geff. and of his three sisters and coheirs.

The tenths were 2l. 3s.—No deductions.

The church is an old building, and contained only one isle, being a single pile, till Sir Jacob Astley, in 1681, built a neat chapel, with a vault under it of brick.

The tower stands between the church and chancel, and is four-square, with three bells.

MERSTON.

THE Bishop of Norwich's manor of Langham extended into this town, and was the principal manor, the patronage of the church being in the see. In the 15th of Edward I. the Bishop claimed, as lord, frank pledge, a gallows, assise of bread and beer, wreck at sea, &c.

It remained in the see till granted to the Crown by act of parliament, in the 27th of Henry VIII. on an exchange of lands with that King and the Bishop, and was granted by King Philip and Queen Mary, January 20, ao. 2 and 3, together with Langham, to Thomas Gresham, Esq.; and by the marriage of his natural daughter, Anne, came to Sir Nathaniel Bacon, Knt. 2d son of Sir Nicholas Bacon, lord keeper of the seal, and by his daughter and coheir, Anne, to Sir

Roger Townsend, Bart. and in the said family it remains, the Right Honourable Charles Lord Viscount Townsend being the present lord and patron.

Mary Dutchesse of Richmond and Somerset, widow of Henry Fitz-Roy, natural son of Henry VIII. had an interest here; and by an indenture, dated April 10, ao. 30 of Henry VIII. demised and let to Richard Fulmerston, Gent. her two fold courses in Langham and Merston, with her salt marshes in Merston.

From these marshes and its site, by the great German ocean or sea, the town derives its name.

It appears that she had the Bishop's manors in both the aforesaid towns, and warren, and all the demean lands, &c. and before the grant to Gresham, were let to William Cordel, solicitor general to Queen Mary.

The King's manor of Holt extended also into this village; Guert, a younger brother of King Harold, who was slain in battle with him, had 30 acres and a borderer, with half a carucate, valued at two *oras per ann.*⁵ (ora was a Saxon coin, some make it to be of the value of 16*d.* and some more; 15 of them made one pound, as the laws of Canute testify.)

In the reign of Henry III. Jeffrey le Syre held this of the family of De Vaux, and they of the Earl of Albemarle, by the 16th part of a fee. From the Vauxes it came to the Nerfords, and Lords Ross, and has been united many years to the Bishop's manor, as I take it.

Roger Bigot had also, at the survey, a small fee, out of which a freeman had been expelled, containing half a carucate of land, which Turald held under Roger, and 4 borderers belonged to it, with a carucate valued at 20*s.*⁶

This has been many years joined to the capital manor.

The tenths were 5*l.* 4*s.* Deducted 10*s.*

The CHURCH is a rectory, dedicated to All-Saints. The old valor was 30 marks, and the priory of Norwich had a portion valued at 13*s.* 4*d.* per ann. Peter-pence, 10*d.*; the present valor is 18*l.*

THIS town, though now in the hundred of Holt, was a member or part of the hundred of North Erpingham, at the time of the grand survey, and is placed therein, where we find this account of it; that it was then the lordship of William de Scohies, or de Escois, and of Seiar Bar in King Edward's time, who had 3 carucates of land, 4 villans belonging to his demean, and 2 carucates among his tenants, and that it was always valued at 40s. soc and sac belonged to it, and it was measured in his other manor of Saxlingham.⁷

William de Scohies sold this, with many other lordships, to Walter Giffard Earl of Buckingham; and by an heiress of that family it came to the ancestor of the Earls of Clare, who were the capital lords of it.

The family of De Kelling, who held the principal lordship of Kelling under Hugh Earl of Chester, (and which extended into Salthouse,) held that also, and so were patrons of the churches belonging to the said towns.

Sir Hubert de Kelling was witness to a deed, sans date. There was an agreement between him and Sir Thomas de Wabrune, that Hubert's men of Salthouse should do suit to his mill here, and Sir Thomas's men at Salthouse, should do suit to Sir Hubert's, when they could not grind.

In the 34th of Henry III. it appears by a fine then levied, that Aunger, son of Thomas de Rysing, married Agnes, widow of Sir Hubert de Kelling, and held in her right the 3d part of the manors of Salthouse and Kelling, and that Robert, son of Hubert, had 2 parts, and they agreed to present alternately to the churches, Agnes to have the first turn; and in the 52d of that King, Roger de Colville, sheriff of Norfolk and Suffolk, received of Robert, for not being a knight, 20s.

In the 15th of Edward I. Hubert de Kelling claimed view of frank pledge, a gallows, &c. in the said towns, &c. and held 3 quarters of a fee of John Hastings, and he of the Earl of Gloucester and Clare; by Alice his wife he had Sir Robert de Kelling, who, by Lucia his wife, had a son, Robert.

Robert, son and heir of Sir Robert, had 2 daughters and coheirs; Maud, married to Sir Richard Harecourt, and Joan, to Walter, son of William de Holywell, to whom he grants the aforesaid manors, in the 31st of the said King; and in the 13th of Edward I. Sir Richard and Maud released to Sir Walter Holwell, on the octaves, of St. Andrew the Apostle, all their part, to hold to them as long as William, father of Walter, should live, for his support, excepting for ever the right of presentation to the churches of St. Nicholas of Salthouse, and St. Mary of Kelling, and the moiety of the dower of Alice, formerly wife of Hubert de Kelling, when it shall happen, and after William de Holywell's, to hold it again for their lives.

The Holwells were a family of great antiquity in Bedfordshire.

Among the pleadings in King Edward the First's reign Simon de Holwell was possessed of lands in Holwell in the said county. Mathew de Holwell had Thomas his son, father of this Simon.

Alice de Holwell, patroness of the church of Holwell, granted to the abbot and convent of Bestaure a portion of tithes in the church.

Walter aforesaid was afterwards knighted, and witness to a deed in the 15th of Edward III. and seems to die soon after.

Joan his widow, in the following year, by her deed, dated at Gamlingey in Cambridgeshire, on the feast of St. Margaret the Virgin, sold all her interest in Salthouse and Kelling manors, with the advowsons, to Sir John Avenel, Knt. and made Sir Gerard de Braybrake, Knt. her attorney, to deliver seisen.

This Sir John married Jane, daughter and heir of Sir Walter, and in the 20th of Edward III. was found to hold 3 quarters of a fee of the heirs of Hastings, who held of the Earl of Gloucester: he was also lord of the manor of Avenel in Gamlingey, and son of Will. Avenel, marshal of the household to the King of Scots, and William was son of Ralph de Avenel, who was living in the 8th of Henry III.

King Edward III. in his 21st year, by letters patents, dated at Calais, July 20, granted to him free warren in all his demean lands in these towns.

Sir John dying in Britany, in the 33d of the said King, left John his son and heir, and being a knight, attended John Duke of Lancaster King of Castile and Leon, into Spain, and it is probable died in that expedition, and bore for his arms, argent, a fess between six annulets, gules.

About the 10th of Richard II. John de Bokenham Bishop of Lincoln conveyed by fine, probably as a trustee, to Robert de Avenel (son of Sir John) and to Julian his wife, daughter of Sir Robert Belknap, chief justice of the Common Pleas, these manors and advowsons, with those of Holwell in Bedfordshire, Beeches and Gaunts in Wimple, Cambridgeshire, with that of Gamlingey.

In the 12th of the said King, the said Bishop made a lease for 15 years of the manors of Salthouse and Kelling, to Sir Robert Belknap, and confirmed the manors to Robert Avenel and Julian his wife, and their heirs.

It is proper to observe here, that in this year, Sir Robert Belknap was banished into Ireland, and the King had entered on these two lordships; I find, by the escheators accounts, that he desired to be discharged of the issues and profits of them, which Sir Robert held August 1, in the 11th of Richard II. on which day he forfeited his lands and tenements, because demised by John de Buckenham, Bishop of Lincoln, and which Julian, daughter of Sir Robert, wife of John Avenel, yet living, held, and which after the death of the said Julian, was to revert to the said Robert and Julian his wife, and their heirs, extended at 100s. per ann. here being 70s. rent per ann. a windmill, issues of pleas, and profits of courts, profits of a fair held on the feast of the exaltation of the Holy Cross, with the advowsons; and in the 15th of that King, John Burton, clerk, had a grant of these manors, together with Philip de Tilney, William de Castleacre, Nicholas de Styvecle, Knights, and many others, dated March 30.

Julian aforesaid, on the death of Robert Avenel, remarried Nicholas Kymbell, Esq. of Bedfordshire; but it appears that she had by Avenel, a daughter and heir, Alice, who married John Fastolf of Fishley, in Norfolk, Esq. by whom she had also a daughter and heir, Alice, who married Edmund Wychingham of Fishley and Upton, Esq. 2d son of Nicholas de Wychingham, 2d son of William de Wychingham and Margaret his wife: this Edmund left, by the said Alice, 4 daughters and coheirs; Elizabeth, married to William Berdwell, Esq. of West Herling; Frances, to Sir William Nevill of Burscombe in Gloucestershire; Amy, to Richard Southwell of Wood Rising; and Joan to Sir Richard Longstrother, and after to Robert Boys.

In the 3d of Henry IV. Nicholas Kymbell and Julian his wife held a quarter of a fee in Salthouse and Kelling, of the Earl of March. In the 5th of Henry V. they, by deed, dated on Friday after the feast of St. John Baptist, demise to certain feoffees, the said manors and advowsons, with wreck at sea, &c. Kymbell sealing with a bell; and in the year preceding, it appears they had an annuity of 100s. payable out of them, and in the 2d year of Henry V. conveyed to Thomas Walsingham, &c. the advowson of the church of Salthouse.

At this time these 2 lordships were in the hands of feoffees. John Wodchouse, Edmund Oldhall, Esq. &c. confirm by deed, dated at Salthouse, on Monday next after the feast of St. Peter ad Vincula, in the 4th of Henry V. to Sir Ric. Whittington, Sir Thos. Fauconer, William Waldern, citizens and aldermen of London, the said manors in trust; Woodhouse sealed as the family at this day, and Oldhall with a lion's head erased, and Whittington, &c. confirmed it in the following year, to Nicholas Wychingham, &c. In the 28th of Henry VI. Edmund Wychingham confirmed his manor here to Sir Henry Inglos, &c. and Sir Henry grants his lordship by will in 1451, to the Lady Ilketeshale for life.

In the 8th of Henry VI. William Calthorp, Esq. Nicholas Appleyard, &c. feoffees, confirmed to Edmund Wychingham and Alice his wife, these manors, view of frank pledge, wreck at sea, a mercate, warren, gallows, &c. and in the 12th of Edward IV. an exemplification under the great seal was made on May 10, (at the request of Edmund Wychingham and Alice his wife, William Berdwell, junior, Esq. and Elizabeth his wife, lords of these manors) of 2 charters made to Sir John Avenel, one of free warren, dated July 20, at Calais, in the 21st of Edward III. the other of a mercate weekly, on Tuesday, at Kelling, and a fair on the eve and the feast of the exaltation of the Holy Cross.

By an indenture, bearing date September 8, in the 13th of Henry VII. an exchange was made of the manor of Wycheingham (as then called) between Sir Henry Heydon and William Berdwell, Esq. for that of Drayton Hall in Scarning, and Dillington; and whereas that of Wycheingham in Salthouse and Kelling, was 30s. per ann. superiour to that of Drayton, Sir Henry agrees to pay an annual rent of 30s. to Berdwell; and in the 24th of Henry VIII. John Woston of North Tudenham, Esq. and Elizabeth his wife, daughter and heir of Robert Berdwell, Esq. confirmed the said exchange to Sir Henry Heydon.

It appears that great disputes arose notwithstanding this settle ment: Sir Edward Belknap, Knt. cousin and heir to Sir Robert, who was attainted, (being restored in blood and possessions, as heir to him, in the parliament holden on February 1, in the 6th of Henry VIII.) claimed right and title to these manors, and to those of West Wickham, Keston, Baston, and Southcourt in Kent, and John Heydon was obliged to purchase Salthouse and Kelling, of Sir Edmund, on June 13, in the 7th of Henry VIII.

From the Heydons it came to Thomas Croft, Esq. of Sheringham, who in the 35th of Elizabeth, mortgaged this manor called Bardwell's, in Salthouse and Kelling, with the manor of Ilketeshale in Kelling, to Thomas Thetford, Esq. with all the rents, services, foldcourses, &c. clear of all incumbrance done by him, Sir William Heydon, or Sir Christopher, father of Sir William.

In 1714, John Leng, Esq. was lord, and presented; and in 1745, John Leng, Esq.

SAXLINGHAM.

HERE were several lordships belonging to this town, which I shall treat of in their order.

William Beaufoe Bishop of Thetford held at the survey a manor belonging to his see, which Aylmer the Bishop of Elmham, held in the time of the Confessor, with one carucate of land, 7 borderers, one servus, and one carucate in demean, and half a one among the tenants, and 2 acres of meadow, valued in his lordship of Thornage, and a church endowed with 12 acres, and of Thornage manor, (to which this was a beruite,) the said Bishop had a carucate and an half valued at 20s.; it was 7 furlongs long, and 5 broad, and paid 2s. gelt.

The aforesaid Bishop had also another manor in this town, in his own right, as a lay fee, which two freemen held under King Herold, with a carucate and an half of land, and 7 borderers, with 2 carucates and 5 acres of meadow, the moiety of a mill, valued then at 20s. at the survey at 30s. and Logaum, a freeman, retained here 30 acres and one borderer. Here was also a carucate and 2 acres of meadow valued at 5s. now at 7s.⁸

These two lordships though now accounted as lying in the hundred of Holt, are there mentioned at that time, as being in the hundred of Galgon, or Galhow. What I have met with, relating to them, I shall treat of according as I find it in order of time.

In the 10th of Richard I. a fine was levied between William de Noers, petent, and William, son of Roger, tenant of lands here, and in the said year another between Peter de Mealton petent, and Roger, son of Gerold, teneant, of the fourth part of a fee in Saxlingham, and Langham, whereby it was acknowledged to be the right of Peter, who granted the land in Saxlingham, to Roger, to be held of Peter, except Hobb's Croft in this town, and all the arable land which Roger held in Langham.

Thomas, son of Ulf, acknowledged in the 12th of Henry III. that he held lands here of Simon de Nodarijs, (Nowers), by fine then levied, and about the 20th of the said King, John de Saxlingham was found to hold a fee of William de Shipden, and he of the Bishop; and in the 14th of Edward I. Roger de Saxlingham, and Simon de Noers were lords, and patrons of the church; and John de Saxlingham and Margaret his wife were querents, William de Colby deforciant, in a fine in the 2d of Edward II. of 8 messuages, 3 tofts, 1 mill, and 140 acres of land, in this town, Bayfield, &c.; and in the 6th of that King, another between Robert de Nowers and Alice his wife, and John de Saxlingham, parson of Swanton, of this manor and advowson, and Tweyt manor, settled on Robert and Alice. Edmund de Monnpinzun, Robert de Thursferd, &c. trustees, confirmed to the aforesaid Robert and Alice, in the 13th of the said King, the homages and services of John de Saxlingham, for a knight's fee here, and the manor of Hungry Swanton, with the advowson.

Sir Robert de Nowers presented to this church in 1329, and John de Saxlingham in 1348, each lord having an alternate presentation.

In the 24th of Edward III. John de Noers grants to Fulk Monnpinzun, Adam de Sheringham, &c. in trust, his manor of Iteringham, lands, rents and services, in Elmham; a mill, 50 acres of land in Swanton, and Bruningham,⁹ with the reversion of Saxlingham, Swanton, and Tweyt manors, which Alice his mother held for life.

Sir Stephen de Hales presented in 1383, and Robert Plumley in 1413, styled Domicellus,¹ and was in right (as I take it) of John de Saxlingham's lordship.

Sir William Oldhall presented, on account of his manor of Nowers, in 1437; and Agnes Lynaker de Brampton in Derbyshire, in 1443, as lady of John de Saxlingham's lordship.

Sir William Oldhall in 1446, and John Lynaker in 1474

The manor of Nowers was after in John Bertram, Gent. who by his will dated July 15, 1462, bequeaths his body to be buried in the chancel of this church near to his first wife, and appoints his sons, Thomas and John, executors; to his wife 10 marks per ann. out of his manor of Nowers for life; to Thomas his son this lordship in tail male, with that of Gunthorp;² to John the manor of Fritcham for life, or till he should be promoted to a higher ecclesiastical degree, then that manor to go to the priory of Walsingham, to find one canon there, and to keep his anniversary: to Elizabeth his daughter, a nun at Carhow, 40s. per ann.; to Mary and Anne his daughters 40s. per ann. each, out of his manor called Reevets in West Newton, for their lives, and his messuages called Woden and Pagets, to be sold with that manor afterwards.

Thomas Bertram, his son was lord, and living in 1488, but in 1478 John Albin, Gent. presented, and in 1506 John Heydon, Esq. and in 1509 Robert Lynaker, Esq.

Soon after this both manors were united, and in the Heydon family, and in the 33d of Elizabeth, Thomas Croft, Esq. and Thomas Oxburgh, Esq. had a præcipe to deliver the manors of Saxlingham, Nowers, or Bertram's, with that of Linacres, to Henry Sidney of Walsingham, Esq. with those of Letheringset and Hunworth, from Sir Henry Sydney, this united came to Thomas Jermy, Esq.

Sir Francis Guybon was lord in 1696, and his son and heir sold it to Richard Warner, Esq. of Elmham, about the year 1715, and was lord and patron, on whose death it came to Elizabeth his daughter and coheir, relict of Paul Jodrell, Esq. Attorney General to Frederick Prince of Wales.

The manor-house stands a little towards the south of the church, and seems to have been built by John Heydon, who married a daughter of the Lord Willoughby.

Over the porch of it are the arms of Heydon, quarterly, argent and gules, a cross engrailed, counterchanged:—crest, a talbot, and supporters, two naked men; also Heydon impaling quarterly, in the first and fourth a cross engrailed, Ufford, and in the 2d and 3d a cross moline, Willoughby; Heydon impaling Drury.

In the great parlour, Heydon and his quarterings, impaling Drury with his quarterings—Heydon and his quarterings impaling Carew of Cornwall and his quarterings; Heydon, &c. impaling Woodhouse of Waxham—Heydon, &c. impaling Rivet and his quarterings—Heydon impaling Crane of Suffolk; and on the top of the house is a place to take a view of the country.

Peter Lord Valoins had a lordship which Theodorick a freemen held before, consisting of half a carucate of land, and one carucate with 2 borderers, and 2 acres of meadow, valued formerly at 2s. at the survey at 5s.³ and placed under Gallow hundred.

In Henry the First's reign, on the foundation of Binham priory, Tire, a knight of his enfeoff of his manor, gave two parts of his tithes to that priory.⁴

About the 3d of Henry III. Agnes de Ratlesden held in this town, Dalling, Geystweyt, and Riburgh Parva, two knights fees of David Cumin, descended from the Lord Valoins; and in the said reign Agatha de How held the fourth part of a fee of Simon de Rattlesden, and Sim. Rattlesden was found in the 14th of Edward II. to hold of Admund le Comyn.

In the 18th of Edward III. a fine was levied between John de Scothow and Agnes his wife, John Franks and Aveline his wife, que-rents, William de Berkele, chaplain, and John Neuman of Scothow, deforciant, of the fourth part of the manor of Northall in Saxlingham, of 2 messuages, 36 acres of land, 5 of meadow, 7 of heath, with 4s. rent in this town and Briston, conveyed to John Scothow; and in the 20th of that King, William Miles and his parceners held the fourth part of a fee of John de Rattlesden, which Agatha de How formerly held. Roger Atte Cross and his parceners held it in the 3d of Henry IV.

After this it was united to the lordship aforementioned.

The abbot of Savigny in France had also a lordship in the 41st of Henry III. and in 1428, their temporalities were valued at 44s. 5d.

King Henry VI. in his 7th year, June 27, granted it to Sir Robert Dudley, after Earl of Leicester.

The tenths were 4l.—Deducted 1l.

THE CHURCH is a rectory dedicated to St. Margaret, the old valor was 20 marks, Peter-pence 12d.; the prior of Bynham had a portion of title valued at 10s. per ann. The present valor is 12l. 12s. 8d. ob.

It is a small pile covered with lead, and has a little tower.

In the area of the chancel, covered also with lead, is a very curious monument, erected by Sir Christopher Heydon, for his Lady Mirabel, with her effigies kneeling under an arch, and over her a pyramid rises near the height of the chancel, adorned with many hieroglyphical figures, after the manner and taste of the Egyptians; a large account and description of it, may be seen in the account of the Heydon family in Baconsthorp.

In the east window of the chancel were the arms of Heydon impaling Drury—Heydon impaling Carew—azure, three boars passant, or, Bacon.

Those of Boleyn—Boleyn, impaling Lord Hoo, and St. Omer, quarterley, and St. Leger in an escocheon of pretence.

S T O D Y.

PART of this town belonged to the King's manor of Holt, who had one socman, who held 2 acres and an half of land, and paid 2s. 6d. per ann.⁶

The family of De Pever held this in the reign of King John, with the family of De Stody, together with the King's lordship in Hunworth, to which I refer the reader.

The principal lordship belonged to Ralph, brother of Hgar, out of which a freeman of Herold had been expelled, who had 2 carucates of land, and Ro. held it of Ralph, for a manor; 8 villains, 7 borderers, and one servus belonged to it, 2 carucates in demean, one and a half among the tenants, pannage for 40 swine, 6 acres of meadow, 3 mills, 3 beasts for burdens, 9 cows, &c. 40 sheep, 60 goats, &c. and 3 skeps of bees, and 4 soemen with 26 acres and half a carucate, valued in King Edward's reign at 30s. at the survey at 40s.; twenty-five acres and half a carucate in Laringset was valued with this manor.⁷

The town takes its name from Stow, a dwelling, and Eia by the water.

Who this Ro. was, that held it at the survey under Ralph, does not appear.

This lordship, with that of Edgefeld, seems to have been soon after in the family of De Edisfeld, lord of Edisfeld. Peter de Edisfeld, son of William, left by Hawise his wife, a daughter and heir, Latitia, who brought it by marriage to Sir William de Rosceline, who with his lady conveyed it by fine in the 12th of Henry III. to Roger le Povere and Beatrice his wife, by the service of 3 parts of a fee, then released to Roger and his heirs. John de Povere was found, in the said reign, to hold here and in Hunworth one fee of Robert Fitz Roger; and in the 51st of that King, Robert le Povere of Stodey had a charter for free warren, in all his demean lands in this town, Hunworth, Letheringset, Briston, Fretenham, Belagh, and Attlebrig. Sir John le Povere was lord in the 30th of Edward I. and in 1316, Peter le Povere of Laringset presented to this church.

Thomas de Sehotesham, parson of Holt, released in the 4th of Edward III. to Robert Em of Stody, chaplain, all his right in the lands which he had of the grant of William le Povere of Laringsete, dated July 20; and in the 6th of that King, Sir Edmund de Soterley and Joan his wife settled on Roger his son and Sibila his wife, this lordship; and in the 17th of that reign, the said Roger granted the whole manor of Uggeshale in Suffolk on the Lady Joan his mother for life, provided she claimed no dower in the manors of Stody, and Soterley in Suffolk, by deed dated on Wednesday next after the feast of the decollation of St. John Baptist; and Roger presented to this church in 1344; and soon after, in the said year, John de Stodey, citizen of London, presented; he likewise presented in 1349, and 1374.

It seems that William le Povere conveyed to him, about 1344, this advowson, with an acre of land.

That the Stodeys had an interest here and in Hunworth appears from a fine of lands between Isabella de Stodey, Geffrey her son, and Roger le Povere and Beatrix his wife, in the 14th of King John, and John de Stodey had a lordship in Hunworth in 1315, and seems to be father of John de Stodey, citizen of London, who presented to this church, as I have observed, in 1344, &c. and also to Hunworth in 1349, &c.

In the 28th of Edward III. he, being then a knight, by deed dated at Stody, manumised John Hanes, Alice, and Margery, daughters of Ralph, and granted to them all their goods and chattels whatsoever, to which deed Roger le Pevers, William de Gremesby, John de Briston, Regnald de Repps, Peter le Povere, &c. were witnesses; the seal was of white wax, about the bigness of a shilling, the impress worn out: Stow says his arms were, ermine, a cross ingrailed sable, charged with a leopard's head, —: he was sheriff of London in 1352, and lord mayor in 1357, and free of the Vintners company; he gave to them all the quadrant, where the Vintners hall now is built, with tenements round about, from the lane yet called Stodey's-lane, to the lane called Anker-lane, where are founded thirteen houses for thirteen poor people, which hitherto are there kept of charity rent free.⁸ This was probably his own house; that he lived in the Vintry, appears from his will dated, April 20, 1376, and was buried in the new chapel, on the north side of the church of St. Martin's Vintry; he gave many legacies to pious uses, 20s. to the church of Stodey; 13s. 4d. to that of Hunworth; 10s. to that of Bramingham, and appointed a chaplain to pray for him in the church of Hunworth: released to all of his family living in Norfolk, all debts, &c. except their rents. By Joan his lady he had several children, William, Thomas, and John: Idonea, a daughter, married to Sir Nicholas Brember, lord mayor of London in 1377, Joan, and Eleanor: one of these seems to have married John de Barlingham, whom he calls his son.

Besides this lordship held by Sir John Stodey, in the 20th of Edward III. Roger de Soterley,⁹ held a quarter of a fee, and Raulina de Briston, a quarter of a fee here and in Hunworth, which John le Povere and his tenants formerly held, at the same time John de Kergate, Robert Atte Parke, and Muel de Coldik held in the said towns half a fee of the heirs of ——— de Clavering, which John de Povere, &c. formerly held.

In 1381, John de Blakeney, &c. presented as lord, and in 1393; in 1403, John Clere and Sir Simon Felbrigg in 1422, probably as a trustee, by the will of the Lady Catherine Braunch, relict of Sir John Braunch, dated at Castre by Yarmouth, on Saturday after the feast of St. Peter ad Vincula, 1420, and proved Sep. 5, in the said year: we find that she was possessed of the manor of Stodey:¹ gave to this church 6s. 8d. By Sir John she left 3 sons: Sir Philip Braunch, to whom she gave a salt-cote, at Flete in Lincolushire; to William, the manor of Wigenhale St. Germans; to John her son, this lordship of Stodey, with all the things thereto belonging, which lordship, with that of Hunworth, she held in the 3d of Henry IV. by a quarter of a fee; and in 1430, the aforesaid John Braunch, Esq. presented to this church.

About 1440, Robert Crane and Reginald Rous settled it on Ralph Lampet, Esq. and Margaret his wife in tail, (probably, daughter of John Braunch, Esq.) remainder to the heirs of the said John, and Ralph presented in 1440, and 1446; but in 1471, Robert Braunch, Esq. was lord and patron.² Jane Braunch, widow of the said Robert by her will dated April 17, 1505, bequeaths her body to be buried in the chancel of this church, by her late husband; appoints her daughter Agnes, and her husband Robert Kebyll her executors; mentions John Braunch, her grandson, and son and heir of Henry Braunch; calls Jane Daniel her niece, (daughter, as I take it, of Henry Daniel of Appleton in Norfolk, and Agnes his wife, sister of Robert Braunch, Esq.) and John Heydon, Esq. supervisor of her will, which was proved May 21, following.

John Braunch inherited it, as heir, and was lord and patron in 1534; in the 28th of Henry VIII. he conveyed it by fine to John Bozoun, Esq. with the manors of Taverham, and Bruningham Braunch's.

Robert Bozoun of Stodey, Esq. by deed dated September 20, in the 14th of Elizabeth, sold it to Sir Nicholas Bacon, lord keeper, and Nicholas his son and heir apparent; in this family it remained till Sir Edmund Bacon, Bart. sold it to Edmund Britiff, Esq. who was lord and patron in 1742, by whose daughter and heir it came to the Earl of Buckingham.

SWANTON NOWERS.

THIS lordship was held at the survey by William Beaufoe Bishop of Thetford, in right of his see, and by Ailmare Bishop of Elmham, in King Edward's reign, for two carucates of land, and appertained to Hilderston; 8 borderers belonged to it, 2 carucates in demean, and 3 among the tenants, at that time, at the survey one, but two more might be restored: paunage for 100 swine, &c. 200 sheep, valued at the survey at 8*l.* before at 6*l.* was half a leuca long, and the same in breadth, and paid 3*d.* gelt.³

The family of De Nuers, or Nowers were very early enfeoffed of it, and possessed it under the Bishops of Norwich.

Ralph de Nuers was witness to a deed of confirmation of lands in Dilham, and Pangeford in Norfolk, to the church of Norwich, by Robert Fitz Ralph,⁴ son of Ribald, in the reign of Henry II. and in the time of William Turbe Bishop of Norwich, and probably was the same Ralph who held at that time of William de Abrincis, in Kent, one fee of the old feoffment.

In the 10th of Richard I. Milo de Nuers conveyed by fine to Roger de Kerdeston, the 3*d* part of the common pasture of this town, and the 3*d* part of the services and profits thereof, with several hens, eggs, &c. with a foal every 3*d* year, &c.; and in the 9th of King John, Roger brought his action against Milo, for not fulfilling his grant.

Simon de Nodarijs or Nowers, was living in the 35th of Henry III. and in the 45th was found to hold of William de Calthorp, and Cecilia his wife, half a fee, they of the Lord Bardolf, and the lord of the Bishop of Norwich.

William de Kerdeston then held also by the said tenure, the 3*d* part of a fee, and Simon had the assise of bread, &c. ao. 15 Edward I.

By the roll of the honour of Wrongey, we find that Robert de Noers held here (then called Hungry-Swanton) a manor and the advowson of the church, and presented to it in 1327, being then a knight, as Alice his lady did in 1334; and in the 20th of Edward III. she was found to hold half a fee, which Simon de Noers formerly held, and William de Kerdeston the 3*d* part of a fee of the said Alice; also Margaret de Saxlingham had a part of a fee of the said Alice, which John de Saxlingham formerly held.

John de Nowers, son of Sir Robert and Alice, presented in 1353 and 1361; and in 1383, 1389, Sir Stephen Hales, whose widow, Joan, held in the 3*d* of Henry IV. half a fee of the Bishop of Norwich.

About this time, the prior of Walsingham obtained a patent or license of mortmain for it,⁵ with 50 acres of land, at Altoft in Bruningham, valued at 8*l.* per ann. and was to do homage for it to Sir William Calthorp, and to pay by composition, for relief, 5*os.*⁶

The prior presented to the church in 1417, and was found to hold one fee of the Bishop, paying 3*s.* 6*d.* every 30 weeks, as castle-guard to Norwich.

This is to be understood in right of his manor of Nowers, the other fee or part still remaining in the Kerdestons.

In the 20th of Henry VI. William de la Pole Earl of Suffolk, and Alice his wife, released to Sir Thomas Kerdeston all their right in this part or fee, which formerly belonged to Sir William Kerdeston, son and heir of Sir Roger; and in the 24th of that King, it was settled

On the Dissolution, the manor of Swanton Nowers was granted, December 2, in the 31st of Henry VIII. to Sir Richard Southwell, with messuages, lands, tenements, &c. in Bruningham, Briston, Edgfield, Sharington, Gunthorpe, and Berney, and the manors of East Walton, Wendling, Wood Norton, and Kerdeston; and the said Sir Richard, in the 34th of that King, regranted it to him, on an exchange, or for other lands, when the King granted it, December 11, in the said year, to the dean and chapter of Christ-church in Oxford, the present lords and patrons.

WILLIAM BEAUFOE was lord at the survey, and held it in right of his church or see, then at Thetford; and Aylmare, Bishop of Elmham possessed it, by the same right in King Edward's reign, as a manor, with 8 carucates of land, 49 borderers, and 8 servi belonged to it, with 8 carucates in demean, and 10 among the tenants, pannage for 50 swine, 9 acres of meadow 3 mills, 4 runci, or beasts of carriage, &c. and 100 sheep.

Brunton, Saxlingham, Beckham, were beruites belonging to it, and valued with it.

There were 16 socmen with 36 acres and 4 carucates; the whole was valued in King Edward's time at 13*l.* at the survey at 30*l. per ann.* was one leuca long and 4 furlongs broad, and paid 12*l.* gelt; and there was a church endowed with 32 acres, valued at 32*l.*

It seems to take its name from Wa, and Bruna; Wy or Wa, is an old British name, often used for a river or brook.

Ralph, who was enfeoffed of this lordship by Earl Hugh, held also several lordships under him in Cheshire, viz. Tadetune, Warmincham, Blachehall, Pevre, Warford, Tatun, Cocheshale, Rode, Northerden, Ashton, &c. and was father of Roger, who bore the name of Meyngaryn, Meinil-Waring, or Manwaring, (as his father Sir Ralph did,) and was father of Ralph, who lived in the reign of King Henry II. whose son Roger had Ralph his son, who was chief justice of Cheshire in the reign of King John, lord of this town, and founder (as I take it) of the priory of Waborn, and by Amicia his wife, a natural daughter of Hugh Kivileoc Earl of Chester; this Sir Ralph had a son, William, as appears from the register of Bynham priory, and was living in the 21st of Henry III.

In the first of Richard I. the sheriff of Norfolk accounted for 50s. scutage of Ralph Meynecaryn.

In the 28th of Henry III. the King sent his writ to the sheriff of Norfolk, to enquire what fees were held in this county of the honour of Chester, by Thomas de Meyngaryn, were assigned to William de Fortibus Earl of Almarle, and Christiana his wife, for part of her inheritance;^s and, in the 32d of the said King, Emma, late wife of Will. de Maynecaryn, who died in the said year, recovered her dower in lands at East Herling, against Roger her son, who held jointly with William his brother.

This Emma, was daughter of Gilbert de Norfolk; and in the 41st of the said King, Thomas de Meyngaryn was found to hold 3 fees of the honour of Chester, in Waborne, &c.

Ralph de Meyngaryn had 2 parts of a fee, and Thomas de Waborne a 3d part in this town.

In the 46th of Henry III. Waryn de Menwaryn held the manor of Waborne by the service of one fee, had view of frank pledge, wreek at sea, free warren, the trial and judgment of thieves taken, and their goods, in his fee, and all privileges as a member of the honour of Chester, and died seised of it in the 18th of Edward I. leaving by Agnes his wife, three daughters and coheirs; Joan, Margaret, and Maud, the lordship then valued with three water mills, &c. at 19*l.* per ann.

The Meynecaryns bore sometimes argent, six barrulets, gules, also two bars.

After this, the family of the Trussels of Coblesden in Staffordshire held it by the marriage of Maud, a daughter and coheir of Sir Warine de Meynecaryn, with William Trussell, son of Sir William, about the 50th of Edward I. by whom he had three sons; Sir John Trussell, the eldest, who died s. p., William, and Warine.

Maud was his widow in the 9th of Edward II. and then lady of this manor; and in the 12th of that King, was the wife of Oliver de Burdeaux, who with Maud his wife, in the 14th of the said reign, had a grant of a mercate and a fair in this town; in the 19th of King Edward II. she settled lands and tenements in Etou in Bucks. and New-Windsor in Berkshire, on Oliver and herself in fee tail; remainder to William her son, and the heirs of his body; remainder to Warine her son in like manner.

William Trussell, 2d son of Sir William and Maud his wife, wrote himself of Mershton in Northamptonshire; and in the 18th of Edward II. settled that manor, and that of Hales, under Longsyerd in Shropshire and Staffordshire, on himself and Isabel his wife, and his heirs, by fine, Laurence Trussell being his trustee.

In the 5th of Edward III. John Trussell, the eldest son, was lord of Coblesden, and with Alianore his wife, levied a fine of it, and settled on William his son, in tail. the lordships of Mershton and Langport in Northamptonshire, with their advowsons; and in the 16th of that King, being then a knight, he settled the manor of Thorp Malesore in Northamptonshire, on himself for life, and in the 20th of that King on Robert Trussell his son, by Petronilla his 2d wife.

In the 20th of Edward III. Oliver de Burdeaur was found to hold the lordship of Waborne.

In the 22d of the aforesaid King, Sir William Trussell of Coblesden, son of Sir John, was lord of Coblesden, and Ida was his wife; he was lord also of Baddeshasel in Northamptonshire.

This Sir William founded the college and chantry of Shottesbrook in Berkshire, in 1337, and dying in or about the year 1363, was buried in the church of Shotesbrook with his lady,⁹ who was daughter of Sir William Butler lord of Wmeme, leaving a son, John, who died sine prole, and Margaret, a daughter and heir, wife of Sir Fulk Pembrug, Knt. buried also in the said church in 1401.

The said Sir Fulk being lord of Shotesbrook, held by the service of a pair of gilt spurs to the castle Windsor, yearly, also to the manor of Eton-Hastings, with the third part of the manor of Kempston, called Brussbury, in her right: she seems to have married a 2d husband. In the 10th of Richard II. Margaret Trussell was found to hold, for life the manor of Canfield Parva in Essex, after the death of Gilbert Barentyn, her late husband.

On the death of Margaret aforesaid, the manor of Shotesbrook, and that of Waborne, (as I take it,) came to William Trussell, son of Sir Laurence Trussell, son of Warine, brother of Sir William, father of Margaret. This Sir Laurence married Maud, daughter and heir of Sir William Charnell of Elmesthorp in Leicestershire, and lord of that town in right of his lady, and bore, as Burton observes,¹ argent, fretty gules, on each joint a bezant or, and not a cross, as Mr. Hearne has mentioned.

This Laurence was lord also of Cobleston, and living in the 6th of Richard II.; by this lady he had William Trussell, his son and heir, lord of this town, Shotesbrook, Elmesthorp, &c. living in the 32d of Henry VI. and father of Sir Thomas Trussell by Margery, daughter of Sir John Ludlow, who was lord of Waborne in the 5th of King Edward IV.

Sir Thomas left by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of John de Burley, Sir William Trussell who died lord in the 20th of Edward IV. father, by Margaret his wife, daughter of — Kene, of Sir Edward Trussell the last heir male of this family who married Margaret, daughter of Sir John Dun, Knt. and had by her Elizabeth, his sole daughter and heir, dying, as appears by the eschact rolls, in the 15th of Henry VII.

George Grey Earl of Kent gave 400 marks for the wardship and lands of this Elizabeth, a minor; and by his will appointed that she should be married to his son, Sir Henry Grey of Wrest in Bedfordshire, a younger son, by his second wife, the lady Catherine, daughter of the Earl of Pembroke, at their lawful years of marriage; leaving her with the said lady, before his death, for that purpose; but after his death, Richard Earl of Kent, his eldest son, by the Lady Anne, his first wife, took away the said Elizabeth by force from the Countess Catherine, his mother-in-law, at Harold in Bedfordshire, which she held in jointure, and gave her again freely to King Henry VII. her lands being worth 1000 marks per ann. and the King sold her wardship again for 2000 marks to John de Vere Earl of Oxford, who married her, and was lord of Waborne, &c. in her right.

In the 22d of Henry VII. inquisitions were awarded into Norfolk, Suffolk, Leicestershire, Northamptonshire, Shropshire, Essex, and Cheshire, to enquire what lauds came to the King's hands on the deaths of Sir William Trussell, Sir Edward Trussell, his son and heir, and John Trussell, Esq. his son and heir, and remained in his hands on account of the minority of the said John Trussell, Esq. (who died in the said year) and some accounts say that on April 29, in that year, the King granted the custody and marriage of Elizabeth Trussell, to John Earl of Oxford, on the condition of paying 387*l.* per ann. to the Crown during her minority: on the death of this Earl, in the 31st of Henry VIII. this lordship was valued at 27*l.* 18*s.* per ann.

In this family it continued till the 16th of Elizabeth, when a recovery of it was suffered by Edward Earl of Oxford, to John Lord Darcy, &c.

After this it was possessed by Sir Edward Clere, Knt. of Blickling, who was lord in the 22d of the said Queen, and sold by him to Sir Henry Hobart, Attorney General, whose son and heir, Sir John Hobart, Bart. settled it, November 1, in the 18th of King Charles I. on Philippa his daughter and coheir, afterwards married to his nephew, Sir Henry Hobart, Bart.

Besides this principal manor, Hugh Earl of Chester had invaded or seized on the properties of 12 freemen who held under King Harold, in this town, Kelling, Salthouse, and Botham, 3 carucates, &c. of land, &c. with 25 borderers holding 7 carucates, &c. as may be seen at large in Kelling, and was held of Hugh, by the aforesaid Ralph, at the survey.

Sir Thomas de Waborne lived in the time of King John, and had a lordship, in this town, in the 21st of Henry III. William de Waborne, son of Sir Thomas, by Albreda his wife, leased to the prior of Bynham all his lands, except what Richard de Grey held of his stepmother, the Lady Agnes, for 90 years, and gave lands to the said priory.² Thomas, son of William de Waborne, held, in the 34th of Henry III. a whole fee (and was not a knight) the third part of this town, and had the same privileges as Ralph de Meynggarn. In the 52d of that King, he was sued for pourpresture, the building a house on the public way, and the house was awarded to be pulled down.

² Neustria pia, p. 75.

In the said reign Luke de Brunningham held here and in Kelling, the sixth part of a fee of the heirs of Meyngaryn, and in the 9th of Edward I. John de Brunningham settled on Alice, wife of John de Waburne, lands by fine; and William de Waburne was found to hold a lordship in the 9th of Edward II. and a fine was levied in the 12th of that King between Alice, widow of Thomas de Waborn, and Agnes, widow of George, son of Thomas de Waborn, of lands settled on Agnes for life, remainder to Alice.

In the 3d of Henry IV. Sir William Clopton, Knt. was found to hold half a fee of the honour of Chester in this town: he married Frances, daughter of Sir William Trussell, widow of Sir Robert de Salle.

The CHURCH of Wayborne is dedicated to All-Saints, and was appropriated to the priory of Wayborn, valued at 30 marks; the prior of Westacre had a portion of tithe valued at 8s.

The abbey of St. Severus in Normandy, founded, as is said, by Hugh Earl of Chester, a portion of 2 marks.—Peter-pence 18d.

At the Dissolution this rectory was granted with the priory to John Heydon, Esq. and is an impropriation served by a stipendiary curate. The priory in this town was for canons of the order of St. Austin, dedicated to the Virgin Mary, and All-Saints; Sir Ralph Meynelwaryn of Cheshire is said to have founded it in the reign of Henry II. but it is more probable that Sir Ralph Meynelwaryn, who lived in the reign of King John, was the founder; this Sir Ralph was justice of Chester, and lord of this town, and married Amicia, a natural daughter of Hugh Cyvelioc Earl of Chester,³ who gave two knights fees with her in frank marriage; but it is more probable that she was a legitimate daughter.

It was at first subordinate to Westacre priory.

In the 12th year of King Henry III. a fine was levied between Rodland, prior or Weyborne, petent, William de Manywaryn, tenant of 30s. rent at Kessingland in Suffolk, which the prior claimed to be given him by the said William, and which he then granted to the prior to be held of Roger de Meynewaryn, Will. and Alice being to hold it for their lives; which concord is said to be made before Herbert de Alencon, then sheriff of Suffolk.

PRIORS.

Roger de Hoxne occurs prior in 1309: on his death a contest arose about the election of a prior, between Henry, the subprior, and canons of this house, and Henry the prior, and convent of Westacre, the subprior, &c. claiming the right of choosing a prior out of their body, or canons, and the prior, &c. of Westacre maintaining that the election should be of one of the canons of that house, after consent and license of election was granted them by the prior of Westacre, as had been time immemorial.⁴

This being put to arbitration, it was agreed that the right of choosing a prior should be in the priory of Waburne, out of their own canons or otherwise, as they thought proper, for ever; and it is ordered that an annual pension of 7s. 6d. be paid to the prior, &c. of Westacre, for ever: this agreement is dated Jan. 2, 1314, and was confirmed by the Bishop of Norwich, 7 ides of Jan. and after by the prior and convent.

Clement Styberd admitted prior July 3, 1482, and occurs prior 1494.

John Frost admitted June 15, 1526.

STAFFORD'S MANOR.

This was the capital manor, and soon after the survey came to the Giffards Earls of Bucks, and from them by marriage to the Earls of Clare and Gloucester.

Richerus de Docking was found to hold one fee and an half when the aid was granted in the 18th of Henry III. on the marriage of the King's sister to the Emperor, and by a fine levied in the 25th of that King, Thomas Fitz Robert, and Joan his wife released to Alvered le Chamberlain and Emme his wife, and the heirs of Emme, their right in the advowson of the church of Wiveton, and Emme granted to Thomas Fitz Robert and Joan 10s. per ann. payable out of their mill called Widhees Milne.

The Staffords were the capital lords till, on the death of Edward Stafford, Duke of Buckingham, beheaded for high treason in 1521, it came to the Crown, and on July 12, in the 14th of Henry VIII. that King granted it to Thomas Howard, Duke of Norfolk, and to his son and heir, Thomas Earl of Surry, and his heirs: the bailiff of the said Duke, in the 24th of that King, accounted for 48s. 4d. rent of assise; rent of moveables, capons, &c. 19d. farm of the demean lands 5l. 14s. 5d. ob. perquisites of court 14s. 11d. Argentou and Margaret his wife, Luke de Poynings, his son, and Thomas de Poynings, (who was under age and his body in the ward of his father, and his land in the ward of John Earl Warren, and of Roger de Somery.) the heirs of Sir Robert, were to warrant it.

In the 15th of Edward I. William de Grimesby was lord, and claimed frank pledge, assise, &c. and in the 9th of Edward II. Adam de Grimesby, John, son of Ralph de Glanford, settled on Adam, son of William de Grimesby and Agnes his wife, in 1290, lands, and a mill, with a messuage in this town by fine.

I find it sometime after valued at 4*l.* 13*s.* per ann. and the prior was obliged to do homage for it to the Earl of Arundel, and to pay 5*s.* relief in the 7th of Henry IV. in which year Sir Thomas Erpingham had license to sell it to the aforesaid priory.

On the dissolution of that priory it came to the Crown, and King Edward VI. on the 19th of June, in his 4th year, granted it to the Bishop of Norwich and his successors. The Bishop's bailiff accounted for 5*l.* 2*s.* 3*d.* rent of assise, 14*s.* 4*d.* for the demean lands, profits thereof for one year, from St. Michael A°. 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary to St. Michael A°. 4, and 5.

LAUNDITCH HUNDRED

TA K E S its name from a *Long Ditch*² with a bank that divides (as it is said) the two parishes of Longham, and Beeston, and runs north and south; where at the crossing of it by the Norwich road, the hundred court was anciently kept; and was given by the Conqueror to Alan son of Flaald, ancestor to the barons of Clun in Shropshire, (and Earls of Arundel after,) and granted by the said Alan to Seward, with the hundred of South Greenhow, and (as some records say) confirmed by William (Fitz Alan), son of Alan, to Durand, son of Ralph, son of Seward, on his paying 6l. per ann. rent for the two hundreds, and 8s. per ann. for lands in Wellingham, Sutton, and Bittering.

Alan, son of Flaald, had also with this (by grant of the Conqueror) the great lordship of Mileham, of which Stigand Archbishop of Canterbury was lord before the Conquest, and probably of this hundred also.

Robert de Fer, constable to King Henry II. and A. his wife, daughter of Hugh de Montfort, had some interest in lands near to this ditch, and granted to the monks of Castleacre the wood, grove, and land of Laundic, viz. the third part of the grove, of which William (de Pellita Villa) Pelleville, and Richard de Francaville, were parceners, and which William de Francavill confirmed to them.

In the 3d of Henry III. the King directed his writ to the sheriff of Norfolk, to deliver this hundred to Mary, widow of William Fitz-Alan, belonging to Mileham manor, which was her dower, and in the 6th of that king, it is said to be worth 6 marks per ann.

John Fitz Alan, Baron of Clun, held this hundred, with that of South Greenhow, in fee farm, paying 18s. 6d. per ann. and John le Strange was found to hold them of him at 6l. per ann. and with the said 18s. in the 34th of the said King.

This John le Strange was son of Ralph le Strange, by Agnes his

² This ditch, from which this hundred is said to take its name, (I have heard say,) begins at or near Wendling Carr, in which the Gressenhale river rises, and runs directly towards the low common, on which the river Nar takes its rise near Mileham: if the fact be true, it may afford matter of curious inquiry, particularly when that ditch was made, and for what purpose. Wendling Carr, and Mileham common were both in very early ages probably covered with water, as well as the low grounds adjoining to the two rivulets that rise respectively from them. Such we know from what we see at this day is usually the state of countries little cultivated, and if it was so here, and the remains of the ditch exists in the direction I am told it does, it was probably made to defend the country to the north and north-east of the Nar, and Wensum, of which last the Gressenhale brook is a branch.

wife, and Ralph was son of Duraud abovementioned, by his wife Prudentia.

By an inquisition taken in the 3d of Edward I. it was found, before the justices itinerant, Sir Robert de Hulmo, Sir R. de Caston, and Sir R. de Saham, that the stewards of the honour of Richmond had newly erected a sheriff's turn, and held two turns in this hundred of the tenants of that honour; after King Henry III. gave it to Peter de Savoy.

King Edward I. in his 14th year, sued the lord of this hundred, Richard Fitz Alan, then Earl of Arundel, as his right, and pleaded that Richard King of England (whose kinsman he was) held peaceably the same; but in the following year the jury for the hundred present, that John le Strange held it with that of South Greenhoe, paying yearly to the aforesaid Earl 6*l.* per ann. and to the King a fee farm rent of 48*s.*; and in the 33d of the said King, the jury present that John le Strange of Letcham, and Clementia his wife, held the same jointly till the 21st of May last past, when John died; this John was son of Sir John le Strange, by Isabella his wife, and he the son of Ralph le Strange.

In the 4th year of Edward II. Ralph, son of John le Strange of Lutcham conveyed by fine to John Fitz Gilbert, this hundred and that of South Greenhoe; this Ralph was brother and heir to John le Strange, eldest son of John le Strange, and Clementia; and in the 4th of Edward III. Robert Banard died seized of this hundred.

In the 21st of Richard II. on the attainder of Richard Earl of Arundel, these two hundreds abovementioned were granted by that King to his uncle, John Duke of Lancaster, and in the following year to Edmund Duke of York, on August 8.

After this I find them possessed by Thomas Mowbray Duke of Norfolk, who married Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Richard, and sister and coheir of Thomas, Earls of Arundel; and in the 1st of Edward IV. John Mowbray Duke of Norfolk died seized of the same, as one of the heirs of the Fitz Alans.

On the death of this Duke, and his daughter and heir Anne, they came, as I take it, to the Howard family, Dukes of Norfolk, as their heirs, Sir Robert Howard having married Margaret, daughter and coheir of Thomas Mowbray Duke of Norfolk, and Thomas Howard Duke of Norfolk had livery of this hundred in the 1st and 2d of Philip and Mary; and in Queen Elizabeth's reign, on the attainder of Thomas Duke of Norfolk, the Queen granted it A. 25. to William Dyr of Wickmere in Norfolk, Esq. for a certain term of years, then valued at 46*l.* per ann. and King James, in his first year, June 17. gave it to Thomas Lord Howard Earl of Surry, grandson to Thomas, late Duke of Norfolk, and Henry Howard, after Earl of Northampton.

It after came to the Baruells of Mileham, and the Rev. Mr. Charles Barnwell of Mileham is the present lord.

The tenths of this hundred amounted to 118*l.* 8*s.* 9*d.*—Deduct for lands belonging to abbies and other religious houses 13*l.* 16*s.* 4*d.* and paid by them.

BITTERING

WAS a beruite, or little lordship belonging to Archbishop Stigand's great manor, or honour of Mileham, and valued with it; here were 7 acres of wood, an acre of land and 4 borderers, which Godric claimed, as belonging to the fee of Ralph Earl of the East-Angles, or of Norfolk, (as forfeited on his rebellion against the Conqueror) this was held by a certain woman in King Edward's time, who was ready to put it on trial, or prove that the money it was mortgaged for was paid, though Siward held it still in mortgage;² but William de Noiers held it at the survey, with the manor of Mileham, of the King.

Here was also another lordship which Godric farmed of the King, with one in Mileham, where see an account of it; and these two fees made the townships of Bittering Magna and Parva.

Both these fees or tenures abovementioned came into the family of the Earls of Arundel with Mileham, of the grant of the Conqueror, to Alan, son of Flaald, as may be there seen.

William, son of Alan, granted to Durandus, son of Ralph, son of Siward, this lordship, with one in Wellingham, and Sutton; this Siward was ancestor of a family of Le Strange, as may be seen in Launditch hundred.

Jeffrey de Bittering was lord in the 3d and 15th of Edward I. had the assise, view of frank pledge, weif, and stray in his manor of Bittering Parva.

In the 30th of that King there was an exchange made between Richard Page of Bucklow in Suffolk, and Henry, son of Hamon of Bittering, whereby Page grants to Henry all his tenement, with the rents, wards, reliefs, eschaets, &c. in Bucklow aforesaid, with the advowson of that church, and in Sternefield, in Suffolk, Henry, &c. granting to Page all his tenement in Bittering, with the appertences, and 10 marks in his pocket, by deed dated at Bucklow, on the feast of Pentecost: but the manor appears to be still in the Bittering family, for in the 9th of Edward II. the Earl of Arundel, and John de Bittering of Bittering Parva, were returned to be lords; by which it appears that there were two lordships, Bittering Parva, and Bittering Magna, and in the said year, Richard Foliot was found, as lord of Gressenhale, to have a fee in the town of Bittering: so that I am inclined to think that Bittering Magna and Parva were both held of the Earl of Arundel, yet two distinct lordships, the first in the family of L' Estrange, and the other in that of De Bittering, as appears from Henry de Bitering's claim against Ralph L' Estrange, of the advowson of the church of Bittering Parva, held under the Earl of Arundel; and it further appears that the tenths of the Bitterings were joined to those of Gressenhale, and valued together at 6*l.* out of which 1*l.* was deducted, and sometimes with Becston, at 9*l.* &c.

John de Bittering, son of John de Bittering, sen. conveyed lands by fine to Robert de Bittering and Joane his wife: in 1338, John de Byteryng presented to the church as lord, but in 1349, Sir Robert de Causton presented, and in the 33d of Edward III. John de Berford and Saiera his wife granted by fine to Sir Ralph de Poley, and Sir William de Rushbrock, Knts. this manor and advowson, with a dove house, &c. and Sir Robert Knolles, Knt. settled the lordship of Bittering Parva, with the advowson, by fine levied in the 6th of Richard II. on his trustees, in order to the founding of Pomfret college in Yorkshire.

After this Bartholomew Pygot and Rose his wife settled it by fine in the 8th of Henry V. on Leonard Pigot and Margaret his wife in tail, remainder to Bartholomew and Rose, and the heirs of Rose; but in the 11th of Henry VI. Thomas Pygot, Esq. conveyed it by fine to Thomas Shouldham, Esq. with the advowson, which Simon Dycon and Margaret his wife held for the life of Margaret; and in the said year Simon Dycon and Margaret his wife passed it by fine to Sir John Clifton, Sir Robert Clifton, &c. with liberty of a foldcourse in Mileham; but in the said year it is also said that Rose, wife of Bartholomew Pygot of Stradsete, died seized of the manor of Bitering and the advowson, leaving Thomas Pygot, her son and heir 26 years old. Rose was the daughter of Sir Ralph Poley, by Alice his wife.

In the 33d of Henry VI. Sir And. Ogard, Knt. died seized of it: he married the daughter and heir of Sir John Clifton, but Robert Oker and Barbara his wife passed it by fine in the 17th of Edward IV. to Sir Robert Wingfield, who died seized of it, held of the manor of Mileham in the 21st of Edward IV.

Christopher Crow, the elder, by deed dated April 26, in the 37th of Elizabeth, in consideration of 200*l.* portion paid to Roger Bozoun, father of Elizabeth, and of an intended marriage between his son Christopher and the said Elizabeth, enfeoffed William Ruge of Bylaughe in Norfolk, Esq. &c. in all his manor of Bittering Parva, except 36 acres and an half of pasture in Mileham, parcel thereof.

In 1665, Heury Crowe presented to the church as lord, and in 1709, Robert Seaman, Gent. and again in 1711.

In 1730, Thomas Crow, Esq. M.D. was lord and patron: see in East Bilney.

The CHURCH of Bittering Magna has been many years dilapidated, but the place where it stood is called the churchyard. It is now an hamlet annexed to Gressenhale.

Temporalities of Fakenham-dam in 1428, valued at 10*l.* per ann.

The church of Bittering Parva is a rectory, anciently valued at 40*s.* and paid Peter pence 2*d.* the present valor is 2*l.* 13*s.* 5*d.* ob. and is discharged of tenths and first fruits.

This church is still standing, but much decayed, and has service in it only once a month; it is covered with thatch, has no steeple, or bell, and no pulpit, but a desk: in the chancel, which is also thatched, lie one or two grave-stones, with ancient crosses carved on them, for some of the rectors.

EAST BILNEY.

THIS town does not occur in the book of Domesday, being accounted for under the Earl Warren's lordship of Gressenhale, and that of the Bishop of Norwich's of Elmham, which took in all this town.

THE EARL WARREN'S FEE

Was possessed by Wimer, his dapifer: from his descendants it came to the Stutevills, &c.

William de Stutevile was lord here and of Gressenhale in the 8th of Henry III. and Richard Foliot, in the 9th of Edward II. and in this fee was the patronage of a moiety of this church till William de Stateville, by fine, in the 8th of Henry III. granted it to Pandulf Bishop of Norwich, on an exchange for the church of Brisley: from the Foliots it came to the Hastings, and the Le Stranges, as in the manor of Gressenhale, and Sir Nicholas Le Strange was lord in 1587.

BISHOP OF NORWICH'S FEE.

Walter Bishop of Norwich had a charter for free warren here, and in Elmham, in the 35th of Henry III. and in the see it remained till granted to Thomas Cromwell by King Henry VIII. after the exchange of the lands belonging thereto in 1535, as may be seen in Elmham; in this family it continued in 1593, when Edward Lord Cromwell presented to this church.

After this it came to the Athows, Christopher Athow, presenting in 1624, and in 1661; but in the year 1681, Christopher Crow, Esq. presented as lord,

This family was descended from Christopher Crowe, who died seized of lands here in the 26th of Henry VIII.

On an inquisition taken at Norwich, July 22, in the 1st of Elizabeth, Thomas Crowe was found to die seized of 39 acres and a rood of land in Mileham, part of the possessions of the priory of Hempton, held by the 60th part of a fee, and 36 acres and a rood held of the manor of Mileham in this town by socage; and Richard Crowe was his brother and heir, aged 56, son of Christopher Crowe.

Christopher Crowe, jun. son of Christopher of East-Bilney, Gent. in the 37th of Elizabeth, married Elizabeth, daughter of Roger Bozoun of Wissingset, Esq. and Christopher Crowe, Gent. was living in 1659.

Christopher Crowe, eldest son of Christopher Crowe, Esq. of East Bilney, died November 4, 1690, and was buried here, and Christopher Crowe, Esq. was lord about the year 1720.

After this Dr. Crowe, M. D. of London, whose sister marrying Mr. Monins of Norwich, a master weaver, had by him Christopher Monins, Esq. the present lord.

The temporalities of Walsingham priory, in 1428 were 15*l.*

The tenths were 2*l.* 14*s.*—Deduct 4*s.*

In this town was born Thomas Bilney, a learned divine of Cambridge, who was burnt at Norwich in King Henry the Eighth's reign, 1531, for preaching against the doctrines of the Popish church, as may be seen at large in Fox's Book of Martyrs. The register of Butley Priory, in Suffolk, after taking notice of him as an heretick, adds,—

Præsertim fuit p' totam Angliam vehementer scisma inter clericum et populum laicalem, viz. contra sacra ecclesiastica, et ritus clericorum ----- sacerdotum, necnon contra papam, et de indulgentijs, et excommunicationib;

Here also was born Andrew Pern, D. D. master of Peter-house in Cambridge, and dean of Ely in Queen Elizabeth's reign.

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Mary, and is a rectory, formerly valued at 6 marks, and paid Peter-pence 6*d.*; the present valor is 5*l.* 19*s.* 1*d.* ob. and is discharged of tenths, &c.

B E E S T O N .

EARL WARREN'S FEE.

IN the 22d of Edward I. Robert de Vere Earl of Oxford is said have the manor of Beeston in frank marriage, with Joane his daughter, to William, son of John Earl Warren and Surry; ³ but how it came to belong to the Earl of Oxford does not appear: probably this was a part of the manor of Sporle, which at the survey was in the King's hands, and farmed of him by Godric, and so this part is included therein, not being mentioned in Domesday: of this see in Dunham Parva.

In the Warren family it after plainly appears to be, and continued so, till on the death of John Earl Warren, in 1347, when it descended to the Fitz Alans Earls of Arundel, together with Castleacre, as his heirs, and so was united to the manor that they held in this town.

BEESTON MANOR, (ARUNDEL FEE,)

Was a part of Mileham great lordship, and is included under the account of that town, and granted together with it, by the Conqueror, to Alan, son of Flaald, ancestor to the Earls of Arundel.

In the 30th of Edward I. Richard Earl of Arundel was found to hold this town, and that of Mileham, by one knight's fee, and were valued at 57*l.* 5*s.* 9*d.* per ann.; what has been said of Mileham need not be here repeated, but I refer the reader to the history of that town.

From the Fitz Alans Earls of Arundel it was conveyed to Sir Thomas Gresham, and by his executors to the Barnwells, the Rev. Mr. Charles Barnwell of Mileham being lord of this town.

CANKEWELL'S MANOR

Takes its name from the Cankewells, lords of Castleacre Newton; Baldwin de Cankewell was valet to John de Burgh, son and heir of Hubert Earl of Kent, who gave him the manor of Newton; the said Baldwin held this in the time of Henry III. and Michael, his son, in the 15th of Edward I. as a part of Mileham manor, under the Earls of Arundel.

In the 14th of Edward II. John, son of William de Beston, conveyed it by fine to John de Leche and Alice his wife, daughter of the aforesaid Michael, and Hamo, son of John, son of John de Leche of Newton, held it, and was found to die seized of 3 messuages, 66 acres of land in Beeston, and Mileham, by the service of the 40th part of an ob of gold, (that is the 40 part of 3 carrats of gold, and was then held of him by a family called De Beeston.) in the 9th of Edward III. and Philip Hakeman of Tilney and Joan his wife, conveyed by fine, in the 30th of Edward I. one messuage, and 70 acres of land in this town, Mileham, Kempton, &c. to Edmund, son of Ralph le Leche of Beeston, and Margaret his wife.

The temporalities of the priory of Castleacre were valued in 1428, at 7s. 6d.; of Westacre priory at 4s. 6d.; of Wendling abbey at 10s.

The tenths of this town with those of Bittering were 9l. Deducted 17. 10s.

The CHURCH is a rectory, dedicated to St. Mary, anciently valued at 33 marks, and paid Peter-pence 2d. ob. the present valor is 12l. 19s. 10d.

1734, Charles Barnwell, by Charles Barnwell, Gent.

I find John Barne, rector about 1554, and John Thompson, in 1556. John Clement, priest, gave to John Skinner, Maggot's close in Beeston, to him and his heirs, by will dated November 2, 1504,⁴ paying yearly to the church reeves of Beeston, to the helping of the common charges of the said town, 2s. and to discharge the same against the lord and the king.

⁴ Reg. Rix, Norw. p. 73.

William Hook of Beeston gave by will 2 acres of land at the end of the green, abutting west on Brouger's Green, to keep his anniversary yearly, 1506.³

Robert Kett, alias Knight, gave certain houses to the poor of this town in 1601, 20*l.* to the repair of the pinnacle and of the steeple, and 40*s.* wherewith the high window above the rood loft was glazed.

Here were the guilds of St. Mary, St. John Baptist, and of the Trinity, also the lights of St. Mary, the Holy Cross, and that of the Sepulchre.

The church was founded in memory of the Nativity of the blessed Virgin, and on the 8th of September a feast used to be kept by the inhabitants, and on a window was,

Orute specialiter p. salubri statu fratrum et soror. gilde gloriose Virginis Marie, cujus honori hæc dedicatur eccl'ia, et omnium viventium benefactor. corund et p. a'ab; omnium fratrum et soror. defunctor. ejusd. gilde, ut etiam p. a'ab; defunctor. benefactor. corund. qui proprijs expensis et pecunijs eidem gilde habende largitis, has octo fenestras vitro fieri devote curaverunt A. 1410.

The church is a regular pile, with a nave and two isles, covered with lead, (the chancel tiled,) with a tower, and thereon a shaft, or spire, and 4 bells.

There are two chapels, one on the north side called our Ladie's, and one on the south called St. John's.

On a grave-stone with a brass plate, in the chancel,

Johannes Forbye, artium magister, atq; hujus ecclesie rector, hæc tabulas, hæc sacraria atq; subsellia refecit, et sacris posuit, non prophanis aut secularibus usibus. Mors mihi vita.

Over the door in the north isle are these old rhimes, in old letters:

This Share doth shew this manor fine,
A Share it is, not money mine.
This many hundred years, you understand,
A Share to be a fine, for taking up of land.

Under this is the figure of a plough-share, and the words about it,

Beeston Fine—Lord Barnwell—See thou keep it.

The custom of the manor is for all copyholders to pay on every death, or alienation, a plough-share, or 2*s.*

On the screen also is a B. a ploughshare, and a ton, an old rebus for Beeston.

Every Christmas day 20*s.* is distributed to the poor in bread, as in Mileham, and by the same donor, also 20*s.* for a sermon on Good Friday.

WAS a beruite, or little manor, going along with, and depending on the Bishop of the East-Angles' capital manor of Elmham, and held by William Beaufoe Bishop of Thetford, in 1085; when there was one carucate of land, and 7 villains, 10 acres of meadow, one carucate in demean, and two might be restored, 2 carucates amongst the tenants, and one soeman, with 26 acres, a carucate and an acre and half of meadow, &c. this beruite was 8 furlongs long, and 4 broad, and was valued in Elmham.⁶

Walter Bishop of Norwich was lord in the 35th of Henry III. and had a charter for free warren.

On the exchange of manors and lands between King Henry VIII. and the Bishop of Norwich, it was granted (with Elmham as may be there seen) to Thomas Cromwell, who was afterwards Earl of Essex, and Edward Lord Cromwell, his descendant, sold it in the 40th of Eliz. with the advowson, to John Athow, and Christopher Crow, of East Bilney, Esq. purchased it of the Athows.

The lands here and in Elmham, with 2 acres in Tibenham, belonging to the late monastery of St. Faith's of Horsham in Norfolk, and 3 acres also in Heveringland, &c. granted by Queen Elizabeth, August 2, A°. 27, to Theoph. Adams, and Thomas Butler of London, Gent.

The tenths 3*l.* 12*s.* 0*d.*

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Mary Magdalen, and is a rectory, anciently valued at 18 marks, paid Peter-pence 9*d.*; it was not visited by the archdeacon, and paid no procurations, being the Bishop's lordship; the present valor is 9*l.* 7*s.* 9½*d.* and is discharged of first fruits and tenths.

Here is a nave with 2 isles, covered with lead, and a chancel tiled, and a square tower, with three bells.

B R I S L E Y.

THE name of this town does not occur in Domesday Book, as being included under the account of the Bishop of Thetford's capital manor of Elmham, to which township it joins. Many have fancied and concluded that if a town was not mentioned in the aforesaid book, that it was not then in being; but the design of that survey is to account for all the manors that were held at that time in capite, and as that is done under Elmham, there was no reason to mention this village, it being quite unnecessary.

That it was a part of the Bishop's manor of Elmham aforesaid appears also from a writ, or mandate of King Henry I. to Roger Bigot, (father of Hugh Bigot Earl of Norfolk) and Ralph Passelewe, to take care that Herbert Bishop of Norwich should hold all his land, as well as his men in Bruselea, and Alwyn, son of Flotein, his man, and others, with all their effects, &c. in the same manner as the Bishop held it, at any time in his brother's (viz. William II.) life, and at his death.*

In the 4th year of King Henry III. there was an assise to enquire who presented the last rector to the church of Brisle, which William de Stutevile, lord of Gressenhale, claimed against Pandulph Bishop of Norwich elect; the Bishop moved that he and his successors ought not to be impleaded, unless in the presence of the King, (his bench,) or justiciary, and if the King or his justiciary was not present he would not answer to it.

Walter Bishop of Norwich had a grant of free warren here in the 35th of Henry III. and in the 3d of Edward I. the Bishop had the assise, and other liberties from the Conquest.

On the exchange of the Bishop's lands in King Henry the Eighth's reign, it was granted with the manor of Elmham, to Thomas Cromwell, after Earl of Essex.

Richard Warner of Elmham, Esq. died lord: see there.

The honour and manor of Gressenhale also extended into this town, and in the 8th of Henry III. Pandulf Bishop of Norwich, by fine levied, granted to William de Stutevile, Lord of Gressenhale, the advowson of this church, the moiety of the patronage of the church of Bilney being granted by William to the Bishop.

Jordan Fohiot claimed free warren in his demesns here, A^o. 15 Edward I. after this it came to the Hastings and so to the Le Stranges, as may be seen in Gressenhale; and Sir Henry L' Strange, Knt. of Hunstanton, is the present lord of this fee, and patron of the church.

The tenths were 6*l.*—Deduct 6*s.* 8*d.*

THE CHURCH is a regular pile, with a nave, a north and south isle, covered with lead, the chancel tiled, with a lofty embattled square tower, and four bells.

C O L K I R K.

THIS lordship was in the Bishops when the see was at Elnham, and held at the survey by William de Beaufoe Bishop of Thetford: when Ailmer Bishop of Elnham held it, there were 2 carucates in demean, one villain, 12 borderers, 4 servi, paunage for 55 swine, 4 acres of meadow, 7 cows, &c. 10 sheep, at the survey, 160 goats, a church endowed with 40 acres valued at 2s. and 14 socmen had 66 acres, and 3 carucates, then valued at 6*l.* at the survey at 9*l.* it was 5 furlongs long and 4 broad, and paid 11*d.* gelt.⁹

Aifastus, or Herfast, Bishop of Elnham, had seized on a wood called Fangeham, containing 60 acres; this was granted in fee to Bishop Beaufoe, who gave it to his see, and so was united to the manor aforesaid.

In Domesday Book it is wrote Colechirca; Col bespeaks some brook or rivulet, and gives name to many townes; as Colbrook in Midlsex; Colby in Norfolk; and Coleshill from the river Cole in Warwickshire, &c.

The adjunct Chirca may set forth a clear stream, or water, as Sherburn in Dorsetshire, and Sherbrook in Derbyshire, &c. and not from its site near a church or Kirk, it being so called by the Saxons before their conversion to Christianity.

The word kirk itself denotes a brook, or stream of water, as Kirkburn in Yorkshire, Kirkstead in Lincolshire, Kirkdale in Lancashire, &c.

The family of De Colekirk was early enfeofft of this manor by the Bishops of Norwich,¹ and so, according to the practice of that age, assumed their name from it; Richard de Colekirk, with William and Richard his sons, were witnesses to a charter of Eborard Bishop of Norwich, in the time of Henry I. William de Colecherch was lord of this town, and of Hempsted, in the 12th of Henry II. and in his 18th year held two knights fees, of the old feoffment of the Bishop of Norwich:² of this family might be Peter de Colechurch, who begun to build the stone bridge of London in 1176.

Sara, the heiress of Colechurch, on her marriage, brought it to the family of St. Denys (de Sancto Dionysio,) and Roger de St. Denys, probably husband of the said Sarah, held it in the 2d of King John: in the 13th year, he was found to have this lordship, late William de Colekirk's, and paid 10s. scutage, for half a fee.³

Sir Richard de St. Denys, Knt. was his son, and lord in the 29th of Henry III. By a deed dated on the feast of the Invention of the Holy Cross, in the 43d of that King, Sir Richard de St. Denys covenants with Sir Richard de la Rokele, Knt. to confirm to him in fee this lordship, with the advowson of the church of Rokely, granting to him and Meliora his wife the manor of Wokindon in Essex, excepting the advowson, wards, eschaets and fines, and certain lands in that town, &c. part of the said manor, with license for St. Denys and his wife, to hunt in the warren, and fish in the fish-ponds of the said manor, but not to sell the game, and that he might amerce the tenants, and take the revenues, but not to levy tallage on them; St. Denys to maintain the buildings of the manor-house, who also covenants to deliver seisin of Colkirk, to Rokele, before the Monday after the feast of St. John, Port Latine, following the same; witnesses, Sir John de Vaur, Sir Ralph de Camois, Sir William le Blund, Sir Hamon Burd, Sir Ralph de Gatele, Sir Reginald de St. Martin, Sir William de Wokendon, Sir Ralph de Pavill, Knts. &c. and in the said year he granted to Rokele the reversion of one carucate of land, which Mabel his daughter formerly held, and the lands which Joane, widow of Roger de St. Denys, held in dower, and 40s. rent which John de St. Denys, son of John de Colkirke, held of his gift for life only, and sent his tenants of the manor notice thereof, by his precept dated at Wokyndon, May 8.

But Roger Le Ken and Jean his wife, with John Mansel and Isabel, had still some right herein, which they conveyed for 40 marks of silver to Rokele, in the 4th of Edward I. by fine.

Sir Richard de la Rokele was found to die seized of it by the service of 3 fees, valued at 3*l.* and chattels valued at 9*l.* in the 24th of the said King, and Richard was his son and heir, who by the eschaet rolls died in the 32d of the aforesaid reign, lord of this town, held by two parts of three knights fees, with Margery his wife, who survived him, valued at 20*l.* and of the lordship of Gateley valued at 5*l.* 4s. per ann. leaving Maud his sister and heir, the 3d part of these manors being held in jointure by his mother, whose name seems to be Cecilia.

Maud, sister and heir to her brother, appears to have married Sir Roger de Frazino, or Atte-Ash: in the 35th of Edward I. he and Maud had a writ ad quod damnum, for changing a way in this town, and died lord in the 1st of Edward II. leaving Lucia his daughter and heir, aged 2 years, who afterwards was the wife of Robert Baynard, son of Robert Baynard of Whetacre: and in the 3d of Edward III. Robert Baynard and Lucia, by a fine levied between them and Symon, parson of Whetacre, Adam de Sheringham, and John de L'Esh, settled on John, this manor and advowson, and the manor of Gateley, with messuages and lands in Gunthorp and Field-Dalling, paying to Robert for life 40 marks per ann. out of this, and 20 marks out of Gateley manor per ann. and in the next year this manor was settled by fine on Lucia for life, remainder to Thomas Baynard, son of Lucia, and Maud and Joan his sisters; remainder to Lucia's heirs.

On an inquisition taken April 16, in the 4th of Edward III. Robert Baynard was found to die seized of it for life, by the courtesy of England, being the inheritance of Lucia his wife, late deceased, held of the Bishop of Norwich of his manor of North Elmham, by the service of paying at the end of every 32 weeks 10*d.* castle guard.

The lordship then had a capital messuage, 160 acres of arable land at 4*d.* per acre, 3 acres of meadow at 12*d.* per acre, 10 acres of pasture at 1*d.* per acre, 20 of underwood at 6 years growth worth 3*s.* per acre; rent of assise 53*s.* 4*d.* payable at Christmas, Whitsuntide, and Michaelmas; a windmill valued at 10*s.* per ann. also 40 quarters of barley at 2*s.* 8*d.* per quarter, payable at St. Michael, 50 hens payable at Christmas, at 1*d.* per hen, the day's work of the copyholders worth 10*s.* per ann. pleas and perquisites of the court baron, with court lete 10*s.* per ann.; he likewise held the manor of Gateley, and the moiety of that of Batheley.

In the 16th of Edward III. it appears that Sir Edmund de Thorp, lord of Ashwell-Thorp, held this manor in right of Joan his wife, sister and heir of Thomas Baynard, by virtue of a fine levied in the 6th of the said King: in this family it remained till Isabel, daughter and co-heir of Sir Edmund de Thorp, (the last heir male of the family, being killed in the wars of France, about the end of King Henry V.) brought it by marriage to Philip Tilney, Esq. of Boston in Lincolnshire, whose son Fredenick, by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of Lawrence Cheney, Esq. of Ditton in Cambridgeshire, left a daughter and heir, Elizabeth, who married Sir Humphrey Bouchier, eldest son of John Lord Berners, slain at Barnet Field on Easter day, 1471, on the part of King Edward IV. Sir John Bouchier, son and heir of Sir Humphrey, inherited it as heir to his mother, and was summoned to parliament as Lord Berners in the reign of Henry VII. and left by Catharine his wife, daughter of John Howard Duke of Norfolk (at his death in 1539, two daughters and coheirs, Mary, who died without issue, and Jane, married to Edmund Knevet, Esq. serjeant porter to King Henry VIII. who had livery of this lordship in the 25th of that King; and in 1560, being a widow, gave then by will this manor to William, and that of Gateley to Edmund Knevet, &c. her younger sons, who both joined and sold Colkirk and Gateley to their nephew, Sir Thomas Knevet of Ashwell-Thorp, who with his eldest son, Thomas Knevet, Esq. conveyed them to Michael Hare, Esq. of Stow Bardolph,* on July 8, in the 33d of Elizabeth.

About this time, by a rental of this lordship, it appears that there were 275 acres of pasture ground inclosed, 247 of arable, 40 acres in copyswood, free rents per ann 58s. 6d. 246 acres of copy-hold land fine at the lord's pleasure, 9l. 10s. 8d. rent barley per ann 6 quarters, lacking half a bushel, at 8s. the quarter, 47s. 6d. rent capons 17s. rent hens 5, 2s. 6d. with feed for 400 and a half of sheep, in the shack from harvest ended to the annunciation of our Lady next after, at 2d. per sheep 4l. 1s. the patronage of the parsonage valued at 40l. per ann. communibus annis, common, or waste ground 40 acres, perquisites of court and letc communibus annis 3l. 0s. 8d.—Item, there are diverse bondmen regardant to the said manor, and do yearly pay the chevage.

Michael Hare, Esq. aforesaid, by his will dated July 15, 1609, gives this lordship and that of Gateley to his brother Robert Hare, for life, and then to Nicholas Timperley, Esq. his nephew; and the said Robert died seized November 2, in the 9th of James I. and Nicholas his nephew was then found to be the son and heir of Thomas Timperley, Esq. by Audrey his wife, daughter of Sir Nicholas Hare of Brusyard in Suffolk, and sister of Michael and Robert Hare aforesaid.

This Nicholas died on January 1, 1623, and left by Anne his wife, daughter and coheir of William Markham, Esq. of Oakley in Northamptonshire, Thomas, his son and heir, who succeeded him as lord of this town and Gateley: he was afterwards a knight, and by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of John Shelley, Esq. of Sussex, left two sons, Michael, and Nicholas, which Nicholas died in 1658, and was buried here, as I shall show; also in the church lies buried William Timperley who died in 1650, and Nicholas Timperley, Esq. who died September 24, 1662.

The last of this family who enjoyed this estate was ----- Timperley, Esq. who about the year 1721, sold it to Henry Kelsal, Esq. of the treasury, and having wasted most of his estates and fortunes, and being a Roman Catholic, went abroad, and lived in some convent.

The present lord is the Lord Viscount Townsend.

The Timperleys descend from Thomas Timperley, Esq. of Bowdon, in Cheshire, who removed thence into Suffolk in the reign of Henry VI. and had John his son and heir, who married Margaret, daughter and heir of Roydon, and is buried in the chancel of Hintlesham church in Suffolk, under a blue marble stone, with his portraiture and that of his wife, on a brass plate, with an inscription setting forth that he was heir and lord of Hyntlesham, and died in 1460: he was father of John and Nicholas.⁵ John married a daughter of ----- Tydd of Weston, and left a daughter and heir, Elizabeth, wife of Firmin Rookwood of Weston, in Northfolk.

Nicholas, the 2d son of John, died before his father, and had William Timperley, Esq. of Hentlesham, his son and heir, who lies buried under a marble stone there, and died March 10, 1527; ⁶ and his son, Thomas Timperley, Esq. with Audrey his first wife, and Katharine his 2d; also Nicholas his son, with Anne his wife, lie there buried.

I have also met with Robert Timperley, who married Joane, found in the 10th of Edward IV. to be daughter and heir of Robert Fitz-Simon.

⁵ Nicholas Tymperley, Esq. lies buried in the church of Buxhall in Suffolk, where it is said he died May 20, 1489.

The temporalities of Fakenham-dam (or Hempton) 2*s.* 4*d.*; of Norwich priory, in pasture, 12*d.*

I find also 12*d.* per ann. paid to the fraternity (or preceptory) of Kerbroke.

The Church is dedicated to the Virgin Mary, and was a rectory valued at 30 marks per ann. Present valor 10*l.*

There was formerly a vicar under the rector, who was presented by the prior of Wayburne. Peter-pence 12*d.*; and has 5 bells.

In 1346, all the altarage profits were assigned for the support of the vicar, and all the lands wherewith the church was endowed, except the site of the rectory, and 3 roods of land opposite to it, to the south.

A mansion was also to be built within six years, at the charge of the convent of Waburne, and liberty of fishing in the pool against the rectory; 40*l.* per ann. for wine, at the altar; and the repair of the chancel, &c. to be in the convent.

On the north wall of the chancel is a monument with the arms of Timperley, and this motto, Prævide, provide, ne præveniare.

And,

Here at the foot of this wall resteth the body of William Timperley, who died 10 of May, 1660.

Reader,

*However young and strong, be not in breath
Too confident, since by untimely death
(A pistol breaking in his hand) lies here,
A Timperley was slain; rather a tear
Distill, then judge, since he so worthy dies,
Rather let fall another from thine eyes
And (serious) say (ask not a reason why)
Better dye soon, then longer live and dye.*

And on the said wall a mural monument of black and white marble, with the arms of Timperley.

Nicholas Timperley, Esq; died September 24, 1664. Anne Barker, sister to Nicholas, died May 8, 1662.

⁷ Reg. Walsing. 113.

*Successive nights and days we had on earth
Extracted from one womb, a second birth
Here sleeping we expect day without night,
To wake (we hope) into eternal light.*

Against the south wall, on a mural monument, an hour-glass with wings, a pearl, and an eye with wings, and these verses,

*Lo Time!—Pearl,—Eye, a rebus, which to thee
Speaks what I whilom was, a Timperley.
Wing'd Time is flown, so is the world from me,
A glittering Pearl whose gloss is vanity:
But th' Eye of hope is of a nobler flight,
To reach beyond thee (Death) enjoy his sight,
Who conquer'd thee, hence springs my hope, that I Shall rise the same, and more a Timperley.*

Also a stone,

In memory of Nicholas Barker, Esq; who died the first of January, 1660, with the arms of Barker, barry of ten, or, and sable, a bend over all, gules.

Within the rails of the communion table, a gravestone,

In memory of Anne Jessop, wife of Mr. John Jessop, minister of Colkirk, daughter of John Hills, gent. and grandchild to Sir John Potts, baronet, who died February 28, 1659.

DUNHAM PARVA.

OF this town we meet with no account in the book of Domesday, it being part of the King's manor of Sporle, and farmed of him by Godric, and so is accounted for under Sporle:³ it remained royal demeans till King Henry I. granted it, together with Sporle, to Baldwin de Bosco or Bois, who on the marriage of his daughter and coheir Hildeburgh, granted it to Henry de Vere, and Henry granted it to Sir Ralph de Briston, who gave it William le Briston, and John his son and heir.

³ Of the family of Briton, Rivers, &c. Norf. vol. vi. p. 113. see at large in Sporle, Blomfield's Hist.

In the 5th of Henry III. Alianore, widow of Reginald de Dunham possessed lands here.

This family held the lordship under the Britons. John de Dunham was found to hold a quarter of a fee here and in Beeston, under Sir John de Breton; and in the 15th of Edward I. John de Dunham claimed the assise of his tenants, weyf, and other royal privileges in this town.

John de Dunham, by fine levied, settled it on Sir John de Briton and Maud his wife, with all its services and rents.

Sir John was a parliamentary baron in the 29th of that King, and in the 33d one of the justices of trail baston, whose son John died seized in 1311, leaving Maud his sister and heir, the wife of Richard de la River, of Ongar in Essex, who became lord in her right, and of Sporle.

In the 5th of Edward III. Sir Richard de River settled the reversion of it on Thomas his son, and Alice, daughter of John de Loudham, in tail, (his intended wife,) remainder on John and Ralph, brothers of Thomas.

Sir Richard died before the 10th of that King, Maud being then his widow; and Sir Thomas de la River was lord in the 20th of that King.

Thomas de Batesford presented to this church in 1338, in right of Maud aforesaid, then his wife.

In the 49th of Edward III. Sir Robert Swillington, Knt. and Margaret his wife, John Garleke and Sarah his wife, conveyed by fine, this lordship, to Sir Robert Corbet, senior, and Beatrix his wife, the said Beatrix, Margaret, and Sarah, being daughters of Sir Richard de la River, and sisters and coheirs of Sir Thomas: this Sir Robert, senior, died seized of it, as appears from the escheat rolls, in the 6th of Henry IV. leaving Robert his son, aged 40, and bore two barrulets, and on a canton a lion passant.

Robert his son was also a knight and lord of this town, and of Assington in Suffolk, and dying without issue male in 1438, left Sybill his daughter and heir, who married John Grevill, Esq. son of ——— Grevill, a merchant, at Camlden in Gloucestershire, and dying without issue in the 23d of Henry VI. Guy Corbet,⁹ her uncle, became lord of this town and Assington, and by Joan his wife, daughter of Sir Edmund Thorp the elder, of Ashwell Thorp, had Sir Robert Corbet, his son and heir, who married Elizabeth, daughter of ——— Dorward of Rocking, in Essex, who, with his wife, settled this lordship, by fine, in the 53d of the said King, on Sir John Fortescue, Knt. lord chief justice of the King's Bench, and John Prisot, chief justice of the Common Pleas.

This Sir Robert was father of Robert Corbet, Esq. who married

Maud, daughter of the aforesaid Sir John Fortescue; and after married (during the said Maud, his first wife's life, forsaking her) Lettice, daughter of John Shirewood, of Coventry, and left issue by her Robert and Alice; his first wife, Maud, surviving him, from whom he never was divorced; upon this, Roger Corbet, Esq. his brother, 2d son of Sir Robert aforesaid, made an entry into his lands, as next and legal heir, but Lettice aforesaid, having married ——— Talboys, a servant to Thomas Rotherham, Archbishop of York, and Chancellor of England, Roger sued him in the spiritual court of Canterbury, and Talboys procuring a prohibition, Roger appealed to Rome, and a writ was directed by Rotherham, to Roger, of Ne exeat regnum; upon this, Roger was laid up in the counter two years, but being enlarged in the last year of King Edward IV. died presently after.

It appears that Maud, first wife, had a jointure of 20 marks per ann. out of this manor: she retired, and lived in the nunnery of Hellenstow in Bedfordshire, and died there.

It further appears, that Sir Rich. Corbet aforesaid, left also two daughters, sisters of Robert and Roger Corbet; Blanch, married to Humphrey Conyngsby of Neen-Solers in Shropshire, and Elizabeth to William Leighton of Little Wenlock in the said county; but I do not find they ever had any interest in, or inherited this manor.

In the 12th year of Edward IV. during the suits abovementioned, Margaret Corbet, sister of Sir Robert Corbet, deceased, father of Robert and Roger, died, having sold this lordship to John Coket, senior, and in 1479, the said John presented to this church, and in 1481, Thomas Cocket presented.

In the 10th of Henry VII. John Cocket was found to die lord of it, and John was his son and heir. Thomas Coket, Esq. was lord in 1511, and presented.

In 1515, Robert Coraunt, and in 1541, Edmund Bockyng presented in right of Elizabeth his wife; in 1556, Richard Bockyng and John Calybut, and John Calybut, Esq. in 1562; in 1583, Edmund Bockyng and Philip Audley, Esq. which Philip married Margaret, eldest daughter and coheir of John Calybut, Esq.

From Philip Audley it came to Sir Edward Coke, who was lord in 1601. Sir Edward, by deed, dated November 4, in the 15th of James I. settled it, with Thornham Bishop's in Norfolk, and Elnham, &c. on Frances his daughter, fourth wife of Sir John Filliers, after Viscount Parbeck, after his and his wife's death; and she presented in 1640. On her death it came to Robert Danvers, Esq. son of the Lord Viscount Parbeck aforesaid, by his 2d wife, Elizabeth, daughter of Sir William Slingsby of Kippax in Yorkshire, Kut. of whom she was privately delivered, and he was for a long time called Robert Wright.¹

This Robert taking to wife the daughter and heir of Sir John Danvers, one of the murderers of King Charles I. obtained a patent from Oliver Cromwell, to change his name to Danvers, and died seized of this lordship February 18, 1657, but not without issue, as Dugdale says.

In 1682, Sir William Raxstern, Kut. presented as lord, and in 1692, John Turner, third son of William Turner, attorney, is said to have bought it of Francis Drury; but in 1708, Thomas Rogers, Esq. of Cley

by the Sea, possessed it, and presented to the church, and his son
 _____ Rogers, Esq. of Norwich, is the present lord.

The manor once possessed by the Turners was sold by Sir John Turner, to Mr. Backler; the site is in Great Dunham manor, Roger's is in Little Dunham, and does not seem to have belonged to the Turners, unless the Turners had two manors.

The tenths were 5l. 16s. 11d.—Deduct 1l.

The honour or manor of Hokering extended into this town: see in Scarning and Swanton Morley in this hundred.

In the 19th of Edward I. Godfrey de Beaumont held here, in Scarning, &c. four fees of the aforesaid honour, and in the 9th of Edward II. Walter de Langton and Joan Beaumont were found to hold lands in this town, Scarning and Fransham, by four fees, of John le Marshall.

The CHURCH is a rectory dedicated to St. Margaret, the old valor was 18 marks, and paid Peter-pence 5d. ob. the present valor is 9l. 15s. 11d. ob. and is discharged.

In 1431, I find a legacy to the new building of the tower.

In the 18th of Edward I. Sir John de Briton had the patronage of it.

DUNHAM MAGNA MANOR,

ARUNDEL'S FEE, OR HARSICK'S MANOR,

So called from its site, Dun signifying a hill, or rising ground. It was at the survey a beruite to the manor or honour of Milcham, which William de Noiers held or farmed under the Conqueror, who seized on it, on the deprivation of Archbishop Stigand, who was lord in the reign of the Confessor, when there belonged to it 4 carucates of land, 19 villains, 8 borderers, 2 servi, paunage for 20 swine, with one acre of meadow, and 8 socmen held 34 acres of land, with a borderer, and one acre of meadow; there was also then a carucate and an half in demean, and a carucate and an half amongst the tenants or men; 2 animals, or cows, &c. and there belonged to it the moiety of a market, and half an acre of land in Thetford, and 2 socmen, and 2 borderers had 40 acres of land, and a carucate, the whole, including the manor of Milcham, and the beruite of Licham, was valued in King Edward's time at 30*l.* at the survey 60*l.*

It was three leucas long and one broad, and paid 20*l.* to a 20*s.* gelt, whoever may have it.²

This was granted, soon after this account of it, to Alan son of Flaald, ancestor of the Fitz Alaus Earls of Arundel, of whom see at large in Milcham, to which we refer the reader.

Alice, widow of Eudo de Arsic, held here and in Southacre, in the reign of Henry III. one fee of the honour of Milcham, and Sir Roger Harsick held it under the Earl of Arundel in the 3d of Edward I. and the moiety of a weekly mercate on Saturday, with the assise, and view of frank pledge: and in the 2d of Edw. II. John de Harsike had a charter of free warren.

In the 28th of Edward III. Sir John Harsik settled by fine on Thomas

On the death of Sir Roger Harsike in 1454, who married Alice, daughter of Nicholus Witchingham of Fishley, in Norfolk, Esq. it came to his two daughters and coheirs, Margaret and Jane; and on a division of the Harsike's estate, this was assigned to Jane, the youngest, who married Richard Dorward, Esq. (third son of John Dorward, Esq. serjeant at law and speaker of the House of Commons) by whom he had a daughter and sole heir, Margaret, who was the wife of Sir John Wingfield, fourth son of Sir John Wingfield of Letheringham in Suffolk, and in her right was lord of this village, and dying in the beginning of Henry the Eighth's reign, was buried in the chancel of Dunham church, as was his lady in or about 1509.

ROUS'S MANOR

Was part of the Lord Bardolph's manor of Litcham which extended into this town, (of which see in Litcham;) and East Lexham, and was held by Richard Rouse in the reign of Henry III. and by Alan his son, in the 15th of Edward I. who with Jordan Foliet claimed a moiety of a weekly mercate on Saturday, with the Arsicks, who had the other moiety.

From the Rous's it came to the Lexhams, and after to the Munde-fords, by marriage of the heiress of De Lechesham or Lexham, and the heirs of Osbert Mundford were found in the 4th of Henry IV. to hold the manor of Rous in Dunham, and East Lexham, by half a fee.

William de Rothing, who had a lordship in Wellingham of the lord Baynard's fee, had also a lordship belonging to the same fee in this town, and claimed, in the 15th of Edward I. a weekly mercate in Dunham Magna on Wednesday, and a fair yearly on the vigil, the day, and day after St. Margaret.

The Earl Warren's manor or honour of Gressinghale extended also into this town. Wimerus, lord of Gressenhale, gave the patronage of the church to Castleacre priory: this was after held by the Stutviles, Foliots, Hastings, &c.

At the survey, Ralph de Tony had one socman, who held 30 acres and a half of land under Herold in King Edward's time, with four borderers and one carucate; this was valued under his capital manor of Necton.³

It was part of Sparham-Hall in Necton, and was called Corbet's or Churchman's manor, and held by Sir John le Briton in the 3d of Edward I. and by Ralph Churchman, in Richard the Second's time, and after by the Cockets, in the 1st of Edward VI. In 1633, Henry Beke purchased it of Osbert Prat, and Jeremy Beke, his son enjoyed it.

The temporalities of Castleacre priory were in 1428, 4s. 4d.—West-acre 12d.—Langley priory 4s. 2d.—Walsingham priory 8d.

In the 3d of Elizabeth, September 15, lands called Walsingham Acre, and Walsingham, two acres in the tenure of Henry Rust, were granted to Sir Edward Warner, and Ralph Shelton, with lands belonging to Langley abbey in the tenure of Thomas Wingfield.

In the 5th and 6th of Philip and Mary, Sir George Howard, Knt. had a grant of 21 acres of land in this town, and East Lexham, with liberty of a foldage in the tenure of Sir Nicholas L'Estrange, lately belonging to Magdalen chapel in Gaywood by Lynn.

Richard Fitz Alan Earl of Arundel gave lands to that chapel or hospital, in the reign of Edward I. in this town and East Lexham, and Sir Eudo Arsick gave them lands and a foldcourse for 250 sheep, and Alice his wife also lands.

The tenths were 7l. 18s.—Deduct 1l.

From ancient writings it appears that there were two churches in this town, that of St. Mary, and St. Andrew, and institutions into both, to the year 1491, as will appear.

Wimer, lord of Gressenhale, dapifer to the first Earl Warren, is said to have given to the priory of Castleacre the church of Dunham Magna; ⁴ but it is not expressed which church, probably that of St. Andrew, Hervey Canis giving to the said priory the church of St. Mary of Dunham Magna, with the advowson, and confirmed to the said priory all the donations of his predecessors, and 5 acres at Rachness, with part of his meadow at Sudacre, near to their court from the outward ditch, which joins to the meadow of the monks, straightways to the great water s. d. and Eudo de Arstich, with the consent of Alice his wife, confirmed this gift of Hervey, father of Alice.

Sometimes this church of St. Mary is called a chapel, and Eborard Bishop of Norwich, in Henry the First's reign, is said to have confirmed the church of Dunham, with the chapel of St. Mary, to the aforesaid priory, and John de Oxford Bishop of Norwich, in Henry the Second's time, confirmed also the churches of St. Andrew and St. Mary: the said Bishop instituted Gervase de Norwich, clerk, into the church of St. Mary Dunham mercate, at the presentation of the prior and convent of Castleacre; and after, at the request of the said Gervase, rector, the said Bishop received Roger Clerk into the vicarage, paying yearly to Gervase 3 marks, and answering for the said Gervase to the Bishop, and his ministers, by which it seems that a rector in that age had a power to nominate a titular vicar for his time to take care under him of the cure, with the consent of the Bishop.

Thomas de Blundevile, Bishop, in his first year instituted Edmund de Walpole, clerk, to the church of St. Mary, on the presentation of the prior, &c. and Jordan occurs rector in Henry the Third's time.

These two churches of St. Andrew and St. Mary were standing probably in 1518, though in the institution books of Norwich, mention is made only of St. Mary, into which the rectors were instituted then, and that only appears to be valued in the King's Books.

In 1522, sentence was given for the right of the rector of the churches of St. Mary and St. Andrew of Dunham Magna to take tithes of 13 acres of land, called Pentons, on February 6.

The ancient valor of the rectory of Dunham St. Mary was 12 marks and paid Peter-pence 5d. ob.; the prior of Sporle had a pension out of it of 13s. 4d. In the 15th of Henry VI. Joan, Queen Dowager of England, wife of King Henry IV. died seized of it, being an alien priory dissolved.

Simon Bishop of Norwich confirmed to the priory of Castleacre the title of 33 acres about 1260.

The present valor is 12*l.* 1*s.* 10*d. ob.*

E L M H A M,

CALLLED North Elmham, in respect of South Elmham in Suffolk; it is seated on the north-west side of the river Wentsum, and also has a small brook, which running from the park, empties itself in the said river, and not the Iier, as some improperly term it.

In the survey, it is wrote Elmenham; El, in the British tongue, bespeaks water, and Main or Menna, Little; of this kind is Elmswell in Suffolk, Elmsted and Elmley in Kent, and Gloucestershire, &c.

At the survey, when the seat of the Bishop was at Thetford, it was found to be in the see, and was held by Bishop Ailmar, in the time of the Confessor, for a lordship, when there belonged to it 8 carucates of land, 41 villains, 63 borderers, 6 servi, 24 acres of meadow, 4 carucates in demean, and 16 amongst the tenants, or men, pannage for 1000 swine, 4 mills, 3 runci, &c. 300 sheep, 35 goats, and 34 socmen with a carucate of land.

Stigand had the soc in King Edward's time, and it was at the survey in the lord of Milham, and there belonged to it 3 carucates, 4 acres of meadow, &c. and a mill.

Beteley was a beruite or small manor belonging to it, and valued with it. In this manor of Elmham there was then a church, endowed with 60 acres, and one carucate, valued at 5*s.* and 4*d.* per ann.

In King Edward's time the whole was 10*l.* per ann. at the survey 32*l.* It was one leuca long and half a leuca broad, and paid 20*d.* geit⁵.

This place is supposed to have been the seat of a flamen, in the time of the Romans, and at the time of the conversions of the East-Angles, by Felix, the Bishop, was held by him (their first Bishop) by the grant of King Sigebert, on his death, in 647, when Bisus, the fourth Bishop of the East-Angles, about 678, divided his diocese, being too large; one Bishop was appointed to reside at North-Elmham, to whom the jurisdiction of Norfolk was assigned, and the other at Dunwich, with the jurisdiction of Suffolk.

These two sees were again united, about 870, and Wildred, who was then Bishop, resided at North-Elmham, and so remained till removed to Thetford, by Herfast the Bishop, in 1075, and thence to Norwich, by Bishop Herbert, in 1094; but the Bishops of Norwich after resided here in their manor-house, it being the head of his barony (as some have said) at that time.

Bishop Turbus, who lived in the reign of King Stephen, confirmed to the priory all former grants of his predecessors, with the church of this town, and the fair.⁶

In the 7th of Richard I. the sheriff of Norfolk paid 18*d.* per ann. to the Bishop for his liberty of Elmham-madoc. History of the Exchequer, p. 560.

John de Grey, Bishop, in King John's time, confirmed to them the liberty of feeding their cattle every where with his, (excepting his park,) freely not paying for their herbage, with paunage for their swine, and to dig turf for their own use.⁷

Pandolf Bishop of Norwich, and the Pope's legate, after he had excommunicated King John and his kingdom, retired here.

William de Raleigh, Bishop, about 1240, was impleaded with Henry de Edlingthorp, &c. for throwing down unjustly the dam of Jeffrey de Hindringham, and Ricolda his wife, in this town, and Geist, to their damage; but on proof that Jeffrey had made the banks of his pool too high, he was amerced in the Bishop's court here.

Walter de Suffield, Bishop, had a charter of free warren in this manor, in the 35th of Henry III. and in the 14th of Edward I. the Bishop of Norwich was found by a jury to have frank pledge, a gallows, tumbrell, soc and sac, thof and them, infangetheof and outfangetheof, return of writs, judgment of duels, trial ordeal by fire or water, goods of felons and fugitives, a coroner within his manor, liberties of all pleas and assise, to be determined by justices on the spot, to be sent to this town, and tried there, as appeared on the inquisition of the whole country, and several precedents of justices itinerant, who were sent and tried causes here are mentioned on record.

In the 11th year of Richard II. Henry Spencer, Bishop, had a license to embattle and make a castle of his manor-house, when he seems to have rebuilt it, which is now entirely demolished; the site of it was on a grand artificial hill or mount, on a rising ground, surrounded with a great and deep entrenchment, (containing about 5 acres) formerly, no doubt, full of water, to which belonged a noble demean, and a park. That it was always a place of strength, or castle, is highly probable, most of the Bishops in ancient days having castles for their seats. The inner keep was also encompassed with a deep ditch, containing within it 2 acres joining south, and in the south-west part of which it stood, and had a deep well.⁸

In this state it continued, till on the exchange of lands between King Henry VIII. and Bishop Nix, this manor, &c. was vested in that King by act of parliament, February 4, in the 27th of his reign.

On July 14, in his 28th year, he granted it with the advowson of the vicarage, and the manor of Beteley, to Thomas Lord Cromwell; and on July 14, in his 30th year, he granted them to him and his heirs general.

This Thomas Cromwell was his principal agent in dissolving the monasteries, created Lord Cromwell of Oakham in Rutland, on July 9, in the 28th year of the said King, and on April 17, in the 31st of Henry VIII. Earl of Essex, but on July 24, in the following year, was beheaded.

By a daughter (as some say) of ——— Williams, Gent. of Wales, he left Gregory, his son and heir; but Dugdale takes that to be a mistake.⁹

In a pedigree that I have, he is said to have married Elizabeth, a daughter and coheir of John Prior, (widow of Thomas Williams.) by Isabel his wife, daughter of Richard Lord Talbot, which John was son of Sir John Prior, by Joan his wife, daughter of Edward Grey, 2d son of Reginald Lord Grey of Ruthyn, and bore for his arms, azure, a bend, per pale, gules, and or, in a bordure ingrailed, counterchanged,

In this pedigree Thomas Earl of Essex is said to be the son of Walter Cromwell of Oakham, in Rutlandshire, from which town he took his title, (before he had the grant of the castle and manor there,) as Dugdale, &c. assert, in the 28th of Henry VIII.

Yet it appears that in the acts of parliament in the 31st of that King, chap. iii. he is called Baron of Wimbeldon (in Surry) and not of Oakham.

Gregory his son's arms, in the aforesaid pedigree, were four coats, quarterly; first, quarterly, per fess indented, azure, and or, four lions passant, counterchanged; 2d, per fess, or and gules, on a pale between two lions, azure, and two pellicans of the first, a pelican and his, all counterchanged; 3d, azure, on a fess, between three lions rampant, a rose, gules, between two cornish coughs; 4th, Prior, as before, and this motto, Faire mon devoir.

He is said to have had a grant of the arms born by that family, from Sir Christopher Barker, about the 28th of the said King, with the crest, a pelican vulning itself proper; but his father, in all books of heraldry, appears to have borne (when Earl of Essex and Lord Cromwell) quarterly, per fess, indented, azure, and or, four lions passant, counterchanged; the motto, Faire mon devoir.

Gregory, his son and heir,¹ about 5 months after his father's death, was created a baron of England, by the title of Lord Cromwell, but not distinguished by any place, and was lord of this manor.

By Elizabeth his wife, daughter of Sir John Seymour of Wolfs-Hall in Wiltshire, sister to Edward Seymour Duke of Somerset, and widow of Sir Anthony Oughtred, he left at his death, in the 5th of Edward VI. Henry his son and heir, who married Mary, daughter of John Pawlet Marquis of Winchester, and dying November 20, 1592, the jury, on an inquisition taken post mortem, find Edward to be his son and heir; and that Thomas Earl of Essex, his grandfather, by deed, dated December 26, in the 30th of Henry VIII. entailed this manor, with that of Beteley, &c. Oakham, Clipsham, or Clapsham, and Langham, in Rutlandshire, on Gregory his son.

Edward Lord Cromwell wasted (as Sir Henry Spelman observes) his whole inheritance, almost in England, and changed some that remained with the Earl of Devonshire; but this manor was sold by him to Edward Coke, Esq. afterwards lord chief justice, &c.) who was lord in the 46th of Elizabeth; and in the 15th of James I. was settled with others (as it is said) on Frances his daughter, married to Sir John Filliers, Knt. afterwards Lord Viscount Parbeck.²

In the year 1631, it appears to be possessed by Sir Edward Coke, who presented then to this church.

This Edward Lord Cromwell removed into Ireland, and was there buried, leaving Thomas Lord Cromwell, his son and heir, (by Frances) his wife, daughter of William Rugge, Esq. of Felmingham, in Norfolk, who was created Viscount Lecale, and Earl of Ardfglass in Ireland.

In 1659, John Coke, Esq. presented to this vicarage, and at this time he was charged at 120*l.* per ann. for his park in his own hands, and for part of his estate held by Nathaniel Ducket, 30*l.* per ann. for that held by John Spooner, 90*l.* per ann. for that held by Rose Crome 50*l.* per ann. by Robert Hase, 10*l.* per ann. by Henry Lushers 80*l.* and Joseph Isaac, 10*l.* per ann.

Afterwards the estate here was mortgaged by ——— Coke, (the park excepted,) to Hugh Audley of the Inner Temple, London, Esq. on whose death it came with the rest of his personal estate, to his executors, Sir Thomas Davis, Knt. Sir Thomas Bonfoy, Knt. William Harvey, Esq. &c. and so to Robert Harvey of Low Layton in Essex, Esq. son of the aforesaid William, who presented in 1680, and John Harvey, Esq. in 1704.

Richard Warner, Esq. purchased the manor and patronage of the vicarage of the Harveys, and presented in 1723, and has built an agreeable new manor-house, &c. and died June 1, in 1757, aged 89, leaving his estate to his daughters and coheirs. — Mary, the eldest, married Christopher Mills, Esq. of Nackington in Kent, and Richard Mills, Esq. his son and heir, the present lord and patron, and member of parliament for Canterbury.

NOWERS'S MANOR

Took its name from a family, ancient lords of it, and was granted from the capital manor, by some Bishop of Norwich. Milo de Noyers (descended from William de Noiers,³ most likely a great favourite of William the Conqueror) was lord about the year 1180, when the prior of Norwich complained that certain tithes due from his demesns, were refused to be paid to him, which Sir Simon de Noers, son of Milo, had given, (viz. 2 garbs of his tithes) to the church of the Holy Trinity of Norwich, about 1130, and these tithes were ceded to the prior.

² See in Dunham Parva.

³ Reg. i. Eccles. Cath. Norw. fol. 141, &c.

King Henry III. in his 51st year, gave to Charles, son of Charles, the lands of Robert de Ireland, in Elmham, his enemy.

In the 7th of Edward II. Richard, son of of Henry de Coleburne of East Derham, and Margaret his wife convey to Sir William de Hackford this manor.

Sir William left 2 daughters and coheirs; Joan, married to Sir John Seckford, and Elizabeth to Henry de Elmham.

In the 6th of Edward III. Sir John Seckford and Joan his wife, conveyed by fine, to Henry de Elmham, and Elizabeth his wife, lands in this town, Calthorp and Bodham, which Margaret, widow of Sir William de Hackford, held for life.

Henry was probably father of Sir William Elmham, who died in the 4th year of King Henry IV. and was buried in the abbey of Bury.

Sir William was accused in parliament, ao. 7th of Richard II. and condemned for having received of the King's enemies in France, 3400 franks of gold, for making peace with them, whilst in the army commanded by Spencer Bishop of Norwich, &c. and the King wrote to the sheriff of Norfolk to levy the same on the lands and goods of Sir William; to arrest him, and bring him before the King and council, to be imprisoned till he should satisfy him by a fine and ransom, but had after a pardon in the said year.

In the 16th of Edward IV. Robert Bog of Worsted, and Elizabeth his wife, granted by fine to Henry Smith, &c. the lordship of Noers, with a messuage, 62 acres of land, 34s. rent also the rent of 5 hens, and 15 days works in autumn, from the heirs of Elizabeth.

Roger Martin, of Long Melford in Suffolk, Esq. in the 9th of Elizabeth, by deed, dated November 29, granted to Roger Bozoun, of Studday in Norfolk, Esq. the manor and demans of Nowers, alias Hedges, Dunham, Bowers, Smith's, sometime Richard Martin's, Esq. his great grandfather's, with the quitrents, &c. and Roger Bozoun, by deed, dated June 1, in the said year, sold it to Richard Franklyn of North Elmham, butcher.

In the 40th of the said Queen, Edward Coke, Esq. then Attorney General, appears to be lord of it, and so it was united to the capital manor, as it now remains.

The tenths were 7*l.* 10s. Deducted 13s. 4d.

In this town lived the ancient family of the Taverners. Ralph le Taverner held lands here in the year 1272, and Waryn le Taverner, his son, in 1300; William le Taverner, his youngest son, was of Dunwich in Suffolk, and had a corrody in the abbey of Sibton, in the 10th of Edward II. Sir Nicholas the eldest lived here, and had John le Taverner, living in the year 1393, and by Cecilia his wife, daughter of Gelham, had John Taverner, who signalized himself at the battle of Agincourt; and Heury, the eldest son, counsellor at law, who had lands here at his death, in the 6th of Edward IV.

Nicholas was his son and heir, who married Margaret, daughter of Thomas Dethick of Wrongey, in Norfolk, by whom he had John Taverner, and died in 1492.

John his son married first, Alice, daughter and sole heir of Robert Silvester of Brisley, Gent. from whom the Taverners of Essex, Oxfordshire, and Bedfordshire, descend.

By Anne, his 2d wife, daughter of —— Crowe of East Bilney, he had Thomas, alias James Taverner, and dying in 1548, was buried in Brisley church.

Thomas, alias James his son of North Elmham, married Grace, daughter and heir of John Russel, of Wighton in Norfolk, relict of Edmund Bedingfield, Esq. and was living in the 18th of Elizabeth, and had by her, Thomas Taverner, living in the year 1635, whose wife, Anne, survived him, and was living in 1659; she was then taxed to the militia rate for lands here, at 80*l.* per ann.

Charles Taverner, Gent. was buried here in 1683, and Anne his wife in 1682, and Charles Taverner, Gent. his son, in 1682.

Their arms were argent, a bend fusillée, sable.

Here is a fair kept annually, on the annunciation of the Blessed Virgin, and the profits of it are said to have been given to the priory of Norwich, by Herbert the Bishop.

In a close, called Broom-Close, about half a mile or more from the town, lying on the west side of the road from Elmham to Beteley, of a dry sandy or gravelly soil, on a rising ground, a river running in the valley, have been found many urns of a coarse earth, the work rough and uneven, but generally well burnt, some of them indented and some plain, some of a blue, and some of a yellow colour, without any covers; the size various, some holding a quart, some two or three quarts or a gallon, very tender, (as most urns are,) when first exposed to the air; some are found very near the surface of the earth, others two or three spit deep, containing many small pieces of bones, turned black with burning, others full of ashes, with some pieces of coarse glass run, and sticking to the bones, and in the ashes; some with pieces of brass melted, and unmelted, also with pieces of iron, so decayed with rust, that their figure or use does not appear; some with small knives eat up with rust, also with small pincers or nippers, commonly of brass, perfect and good, which demonstrates the great antiquity of the place.

A penknife found in one about 4 inches and an half long, with a wrought handle. A bodkin of the same size. A dagger about one foot long, with a wrought handle, hilt and bar, found in a ditch. A green glass in form of a cone, about 4 inches long, and three inches diameter at the bottom, and one at the top, probably a lacrymatory, found in an urn.

In February, 1711, some labourers repairing the fence on the south side of this close, or in raising a new ditch, dug up about 30 urns, but found little valuable or curious in them, only ashes and dust; this moved other persons to make further trial, who found several near to one another.

One person employed in the search is said to have taken up about 120, yet the compass of the ground that was thus turned up did not exceed a rood of ground; some coins however have been found here.

In a piece of ground, about two furlongs south of the town, in the road to East Derham, (where old wells and foundations of houses are to be seen,) a countryman digging to sow carrots, about 60 years past, is said to have dug up the quantity of a pint and an half.

These silver ones (as I take it) were found in this last mentioned place: VESPATIANVS. AVG. the reverse the image of the goddess Peace, seated, with an olive branch in her right hand.

CÆSAR. DIVI. F. DOMITIANVS. COSS. VIII. The reverse, PRINCEPS. JVVENTVTIS.

DIVA FAVSTINA. Reverse, standing as a goddess with a wand in her right hand.

LVCILLA. AVGVSTA. ANTONINI. AVGVSTI. FILIA. Reverse, CONCORDIA. seated.

G.

CONSTANTIVS. NOB. CÆSAR. Reverse, Roman trophies between two soldiers, GLORIA. EXERCITVS. This is of brass.

Here was also found a silver Roman ring, the impress, an eagle with a thunderbolt in his beak.

These coins prove this to have been a Roman station.

Dr. Plot, in his History of Staffordshire, observes that neither the Saxons or Danes, after their arrival into this island, ever burned their dead, whatever they might do before ;* and in his History of Oxfordshire, that they made their works so indistinguishable from the Romans, (otherwise than by the Roman money found under them,) that they can scarce be known asunder ; so that whatever of their fortifications, called Barrows, abusively, have no money found near them, must be concluded (as he thinks) either Saxon or Danish, Saxon if square, Danish if round ; the first called Falkmotes, places of meeting on approach of an enemy, or the hundred meeting courts, or Danes raths.

But that the Danes did anciently burn, before they invaded England, appears from Odinus, an ancient Danish King, who enjoined the dead to be burned, and ordered his own domesticks to burn him when dead ; and so they continued for a long time after, and it seems not to be discontinued till the time of Charles the Great, the Emperor, about the year 800, who converting many heathens to the Christian faith, and being styled the Most Christian King, forbade this practice, and that if any one should burn the bodies of the dead, he should be put to death for so doing.

The Saxons also, (after the Danish manner,) in Germany, used to burn their dead, and to erect a tumulus over their burnt ashes ; and the said Emperor commanded the bodies of Christian Saxons to be brought to the churchyard, and not to the tumuli of the pagan Saxons.

Yet I am persuaded, that this practice was used at this time in England, and after, to the days of King Alfred.

It appears that here was, in the Conqueror's and King Edward's time, a church, well endowed with 50 acres and a carucate of land. Herbert Bishop of Norwich is said to have new built it, in the reign of King William II. being so enjoined by the Pope, for his simony, and appropriated the rectory of this church to the priory of Norwich, founded by him ; and held by Richard Warner, Esq. of the dean and chapter of Norwich.

In the 3d year of the pontificate of William de Raleigh, the vicar's portion was settled, and a house was granted to him by the church, on the west side, with 10 acres of freehold arable land, by the consent and agreement of Simon, the prior, and convent of Norwich, with all offerings, oblations, and small tithes, and of pease and beans in the parish ; also all the tithes as well great as small, issuing out of 500 acres of land ploughed, and from the freehold which the prior and convent held in demean, at the time of the taxation of the vicarage; also all the great and small tithes issuing out of 9 acres of arable land in divers pieces, with all the tithe of hay, turf, and the mills.⁵

A dispute arising in 1277, between the prior and convent who had the rector, and Robert, then vicar, concerning the repair of the chancel, and the ornaments thereof, as well within as without, it was determined by William Bishop of Norwich, that considering how amply it was endowed, it should be repaired by the vicar: dated at Thorp by Norwich, the 11th of October, 1277.

The appropriated rector was taxed at 30 marks before the Dissolution, and the vicarage at 15 marks, and was not visited by the archdeacon, &c. being then the Bishop's manor.

The present valor of the vicarage is 13*l.* 14*s.* 11*d.*

The CHURCH is dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Here was a church built new, (as I have observed,) by Bishop Herbert, but the present does not appear to be of that antiquity: it is a large regular pile, consisting of a middle, north and south isle, supported by 6 pillars on each side, forming 7 arches on each side, with a chancel, all covered with lead.

On the belfry are the arms of Richard Warner, Esq. Warner and Whitehall, quarterly, impaling Hastings and Lomb.

At the west end stands a lofty four-square tower, with a shaft or small spire covered with lead, with 5 bells and a clock.

In this church were the guilds of St. Mary, Corpus Christi, and St. James.

On the pannels of the chancel door have been painted the four doctors of the church; St. Augustine, St. Gregory, Ambrose, and Jerome, and

FRANSHAM MAGNA,

CALLED Fraudesham in Domesday Book, and was then the lordship of William Earl Warren. In King Edward's reign it was held by eleven freemen, of whom the predecessor of Fedric had the protection only, and afterwards Fedric was lord, who was ejected, and Gilbert then held it under William Earl Warren; there was one carucate and an half of land, 4 villains and 8 borderers, two servi, and 4 acres of meadow with 3 carucates, &c. one mill, &c. valued at 30 shillings.⁷

Frau, in the British tongue, is fluor lenis, a gentle run of water;⁸ hence Franston and Framesden in Suffolk, Frènge, Norfolk, Frekenham, &c.

Gislebert or Gilbert, abovementioned, seems to be the ancestor of the ancient family of Fransham, lords of this town.

In the 10th year of King Richard I. a fine appears to be levied between Hervey, son of Juliana, petent, and Agnes de Fransham tenent, of one carucate of land here, conveyed to Hervey; and in the 19th of Henry III. Philip, son of Odo de Fransham, conveyed by fine, levied in the king's court at Tatteshale, on Saturday next after the feast of St. Andrew, before Thomas de Muleton, Robert de Lexington, Oliver de Vaur, &c. the King's justices, lands to Ralph, prior of Castleacre, in this village;⁹ and Sir Gilbert de Fransham, Knt. confirmed by deed sans date, to the said priory, all the lands and tenements which they had of the gift of Thomas, son of Reginald de Fransham.

Jeffrey de Fransham appears to have an interest here in the 34th of Henry III. and on a fine levied in the 52d of that King, on the foundation of Wendling abbey, Gilbert de Fransham was then lord, and gave his consent to the settling of lands belonging to his fee, and also was present, it being expressly said,

*Et hæc concordia facta p'sente Gilberto de Fransham capitali domino, partis feodi, et illum pro se et heredibus concedente.*¹

This Gilbert married Beatrix, daughter of ———, afterwards married to Roger Gulafre.

On the inquisitions taken in the 3d of Edward I. Sir William de Fransham was found to be lord, and to have the assise of bread and beer, and that he paid to the sheriff of Norfolk, for a peace of arable land (pro cultura) called Pilewood 12*d.* per ann. quitrent, due from the conquest.

This William was the King's sub-escheator in the 20th of the said King, and a knight; and in his 32d year he settled by fine, this lordship on Jeffrey de Fransham his son, (as I take it,) and Jeffrey dying sans issue, was succeeded by his brother, Gilbert; for in the year 1323, Gilbert, son of Sir William de Fransham, presented to the rectory of this church.

In the year 1349, Gilbert de Fransham, probably son of Gilbert, presented, and Agnes de Fransham, widow of Gilbert, in 1388, which Agnes was buried, according to her will, dated April 24, 1404, in this church, her son, Jeffrey de Fransham, Esq. lord of this town, and his wife, Joan, being mentioned therein.

This Jeffrey died without issue in 1414; and his 5 sisters and coheirs were Alianore, Alice, Agnes Beatrix, and Agatha; and on Alianore, Agnes, and Beatrix, and their issue, this lordship was settled; Alice and Agatha having their shares of the inheritance in Scarning and Dillington.

Joan, widow of Jeffrey, was living in 1422, and then gave to the Austine-friars of Norwich, 100 marks; her grandson, Thomas Sharington, being then a friar there.

OLDHALL'S MANOR.

Alianore, the first sister and coheir, married ———, and had Joan, her first daughter and coheir, married to ——— Tymworth; and Agnes, 2d sister, married to Ed. Swathing; Alice, 2d sister and coheir, married to Sir Edmund Oldhall, Knt. father of Sir William Oldhall, who presented to this church in 1446.

In the 23d of Henry VI. a fine was levied, wherein John Tymworth of Tymworth in Lincolnshire, and Catharine his wife conveyed their right in this manor, and in Skerning and Dillington, and the advowson to Sir William, then held of the dutchy of Lancaster.

Of the Oldhalls see also in East Derham, who died lord in 1451, and Henry his son in the 8th year of Henry VIII. leaving Edward his son aged 18.

After this it came to Walter Gorges, Esq. of Wroxhall in Somersetshire, son of Sir Theobald Gorges, by the marriage of Mary, daughter and heir of Sir William Oldhall, by Mary his wife, daughter of William Lord Willoughby of Eresby; and Edmund Gorges, son and heir of Walter, was in the custody of Sir John Howard, Knt. on the death of his father, Walter, in the 6th of Edward IV.; he was afterwards a Knt. and married a daughter of the said Sir John, by whom he had Edward Gorges, Esq. his son and heir.

In Easter term, in the 15th of Henry VII. Sir Edmund Gorges, Knt. and Edward his son, conveyed it by fine to Humphrey Conynsby, Esq. serjeant at law, Thomas Frowick, &c.

By an inquisition taken November 8, in the 7th of Henry VIII. Sir William Capel, Knt. was found to die seized of it, on September 6, last past, with the advowson of the church, and Sir Gyles was his son and heir, aged 30.

In this family it remains, the Right Honourable the Earl of Essex being the present lord.

SWATHING'S MANOR.

Agnes, third sister and coheir of Jeffrey de Fransham, married Edmund de Swathing, and had William de Swathing, whose son, Edmund, having a daughter and heir, Elizabeth, brought this part or share by marriage, to Henry Sharington, whose son Thomas held it in 1497; and Thomas was then found, on his death, to be his son and heir.

This Thomas Sharington, Esq. of Crawworth, settled it on Sir Robert Lovell, Sir John Audley, Sir John Timperley, Sir William Pyrton, Knights, &c. trustees, by his will, dated October 15, 1519, till his debts, &c. were paid, then to come to his son William and his heirs; but the said William and Ursula his wife, conveyed it with their right in the advowson, to Robert Hogan, Esq. in the 23d of Henry VIII. by fine; but it appears that Edward Mynne of Fransham Parva,² gave, by his will, dated March 21, 1542, to Nicholas his son, his part of the manor of Fransham Magna, which he bought of Thomas Sharington and his son, William Sharington, Esq. and Henry Mynne was found to die seized of this manor and advowson, January 25, 1565, and Nicholas was his son and heir, by Christiana his wife, daughter of ——— Makew.

CURD'S OR CRUDD'S-HALL MANOR.

Beatrice, the fourth sister and coheir, married ——— Pesonhale, and had Jeffrey Pesonhale, her son and heir, who held her 3d part or share of this manor, in 1446; and in the 34th of Henry VI. Sibilla Boys, William Colthorp, Esq. &c. remitted, as trustees for this manor, all their right in the lands, tenements, and services, which they lately had of the demise of Sir Roger Harsyk, Nicholas Bokking, with John Crudde.

John Crudde, lord of it, was buried in this church in 1489, father, as I take it, of Nicholas Curdede, of Mekye-Fransham, as he styles himself in his will, in 1505,³ and desires to be buried in the church, and bequeaths to Katherine his wife, his trede part of the manor of Fransham.

In the 10th of Henry VIII. John Curde conveyed to Robert Blaggess

one of the barons of the Exchequer, this manor, with 30 messuages, 192 acres of land, also 30 messuages, 920 acres of land, in Fransham Magna and Parva, Dunham Parva, Skerning, Beeston, &c. and the advowson of this church.

The Curds descend probably from Jeffrey, son of Henry Crudde of Rougham, who was living in the time of Henry III.

But before this part came to the Curds, it seems to be in the hands of Thomas Gent, and Thomas Brown, who presented to the church in 1488, as lords of the 3d part of the manor of Fransham, as appears from the institution books.

About the reign of King Charles I. Isaac Harsnet of Colchester in Essex, Esq. (brother to Samuel Archbishop of York) was lord: he married Agnes, daughter of ——— Bruckham, of Wytham in Essex, by whom he had Samuel his son, who was sole executor to the Archbishop, and married Alianor, daughter of Thomas Cotton, of Stirton in Norfolk, Esq. by whom he had several children; Samuel, who was a lunatick, and 5 daughters; Barbara, the eldest, married to Edward Fisher, Gent. of Norfolk; Eleanor, the 2d, William Marsham, of Stratton Strawless in Norfolk, and afterwards to Sir Robert Drury, Bart. of Ridlesworth in Norfolk, who was killed in the great hurricane in 1703, dying without issue, &c. This Samuel lived at Curd's-Hall.

John Bekham, Gent. was lord of it, and dying unmarried, it was sold according to his will, to William Nelson, Gent. of Dunham Parva, in 17 --, who is the present lord of it.

The lordship of Gressinghale extended into this village, as did the lordship of Swanton Morley.

The tenths of 5*l.* 10*s.* Deducted 10*s.*

In 1659, the feoffees of the lands belonging to the town of Necton, lying here, were charged in a militia rate at 40*l.* per ann.

The temporalities of the priory of Pentney, in 1428, were taxed at 8*s.*

In the 6th of Elizabeth these lands were granted September 18, to William Gryce and Anthony Forster, then in the tenure of G. Clements.

The temporalities of Westacre priory were 7*s.*; of Wendling abbey, 22*s.*; of Creke abbey, 10*d.*; of Castleacre priory, 15*s.* per ann.

The CHURCH is dedicated to All-Saints. The ancient valor was 16 marks, and paid Peter-pence, 5*d.* ob.

Sir Gilbert de Fransham gave two parts of the tithes of his demesns here, and in Scarning, to Castleacre priory, which was confirmed by Symon (de Wanton) Bishop of Norwich, in the reign of Henry III.

The present valor is 7*l.* 15*s.* and 9*d.* ob. and pays first fruits and tenths.

1703, Richard Flack, by Samuel Flack, clerk.

1715, Charles Forster, by Dorothy Flack, widow.

In this church were the gilds of St. Catharine, All-Saints, Trinity, and St. Am; the chapel of St. Catherine's, the chapel and light of St. Mary's.

At the east end of the south isle is an ancient chapel, at the entrance lies a large grey marble stone, whereon is the portraiture of a person armed cap-a-piè, his hands conjoined and elevated, as at prayers, within a curious arch or canopy work of brass inlaid in the stone; round the verge of it runs a fillet of brass, thus inscribed,

Hic jacet Galfrius Fransham, armiger, de Fransham, qui obiit in festo Jeronimi Doctoris, Ao. Du. Milie. ccccxiij, vij, &c.

On brass shields are his arms, per pale, indented, 6 martlets counterchanged.

On a gravestone in the nave, the portraitures of a man and his wife, in their winding sheets, and on a plate, Orate p. a'vab; Johs. Crudd et Elizab. uxor. sue, qui obiit. xvii die Septemb. Ao. Dni. M.CCCCLXXXIX, quor; a'vab; &c.

Just under the arch of the steeple, lies also a stone with the portraiture of a woman in brass, in a winding sheet, and on a plate,

Orate p. a'va, Cecilie uxor. Johs. Legge, - - - - -

In Rougham and in this town, there was also another lordship besides that abovementioned, belonging to the Earl Warren; two car-rucates of land held by Toke in the Confessor's time, one villain, 12 borderers, &c. 3 carucates in demean, and one and an half amongst the tenants, &c. valued before the survey at 50s. per ann. then at 60s.

All Fransham is said to be 9 furlongs long, and 8 broad, and paid 10*d.* gelt, and W. (it is said) held it, that is Wimerus, who was lord of Gressenhule, and came afterwards to the Stutvils. Robert de Stutvile, in the 3*d* of Edward I. claimed free warren here, and passed from him to the Foliots, lords of Gressenhule, and others, as may be seen in Roug- ham; 16 freemen also belonged to this manor at the conquest, with half a carucate and 8 acres of land.

FRANSHAM PARVA.

THIS was at the survey the lordship of Ralph de Tony, of whom see in Westacre, and was held under Herold, (afterwards King of England;) by 16 socmen, with 3 carucates of land, and 12 borderers, 6 acres of meadow; and 3 carucates &c. in King Edward's days, and was valued with Necton. Eudo, son of Clema, had one carucate of land of those three here delivered to him, which he held for life, afterwards Ralph de Beaufoe's, but Tony was in possession of it at the survey, belonging to this capital manor of Necton, to which it apper-tained in the Confessor's time.*

Ralph de Tony claimed free warren in his demean lands in the 3*d* of Edward I. and in the 33*d* of that King, John Le Strange held it of Robert de Tony, by the service of 2*s.* 6 quarters of barley, and 4 quarters of oats, valued at 23*s.* per ann. and Ralph was found to be his brother and heir.

Henry Le Strange held it in the 9*th* of Edward II. and James Le Strange had a charter for free warren here and in Dunham in the 20*th* of Edward III.; the jury find, in the 5*th* of the said King, that it would not be to the King's detriment if he granted a mercate and a fair in this town to Peter Le Strange, who then held it of the Beauchamps Earls of Warwick, heirs to the Tonys; and in the 1*st* of Richard II.

Sir Peter had a grant of a weekly mercate on Thursday, and a fair every year on the eve and the day of St. Botolph. Sir Peter was an eminent soldier: his will was made in France, at St. Maloes,⁵ dated in the isle on Wednesday, after the feast of the assumption of our Lady, in 1378, and was proved January 11, in the said year. Emne his lady had a grant thereby of all his lands for life, and after to be sold, and the money to be disposed of for his soul: Sir Robert Knolls, and Sir William de Hoo, Knts. were appointed by him executors;—witnesses, Sir Hugh Hastings, Sir John Lakynghyth, Knts.⁶

From the family of the Beauchamps, who were the capital lords, it came by marriage to Richard Nevill Earl of Warwick, and on his attainder, to the Crown; and was granted by King Henry VIII. to Sir Thomas Bullen, who presented to the church in 1524, and again in 1535, being then Earl of Wiltshire, and father to Anna Bullen the Queen; but after the death of this Earl, it was possessed by Francis Southwell.

Henry Mynne, his assignee, presented in 1552, and in 1559, George Mynne, Gent. presented in his own right.

In 1592, Richard Beckham was lord and presented, and in 1610.

Thomas Hogan, Esq. was lord in 1710, and his son Thomas is the present lord 1764, and a lunatick, (see in Dunham Magna.) but the patronage is sold from the manor, the Rev. Mr. Barnwell of Mileham being the present patron and rector.

CANON'S MANOR.

Westacre priory, founded by the Touys, held this of the gift of that family, their temporalities were valued in 1428, at 2*l.* 0*s.* 7*d.* in this town: on the general dissolution it was granted, in the 34th of Henry VIII. to Richard Andrews, and Leonard Chamberlain, Edward Mynn was found, in the 38th of the said reign, to die possessed of it, and Henry was his son and heir. Edward Mynn held it in the 9th and 15th of Elizabeth, and about the year 1600, Edward Mynne, being the Queen's ward, it was in his minority in the hands of ----- Clarke.

Here was also another lordship in this town called by the name of Kirkham and Wilcox, and was part of the Earl Warren's fee, or manor, in Fransham Magna, which extended here. Robert de St. Thomas, by deed sans date, gave to the monks of Castleacre, the homage and service of Roger de Fransham Parva, with 2*s.* rent per ann. out of a messuage, with 3 acres of land near the land of the prior of Pentney, with the homage, land, and service of Ralph, son of Gilbert de Fransham.⁷

A fine was levied in the 10th of Henry VI. between Sir William Oldhall, Knt. and John Alderford and Alice his wife, who conveyed to Sir William the manor of Kirkham and Wilcox in Fransham Parva, with 100 acres of land, 20 of pasture, 12 of wood, and 40*s.* rent, on his paying an annuity of 12*l.* per ann. for the life of Alice; and William Rusteng conveyed, in the 8th of Edward I. by fine, to Alice his daughter, wife of Ralph de Kirkton, messuages and lands in this town and Fransham Parva.

Walter Gorges, Esq. held this in right of his wife, au hter and heir of Sir William Oldhall, and his son Edmund, in Edward the Fourth's time; and passed as may be seen in Fransham Magna.

The temporalities of Fakenham priory (Hempton) in 1428 were valued at 13s. 10d. King Henry VIII. granted, June 28, in his 36th year, this to William Barkeley.

G A T E L E Y

WAS in Edward's time the lordship of Bund, a thane or freeman, and granted by the Conqueror to Hugh de Montfort: there belonged to it in Bund's time 4 carucates of land, 23 villains, 1 servus, and 30 acres of meadow, 2 carucates in demeane, and at the survey 4 carucates amongst the tenants, &c. 17 goats, and 5 soemen, with 30 acres of land, and 4 of meadow, with a carucate, &c. valued then at 4*l.* per ann.; it was half a leuca long, and broad, and paid 10*l.* gelt,⁸ and Ralf held it under Hugh, a Norman lord, and chief justiciary of England.

Ralph, who held under Hugh de Montfort, the capital lord, was (as I take it) ancestor of the family of De Gatele, lords of this village. Godfrey de Liseuys, who lived in the reign of Henry II. sold lands in this town to Herlewyn, son of William de Gatele, and Thomas, son of Herlewyn of Gatelee, by deed sans date gave to the church of the Holy Trinity of Norwich all his land which he held in capite of Robert Scales, as well by knight's service, as in soccage, by the fifth part of a fee, paying 2*s.* ward per ann. to Dover castle, and 14*d.* for soccage;⁹ and the said Thomas, by another deed dated at Norwich 1244, gave to the said church 14 acres of land, &c. in the field of Colekyrke. Edmund de Gatele is said to lord be in the 20th of Henry III. Sir Ralph de Gatele, Knt. confirmed, by deed sans date, to the church of the Holy Trinity of Norwich, all the land which Thomas son of Herlewyn, held of him, paying to him and his heirs 5*s.* 1*d.* and for common pasture in the whole village of Gateley one pound of pepper yearly, on the nativity of our Lord; and Alan, son of William de Helghe-ton, confirmed to the said church, all the land which Thomas, son of Herlewyn de Gatele, held of his fee in Gatele, and the said Sir Ralph confirmed the rents granted by William de Kirkeby to the aforesaid church.

In the 36th of Henry III. the jury find that Sir Ralph de Gatele held this lordship in capite, with the advowson of the church of the castle of Dover, by the service of two knights fees, and that Ralph, was his son and heir, who then paid 10*l.* relief for all the lands he held in capite; he was also a knight, and sold by fine levied in the 44th of Henry III. to Sir Richard de la Rokele, two parts of this manor, held by two fees, and the reversion of the 3d part on the decease of Agnes, widow of Sir Ralph, his father, for 100*s.* Agnes being present in court, acknowledged that she had no other claim but by way of dower, also all that which John the chaplain of Gateley, Elizabeth de Gateley his daughter, and what Maud and Prudence (Sir Ralph's sisters, who were recluses) held for life in that town, or elsewhere, performing the services due to the chief lord of the fee: but by an inquisition taken in the 3d of Edward I. it was found that Sir Richard bought it of Sir Edmund de Gateley.

Sir Richard de la Rokele was lord of Colkirk also, and Maud, the heiress of this family, brought both these lordships by marriage, in the reign of Edward I. to Sir Roger Atte-Ash, and so they descended to the Baynards, the Thorps, Tilney, Bourchier, Knevet, Hare, &c. as may be seen in Colkirk.

Richard Warner, Esq. died lord 1757.

When Robert Baynard died seized of it in the 4th of Edward III. it was found that he held it of Isabel, Queen Dowager of England, as of her manor of Hawley in Suffolk, by the service of two knights fees, and paying 20s. per ann. castle-guard to Dover; that there was a capital messuage of no value above the reparations, six score acres of arable land at 3d. per acre, six acres of meadow, valued at 6s. per ann. 3 acres of coppice wood, valued at 6 years growth at 40d. per acre, a windmill very ruinous at 5s. per ann. rent of assise payable at Christmas, Easter, and St. Michael, 40s. the winter works of the customary tenants valued at 20d. the price of every work an halfpenny, 15 summer works valued at 15d.; one hundred autumn works valued at 8s. 4d.; thirty days works in digging of turf or flags (opera turbaria) valued at 15d.; 50 hens at Christmas 4s. 2d. each 1d.; pleas and perquisites of court lete, valued at half a mark per ann.

In the 1st of Henry VII. this manor and lands alone were farmed at 10l. per ann.

William de Lisezy's manor of South Rainham,¹ held of the honour of Hawley, also extended into this town: the said William, with the consent of Godfrey his son and heir, gave to God and the monks of Castleacre, for the soul of his father and mother, himself, his wife and children, all the tithes of his assart lands, woods, and 2 acres of his demesans in Gatele, to erect buldings on all the tithes of the land which he gave to Symon the priest of Gatele, for which grant the monks promised to keep yearly the anniversary of his father, mother, and his own, after his decease; and Godfrey de Lisewys granted to Hertwyn, son of William de Gatele, for 2 marks, all the land late Acelnot's in Gatele, of his fee, paying 14d. per ann. for all services; he also granted to the said Hertwyn all his inclosed park here belonging to his fee of Reinham, to be held by the fourth part of a fee, on his paying of 100s. to him, and one talent to his wife; by this it appears that a talent then was under 100s. and I also find it to be under 6 marks at that time.

This fee came after to the Scales. Robert, son of Sir Robert de Scales, held it in 1280, and then conveyed by fine a messuage, 140 acres of land, 3s. 4d. rent here, in pure alms to William de Kirkby, the prior, &c. of Norwich, who received him into all the benefits of his church;² and their temporalities here in 1428, were valued at 5l. 12s. 4d. per ann. the family of Scales held also lands in the 6th of Edward III. by knight's service.

² Reg. Cath. Nor. 1 fol. 108.

William de Beaufoe Bishop of Thetford had in his own right and inheritance in this town, a small part of a fee, held under him by a freeman, viz. 6 acres, valued at 6*l.* per ann. and was in King Edward's time possessed by Bonde, a freeman, the predecessor of Hugh de Montfort: Erfast Bishop of Norwich had invaded or seized on this, and Beaufoe thereupon kept it, but the soc was in Mileham.³

This was afterwards given by Bishop Beaufoe to the see, for ever, and so became a part of the manor of Colkirk, which belonged also to this bishoprick.

Peter de Valoins had also a small fee in this town held under him by Ralph, consisting of 2 soemen, with 34 acres of land: the predecessor of Hugh de Montfort had the soc of one, or right of foldage or sheep walk, and protection, but the soc of the other was in the King's lordship of Muleham: Peter had livery of these soemen, and 2 acres and an half of meadow belonged to it, valued in all at 20*s.*⁴

This Ralph abovementioned was ancestor of the family of de Gateley, as I have above observed, and his posterity enjoying it, it was united to his capital lordship. It appears that William de Breton, who was lord of Pattesley, a neighbouring village, and Roger de Breton, &c. were trustees, and settled this manor on Lucia, daughter and heir of Sir Roger Atte-Ashe (married to Robert Baynard) in the reign of Edward II. from whom it came to the Thorps, &c.

In ancient writings I find a place called Cotynesnapp, or Tollesnape, said to be in this parish.

The tenths were 2*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*—Deduct 3*s.* 4*d.*—Rem. 2*l.* 10*s.*

The temporalities of Petreston priory in 1428, 2*s.*; Langley abbey 4*s.*; Westacre priory 11*s.*; Castleacre priory 22*s.*

Sir Richard de la Rokele gave to that priory 5 acres of land at the request of his master, William de Heliona.

Sir Ralph de Gateley, son of Sir Ralph de Gateley, Knt. granted, as lord and patron, to William, abbot of St. Mary de Pratis of Creak several parcels of land, with the advowson of the church of St. Helen's of Gateley, his brother Sir John confirming the same by deed sans date. Pope Alexander granting license to appropriate it to the said abbey, Simon Wanton Bishop of Norwich confirmed it, and ordained a vicarage to consist in the following things:—all the altarage, tithe hay, heath, or lurbary, the tithes arising from the little closes belonging to the houses, 6 acres of arable land, a messuage, and 8 perches in length and breadth, in Serjeant's Croft; the abbot and convent to have all the rest of the profits as rectors, and they to sustain all episcopal and archidiaconal expenses, but all extraordinary charges to be sustained by the religious, and the vicar, according to proportion; the abbot and convent to have the presentation of the vicarage; dated at Thornage, the Ides of February 1264, in the 7th year of his pontificate.

The prior of Castleacre released to Thomas, the abbot of Creke,

6s. 8d. rent per ann. for two parts of the tithes of the land here, called Tollesnape, &c. there being a controversy between the abbot and the rector of Colkirk for tithes of several parcels of land in Shortland Longland, Wyswong, &c. some were adjudged to the rector, and some to the abbot in 1315.⁵

It appears that the 6s. 8d. above released, was due for tithe of land given by Godfrey de Lisewys, and dated in 1324.⁶

The appropriated rectory was valued at 26 marks, the vicarage at 6 marks, Peter-pence 10d. and the vicarage now at 3*l*s. 2*s*. 7*d*. At the dissolution of Creke abbey it came to the Crown, (which was before the general dissolution of religious houses,) in the 22d year of King Henry VII. who then gave the abbey, with all its possessions, to his mother, the Countess of Richmond, who in the following year granted the same to Christ college in Cambridge, then founded by her.

CALLLED anciently Ossuic, deriving its name from its site on a Wick, or turn of a stream, or rivulet, called Ouse, as most rivers were in Norfolk, &c. from whence the inhabitants were styled the Iceni.

It was a lordship belonging to the abbot of Ely, founded by St. Aubrey, who had one carucate of land, 4 borderers, and 3 socmen with 6 acres, and a carucate in demean, formerly 2 carucates amongst the men or tenants, but at the survey only half, and the other half might be recovered; 2 acres of meadow, pannage for 24 swine, valued in the whole at 20s. per ann. Rainald, son of Ivo, held it of the abbot, but before of the King.⁷

This was in the family of the Erthams of Ertham, by Norwich. In the 3d of Edward I. Ralph de Eartham claimed, as lord, the assize of bread and beer, &c. of his tenants here, and in the 10th of Edward I. it appears that William Sygar of Oxwyk had an interest herein, they agreeing, by a fine then levied, to present alternately; so that the lordship seems to consist of two parts or moieties.

Agatha Sygar of this town presented in 1318; and in 1315, Nicholas Sygar, and Ralph de Erleham were returned to be lords.

In the year 1389, Thomas Croft of this town granted to John de Burton, William Norbury, &c. the manor of Oxwyk, called Syger's, with the advowson of the church formerly Richard Syger's, and in 1390, John, son of Nicholas Payne of Helveton, released to John de Burton, his right in the said manor and advowson, and Henry Mau-pas presented to the church in 1398.

In or about the 20th of Richard II. William Laverok of Salle and Emme his wife, Bartholemew Pynkeney of Taterset, and Joan his wife, conveyed by fine 2 tofts, 60 acres of land, 4 of meadow, 4s. 8d. rent in this town, Patesley, &c. to Roger Raulin, from the heirs of Emma and Joan; and in the 4th of Henry VI. William Billingford, Esq. was lord, and presented in 1438, son of James, and grandson of Adam Billingford.

In the 15th of Edward IV. Geff. Rigby and Margaret his wife, conveyed it by fine to Henry Heydon, Esq. who presented in 1481; after this it came to the Townscnds, Sir Roger Townscnd, Knt. presenting in 1542, and was sold by Roger Townscnd, Esq. to Thomas Barsham, Esq. in the reign of Queen Elizabeth; Thomas Barsham presenting in 1563, and Robert Barsham in 1623.

In the year 1662, Samuel Smithe of Colkirke was lord and presented. On his death he left 4 daughters and coheirs, and in 1712, Tho. Bendishe, Esq. was lord.

This is now in the hands of the Rev. Mr. Barnwell of Mileham.

G O D W I C K .

So called from its site, by a good water or stream, (as Godeston, and Godestow,) was the lordship of Ralph de Tony, (of whom see in Westacre,) at the survey, held by 1 freeman in the reign of King Edward the Confessor, who had a carucate of land; 6 villains and 7 borderers belonged to it, with 9 acres of meadow, and 2 carucates, there was pannage for 200 swine; one socman had 4 acres of land, and was valued in Necton, (Ralph's capital manor,) it was 6 furlongs long and 4 broad, and paid 6*d.* ob. gelt; this land went with Necton, but did not lie in it, (nor was valued with it,) in the time of King Edward, nor of Harold, and Roger Bigot claims it of the gift of the King, and by the delivery of it.⁸

Ralph de Tony, on the foundation of the abbey of Westacre, gave this lordship to it with the patronage of that church; and in the 9th of Edward II. the prior was returned to be lord, and so it remained till the general dissolution of the monasteries in the reign of Henry VIII. who granted both the manor and patronage of the church to Sir Thomas le Strange of Hunstanton, December 4, in his 32d year, and his son Nicholas had livery of it at his father's death on January 16, Ao. 36 Henry VIII. being held by the 20th yart of a fee.

In the 3d of Elizabeth, Henry Cancellor was lord of it, with 12 messuages in this village, Titleshal, Wysenet and Patesley, also 3 tofts, 21 acres of meadow, 260 of pasture, 40 of wood, 100 of moor, 300 of furze and heath, with liberty of a fold in the aforesaid places, it being conveyed by fine to Robert Cancellor from Nicholas le Strange in the 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary; and in the 16th of Elizabeth, license was granted to Henry Cancellor to alien the manor and advowson to John Drury, Esq. called Norfolk Drury, (a younger son of John Drury of Rougham in Suffolk,) who married Elcanor, daughter of Thomas Sydney of Walsingham, by whom he had Robert Drury, Esq. of Docking, who died in 1624. The Drurys sold it to Sir Edward Coke, the judge, whose immediate heir, the Right Honourable the Earl of Leicester, died lord.

In this town is the old seat of Sir Edward Coke.

The temporalities of Westacre priory in 1428, were valued (in lands rent, a mill, &c.) at 3*l.* 1*s.* 11*d.* ob.; of Normansburgh priory at 3*s.*; Walsingham priory 2*s.* per ann.

The tenths were 24*s.*—Deduct 6*s.* 8*d.*—Remains 17*s.* 4*d.*

In a book called Norwich Domesday, wrote about the beginning of King Edward the First's time, this town is called Godwick, alias

There is nothing remaining of the old church, but part of the steeple.

GRESSENHALE

WAS in King Edward's time the lordship of Toke, a freeman, (a Saxon thane,) who had many lordships in this county: after him Fedric possessed it, but at the survey it was one of the lordships of William Earl Warren, who had 2 carucates and an half of land, 18 borderers, 10 villains, 4 servi, and 4 acres of meadow, 2 carucates in demean, and 2 amongst the tenants, pannage for 100 swine, a mill, and 18 soemen with all their customary dues, with one carucate and 3 borderers, with 4 acres of meadow: also 3 carucates, two mills, a beast for burden, and 10 cows, &c. 30 sheep, and as many goats, and Scarning was a beruite, or lordship, depending on this.⁹

The town seems to take its name as lying on watery meadows, by a river, probably called in ancient days the Ger, or Yar; Ing signifying meadows, and Hale, not a hall, but a moist place, as Hales-Worth, and Alesham; I find it wrote Garsignehael in a deed, sans date.

It was valued at the survey, together with its beruite Scerning, at 4*l.* and with that was 7 furlongs long, four broad, and paid 7*d.* ob. gelt, and Wimer held the whole.

William Earl Warren aforesaid, granted to Wimer, his dapifer, with the manors of Kempston, Dunham Magna, East Lexham, &c. inasmuch that it was accounted and called the honour of Gressenhale, and he, by the name of Wimerus Dapifer, and Gilla his wife, gave to the monks of Castleacre, the churches of the aforesaid towns, with the tithes of his demesans therein; and Roger his son gave them lands in Snetesham and Cougham: to this grant, Roland Lestrange, Walter his brother, Richard de St. Clere, Osmund, the Earl's steward, Humphrey de Danham, &c. were witnesses; also a croft in Kempston, to which Futcher de Gressenhale, Gilbert de St. Clere, and William de Salle were witnesses.¹

William, son of Roger, assumed the name of Gressenhale, and left several sons by Æliva his wife; Roger, his eldest, succeeded him, and left William de Gressenhale, his son and heir.

This William had an only daughter, Isabel, who married first Berenger de Cressi, and afterwards William de Huntingfield; ² and Osmond de Stutevill, her 3d husband, was lord of this town in her right.³

In the 17th of King John, he had a grant of the lands of William de Maundevill in this county, during pleasure, and was a younger son of Robert de Stutevill, by Erneburga, his wife, and grandson of Robert de Stutevile, who came into England with the Conqueror, and were both of them barons of this realm, had many lordships in Yorkshire, &c. and bore for their arms, barry of ten, argent and gules, over all a lion rampant, sable.⁴

Osmund died at Joppa in the Holy-land, and left by his wife 2 sons, Roger, and William the eldest, to whom this lordship was assigned; he confirmed the donations of his father, Osmund, and Isabel his mother, and of Wimer, Roger his son, and all his ancestors, to the aforesaid monks, in their advowsons, tithes, fisheries, mills, excepting to himself the advowson of the churches of St. Peter and St. Paul, of Mesenhams-Thorp, before the justices at Westminster, in the Quintodeens of St. Hillary, 41st of Henry III. Sir Henry de Bath, Mr. Simon de Wanton, Sir Robert de Shotindon, and Sir John de Cockfield, justices of the King's Bench, &c.

In the 13th of Henry III. he paid 40 marks for 23 knights fees, and in the 15th in consideration of two palfreys, and 20*s.* in silver obtained pardon for marrying Margaret, daughter and heir of Hugh de Say of Ricard's Castle in Hercfordshire, relict of Robert Mortimer, without license; in the 17th of the said King was one of the barons of the marches, and delivered up Osmond his son as an hostage for his fidelity, in the 26th year, gave a fine of 15 marks to be exempted from going into Gascoigne, and in the 43d of the said King died seized of many lordships in right of Margaret his wife.

He was succeeded by Robert de Stutevill, his son and heir, who standing firm to King Henry III. in his war with the barons, was taken by Henry de Montfort and imprisoned, and obliged to sell his manor of Withersfield in Suffolk, to Giles Argenton, one of their party, to redeem himself, which was restored to him (after the defeat of the barons) in the 59th year of King Henry.

It appears that William his father, had also married a 2nd wife, Ermetrude, widow of Stephen de Cressi, (who held lands in capite,) without the King's license, or that of Bertram de Bevill, the King's valet, to whom the marriage had been granted, &c.

Robert married Joan, daughter and heir of William Talbot of Gainesburgh, in Lincolnshire, and died seized of this town, held of the Earl Warren by 2 knights fees, in the first year of King Edward I. viz. a capital messuage, a water-mill, a wind-mill, 200 acres of pasture, a kar, &c. all valued at 19*l.* 3*s.* 4*d.* and was a great benefactor to the abbey of Wendling, leaving Margery his sister and heir,⁵ married to Richard Foliot, son of Jordon Foliot, (son of Jordan, by Beatrice his wife, daughter and coheir of Hugh Bardolph.)

This Sir Richard dying in the 6th of Edward I. left a son and heir, Jordan.

In the 8th of Edward I. he was lord of this town, with its members, and Thomas de Rotheland being one of his villains, he was found to have a right of taxing him, high or low, at his will, and the custom of marchet; and in the 14th of that King, he claimed free warren, the assise of bread and beer of his tenants, frank pledge, by view of the king's bailiff, a weekly market on Monday, and a fair on the vigil, the day and day after St. Michael.

In the 17th of the said reign, Richard Foliot conveyed by fine, to Jordan and Margery his wife, the manors of Fenwick and Norton in Yorkshire, and they conveyed to Richard those of Grimston and Welham in Nottinghamshire, for life, with an annuity of 60*l.* 4*s.* 1*d.* ob. payable at St. Michael's and at Easter.

In the 27th of Edward I. Jordan covenants with Edmund Foliot to find the said Edmund provision and cloathing, viz. one robe at Christmas with 2 supertunicks, well lined, and a saddle, (sellam,) agreeable to that of Jordan, and to maintain one esquire, and 3 grooms of the said Edmund, in provision, amongst those of Jordan, together with the palfrey, and sumpter-horse of Edmund, as the palfrey and sumpter-horse of Jordan, together with the Esquire of Edmund, like as the Esquire of Jordan, for the life of Edmund.

In the said year, Jordan, then a knight, died seized of the manors of Fenwick and Norton, &c. in Yorkshire, and of this, doing suit and service to Castleacre court, every three weeks.

There was then a park in this lordship, and a wood called Old Hall-Ker; William de Lynford held of it one messuage, and 40 acres of land, by the fourth part of a fee.

In the year after his death, Margery his widow was impleaded by the Earl Warren, to deliver to him Richard, her son and heir, by Jordan, who held this and other lordships of him, by homage, fealty, and the service of 9 knights fees and an half.

⁵ Dugdale says he had a son and heir, John, but it does not appear, ut supra.

She pleads that she only kept him to nurse, being young; and in the 29th of the said King, Ralph de Monthermer Earl of Gloucester, and Joan his wife, impleaded her on the same account, which shows the hardships that attended families on these occasions, when she replied that she had delivered him into court, and the court committed him to Sir Roger Bidney, Knt. who redelivered him to his mother, during the pleasure of the court.

She held, for life, Grimston in Nottinghamshire, with Fenwick, Mosly, &c. in Yorkshire, and died in the 3d year of Edward III. and was buried before the great altar in the presbytery of Wendling abbey, on the north side, being styled advocate or patroness thereof.

Sir Richard Foliot, son of Sir Jordan, married Cecilia, she was sister and coheir with Alice, relict of Gilbert de Luda of Yorkshire, but her surname does not appear; and dying without issue in the 4th of Edward III. his two sisters, Margery, married to Sir Hugh de Hastings, and Margaret to Sir John Camois, were his heirs. The Foliots bore, gules, a bend, argent.

In the 4th of Edward III. Sir John de Camois and Margaret his wife released to Sir Hugh Hastings and his wife, this lordship, with all their right, and that of Elsing with the chapel of Roughholm, and the advowson of Wendling abbey. Sir Hugh was son of Sir John de Hastings, Lord Abergavenny, by Isabel his 2d lady, daughter of Hugh le Despeneer Earl of Winchester.

He built the church of Elsing, and was there buried in 1347, as was his lady in 1349; he bore or, a maunch, gules.

Sir Hugh Hastings, his son, was (as I take it) that Sir Hugh, who was summoned to parliament, as a baron, in the 16th of Edward III. and in his 20th year styled the king's cousin, constituted his lieutenant in Flanders, served in the wars both in France and Spain.

He married Anne, daughter of Sir Adam Everingham, and died on Kalkwell-Hill, in 1369, being buried in the Friars Church at Doncaster, in Yorkshire. In the Institution Books of Norwich, the Lady Margery, wife of Sir Hugh Hastings, presented to the church of Elsing in 1361.

Sir Hugh Hastings was his son and heir, who married Anne, daughter of Edward Lord Spencer, and died in Spain on his pilgrimage to Jerusalem in 1370, and his Lady afterwards married Lord Morley.

Sir Hugh Hastings, the fourth of that name, was his son and heir, and married a daughter of Sir William Blount; he died at Calais (on the marriage of King Richard II. to Isabel, daughter of the King of France) in 1395, without issue, and his brother Edward, aged 14, then the King's ward, succeeded him.

He was afterwards a knight, and styled himself Lord Hastings and Stutvill, and engaged with Reginald Lord Grey of Ruthyn, for the right of the lands, arms, and honours of the Hastings Earls of Pembroke, in a long suit, which is said to have so much reduced him (though possessed of great estates) that he died at London in the Flect.

Dugdale says he was condemned in 970*l.* &c. costs on this suit, and imprisoned on that account 16 years,⁶ but mentions not the time of his death; it was before the year 1441, in which year John Windham, Esq. presented to the church of Brisley, in right of Margery, late wife of Edward Lord Hastings, and it appears that in 1435, September 12, the said lord presented to that church.⁷ He is said to have married Muriel, but rather Margery aforesaid, daughter of Sir John Denham, Knt. by whom he had Sir John Hastings, who, with his Lady Anne, daughter of John Lord Morley, were buried in the church of Elsing; their monument is dated 1471.

Sir Hugh was their son and heir, who presented to this church as lord and patron, in 1485, and by Anne, daughter of Sir William Gascoigne, had several children :

John, Sir George Hastings, and Sir Brian Hastings, and 6 daughters; the eldest married Sir Ralph Eure, Knt.; 2d, Elizabeth, Sir Ralph Salvion; 3d, Isabel, Sir John Hotham; 4th, ———, married ——— Grisacre; 5th, Anne, ——— Wastlyn of Lincolnshire; and the 6th, Catherine, John Melton, Knt.

By the eschaet rolls it appears that Sir Hugh died in the 4th of Henry VII. and John was then found to be his son and heir, and being a knight, presented to the church of Gressenhale in 1492, and 1503, and died in the 20th of Henry VII. without issue, and was found to hold this lordship and that of Elsing, &c. of the dutchy of Lancaster.

George Hastings, Esq. his brother, was his heir, and presented to this church in 1504: he married Anne, daughter and heir of Alexander Brabazon; and by an inquisition taken October 8, in the 3d of Henry VIII. at East Derham, was found to die on the 11th of June last past, and Hugh, (brother and heir of John, son of Sir George,) was his son and heir.

John, the eldest son of Sir George, married Catherine, daughter and one of the heirs of Robert le Strange, Esq. and she presented to the church of Gressenhale in 1519, then widow of John Hastings, Esq. holding this lordship, as it seems in dower.

Hugh Hastings presented to the church of Brisley in 1537, and in 1540 to this church, then a Knt. and died before the 13th of November, 1556, when Catherine Hastings, widow of Sir Hugh, presented to the church of Stanfield, as appears from the institution books.

John Hastings, Esq. was son and heir of Sir Hugh, and dying without issue in the 35th of Henry VIII. left two sisters and coheirs; Anne, the eldest, married to William Brozue, Esq. 2d son to Sir Anthony Brown, master of the horse to King Henry VIII. and Knight of the Garter, who had with her the lordships of Elsing and Hessenham; and Elizabeth married to Hamon le Strange, Esq. son and heir to Sir Nicholas of Hunstanton, who had this lordship, &c: assigned to him, and was found to die seized of it in the 22d of Elizabeth, October 7, Thomas being his son and heir.

In this honourable family (of which a particular account is given in Hunstanton) it remained, that truly courteous and hospitable baronet Sir Henry L'Estrange dying lord.

By a pleading in the 22d of Elizabeth, it appears that there were two Sokens, the North and South; and the custom was, that an heir or tenant to any copyhold land, in one alone of these paid, on admittance, 5s. fine only; if in both, then 10s. and if a copyholder did not sell all his land, then the fine to be 2s. per acre, and that they might fell their timber.

HEREFORD MANOR

Was a part of the capital manor belonging to a branch of the family of de Gressenhale, descended from Wimerus Dopifer.

William, son of Roger de Gressenhale, held lands here in the 6th of Richard I. and in the 34th of Henry III. William de Stutevil conveyed by fine, 30 acres of land here to Adam, son of Peter de Gressenhale.⁸ In 1277, Thomas de Hereford was lord of this manor.

Henry, son of Adam de Gressenhale, rector of the church of Prating in Essex, remitted to Warine de Hereford and his heirs, all his right in certain tenements in Gressenhale, Skerning, Wendling, and Bittering, with the homages, reliefs, wards, eschaets, rents and services of free-men and villains.

This grant was enrolled before the itinerant justices, Solomon de Roffa and his associates, at Chelmsford in Essex, in Michaelmas term, 14th of Edward I.

In the 3d of Henry IV. Alan Rouse and Joan his wife granted by fine to William Clerk the said lordship, who soon after conveyed it to John de Hoo, in the said reign.

John Ferrour of Gressinghale, senior, by his will, dated December 15, 1483, bequeaths his body to be buried in the churchyard of St. Mary of Gressinghale, and was father of John Ferrour of Wendling, who died before him; his will being dated May 2, in the aforesaid year, wherein he requires to be buried in the chapel of St. Thomas of Gressinghale, mentions Joan his mother, and Christian his wife, to whom he gives for life, this manor in Gressinghale, Scarning and Wendling, on condition she lives unmarried, after to John his son.⁹

He also wills that the villages of Stanfield, Brisley, Hornymgtoft, and Bilney, have amongst them 16 cows to support, and for ever exonerate by their profits, as far as they can, 60s. the lete fee of the North Soken, annually paid to the lord of the manor of Gressinghale, and his heirs, by his tenants in the aforesaid villages, or elsewhere.

John Ferrours occurs lord in the 12th of Elizabeth; and in 1637, Robert Halcot, who in the said year paid a quitrent of 15s. per ann. for it, to the lord of Gressenhale.

John L'Estrange held his first court in May, 1682; William Tinker, Gent. his in October, 1701; William Prithero, Gent. in March, 1708, and William his son, rector of East Barsham, is the present lord.

ST. NICHOLAS'S CHAPEL

Was founded in a place called Rougholm in Gressinghale, by William de Stutevil, lord of the town, in the reign of Henry III. In his 34th year a fine was levied between William de Ling, chaplain of it, (as there was a little before between Adam de Skypedam, a former chaplain) and William de Stutevill aforesaid, who granted the rent of four marks per ann. and 7 acres of land here, in Skerning and Bradenham, to the chaplain and his successours, in free alms, to sustain a chaplain therein to pray for his soul, his ancestors, and his heirs, to be presented by him and his heirs, the four marks to be received from his tenants; and if the chaplain should be unfit to celebrate, or the chapel vacant for 40 days, the diocesan was then to present another.

⁹ Regist. Caston. Norw. fol. 185.

Thomas Brasingham was custos of this free chapel, in 1390.

In 1505, James Kesgate was capellane of the college of St. Nicholas the Bishop in Rowholm, and was buried in Gressenhale church; on its dissolution John Strange held it.

It was dissolved by King Edward VI. who granted it July 23, in his 4th year, to Sir Nicholas L'Strange, Knt. with all its messuages and lands here, in East Bradenham, Scarning, Fransham Magna, Dunham Magna, How, Brisley, Stanfyld, North Elmham, and Wendlyng; and the said Sir Nicholas had license to alienate the manor of Rowholm, with its appertences, to William Warner and his heirs, in the first and 2d of Philip and Mary.

In the 10th of Elizabeth, Laurence le Strange, Esq. held it with 6 messuages, a water-mill, and a fold here and in Hoo, of the Queen, in capite; the site of it was by Gressinghale mill, and valued at 12*l.* and 5*d. per ann.*

It was a long narrow building, with a north and south transept, and a chancel, which, with the north transept, is in ruins, the rest still standing, and now an house, and a little way south of it, where the brethren lived, there stood a house, now an osier ground.

Here is an annual fair kept on St. Nicholas the Bishop's day, December 6.

Masters of the Chapel of St. Nicholas.

William Stather, clerk, was master of this chapel, and John Williamson, succeeded him, and was master uo. 10 Henry VII.

William Stylynton, master, 20 Henry VII.

The common seal of this house or college was the effigies of St. Nicholas, in his pontificals.

John Strange, the last incumbent, had a pension of 4*l.* 16*s. per ann.* paid him from the Crown, and was living in 1503.

The CHURCH of Gressenhale is a large pile, built in a cathedral manner, with a north and south transept, and a tower in the middle, as you enter the chancel, which tower decaying, license was granted January 28, 1698, to take down the spire on the top of it.

This tower had been repaired in 1491, by John Ferour and Joan his wife; and on the battlements was this inscription;

Orate p. a'v'ab; Johan. Ferour, et Johane ux'is sue, ex quor. sumptibus reparatum fuit hoc campanile. anno mill'mo quadringent. nona-gesimo primo, quor. a'v'ab; p'pitietur Deus, Amen.

The north transept is called Ferour's chantry or chapel, and that on the south Hasting's chapel, both covered with lead, as the nave, the north and south isles with a south porch are, and the chancel; and in the tower are 5 bells.

The chancel is very neat, being beautified at the cost of the late rector, Mr. Hugh Hare, and is seated round, the communion table railed in, and has a covering of red silk, with a deep silver lace, and a rich piece of gold brocade, with a large cross of silk worked thereon, &c. being the gift of his wife.

In the wall of the chancel, by the table, is a brass plate, with a chevron between three estoils or escallops,

A stone,

In memory of Rachel, daughter of Richard Vesey, of Readwell in Suffolk, Esq; and wife of Edward Davy of this town, who died Sep. 7, 1725.

One for

Edward Davy, late of Stanfield, Norfolk, and Jane his wife, he died October 7, 1715, she in April, 1708.

On the gallery at the west end of the church,

Robert Halcot, the owner of Harephares, gave this gallery, 1635.

The church is dedicated to the assumption of the Blessed Virgin, and was anciently valued at 18 marks.

The present valor of this rectory is 15*l.* 12*s.* 5*d.* ob.

William Earl Warren, before the year 1148, confirmed to the monks of Castleacre, the grant of Wimer Dapifer's tithe of his demean, his wood and mill here. The said monks had in this town, Welingham and Elsing, 2 parts of the tithes of the demean of Robert de Stutwill, and two parts of all the tithes of William de Katling, of Ralph Crow, of Henry, son of Isabel and Ralph de Hingresho, and of a tenement, late Peter Cupa's; and they had 2 portions of tithe, one of 24*s.* per ann. another of 12*s.*

The portion of Richard, rector of Dudlyngton, was 4 marks per ann.

Temporalities in 1428, of Castleacre, 2*s.* 8*d.*; of Wendling abbey, 4*s.* 1*d.*; of Petrison priory, 18*d.* per ann.

Katherinc de Bec gave to Walsingham priory land by Gressinghale park-gate.

In the church were the guilds of St. Thomas the Martyr, of the Holy Trinity, Corpus Christi, and of the Holy Ghost; the lights of our Lady, of the Holy Sepulchre, and of St. Thomas's Tabernacle.

John Ferrour abovementioned was steward of this manor, and gave by will, in 1483, to this township, a messuage called Noppys, with 20 acres of land, to keep his anniversary, and to pay 20s. (as it is said) per ann. to the lord of Gressinghale to pay the lete.

On the gravestone of Sir John Hastings abovementioned, in the chapel of Hastings, there was, I find, these following verses which began the epitaph;

*Hic stratus, si quo sit natus sanguine, quæris ;
A proavo genitam noscas cui nupserat heres

HORNINGTOFT.

WE meet in many counties with towns taking their names from Horn, as Hornby, Horncastle, Horn-Church, Hornsey, (all seated by some river or stream,) from their bending and winding: thus the Tyber is called by Virgil Corniger; the ancient Britons gave the name of Corn to some rivers, hence the Cornavij.

Godric held this lordship under the Conqueror, or farmed it of him at the time of the survey. Aluric, a freeman, possessed it in King Edward's time, when there belonged to it 3 carucates of land, 7 villains, 3 borderers, 2 servi, and 4 acres of meadow; there were also 2 carucates in demean, and one carucate of the tenants, paunage for 500 hogs, and half a fishery, &c. 160 sheep and 20 goats, and 9 socmen and 2 borderers held a carucate of land, and half an acre of meadow, &c. Stigand had the soc of these 9 men in the time of King Edward, when they held 2 carucates, and Ralph Earl of Norfolk seized on it, and on his forfeiture, by rebellion, it came to the Crown, and Godric held it of the King.

All Horningtoft (including Kypton) was 8 furlongs long, and 5 broad, and paid 4*d.* gelt.¹

Soon after the abovementioned survey, the Conqueror granted it to Alan Earl of Richmond, in England, and of Britany in France, who married Constance, one of the daughters of William the Conqueror.

Richard de Geel, with Andrew and Henry his brothers, convey by fine to Hamo Buhard or Burt, 40 acres of land in this town and Whis-syngsete, and Alice their mother resigned her dower therein, in the 10th of Richard I.

By a fine levied in the 5th of King John, Hamo, son of Burt, released to John de Grey Bishop of Norwich, his right of commonage in the town of Elmham and Brisley, as the Bishop did his right in this town; and Hamo had power to inclose the common here, paying to that Bishop and his successours, 2*s.* per ann.

Sir Hamo de Burt released by his deed, sans date, to Robert le Henty of Norton, (Pudding Norton), and to Thomas and John, sons of Robert, all his right in certain lands: witnesses, Hamon de Pattesle, John Buzuu, John de Monpinzuum, William de Lechesham, &c. and one of the same name was lord in the 43d of Henry III. and had two sons, Ralph Burt, his eldest son, and Thomas; which Ralph granted by fine to Thomas his brother, in the 54th of that King, this manor and advowson, who covenanted to pay to Ralph for the same an annuity of 20s. for life.

Sir Thomas Burt and Peter de Buzuu had, about this time, a dispute concerning the common between the townships of Horningtoft and Wyssingsete, which was referred to the arbitration of their neighbours; and in the 15th of Edward I. Sir Thomas claimed the assise, free warren, and view of frank pledge, with the view of the King's bailiff in this town and in Kypton.

About the same time Sir Robert de Tateshale held one knight's fee in this town, Wyssesete, and Kypton, valued at 40*l.* per ann. and paid 10s. per ann. ward to Richmond Castle.²

In the 18th of Edward I. Sir Thomas de Burt granted this lordship by fine to *Nicholas de Castello*³ and Cecilia his wife, with the advowson of the church; and the said Nicholas was found in the 26th of the said King, to hold half a fee here of Sir Robert de Tateshale; and Nicholas aforesaid and Cecilia his wife, by a fine levied in the 31st of the same reign, conveyed it to Greg de Castello, their son, on his granting to them an annuity for life, of 40*l.* sterling; and he appears to be lord in the 9th of Edward II.

Of this family probably was Bartholomew de Castello, lord of the manor of Throgton, alias Castell's in Thorp Morieux in Suffolk, in the 17th of Edward I. who, by Alienora his wife, had John his son and heir, living in the 25th of Edward III. and paid 50s. for half a fee held there of the Earl of Oxford, who held of the Earl of Clare.

In the year 1349, on the 8th of May, a rector was instituted on the presentation of Sir Nicholas de Castello, Knt.; and on the 24th of June, another, on the presentation of Hugh de Castello, lord of this village; and in 1361 the lady of Sir Adam de Clifton presented, as guardian to the heir of Hugh de Castello; but in 1370, Nicholas de Castello was lord, and presented; and Nicholas was lord in the 3d of Henry IV. and held half a fee here and in Wesenhams.

The jury, on the death of John de Beaufort Duke of Bedford, lord of the honour of Richmond, in the 14th of Henry VI. present that Nicholas de Castello held 2 knights fees of the said honour; and Humphrey Castell, Esq. appears to be lord in 1461, and then dated his will, July 24, at Raveningham, wherein he mentions Margaret his wife, and gives this lordship, with those of Raveningham and Bedingham, to Leonard his son.

The will of John Castell of Raveningham, Esq. is dated April 10, 1551, and proved February 24, in the said year; Roger, his eldest son, was lord after him, and on his death, about the 20th of Elizabeth, was succeeded by his brother, John Castell, Esq.

² Regist. Honor. Richm. p. 46. Clavering hundred.

³ Of this family see in Raveningham,

In 1616 this lordship paid an annual rent of 5s. to the lord of Swaffham, as Richmond fee.

Mary Castle held it in 1659, and was charged to the militia rate, at 100*l.* per ann.

Augustin Castell of Raveningham, Esq. sold it to Sir Richard Berney, of Reedham, Bart. in which family it remains, Sir Hanson Berney, Bart. being the present lord.

The tenths were 2*l.* 14s. 0*d.* Deducted 4s.

King Henry VIII. in his 38th year, grants to Richard Taverner lands here, in the tenure of Nicholas Mynne and John Dean, November 3.

The CHURCH is a rectory, dedicated to St. Edmund the King and Martyr; the ancient valor was 13 marks, and paid Peter-pence 7*d.* ob.

The prior of Castleacre had a pension or portion of tithe of one mark per ann. The present valor is 6*l.* 17s. 7*d.* and is discharged of tenths, &c.

The church and chancel are covered with lead, and has a square tower with four bells.

On a gravestone with a brass plate in the church,

Orate p. a'i'a. Eliz. Oldman nup. ux'is Henrici Oldman, q'i. obijt, iii die Febr. Ao. Dni. m. v. xxxii. et p. quib; tenetr.

On the fount are the arms of Castell, argent, three castles, triple towered, gules, also a fess between two chevrons.

K E M P S T O N .

FOUR socmen held in King Edward's reign, under Archbishop Stigand, a carucate of land, but at the survey William Earl Warren was lord: there were also 4 villains, one servus, and an acre of meadow, in Stigand's time, 3 carucates, afterwards 2 and an half, paunage for 10 swine, and valued at 20s. *per ann.*⁴

This lordship was given soon after the survey to the priory of Castleacre,⁵ by Wimer, dapifer, or steward to the Earl Warren, and lord of Gressenhale, and confirmed by his sons, Roger and William, who was also dapiferi to the said Earls Warren.

In the 34th of Henry II. by a fine levied at Teford, (Thetford) on Monday next after the nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Maud wife of Ubbe, conveyed to the prior of Acre, 60 acres of land in this town, before, John Bishop of Norwich, Gilbert Bishop of Rochester, Mr. Osbert de Cam, the King's justices.

The prior was found to hold this manor about the 20th of Henry III. of the lord of Gressenhale, by the fourth part of a fee in pure alms; and that king, in his 40th year, granted to the prior and convent, free warren in his demeans in Kempston, and Herinshagh, on the forfeiture of 10*l.* for any one to pursue the game therein: witnesses, Walter Bishop of Norwich, Guy de Lezinian, the King's brother, William de Grey, Ralph de Bagpuz, Peter Excerard, Bartholomew le Bigot, William de St. Ermin, William Gernun, Philip de Bukeland, &c. dated at Walsingham, March 15.

In the said reign, John, capellan, de Kempston, quitclaimed to the aforesaid priory, four acres in Tivedwode, and the title of 2 acres of Formere, by deed sans date.

The prior, in the 18th of Edward I. impleaded John de Arsycke, lord of Dunham Magna, for taking 16 score of sheep on Dunham moor, where the prior had right of common, as belonging to his teneement in that town; the jury find that the prior and his predecessors had right of common there, and because 80 of the aforesaid sheep had passed the bounds where they ought to feed, therefore John had impounded; all the judgment of the court was that John should have return of the 80 sheep, which had done damage, until satisfaction, and the prior to have the rest delivered.

Both the prior and John were in the mercy of the court, and the prior recovered damage for the 12 score sheep.

The temporalities of the priory in 1428, were valued at 8*l.* 9*s.*

At the Dissolution, Thomas, prior of Castleacre, granted this lordship, with those of Heringsawe and Dykewood, by fine, to King Henry VIII. in his 29th year, together with the rectory appropriated to his priory; and on December 22, in the said year, the King conveyed them both to Thomas Duke of Norfolk, with the advowson of the vicarage; and in the 35th of that King, the Duke had license to grant them to Roger Townsend, and Thomas Townsend had license to alien them to Osbert Mundeford in the 5th of Edward VI.

It was in the Townsend family in the 4th of Elizabeth: and in or about the 15th of that Queen, Thomas Townsend had livery of this manor, with that of Testerton, and the advowsons.

In the 38th of the said reign, Thomas Townsend, Gent. aliened it to Edward Coke, Esq. then attorney-general, after a knight and a judge, and his immediate heir and descendant, the Right Honourable the Earl of Leicester, in 1759, died lord and patron.

The tenths of this village were 52*s.* Deducted 16*s.* 8*d.*

The temporalities of Wendling abbey were 2*s.* 5*d.* 0*b.*

THE CHURCH is a rectory, valued at 6 marks, and together with the vicarage paid Peter-pence, 2*d.* 0*b.*

William Earl Warren the third confirmed this grant of the church of Chemeston, with the appertinances, which Wimer Dapifer had formerly given to the priory of Castleacre, and Roger Buzun quit-claimed to the advowson.

Eborard Bishop of Norwich confirmed the appropriation of it to the priory, after the death of John the rector, in the time of Henry I.

King John, by his charter, and Hubert Archbishop of Canterbury are also said to have confirmed it; but it appears from the register of Castleacre, that William de Alezon was presented as rector, by the prior, in 1226.

The first vicar that I have met with was Walter de Castleacre, presented by the prior, and admitted by Walter de Suffield Bishop of Norwich, which was on the 11th of the calends of March, in his 2d year, 1246; at which time the endowment of the vicarage was settled, which was to consist in all the altarage, a manse, in all the free land of the said church, in a tenement which Sewell and Agnes held of the said land, in tithes of peas and beans, saving to the prior the residue of the great tithes, the vicar to be charged to all the dues of the Bishop and archdeacon; dated at Elmham as above: witnesses, Mr. William de Suffield, Mr. Adam de Bromholm, &c.⁶

In 1604, Sir Edward Coke had a grant of this rectory impropriate.

The present valor of the vicarage is 4*l.* 18*s.* 4*d.* and is discharged of first fruits, &c.

K Y P T O N.

THIS was one of the King's lordships at the survey, and farmed or held of him by Godric, and before that by Aturic and Alfer; there belonged to it 3 carucates of land, 2 borderers, and 3 acres of meadow, and 2 carucates in demean, but at the survey none, but four might be recovered; and 9 socinen had half a carucate of land, an acre of meadow; and the whole, with Horningtoft, was valued at the survey, at 7*l.* of the 9 soemen Stigand had the soc in King Edward's time, and Ralph (Earl of Norfolk) had invaded or seized on it, before he forfeited it by his rebellion, and upon that forfeiture, Godric holds it of the King.

It was measured with Horningtoft, and they both were 8 furlongs long, and 5 broad, and paid 4*d.* gelt.⁷

This lordship was granted soon after the survey to Alan Earl of Richmond, and in the 8th year of Edward I. Sir Robert de Tateshale was found to hold one knight's fee here, in Horningtoft and Wyssynset of the honour of Richmond, paying 10s. ward to the castle, yearly, and these lordships were then valued by an extent, at 40*l.* per ann.

Thomas Burt claimed free warren in his demeans here, and in Horningtoft, in the 15th of Edward I. and held it of the Tateshales.

After this, in the 31st of that King, Gregory de Castello, and Hugh de Sprouston, held the same, and in the 41st of Henry VI. John Duke of Bedford was found to die seized of it, held of him by Thomas Lucas, and belonging to the manor of Swaffham, being parcel of Richmond honour.

In the 35th of the said King, Tho. Lucas held it of Edmund Earl of Richmond.

In the 36th of Henry VIII. the King granted license to Mary Duchess of Richmond and Somerset, to alien this manor to Thomas Broke and John Williams; and in the said year, Oct. 28, the King granted to Tho. Wriothesley and Jane his wife, a manor and messuages, lands and a fen, in the tenure of Sir Roger Townsend, lately belonging to Westacre priory.

Roger Townsend, son and heir of Sir Roger, was possessed of it in the 7th of Elizabeth, in which family it still remains; a moiety (as I take it) of the old Richmond fee.

The town has been quite demolished, many years: it stood probably near to the place called Kypton-Ash, where there is kept a great sheep fair, on the ————— yearly, and is now in the parish of Wesenhams.

Godfrey de Lisewis (of whom see in Rainham) gave by deed, sans date 12 acres of land lying at Ciptune Blachehoe; and by another deed with the consent of Maud his wife, and William his son and heir 24 acres lying on the heath of Kypton Blakehoe.⁵

In the 17th of Edward II. Henry son of Reginald de Sprouston, and Margaret his wife, granted by fine to Thomas, son of Thomas de Stirton, the manor of Kypton, Thomas paying to Henry an annuity of 20*l.* per ann.

John Wharles or Quarles, of Holkham, and Margaret his wife, conveyed, in the 7th of Henry IV. to John Felbrigg and ——— Gurney, 100 acres of land, 3 of meadow, and 30 of pasture in Wesenhams Rainham, and the moiety of the manor of Kypton; and Thomas Lucas of Holkham, Esq. by his will dated February 25, 1446, give, to Etheldreda his wife, his manor of Kypton, lying in Wesenhams also, and Rainham, until Elizabeth his daughter was of age, then the said daughter to have one half thereof, and Etheldreda the other during her life, remainder to Elizabeth and her heirs lawfully begotten, remainder to Stephen Lucas his brother, remainder to the right heirs of the testator;⁹ proved April 20, 1447, being a moiety of the aforesaid Richmond fee. Thomas Lucas inherited it as heir to the Neals: see in Holkham.

After this it came to the Southwells, and Sir Robert Southwell died seized of it in the 6th of Henry VIII. and in the 17th of that King, Richard Southwell, Esq. son and heir of Francis, brother to Sir Robert, had livery of it. In a computus of John Forbie, steward to Sir Richard Southwell, in the 3d of Elizabeth, it appears, that the rent of assize of the free and bond tenants was 57*s.* 9*d.* ob.; rent of capons, 3s.; farm of the demesns 9*l.* 11*s.* 6*d.*; for 830 sheep, at 30*s.* per hundred, 12*l.* 9*s.* 9*d.*; perquisites of court 12*d.*; rents paid to the bailiff of the honour of Richmond 5*s.* per ann.;¹ to the bailiff of the Duke of Norfolk's manor of Castlacre priory 21*d.* ob.; to the rector of South Reynham, late belonging to the priory of Blackborough 6*d.* per ann.; to the bailiff of the manor of Scales in South Reynham 12*d.* and Mdm. an arrear of rent of 15 years, from the executors of Sir Roger Townsend, 15*s.* 8*d.*

In the 40th of Elizabeth, it belonged to Edward Coke, Esq. afterwards lord chief justice: this seems to be a part of the old Richmond fee, and is still in the family, the Right Honourable the Earl of Leicester holding it at his death in 1759. A rent of 5*s.* per ann. is paid to the manor of Swaffham.
